Commanding Win For Emma Ricke & BW Warrior By Design at Sikeston

By Tanya Randall

Emma Ricke and BW Warrior By Design ("Frog") outpaced the field by nearly two-tenths at the $25,000-added Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo, held August 5-8 in Sikeston, Missouri. The victory was worth $8,056 and essentially locked up Ricke's third Great Lakes Circuit Finals qualification.

"I knew the way he was acting that it was going to be good," said Ricke, who hails from Lawton, Iowa. "I knew I had to just control him a little bit. We turned that first barrel and I just let him run. I knew where his head was at and knew he was ready to turn and eat it up, so I just went along for the ride."

Although the pair have several wins and two previous circuit finals to their credit, the Sikeston win is a highlight in Frog's development as a rodeo horse.

"Big outdoor pens were very scary for us, especially when he wasn't seasoned," Ricke explained. "I've ran at Sikeston two times. One year it was like almost break the pattern and then we placed. This past year, we've finally gotten to where we like to turn in big outdoor pens."

"This year I was excited to go run at Vinita (Oklahoma) and Sikeston, especially after our win at Sidney (Iowa), because he's just been working so good in big outdoor pens. That was something that was always so scary for us and to tackle that fear of running him in a big outdoor was a huge accomplishment."

They also placed fifth at the Will Rogers Memorial Rodeo in Vinita, a co-approved rodeo for the Great Lakes Circuit, for an additional $1,096. Their $9,152 total on the weekend puts them second in the circuit standings, about $2,300 back of standings' leader Lucy Ferch.

Ricke, who spends her week nights riding with multiple circuit finalist Robin Beck, purchased Frog four years ago from Beck's father Bogie Webb, who raised and trained the gelding by Slick By Design, out of the proven performer and producer BA Famous Zena, by Dash Ta Fame. Zena is a half-sister to Beck's six-time circuit finalist Teetupintheshade, by the Webb family's late great Dashin Elvis.

"My high school rodeo horse died the summer before I started college," Ricke explained. "I decided that I was just going to break-away (rope) and tie goats. I didn't care to run barrels anymore. My dad really kept pushing me to try Frog. I probably went and tried him five times, and finally, I was like, you know what, I'll buy him."

Frog was far from a seasoned rodeo horse when Ricke threw him to the wolves in the Central Plains Region of college rodeo.

"I think Frog had been to one or two rodeos before I bought him, and he broke the pattern at one and then ran over the timer and judge on the way home at the other," she laughed. "I started taking him to the college rodeos. We didn't have much luck in the fall. I knew he was really good and athletic, so I just started taking him to every barrel race that I possibly could. Then that next spring I started placing at the college rodeos. We ended up making the College (National) Finals out of only the spring season my freshman year."

Frog took Ricke to four straight College National Finals Rodeos, two for Northeastern Oklahoam A&M and then two at Southeastern Oklahoma State.

That's a far cry from a child that didn't want anything to do with horses early on. Although her parents weren't into rodeo and horses, Ricke's older sister caught the bug, but her parents Eric and Amy had to foster her interest.

"I wanted nothing to do with it," she said. "I was going to play sports and all the things. Finally, my parents pushed me into it, and I started running barrels about the fifth grade. About seventh grade is when I really got hooked."

DOMINANT: DUPONT FIRST & SYDNEY GRAHAM

For the second week in a row Dupont First & Sydney Graham were the big money winners of the weekend. This weekend they won $10,760 while being the champions of Lovington, NM and 4th in Logan, UT. The pair has vaulted up to #7 in the World with $115,694 so far in 2026 and is looking for their first NFR qualification! Since we just had a story with them last week, we thought it would be fun to catch up with Graham for a few more fun facts about the pair!

BRR: So when you bought Dupont First what led to his barn name of Trump?

Graham: He came with the registered name. But D Trump was running for president and I had just bought a "Cowgirls for Trump" cap so it just seemed fitting to name him Trump.

BRR: What is his favorite snack?

Graham: Trump's favorite snack is alfalfa soup. He loves to dip either his alfalfa hay or alfalfa cubes in water. Even prefers it over treats.

BRR:What is your favorite snack on the road?

Graham: My favorite snack on the road is any sort of sour candy!

BRR:What is a funny thing Trump does?

Graham: Trump does a lot of funny things. Too much to list. But his funniest thing that he does, in my opinion, is pester me. He will leave his food to come pester me.

BRR:When you run Trump, do you know in a certain point in the run you have made a money winning run or do you have to see the clock to know for sure?

Graham: I know he's made a money winning run when he turns the second! If it's good, it'll be fast!

BRR:What are your plans for you and Trump for the rest of 2026 now that you are in the Top 7 in the World?

Graham: I plan on just letting God take control and take the best care of Trump. The rest will play out.

Assured To Go Fast – The Mare Power Behind Kim Squires and Morgan Addison's Pro Rodeo Winners

By Tanya Randall

Over the weekend, horses bred by Robert and Becky Kerr won $12,660 at the pro rodeos.

Morgan Addison and Sheza Epic Blonde ("Ellie") topped the Lawton Rangers Rodeo in Oklahoma and placed third at the Lea County PRCA Rodeo in Lovington, New Mexico, for $8,719. The Kerr's daughter Kim Squires and Assuredly Epic ("Piglet") won the Will Rogers Memorial Rodeo in Vinita, Oklahoma, and tied for seventh at Lovington for $3,941.

Ellie and Piglet, both 6-year-old daughters of Epic Leader, share the same maternal line, tracing back to Assure Me Luck, a daughter of Tiny's Gay out of Assured To Go, by Go Man Go. The Kerr family got the mare from some friends, the Babers in Burkburnett, Texas, who were having trouble getting the mare in foal.

"That was before people were doing a lot of embryo transfers," said Squires, who hails from Carnegie, Oklahoma. "They were having trouble getting early colts out of her, so they gave her to us." She was quite the gift. When the Kerrs acquired her in the late 1990s, the Youree-Ward family was making winners out of offspring of Assured Pleasure, her full brother.

In the late 1990s, Janet Stover was dominating the building rodeos on Gotewin Bo, an Assured Pleasure gelding who shared the same Youree-bred bottom side as Dr Nick Bar. Bo was so tough inside that he often had Stover qualified for the National Finals before the summer run ever started. They went to the NFR in 1998 and had the fastest time of the rodeo, and qualified again in 1999.

In 2001, after a record-setting winter, Bo's third NFR qualification was marred by a torn suspensory in July. With Bo having won enough to send her to the NFR in fifth, Stover climbed aboard Nate Shilabar ("Hotshot") and rewrote records on her way to the 2001 WPRA World Championship. Bo later qualified Stover for her last NFR in 2004.

Likewise, Dynas Plain Special (Dee Dee) gets the credit for Janae Ward Massey's 2003 WPRA World Championship due to their incredible National Finals Rodeo. However, Massey had qualified for the NFR in 2002 and 2001 on former futurity winner Cole And Cole, an Assured Pleasure gelding trained by her dad James Ward. Cole And Cole also earned Massey the 2002 College National Finals Rodeo title, and Mr Billy Jim, another family aged event standout by Assured Pleasure, carried her to the 1999 National High School Finals Rodeo title.

Squires recalled the Assured Pleasure horses being a little on the hotter side but extremely fast.

"They were hotter, hard knocking horses," she said. "I don't think people remember how much Janet Stover won on Gotewin Bo. That was a bad dude."

The Kerr family got two foals out of Assured Me Luck. The first was Assured To Go Zoom, by Squire's homebred stallion Honors A Bounding, a son of Jet Of Honor out of her Pa Jones, Boston Mac mare Bounce Of Gold that the Yourees futuritized for the family in 1983.

"He was a little swaybacked horse that won a lot for me," Squires said. She later sold the gelding to Louise Kendall, who won a lot with him as well.

The gelding's full sister Nothing Assured is Piglet's dam. "She stuck something in her hock, and I never got to run her," Squires said. "We just got those two out of (Assure Me Luck). She was really old when we got her."

The Kerr family later crossed Nothing Assured with Frenchmans Guy to get Assuredly French. Squires had started the mare before stepping away from barrel racing to focus on her son's activities. Her niece Shelby Ridling—who Emily Beisel got Ivory On Fire and Dashing Olie from—rode Assuredly French.

"Shelby ran her some and did well on her," Squires said. "She was a 1D horse. We got her back and bred her to Raider—The Red Dasher. Ima Diva Red Dasher was his first colt on the ground.

"We don't have a whole lot of colts on the ground because I've had some bad luck with them," Squires said. "She was a little hard to get in foal. Now, she's just ICSI only."

In addition to Ima Diva Red Dasher, who Squires sadly lost during foaling, Assuredly French also produced Dashers French Guy, Diva's full brother, who is currently in Squires trailer backing up Piglet. Squires is hoping that next spring her ICSI babies by The Goodbye Lane will hit the ground.

Assuredly French also produced Ellie, whom Squires started and futuritized in the spring, making the finals at the Old Fort Days Futurity, before sending her to Hilary Ellingson to campaign through the fall.

"She switched her to the left," Squires noted. "That was the game changer on her."

Addison, who is not No. 34 in the WPRA World Standings, purchased Ellie not long after Squires got her back from Ellingson.

"They slipped in here and got her," Squires said. "She was just really starting to run with those older horses when they came and tried her. We tried to sell her for a while and didn't have a lot of interest, so they got lucky."

Squires also had Piglet for sale two or three times with no takers. "Thank goodness nobody bought her," she said. "I wish I still had them both, but we've got to sell horses every so often."

Squires herself currently sits No. 25 in the WPRA World Standings. Her unexpected rise in the standings started over the Fourth of July run when Piglet really stepped up to the plate.

"I was just piddling along and entered over the Fourth," she explained. "I don't think I'd won $5- or $6,000 by the end of May, and she hasn't been out of the money much since then."

Since she didn't know how things would go over the Fourth, she didn't enter the lucrative Utah rodeos. Now, she's out in the Northwest and hopes to make the Playoff Tour Finale in Puyallup. The goal is to make the National Finals Rodeo or at the very least be set up very well for next year's limited entry winter rodeos.

"I was just hoping to get qualified (for next year's rodeos)," she said, "so if we get anything more than that we'll be excited. We are kind of up there in the Playoff standings, and nowadays, anything can happen because there's so much money at the end (of the season). Nobody's really safe. I'm just glad to be out here getting to try."

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

That little scenario made me wonder what it must be like to be married to me. I can do better. We can all do better. We can be better friends, better coworkers, better family members. We. Can. Be. Better.

Where is that in the Bible? Genesis to Revelation. Let's all get better!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.

If you have cats, you know that they can leave interesting things on your doorstep. I stepped out of the front door a few days ago, and I saw a mouse's bottom and tail under one of the benches. I immediately knew that Velcro had left us something.

I will NOT touch a mouse so I started hollering for Mike. He needed to get that disgusting thing off the porch!! Mike is a hunter. And thank God, he is not squeamish!

I'm standing back a few feet, about 20' actually, directing him to the location. He is looking, looking, looking and can't find a mouse. "Babe, it's right there under that bench!" After me directing him this way and that, a little to the left, now look down, he reaches down and picks up what I think is the tail of the mouse. He said, "Is this what you saw???" "Yes!" He brings it to me and it's a stem of a leaf on a big leaf. Oh. sorry. Looked like a mouse tail to me. LOL!

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN OUR FACEBOOK LIVE STREAMED BIBLE STUDY!
