Michelle Alley & Lipstick N Stilletos Top Cowboy Christmas, Win Ponoka & West Jordan

By Tanya Randall

Michelle Alley and her homegrown star Lipstick N Stilletos, owned by her good friend Heather Moeller, collected $23,615 over the Fourth of July run of rodeos, known as Cowboy Christmas.

Alley and Stilleto dominated a rain-soaked, $60,000-added Ponoka Stampede in Alberta to win $20,799 and finished up their week with a $2,816 victory at the Western Stampede in West Jordan, Utah.

Ponoka marks Alley's first trip north of the border.

"I had never even been into Canada before," she said. "I was a rookie. Now my brother has been up there a lot over the years, and he's always tried to get me to go. Because it does rain a lot and is cooler, I've been a wimp and haven't. But you'll probably see me going up there from now on."

Knowing that the leading daughter of RR Mistakelly, out of her Tres Seis mare Seis Caress, likes big, outdoor runs, Alley took a chance on Ponoka.

"We know she loves huge open pens," she said. "You're not going to get her to run by one, so I thought Ponoka was a safe bet."

When Alley arrived at Ponoka after the short round at the Reno Rodeo, her biggest concern was being able to clock on the wet ground against the competitors that ran earlier in the rodeo on dry ground.

THE RUNDOWN w/Michelle Alley

Lipstick N Stilletos, 2020 Bay Mare, 16.2h

BIT: Short shank mullen with a loose leather curb for Ponoka and a Flaharty rebar O-ring for West Jordan

SADDLE: Seven Saddle

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: ACE Tack on all four

SHOEING: SafeGrip Steel Rims on front, barefoot behind

FEED: Nutrena Triumph at home, Pro Force Fuel when hauling for extra calories

HAY: Alfalfa and coastal; pasture 24/7.

SUPPLEMENTS: Simply Equine Structural Boost and respiratory support, Succeed Equine daily, Equine HempFlavin, and Zesterra when on the road.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Flair Equine Nasal Strips; BEMER, chiropractic care from Kim Gillespie; nebulized pre-run with Silver Horse Care; pack feet with Magic Cushion Xtreme or Rebound especially if on a lot of hard ground, standing bandages overnight before runs; Durasole, especially after runs at Ponoka.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Rest between runs

SPONSORS: Nutrena Feed, Succeed Equine, Bill Fick Ford, RenoV6 Amnion-Solutions, Flair Equine Nasal Strips, Simply Equine & K9, Kim Gillespie-KG Equine, D Bar D Equine Dentistry, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, Silver Horse Care, Equine Health Solutions, Lone Star Equine Sports Medicine, ACE Tack and Tee's, Performance Stall Mats, HorseWell Massage Tool, Seven Saddles, SafeGrip Horseshoes, Durasole.

"It was like soup when the men were doing their timed events," Alley said. "Up there the mud is not slick. It was just so soupy. I'm not afraid of her slipping. She's too athletic and she'll take care of herself. I'm not even that concerned with an injury. I was just unsure if a person could clock fast enough to get into the Top 12 when all the other girls ran on dry ground."

Alley and Stilleto ended up second with a 17.58 in the first round to advance to the Finals.

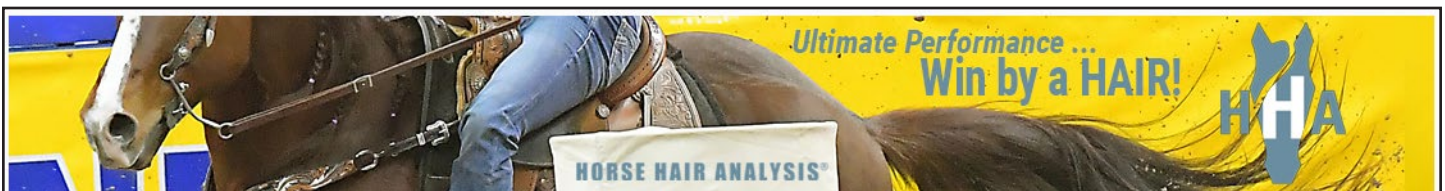

"Hat's off to Ponoka," she said. "The sun was shining that first day and it somewhat dried out, but then it got really sticky and deep. It was what it was. I knew I had to full-send her and just give it a shot. A bunch of us were talking and thought an .8 or a .9 might be doable if things went right. I did not expect to clock a .5. She just went above and beyond."

In the Round of 12, Alley and Stilleto were second out since they ran fastest to slowest qualifiers, and they missed the heaviest rain. They set the pace early with a 17.27 that won the rain hampered round by more than a half-second.

"After the drag halfway through is when it started to rain," she said, giving a big hats off to all those who ran after her in the down-pour.

The top four on a two-run aggregate advanced the Showdown Round, which was run slowest to fastest, leaving Alley and Stilleto very last on the muddy ground. Only one of the three ladies ahead of her had made a clean run, so she used Stilleto's speed to her advantage and made "wide for us" turns on all three barrels to clock a victorious 18.08.

For Ponoka, Alley had switched Stilleto's bit from her regular Flaharty rebar-mouth O-ring to a short shank mullen mouth lifter.

"I don't even know who makes it," said Alley of the mullen lifter. "It might be an L&W. I've had it for years. I actually won reserve at the (OKC) Rookie Futurity in it. I don't even remember why I put it on her there. I have ridden her in it a couple of times, but I chose to do that to keep her stood up a bit. She likes to really drop on the front on the backside (of the turns) in the O-ring."

Unfortunately, the bit switch proved to be costly at her next two rodeos: Cody, Wyoming, the second-richest rodeo stateside, and Oakley, Utah.

"It didn't really work at Cody and Oakley," she explained. "It wasn't bad at Cody. We tipped the second barrel. Then we obliterated the first barrel at Oakley."

When she walked up to replace a turn out at West Jordan, Utah, she switched back to the O-ring.

"No more mullen," she said. "She's too stiff in it already with just five runs. So, I went back to the O-ring, and I had my horse back again."

Alley and Stilleto smoked a run in West Jordan, winning by just over 3/10ths of a second with the only 16 second run of the rodeo.

Alley will run at Sheridan, Wyoming, before heading to the Calgary Stampede for the final set of pool competition. After Calgary, she's opting for fresh fruit and powdered sugar at Rodeo Salinas in California rather than the beaches of Cheyenne for the Daddy of 'Em All before returning to Utah for Spanish Fork and Salt Lake City.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

After Michelle Alley won the Showdown Round to claim the Ponoka Stampede Championship, she was immediately whisked away for the awards presentation and interview. Her great mare Lipstick N Stilletos was left in the care of a stranger.

During Alley's interview the cameras would switch from her to Stilletos, who was being walked and doted on by her unknown handler.

"It reminded me of the big Thoroughbred races, like the Kentucky Derby, where they show the horses as they're hand-walking them out," Alley said after watching the replay.

Once she got back to her horse, she thanked the man who looked after her.

"I thanked that guy as I grabbed her, but I wish I knew who he was," she said. "I really want to send him a bigger thank you because I didn't see what he was doing with her during my interview. Seeing that he was so calm with her and petting on her, it just made my heart happy how kind he was to her."

Anneliese McCurry & Blazin Summer Shandy Sizzle at St Paul

By Tanya Randall

Second-year WPRA member Anneliese McCurry and Blazin Summer Shandy conquered the tricky setup at Oregon's St. Paul Rodeo, the richest rodeo over the Fourth of July in the United States. McCurry and Shandy's 17.16 claimed $13,459 of the total purse, of which $50,590 was added.

"My hauling partner and I actually decided to turn out of the rodeo that we were up in on the morning of the Fourth of July so we could get our horses in that arena," McCurry, 20, explained.

St. Paul's arena is wide open and encircled by a ring of planted Christmas trees. Adding to the challenge is a dark, narrow tunnel under the grandstands that serves as an alley.

"I was super glad that we did," McCurry continued, "So I could run her in and out of the tunnel and get her used to that environment. I honestly don't know if I've ever run in a pen that wide open where there are no walls or anything to stop you on the backside of a turn."

McCurry knew when Shandy nailed her first barrel that they were going to be fast.

"I just kept going and rode her through it," she said. "When we were running home, I knew it was going to be fast. It was super exciting!"

McCurry was the second richest barrel racer over the Fourth of July run with total earnings of $14,106. She started off the holiday with a fifth-place finish at Sedro-Woolley, Washington, aboard her newest ride SBC Eddie Set Go, a 7-year-old Eddie Stinson, Burrs First Down mare.

"That was our second pro rodeo together," she said. "That was super exciting."

Her next run was aboard Shandy at Toppenish, Washington, where they tipped a barrel before heading to St. Paul, where she had originally planned to rest before continuing on to Eugene, Oregon, the next morning.

"We had gotten into St. Paul super late at night," she explained. "It was like 2:30 in the morning. We were like we could work our horses at zero dark thirty in this arena and then go to Eugene, but we decided that it would just be better to focus on St. Paul, which ended up paying off. Sometimes that's the sacrifice you've got to make, and I was glad I did."

"I ended up having to turn out because my backup horse got in a little bit of a pickle," she noted. Rather than run, she and her family—parents Todd and Paula— anxiously awaited St. Paul's outcome.

"My parents and I were all caught up on the couch in my trailer, watching it on the Cowboy Channel," she said. "After the last girl ran, they put the results up on the screen and I couldn't believe it! Honestly, it didn't even hit me until I got back home to Idaho last night! I was like, 'What just happened? It was a super cool feeling. I'm so proud of Shandy for handling that. She really showed up for me.'"

McCurry, a junior nursing student at Montana State University, is a "first generation rodeo kid."

"My family's always had horses, so I grew up around them, but none of my family members ever competed or anything like that. It's definitely a long journey to kind of get immersed in. There's so much to learn. I'm grateful that I have a lot of great people in my corner that have helped me out."

She started competing in junior high school and got her first "real" barrel horse when she was a freshman.

"She's kind of the one that showed me the ropes," McCurry said. "Then when I got Shandy...she was just a whole new level of fast!"

THE RUNDOWN w/Anneliese McCurry

Blazin Summer Shandy ("Shandy") 2015 Sorrel Mare, 16 h, 1,000 lbs

BIT: Short Shank Ed Wright style lifter with a three-piece twist and dogbone

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

SHOEING: Regular shoes up front, leather rim pads behind to improve angle.

Shod by Ryan Powell

FEED: Purina Ultium Gastric Care

HAY: Grass

SUPPLEMENTS: Bluebonnet Gut Reset, Red Hot Equine Aminos Lyte Stick and Triumph

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Swimming, MagnaWave, BEMER blanket "She loves to be pampered. She's very spoiled and we're OK with that!"

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: "I love to long trot her a lot. I honestly pony her a lot because it keeps her happy. I usually go long trot her in our hay field so she can get out and move around. I like to do whatever I can to keep her freed up and stretched out."

THANKS: Parents Todd and Paula. "They've been extremely supportive, and they were with me at St. Paul. They've been with me this whole journey. I'm super grateful for their support." God. "He's had his hand in Shandy and I's journey. It's been really cool to see how he's worked through us."

Her family purchased Shandy from Kalena Webb four years ago when she was a junior in high school.

Bred by the Lewis family—Megan and her parents Bill and Suie—Shandy is by Blazin Jetolena out of the Tres Seis, First Down

Dash mare Zacalo, a producer of more than $200,000 in the barrel pen. Shandy is Zacalo's richest barrel horse with nearly $100,000 recorded by QData, followed by 2025 Idaho Futurity Champion Abbey Road, by The Goodbye Lane, with earnings of $47,654, and multiple pro rodeo winner Bahama Mama, by Mr Sassy Frenchman, with $41,408 in third-party documented earnings.

"When I tried her, my dad was actually the one that saw something in Shandy," McCurry said. "It took us a long time to become a team. It was a lot of ups and downs and frustrating days in the practice pens and a lot of tears shed. Once I realized that I'm not going to change who she is and have to meet her in the middle... Once I made that decision and made a promise to her that I wasn't going to give up on her and was just going to keep showing up, she gave me her whole heart. Ever since then, we've been on the same page. I trust her and she trusts me. It's a pretty cool partnership and it's super special to me."

15 Emily Beisel, 17.59, $336; 15 Tristan Parrish, 17.59, $336

She also credits former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Katie Davis with helping her turn the page with Shandy.

"She was the one that grabbed me by the ear and was like, 'You're not going to give up on this horse. She's way too talented. Katie was definitely an influential person in Shandy and I's journey.'"

McCurry and Shandy won the 2025 Big Sky Region Barrel Racing Champion for Montana State and qualified for their second straight College National Finals Rodeo this year. Shandy also filled McCurry's WPRA permit last year while rodeoing in the Montana Circuit.

This year, she opted for the Columbia River Circuit so she could spend more time at home with her family in Nampa, Idaho.

"I mostly have circuit rodeos on my schedule," she said. "We're not venturing too far. Luckily, Columbia River has quite a few big rodeos this time of year."

Lanita Peirce, 76 Years Young, Wins Cody Stampede for $11K

By Julie Mankin

Two things surprise everyone about the newest champion of the Cody (Wyo.) Stampede.

For one, her last name is pronounced “Purse.” For another, no one can believe she’s 76. Wait – one more. She’s only 4’11” without her boots on.

Her name was Lanita Powers when the Prairie Circuit veteran won the first round of her first NFR in 1993 – and won that year’s reserve NFR average title behind Charmayne. Today she’s Lanita Peirce, grandmother of four, and her success with 10-year-old Famous Wahini (“Lexi”) is nothing new. We reported on it in 2020 when they won $50,000 at the Kinder Cup Slot Race, and last year when they won the Senior World Championship by three-tenths. At Cody on Lexi, by Dash Ta Fame and out of Take The Cash Bug, Peirce clocked a 17.06 to edge the 17.14, 17.16 and 17.17 put up, respectively, by Anita Ellis, Carlee Otero and Emily Beisel. It paid $11,308. Then she also won seventh at Livingston, Mont., to total $13,301 on the two runs. This week, she’ll hit Sheridan, Casper and Estes Park, then head to Cheyenne to run on the 19th.

“I haven’t rodeoed in years because I haven’t had that horse,” said Lanita, who is married to Joe Peirce and lives in Wynnewood, Okla. “I told Joe that we don’t have any ties that bind this summer – we have no colts except a 2-year-old that needs broke. What the heck? Let’s get out of the heat and enter up. If something happens and Lexi doesn’t want to be a rodeo horse, I’ll go home.”

The mare is owned by Lanita’s client of a remarkable 40 yers. Mary Watkins of Jackson, Miss., and her husband Vaughn have owned the horses Peirce has trained since 1985. It all started with Ms Wahini Bug – a blue hen on the cloverleaf. She was by the 1973 stallion Bugs Alive In 75, owned by Mary’s father, Ralph Shebestor. Peirce’s 1993 NFR mare, Alive Rocket, was also by Bugs Alive In 75.

“Mary is like a gift from heaven,” said Peirce. “For years, I trained anywhere from five to 10 horses of hers. We’d keep a few colts and sell a few colts every year. We did well with them. She stayed hooked. She’s in her 80s now, and just supports me to the end. People have tried to buy Lexi, but she’s let me have my way with all these horses all these years. I’m very thankful to her and Vaughn.”

Ms Wahini Bug’s granddaughters might be on the verge of extinction today, but that 2-year-old Peirce has at home? It’s out of Lexi by The Goodbye Lane, with another full sibling in the embryo stage right now.

It’s worth mentioning Peirce trained the black mare out of Ms Wahini Bug that broke the barrel-racing world record in 2013 in Brazil with that 16.586. Bo Hill’s standout sire Famous Bugs is out of Ms Wahini Bug. And even before Alive Rocket, Peirce nearly made the NFR on Wahini Cash, out of Ms Wahini Bug by Takin On The Cash. Lexi is out of his full sister Take The Cash Bug – one of Ms Wahini Bug’s last daughters.

“They’re easy to train and they’re gifted,” she said. “Almost all of them have had plenty of speed and want to work on their butt. The old gelding was pretty limber – he’d slide up there and one-two and be gone again. The mare I rode in ’93 was a little stiffer. That’s what made her fast.”

Lexi, however, is a little more “setty” and gets too short sometimes, Peirce said. She credits Kelly Conrado with helping her get more clean runs out of the mare.

“He was at the Senior finals and I’d placed in each round but told Kelly I wasn’t going to be able to get her around them in the short

THE RUNDOWN w/Lanita Peirce

Famous Wahini

BIT: like a little Pelham with rubber mouthpiece

SADDLE: Shiloh with custom seat and stirrup lengths

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star or 3S

LEG GEAR: polo wraps, but need something thicker

SHOEING: rim shoes on fronts and keg shoes on hinds with trailer on outside only

FEED: Purina Performance

HAY: free-choice coastal with a little alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Cox Vet Labs K&C powder, Summer Games Electrolytes, Oxygen JailBreak and Triple Threat pastes

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: ice boots after runs, or green jelly or Back On Track boots, and a magnetic blanket before a run

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I ride at least five days a week, long trotting. I don’t work her much, but use big circles because she wants to crowd you.

THANKS: My owners. Also, my husband, for driving. He’s as old as I am!

SPONSORS: Mary Watkins, bless her heart, kind of supports me.

round,” she recalled. “He said, ‘Let me show you this bridle.’ And he told me to run her in it, and she ran the fastest time by three-tenths. I’ve been using it ever since.”

A few years ago, however, Peirce was on the verge of never running barrels again. In 2021, fighting back trouble, she’d already warmed up Lexi for the Oklahoma City Futurity when she stepped off to put her splint boots on – and just fell to the ground under the mare. Her leg had given way.

“Lexi just stood there and let me pull myself up using a stirrup, Cody Stampede & Pro Rodeos Continued on Page 25 and then I got on my trailer fender and got on her,” recalled Peirce. “I rode her into the building and told Bo that my leg was paralyzed.”

For the next few weeks, Lanita was unable to stand – literally crawling around her house and sleeping in a recliner. Joe tells people he dragged her around on a blue tarp. After surgery in Dallas to clean up two ruptured discs, she was able to stand. However, back in the saddle six months later, she just couldn’t recover – for two years.

“I really struggled,” she said. “I would be about to throw up going down an alley because I was so worried about keeping up with her, plus I was so sore where they’d cut through my fascia.”

Finally, Peirce was ready to give up running Lexi. But then a vet told her about an osteotherapist in Edmond who helped alleviate her pain, and Holly Etbauer started her wearing Lifewave X39 patches. Both helped her get some strength back.

Back on the rodeo trail now for the first time in 33 years, Peirce can’t believe how much more rodeos pay. Nor can she fathom the semis with triple-axle trailers that are parked next to her.

“It’s hard to compete with that,” she said. “Me and Lexi are just going to mess around up here for a while. I wanted to win enough money that – if I’m still not crippled up – I can go to the winter rodeos next year and make my circuit finals.”

Accomplishing those goals will make it even sweeter that Peirce “stayed hooked” all these decades – ever since the farmer’s daughter from western Oklahoma saw Jeana Day running barrels one day and wanted to do it, too.

Lions Share Of Fame Passes

The $2 Million barrel sire for R2M2Z Performance Horses passed this last week announced via Facebook on July 3. Lions Share Of Fame was a 2004 son of leading race & barrel sire Dash Ta Fame and out of the blue hen mare On A Bunny who is out of On A High. He was bred by Robert Driggers. Lions Share Of Fame was a full brother to Gun Battle. Gun Battle was a $669k race earner who was runner up in the All American Futurity and earned a 110 speed index.

After becoming a great barrel horse himself; Lions Share Of Fame became a $2 Million barrel sire; having $2.244 Million (per Robin Glenn Pedigrees) as of this writing. However; he sired earners in nearly every rodeo event; having sired NFR steer wrestling, hazing and team roping horses who have earned millions over the years.

In the barrel racing pen his biggest earner is former Canadian Champion & Barrel Horse Of The Year Fames To Blame who is still picking up prorodeo checks at 15 years old. Lions Famous Kitty was one of Lions Share Of Fame's NFR Steer Wrestling horse and another NFR horse was the famous NFR haze horse Metallica (Allfameand-noshame) of Tyler Pearson's. These are just a few of the high performers sired by Lions Share Of Fame.

"It is with broken hearts that we announce the passing of our boy Lions Share Of Fame. He wasn't just a horse to us, he was a part of our family. We know that we are incredibly blessed to of had 20+ years with him but even 20 more wouldn't have been enough for us.

We are and will be forever grateful for the horses and people that "King" has brought into our lives. We will never forget him and his almost human like personality. Hug your horse's neck a little extra today as tomorrow is never promised."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We just celebrated our nation's 250th! Have you ever thought about what the people who made the decision to declare our independence must have been going through on the day AFTER they signed their names? What a weighty decision.

Now... they fight... They drew a line in the sand and, for better or worse, here they go. I'm sure it felt overwhelming. Maybe a relief. But one thing they knew, there wasn't any going back. That can be the thought processes for us when we decide we're not going to put up with the devil stealing, killing, and destroying our lives.

John 10:10. We decide we are going to go the way of our Lord. We have authority, and we take it! We fight the good fight of faith and WE WIN, just like those men and women all those years ago. And, just like them, we have the backing of almighty God to help us in that fight.

No matter what we are facing now, with God, our victory is assured! David taunted the giant that day and said, "Then all this assembly shall know that the Lord does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord's, and He will give you into our hands." 1 Samuel 17:45-47. The devil doesn't stand a chance!
