Halyn Lide & Jettin Ta Heaven High Money Earners Over Cowboy Christmas, Win $32,162

By Tanya Randall

Halyn Lide made her boldest bid yet for her first ever National Finals Rodeo qualification. The China Springs, Texas, barrel racer and her homebred gelding Jettin Ta Heaven ("Keeper") earned $32,162 to be the richest barrel racer over famed Fourth of July run known as Cowboy Christmas.

"It was just fun to have an awesome Fourth of July with a horse that loves to come out and do that," said Lide, who raised the 12-year-old gelding by $8.6 million dollar sire JL Dash Ta Heaven, out of her high school and college rodeo horse Zeros Gypsy Jet, by Three O Jones. "He loves this. The summertime is just his favorite thing. He tries his hardest and when it doesn't work out he knows it. He's probably more determined than I am."

Lide started off her summer run in late May, early June to work her way up to the Calgary Stampede qualifier in Canada. After she earned the right to compete at the historic rodeo, Lide dropped back to the States for a couple of Utah rodeos and Reno.

After some bad luck in Reno, Lide headed to Lehi, Utah, where she placed on Hez Running To Heaven, before driving to the $30,000-added Greeley Stampede in Colorado, where she officially started her Fourth of July run.

After placing ninth in the progressive slack first round at Greeley, Lide traded into the rodeo's first performance on June 27 so she could leave for the $60,000-added Ponoka Stampede in Alberta, Canada, the next day.

She said that the 16 hours from Reno to Greeley and 18 hours to Ponoka was one of the hardest treks to make, driving by herself with just her two boys, ages 5 and 7, for company. On the way to Ponoka, she stopped at Great Falls, Montana, to pick up her husband Aaron to help drive.

"After that drive from Reno to Greeley and Greeley up to Great Falls, I was like, 'I know you didn't sleep last night, but here you go! I'm done!'" she said. "He drove us the rest of the way to Ponoka and everywhere else since then 'til now."

At Ponoka, running in the last performance on June 30 to conclude the long round, Lide and Keeper took advantage of a great draw.

"It had rained earlier in the week and dried out to perfection for my first run," she said. "I was also first on the ground, so I think I got lucky that it all worked out well. It rained again overnight, but I think that played a role in my next two (runs)."

On July 1, they were fourth in the short go during the matinee performance and second in the aggregate, which advanced them to the Showdown Round that evening.

She said being in the Calcutta auction for the Showdown was a little strange.

"That was kind of wild," she said. "I didn't know they did that. You have these people bid on you...no pressure or anything. Then I hit a barrel in the strangest way. I felt terrible that they'd paid money just for me to mess it up!"

She hit the $16,000-added Livingston Roundup in Montana on her way down to the short round in Greeley, Colorado, but didn't have any luck in her performance on July 2.

In the Greeley short round on July 3, Lide and Keeper made the fastest time of the rodeo in the short round to jump from fourth to first in the aggregate. The victory was worth $9,774.

From Greeley, it was an easy drive across Wyoming for the $30,000-added Cody Stampede on the evening of July 4, where they were last on the ground in the very last performance of the rodeo.

"It had rained a little bit," Lide said about the performance in Cody. "It was good for the first few girls, but after the drag it almost seemed to make it a little bit slicker. He got to the second barrel and had a little slide to it. He safety-ed up and said no. He'll do that a little bit if he doesn't feel like he can get in and turn it. If he can't do what he wants, he tells me."

Their last run was at the $20,000-added 89th Annual Oakley Independence Stampede in Utah on Sunday, July 6. Ashley Castleberry and Skyy Blue had led the rodeo since slack and Lide and Keeper running mid-pack in the last performance caught them by .02, to win $7,708.

"I can't believe he won Oakley!" she exclaimed. "We've never got a check there before!"

After winning Oakley, Lide decided to turn out of the rest of her rodeos.

"I didn't expect Keeper to win that and after he did, I thought he deserved some time off and a little less driving," she said. "I was entered up heavier for the Fourth of July and decided to keep the miles off Keeper in the end. Terrible for Tour points, but it will be what it will be."

She said she was hoping for a great Fourth run but never expected to be the high-money earner.

"It was definitely a far-reaching goal that I had but one that I didn't know that I could accomplish," she said. "It is part of the reason that I entered the rodeos that I did. When I turned out of St. Paul and Prescott and didn't do as well as I had hoped at Cody, I didn't know that it was possible."

Lide has several of the big summer rodeos left including Sheridan, Wyoming, before heading up for her pool at the Calgary Stampede. Afterward, she's entered at Salt Lake City, Nampa, Idaho, Salinas, California and Spanish Fork and Ogden, Utah.

"After that I'm going to run home and get everything ready for school," she said. "Caldwell is a rodeo that I really like, and it overlaps the first day of school. They're starting a new school, so I'm going to go home and get everything ready."

Lide's performance at Ponoka had already bumped her to 16th in the WPRA World Standings before the stateside run of rodeos.

New World No. 1, Emily Beisel Wins $30,290 During Cowboy Christmas

By Tanya Randall

Five-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Emily Beisel thrives on the chaos of the Fourth of July run. This year was even more chaotic with so many events falling in closer succession than normal from the Reno Rodeo to the start of the Calgary Stampede.

"It really wasn't too bad, but it seemed really short this year," said the Weatherford, Oklahoma, barrel racer. "From Ponoka to Calgary was just five rodeos this year."

Including a second-place finish in the Showdown Round at the $60,000-added Ponoka Stampede in Alberta, Beisel collected $30,290 over the official Fourth of July Run, which included any rodeo that ended between July 1 and July 7, to become the new WPRA World Standings leader.

If you include her second-place finish at the Reno Rodeo, $14,629, Beisel has collected $44,919 in the last two weeks, but it did take a lot of planning, help driving and a few commercial airline flights.

She started her summer run by driving with her mother Margaret Miller to Canada with Namgis D 33 ("Chongo") and Ivory On Fire ("Liza"). Meanwhile, family friend and co-pilot in chaos, Karen Jones took another trailer to Reno with 4M Equine's Teasin Dat Guy ("Chewy") and Namgis D 35 ("Pipewrench").

On June 25, Beisel made her first run at Ponoka and took the early lead in the long go on Chongo. She left her mom with the horses in Canada, while she flew to Reno for her runs on Thursday, June 27.

"My mother is super supportive, but she cannot drive," Beisel chuckled. "But she can feed them. I had everything ready for her and pens set up, so she fed the horses while I went back to Reno."

Beisel and Chewy made the short round, which extended her stay in Reno until June 29. Afterward, she caught a flight back to Ponoka and Jones loaded the horses to head to the Northwest.

She made her last two runs in Ponoka on July 1. Although Chongo was well rested, she opted to run Liza due to ground conditions. Liza won the short round, which gave Beisel the average title and advanced them to the Showdown between the top four finishers. They ultimately finished second to former WPRA World Champion Lindsay Sears and her homegrown stallion SME One Of A Kind and still collected $17,460 for the rodeo.

After allowing Liza to recoup from her runs, Beisel and her mom drove to Montana, where they'd met up with her dad Tom. Then she caught a flight to the Northwest for her two runs on July 2 at the $8,000-added Molalla Buckeroo Rodeo and the $37,550-added St. Paul Rodeo, both in Oregon.

"I only entered those two because you can do them the same night," Beisel explained. She missed out on lucrative runs at Eugene, Oregon, and Basin City, Washington. "Barrels are the second event at Molalla and then it's 40 minutes over to St. Paul and barrels are last."

She ran Pipewrench at Molalla but finished just out of the money.

"I was so bummed," she said. "It was such a nice run, but Molalla always gets so fast at the end. I think I was sixth past the halfway point, but the last two perfs, they knocked the tar out of us. I did win a Cowboy Bible and my entry fees paid in the contestant drawing, so that was pretty cool. I did not leave empty handed."

At St. Paul, Chewy got an $11,165 victory.

"She's just an incredible mare," Beisel said. "Everyone asked what I clocked, and I said, 'I think they said a .2. Is that even possible here?' She's unreal. That was such a fun run. She got on her belly and dug her way around those barrels. That mare craves it just as much as I do. She wants to win so badly."

After St. Paul, it was an all-night drive to Red Lodge, Montana, to meet up with her family and other horses and run at the $30,000-added Cody Stampede that night.

"We love to stay in Red Lodge," she said. "It's such a nice town. They have nice grass (to park in) and a cold creek (running next to contestant parking), so the horses are really happy."

Once everyone was settled in Red Lodge, Beisel grabbed Chongo and threw in with Ari-Anna Flynn to make the short trip over to Cody, Wyoming.

"When we got there it was a mud hole," she said. "It wasn't unsafe, but we didn't stand a chance of pulling a check. I had only brought one horse because Chongo loves Cody. I should have ridden a pickup horse. He ran a 17.7. The .7 was the fastest time of the perf, and there were some good horses up. It was kind of a bummer. Mother nature this time a year...it just happens. I almost threw Pipewrench on, but I figured that he and Chewy needed to put their heads down and rest. Chongo had been resting. He'd only made one run at this point. I would have regretted not take Chongo to Cody and it being fast when I got there."

Her last two runs were at Red Lodge and Livingston, Montana, on July 4. She was first out in the matinee performance at Red Lodge's $8,500-added Home of Champions Rodeo and third out in the performance that night at the $16,500-added Livingston Roundup.

"I drew really good at Livingston," she explained. "I really didn't anticipate getting that draw because there were 60 girls asking for it. I couldn't give it up because it was such a good draw, so I thought I might as well enter Red Lodge since I would still be down there the night of the Fourth. Then I got first out in a perf at Red Lodge, so I was like, 'Well, now I've got to go!' When you draw good you've got to capitalize on them."

Liza ran the fastest time of the last performance in Red Lodge and finished fifth, earning $1,665.

"I'd never pulled a check at Red Lodge," Beisel said. "I thought Liza could handle Red Lodge. Their dirt is kind of unique. I've never had a horse really love it, but Liza seems to just deal with the weird dirt."

At Livingston, she tipped the third barrel on Chewy to draw a nice check.

"I don't know if fatigue set in or what, but I turned the first two barrels good at Livingston on Chewy," she explained. "I ended up riding really defensive going to the third and tipped it to place and win a really good check."

After Livingston, Beisel still had to make the drive to Alberta for the Calgary Stampede because she had her first run there the afternoon of July 5.

While Beisel may have missed out on a lot of sleep, she never went a day without flossing.

"It's like a pastime. It calls to me," chuckled the dental hygienist. "We get a little delirious out there, but I can promise you the one thing that didn't fall apart was my oral hygiene!"

Legendary Barrel Horse Mare TR Dashing Badger Passes

The legendary barrel horse TR Dashing Badger, better known to the world as Dolly, passed last week. Bred by Harry Thomas, Dolly made her appearance in the world on June 6, 2000. She was by the double bred Grey Badger II stud, Mr Illuminator and out of the double bred Dash For Cash mare TR Double Cash, a daughter of Texas High Dasher. The quick fiery grey filly was sure to make her mark on the world.

After a successful futurity and derby career with Jill Moody, Moody and the pretty grey mare hit the rodeo trail. The team was magical! Together they won the the NFR Average twice, in 2008 and 2010 and were also Reserve World Champions in both 2008 and 2010. The pair of Dolly & Moody were a force to be reckoned with; the rodeo wasn't decided until they ran! Most of the pair's earnings were before rodeo horses were tracked that closely but Dolly's earnings are estimated to be over $800k.

After Dolly's retirement from running barrels, she took to broodmare life with as much success as she had in the rodeo arena. According to QStallions (www.RobinGlenn.com), she had produced $861,731 as of 7/9/24 with 19 money earners averaging $45,354 each. She consistently passes on her sturdy structure, quick feet and heart to her colts.

Her biggest earner so far is futurity, derby and rodeo standout Trheavensilluminated by JL Dash Ta Heaven who has earnings of $266,513 and even placed at St Paul, OR this week with Jordan Driver. Her second biggest earner is up and coming stud Dollys Streaknbadger (by A Streak Of Fling) who earned $205,788 at the futurities and derbies. Her 3rd biggest earner is NB Ladybird, a daughter of Shawne Bug Leo who earned $171,206 at futurities and derbies. She has a bunch of young up and comers working for her so within the next months she is sure to be a million dollar producer.

Below is a note from the Thomas family about Dolly's passing that was posted on her full brother's (TR Illuminator Cash) Facebook page:
From the TR Illuminator Cash Facebook page:

—It is with heavy hearts that we inform you all of the passing of TR Dashing Badger, "Dolly".

Dolly turned countless dreams into reality for so many. She left her mark as a performer and as a producer. We hope to make her proud and continue her legacy through the sons and daughters she blessed us with. That chapter of her story is just beginning.

Thank you would never be enough to those that were the biggest part of Dolly's life throughout the years- Jill Schimkat Moody who believed in her and never left her side from a futurity horse to 2x WNFR Average Champion. Royal Vista Southwest who helped us get started and held our hand through the flushing process and always had a spot for Dolly in the Princess Barn. And to Vickie Adams who gave Dolly the absolute best semi-retirement Firewater Creek Ranch and cared for her like her own. Everything was in line for Dolly to come back to South Dakota and start her full-time retirement, but in true Dolly fashion, she changed all of our plans and went to greener pastures on her own terms.

I don't have the words to sum up what Dolly did for all of us - she was truly a life changing horse. Cowboy Christmas was always one of her favorite times to shine; this year she has the best seat in the house. Thank you for all that you gave us Dolly, fly high! —

Dolly and Jill Moody will go down in history as one of the best teams to ever run down the alley in the barrel racing! The number of teams that have won multiple NFR averages is very short so it takes a very special combination of horse and rider to achieve!

***Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the connections of Dolly...we know she was a very special horse that changed all of your lives...

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was leaving the grocery store the other day and ran into a young woman and her two little daughters. I hadn't seen them in a while so we were getting caught up. After a little bit, the oldest of the two little girls, I think she's about 4, said in this little sweet voice, "You have pretty feet." I can honestly tell you that no one has EVER told me that I have pretty feet! I looked down in surprise! Pretty feet??? Well, I had had a pedicure and my toenails were bright orange! Little girls love pretty! That explains that!

Did you know that Romans 10:15 says, "And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things." How will anyone know good things if all us Christians keep silent? They won't. Let's tell others about the goodness of God. Then we'll all have pretty feet!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
