AUCTION EXTENDED THRU AUGUST 19TH

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

Adios Pantalones & Tricia Aldridge Return to WPRA Top 15 With Farm-City Win

By Tanya Randall

WPRA Reserve World Champions Tricia Aldridge and her record-setting 6-year-old stallion Adios Pantalones have won at least one rodeo for three straight weeks to crack back into the WPRA's Top 15 after missing nearly five months of the season due to an injury.

"He just makes it fun," said Aldridge, who hangs her hat in Sanger, Texas. "I know if I didn't have him, I wouldn't be out here rodeoing. I'd be home doing other things. The best part of this journey is just getting to do it with him."

"It's just an honor to swing a leg over him. I'm just so thankful every time I get to go down the alley on him. He's just so much fun."

Aldridge and Adios collected $12,898 at the $61,000-added Farm-City Pro Rodeo, held August 12-15 in Hermiston, Oregon, which opted to use a long go, short go and average format as opposed to a single run as with years prior.

They had their first run in slack and they clocked a 17.06, which held for fifth in the first round.

"The ground was really deep," she recalled. "This is the first rodeo that I've been to all year where they didn't do a condensed draw. It looked pretty good when it started, but they would drag after just one or two riders, so it dried out really fast. By the time it did get down to me, I was fifth on the ground and it was like the Sahara Desert."

"I was super proud of the way that he handled that because it's not like what we have been running on and just being on the bottom of the ground. It's really hard to stay up there when you're on the bottom, so it just tells me how much stronger he is than last year. He was hauling the mail and was still able to get a good clock."

They were a 16.95 for second in the short round to Sydney Graham and her 7-year-old stallion Dupont First, but claimed the aggregate by a mere .01, 34.01 to 34.02.

"In the Finals, he was bottom of the ground too," said Aldridge. "A lot of people talk about him stepping off the third (in that run). The only time he'll ever step out on the third like that is when he doesn't think the ground is going to hold him. He's such a big horse and has such an aggressive move. When he feels himself sliding around, it's like he runs around it. It's a totally different move."

"If it's tight ground that will hold him, he'll just turn it tight and catch a lead off the third and be straight as an arrow. I've learned just not to correct him (when he bows) because he's just taking care of himself and how he needs to be on the ground, so I just let him roll with it."

Before Adios had surgery to repair a fracture in his hock after San Antonio in February, Aldridge was sitting sixth in the World Standings with $27,098. Although she was able to win another $10,000 during Adios' recovery, Aldridge was outside the Top 20 by the time Adios made his first run back at the Reno Rodeo mid-June. Since then the stallion has won nearly $60,000 to have Aldridge unofficially 11th in the World Standings.

A key to their success is Aldridge's management of the son of Tres Seis out of Leslie Bailey's Frenchmans Guy mare French Bar Belle.

"I was so far behind when I came out to Reno, I was just trying to get into the Top 30," she said. "I wanted to give him a chance at some of the really neat things we qualified for last year that we didn't get to go to this year, like (Rodeo) Houston. I think he'll do really well there. Unlike last year when she went through a late season month-long dry spell, Adios is clipping away with Aldridge's strategic placement.

"I know I'm riding a great horse," said Aldridge. "I know if he's not worn out that he'll win. These last two weeks have been a really good example. I've been really just trying to focus on the Playoffs (rodeos in the Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour). He only ran at one rodeo this week and one rodeo the last week and two rodeos the week before that, and he was first and second, then first again. I just know if I take care of him, he'll take care of me."

Taking care of Adios meant building a pen in the middle of the night just so he could lay down and rest rather than stay tied for an hour or so.

"He's 100 percent my priority. We went to Omak and I ran the other stud. We were up at New Plymouth the next morning and came back through (Hermiston). It's a long drill and we had to drive all night. We stopped in Hermiston for an hour and half. We're going to sleep and just tie the horses to the trailer. I get out of the truck, and I can't do it. I start drilling holes and building him a pen. When we came out in the morning, Adios was passed smooth out. I was like, 'Well, at least my horse appreciates it!' I always feel like he's grateful for the little things I do for him."

Although Adios just had the two runs at Hermiston, Aldridge did run Blazin Sugar Daddy ("Preacher"), whom she co-owns with the Klassens, at Omak, where they picked up $368, and New Plymouth.

"Preacher is a nice asset," Aldridge said of the 7-year-old son of Blazin Jetolena out of the Frenchman Falcon mare LS Shameless In Paris. "He's kind of been there, done that. I think he compliments Adios really well and I'm excited to have him be a part of this team."

Aldridge plans on running Preacher more to continue to build her relationship with him all the while saving Adios for the places she knows he will excel.

This week is big in terms of the Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour. There are four remaining rodeos—Caldwell, Idaho, Canby, Oregon, Gooding, Idaho, and Moses Lake, Washington—to determine who gets into the Cinch Playoffs at the Puyallup Rodeo in Washington. The top 23 in the Tour point standings along with Caitlyn White, who won the NFR Open, are eligible to compete.

Aldridge is safely up in the point standings but will compete Caldwell with Adios and if she makes the short go there while he is drawn out of Canby. Preacher will run at Moses Lake and Adios will run at Gooding.

"It's exciting to have it all coming together," Aldridge said. "I'm just super thankful for the boys and super thankful for the Klassens, for their role in all this. I can't wait to finish out strong."

Emma Smith & Return Of The Mac Tighten Rookie Race With Baker Win

By Tanya Randall

Pleasanton, Texas, barrel racer Emma Smith closed the gap on WPRA Rookie leader Morgan Bagnell after a $5,505 victory at the $15,000-added Fallon Co. Fair & Rodeo, held August 13-15 in Baker, Montana.

She turned in a 16.07 aboard Return Of The Mac ("Creed") in the rodeo's first performance to take the win.

"The girl that ran before me was the new leader and I remember thinking, 'Oh that's just awesome!'" she quipped. "I was like, 'OK, I'm just going to go in here and do my job.' I made my run and when he announced my time, I was like, 'Wow! I was not expecting that! I was expecting a 16.3. It was a good run, but I didn't realize it was as fast as it was!'"

"I owe it to my partner, Creed, who takes care of us and always does a good job and gives his heart every single time."

Smith, a three-time College National Finalist while an undergrad at Texas A&M University, purchased Creed in the middle of 2024 from former NFR qualifier Felicia (Otis) Taylor. A highly decorated futurity champion under the direction of multiple NFR qualifier Danyelle Campbell, Creed, 9, is by A Smooth Guy out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Mackilts.

The gelding got his initial rodeo seasoning at college rodeos while Smith completed her master's degree at West Texas A&M University.

"It took us a minute to figure out rodeos and get in the groove," Smith said. "The ropes and all the different animals were scary. We started there (at the college rodeos) and then last summer I went out on my permit. I went up for the Fourth of July run and stayed the month and went to some rodeos in Utah, Wyoming and Colorado."

"We had a better groove and won close to $10,000 on my permit, so I bought my rookie card in 2026.”

Although she had two other nice horses, Smith said she plans to finish out the season on Creed.

“He’s the one I’m most in tune with right now,” she said. They were amongst the week’s highest money earners the first week of August and got the win at Bozeman, Montana, to boot. Their recent success has allowed Smith to close the gap between herself in Bagnell to $6,254 for the Rookie title.

“It took a while being a rookie,” she said. “It’s a lot of figuring out how to haul and know where to go. What’s the best way to enter? How to take care of your horse the best. I think we just finally started figuring out those different parts to make it all come together.”

Smith said how she prepares Creed before each run has made them more successful later in the season.

“Creed doesn’t need a lot,” she explained, “but we do a lot of walking and trotting the pattern before we run. I usually try to get into every arena. At Baker, I didn’t have time to set pop ups (barrels), but I was able to get into the arena and let him see it. I trotted him back and forth across the pen so he could see how far the first and second barrel were to each other. I didn’t really do that at the first of the year, and since I’ve been out here, I’ve really tried to be better about that. I think it’s definitely helped us as a team.”

Smith, a seventh generation rancher, is a first generation rodeo competitor. She took up barrel racing when she was 7. Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kay Blandford was an early mentor.

“I started on my dad’s ranch horse,” she explained. “I went to Kay Blandford, and she taught me all the basics and trained me. I have to give her lots of thanks because she put a drive and passion in me to want to do this.”

Now she has Campbell guiding her through her rookie season.

“I think one of the biggest keys to my success out here is Danyelle,” she said. “There were lots of learning curves. I didn’t know how to enter myself and Danyelle had to explain how ProCom works. She had to explain a lot of different things, like looking for ways to put less miles down the road on your horse when you enter and how to tune your horse while you’re out here. I’m thankful for all the little tidbits that she’s learned from being out here before, so I didn’t have to learn them the hard way.”

Hanchey Goes 1-2 in Okeechobee for $22K

By Julie Mankin

On a pair of powerhouse mares she trained, Kristin Hanchey ran the only two sub-15-second runs of the Fancy Thunderbird Barrel Bash Slot Race in her hometown of Okeechobee, Fla., on Aug. 15, to rake in $21,736.

"It's super awesome stuff," said Hanchey, raised right there in Okeechobee. "Whenever I get to tell the stories out of our barn, it's like God's hand reached down and touched it. It's His work and His doing."

Hanchey won first place on her parents' mare TY Blazin To Win ("Belle") for a $8,415 paycheck with a 14.969 that also won the Open and three different sidepots. Her total on the bendy sorrel 10-year-old came to $11,983.

And on Tracey (Williams) Raulerson's 9-year-old bay roan Smooth Way Ta Heaven ("Mouse"), she clocked a very similar 14.994 for second in the slot race, Open and those same sidepots for a total of $9,753 on that horse.

Incidentally, Hanchey also entered a third horse in the slot race, and he hit a barrel on a 15.1 to have won third. He and Belle were both bred by Tara Young of Tennessee.

Belle is by the great Blazin Jetolena out of Sallyes Dash To Win, by Dash For Perks out of a Streakin Six/Rocket Wrangler mare. The mare was sold in 2021, but last summer, Hanchey's family got the opportunity to buy her back at 9. So now Belle is on the rodeo trail under Kristin's 21-year-old daughter Ryleigh Kaye Adams. In fact, they currently sit #3 in the Southeastern Circuit.

"She gets passed around a little bit," said Hanchey. "My dad finished breaking her as a 2-year-old and I took her at 3. She placed at every major futurity we entered in 2020."

Hanchey's dad, Bob Haberlandt, trained all the horses she ran growing up, and also started Mouse, the mare on which Hanchey won second in Okeechobee (that's also her rodeo horse).

"When I started running those mares after he broke them, he helped me keep them on point," said Hanchey. "I start spoiling them a bit, and Dad steps in and reminds me they need to be sharp and focused."

The mares are very comparable, not in style so much as in aggression, she said.

"Belle helped me prepare to train Mouse the following year," she said. "Now they're back together and I'm schooling them both, they feed off each other. I'll get on one and say, 'Oh, I need to sharpen that up on the other horse,' or vice versa. They're a little power duo."

Mouse is by Bling's Smooth Guy, by the late A Smooth Guy out of the NFR mare Fame Fling N Bling. On the bottom, she's out of the JL Dash Ta Heaven daughter Cash Ta Heaven. The mare who sports both a winner of The American and WPRA gold-buckle winner Dee Dee on her papers also ran the two fastest times in Fort Smith history.

But right now, Mouse is only a few months out from undergoing shoulder surgery that Hanchey thought might be career-ending. During her recovery, Raulerson had an embryo flushed and bred to Monsterr. The Haberlandts are considering flushing Belle next year. In Okeechobee, Kristin said barrel racing and roping is a family affair. Both her mother and father were entered in the Fancy Thunderbird, as was her 15-year-old daughter Kaycee Rae, who is a salty roper like her dad Jason Hanchey, a full-time calf horse trainer to whom Kristin's been married 17 years. She met the brother of

TY Blazin To Win

BIT: Custom long-shanked gag William Crutcher with copper three-piece mouth

SADDLE: I ride only Robbie Phillips saddles, but this mare loses a half-second with anything but a treeless saddle.

SADDLE PAD: Impact Gel's Build Up Pad

LEG GEAR: polo wraps on all four

SHOEING: Dad's the farrier, so he takes care of all that

FEED: Purina Ultium

HAY: alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP's Mega-Cell, Vitamin E and selenium, and Quiescence Magnesium pellets

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: monthly chiropractic and Equiscope sessions

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: distance rides to help with endurance, and weekly barrel work where I keep her collected and her back round so she'll pick those feet up (she can get luggy in her turns). She's like a bull in a China shop, so I work on her ballet moves.

THANKS: My parents and Tracey Raulerson for the opportunity. It's just an honor to be able to ride and train and be entrusted with the care of these mares.

Myers Performance Horses and tiltXchange Partner to Deliver Second Annual Online Production Sale

Bill and Deb Myers of Myers Performance Horses in St. Onge, South Dakota, are pleased to announce the 2026 Myers Performance Horses Online Production Sale, launching September 15-16, 2026. The 2026 sale represents more than 40 years of breeding, raising and training Western performance horses known for exceptional versatility, usability, athleticism and heart.

This year's sale features a selection of performance horse prospects by some of the industry's leading stallions, including $20M sire Frenchmans Guy, $1M+ sire Mr Sassy Frenchman, $1M+ sire Lucky Wonder Horse, CR Tuff Dual, and Ima Special Kindaguy. The offering includes one 3-year-old, nine 2-year-olds, two yearlings and two weanlings from more than 40 years of proven breeding. A full online catalog and bidder registration can be found online at sale.frenchmansguy.com, beginning August 16, 2026.

Among this year's favorites is a bay 2-year-old filly, Luckyz Hot Toddy (Lucky Wonder Horse x Guys Hot Chocolate x Frenchmans Guy).

"She's from the same mare family as [futura and ProRodeo winning mare] Guys Champagne Girl and Sky High Guy, who had more than $225,000 in barrel racing earnings before all the incentives," Bill explained. "She's just a superstar looking horse and a beautiful mover, and she has great genetics on the bottom side. She's one of my top picks."

The sale's sole 3-year-old, Sassy Disarray (Mr Sassy Frenchman x Disarray x Dash Ta Fame) also tops Bill's list of favorites.

"That mare is out of a really nice mare, Disarray, who has produced a lot of winners for us," Bill said. "She's another standout in my mind. Then we have a handful of other outstanding prospects I think people will really be excited to see."

The sale is slated to begin on September 15, 2026, at 12:00 p.m. MST. Bidding will remain open through September 16, 2026, with Lot 1 scheduled to begin closing at 5:30 p.m. MST. Each subsequent lot will begin closing three minutes later, allowing bidders to stay engaged throughout the sale. If a bid is placed during the closing period of a lot, the countdown will automatically extend, giving all interested buyers an equal opportunity to continue bidding until no additional bids are received.

It will be conducted entirely online through tiltXchange, allowing buyers to bid from anywhere and through any web browser – or through the tiltXchange mobile app for iOS and Android, making it easy to watch the auction and place bids from virtually anywhere. This innovative, user-friendly platform delivers a direct-to-doorstep opportunity for buyers to bid on a piece of one of the Western performance horse industry's most iconic and influential programs.

"I think what a breeder is ultimately striving to do is produce just a little bit better of horse each year," Bill shared. "When we started this program 40 years ago, we knew we wanted to have horses with good conformation and athleticism that could win at a high level, but it was also important that we had the mind and disposition that allowed everyone from a beginner to a professional to enjoy them. The horses we're offering in this sale are an excellent representation of what we've been working to achieve in our program for the past 40 years."

The Breeders Elite Incentive Pays Out $520K

The 2026 edition of The Breeders Elite Barrel Racing Event was held July 31st-August 2nd, 2026 at The Pointe Agricultural Event Center in Sherwood Park, AB. This year's event paid out $520k.

The Breeders Elite was created to highlight and reward great breeders and stallions in our industry and they did just that.

In the Futurity Sweepstakes, Kennedy Smith topped the competition with a 14.887 on her 5 yr old dun gelding, Sekret Agent Watson. Sekret Agent Watson is by the Furyofthewind/Tres Seis stud Sekret Agentman and out of the mare that traces back to perennial barrel influences Jet Of Honor and Bugs Alive In 75. Between the owner earnings and breeders earnings the win netted them $41,598.

In the Derby Sweepstakes, Kirsty White ran a speedy 14.375 on her home raised royally bred colt, R Ace Of Spades. The 6 yr old stud is by $20 million barrel sire The Goodbye Lane and out of her old rodeo mare Special Tack who she qualified to the CFR on. Their combined owner and breeder earnings netted them a cool $25,266.

In the Showdown at The Breeders Elite, a familiar pair captured the win. Lynns Honor and Taylor Cherry grabbed another title winning with a quick time of 14.461. The pair has won several aged event championships in Canada and now are winning at the pro-odeos. Lynns Honor is by Frenchmans Guy son Guys Casanova Cowboy who has sired $1.7 million and out of a Blue Valentine/Jet Of Honor mare. The dynamite duo added $27k to their earnings with their Showdown win.

For more information about The Breeders Elite go to www.TheBreedersElite.com

Full results are below; in the Futurity and Derby the payout is the Owner and Breeder payout together.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Since I was about 12, I have made this statement. "I never, ever, never, never, ever enter a judged event." And I have happily spouted this to whoever will listen ever since. Probably had something to do with 4-H horse shows, princess contests and who knows what else.

I learned early that a timer was no one's opinion of how well I did or how I looked. AND, I still feel that way. Some things never change. LOL!

BUT! There is a judged event, however, that I'm looking forward to. Romans 8. When we stand before our Lord and Savior, IF He is our Lord and Savior, we will be judged NOT GUILTY because of all He has done for us.

How do we get there? Romans 10:8-13.

My track record of sinning, not sinning, has been erratic. But I know that when I ask for His forgiveness, He is faithful and just to forgive me. I Jn. 1:9.

Our very good God loves you and me. As His children, we have nothing to fear on judgment day! For we will all be winners!
