One Step Closer to Vegas—Carley Richardson & Fashionable Boy Top Lawton and Lovington

By Tanya Randall

Pampa, Texas, barrel racer Carley Richardson is one step closer to her first qualification to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas. The 24-year-old and her “backup” horse Fashionable Boy topped both the Lea County PRCA Rodeo in Lovington, N.M., and the Lawton Rangers Rodeo in Okla., to jump to No. 9 in the WPRA’s World Standings with $66,131.

“I try not to think about it much,” said Richardson on her chances of making it to Vegas. “I’m just trying to solid runs. There are a lot of tough horses in the field this year.”

After her main mount Doda Flit (“Radio”) did so well the first weekend of August, Richardson thought that he deserved a little rest and Boy would get the call at Lawton.

“I had planned on running Boy at Lawton and then go ahead and run Radio at Lovington,” she said. “Boy did so good at Lawton, I thought I’d better try him again and give Radio that much more time off.”

Boy, a 14-year-old sorrel gelding, hadn’t seen much action over the summer. In fact he almost didn’t make the summer haul.

“Right before I left the summer he ate a weed at the house that paralyzed his tongue and made him really, really sick,” Richardson said. “When I took him on the road, he was still healing up from that.”

Boy didn’t see any action until the second week of July when he got the call at the Pikes Peak Or Bust Rodeo in Colorado Springs.

“I ran him at Colorado Springs because it was muddy,” said Richardson. “I won my first set on him and then hit a barrel in the championship round. I’ve been riding him as much as I can but he hasn’t been run much at all this summer.

“I ran him last week at Abilene, Kansas, and he won third there. That was first run since the second week of July. I made a run on him at the house because my ground was really good. I told my dad that I might ought to cruise him through just to make sure he still remembers what he’s doing. He felt really good.”

Boy actually “shocked” Richardson with his run at Lawton on Wednesday.

“At Lawton, I thought he made a really good run,” she said. “I was the very first runner of the whole rodeo. They said 17 flat and I thought there’s no way that could be a (WPRA) Standard, but I went over and looked at the measurements and it was a Standard. I was like “Golly, that’s faster than Radio has been on all summer on a Standard. He shocked us for sure.”

They had a day off before running in the performance at Lovington on Friday night.

him. Usually, he'll kind of quit me going home about halfway. Those two runs, he ran home as hard as he could. Apparently the break did him some good too." Bred by Dale and Mary Tubesing, Richmond, Indiana, Boy is a three-quarter brother to Sydni Blanchard's great NFR horse and Calgary Stampede Champion Firewater Five. Boy is by Nonstop Firewater (Fire Water Flit x Nonstop Jet) and out of Fashionable Pay, by Jet's Pay Day.

Richardson had purchased Boy about four years ago from Catherine Clary of DeRidder, La. Clary had bought the gelding from Raymond and Chris Duke.

"When I tried him I'm pretty sure I hit all three barrels," she laughed. "I just kind of had a feeling. He hadn't been run in a long time because she had two kids. He was just kind of hanging out. I didn't want to try him more than once because he wasn't in shape and we didn't want to make him sore. It took me about a year to figure out how to ride him. He would either completely run off at the first barrel or mow it down. There really wasn't much in between. He was the first horse that I'd ridden that my dad hasn't trained, and I guess I was just used to riding a certain way."

Richardson will head back to the Northwest on Wednesday, and even though Radio will be in the trailer, Boy will likely get the call.

"I took him to the Northwest last summer because Radio got hurt in Cheyenne," she said. "That was really his first rodeo experiences. He did good in the Northwest last year, but he'd never won a pro rodeo"—until this past weekend, that is.

Richardson wanted to thank her parents and friends for all their help and support, saying "People don't realize how much an encouraging text or message on Facebook can do, especially when things aren't going well, that you still have people behind you."

Tracy Nowlin & DJK Madison Shine at Sikeston

By Hope Sickler

Prairie Circuit cowgirl Tracy Nowlin from Nowata, Oklahoma sealed the deal in Sikeston when she and her 9-year-old mare DJK Madison "Dolly Jo" brought home the championship at this year's Sikeston Jaycee Bootheel PRCA Rodeo.

Nowlin and "Dolly Jo" blazed the cloverleaf pattern in 16.18 seconds which was good enough for the win and a check for $4,333. "Dolly Jo" is a daughter of Royal Blue Chew Chew and out of Run Madison by Sunset Six.

"I bought "Dolly Jo" off of Facebook for my son as a calf horse. Once we got her home and roped some calves on her, I decided to take her around the pattern just for fun. She had never been around the pattern prior but she took to almost immediately. Within a month and a half on the pattern, she was running consistent 2D times," explained Nowlin.

With not even a full year on the pattern, the 14.2 petite mare has already picked up checks at some other big rodeos like Ponca City and Strong City.

"She has been blowing my mind. When I first saw her ad on Facebook, this feeling came over me and I had this gut feeling that we needed to go take a look. It was love at first sight. She is definitely making a rodeo horse and taking it all in stride."

Nowlin explained that the little mare is so fast that she has had to ride her differently than anything else she has ever ran.

"Our run at Sikeston was nice and smooth. She is so fast that you have to sit up and let her work. I have had to learn to slow myself down in order to let her do her job. When I heard my time announced, I was overwhelmed with excitement," Nowlin said. Nowlin hopes to qualify for circuit finals this year and then hit some of the winter rodeos around home.

RANCH

(High On Corona SI 93 X Jess Tara, Mr Jess Perry SI 113)
 A really nice heading and breakaway horse! She has also been started on the barrels and poles. A great youth prospect and excellent ranch horse.

(Jesse James Jr, Mr Jess Perry SI 113 x Just A Wildone)
 A nice barrel and pole horse - just starting to be hauled and exhibitioned. Making a really nice breakaway and goat tying horse - perfect for an experienced high school rodeo girl!

(Dash Ta Fame SI 113 x Watch Her Dash, Rare Form SI 120)
 Running barrels and poles - starting to be hauled and has the typical Dash Ta Fame style. Super willing and athletic.

(High On Corona SI 93 x Wild Women Do, Dash For Cash SI 104) His Dam has produced foals with earnings of $397,124. On track for the 2016 futurities in barrels and poles and making a nice heading horse.

(High On Corona SI 93 x Fonderos AAA, Dash Ta Fame SI 113) Dam is a AAA mare and proven barrel horse - Futurity, Derby & WPRA Winner. Super cross, gentle and just being started under saddle.

(High On Corona SI 93 x Shes A Cool Task, Imtoocool)
 His dam is a proven barrel horse - very nice moving and a good looking gelding.

(High On Corona SI 93 x Shes A Cool Task, Imtoocool)
 Very nice filly with lots of potential.

(Flash Or Dash x Deals Jud, Rodeo Jud) A proven barrel horse and producer of arena horses. She is in foal to High On Corona SI 93 for a 2016 foal.

(High On Corona SI 93 x Fonderos AAA, Dash Ta Fame SI 113) His dam is a AAA Dash Ta Fame mare and proven barrel horse - Futurity, Derby & WPRA Winner. Gentle and a nice moving gelding.

Cagle and Libby Win Average at Meagan McCain Memorial

Meagan McCain Memorial.
August 7-9, 2015, Priceville, AL

The Memorial is held annually to raise funds for Meagan McCain Memorial Scholarships. This year featured a change in the location and major change in format. We had a total of 720 entries in the four different races.

Jimmy Cagle and Libby won the average and the Champion Saddle. In addition to running and placing on five different horses, Jimmy was also one of our tractor drivers for the weekend. With the help of his wife, Jamie, who warmed up Jimmy's horses in addition to the horse that she rode and the help of Tim Bowen who filled in on the tractor, Jimmy won over $4,000 for the weekend.

ACBRA Finals Pays Out Over $130,000

ACBRA Finals
July 31-Aug 2, 2015, Salinas, CA

The ACBRA Association had their finals this past weekend, July 31st - August 2, 2015 at the Salinas Sports Complex in Salinas, CA. Over 400 entries and total paid out for the weekend was $131,690. $50,000 in awards were given out, including 14 saddles. The finals started off with a warm-up race Friday night with over 250 entries. The 1st go round of the finals started Saturday morning with the U1000 category, followed by the U3500, U7500, Open and Junior category (categories are based on LTE on the horse, with the exception of the junior category). The 2nd go round was run on Sunday in reverse order in all categories. Each category had $6,000 added money and paid out in each go and average in a straight pay format and saddles were awarded to the average winners. Also all times for each go round were carried over to a 4d sidepot, which had $10,000 added for Saturday, $10,000 added for Sunday and $10,000 added to the average as well. Saddles were awarded to the average winners of each division. Total added money for the weekend was over $60,000.

ACBRA is a non-profit barrel racing association, run by volunteer barrel racers. All proceeds made goes back to the members in the form of added money and awards. Races are run primarily in California and some in Nevada. For more info on the association visit www.acbra.net.

Headin' For Home

“Classic” by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A friend passed this along to me and it's worth repeating. Its the Top Ten Predictions for the year.

1. The Bible will still have all the answers.
2. Prayer will still be the most powerful thing on earth.
3. The Holy Spirit will still move.
4. God will still honor the praises of His people.
5. There will still be God-anointing preaching.
6. There will still be singing of praise to God.
7. God will still put out blessings upon His people.
8. There will still be room at the Cross.
9. Jesus will still love you.
10. Jesus will still save the lost when they come to Him.

With all the problems in the world today, it's good to remember who is really in control. Remember, too, that the Word of the Lord endures forever. (1 Peter 1:25)

If you've made Jesus your Lord and Savior, you have nothing to fear in this world. Second Timothy 1:7 says God hasn't given us a spirit of fear but rather he has given us power, love and a sound mind.

Corrie Ten Boom's advice is still true today when she said, "Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a know God." Hallelujah!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor “Church at the Barn” in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
