Kassie Mowry Dominates Royal Crown Rock Springs, Wins More Than $260,000

By Tanya Randall

Leading aged event rider Kassie Mowry dominated the Royal Crown Race in Rock Springs, Wyoming. The Dublin, Texas, based trainer swept the futurity, derby, open slot race and all four opens to win $268,471 aboard four horses.

Mowry was grateful to the Royal Crown staff, stallion owners and sponsors for the opportunity to win such incredible money. "It's an incredible opportunity for us to be able to run at money like that," she said. "It's changed the industry. I think their program is really well thought out. There were so many people left there ready to come back next year. They do put on a good show." She also appreciates the laid-back atmosphere.

"They'll do exhibitions each night if you want them," she noted. "If you drove 1,000 miles to get there and weren't happy with your run and trotting through a couple of times that night makes you feel better, they're like go ahead. Most places will shut the arena down and won't let you back in there. They're very accommodating and do a lot of things to make everyone feel like they have a fair shot. After driving that far and spending that kind of money, that goes a long way."

Mowry and her Karma Loflin-raised KL Touch Of Heaven ("Dove") won his second straight Royal Crown Futurity, earning $110,134. He previously won the Royal Crown Futurity in Waco, Texas, in May.

The 4-year-old JL Dash Ta Heaven gelding, out of champion producer Junior Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr, also won $7,142 in the open races for total earnings of $117,276. Loftin and JL Dash Ta Heaven each took home $12,567 for their share of the victory. Ironically, Dove had only one jackpot run on the way to Rock Springs since his victory in Waco. Mowry had skipped the Old Fort Days Futurity to recover from an illness and then went on a very successful rodeo run that will likely force her to miss the OKC Futurity for the little 10-header in Las Vegas known as the NFR.

To keep her horses ready for Rock Springs, Mowry left her futurity horses in Weatherford, Texas, with Jeff Switzer. They got plenty of exercise in the free-style horse walker.

"He foaled my mares out for me this winter and took such good care of them," Mowry explained. "I was like, 'Hey, so would you ...' There are very few people I would trust the horses with. I really appreciate him taking them in and doing that. I never worried about them for a minute while I was gone. When I came back, they were all in really good shape, like they hadn't missed a day."

Mowry picked them up the week prior to leaving for Rock Springs but left again for three days to go on the Kansas, New Mexico rodeo run. She needs 25 official rodeos to be eligible for the NFR and currently has a count of 17.

"I rode them one day at the house and then left a day early (for Rock Springs) because I found a jackpot in Levelland to hit so they could at least make a pass through the barrels before that futurity," she said. "They were kind of rusty at the jackpot. I knew they would pull it together. I knew I would get an exhibition before we had to run at the Royal Crown. I thought we'd knock the rust off at that jackpot."

Mowry's biggest concern was the horses being fit enough to make the runs rather than the time off from training.

THANK YOUS: Her fiancé Michael Boone was there to help her: "I had a little mental melt down. It hit me when I got there that I hadn't run these horses in a long time. I started second guessing things. He's so good at keeping me lined out and feeling confident," and Jeff Switzer: "I could not have done this without him. My horses looked and felt amazing!"

"I've learned over the years not to be scared of doing it," she said of giving the colts a break. "They've been turned out before and have always come back the same, some a little bit better. They're a little fresher. They've grown a little bit. Maybe they had a little bit of soreness that time healed. I wasn't worried about them not working, I was just wanting to make sure they had enough air to run really hard. They felt great. (Jeff's) walker is bigger than mine and it even lopes, or hand gallops, them. Mine just trots and I knew they would need more than that."

She said their freshness actually worked to her advantage in the smaller indoor arena in Rock Springs.

"I felt like he ran really fresh and really free especially for that pen that's a little close feeling and smaller," she said of Dove. "There's no substitute for speed and I think them being fresh and wanting to fire worked to my advantage in that setup because I didn't have any trouble getting them up into the turns."

Dove's victory now pushed him to the $224,000 mark in futurity earnings for the season.

"Dove is getting so solid and focused," she said. "He's getting to the point that he's comfortable and having fun with his job. They're all getting to that point because I haven't been home to do it!"

Force The Goodbye, owned by Mowry's fiancé Michael Boone, took the reserve championship, earning $90,852. This was his second Royal Crown Reserve Championship after finishing second at the Buckeye, Arizona, event in February. The Goodbye Lane 4-year-old gelding also won both Open races on Sunday for $7,626. His Rock Springs haul was $97,852.

Sir Epic, the Royal Crown Waco reserve futurity champion, also picked up $3,256 in the Open.

Mowry's main rodeo mount, Famous Ladies Man, also owned by Boone, repeated as derby champion. The 7-year-old Dash Ta Heaven gelding swept both rounds of the derby, won Friday's Open and won the slot race with the fastest time of the event, a 14.836, to win $50,087—nearly as much as his Calgary Stampede Championship!

She said derbies like this make it worth keeping older horses in her program.

"In a lot of years past it didn't make any sense for us to keep a derby-aged horse around because there wasn't enough money for them to run for," she said, noting it was a lot easier to win $50,000 for two runs in Rock Springs than six in Calgary. "We're able to keep them longer and get them more solid instead of going straight to the rodeos after their futurity year. I feel like more people can justify keeping these horses with a trainer, and they're just that more seasoned and solid for someone else to take the reins on."

The next event for the futurity horses is the Ruby Buckle in Guthrie in two weeks. Mowry has three Texas rodeos this weekend to add to her rodeo count. She currently sits sixth in the WPR World Standings with $91,647.

$11,000 Weekend Puts Paige Jones & High Cotton Lane in WPRA Top 15

By Tanya Randall

Former Rookie of the Year Paige Jones jumped to No. 15 in the WPRA World Standings after an $11,044 weekend aboard her 2018 BFA Futurity Champion High Cotton Lane. The Wayne, Oklahoma, duo ran at five rodeos and drew checks at four, including a $7,629 championship at the $20,000-added Farm-City Pro Rodeo in Hermiston, Oregon.

Jones and her 8-year-old gelding started their week in Jerome, Idaho, on Monday.

"Our first barrel wasn't very good," she recalled. "He tripped coming across to the second and almost fell down. He jerked the reins out of my hands, by the time I got my reins back I just picked him up and walked out of the arena."

On Wednesday, they turned in the only 16-second run of the entire rodeo during the first performance at Hermiston.

On Friday morning, they made a ninth place run, worth $617, at the Omak Stampede in Washington, before making a second place run at the Missoula Stampede in Montana.

"If I had run there before and knew anything about the ground, I would not have run Cotton there," said Jones, who picked up $1,744 in Missoula. "It was hard, slick ground. I was a little nervous because the girl right before me pancaked coming out after her run. He actually stood up really well. I didn't push him very hard. I just made sure he kept his back feet underneath him."

Their last run of the week was a fifth place effort, worth $1,054 at the Bozeman Stampede in Montana on Saturday night.

At the time of this interview, Jones was running errands in Caldwell, Idaho, before her runs on Tuesday morning.

"My trailer brakes quit working in the middle of last week, so I had to have my truck brakes checked to make sure they were still working. My generator quit working so I'm headed to pick up a part for it," she said of the glamorous life on the rodeo road.

This week she's entered at Burley, Idaho, Canby, Oregon, and Moses Lake, Washington, if she doesn't make the short round at Caldwell. Cotton will likely get the call for all of them.

"Up until the last few weeks, I'd only made four runs on him," said Jones. Cotton bruised his feet earlier in the year and had to have time off to heal. "I've kind of just been hauling him around. My first really official runs back on him were Spanish Fork and Ogden (Utah). I usually try to save him for the ground that's going to hold him because he runs and turns so hard."

Her 10-year-old bay gelding Famous Hayday ("Bazinga") kept her in contention most of the year.

High Cotton Lane ("Cotton") 15.3 h.

BIT: Chain mouth, medium shank lifter with no gag, curb chain wrapped in electric tape

SADDLE: Trophy Shiloh from the BFA World Championship Futurity

SADDLE PAD: Darla Schneider pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on front, polo wraps behind

SHOEING: Shod on front, barefoot behind

FEED: Bluebonnet

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP products, liquid vitamin E and selenium

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: XLR8 blanket, leg wraps with draw it out liniment, icing feet and legs, Magic Cushion hoof packing TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Cotton is not the most fun to ride around, so I'll usually pony him off my little bay (Bazinga) just to let him move around. When he does get a day off I don't want to do too much with him.

THANK YOUS: Parents—Jack & Kay Jones; boyfriend—Jess Lockwood

"He's done amazing," she said of the Youree-Ward bred gelding, by PC Frenchmans Hayday out of Jaxons Olympic Fame, the dam of Emily Beisel's NFR mount Biddin On Fame ("Beau"). "He's really picked up the slack from when Cotton was down this year. I almost didn't go to San Antonio and a couple of those because he doesn't really like small indoor (pens). He did really good there. I ran him most places when I first got out here (for the summer run) because he likes the firmer ground."

Unfortunately, having run Bazinga so much made the switch back to Cotton a little rocky.

"Cotton has been the main horse I've run since 2018, his futurity year,” she said of the Bob Burt-bred gelding, by The Goodbye Lane out of the Dash Ta Fame mare HMB Soon Tobe Famous. “When he got hurt, this was the longest I’d been off of him since I started training him. When I got back on him, we were struggling.”

Bazinga has a stiffer, roll-back style, while Cotton has the more traditional Dash Ta Fame crawl style of turning.

“Bazinga, you have to hustle him the whole time because he’s so turny,” she explained. “He’s honest but you have to hustle through the whole run. Bazinga runs really stiff. You run him in close and then let him roll back. I think I was trying to ride Cotton the same way. Cotton crawls around the barrels, where he keeps his backend in the ground but engaged and he pulls with his frontend. I was trying way too hard because I knew what was on the line and I needed to win everywhere I went. Jane Melby had talked to my mom on the phone and said, ‘Tell her to slow down and quit overthinking.’ Cotton is so fast that it’s easy to get chaotic on him.”

Jones currently has $65,337 won on the season and also looks to be a lock for the NFR Playoffs in Puyallup, one of the last game-changing rodeos of the season.

Royal Crown Horse Sale Kicks off Busy Fall Sale Season

The 2022 Royal Crown Rock Springs Horse Sale occurred Saturday August 13th, 2022 at the Sweetwater Events Complex in Rock Springs, Wyoming. The only horses eligible to be sold in the auction are those either directly sired by Royal Crown Stallions or those in foal to Royal Crown Stallions. The market stayed strong at the first barrel horse sale of the fall sale season. With 66 horses walking through the ring, 43 horses changed hands. The Top 5 Sellers averaged a hefty $33,900 each, the Top 10 averaged $27,800. The whole sale including all ages of prospects and broodmares that sold averaged $15,453.

Flashy roans were the color for the high sellers with the top seller being a snappy looking and moving bay roan and the second high seller was a very sharp red roan.

The high seller of the Royal Crown sale was the pretty 2 yr old bay roan mare, Feelin The Streakin, by NFR Qualifier Feel The Sting and out of the A Streak Of Fling mare, Streakin Lacey. The second dam was Wild Shawne Lace which has been a mainstay for years in the Fulton family's program who consigned Feelin The Streakin. With millions in earnings in her family tree, the bidders ran this filly to a final sale price of $45,000.

The second high seller was the flashy 4 yr old red roan gelding, A Streak Of Jule, sired by $6.5 million barrel sire A Streak Of Fling. The dam of A Streak Of Jule, Samantha Jule combines the potent northern performance horse sire Sak Em San with the proven barrel lines of Tiny Watch on the bottom side. The handy and willing colt was consigned by Samantha Boone. His breeding almost ensures he will be a future rodeo horse and that pushed his sale price to $37,000.

The third high seller was the $1 Million Barrel Sire Lions Share Of Fame mare, Casadys Cadbury Fame. The dam is a Blushing Bug/Casady Casanova daughter, Blushing Casady. The Fame/

High Seller; Feelin The Streakin

Blushing Bug has been a top cross for years; this mare should be a top broodmare when her performance career is over. This fancy chestnut 5 year old mare consigned by Russ Day is already running 1-2D times and is being roped on. All that pedigree and performance led to a $33,000 price tag.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We have so many blessings in the USA. One of the many is being able to vote. Now, with all the hubbub going on and the candidates speaking unkindly about one another, it can be a bit challenging... to say the least.

How do you know who is telling the truth, or a half-truth, or a lie? Really helps if you actually know the candidates. But often we do not. Guess who knows!!! Of course! The Holy Spirit!

John 16:7-14 tells us that when Jesus left, the Holy Spirit came. And one of His jobs is to guide us into all truth and tell us things to come. Now if that's not a blessing, I don't know what is.

The Bible tells us in Proverbs 29:2 that when the wicked are in power, the people groan. But when the godly are in authority, the people rejoice.

I'm all in for rejoicing! If God is our top priority, and not our last resort, we will have the insight and guidance we need every day, whatever the situation! Have a great week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
