Jordon Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Throw Down at Dodge City Roundup

By Tanya Randall

2009 National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jordon Briggs may have punched her ticket for her second trip to Las Vegas. The multiple futurity champion trainer and her 7-year-old, Busby Quarter Horses-bred gelding Famous Lil Jet ("Rollo") capped off a very successful Kansas rodeo run with a Dodge City Roundup Championship.

Briggs and Rollo collected $9,922 at the $22,500-added rodeo. They also won the $4,000-added Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo in Abilene for $2,106 and placed third at the $8,500-added Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg for $2,464.

"The beginning of the summer, I told myself that I was going to stick it out until after Dodge," said Briggs, who will be a Tolar, Texas, resident upon returning home. The $14,492 they won on the weekend bumped them to third in the WPRA World Standings with $71,708.

"From the beginning of the trip, I really didn't have any expectations of making the NFR," she continued. "I think I was like 20th in the World when I came out here. Doing well at Guymon and a couple of rodeos like that helped after healing from my broken ankle. But sitting out for two and half months, I really didn't think I had a chance to play catch up!"

Briggs had a solid Fourth of July, placing at nearly every rodeo she went to, but it wasn't the "big checks" she needed to justify staying on the road.

"I was winning anywhere from $1,200 to $500 at about every rodeo," she explained. "I'm so grateful to be placing because these rodeos are so tough, but diesel is really expensive and I'm not making money in these holes."

About mid-July, things started to turn around and the bigger checks started coming her way.

"I guess it was about Casper that things started coming together and we started winning the big checks," she said. "I think that week I won $8- or $9,000 and that really jumped us up. I won $6,000 at Ogden and good checks at Cheyenne. These are the kind of checks that can do something. I knew that my horse liked Kansas last year and that was his first time to even go to the pro rodeos. I really wanted to capitalize on this week."

After running in the Finals at the Cheyenne Frontier Days on Sunday, Briggs headed to Sidney, Iowa, for slack on Tuesday. She opted to rest Rollo and run her former futurity standout Frenchmans Future ("Stoli").

"Sidney is a great rodeo," said Briggs. "They've got $7,000 added. The ground is good and it's this humongous arena. Rollo needed some time off after four runs at Cheyenne. I feel like he kind of got out of my hands a little on that last run. He was just running too hard. I really was a little worried that he got too fried at Cheyenne. Sidney was not the place to make a confidence run after Cheyenne."

Stoli worked well but barely caught a barrel.

"We barely got a barrel because I didn't really trust her," Briggs explained. "I didn't ride hard enough and that arena is humongous!"

From Sidney, Briggs went to Phillipsburg with its firm, fast track. Briggs had always loved that rodeo even since she traveled as a child with her mother, four-time WPRA World Champion Kristie Peterson. She missed running there with her first NFR horse French-mans Jester due to rain. Last year, she caught a barrel on Rollo, who was making his first pro rodeo run through the Kansas rodeos.

"I barely drug a barrel down because I didn't trust him in that big old arena to do very well," said Briggs, who clocked a 16.79 on the WPRA Standard there with Rollo this year. "That's just a really tough rodeo. You definitely want to run your main mount at that place."

From Phillipsburg, Briggs headed to Abilene. She had planned on running Stoli because it was one of the smaller rodeos of the week but changed her mind once she got there.

"When I got there it was a really funky setup, like you could see the first barrel in the alleyway more than you could the third barrel," she explained. "I didn't think it would be very fair to her, and I was first on the ground. I thought I might as well run him. I'd rather run him on top of the ground rather than 10th on the ground. He did phenomenal."

The last rodeo of the week was Dodge City where she had her first run on Friday morning. After leaving Abilene Thursday night, Briggs didn't get to Dodge City until 2 o'clock Friday morning.

"I parked next to a fence and put panels on both sides and turned them loose," she chuckled. "I was like, 'See you guys in the morning!' I laid down in bed at 2 and set my alarm for 6 because slack started at 8 and I was 8th out. I was about half asleep, but luckily I woke up right before 8 and Rollo ran a 17.08 to win us third."

The top 12 came back to make their second run in the performance that night. Briggs and Rollo were third on the ground and clocked a 17.17 to take second in the go.

Thankfully she got to rest all day Saturday in Dodge City and got lucky draw No. 1 for the short round on Sunday night.

"I guess because of COVID and where we are in the world today I've never appreciated rodeo more than I do now. The crowds have been crazy! You have to show up two hours before the rodeo so you can get into the parking lot! The traffic in and out is crazy! It's standing room only at most of the rodeos I've been to. The patriotism, prayer, gratefulness and the American Flag, it's just really cool." – Jordon Briggs

"When you see you name at the top of the list in short rounds, you're very grateful but you're also like, 'Man don't screw it up!'" chuckled Briggs, who won the short round with a 17.15 and the aggregate in 51.36.

With the uncertainty surrounding the impact of the Pro Tour Finale in Salinas, Briggs plans on heading to the Northwest to hedge her bets on making the NFR. She bought her husband Justin and daughter Bexley a plane ticket to Salt Lake City.

"Justin and Bexley are flying into Salt Lake on Sunday, I'm going to pick them up and go to Caldwell, Moses Lake, Gooding, Canby," said Briggs. "I've never been to those rodeos; I've never been in Idaho much at all. We're going to go that week and then probably head home from there." Rollo will likely get the week off while Briggs runs Stoli more.

"I need to get on her and stay on her for three or four runs," she said. "Now that I'm more than likely going to need a backup horse for the NFR, I might as well stay out here another week or two and run her, but also run Rollo a few more times."

Land Of Enchantment -- Katie Pascoe & JR Naughty Jet Top Lovington, New Mexico

By Tanya Randall

Katie Pascoe and her homebred JR Naughty Jet ran at three rodeos last week and picked up a check on every run save one. The Morro Bay, California, barrel racer and her 12-year-old gelding won the Lea County PRCA Rodeo in Lovington, New Mexico, placed ninth at Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg and finished sixth in the average at the Dodge City Roundup for total earnings of $8,773.

"It was a really good week," said Pascoe, the daughter and granddaughter of Hall of Fame Steer Wrestlers John W Jones Jr and Sr. "It's been really fun. I appreciate the support from family and friends checking in. Most of all, I'm grateful for Naughty."

This was Pascoe's first trip to the Kansas rodeos and Lovington. "I think this is the farthest east I've ever made it in a summer," said Pascoe, who is hauling with 2017 WPRA World Champion Nellie Miller. "I don't think I've ever gone past Wyoming, Colorado."

Pascoe started her week in Tuesday slack at Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg.

"They have the ground awesome in Phillipsburg," said Pascoe, who pocketed $758 from the rodeo.

The fantastic footing gave Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday the win with a 16.61 on the WPRA Standard Pattern and Jackie Gantner's 17.15 got the 15th check.

"Naughty was feeling really good," Pascoe continued. "I was second out. Stevi (Hillman) was first out. She was a 17.02 and I was a 17.03. I was pretty happy. I was pretty confident at that point that he was feeling good, happy and rested for the week."

Their next two runs were in Dodge City on Thursday. Each morning, contestants made their first run in slack with the top 12 advancing to the performance that night.

"He made a good run in the first round, but was a little long," Pascoe recalled of her 17.57—it was the only run she made that didn't draw a check. "I barely made it back (to the performance). I was ninth or tenth coming back."

They turned in a 17.32, which ultimately placed in the second round. In the meantime, she and hauling partner Nellie Miller headed to Lovington, New Mexico, to run on Friday before hopefully making it back to the short round in Dodge City on Sunday.

"We were in the slack at Lovington," Pascoe said. "I was 16th. It was Pete Carr's rodeo and he drug at five, so I was first. That was really helpful there."

Pascoe left the rodeo winning it with a 17.12. She was back in Dodge City when found out she won via a text message from her husband Bear on Saturday night.

"He and Pete Carr are friends and Pete had texted him before I ever could have found out. He's like 'Congratulations!' I'm like 'For what?'" she laughed.

The victory in Lovington was worth $4,772.

Naughty finished the weekend strong for Pascoe, placing second in the short round at Dodge City Sunday night, to add $3,243 to her week's total.

"I was very proud of him for staying strong throughout the week," she added.

She and Miller were up at Lawton, Oklahoma, on Tuesday night before heading back toward the northwest. They've got Logan,

He only cuts one leg and he cuts through everything." A simple speed cut that got infected, which in turn led to a bout of colitis brought on by the antibiotics, was one of the reasons Naughty was out for nearly a year. "I stumbled across these (LeMieux) and they have a really good shock absorber on the splint area."

Utah, on Thursday and Hermiston, Oregon, on Friday. The following week is Caldwell, Idaho, Gooding, Idaho, and Canby, Oregon.

With the Tour Finale in Salinas, California, a favored former circuit rodeo that both ladies had done well at in the past, they decided to make qualifying a priority.

"It would be sad not to make the Tour Finale because it's equal distance from both of our houses," Pascoe said. "It's right there and it would be really cool to make it. We realized we had to go to 35 Tour Rodeos, so we committed to doing that. We had to be careful with what we're putting on our horses. We've tried to be really strategic as to where we've gone and when to the best of our abilities to save our horses. As of right now, it looks like we'll get to the 35 and we'll see at the end of that."

Overall, she's happy with how her summer has gone.

"I did not have low expectations of the summer; I had managed expectations of the summer," she stated. "I was hoping that Naughty would feel good and win a little bit. I'm pretty happy with what's been going on."

She said she's really enjoyed the day-to-day experiences, learning to take things as they come, and hauling with a friend.

RODEO FUN FACT

California barrel racers Katie Pascoe and Nellie Miller have four horses in their trailer this summer. Each has a pair of homebred, full siblings.

Pascoe has JR Naughty Jet, 12, and JR Blazin Dash, 6. Both are by leading barrel horse sire Blazin Jetolena and out of Dash On Sky, by On The Dash.

Miller has her WPRA World Champion Rafter W Minnie Reba ("Sister"), 13, and Rebas Cash, 10. Both are by KS Cash N Fame out of Espuela Roan, by Blue Light Ike.

going to laugh about years from now."

Pascoe currently sits 33rd in the WPRA World Standings with $25,036. With COVID and the impact of the Tour Finale uncertain, it's possible she still has a shot at making the NFR. However, Pascoe is really happy with how this season is setting her up for the next.

"That's really what I was hoping to get out of this summer—set myself up for the winter rodeos next year, and end the year with a sound horse, so I can have him ready to go in the winter," she said. "The icing on the cake would be to get to go to the Tour Finale since it's right there in Salinas and we love Salinas!"

Rounding out the top five high sellers were a pair of $24,000 purchases.

Teena Odom purchased Nilli Vanilli, a 2-year-old palomino daughter of up-and-coming sire Vanilla Viper out of the Blazin Jetolena, Lady Perks mare Blazin Black Jet. Gone too soon...

Over the past couple weeks, the barrel racing world has lost two great barrel horses. A couple weeks ago, Ivy Hurst lost her special star, Top Of The Roc, better known as Diddy. Diddy was a 14 yr old dark brown gelding by Sticks An Stones out of the Cash Not Credit mare, Top Bug Cash bred by Jud Little.

Hurst and Diddy paths crossed in 2018 and went to winning right away. They went on to win the Reno Rodeo Championship in 2019 and have placed at prorodeos throughout the country over the past few years. The team ended the 2019 season #24 in the World earning $57,157 and ended the 2020 season #17 in the World earning $36,002. Diddy's all out style was one that brought everyone to the fence to watch.

Just this past week, Jessie Telford lost her home raised winner, Famous Cool Whip known to everyone as Cool Whip. This big pretty sorrel was a 10 yr old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of Had A Kanita by Docs Rocky Top. He was a winner from the start!

Winning as a 4 yr old at the futurities and then moving on to winning at derbies and rodeos as a 5 yr old, and they never looked back. In 2018 Telford and Cool Whip hit the rodeo trail and qualified to the 2018 NFR. There he helped Telford win over $113k and she ended up #5 in the Finals Standings with earnings of $201,572. In 2019 the pair ended up #20 in the World, in 2020 they were #16 in the World. With this past week's earnings before Cool Whip's untimely death, the pair sat #16 in the World, only $1000 out of 15th. According to the latest Equistat report, which didn't include about the last 2 months of rodeos, Cool Whip had $419, 848 in lifetime earnings. Cool Whip's heart and try will be missed by the whole barrel racing community.

The Barrel Racing Report sends our thoughts and prayers to both Ivy and Jessie. They loved their horses and provided them with the absolute best care. They were happy horses and they will both be greatly missed. Rest in Peace Diddy & Cool Whip.

PRCA CEO George Taylor steps down

Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association® (PRCA) Board of Directors accepted the resignation of PRCA Chief Executive Officer George Taylor on Tuesday, Aug. 10, effective immediately.

"We want to thank George for his time as the CEO," said Jacobs Crawley, PRCA Chairman of the Board. "The PRCA Board is extremely proud of the many contributions that George has made to the organization over the last three-plus years."

Taylor led the PRCA through the challenges presented by COVID-19, overseeing the shift of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® (NFR) to Globe Life Field in Arlington, Texas, in December 2020 and to include a full payout of $10 million.

Taylor brought some of the world's biggest rodeos, such as RodeoHouston and the Calgary Stampede, back under the PRCA umbrella. He also orchestrated the television partnership with The Cowboy Channel, bringing rodeo coverage to broadcast television and live streaming in an unprecedented manner. Taylor also led the establishment and growth of Jr. Rodeo, incorporating some of the nation's biggest youth-oriented rodeo associations.

Tom Glause, the Chief Operating Officer and Director of Rodeo Administration, will serve as interim CEO, the Board announced.

New Date for Womens Rodeo World Championship Broadcast

The WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) and PBR (Professional Bull Riders) announced a date change to the 2021 Women's Rodeo World Championship (WRWC). The event, which is set to again be the largest payout in the history of women's rodeo, will now take place October 26-29 and still be hosted in Las Vegas at the South Point

The CBS Television Network will then broadcast the final round of the 2021 WRWC on Sunday, Oct. 31.

"Women's rodeo is one of the fastest-growing sports in America that PBR enthusiastically supports," said Sean Gleason, Commissioner and CEO, PBR. "Scheduling the WRWC on CBS Television Network in a highly visible Sunday afternoon Fall window is a very big milestone for women's rodeo that will help create even more new fans."

WCRA also announced that the event format, the payout, and the location will all remain the same as previously announced.

The world championship event is open to any female athlete ages 13 and up competing in breakaway roping, barrel racing, team roping and will award a $750,000 guaranteed payout with equal money in all four disciplines. The event will also award a Women's Rodeo All-Around Champion — a $20,000 cash bonus. Each discipline champion will walk away from the world champion event with $60,000 each.

Nominations for the 2021 Women's Rodeo World Championship Leaderboard are now open and will close October 3 at 11:59 p.m. CT.

Athletes interested in the four-day event can visit womensrodeoworldchampionship.com for all information regarding format and payout

Vegas Tree Lighting Ceremony

Las Vegas Events recently announced The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas will open on Wednesday, Dec. 1 — one day earlier than originally scheduled — from 5-10 p.m. (PST) for a special preview shopping experience and official tree lighting.

The show will then continue daily at the Las Vegas Convention Center Dec. 2-11 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

After the special opening date and ceremony, The Cowboy Channel Cowboy Christmas will run concurrently with the Wrangler NFR over the next 10 days and feature more than 500,000 square feet of show floor and slightly fewer than 350 exhibitors from across the U.S. The area is adjacent to the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation's Hunter & Outdoor Christmas Expo. Average attendance over the past four shows in Las Vegas (2016-19) was slightly less than 250,000 over the 10 days.

Marty Melvin Memorial Scholarship

As a nine-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier, the late Marty Melvin knew a lot about winning and how to appreciate a winner. Now, to help keep the longstanding winning tradition of the Weatherford (Texas) College rodeo program going strong, his widow, Judy, has given the Weatherford College Foundation a $10,000 gift to create a new permanent scholarship endowment in his honor.

The Marty Melvin Scholarship is earmarked for steer wrestlers on Weatherford College's rodeo team. The award is especially close to the heart of Weatherford College rodeo coach Johnny Emmons, who is approaching the end of his first decade at the helm.

For years, Emmons was an assistant to the late Mike Brown. Together they have guided WC rodeo athletes to 16 consecutive appearances at the College National Finals Rodeo in Casper, Wyo., with this year's women's team finishing fifth in the nation — the highest finish ever for a WC team.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Our Associate Pastor's son, Thad, who is six, was telling me about a badger he had seen on their property. I asked him if it had gotten into their chickens. He said, "No, he was just passing through."

My friend Sue said, "No, he's just passing through lots of properties and he's making notes of who has chickens and then when he comes back, he'll try to get your chickens!" This was done with animation and instructions on how to get your gun and be ready when he does!

Thad must be gifted very literal, because he looked at his sister, Emma, and said, "What day did that badger go through?" By golly he was going to be ready when he came back! He is so serious but I couldn't help it, I laughed!

Friends, we have an enemy. I Peter 5:7-9 confirms that and describes him as a roaring lion. Like that badger, he's looking for whom he may devour! Don't let it be you! I Peter goes on to tell us to be sober and vigilant. When he comes with lies and temptations, we are ready.

We've spent time in the Bible and we are crystal clear about what's up, what's down, what's right, what's wrong, what God blesses and what He doesn't bless. When we pay attention, there will be no way he can sneak in and destroy anything in our life.

Another wonderful God promise for us this week!
