Kelsey Treharne & VF Eddies Alive Collect $67,541 at Inaugural Royal Crown Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kelsey Treharne and VF Eddies Alive ("Alvin"), owned and bred by Danny Ray's Victory Farms, took home the lion's share of the loot at the inaugural Royal Crown Futurity, held August 6-9 in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

She and the 4-year-old gelding accounted for an impressive $67,541. Of that total, $46,680 and $8,192 was the owners and breeders share, respectively for Danny Ray, and the stallion owner's share of $8,192 went to Twisted J Ranch for Eddie Stinson. Treharne and Alvin also picked up $4,507 for placing in the 1D of both open races with carryovers.

"It's crazy!" exclaimed Treharne. The Collinsville, Texas-based trainer also finished third on her newly crowned Old Fort Days Futurity Champion VF Cream Rises ("Puff") for $33,940 from the combined owner's, breeder's and stallion owner's checks. All totaled, Alvin and Puff's earnings accounted for astounding $101,511! Shockingly, the trip to Rock Springs was a very last minute decision.

"We weren't even planning on going," she explained. "Ashley (Schafer) had said something to me at Fort Smith, and I was like, 'What? They had just put Eddie Stinson in there that day! I honestly hadn't even looked at it because I didn't have anything that was eligible. I showed Danny Ray and got him talked into going. Everything was very last minute and they were very accommodating. It was awesome! It was ran great! We'll definitely be back. We had a blast!"

At the Old Fort Days Futurity the prior weekend, Alvin worked well, making the finals, and finishing 19th on the larger 16-second pattern. In Rock Springs, on the shorter course, Alvin was absolutely flying.

"He's good at that," laughed Treharne, who had previously noted that Alvin's only hiccup during the training process was getting too strong with her when she started asking for more speed. Given his strong nature, Alvin excels in the smaller setups like Rock Springs.

"He likes the smaller patterns," she said. "He's done well everywhere, including the bigger patterns, but I just feel like excels in small patterns. He won Kinder on a smaller pattern. It was a good trap pen for him and he was awesome!"

The ultimate difference between the two futurities, said Treharne, "He was just more confident."

Alvin ran a 15.110 to take second in the first round of the Futurity behind Cody Bauserman and Aint God Good's 15.052. He stayed incredibly consistent with a 15.128 to win the second round and take the average over multiple futurity winners Anita Ellis and RV Two Dash Ta Vegas, 30.238 to 30.284.

Puff was also steady with her runs, finishing just out of the money in the first round with a 15.481 and placing fifth in the second with a 15.415 for her third-place average finish.

Both Alvin and Puff were bred and raised in Ray's program and by his former stallion Eddie Stinson. Alvin is out of the IBRA Murfreesboro Futurity Champion VF Burrs Alive, a Burrs First Down mare that Ray raised out of a granddaughter of Bugs Alive In 75. Puff is a half-sister to 2012 WPRA World Champion Perculation and Ray's junior stallion VF The Main Squeeze, out of Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck. Alvin and Puff were started under saddle by Riley South and sent to Treharne early in 2019.

Treharne, who won the 2012 National High School Finals Rodeo Goat Tying Championship on Frenchmans Fabulous in Rock Springs, says she knew right away that Alvin was going to be a good one.

“Alvin was just kind of a freak,” she said after winning the Kinder Cup BFA Futurity on the gelding earlier this year. “He was so easy. His fourth day on the barrel pattern was like he’d been on the barrel pattern for four months! He just wanted to be a barrel horse.”

It was a hectic two weeks for Alvin and Puff between the COVID-rescheduled Old Fort Days Futurity in Arkansas and the Royal Crown in Wyoming.

Hailey's On A Hot Streak, Wins Lawton In Record Time on DM Sissy Hayday

By Tanya Randall

Two-time and defending WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel and her great mare DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") have been on a hot streak during the Plains States run of rodeos. Their most recent victory was a $4,941 effort at the $10,000-added Lawton Rangers Rodeo, held August 5-8 in Oklahoma.

The dynamic duo also finished third at the $12,500-added Sikeston Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo in Missouri for $2,946. Their $7,897 on the weekend moved them to No. 2 in the WPRA World Standings with $67,466.

"I've had a great couple of weeks with her," Kinsel said of the daughter of the late PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Royal Sissy Irish, by Royal Shake Em. "It's been as good as it possibly can be thanks to her. She feels outstanding!"

The prior week, Kinsel and Sis won Sidney, Iowa, and took second at Dodge City, Kansas, after posting a 16.63, a world record on a WPRA Standard Pattern at a rodeo, to win the second round. They won Lawton with a new arena record with their 16.90 edging the former record of 16.93 set by Lisa Lockhart and Rosas Cantina CC. They initially set a new arena record in Sikeston on Friday night, which was later best by fellow NFR qualifier and second-place finisher Cheyenne Wimberly and Dash Ta Suz and eventual winner Ryann Pedone and French Zone.

The COVID situation has put Kinsel in an interesting position with 9-year-old speedster. Normally, the mare will have a steady schedule of big paying rodeos with some periodic breaks. This year with so many top-tier events like the Calgary Stampede and Cheyenne Frontier Days cancelling, Kinsel has been still trying to save her mare for the bigger rodeos, some of which she wouldn't have considered in the past.

"Thankfully, the last couple of weeks the rodeos were big enough where I thought it was going to pay," she explained. "There were plenty entered. They may have been smaller added money than I may I go to in a regular year, but this year, they're the biggest ones. They're paying better than they did before because they got the entries. It really evens out. I feel like I've made pretty much quality runs here recently. I think Burwell (Nebraska) was the smallest one that I've run her at in quite a while, but if you win first they pay good!"

Some of these rodeos aren't unfamiliar to Kinsel, but it's been a while since she's been to them.

"Some of them it's been a while just because I've gotten into a routine of going to other things, or bigger things," she said. "I haven't been to Kansas since 2016. I'd been going up north and staying in the cool a little bit longer. Without that option, I went to the Kansas rodeos and she's been doing really good."

During the shutdown, Kinsel kept Sister in shape and hit a couple of bigger rodeos with her like Woodward, Oklahoma, but mostly ran her younger palomino mare DH Jess Stellar ("Jules") at Mesquite. Jules even won a check spelling for Sis during one of the double-run days during the Houston Finish at the end of May.

Kinsel, who resides in Stephenville, Texas, but calls Cotulla, Texas, home, had a quiet Fourth of July run, mostly due Mother Nature's influence on the draw.

"I had (Sis) good shape over the Fourth, but I just didn't draw anything," she said. "I can't really do much about that. We did what we could with our runs. She got a little strong and we had to dial that back a little bit. The main thing we've changed is I now say 'Whoa' at the first barrel. She's feel great and sound and has been all along. I'm really thankful for that."

With some of the "smaller" rodeos now having a bigger impact on the standings, Kinsel hasn't been able to season Jules as much as she would like.

"I'd love to have more runs on her and more rodeos to make on her to get her further along, but I've only made three runs on her in the last several weeks," Kinsel explained. "She's been great every time."

Jules saved Sis from running during the storm at North Platte, Nebraska, the only rodeo that Kinsel didn't place at this past weekend.

"North Platte was hard for her to figure out," said Kinsel. "It was a lot of pressure with the storm going on. She hasn't had to run with it hitting her face like that. She handled it pretty well. 'I hit a barrel to win Sac City (Iowa) on her. I ran her at Deadwood and she fell down. For her to go from Deadwood to Sac City and not be scared...I was pretty proud of her for that!'" Kinsel only has the WCRA's rescheduled Stampede at the E this weekend and plans on running Jules. She has Hastings, Nebraska, and Guymon, Oklahoma, the following week.

"I'm going to run Jules in the first couple of rounds and see how she does," she said. "If I progress to the bigger money rounds, I may get on Sis or I may stay on her. We'll just have to see. Sis feels great but I hate to put more trailer miles on her, but you also have to take advantage the good runs we have left. She'll probably go to Kinsel still plans on making the most of Sis's runs. "She's been feeling outstanding, but I'd want to rest her before she gets tired of it or gets sore from it," she said. "I've made a habit of that, but I don't want to get ahead of myself. There's still a lot of great runs left in September, some big one-headers that I want to take her to and the Tour Finals in Rapid (City)...stuff like that."

Bootheel Boost--Ryann Pedone & French Zone Win Sikeston

By Tanya Randall

Veteran futurity horse trainer Ryann Pedone picked up a much needed boost in her quest for her first National Finals Rodeo qualification with a $5,461 victory at the $12,500-added Sikeston Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo, held August 5-9 in Missouri.

She and French Zone ("Hollywood"), a recent acquisition of Charlie Cole and Jason Martin's, also set an arena record for the rodeo with a time of 15.91.

"I needed that because it's been a little rough," said Pedone. "I'm on the bubble and I have to win some money and I don't know the mare. I've struggled with her because I'm getting with her on the fly."

After good runs at Sidney, Iowa, and Phillipsburg and Dodge City, Kansas, the prior week, Pedone thought she was one her way to figuring how to ride the mare. Then her bubble burst at North Platte, Nebraska, her first rodeo of the week, when Hollywood blew by the first barrel.

Knowing that she was going to have to make some serious changes, Pedone worked the mare at Ardmore before meeting the farrier. Her next run was at the $10,000-added Lawton Rangers Rodeo in Oklahoma, where they tied for ninth to pocket $928.

On the way to Sikeston, Pedone stopped to run at two jackpots for Feel The Sting, who was back on the trailer after battling sore feet and abscesses. At the second jackpot, she ran Hollywood too and set an arena record.

"We ended up going Friday night to a jackpot at Josh Andrews' (in Greenbriar, Arkansas)," she said. "His ground was excellent. The first barrel was kind of in the middle of the arena so I thought well I'll cruise her through here and not call on her. I had a really smooth run and she set an arena record."

The very next night, she set an arena record at Sikeston too. "If you saw my North Platte run, there's no way that you would say that mare was going to do worth a darn at the next two," laughed Pedone. "I had to make a few adjustments. One was making sure she's tired. She can't take prosperity. Sometimes it's just saddling her up and letting her sit there with a hay bag in front of her. Two, is having a buddy with her at the alley way. She looks really calm, but I can feel her getting nervous. She likes having a friend up there."

Bred by Jack and Kelly Bruner, Hollywood, 6, is by legendary sire Frenchmans Guy out of the race-winning Thoroughbred sprinter Star Zone, by Wild Zone. Cole and Martin purchased the mare before the start of the summer run.

"She's a phenomenal mare," said Pedone. "Kelly did a great job with her. I'm having to learn how to get with her and keep her schooled up. It's just been a little difficult."

"You can tell when you watch my videos that I'm thinking about my riding. 'Hey Ryann! Sit down here! Don't go two handed! Stay one handed! I had to change a lot. I had to change my world for the mare—feeding program, treat program and my riding style! But, you do what it takes to keep them happy and winning.'"

In between rodeos, Pedone has been returning to her Sunset, Texas, home to work colts for two or three days before flying back out to the rodeos.

"I'm really lucky because I've great help and Jason and Charlie have been really great to me," she said. "When I'm home it's go full fledge, don't get any sleep...I sleep on the plane when I'm going back!"

Pedone, who is mostly running her own futurity horses this year, is solely focused on the rodeos for the month of August. In September, she'll pick back up with the Cornhusker, Fizz Bomb and Ardmore futurities, but if she needs to she'll find the right person to catch ride for her if one conflicts with a rodeo.

"I'm on the bubble so there's no time to missing anything. We have Stinger back on the trailer. This week is full throttle. I go to Jerome (Idaho), then Big Timber (Montana)—it's a small rodeo, but it's a rodeo, and then go to Circle, Montana; Baker, Montana; Doug-

STAR ZONE...

At the 2014 BFA World Championships, Kelly Bruner was trying to find a taker for her open Thoroughbred mare Star Zone. A winner of three races from her nine starts, the 12-year-old daughter of Wild Zone was stakes placed and earned $30,485 while running in sprint races of six furlongs.

At the time, Star Zone had produced Fabulous Zone, by Frenchmans Fabulous, and No Miss Taken, by PC Frenchmans Hayday, who were 5 and 3, respectively. Her last foal for the Bruners was French Zone, a yearling by Frenchmans Guy.

"Kelly was walking around with the mare's papers at BFA," recalled Ryann Pedone. "I asked Kelly what was wrong with her and she said she was open. It was my worst year for me personally. I really wasn't in the position to get a broodmare. However, there was something about this mare. I take the papers and called the gal that worked for me to schedule for her to go pick up that mare. Then Kelly runs No Miss Taken and does really well in the Juvenile. So, I call my girl back and told her to get in the truck and go get that mare before Kelly changes her mind!"

No Miss Taken won nearly $50,000 in aged event competition. Fabulous Zone helped Bruner qualify for the 2018 NFR. French Zone placed in rounds four and five of the 2018 NFR as a 5-year-old.

Pedone's oldest foal out of Star Zone is a 4-year-old by Guys Easy Jet that will run in 2021. She also has a 2-year-old by No Pressure On Me and recently sold a yearling by Feel The Sting. Star Zone has another No Pressure On Me growing in recipient mare and Pedone plans on breeding her to Traffic Guy in 2021.

"If you cross that Thoroughbred mare with something with Sun Frost, it was good," said Pedone.

Final Montana Sale For Copper Spring Ranch Grosses $1.245 Million

By Tanya Randall

Copper Spring Ranch's final sale at their former home in picturesque Bozeman, Montana, saw 72 horses sell for $1,245,500. The sale featured 74 cataloged prospects with 72 walking through the ring and 68 changing hands for a $1,175,500 net.

Selling horses averaged $17,287, an increase from 2019, and had a median price of $13,500.

Guest consignors Lance Robinson and Janie Freed's offering of Evening Fame topped the sale, commanding a $70,000 final bid from Danielle Collier. The pretty, fluid moving Dash Ta Fame 2-year-old bay stallion was a foal out of the great mare Evening Traffic, by Dash Thru Traffic.

Evening Traffic, out of the Bunny Bid mare Bunny Eve, is the dam of earners of more than $300,000 including Michelle Darling's Morning Traffic, an earner of more than $270,000, leading sire Traffic Guy, sire of earners of $537,000, and pro rodeo winning sire Dashing Guy.

Second favorite with bidders was the Copper Spring offering of Ema Gene Evans, who sold for $52,500. The classy yearling black filly is by the late Furyofthewind, a multiple futurity champion sire with earners of more than $451,000, out of the Dash Ta Fame, High Brow Hickory mare Runninferame.

It was a tie for third choice with the two Copper Spring consignments of Fuzzie Naval and Patriotic Panties each selling for $45,000.

Fuzzie Naval, a fancy 2-year-old palomino mare is by Firewa-ter Canyon, one the leading freshman sires in the barrel racing arena in 2019, out of proven producer SX Frenchmans Peach, by Frenchmans Guy. A champion performer, SX Frenchmans Peach is the dam of Canadian Pro Rodeo Champion Fames To Blame and multiple aged event and open champion SX Dr Peacharita.

Patriotic Panties, a quick footed sorrel yearling filly, is by Jet Black Patriot, sire of racehorses with earnings of $13.6 million, out of Equi-Stat's All-Time Leading Futurity mare and the No. 4 Futurity Horse of All-Time, Famous Silk Panties, by Dash Ta Fame. Famous Silk Panties is the dam of multiple aged event reserve champion SR Godiva, VGBRA Futurity Champion The Kandyman, multiple futurity finalist Size Three Bikini and multiple futurity finalist SR Schill B Commando.

Rounding out the top five high sellers at $43,000 was the Copper Spring consignment Go On Judge Me. The yearling sorrel mare is by All Time Leading Barrel Sire Dash Ta Fame out of the stakes winning Judge Cash mare Judge Me Rapid.

The other horse to cross the $40k mare was the McColee Land & Livestock consigned, Tres Ta One. The hammer dropped at $41,000 for this speedy looking 2 year old sorrel stallion. By All Time Leading Barrel Sire Dash Ta Fame, Tres Ta One was out of the blue hen stakes winning Tres Seis mare, Tres Of Linda. Tres of Linda has already produced Dextter a $404,894 earning stakes winner of two grade 1 stakes races and is a leading contender for championship honors.

Stampede at the E Qualifying Rounds Projected Payout over $250,000

WCRA (World Champions Rodeo Alliance) today announced payout details regarding the August 11-14 Qualifying Rounds at the Stampede at The E. The qualifying rounds along with the August 15 main event held at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma is projected to payout upwards of $550,000.

Based on estimated entries of 100 per discipline - OPEN qualifying rounds will pay a little more than $44,000 per discipline; while, DY (youth) qualifying rounds will pay out up to $16,250 per discipline based on 50 entries per discipline. When combined, the qualifying round will pay out more than $250,000.

The main event will consist of the number one athlete from the WCRA Leaderboard, the top qualifying DY (youth) athlete, and eight athletes from the qualifying rounds, totaling ten athletes in each timed event discipline.

In addition, DY Team Roping will have a #10.5 incentive which will pay out $3,500 (based on the 50 team estimate) in four holes; $1250, $1000, $750, $500.

Athletes in each discipline will compete for a share of $28,000 in the main event with the champions walking away with a minimum of $12,500 each. Bull riders in the Stampede at the E will compete for a $78,000 purse as the $50,000 event champion payout from Kansas City will be carried over after no qualified rides in the showdown round at the Royal City Roundup.

All 10 athletes in each discipline who qualify to compete in the main event will receive a paycheck.

Entries will remain open until August 5 at 5 p.m. for timed event athletes (OPEN and DY) for their chance to compete in the Stampede at The E through the "Open to the World Qualifying Pools." These pools will give any athlete the opportunity to enter and earn a spot in the August 15 one-day $300,000 rodeo. In addition, the timed events will be multiple entry allowing athletes to potentially compete in both the WCRA Pool and Open Pool. Athletes can enter HERE.

Entry fees for the OPEN pools will be $625 while DY fees will be $500.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Psalm 37:4 tells us that if we delight ourselves in the Lord, He will give us the desires of our heart. Well, what are your desires? A new truck? A bigger house? A spouse? These are all good things! And we know that He wants us to have good things because He told us in John 10:10 that He came to give us life and "that more abundantly".

So obviously God doesn't have a problem with us having "things". The rub is, if "things" have us. We don't want anything to come between God and us. He's first place.

I submit to you that the desires we have come from Him. They're not only a blessing for the receiver (us), but they are a witness to others of God's goodness! Psalm 23:1 promises, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." Phil. 4:19 says,

"And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Fast the news this week and consider the FACTS.

God gives us our desires... abundantly! We will not want and He meets our needs! We serve a great God!!
