Hillman Hits a Home Run at the Daddy Of 'Em All

By Hope Sickler

WPRA #2 ranked barrel racer in the World Standings, Stevi Hillman, was the queen of the biggest show on dirt, Cheyenne Frontier Days. She dazzled the crowd with her smile and incredible jockeying skills, all while she crossed a major goal off her bucket list: Hillman jockeyed barrel horse prodigy MCM Imasharpguy, owned by Matt and Bendi Dunn of Dunn Ranch, to the win at the Daddy Of 'Em All.

The perfect-looking grey gelding, better known as "Sharpie", is by Frenchmans Guy son A Sharp Frenchman and out of one of the greatest mares to ever grace the barrel pattern, Mulberry Canyon Moon. Mulberry Canyon Moon was trained by Troy Crumrine, and Crumrine saw a lot of success aboard the talented athlete during her futurity and derby years. Angie Meadors was then handed the reins to give the rodeo trail a try, and after 2 NFR appearances and 3-go-round wins, it is not a surprise that the great "Mulberry's" son "Sharpie" will be making his very first NFR appearance this December.

"His mother was one of my favorites, and still is. She is a very special mare and I truly believe that he gets that from her," explained Hillman when asked what she thought made "Sharpie" so special.

"Sharpie has such a funny personality, too. He can be very sweet, but he is also very confident in himself and can sometimes be a little "full of it". One thing I do know for sure is that he absolutely loves to run barrels and is taking to the rodeo lifestyle just fine. He naps a lot!"

Trained by Jolene Montgomery, "Sharpie" was given every opportunity to succeed and be the best that he could be. As a futurity horse in 2016, "Sharpie" was seen in the winner's circle several times, with both Montgomery and Crumrine on board. He was sent to Hillman earlier this year to season and give her other talented mount, Cuatro Fame "Truck", a break when needed. But as did his mother, "Sharpie" almost immediately took to the rodeo scene, winning his first pro rodeo in less than a month on the rodeo trail.

"It has been an amazing year so far, and now to have won the biggest rodeo of the year, is just a blessing and a win that I will cherish forever," said Hillman.

In fact, call it intuition, Hillman had a feeling that she and "Sharpie" were going to see success at the Daddy Of 'Em All. "I actually told my husband Ty, back in May, that I was going to win Cheyenne on Sharpie. He laughed and said "Ok, I believe you!"

Hillman explained that she had a feeling that the giant, long pen at Cheyenne would be something that "Sharpie" might like, but wasn't sure how the young superstar would handle the loud, crazy performances that Cheyenne is known for.

"He was a rock in the first round in slack and we won the round with a 17.48," said Hillman. "In the second round, I wanted to play it safe so that we would be back for the short round on Sunday."

Entries Open For 2017 WPRA World Finals

courtesy of the WPRA

Entries are now open for the 2017 WPRA World Finals scheduled for Oct. 19-22 at Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. The 2017 WPRA World Finals offers opportunities for all levels of membership from those searching for a world title, to those looking to get a head start on the 2018 rodeo season, to those looking to fill their permit. The World Finals also provides opportunities for non-members through the All Girl 5D Jackpot.

In 2015, Mary Burger used the WPRA Card Holder Race to get a head start on her 2016 season that ended with setting a new regular season earnings record and a second world title. In 2016, Tiany Schuster used the race to move into the No. 1 spot in the 2017 WPRA World Standings that she still holds as of July 10. She is eyeing a record as she gets closer to Burger's 2016 regular season earnings record with three months left in the season. So the WPRA Card Holder race can definitely be a stepping stone to bigger wins and events.

Next to the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, this is one of the biggest events of the year for the WPRA that attracts the highest caliber of barrel racers and female ropers from across the country. The WPRA and their members are excited to return to the EXTRACO Events Center, home for the Heart O' Texas Fair & Rodeo, the All-American ProRodeo Finals and the Ram Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo. The facility features two indoor arenas – the EXTRACO Coliseum, known as one of the largest indoor arenas in the State of Texas, and the EXTRACO Show Pavilion.

This year's event offers $100,000 in added money and PESI bonus money. In addition, eight world champions will be crowned along with hotly contested WPRA Card Holder race, and Permit Only Race.

The WPRA Card Holder race will boast $15,000 in added money with money counting for qualifications into the 2018 winter rodeos and for the 2018 Pro Rodeo standings.

A $7,500 added Permit Only event will give permit and new members a chance to fill their permit at the end of the weekend. There is no other race like this in the world where a WPRA permit member races against permit only members for a shot at a share of $7,500.

A special Saturday night performance will feature the best ropers in the WPRA in a unique team event and a world champion in the Junior Division will be crowned. Also big ticket items will be given away including an Exiss Trailer, a Wrangler NFR package, a set of Cooper Tires and a YETI Tundra Cooler. Visit www.wpra.com for more information on this special performance.

New for 2017 is a $20 one time processing fee and a draw out option. In addition, the Junior Race will be ran in a 4D format. There will be an All Girl Kickoff Rodeo with $500 added in each of the roping events (breakaway, tie-down and team roping) and a barrel race. This event is open to members and non-members. There will also be a Roping Jackpot All Girl #11 WSTR Qualifier.

D&D Productions will serve as the ground crew. D&D Productions is a highly respected crew that handles the ground for the majority of the events at EXTRACO and strives to provide fast, consistent and safe ground for all competitors. T.C. Long will be the co-producer for the event along with the WPRA.

Entries close on Oct. 3, so don't delay. Enter today! Visit www.wpra.com to enter.

Tradition 121 years strong at Cheyenne Frontier Days

For the past 121 years, Cheyenne has hosted a true celebration of Western heritage during Frontier Days.

The rodeo has been the centerpiece of the celebration since it began in 1897 when Bill Jones earned the bronc riding championship. For the fourth year, the Cinch Shoot-Out kicked off the competition. Contestants competed on teams that raised $10,000 for local charities. The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) and Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) sanctioned competition has grown to one of the most prestigious rodeos in the world. This year's 1,243 contestants participated in nine events for $846,118 in prize money.

Through the Cinch Shoot-Out on opening day, the PRCA and WPRA sanctioned slack competition, nine rodeo performances and two Championship Bull Riding events, there were no serious injuries to competitors. The Justin Sportsmedicine Team was onsite and provided treatment for 400 minor injuries.

A new partnership with Colorado State University's (CSU) Equine Clinical Services program provided comprehensive care to equine animal athletes at Cheyenne. The CSU Equine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation veterinarians provided care similar to athletic trainers for contestants. Onsite services included digital radiographs, ultrasound, acupuncture, chiropractic care and shock wave therapy.

Championship Bull Riding brought their world championships to Cheyenne as part of the night shows. They paid $525,000 to bull riders, bull owners and bull fighters. The big winner was Sage Kimzey who won his third world title in that organization and a $100,000 bonus.

RFD-TV broadcast their popular Western Sports Roundup on Rural Radio and the new Cowboy Channel from Frontier town. Their broadcast reached over 70 million fans. The final three performances were webcast on the Wrangler Network. Over 300,000 people from 52 countries enjoyed the global coverage.

Night shows were once again a popular attraction with the largest crowd of 19,660 turning out for Jason Aldean and special guest the Casey Donahew. Total night show attendance was 107,445 compared to last year's record setting 118,123.

"It continues to amaze me how all of our volunteers come together to make this event happen," said Bill Berg, General Chairman of Cheyenne Frontier Days. "It takes a lot of planning, hard work and dedication and the best reward is knowing that so many fans have participated and had a good time."

Sharpie was pretty full of it for the second round, but we were having to deal with a lot of commotion as well as a nice, little storm that blew through right before we ran."

Although there was a lot going on for the young gelding, Hillman commended the gelding for staying focused and finishing 8th in the second round with a 17.63 and holding strong in the #1 spot in the average with their one-one hundredth of a second lead as the field of 260 barrels were narrowed down to 96, before being narrowed down to the top 12 that would come back to the short round Sunday afternoon based on a two-head average.

Going into the short round on Sunday, Hillman didn't change anything about her game plan, even when the once dry track was now a muddy one. Posting the fastest run of the entire rodeo, a 17.33, Hillman and "Sharpie" took a commanding lead in the average, and although several other good runs followed, Hillman's aggregate time of 52.44 was not going to get touched. Leaving Cheyenne with a lifetime of great memories and deeper pockets, Hillman was still speechless about her time spent in Cheyenne this summer.

"I was, and still am, very emotional about this win," said Hillman. "What an honor to win the Daddy Of 'Em All. I am incredibly thankful because I know how hard everyone that is a part of my team has worked for this win, for it to mean so much. I am incredibly blessed to be Sharpie's jockey; I absolutely love him and his genuinely big heart."

With $154,141.82 won, Hillman will see herself in Vegas yet once again this December. And when asked if she was going to slow down a little bit now that she has solidified her 2017 NFR qualification, she confidently answered with "no more all-night drives!"

"We are going to keep going because it is not over until after 10 rounds in Vegas. We are going to give it everything we have, but I can confidently say we will not be driving the crazy all-night drives anymore. We will also give these horses as much of a break as pos-

STALLION INCENTIVE

We would like to invite you to take a look at the Triple Crown 100 Stallion Incentive Program. TC100 is a stallion incentive program that has you covered from futurities & derbies to divisional races, adult & youth riders, futurity aged horses to older seasoned barrel horses. Triple Crown 100 is money in your pocket! Participating TC100 stallions are also eligible to compete for payout themselves at TC100 events! TC100 offers payout in 3 ways, horse owners (50%), stallion owners (30%) and breeders (20%). This allows for all 3 parties involved to receive payout. And if you are a stallion owner who breeds AND runs their own prospects, then you are looking at a 100% investment return!! TC100 also works with other stallion incentive programs to encourage industry growth across the country!

Do you have a young stallion that needs exposure?? The Young Crowns program makes it financially feasible to enroll your stallion with no performance age progeny, in an incentive program that will showcase and market him directly to the barrel horse industry.

TC100 is a stallion incentive program

NEW this year, TC100 will have the first Triple Crown 100 Stallion Directory, showcasing the stallions in the program. This directory will be available as a printed publication as well as online. Copies will also be dispersed at Triple Crown 100 payout events. TC100 is the only stallion incentive program that does not charge stallions owners to be in their directory.

TC100 is committed to marketing and promoting stallions in the barrel horse industry.

- 2009-2016 TC 100 has paid over $625,000
- TC100 pays Bonus Money in Futurities, Derbies, & Open Events at Major Events across the country!
- TC100 gives annual awards to the Triple Crown 100 Champion Stallion, Owner, Breeder and Horse
- TC100 has the only slot race where STALLIONS get PAID!
- TC100 puts on a stallion service auction each year, with each enrolled stallion donating a breeding. ALL Proceeds from the auction go to payout! This is another excellent tool for marketing your stallion!

TC100 is not only one of the top incentives in the country for payout opportunities, but also offers multiple avenues of promotion for your stallion.

- YOUR stallion will be listed in TC100 advertising.
- YOUR stallion will have a page on the TC100 website with multiple photos and videos.
- YOUR stallion will be showcased on the TC100 FB page where we will help to promote YOUR stallion by sharing your progeny video & sale horse posts.
- You will have access to discounts on stallion advertising materials & promotional videos.

PAYBACK: OWNER 50% ~ STALLION 30% ~ BREEDER 20%

Sabra Moore & Beea Stash Of Money Bank NBHA Youth 1D Championship

By Tanya Randall

Mount Ulla, N.C., barrel racer Sabra Moore dominated the NBHA Youth World, sweeping every round of the Youth Division and taking home the 1D World Championship with Beea Stash Of Money.

Moore and Beea topped the first go with a 15.026 and finished 11th in the second go with a 15.811.

"Our first run was fast and smooth," said the 13-year-old. "She was working hard. I was super happy. Our second run, the ground wasn't too great a for her."

Moore won the second round, with the fastest time of the youth division, a 14.865, aboard Misty Doc Valentine. She and the mare later placed 10th in the short go with a 15.226.

In the Finals, Beea clocked a victorious 14.960 as the second to last runner in the finals.

"It was fast," said Moore. "I was happy. When they announced it, we all freaked out."

All totaled, Moore and Beea won $3,117. When combined with Misty Doc Valentine's and JTD Ryans Lady Luck's earnings, Moore pocketed a grand total of $5,054

Moore, who is going into the eighth grade at a wonderful school that allows her to homeschool as well as attend regular classes, started riding English when she was 9.

"I always loved horses," she said. "I asked my dad for a pony and we moved on from there."

When she was 11, she switched to barrel racing.

"We sold my pony and my dad wanted me to have something else to do," she explained. "Instead of English, we moved to Western." Moore got Beea a year-and-a-half ago from Megan Yurko, who won the 2013 International Pro Rodeo Association's Barrel Racing Championship aboard the mare. Beea, a 13-year-old sorrel mare, is by The Money Doctor, a son of On The Money Red, out of Beea Frosty Peppy, by Jacks Peppy Frost.

Amber Mostoller, who along with Amanda Schumacher help Moore with Beea, said the mare has just been phenomenal her entire career.

"I ran Beea off and on for the Yurkos," said Mostoller, who won IPRA and WPRA checks on the mare. "Megan was just 9 when they bought her and they sent her to me to season. I think I've hit maybe three barrels the whole time that I've ran her. She's been an outstanding mare and won with three different people. She's been a blessing. She's just an outstanding mare."

Moore said she likes, 'how sweet she is and how calm she is.' She added, 'You can really do anything with her until she knows it time to run.'

Moore wanted to thank her Dad, Harold, for all his help and support as well as Schumacher and Mostoller for all their help.

Unfinished Business – McKenzie Morgan & In Firewaters Honor Win NBHA Teen World Championship

By Tanya Randall

After nearly losing her homegrown champion In Firewaters Honor ("H2") to colic at the 2016 NBHA Youth World Championships, McKenzie Morgan and the great gelding returned to Perry, Ga., to claim their first NBHA Teen World Championship.

"He's my comeback kid," laughed Morgan, 14. "I thank God for that win."

Unfortunately, Morgan and H2 know all too much about comebacks. In 2015, while traveling to the American Semifinals Rodeo in Fort Worth, Texas, H2 was in a trailer accident, where he was pinned upside down in a sitting position for several hours. Thankfully, H2 recovered in a few months and returned to competition.

In 2016, Morgan and H2 were having a great year, having advanced all the way to Arlington, Texas, for RFD-TV's The American and won the All-American Youth. Then H2 colicked on arrival at Perry, Ga., for the NBHA Youth World and spent the entire event and then some at Auburn University's veterinary school.

The onsite veterinarian initially suspected the gelding was dehydrated. Although the initial treatment seems to help, as soon as they returned to the stalls the Morgans knew that H2 wasn't alright and the onsite veterinarian suggested they get him to a hospital immediately.

Once they got to Auburn, H2 again appeared well, but the veterinary staff suggested they keep him overnight just to be sure. In the middle of the night, H2 again became painful and had colic surgery. H2 had a rough recovery and almost had to have a second surgery, but recovered.

"God saved this horse," said Morgan. "We can't thank everyone enough for praying for him. I cannot thank the vets at Auburn enough. They did everything possible for him. I doubt he would be here if it weren't for them."

Morgan was told to give H2 three months before she started riding him again, but decided to give him a full six months to recover. I started running him again in February, March of this year.

"He came back really strong," she said.

At this year's Youth World, Morgan and H2 placed ninth in the first go with a 15.069 and second in the second go with a 14.742.

"My first run, he had a killer first and second barrel, but got a little lost going to the third. I was happy with it. I knew I could be really fast if I fixed my third barrel, because I had went a long way by it. In the second round, he came in and ran a 14.7, which hadn't been run all week. Samantha Bailey came in (with LS Iron Mater) and ran a little faster .7, so I got second."

In the Finals, Morgan and H2 turned in a 14.860 to win the 1D Championship and $5,874 on the weekend.

"It was very hectic because I didn't know I had won," she said. "I knew I had a good run, but they didn't announce I was the new leader. I had gone back to the barn and unsaddled him and wash him and everything. I started to wonder when my family didn't come out after my run like they usually do. Then they came out on the golf cart screaming and everything."

Morgan said the victory brought tears to her eyes.

"I'm not one to cry," she said, "but I've wanted to win this for a long time. I've been coming to the youth world since I was 6. This was something that I've always wanted."

H2, an 11-year-old palomino gelding, was bred and trained by Morgan's late grandfather Danny McKee. By the family-owned son of Fire Water Flit, Firewater Special, H2 is out of the Mr Honor Bound mare Cachicka Bound.

Morgan wanted to thank her family for all their help and support as well as Josh Pack, her go-to helper.

Brownie Bi Bogie & Crossley $50,000 Champs

Over the weekend in Ponoka, AB Canada, barrel racers were running at the big money! The Breeze Elite Barrel Race paid out $50k to both the 1D and 2D Winners (The Breeze Elite is transitioning into a 3D race in 2018) and in The Runaway Slot Race the winners of the 1D, 2D and 3D all won a whopping $20k! In The Breeze Elite 115 Slots are available and in the Runaway Slot Race 155 Slots are available. For both races, all the slots have already been purchased with a long waiting list in the case someone gives up their slot. Both these slot races are a little different than what most people are used to; the owner of the slot can do as they wish with the slot, run themselves, rent it, sell it or whatever; and also the horse or rider or both can be switched up until one drag before they run! For more information on these slot races check out the Facebook group Leather N Lace.ca.

The unique format attracted some of the biggest talents from Canada and the United States. In the end, the 1D Breeze winner was the young Callahan Crossley with her senior winning machine, Brownie Bi Bogie. At 19 years old, Brownie, continues to win throughout the US and Canada with Crossley so we caught up with Callahan to talk to her about her big win and her amazing mount.

BRR: Could you tell us a little about the Breeze Barrel Race?

Crossley: The Breeze is a great event! I found out about it the week before. They have however many slots (115) that are owned by people and either the owners can run, or they can sell their slot to other people for cost or for some other agreement such as a percentage of winnings. In my case, a girl owned the slot and sold it to another girl who was planning on running, but her horse was hurt. She then ended up giving her spot to me. At The Breeze you can change horse or rider up until pretty much the very last minute. I think it's right up until your drag. The ground was great and the lady putting it on (Lacie Shock) did a great job. It is a non profit organization and so she does it all for the fun of it.

BRR: Could you walk us through your winning run?

Crossley: My game plan was to just run as hard at the first barrel as I could because I knew there wasn't much room to go by, so if I did, it wasn't going to cost me too much. After I took off to the first, and he turned it, I knew all I could do was kick and get around the other two. He kinda slipped out a little on the second which didn't cost me in time, but it almost caused me to hit the second barrel leaving because we were already so tight. The third was also very tight and I knew at that point that Brownie was giving me his all, I just didn't know how fast it was going to be. When I looked up and saw my time I couldn't help but smile, 17.056. I was number 47. So from that point on I had to sweat out the rest of the 115!

BRR: We know Brownie (Brownie Bi Bogie) is 19 years old now and still winning at the highest level. What do you think keeps him still winning at his age?

Crossley: Honestly, I'd like to say there is some secret but there isn't. He is built really good so he's never had any issue with joints or bones or any of that you would think an old horse would have after wear and tear. He didn't get the typical barrel horse treatment at a young age so I feel like he's had a pretty easy life.

BRR: Do you have a special regiment (treatments, supplements, etc.) you use for him due to his age?

Crossley: Not really, he LOVES grain. So I give him Equine Senior everyday and sometimes Omolene 200. He also gets Biomane which I really really think helps with their coats! He is also on UlcerGard or GastroGard daily and I keep alfalfa hay in front of him at all times.

BRR: Can you share with us a few of his bigger wins through his career? Is this his biggest win so far?

THE RUNDOWN w/ Callahan Crossley

Brownie Bi Bogie "Brownie" 15.2 hands, 1,100 lbs.

BIT: I have used a combination on him ever since I first started running him back in 2011.

SADDLE: 2014 Cactus Tropy Saddle, "a saddle sits so good on Brownie you could probably ride him in anything!"

SADDLE PAD: Weaver Saddle Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine or Relentless

FEED: Equine Senior Omolene 200

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: UlcerGard, Horse Guard Products, BioMane

ADDITIONAL CARE: Brownie is very very specific about his shoers! Not just anyone can shoe him. He will try to kill everyone. We've had the same shoer for all of brownies life. His name is Mike Bosworth and he is the best!

SPONSORS: BioMane for keeping all my horses pretty! To all of my family! They are my support system, and number one fans.

Crossley: He has got me so many places I would've never dreamed of going. Not to mention he has also helped in my sisters successes. He's taken me to The American Semis 3 times. The American Final day. Calgary twice now. I've won 1st and 2nd at the College Finals on him (my sisters have been 3rd & 4th at College Finals on him). I ended up Reserve Canadian Finals Champion last year, not getting to finish the finals on him for my last run. Reserve Dodge Circuit Finals Champion 2016. And now The Breeze. This is for sure his biggest one run win in our career.

What is your mental preparation to run Brownie? And how is it different than on your other horses due to you running him for so many years?

I love running Brownie. Everytime I get on my other horse, I am so thankful for everytime I run Brownie. At this age some things have changed with his running, but for the majority you just have to figure out the first, sometimes he will turn it and sometimes not as well (LOL) but you can always count on him turning the other two and running his hardest. (Sometimes directly at the eye! LOL)

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you've ever wondered what your gift is, you can read Romans 12:4-8 and one of those gifts will resonate with your heart. You will 'see' yourself in there, maybe even two or three places. And then Romans 11:29 says, "For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable". God won't take the gift/s He gave you, away from you. For you, your gift will be as easy as breathing. It will almost be 'natural' to you. For example.....I am very organized. I was at the paint store the other day, standing at the counter waiting for them to shake my paint, when I caught myself tidying up their counter....I made myself stop.

Other gifts? Not so much for me. I am not mechanical. I hate to put things together or read directions. I'm twitching just writing that!! But, being organized, I can't stand to put off until tomorrow what I can get done today. So. We removed a window in our laundry room. My friend came over, took it out, framed it up, sheetrocked and taped. Mudding was left to me. NO PROBLEM! I got online and watched a 4 minute video of how to do it. That 4 minutes was an eternity but I gutted it out, learned all I could, which proved to be nothing, and gave it a whirl. It was a disaster. Two minutes into the job, standing there with mud on the BACK of the trowel, I was batting my eyes like a blonde, feeling totally overwhelmed.

My point? Oh how we need one another in this life! Whenever we get the idea that we can do everything on our own, we are set up to fail. If someone needs taught, call a teacher. If someone needs encouraged, call an encourager. Be a useful part of the body of Christ, whatever your gift! We need YOU! We need ME! Together we will get the job done.....on time.....and right!!
