Fourth of July Fireworks -- Megan McLeod-Sprague Tops Cowboy Christmas with $29,436

By Tanya Randall

San Antonio Rodeo Champion Megan McLeod-Sprague was the high money earning barrel racer over the Fourth of July rodeo run known as Cowboy Christmas. The Marsing, Idaho, barrel racer won $29,436 at four of the five rodeos she attended.

This year's Cowboy Christmas had 37 WPRA approved rodeos held during the week of July 4. This included rodeos that ended on or between Monday, June 30, and Sunday, July 6.

Sprague had stayed relatively quiet until the summer run started in June, choosing to limit the runs on her great gelding Seis Corona ("Jag") until the really big money rodeos.

"I've never been somebody that tries to out rodeo the next guy," she said. "That's just not in my wheelhouse. I've always counted on doing well where it's presented to you. Of course, having a horse like Jag makes that a lot easier. That's what we've tried to do this year is just use him at the good places. That's why I built the team that I have, to not have to use him for more than a handful of runs in a week."

She did have a sense of panic mid-June when she arrived at Elko, Nevada, and saw everyone on their main mounts and she was on a 6-year-old.

"I told my husband, 'I've got to get on Jag.' He said, 'No, you're not. Just be patient. This is all going to be worth it.' I was tenth out of it there. I was a tenth out of it at Fallon. A tenth out of the money on her at Reno. I was kind of kicking myself and then we left for the Fourth...turns out my husband is smarter than I thought!"

This Cowboy Christmas, Sprague relied on Jag and Ticket. Jag is her steadfast 14-year-old Dash Ta Fame gelding out of Alan Woodbury's Tres Seis daughter Tell Em Belle, who helped Nikki Steffes Hansen qualify for the 2012 National Finals Rodeo.

Ticket Ta Heaven is the newest member of her team. The 6-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven daughter of Cantstopthiseffort, a Special Effort mare out of Nonstopwithcredit, by Cash Not Credit, was bred and raised by the Youree-Ward family and trained and ridden by Cassie (Ward) Ambrose. Sprague added Ticket to the team when Smokehaus ("Chip") was out due to a sacroiliac injury, leaving Cowboy Ta Fame ("Vice") as her only backup for Jag.

"I called Kyle Jack McIntire and said I'm in the position that I've got to have something else," she explained. "I've got too many places to be at once. We started looking and Kyle came up with Ticket. As it turns out, that was a pretty good fit and she's doing great."

Sprague started her Fourth of July run at the $25,000-added Oakley (Utah) Independence Stampede.

"I actually had Jag saddled and had given Lasix, all the things," she said. "I was 100 percent planning on running him, and Buck called me and said, 'There's some horses struggling on the ground. You're not running him. It's not worth it. Get on Ticket.' She was loaded in the trailer because it had kind of rained. Unfairly to her, I jumped her out of the trailer and ran her. She did good. I think I was only a tenth and a half from placing."

Sprague left Oakley from the $16,500-added Livingston Round-up in Montana, thinking "That's not how you want your Fourth to start." Thankfully, the performance that night went really well. She and Jag won the rodeo for $8,432.

From Livingston, they dropped down to the $32,500-added Cody Stampede in Wyoming for slack. Jag ate up the wide open course and had the second sub-17 run of the rodeo to take second, earning $9,120.

"I ran at Cody Thursday morning and we had until Friday night to get over to St. Paul (Oregon)," she said. Sprague was entered in $8,000-added Molalla (Oregon) Buckeroo Rodeo for early in the day but opted to turn out after being apprised of the ground conditions.

St. Paul, famous for its tunnel entrance under the grandstand and Christmas trees encircling the arena, is the richest one-run rodeo over the Fourth of July with $42,000 added, only the multiple-run Ponoka Stampede in Canada adds more at $60,000.

Sprague and Jag finished third at St. Paul, pocketing another $7,904.

The $13,100-added Basin City (Washington) Freedom Rodeo was Sprague's last run over the Fourth. Ticket got the call and finished second for $3,980.

"It turned out to be pretty darn good," said Sprague, who jumped a few spots to third in the WPRA World Standings with $98,707. Thanks to the Calgary Stampede, where she's won the first two rounds in her pool, she's unofficially crossed $112,000 for season earnings.

Sprague still has a busy schedule ahead. She has one more run in her pool at Calgary before flying south for the NFR Open / Pikes Peak Or Bust in Colorado Springs, where she runs Friday night and Saturday. Her husband will stay in Calgary with Jag and Vice, while she meets someone with Ticket and Chip in Colorado.

Then, it's back to Calgary for Sunday's Showdown, while her Colorado rig will be pointed toward Cheyenne, Wyoming, for the Frontier Days Rodeo. She'll fly back for the first round in Cheyenne and then throw in with Andrea Busby to head to Salinas, California.

"I'm going to be tired at the end of July," Sprague chuckled. "My game plan is to tough it out in July. We're out here and we're going it. The tour rodeo stuff is important, even if I am hitting a lick, I can't afford to lose tour points. We get to go home August and September. We get to sleep in our own bed a lot."

Perseverance

The 2025 version of Cowboy Christmas is a complete 180 for Megan McLeod-Sprague from when she was without the use of Seis Corona ("Jag") in 2024.

"It was kind of a scary time really," she recalled. "We were right in the middle of not knowing what was going on."

After winning the first round and placing in the aggregate at the 2024 Reno Rodeo, Jag unloaded off the trailer at her Marsing, Idaho, home extremely crippled.

"We drove all night because the kids had a junior rodeo the next day," she recalled. "It was six and a half hours. I turned him out in the pasture, and I thought he broke his pelvis. That's how lame he was."

"It was a weird deal. It was probably four months before we were able to make a determination, and we still don't really know. There was no imaging to say this is definitely what is wrong. Then it was another four months to get him over the pain threshold and get him rehabbed. It was a process."

Sprague was left with Cowboy Ta Fame ("Vice") and Smokehaus ("Chip") to finish her season. After Reno, she was still in the Top 15 and her husband Buck encouraged her to continue to rodeo.

"He said, 'You can't stop now. We've got to figure this out,'" recalled Sprague. "We kind of pushed through. It wasn't easy and if I'm being really honest, it wasn't fun. I kept winning $500 and $1,000 checks at a time. I'm grateful that Buck pushed me to keep going because I did get into Houston and those rodeos by sticking it out. It was very character building, if you will. I learned about myself, my support system, my horses, and then here we are. Jag persevered. We persevered."

Another great Cowboy Christmas for Paige Jones, Wins $19,716

By Tanya Randall

Three out of the past five years, Paige Jones has been one of the top money-earning barrel racers during the Cowboy Christmas run during the Fourth of July. This year, she was the second richest earning $19,716.

The lion's share of the winnings, $19,084, belonged to her old faithful 13-year-old gelding, Famous Hayday ("Bazinga").

"He's my little war horse," she said of the Youree-Ward raised gelding by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Jaxsons Olympic Fame, by Poco Lijerito. "I know I can always count on him to take care of himself and take care of me. He's just great."

Jones, the 2020 WPRA Rookie of the Year and 2023 National Finals Rodeo qualifier, was able to move from outside the Top 30 in the WPRA Standing to within striking distance of the Top 15 in 18th position with $48,955 in unofficial earnings.

Jones started off her Fourth in Canada for the $60,000-added Ponoka Stampede. It was a path that served her well in the past. She made her first trip to Canada in 2023—the first time she was the second-richest money-earner over the Fourth of July Run. Thanks to her Youree-Ward bred and trained gelding Famous Hayday ("Bazinga"), a gelding by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Jaxsons Olympic Fame, by Poco Lijerito.

"He loved it up there," she recalled. "He won Wainwright and was second at Sundre and Ponoka. Last year I went up there for Wainwright and Sundre and I didn't go to Ponoka—I maybe missed the entries—but I ended up going again this year."

The 13-year-old gelding nearly swept Ponoka, winning the first round, short round and aggregate before taking second in the Showdown Round.

"I was really confident going into the short round," she explained. "The first couple of girls hit barrels. I knew I had to be really fast. He ran in to the first and felt the ground and stood back up. I knew at that point all I had to do was be clean to win second, so I just pulled him and finished the pattern."

From Ponoka, Jones headed stateside for the $16,500-added Livingston Roundup in Montana and $32,500-added Cody Stampede in Wyoming where she ran High Cotton Lane. The 11-year-old gelding, by The Goodbye Lane out of Bob Burt's Dash Ta Fame mare HMB Soon Tobe Famous, recently returned to the arena after a nearly a year and a half absence due to non-competition related injuries.

They picked up a check for $632 at Livingston despite a trip at the first barrel.

"He had some ground trouble at the first, tripped and hit his leg up by his knee," she said. "I placed toward the end there."

They were just out of the money at Cody. "It was definitely jockey error at Cody," she said. "I don't feel like I have my timing down on him yet. I felt like I checked him as soon as I got to the timer and did exactly what I asked him to do. I was just out of placing but it was a little chaotic."

Jones' last run of the Fourth was at the $25,000-added Oakley Stampede in Utah after turning out of the $7,500 Western Stampede in West Jordan, Utah, due to muddy conditions. Unfortunately, she and Bazinga caught a barrel to place.

Jones thought she'd spend her day off sleeping but spent the last day of the Fourth of July run at the lake in Utah. "I think it wore me out just as much as the driving!" she laughed. "There was this big rope swing, and it was a hike back up there! When we got back, I felt more tired than if I had just drove somewhere!" She was back out on Tuesday, running in slack at both Casper and Sheridan, Wyoming. She's got Laramie, Wyoming and Estes Park, Colorado as well. She's hoping she makes the short go in Casper on Saturday, but if not she entered Nephi, Utah, just in case.

Unexpected Victory for Jennifer Neudorf & PYC Fast Guy at Ponoka Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Jennifer Neudorf of Bluffton, Alberta, was riding a high when her mare Canyons Moonlight (“Phoebe”) swept the Calgary Stampede qualifier, but shortly afterward the mare’s chronic deep digital flexor tendon issues in her front feet flared up after a reset of her shoes. With her Tres Seis mare Escalating recovering from colic surgery, Neudorf was without a rodeo ready mount.

Fate intervened when her friend Makayla Lundy texted her about the best rodeos to take her promising young stallion PYC Fast Guy (“Fernando”), a 7-year-old son of French Hula Guy out of Fiscal Fast, by PYC Paint Your Wagon.

Neudorf texted her a list of rodeos and Lundy jokingly replied that Neudorf should run him.

“I said, actually...Phoebe just got hurt,” Neudorf said. “I’m entered in Sundre and Ponoka and all these other ones, and I don’t have anything for Calgary. Is there any way for me to just start running him and see if he can make it?”

Fernando had been battling issues of his own through his early barrel racing career and was just returning to competition. From surgery and joint infections to tooth infections, the 6-year-old stallion hadn’t competed consistently in months. When he ran, he did well, but he’d never been to a pro rodeo performance and never at a rodeo the magnitude of Ponoka or Calgary.

“We didn’t know what was going to happen going into it,” Neudorf said. “We didn’t know how he would handle rodeo ground. There’s so much to rodeo that it takes a lot of horses a while to get used to or they just can’t handle it. He took everything in stride. He’s been a blessing since I started riding him.”

Neudorf had taken Fernando to two rodeos before Ponoka and hit barrels at both during the rodeo performances. Although she wasn’t sure how he’d handle Ponoka, Fernando found his footing, placing third in the first round, second in the finals and second in the aggregate going into the Showdown Round, where they turned in the fastest time of the event, a 17.24, to win the rodeo and $19,334.

“It was a dream come true,” she said. “It was such an exciting feeling in the run. In the live feed you can see me smiling and talking to him on the run home. He’s such a personable horse. I kind of find whatever I’m thinking and feeling he’s right there with me. It’s really cool. He’s so into it. He’s very, very cool.”

Neudorf said that Fernando is the barrel racing version of her NRHA Non Pro Derby winning stallion Shining In Town.

“I have a reining stallion that I was very successful on,” she explained. “I got along with him so much and he fit me so well. In the barrel world, we’ve bred a lot of horses and all the stallions that I’ve tried to ride we’ve had to geld because they were too naughty. Now, with this stud coming over, I get along with him well. He’s got the best demeanor and is a lot like my reining horse, who is my most special horse. It’s really special to have a stallion to feel that way about in the barrel world.”

Neudorf is currently No. 4 in the Canadian Standings, and she plans on continuing to go as long as Fernando is doing well.

“I wasn’t really sure how this year was going to go, especially with my mare Phoebe,” she said. “It’s her last derby year, so I was going to go to a few rodeos and if it didn’t work out I was going to more of the futurity, derby setups because that’s what she thrives in. Then all this happened. I’ve had some people tell me that I needed to start entering some rodeos in the States, so I’m looking into that. I’m kind of just going with what’s thrown at me, and so far this year, it’s really working out.”

Neudorf was also happy to do well on Fernando for Lundy, who never gave up in the horse in spite of his many setbacks.

Lundy purchased Fernando, who was actually bred by Neudorf’s mother Jodie, from Heidi Rooke as a 4-year-old. Anna Gimblett had started the stallion and Lundy sent him off to Janey Fisher, a reining trainer for more foundation riding before she started on him the barrels.

“He was my first futurity horse,” she said. “I’ve rodeoed my entire life, but barrel racing wasn’t really my thing. We just didn’t have the horsepower. I took a chance on buying him, thinking I might as well try the whole barrel racing thing. That’s where it started and it’s kind of blown up in the past two years.”

Lundy and Fernando had their ups and downs through his early career as she got a crash course in barrel horse maintenance thanks to the stallion's bad luck. They did well at the barrel races in British Columbia but struggled when they crossed into Alberta. Late in his futurity year, they placed second in the average at his first open rodeo in Quesnel, British Columbia.

“We hit a wall after that with me having young stud and still learning,” she said. “I almost gave up on him.”

They entered the vicious cycle of bad run, time to sell followed

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever seen a bull fight? Not the rodeo clowns that we love, but a bull fight with the matador... and blood? I saw part of one on tv once. Once. But. It sure is a great example of how a man or beast can get distracted by a perceived wrong and spend soooo much effort fighting against an enemy that seems to get away just when we think we've got them!

As children of God, we have an enemy. It's not your spouse, your co-worker, family member or the government. It's the devil. And he is influencing those around us to cause trouble. Well, he's been found out.

From this moment on, we are going to shift our focus to the left or right and take him out!!! We are not going to blame the people around us, they are being distracted by that rat and are yielding to him. But we are smarter than that, right? We are going to bind him in the name of Jesus like we are instructed to in Matt. 18:18-19.

We are going to walk in forgiveness like we're told to in Col. 3:13. And the next time, and there will be a next time, when he brings out his red cape, we are going to shift left or right and WHAM! Lol!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
