Dream weekend for Flannery at Dash & Dance Futurity

By Tanya Randall

With five head of horses entered in the $5,000-added Dash & Dance Futurity in Spearfish, S.D., the odds were decidedly in Samantha Flannery's favor, but she never expected to walk away with four average checks plus champion and reserve honors.

"It was a dreamy weekend," said the trainer from Mission, S.D. She collected more than $9,000 of the futurity purse. "I hope they don't humble me anytime soon! I will treat each weekend carefully!"

With five of the 74 entries, Flannery had her hands full. Luckily, she had an army to help.

"I had a great crew helping me," she said. That crew included her husband Scott and two boys Jacob, 15, and Nathan, 13. "My husband and boys were there, helping me. My husband was in charge of filming and giving me water. My boys would take the horses and cool them off."

She also had the help of Katie Langreau and several owners, including Renae Smith, who owns the newly crowned Dash & Dance Champion Bold And Famous ("Milo") with her husband Cody.

Milo, a 5-year-old daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of Miss Bold Runner, by Holland Ease, was trained by Amy Schimke and sent to Flannery to take to the BFA World Championships last year. Flannery barely had the mare a week, when Schimke sold her to the Smiths.

"She was very well patterned," said Flannery. "I can't take any credit for her great beginning. Anything from Amy Schimke is going to have a great foundation. She's been across the ranch. She was raised pretty ranchy. She wasn't raised in a stall and that works well for my program because we're a ranch program, not a stall program. It's best if they know how to run wild a little bit."

Flannery said Milo is very solid and has drawn checks nearly every time entered. Her only hiccup is she can be rough in her turns on her first run, just as she was the opening round of the futurity.

"She can be really rough in her turns, almost to the point where it feels like she's bucking, but she's not," she explained. "She just gets her feet stuck in the ground, so I really have to free her up and keep her moving."

"When she inhaled the first barrel on her second run I knew her feet were freed up and we were ready to roll. That's the only thing with her. She can get a little rough in her turns. I don't worry about much with her. She's going to turn. She's not going to shoulder. She's obviously fast enough. She's not a hot mare. She rides great."

The Smiths were both on hand to see their mare pick up her $3,774 championship.

"It's been a very fun, but challenging year for us, watching this mare at the futurities," said Renae Smith. "We hope she continues to do well and we're anxious to see what doors that opens to us."

The Smiths purchased Milo to expand their fledging futurity and prospect program.

"My husband Cody and I are looking to get together a good set of mares and we really like the Dash Ta Fames," said Smith, a regional marketing and advertising director for Case IH. "I had bought a previous Dash Ta Fame from Amy Schimke that I futurity and had success with last year. I saw Milo and really like how she was bred on the bottom, so we purchased her. It's worked really well to leave her with Samantha. They've had some pretty good success."

Smith said they plan on continuing to run Milo and pull embryos from her next spring. They're already looking at Frenchmans Fabulous and Blazin Jetolena for Milo and their other Fame mare.

"We're into raising barrel prospects," she said. Last year was Smith's first foray into the futurity game. "We have a 3-year-old Dinero son. We have some Streak Of Fling babies. We just purchased a Tres Seis daughter; we have her bred to CS Flashlight. Right now the oldest ones that we've raised are 5. We stand a son of Frenchmans Guy, Cowbowin A Frenchman. We're just starting to sell his babies. We're hoping to have some nice babies and futu-

Bass Wins Pro Fantasy Rodeo Contest

Pro Fantasy Rodeo is proud to announce the winner of the "Hottest in July" Buckle competition and has awarded a custom buckle and $2,500 cash bonus to Kaley Bass of Kissimmee, Fla., a 21-year old Women's Professional Barrel Racer and two-time Wrangler National Finals Qualifier. Bass, indeed was "hot" throughout the month of July as she and her horse Cowboy Dan streaked through winning runs throughout July. Bass picked up checks at numerous PRCA rodeos including Cody, Wyo., Livingston, Mont., Salinas, Ca., Ogden Ut., Salt Lake City Ut., Cheyenne Wyo., as well as Canadian PRCA sanctioned rodeos including Panoka, Williams Lake and Airdrie to name a few.

Bass credits her horse, a 14-year old gelding she's had since he was three years old, as the key to her success. Receiving her WPRA card in 2011, Bass and Cowboy Dan have qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in both 2012 and 2013 with her highest placing as 6th in the world standings at year's end. Bass and her sister have used Cowboy Dan in both junior and high school rodeos throughout his career, and Bass also hauls a full sister to the gelding as a backup horse she uses to give Cowboy Dan a break when he needs it.

Bass is currently sitting in the No. 1 position in the WPRA standings with year-long earnings of $127,209. When asked how she felt about her "Hottest in July" title and all the money she's won, she exclaimed that she was very excited about it all. She said Cowboy Dan just seemed to take off at Panoka after the slow winter they'd had and the pair has been winning ever since. "Here I am," she said, "undoubtedly headed to my third Wrangler National Finals, I hope!" Not bad for a card carrying member of only four years with career earnings of $354,085.

The reference to a "slow winter" was evident as she had amassed winnings of only $13,243 by June 30 when the Pro Fantasy Rodeo "Christmas in July" game began. On her hot winning streak she picked up checks amounting to $48,546 at PRCA sanctioned rodeos throughout the game's time frame of July 1 to July 28.

PFR game rules state that only PRCA rodeos could count, so the $115,500 she also won at the non-PRCA sanctioned Calgary rodeo couldn't count although it boosted Bass's actual July earnings to a fabulous sum of $164,046. Quite a hot streak! Hot enough that she edged out second place "Hottest in July" winner tie-down roper Tuf Cooper who won $48,129 throughout July and third place contestant bareback rider Kaycee Field whose winnings totaled $44,887. Both will receive prizes compliments of the Pro Fantasy Rodeo game.

Although Bass had never heard of Pro Fantasy Rodeo before winning the "Hottest in July" buckle, she said she's definitely going to learn how to play the game and get involved.

How to play the game and results to the "Christmas in July" game which was sponsored by RFD-TV with free entries can be viewed at www.profantasyrodeo.com.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame 2014 Inductees

There was a recurring theme in the speeches at the 35th annual ProRodeo Hall of Fame induction ceremony Aug. 9, connected to heritage, history and the long road traveled to reach the sport's pantheon. Everybody had a great road story to tell; nobody's stretched longer or had more air miles than Glen O'Neill's. From Down Under to Top of the World.

O'Neill, the 2002 saddle bronc riding world champion, became the first cowboy from outside North America to be inducted into the Hall Saturday, the Australian joining fellow world champions Wayne Herman, Byron Walker and the late Pete Grubb, along with champion bullfighter Miles Hare, legendary bucking horse Spring Fling and four elite committees, from the Clovis (Calif.) Rodeo, Snake River Stampede (Nampa, Idaho), Rowell Ranch Rodeo (Hayward, Calif.) and Greeley (Colo.) Stampede.

Apart from his many honors in the arena - the gold buckle, 11 qualifications for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo and career earnings of $1.6 million - O'Neill may have set a record of sorts Saturday, for the longest distance traveled by a family to witness their kin's Hall of Fame induction ceremony.

"I told my wife, Connie, when we walked into the (Cowboy Ball Aug. 8) that this was almost surreal," said Herman, 50. "It was a quite a journey to get here and I'm honored and quite humbled to be standing in (the ProRodeo Hall of Fame) with the names that we were pretending to be to win the world when we were kids riding the bucking machine. To be one of them (a ProRodeo Hall of Famer) is unbelievable and hard for me to imagine."

For Walker, who won his gold buckle as a steer wrestler in 1981 and whose 16 WNFR qualifications are equal to the second-highest total in the history of his event, this was a day that felt forever in coming.

"I'm thankful to get up and give this speech and not be dead," said Walker, 56, with a chuckle.

"Waiting all this time (since the April 1 announcement) before going into the Hall of Fame was kind of like waiting to go into the principal's office. I knew it was happening, and I was anxious to get it over with. Being here has been really nice, and walking around the Hall you realize that this is real."

ProRodeo Hall of Fame inductees are selected by a committee of former contestants and rodeo experts. More than 150 individuals are nominated each year and selection is based on contributions to the sport of professional rodeo in any one of seven categories: contestant, stock contractor, contract personnel, rodeo committees, livestock, media and notables/lifetime achievement.

Including this year's inductees, 236 people, 28 animals and 22 rodeo committees have been selected for enshrinement in Colorado Springs since the Hall opened in 1979.

rity prospects in the coming years.”

Flannery’s reserve champion was her own horse UX Flit N Fabulous (“Fergie”) that picked up $2,938.

“She’s mine, and I, of course, think she’s fabulous,” laughed Flannery. “I train horses for Jinx Maude and I got her for training a horse. I can’t remember if I got her as a yearling or a 2-year-old. She’s been here forever.”

Flannery said the 5-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Fabulous out of UX Firewater Lizzie, by Firewater Frost, has always been very mature. When she sent her off to be roped on as a 3-year-old, the gentleman riding her said the only thing that kept him taking her to the next level was her age and size.

“She does everything,” she added. “I cannot wait for the pole bending futurities. She can scream through the poles. My son has started to breakaway on her and he heels on her.”

Flannery was happy to have Fergie do well on the small set at Spearfish because she didn’t know if she would just be a big pen horse.

“She was awfully close to the third barrel on our second run, so I popped her out of it,” she explained. “She’s responsive enough to let me do that. I’d rather have an average check than a hit barrel. She’s just really cool. She’s so confident and when you ride a confident horse that makes you confident.”

Flannery placed fourth in the average on Marlin and Jinx Maude’s royally-bred Shez Gota Poker Face, a daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of French Fancy Face, a full sister to SX Frenchmans Vanila. The filly topped the Fulton Sale in 2012.

“She’s a talented mare, dirty fast,” said Flannery. “She’s not the longest strided horse, but you can’t hardly find a quicker footed horse. It’s been a little rougher with her. She’s 4 rather than 5. In a couple of these big outdoor pens, she’s just got away from me; she’s so fast. I was really anxious to get back indoors with some walls to get her gathered back up. I think this past weekend was a really big confidence booster for her going into these next futurities.”

Her eighth-place finisher, LA Frenchman, was the horse she was most proud of. The 5-year-old Frenchmans Guy gelding out of LA

Cadeau, by The Big Tipper, has a concaved eye and has given Flannery fits until she decided to try using blinkers.

“He’s been a little slow to come around, but he’s always been talented. He’s got a big stride and is smooth as glass. I have to run him in blinkers. I don’t know what he’s looking at, but he could go off course pretty fast. I put blinkers on him and it’s been a complete turnaround.”

They missed the money on their first run through no fault of their own.

“On his first run the speakers squelched when I was going across to the second barrel. He and I both jumped back. It was really loud. I know I lost my concentration and he lost his concentration so we kind of fumbled our second barrel. His second run, he got third. That was probably my proudest moment of the whole futurity. I knew Fergie could do it, I knew Milo could do it, but he had not yet risen to the top yet. That was really cool to me. He’s always had admirers. Even as I’m scratching my head, they’re like ‘don’t give up, don’t give up.’”

The only futurity horse that Flannery rode that didn’t place was a new one to her barn. Justin and Laurie Robinson had just sent her Streakin Ali Jack two weeks prior to the futurity.

“He’s a turny sucker,” she said. “I’m anxious to get him in the bigger pens and free him up a bit. Dash & Dance is pretty tight and it’s hard to get your speed going up. Once you lose your momentum in there you can’t get it back up.”

With the Dakota futurity run in full swing, Flannery has her futurity string peaking at the right time.

“I’ve made a ton of friends down south and they’re all riding their 3-year-olds and getting their slot horses ready,” she laughed. “I just sigh. My futurity season is just starting. It’s so big up here and we have so many good producers. I’ve just dabbled a little bit with the spring stuff—I went to Diamonds & Dirt for the fun of it and the BBR Finals to escape our husbands during calving season—but this is our main stuff. There’s good money up here. The competition and horses are tough. Our breeders are getting better and

"Anytime I notice one of my horses starting to cycle, I immediately give them a dose of Oxy-Mare and follow through to the end of their cycle. Oxy-Mare keeps them relaxed and focused for their runs! I also feed PMP every day to She's Free to Flame and would never leave home without it!"

—Brittany Pozzi

"PMP has helped make my mares more comfortable to train than when without it, and it's drastically reduced the time they are in heat. They've been able to hold their form without getting distracted, and when I use both PMP and Oxy Mare, my mares are on the top of their game when I need them to be!"

A Family First – Mayce Maben & Mystic Angela win Ogden 8 & Under World Championship

By Tanya Randall

Mayce Maben, the 8-year-old great-granddaughter of event founder Corky Ogden, became the first family member to win the prestigious 8 & Under World Championship in its 30 year history. She was riding the great Mystic Angela (“Bubba”), her mother Kelly (Ogden) Maben’s three-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo horse that was trained by her grandparents Randy and Lisa Ogden.

When Kelly Maben was asked who she was more proud of—her daughter or her horse, she laughed and said, “I don’t know. Years ago when we talked about if Mayce would be able to ride him, I would always say if something went wrong it wasn’t going to be Bubba’s fault.

“He’s an easy horse to ride because there’s not much guiding that needs to be done. He’s going to go run the barrels. But, he’s so powerful. I mean powerful. He’s so hard to ride in that aspect—to be able to stay up and stay with him. You see a lot of these kids that are just along for the ride. She’s not. She is riding that horse and she’s doing a very good job.”

Bubba, now 21, started his barrel racing career in the Ogden’s barn. Lisa took the gelding, by Mystic Eye out of Angela Channing, by Extra Easy, to a few futurities and later hauled him as a backup horse the year she qualified for the NFR.

“She only ran him a little on the junk ground,” recalled the elder Maben, who resides in Spur, Texas, with her husband Tye. “When he was a 7, they decided to sell him, but no one was really interested in him. Lisa asked me if I would run him some. I was just roping breakaway at the amateur rodeos at the time. I did and I loved him.”

Bubba took Maben to the NFR in 2003 and 2004. They missed 2005 due to Mayce’s arrival, but returned in 2006.

“I had the best year after I had Mayce,” she said. “She was 8-months-old when I took off rodeoing that summer. It was the most difficult thing having her and him, but he won and won and

Headin' For Home

"Classic" by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

You have faith in your horse when you enter an arena and run the barrel pattern at a high speed when the ground is in unfavorable conditions.

You'll drive down a crowded highway faster than you should with oncoming traffic hurdling toward you and passing within inches of you. You trust the radio and TV is reporting the news accurately. You even trust the weatherman who is wrong as often as he is right!

You trust the food is safe you order in restaurants and you trust the doctors and the medicine they prescribe. If you're one of these kind of people, you have a lot of company because millions of people find it easier to trust things of the world and what they can see rather than trust Almighty God and the awesome promises He gave us in the Bible. The Bible is His written Word to us and God cannot lie.

Jesus instructed us to love God and to love our neighbor as ourselves. If we're not doing that, then we don't qualify for all the blessings and benefits He has for us. Prosperity and success are there for those who trust God and have faith in His Word. Proverbs 3:5 and 6 tells us not to trust our own judgments but rather to trust God and He will direct us in all our ways.

God sent His Son Jesus to make things right for you. He paid your ticket so you can get into the abundant high life and have peace, joy and security while on earth and have a glorious eternal life ever after.

So trust in the One who created all things. Give your life to Jesus and read the New Testament to learn more about Him. Talk to Him every day. He's the best friend you'll ever have and He's there for you 24/7.

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
