4th of July Fireworks – More Than $550,000 Awarded During Cowboy Christmas

By Tanya Randall

Dental hygienist Emily Miller of Weatherford, Oklahoma, was the high-money earner over the lucrative Fourth of July run known as Cowboy Christmas. She and her three horses earned $17,359 at rodeos that concluded on July 1 through July 7.

Other top Fourth of July earners were Hailey Kinsel of Cotulla, Texas, at $16,877; Lacinda Rose of Willard, Missouri, at $16,795; Shali Lord of Lamar, Colorado, at $16,295, and Amber Moore of Salem, Oregon with $15,340.

Miller's Fourth of July haul jumped her to eighth in the WPRA World Standings with $57,680. The majority of her Cowboy Christmas cash came for the Ponoka Stampede in Alberta, Canada. She and her horse Namgjis 33 ("Chongo") swept the rodeo—winning the long go, finals and average, until the shootout round, when a costly barrel denied them the championship. Even so, she still left the rodeo with $14,954.

"I froze to death up there, but what an amazing rodeo and awesome committee," she said. "Ponoka was awesome. We ran Sunday (the last day of the long round) and he just threw down. When I saw that time...to run a .2, I was just blown away. It made me tear up. It was pretty special for me."

On Monday, Canada Day, in the finals, Miller was last on the ground and knew she just need to go make a good clean run, but she was a little worried about the soggy footing.

"I've never really ran him in mud. I had kind of tried and never had a lot of success. I was pretty nervous. I had actually worked my young horse Beau (Biddin On Fame) because I wasn't sure what kind of mud we were going to be dealing with. I watched the first few events and those Canadians, they know how to handle it; they know how to prep for it. It was fast. It was just as fast on Monday in the mud as it was Sunday in the dry."

Back stateside, Miller ran Chongo's half-brother Namgjis D 35 (Pipe Wrench), her 2017 RAM National Circuit Finals Champion, at the $25,000-added Cody Stampede in Wyoming.

"I didn't ride very good," she said of her run at Cody. "I kind of forgot what horse I was on."

From Cody, she went to the $13,000-added Livingston Roundup in Montana, where the weather again was a factor.

"I talked to Maddy Dickinson, she was winning it," Miller explained. "She said it wasn't bad, but I knew it wasn't as muddy for her as it was going to be for us. I didn't think the ground was going to be bad. I always watch the broncs—you can see how they Bred Mares & Weanlings FOR SALE!

Epic Leader Now Available to Brazil

Brazos Valley Stallion Station (Stephenville, TX) in conjunction exclusively with Haras LUB Breeding (Cesário Lange, Brazil) is pleased to announce the release of frozen semen for availability on the #1 leading sire, Epic Leader for the 2019 breeding season in Brazil.

Epic Leader, a 2009 gray stallion, is the result of the pairing of Confederate Leader and Firewater Fiesta, a dream cross for trainer Kassie Mowry. Confederate Leader, a winner on the racetrack, later a BFA Derby Champion and eventually leading sire she crossed with an embryo out of legendary mare, Firewater Fiesta, ridden by Kelly Yates, this duo garnered winnings surpassing over $800,000. Fiesta was a WPRA World Champion and multiple aged event champion by the legendary Fire Water Flit, who needs no introduction. Epic Leader was purchased by Schiller Ranch midway through his Derby year.

Epic Leader earned over $170,000 in earnings. He was the Better Barrel Races Finals Slot Futurity & Open Futurity Champion, the Ecurie 5-55 Futurity Champion and BFA World Futurity Reserve Champion, where he ran the arena record 15.034 to win the second round. Epic Leader was ranked by Barrel Horse News and Equi-Stat as "Futurity Stallion of the Year"

"2019 was his first full foal crop of babies that were bred by the public, after we acquired Epic. We are elated that his progeny earnings have surpassed $500,000 the first half of the 2019 US barrel season. There is no doubt that Epic Leader is a legend in his own time and the forefather of industry greatness" Says owner, Kristi Schiller

"Epic Leader has been one of the best minded and professional stallions I have ever had the pleasure of working with at BVSS. Epic appeals to the owners of quality mares. You know the moment you lay eyes on him, you are standing among greatness. We are proud to align with Luciano Beretta of Haras LUB breeding to offer Epic Leader to Brazil" Says Jeremy Barwick, owner Brazos Valley Stallion Station.

The Breeding fee for Epic Leader on approved mares will be $3800 per embryo The fee for ICSI will be $3300 for each embryo. All mares will be bred, without exception at Haras LUB Breeding. Breeding contracts can be secured exclusively through Luciano Beretta.

Kenyon Launces New Online Rodeo Radio Site

Professional Rodeo announcer Steve Kenyon is introducing a brand-new website, 8secondsradio.com, dedicated to offering complete coverage of professional rodeo and Western sports. "We are creating 8secondsradio.com to give it more of a feel of an on-line radio station, accumulating podcasts produced by some of the most well-known figures in our industry, and continuing to offer live coverage of some of the biggest rodeos in the world, including the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo," Kenyon said. Listeners can follow the "The Leaderboard" podcast hosted by Kenyon weekly, and will have the chance to listen to live and archived rodeo broadcasts simply by logging on to 8secondsradio.com on their laptops, tablets or smartphones.

WCRA Announces Updates to The Virtual Rodeo Qualifier

--Segment Four Nominations Begins July 9--

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) recently announced two major changes to the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier (VRQ) that will benefit all rodeo athletes using the web-based qualification platform beginning July 9. The WCRA released that college events will now count towards the WCRA Leaderboard and the introduction of "WCRA Nomination Points" which will allow athletes to earn points when nominating non-alliance events.

"Due to high demand from athletes competing at the college level, we have decided to make these age restricted events eligible to earn points through the VRQ," said

WCRA President Bobby Mote. "This is our first step of incorporating age restricted events into the WCRA qualification process."

Beginning July 9, athletes can now earn division four points when nominating an intercollegiate rodeo. Based on points earned through nominated performances, they may advance to one of WCRA's $500,000 Semi-Finals events in hopes of reaching one of the one-day $1,000,000 major rodeos.

The WCRA also announced that as of July 9 they will now award "WCRA Nomination Points" to athletes who nominate a non-alliance event and do not place in a paid position and earn competition points. The following are the three categories of WCRA points athletes can earn when nominating:

Competition Points- Points earned for placing in up to 10 paid positions per the WCRA point system.

Consolation Points- Points earned at alliance events for nominations that do not result in earning competition points.

Nomination Points- Points that are awarded when no competition points, nor consolation points are earned or awarded.

Below is the breakdown of the WCRA Nomination Points that will be eligible for each division:

- Division I: 1.0 points
- Division II: .75 points
- Division III: .50 points
- Division IV: .25 points

Any athlete who already nominated segment four using the multi-segment nomination will be credited WCRA Nomination Points retroactively if they apply. Nomination points will be reflected on the WCRA Leaderboard update on July 17.

"We are constantly looking for ways to increase opportunities for all rodeo athletes," said Mote. "After seeing a monumental increase of nominations in just under a year, we feel this is a step in the right direction in giving athletes more value, by making more points available."

All rodeo athletes interested in learning more about the VRQ should be directed to wcrarodeo.com.

Since launching in May of 2018, the WCRA and its partners have awarded more than $4,565,000 in new money to rodeo athletes.

would have been fine.”

At $7,500-added Western Stampede in West Jordan, Miller and Pipe Wrench placed fourth for $1,752.

“Man, he felt good!” she said. “He just went out and made three smooth turns. It was like being back on Old Pipe Wrench. We’re on the right track again with him. I could tell when I was just walking around warming up there was a difference in his attitude. He was like ‘Mom, I’m back!’ He was finally confident again. I just let him do his thing and it was awesome!”

Miller was grateful to have Pipe Wrench back in winning form.

“He hasn’t felt this good since Calgary in 2017,” said Miller, who is currently running in Pool B the next few days.

After Calgary, Miller plans on staying out a little longer, thanks to a recent hire who can fill in for her at Stephens Family Dental.

She’s entered at Ogden and Spanish Fork, Utah, as well as Salinas, but she’s not sure if she’ll make it down to California.

“After that I’m coming back home,” she said. “We have our good Prairie Circuit run. I did the Northwest a couple of years ago and didn’t have much luck. Depending on how our situation is, we’d like to stay closer to home starting in August.”

Miller is extremely grateful for all the opportunities that have come her way in 2019, from Chongo stepping up to the plate, having Pipe Wrench back to having an understanding employer and getting engaged to Austin Beisel.

“God has really taken care of me this year,” she said. “Everything has kind of fell into place. I never dreamed that I would have Pipe Wrench and Chongo feeling good and running good, be up here (at the Calgary Stampede), be engaged and not have to stress about work. I have a lot of support.”

Defending World Champion Kinsel and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday had a quiet Fourth after winning the Ponoka Stampede for $16,877. (See last week’s issue of the Barrel Racing Report). They are currently competing at the Calgary Stampede and won the opening round of their Pool with an arena-record tying run. Kinsel is currently No. 2 in the World with $83,754.

The third-richest rodeo run over the Fourth went to the two-time Great Lakes Circuit Champion. Rose and her homebred gelding RR Meradas Real Deal earned $16,795 and jumped to tenth in the WPRA World Standings with $55,308.

“That’s awesome and much needed,” the mother of four said of her Cowboy Christmas standing. “I super blessed and thankful for all the runs I get to make on my horse. I’ve done a way better job of managing him this year. My whole team is doing their part. He’s holding up great!”

Rose, who entered more than she ever has over Cowboy Christmas, started her Fourth of July Run in the first performance of the $22,000-added Greeley Stampede in Colorado, the only two-run rodeo during Cowboy Christmas in the States. Their solid first run would end up fifth in the round.

While she did pick up on last June rodeo in Lehi, Utah, on the youngest children, ages 2 and 5, got by her first barrel at Cody to just miss out on the check.

"I was just a couple of placing there," she said. "I got by the first a little bit. You can't do that there. You've got to have a spot on run."

From Cody it was back to Greeley for the short round, where she and Real Deal placed fourth and ended up fourth in the average, earning $6,163.

With Livingston a muddy mess, she turned out and headed for the Northwest for two Oregon rodeos.

"I had never been to the ones out West. He liked them," she laughed. They placed third at the $30,050-added St. Paul Rodeo for $6,238 and third at the Eugene Pro Rodeo for $2,171.

She finished up her Fourth at the $3,500-added Big Fork Summer Pro Rodeo in Montana, where they tied for eighth, earning $263.

Rose has a little break before her next run Thursday night at Casper, Wyoming. She's also got Estes Park, Colorado, and Sheridan, Wyoming. She's entered up through July before she'll get to go home for a week.

Lord and the talented stallion Freckles Ta Fame, owned by Joe and Carla Spitz of Spitz Quarter Horses, also had a great Fourth of July run. They took a share of the victory at Greeley with Hallie Hanssen, set a new arena record at West Jordan and finished third at Oakley.

Following her second-place finish at the Reno Rodeo, Lord flew back to Colorado Springs to make her qualifier run, while her parents, Jim and Leslie Nichols drove Can Man from Reno to Greeley.

"I had originally planned on not taking him to Reno because I wanted him to be rested. He did so good Reno," she said. The drive didn't hurt as Can Man finished well at Greeley. "He did awesome. He won third in the first round at Greeley and ended up second at Reno, so it worked out well that I took him to both places."

After her first run at Greeley, her husband Phy took over the wheel to drive her to Cody and Red Lodge where she ran her new mare, Frosted In Fame. She was just out of placing at Red Lodge. Then it was back to Greeley for the short go, which they won to tie

THE RUNDOWN w/Lacinda Rose

RR Meradas Real Deal, "Real Deal" 15.1 hands, 1,150 lbs.

BIT: Rope-nose combination with a medium shank gag and solid mouthpiece with three links of chain in the middle; Martha Josey Go Round if the barrels are off the fence a little ways but easy for him to see, I'll ride him in that. I rode him in that at Greeley; Rope nose combination with a little longer shank if the barrels are off the fence and hard to see.

HEADGEAR: Flat leather tiedown adjusted to the situation. "He balances off of it, so I try to stay away from something that bites him too much."

SADDLE: Larry Coats

SADDLE PAD: CSI

LEG GEAR: Cactus on all four, Dynamic Edge on the hind

SHOEING: Wide web steel rim on front; custom shoe that's wider with a rim on the back, outside branch

FEED: Purina Ultium Gastric Care plus Super Sport

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Prime Performance Nutrition Aloe GT, Maxum HA, Healthy E Oil, ProForm for his stomach

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Stretches, Beamer blanket, PHT blankets and wraps, soft rides

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: "A little bit of ponying. We have a really big pasture, so we'll lope him around that—either me or my 16-year-old daughter. My husband or I will head steers on him to give him something else to do." On the Fourth run, grass and rest—"Anywhere I can get him to lay down."

for the average win, earning $10,593.

With Livingston underwater and a tight trip to make to morning slack from the Greeley short, Lord turned out and headed to Utah with her parents taking over driver duty.

"It's been a long time since we've been over there (to Utah)," said Lord. She won $2,920 at West Jordan and $2,773 at Oakley. "They were very good. The ground was phenomenal. We talked about going to Belle Fourche (South Dakota). Gosh, I'm glad we decided against it because it rained there. Those two rodeos in Utah were really good to us, as well as Greeley."

Lord has had an incredibly solid year is currently third in the WPRA World Standings with $76,975.

"I'm really thankful for all the runs and thankful and blessed for our team and all the support," she said, also giving a special thanks to the Spitz's, who own Can Man. "I'm thankful (our Fourth) was such a success. Hopefully we can keep the momentum going."

Amber Moore and her great mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") win the profit margin race over the Fourth. They never traveled further than an hour from home and earned $15,340. The duo won St Paul by more than 2/10ths, earning $9,597, topped Eugene for $3,341 and finished third at the $8,000-added Molalla Buckaroo Rodeo for $2,402.

Moore is currently competing at the Calgary Stampede—she and Paige were fifth in the first round—and sits 16th in the WPRA World Standings with $43,551.

TRANQUILITY

HOW IT WORKS

Amino Acids work to increase serotonin and norepinephrine in the brain, while minerals help support calm and relaxed behavior.

RECOMMENDED FOR HORSES WITH BEHAVIORAL ISSUES:

- Nervousness
- Aggression
- Irritability
- Stall pacing

For as low as $.87 per day.

HHA

HorseHairAnalysis.com

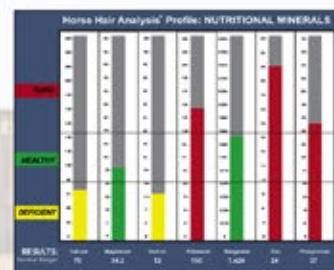

Laboratory Test | Consultation with Veterinarian | Corrective Customized Supplement

HOW IT WORKS

The lab results provide an extremely accurate profile of the mineral and metal levels present in your horse. The 15 page report details how these affect overall health and performance.

RECOMMENDED FOR HORSES EXHIBITING:

- Decreased performance
- Skin allergies
- Behavioral issues
- Endocrine disorders

Custom supplement based on lab results for less than $1.00 per day.

ESSENTIAL

HOW IT WORKS

Bio-available minerals help support musculoskeletal health, and coupled with the vitamins, promote healthy immune and neurologic function. Organic selenium is also included.

RECOMMENDED FOR ALL HORSES.

McKenzie Morgan Makes Bank at Triple Crown Super Show

By Hope Raley

Soon to be 17-year-old McKenzie Morgan made over $18,000 this past weekend at the Triple Crown Super Show in Perry, Georgia when she piloted In Firewaters Honor to victory in Race #2.

"It's still an amazing feeling winning that much money in one run," said Morgan. "I stared at the clock for a good couple of seconds before I actually realized what had happened!"

Admitting that it took awhile to settle in, Morgan credits her amazing equine counterpart "H2" for his incredible efforts.

"He has more personality than any horse I know, and he doesn't really like many people. A fun trait about him is that he loves sweet tea and french fries. He will chase you around the stall trying to grab your sweet tea and french fries!"

"H2" is by Firewater Special and out of Cachicka Bound by Mr Honor Bound. Morgan and her family raised the 13-year-old palomino gelding and has been incredibly blessed by how much he has done for them over the years.

Morgan and "H2" were second in Race #1 behind Leslie Willis and her talented gelding Gimme Da Money by Tres Seis. Willis posted a time of 14.699 and Morgan was a 14.704.

Deciding to heat things up in Race #2, Morgan and "H2" shaved half-a-second off of their time in Race #1 when they blazed the cloverleaf pattern in 14.294-seconds! That blazing time made them the only team in the 1D and swept the whole $15,974 prize money for the 1D in just one run.

"It was an awesome run, and H2 worked great! I am very grateful!"

As for the rest of their summer, Morgan and "H2" have some more goals to check off their list, including the NBHA Youth World and Mega coming up. "I haven't run H2 much this summer yet, so we are going to try to a few more while it is still summer. We are also going to focus on riding our colts."

And the future? Well a trip to the NFR would be delightful and is something that Morgan has her sights set on! "That's our future goal right now, we will see what happens. We will take it one run at a time."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever got caught by God doing something stupid? LOL! We all have. Where on earth do we get the hair brained idea that God only knows what we TELL Him. He's with us all the time! Hebrews 13:5. So I'm hoping you get something from it.

Years ago... many years ago, I found myself hiding from a woman I spotted in the grocery store... She went to the same church we did and she really wanted to be friends, but... she really got on my nerves. My faults didn't like her faults. That's a nice way of saying I really didn't like her.

So, here I am darting through the aisles praying (yes, praying) that she wouldn't see me. After an exhausting half hour I escaped undetected. Breathing a sigh of relief I got in my car and the Lord said, "What if in heaven you are next door neighbors?" Gasp! SAY IT ISN'T SO LORD!!!

All the way home I mulled that over. In the first place, when we get to heaven we will be like Jesus. He doesn't have a lot of faults. I repented for my childish behavior and asked God to help me. And He did.

Friends, the very people on this earth that rub us the wrong way just may be rubbing off some of OUR garbage. Prov. 27:17.

Maybe they have a viewpoint that makes us stop and think, and quite possibly, change our mind and heart. If nothing else, it'll help us get over ourselves.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
