$113,530 Weekend For Wonder If Im Lucky & Heidi Gunderson at Royal Crown Rock Springs

By Tanya Randall

Wonder If Im Lucky (“Casey”), ridden by Heidi Gunderson for Shannon Kulseth, doubled his lifetime earnings at the Royal Crown Race, held August 5-10 in Rock Springs, Wyoming. The 4-year-old gelding by rising sire Lucky Wonder Horse won $113,530 including a $90,678 championship in the 206-entry, $600,000-added Futurity.

“It’s insane the amount of money he won!” exclaimed Gunderson, who was happy to have her husband and fellow horse trainer with her in Rock Springs. “I wanted to go out there and do well, but I didn’t expect how well we did. It was very exciting.”

Gunderson and Casey also won the $10,000-added, 158-entry Open Futurity. They picked up $6,413 in open divisional earnings. The 2023 BFA Futurity Champions and recent 5-State Breeders Champions also won the Breeders Challenge qualifier futurity with a two-run average that shortened the 1D payout from ten places to five to earn $5,943. They picked up an additional $835 from Future Fortunes.

The gelding’s lifetime earnings now surpass $227,000.

“I know that horse has the ability to win those things, but there’s a lot of horses out there that have the ability to win there. It was tough! You just hope that you’re going to go and capitalize on your horse’s ability, and that they’re feeling good,” she said.

“At this point in the year, you just hope that they go out there and put together the runs that they’re capable of. It’s so tough that any little misstep can change the clock. It just happened in our favor.”

The pair from Murdock, Minnesota, finished third in both rounds of the futurity with runs of 15.065 and 14.887 to win the aggregate by two-tenths.

She said they made a few bobbles on her first run that cost them time. She had trouble with his paternal half-sister Lucky Blaze finding the third barrel in the derby, so she wanted to make sure Casey didn’t have the same issue.

“The third barrel was within the tractor wings,” she explained, referring to the paneled area where the tractors parked between drags. “My derby horse missed third because she got distracted. So on him, I wanted to make sure I showed him the third barrel was there, just to make sure he was headed in the right direction. When I did, he was like, ‘Yeah, I know where it is.’ He went to it hard. We hit it and I had to step out. It felt like there was a long pause there. “Obviously, it was still fast, it was a 15.0 and third in the round, but when I came out, I felt that I made such a big mistake there that I told my husband, I said, ‘If I can clean that third barrel up, he’s a 14 easily.’”

The second round was incredibly tough with several runs under the 14-second mark.

“My first barrel was a bit better in the second round,” she said. “He stepped out a little in the first (round). He didn’t lose a lot of time there because he kept moving forward, but in the second round, his first barrel was perfect. All three barrels were perfect. There was nothing that I could fault him for in the second round, whereas in the first round, I felt a couple of mistakes—still clocked—but the second round just felt flawless.”

Casey’s owner, who purchased the gelding as a coming 2-year-old at the 2022 OKC Futurity Sale, didn’t see either run.

“She doesn’t watch because she gets too nervous,” chuckled

‘OMG! I looked!’ She was so excited.”

Of the $90,678 victor’s share, $16,224 went to Bill and Deb Myers on behalf of Lucky Wonder Horse and $6,956 went to Casey’s breeder Stephanie Langford-Cleveland, who raised the gelding out of her PC Mr Sun Peppy mare TS Sunnys Superstar.

The owner’s portion was $67,500.

Casey’s next futurity will be the Fizz Bomb, the first weekend in September, before the Breeders Challenge Finale. The gelding will get another break afterward until the Pink Buckle in October.

Meet Heidi Gunderson

Heidi Gunderson grew up on a cattle ranch in northern Minnesota, where the ranch horses became her rodeo mounts.

“My dad never bought a broke horse,” she recalled. “He always bought colts from the sale barn back when you could buy a $500 horse. We had horses that worked all day and then we’d play on. That’s how it started.”

Gunderson roped a lot, from helping doctor cattle to team roping and breakaway. She participated in 4H and high school rodeo doing all the events except goat tying. Although she only had one horse, it was one she trained herself and used in all the events.

“I always made my own,” she said. “I learned from every horse.” Although she said she was a pretty good roper, barrel racing was her favorite event.

“I always wanted to run barrels,” she said. “I was a pretty good roper, but it never lit a fire inside of me like running barrels.”

After marrying her husband Mark, a horse trainer, she started training and selling barrel horses along with teaching school. Her first futurity horse Takin On A Storm (“Makin”) changed her training program. After making the BFA Derby finals, Makin sold and paid for an indoor barn that allowed her to train through the harsh Minnesota winters.

Gunderson used to ride until November and then quit until March due to the Minnesota winters. Now, she’s able to ride year round. Her hard limit is still when it’s below 0 inside her barn because she said it’s too hard on the horses.

She’s also taken time off in the winter to support her boys, both competitive wrestlers.

“One is in college, and the other is a (high school) senior,” she said. “They’re very competitive and I don’t want to miss out on a lot of that. It’s like every weekend, January, February, March, is a wrestling tournament. I really try to be at those things, because I know that time is limited too.”

This year, Gunderson made the monumental decision to step away from her online teaching job in March to train horses fulltime.

“I really felt this is what I want to do,” said the 45-year-old. “I prayed about it a lot. I thought, ‘If you want to do it, just do it. If it doesn’t work out, just go back to teaching again. It’s not rocket science, Heidi!’ If you have a teaching license it’s not like you can’t go back if you don’t want to be a horse trainer anymore!”

The Wonder If Im Lucky (“Casey”) went on a winning streak to become her richest futurity horse to date.

“This summer has been so wild,” she said. “I’m so happy to be doing what I love, and I just feel so blessed. It almost brings tears to my eyes to think I took that leap of faith and I didn’t expect it. I just wanted to make a living at this, which is hard to do, but I didn’t expect to do what we’re doing on this horse this summer. It’s just really been quite the opportunity. It’s just a blessing.”

She said she believes that Casey’s success is God’s answer to her leap of faith.

“I 100 percent believe that with all my heart,” she said. “My prayer I made when I was trying to decide if leaving teaching was right for me was ‘God, what do you want me to know and what do you want me to do?’ I just felt like he was telling me, ‘I gave you these horses. I gave you this gift. Go use it. I am, and he’s just shown up bigger than I could have ever asked or imagined. I can’t see it being any other way other than God. It’s so overwhelming to me that there is no other explanation to be on a horse like this the year I took the leap.’”

SGL Rico and Anita Ellis - Royal Crown Derby Champions

By Hope Raley

SGL Rico and his jockey Anita Ellis from Blackfoot, Idaho have hit a wave of winning and any chance of them slowing down in the near future is slim to none. They made the trek over to Rock Springs, Wyoming for the $952,500+ Royal Crown Race, the last event of the year for the franchise.

The Royal Crown starts every new year with a race in Buckeye, Arizona, a spring race in Guthrie, Oklahoma and finishes the season off with their biggest race of the year in Rock Springs, Wyoming. Hundreds of the best trainers, jockeys, and horses venture to the Wyoming desert all vying for their chance at one of the biggest purses in the barrel racing industry.

In the $100,000 added derby, it was Anita Ellis and her great horse SGL Rico that took home top honors out of a stacked field of over 150 of some of the best derby horses in the business.

SGL Rico "Rico" is a 5-year-old gelding by $14.6 Million Sire The Goodbye Lane and out of Version Blue by Winners Version. Ellis has had Rico since he was a yearling and the two have had quite the success so far in their short career, winning over $180,000 in 2024 at the futurities, where lone behold they were crowned the 2024 Royal Crown Futurity Champions in Rock Springs.

"For Rico to come back and win the derby this year after winning the futurity last year is amazing," explained Ellis. "He's an incredible athlete, especially for how young he is. He has already accomplished so much, like setting an arena record at the Calgary Stampede this past July. It only lasted a few days, but it was still such an incredible experience and I am just as proud of him."

Since she has been on the rodeo trail, chasing her first NFR Qualification, Ellis made the decision to run Rico in the warm up race the night before the first round of the derby. "I wasn't able to get exhibitions on him on Tuesday because I was up in Logan slack that afternoon, so I thought I better give ourselves the best chance possible and enter the warm up race to get our timing figured out before the first round of the derby." Ellis explained that Rico does better with extra practice and since he has been primarily running at the rodeos, she wanted to get him mentally prepared for a small indoor arena. "We ended up tipping the second barrel in the warm up race so I was glad to know how to approach his runs in the derby."

In the first round of the $100,000 added Royal Crown derby, Ellis and Rico won second with a smoking fast time of 14.86. "He ran in there so confident in the derby. He was calm and that made me very confident that he was going to execute our game plan. I made sure that I pushed him by the second barrel and when we turned the third barrel, I knew that we were fixing to be fast, but I didn't think we would be quite that fast!" Winning second behind the great Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and Sir Epic, Ellis was all smiles going into round 2 the next day.

For their second run, Ellis made sure to approach her run with the same mentality that she had the day before and not change a thing. "I made sure that I rode the same and Rico went in and did his job." That run of 14.918 netted them the 2nd Round Derby & Average win. With Breeders money, Stallion money and Open money all combined the team gathered a $54,723 check from Royal Crown Rock Springs. That puts SGL Rico over $325k in lifetime earnings already as a 5 yr old.

"We love coming to the Royal Crown because we love the production behind the event. The producers are great to work with and really care about our industry. They put so much effort into making the ground safe and putting on the best race possible," said Ellis. "It is incredible that there is an opportunity to win that kind of money not only in the futurity, but as well as in the derby. I am very grateful to be able to run at such an amazing event."

When asked how she and her horses handle the switch from the rodeos to the derbies, Ellis says it has been relatively easy and it has a lot to do with her mental game, which she works on every single day. "I listen to a book while walking or exercise daily to keep the mindset that I want and need to have. It would be easy to get nervous with the amount of pressure that is in this game, but me and my family have worked hard to create this dream for myself and I am making sure that I live there every day, having faith that I will get there even if something doesn't go as planned," Ellis explained. "I think it is very important to not only think positive about all of it, but also to allow myself to feel as though my dreams have really come true."

HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE AT THE LAZY E ARENA

Young Guns League Announces Special Enrollment – November 1 Deadline!

The Young Guns League is giving breeders & owners one more chance to get in on one of the most exciting opportunities in the barrel racing industry, with a special enrollment deadline of November 1. Created to encourage growth and genetic diversity in the sport, the Young Guns League showcases the progeny of up-and-coming stallions on a national platform. By limiting competition to foals from Young Guns League stallions, the playing field is leveled—allowing young sires to prove themselves while their progeny run for guaranteed payouts. The 2025 YGL Futurity and YGL Derby are held alongside the prestigious Pink Buckle each year, with:

$250,000 GUARANTEED payout Futurity | $250,000 GUARANTEED payout Derby

Only Young Guns League stallions and their progeny are eligible. Once a stallion's oldest foals reach 8 years of age, that stallion ages out of the program—but nominated foals remain eligible for life as long as annual nominations are maintained.

Special 2024-2025 Enrollment Offer: We know incentive rules can be overwhelming, and we don't want anyone to miss out just because they weren't enrolled in our inaugural year. For this year only, if you missed enrolling in 2024, you can catch up by paying: $325 for 2024 + $220 for 2025 = $545 total

This special enrollment offer is valid until NOVEMBER 1, 2025. Enrollments for all horses close December 1 ($350 for 2025 enrollment fee) and if you miss this date, your horse will be ineligible for the program going forward. CONTACT THE OFFICE TO ENROLL TODAY: OFFICE@PINKBUCKLE.COM

*Important: If you plan to run in the 2025 YGL Futurity or Derby, your horse must be nominated before the August 25, 2025 entry deadline.

Moeykens Moving Up the World Standings with Win at Hermiston

By Tanya Randall

Tayla Moeykens crossed the $100,000 mark in season earnings with a $19,260 weekend, jumping from 15th to 11th in the WPRA World Standings with $102,406.

The Three Forks, Montana, barrel racer won her biggest check, $13,743, at the $50,000-added Farm-City Pro Rodeo in Hermiston, Oregon, where she and KN Fames Best Yet (“Yeti”) tied Lindsay Sears and Sugar Moon Express’ 19-year-old arena record of 16.81. Moeykens and Yeti also put two-tenths on the field to win the $10,000-added Bozeman Stampede in her home state for another $3,910.

She rode JM PocketsDoubleDash (“Lizard”) at the $5,000-added Cascade Pro Rodeo to add another $1,607 to her weekend and circuit totals.

The two horses are coming into peak form right as she needs them most in her quest for her first National Finals Rodeo qualification.

“We were dealing with some injuries and stuff like that at the beginning of the year,” she said. “We just had to fight through it. We had some great people helping us. The boys are feeling good right now. They’re ready to roll.”

Moeykens started her run at Hermiston in slack after the first performance before ducking back down to Logan, Utah, where she was a .04 out of a check. She headed home for three circuit rodeos. She ended up loping through the soggy pattern on a rope horse at Missoula because she needed to make her rodeo count to be eligible to compete at the circuit finals rodeo.

After narrowly missing the National Finals Rodeo in 2024, Moeykens is putting all her focus on the Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour Rodeos, which qualify for the lucrative Playoff Finales in Puyallup, Washington, and Sioux Falls, South Dakota, but trying not to sacrifice the Montana Circuit Finals in the process.

“We’ve kind of been hyper focused on them because last year at about this time, probably a few days earlier, we had a friend ask us if we were paying attention to the Playoff series,” she explained, “and we all went, ‘What’s that?’ This year I wasn’t going to let that happen twice. We weren’t in Puyallup or Sioux Falls last year because we weren’t paying attention.”

As Moeykens said, it was a “live and learn” experience. She’s currently sitting 11th in the Playoff Tour standings as of August 3, and the top 23 along with NFR Open Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi qualify for the first Playoff Finale in Puyallup.

This week she entered four Playoff rodeos: Caldwell and Gooding, Idaho, Moses Lake, Washington; and Canby, Oregon, as well as a Burley, Idaho, and a lone circuit rodeo in Kalispell, Montana.

Unfortunately, Moeykens will miss some great paying rodeos in her circuit, namely Baker and Billings, to stay further west and accumulate Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour points.

“They’re great rodeos, but there’s so much money over here,” she explained. “That’s why I had to run in Missoula to get my circuit count because I wasn’t going to make Billings, Baker and Circle.” Moeykens is currently sitting fourth at Caldwell after running in slack on Monday morning. The first round will conclude Friday with the top 12 advancing to the short round on Saturday. Tuesday night, she’s out in Canby with Gooding on Wednesday. She runs a Burley on Thursday and Kalispell on Friday. Saturday morning, she’ll run at Moses Lake before hopefully returning to Caldwell.

Thankfully, she has three horses to rely on. Yeti, a 7-year-old gelding, was her superstar. The Dash Ta Fame gelding, out of KN Fabulous N Khaki, by Frenchmans Fabulous has been in her string since the spring of 2023, her junior year at Montana State University. Kava Huestis had loaned her Yeti when her own horses were injured.

“We went into that not looking to buy a horse and she wasn’t looking to sell a horse,” said Moeykens, who purchased the gelding after finishing reserve at the College National Finals that June. “I just needed something to run for the spring season because both of mine were hurt. She graciously lent me Yeti. When it went so well, we told her if she ever decided to sell him, we’d like first chance at him.”

Moeykens also has Lizard, a 12-year-gelding by GuysPocket-FullOfCash, a stallion her parents Rick and Deena raised, and out of Katy Perks, a Dash For Perks mare owned by Jerry and Melinda Voorhies.

“We’ve pretty much raised him,” she said. “We’ve had him since he was six months old. My mom did the training on him. He’s pretty much home raised and trained.”

Lizard is also the fun one of the group.

“He’s the one that you can do pretty much anything on,” she said, noting that he’s got to walk through campus and participate in the rodeo teams famed run out during football games. He and Moeykens were part of the group shown running out the flags before the football team that was featured on College Football’s Game Day. “He likes to do those sorts of things.”

He’s also a pretty salty barrel horse, filling in for Yeti when needed and carrying his own weight too.

They’re both pretty solid, ground-wise and setup-wise,” she said. “They just go do their job. That’s what we look for in horses, but that also tells me that they love their job too.”

Moeykens is also running her 2021 College National Champion Dash Of Blue Sky to help get her rodeo count.

“I’ve been running her at some circuit rodeos too,” she said.

Daisy If You Do

Tayla Moeykens’ KN Fames Best Yet (“Yeti”) is a legacy product for Kenny Nichols, who bred the horse along with Dale Barron. By all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame, Yeti is out of KN Fabulous N Khaki (“Daisy”), by Frenchmans Fabulous.

Daisy is a fourth generation of bloodlines cultivated by the Nichols family, which crossed their Clabber lines on sprinting Thoroughbreds. She was a very successful all-around athlete with multiple riders, having won at all levels, from pro and college rodeo to aged events.

Her mother Robbin Dobbin, another all-around athlete, is a great granddaughter of Clabber Juan, a grandson of Clabber raised by Nichols’ grandfather Buck. It’s also worth noting that Clabber Juan is also in the maternal side of Adios Pantalones.

Robbin Dobbin’s dam is the Thoroughbred Robby Away, a daughter of Prattle Away. Interestingly, Prattle Away is a full brother to Over The Phone, the dam of Phone Trick, whose son Favorite Trick had a great impact in the Quarter horse racing world through Favorite Cartel.

“I would meet my dad in Montana when we had an extra day so I could get my circuit count. So, she gets to go a little bit too.”

Moeykens said she’s going to continue to focus on one rodeo at a time until the end of the season.

“You can’t worry about the end until you’re there, and we’re not there yet,” she said. “We’re just focusing on the rodeo where we’re at and taking it one run at a time.”

Pamela Morrison is redefining what it means to be “on a heater

The Celieta, British Columbia barrel racer and her talented 8 year-old mare, Dyna, have won over $15,000 in the last two weeks. Starting with a 1-2 split at the Strathmore Stampede and following it up with wins at La Crete’s Field of Dreams rodeo and the Dawson Creek Exhibition and Stampede and finally a second-place finish at High River’s Guy Weadick Rodeo, the diminutive cowgirl has vaulted from 25th place in the standings to what will likely be a top ten spot with the next appearance of the season leaderboard.

“Wow, it’s like nobody pinch me, what’s going on here, it’s just so cool,” the 2024 CFR qualifier enthused after her most recent success. “I got a late start to the season because I was dealing with a shoulder injury and even into June it didn’t seem like Dyna’s endurance and fitness level were where they needed to be. But now her fitness is so much better and she just seems so confident this last while.”

And while her recent winning streak is of historic proportions, it constitutes only one chapter in the remarkable story of this cowgirl. Morrison was forced to step back from an active horse-training/rodeo career due to a severe set of neck and head injuries resulting from a horrific snowmobile incident over a decade ago. The aftermath of the accident demanded an extraordinary display of courage, resilience and positivity during what amounted to a ten-year (and ongoing) recovery. The physical and mental challenges she faced during that time have made what she has accomplished in the rodeo arena in the last two years all the more special.

“Looking back on my progression over that time, I think, how did it take me so long, but it took the right team of doctors and motivational people and having no horses in my life to make me realize that this was my passion. There were some doctors and other people who were trying to get me to redirect my life into things that were less stressful and less physical but I knew this is who I am.”

You take that level of commitment and desire and couple it with a talented buckskin mare that loves her job and does it well, and the result is what rodeo fans have been watching in recent weeks.

Dyna (TSFamousFrenchLassie), sired by Tres My Fame and out of a Frenchman’s Guy daughter, was a handful initially. She needed groundwork (that was beneficial for Pamela as well since she wasn’t back to riding yet), then some ranch riding, barrel racing training and finally rodeos. Amazing too is the fact that last year’s CFR qualification was Pamela’s first season back competing and Dyna’s second.

And while that first CFR didn’t go as well as Pamela might have liked, you get the feeling that 2025 could see a very different outcome. It seems like a fairly minor challenge compared to what Pamela Morrison and Dyna have had to endure to get this far. --Courtesy of rodeocanada.com

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

As children of God, let's start questioning those sayings that we ALL have heard and said. Why? Because they will weaken our faith and trip us up. We don't need any more tripping up going on. And, if we mouth things that are just partly true, we are lying. Don't want that either!

For example... God needed more angels in heaven, that's why your child, friend, or relative went home early. That's a lie. We aren't angels, we are made in God's image. Gen. 1:26. And, God didn't TAKE them, they were STOLEN by our enemy, the devil.

Example two... God broke my leg (or other horrible thing) to teach me something. That's a lie. God teaches us by the Holy Spirit, not by any evil. James 1:13-17.

Example three... Cleanliness is next to Godliness. I haven't seen that in the Word.

Sounds reasonable but that's a lie, too.

There are so many accepted lies. Let's put a stop to them in our lives by knowing what God says about this stuff. And with all of our devices, we can google what the Bible says pretty easy! We are without excuse! Have a great week!
