Conrado & C Four Tibbie Stinson Strike Again at Cornhusker Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Kelly Conrado and C Four Tibbie Stinson picked up their second (and third) straight futurity victories at the Cornhusker Breeders and Open Futurities, held Aug. 16-18 at the Custer County Fairgrounds in Broken Bow, Neb. The duo won both futurities and posted the fastest time of the weekend for total earnings of $8,246.

It was their fantastic 15.166 in the first round of the futurity that set up their entire weekend.

"I just let her do her job," stated Conrado, Hudson, Colo. "I let her take charge and let her make her run. It was fun. It was effortless all the way around."

The veteran trainer said conditions were right to give Tibbie a shot to make "her" run. The mare was exuding confidence, which isn't her norm in an indoor pen.

"I knew she wanted to fire," he said. "I felt like the situation was right, ground wise, to let her make her run. She felt really confident. Usually she feels really tight even when you're just riding around indoors."

With a commanding 3/10th lead, Conrado rode smart in the second round.

"The second day, I was bottom of the ground," he explained. "The ground was much deeper, drier and looser. As I watched a couple runs, I thought if I let her do what I did the day before she'd get a barrel on the back side. I rode her more and made her stay out on the first and second barrel. I made her give me an extra foot on both of them. I was really proud of her for listening to me. She really fired to the third and she set really hard. My leg was dragging the barrel and all I did was lay that inside rein against her neck and she moved off, like 12 feet, more than I intended, but she listened. I'm really proud that she's the kind of colt that let me take advantage of the first run she time."

Conrado said Tibbie and her mother have just been a blessing to his family. Tibbie, a 4-year-old daughter of Eddie Stinson, is out of Little Fancy Granny, by Del Puerto Bill.

"We were blessed to have her and her mother," said Conrado, who is sponsored by TechMix supplements. "It's fun when you put your whole life into this and it all starts coming together."

Conrado also had connections to maternal lines of Open Reserve Champion CM Dynamite Shake, ridden by Samantha Flannery, and Breeders Futurity finalist Lady La French, ridden by Hallie Hansen. Lady La French shares the same dam as Conrado's junior stallion C Four Life Ta Legend.

"It's fun to see it all come through, too see people like Hallie and Sam get on them win on them," he said. "It's fun to know that even 10 years ago that your mares were on the right track."

Conrado wanted to thank event producer Marlene McGaughey for hosting such a nice event, saying that producers aren't thanked enough for all of their hard work. He also wanted to thank Jeff Switzer and Bo Hill for the trophy Cowboy Classic saddle they donated to the winner of the Breeders Futurity.

"It's one of my saddles from Cowboy Classic," he laughed. "It's a Conrado Series with a cowgirl tree, which is what I ride. It's so pretty and I WILL ride it. It's fun when you win things that you can use."

The 7-and-under Derby and Maturity for older horses that had previously been entered in the futurity or derby, were run concurrently and a pair of young guns took top honors.

In the Breeders Derby/Maturity, Sage Kohr, Gillette, Wyo., and Wake Up Cashy picked up an $1,820 victory and placed third in the Open Derby/Maturity average. They also placed in the open races and swept the two youth races.

Josey Jr World Champion Cashen Turner, Plains, Kansas, and VF Rock Grinder, owned by her grandparents Dale and Bonnie Baughman, topped the Open Derby for $1,421. They also picked up $1,156 in Open 1D money on the weekend.

Dashing With Cash Passes

Dashing With Cash passed away on May 2, 2013 at the age of 21. Dash, as he was better known, was bred and originally owned in California by George N Haddad MD. Dashing With Cash was born for greatness. He was sired by the All-Time Leading race sire, First Down Dash and Dashing With Cash was a full brother to the World Champion race mare, Down With Debt.

During his race career he earned a 94 speed index before moving on to a career as a superior sire. After a couple years standing at stud he became the center piece of renowned horseman, Ray Wardell's breeding program in Moorcroft, Wyoming. It was there he started his stud career and consistently proved to throw speed and great minds in his progeny. Then in 2003 Dashing With Cash moved to his home of the last 10 years with the Lantis family at Seven Down Events Center in Spearfish, SD. He continued to prove himself as an All Around Sire. His race get went on to earn over $700k and his barrel get went on to earn over $300k, pushing Dashing With Cash into the Million Dollar Sire category.

His top race earners included stakes winners Dashin With Silk, Stormacash, Iscreamfordash, Punkys Pet, Wholelotta Dash, Captain Dash, Getda Money Hun, Polly Want Some Cash, Rebs Big Dash, Dashing Meteror, Meter Me A Lady and Stormabash. In the barrel pen, a few of his top earners were Nother Time To Cash, CB Day, The Chocolate Dash, Dashing Misty Isle, Mojo N Motion, Lil Dashin Blitz, On The Fast Stride, Dashing With Sis, Raw Silver Tonto, and Dashing Duke Of Earl.

He will be missed by the many people lucky enough to know him and handle his offspring.

Chuck Taylor Passes

Nicks Huachuca, the 2001 sorrel stud, known affectionately as Chuck Taylor, passed away this last Saturday, August 17, 2013. Chuck Taylor was bred and owned in Texas by Fallon Taylor. His sire Dr Nick Bar and his dam, the On The Money Red mare, Flowers And Money, were both former NFR horses for Taylor. Chuck Taylor was also the full brother to Taylor's current mount, Flos Heiress. Taylor and Babyflo, as she is better known, currently sit #3 in the World with earnings of $98,087. Taylor will carry on Chuck Taylor's legacy by standing his son, Chuck Up The Deuces, to the public in 2014.

Below is a message from Fallon Taylor's Facebook page:

"We are deeply saddened to announce that our beloved Nicks Huachuca "Chuck Taylor" has been called to greener pastures. He inspired thousands, was a true miracle, and leaves behind a living legacy. He watched diligently by the arena as Babyflo (his full sister) got ready for the 2013 season and we feel like he knows she's ready to lead his Dynasty to success for years to come. His sons can never replace him but will be a beautiful addition to our breeding program as we continue to believe in miracles as taught to us through our incredible horse, friend and teacher CHUCK TAYLOR! Thank you all for your support, prayers, and we can't wait to let Babyflo shine in Vegas in Chucks honor!"

Frenchmans Flirt Passes

Frenchmans Flirt, the 11 year old daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of the Easy Move mare, Easy April Bar, passed away August 6, 2013. "Flirt" was bred and owned by Walker Quarter horses for most of her life. She went on to win at all levels with several riders before moving into Angie Meadors barn after her purchase last fall.

Here is the statement from Angie Meadors Facebook page:

"We are sad to share the unexpected passing of Frenchmans Flirt (Frenchmans Guy x Easy April Bar), the great mare owned and ridden by seven time NFR qualifier Angie Meadors. 'Flirt' was a multiple time futurity money earner, as well as a top WPRA money earner. Angie started riding the sassy little buckskin in late July 2012 and eventually ended up purchasing her in November.

From the beginning the two had a special connection. They hit it off to a good start with wins throughout the fall of 2012. When the 2013 WPRA season kicked off the two started the year with wins at many of the winter rodeos including Houston, San Antonio, Ft Worth and others.

"Flirt was a blessing in our lives. She was very good to me in the short time we had together. She loved her job and was fun to ride," said Meadors. "I can't say enough good about her. She made barrel racing fun. We loved her and are very saddened by her death. She will be missed tremendously and never forgotten. R.I.P Flirt."

Katelyn McLeod & Kellies Chick fire 'em up the OKC Summer Shootout

By Tanya Randall

At just their second barrel race together, Katelyn McLeod and Kellies Chick ("Skye") topped a talent-laden Schiller Ranch 1D Shootout at the annual 829-entry Summer Shootout, held August 15-18 in Oklahoma City. McLeod and Skye collected $2,633.77 of the $108,336 total purse.

Less than a month ago, show horse trainers Jason Martin and Charlie Cole purchased Skye as a backup horse for Katelyn's mother Michele McLeod, who has qualified for her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo this year largely due to the efforts of Martin and Cole's 6-year-old stallion Slick By Design. The 5-year-old daughter of Darkelly out of The Skye Chick, by Fiesta In The Sky, came from Kelly Conrado and his daughter Ivy, who won the Sand Cup Maturity on the mare. Conrado family friend Cody Hyde had found the mare and campaigned her during her futurity year.

Michele first rode Skye at Sikeston, Mo., and then placed on her at Lawton, Okla., and Lovington, N.M., before flying back to the Northwest. She told Katelyn to keep the mare going while she was gone. On the Sunday before the Shootout, Katelyn placed third in the 1D on Skye at a jackpot in Paul's Valley, Okla.

"I was a little nervous coming into the Shootout," said Katelyn, who finished a few spots out of the 2D money in the first round with a 16.242. "Being that the first round was going to be my second run on her, I was little timid and it did cost me. She did step of the second barrel a little bit with me. My mom was like you have to react faster. We call it 'Stepping Up,' which means come around in my body faster in my turns."

A change in her game plan put Katelyn and Skye in the 1D Shootout by virtue of their ninth-place finish in the second round with a 15.703.

"I told myself to just go in there like you did at Paul's Valley and be fearless—run like you've ran her your whole life," she said. "And it paid off for me."

For the Shootout, Katelyn's younger sister Lindsey, a high school senior, came back on her sister with some familiar advice, asking her if she had anything to lose?

"She asked me, 'Honestly, Katelyn what do you have to lose?' I said, 'Nothing.' She said, 'Okay, then go make a run.' It was pretty awesome," she said. "I went in there for my last run and was fearless for the whole thing. I did what I could. I didn't even look at the clock. I told myself, 'Don't even look at the clock when you run out.' When they announce that I was like 'No way!' I was so astonished. I couldn't believe it."

Their winning run was the fastest time of the weekend, a 15.487. "I want to thank Jason and Charlie for giving me the opportunity to run this mare," said the 20-year-old college student and substitute horse trainer. "I want to thank my mom. I always tell people, all I want to do is be like Michele McLeod."

She also wanted to thank her family, sisters, and everyone who has supported her along the way as well as Cindy Smak, who provided Skye with laser treatments and Back On Track products, and Rosie Bradley, who provided Skye with Oxy-Gen products, throughout the weekend.

It also doesn't hurt that Skye is Katelyn's style of barrel horse—one with a little more rate.

"She's my style completely," she said. "The more free runners—I have a hard time rating back. The ones that are more ratey—I just kick and go on with. It's easier for me to ride those."

While her mom's chasing the rodeo road, Katelyn and her sisters—older sister Jenna and younger sister Lindsey, are picking up the slack at McLeod Barrel Horses.

"When she went to rodeo, she said 'here's the deal, I'm going to rodeo, but my daughters will be here to ride them,'" Katelyn explained. "We have about 16 horses. Between my younger sister, older sister and I, we've been able to manage."

During the summer Katelyn lived at home in Whitesboro, making helping out with the horses easier. Now she's back at school at Southeastern Oklahoma State University in Durant. She's taking 12 hours, but managed to pick-up a few more credits thanks to summer courses at a community college close to home.

Although she's college rodeoed in the past, she's hesitant to compete this year with her mother on the road.

"I was (rodeoing), but I might be sent on the road to drive for my mom next year," she said. "So I don't know if I'm going to keep up with the rodeoing. Our region is pretty big, so we have to travel far and sometimes it's just not worth it."

Although Martin and Cole told her winning the Shootout was just the beginning, she doesn't really know what her future plans are or if she'd be able to rodeo with her mom should she join her on the road as a driver. She jokes maybe she'll get to run whatever her mother doesn't.

Other Shootout winners were Paige Jones and "Bing" in the Jud Little Ranch 2D; Ronda Crider and Struttin Rare in the LLP Horse Farms 3D and Maison Davis and Beat The Bully in the Teners Western Wear 4D.

Cervi Pads Lead; Brazile Makes Comeback

By Julie Mankin

A downed barrel in Gooding, Idaho, is all that kept Sherry Cervi from hitting five figures last week at lucrative rodeos in Idaho and the Northwest. Still, she and Stingray won both Caldwell, Idaho, and Canby, Ore., for a cool $8,761.

While some money-winners in Caldwell – including Brenda Mays and three-time champ Nancy Hunter – choose to run directly from the side gate at the far right corner of the arena and make a kind of arc back to the first barrel, Cervi preferred to keep her little mare controlled and walk into the arena and set up normally. It worked perfectly on every run.

Cervi and Stingray placed fourth on their first run in slack with a 17.5. In the progressive round, they posted a 17.2 for third, and came back to run the fastest time of the entire week – a 17.04 – in the Saturday night finals to win the round and claim the average title by nearly two tenths of a second.

“Normally, the more runs I get on her, the faster she gets,” said Cervi, who won a set of Caldwell trophy spurs to go with her spurs from the Reno Rodeo in June. “The ground during the short round wasn’t quite as deep as it had been in slack. It was outstanding, and everyone’s times got faster. It was a fast short round.”

Cervi, who had never won Caldwell before, also claimed first place at Canby, Ore., where performance winners earned trophy knives. She used the paychecks to pad her lead in the WPRA world standings to $17,000 over defending world champ Mary Walker (who placed in Caldwell and Gooding, Idaho last week).

“That’s a really good week of rodeos,” said Cervi, who also led the world standings heading into the 2010 NFR – when she last won the world. “It would be nice to get that $7,500 bonus for being the regular season champion, if they still give it, but no lead is safe at the Finals. There’s so much money to be won there that it really doesn't matter – anybody in the top 15 can win the world.”

Cervi got another bonus, too, that counted toward the world standings. The Wrangler Million Dollar Tour wrapped up in Hermiston, Ore., and offered bonuses paid through sixth place in the standings. Cervi nabbed $3,000 for fourth, while Sabrina Ketcham got the first-place $7,500 chunk. Christy Loflin and Michele McLeod earned $6,000 and $4,500 apiece for second and third, while Kaley Bass and Sydni Blanchard rounded out fifth- and sixth-place bonuses.

While Fallon Taylor clutched the lead in the world standings virtually all season and Mary Walker predictably moved into first in early summer, Cervi seems to have come from behind to virtually lap the field.

"I didn't go anywhere the entire month of April, and I only went to two rodeos in May," said Cervi. "I tried getting embryos out of Stingray and gave her a big break, then entered up in the summertime. She's just been working really good. It's always fun when you win first."

By winning first at Caldwell, Cervi overshadowed 27-year-old Whitney Baker. While Baker didn't place in the first round with a long 17.7, she came back to win the second round with a 17.07 and clocked a 17.2 in the finals to take second in the rodeo and earn $5,018. Baker, who has had a first NFR on her mind for the past five years or so, moved into the top 40 in the world with the money.

The other solid force in Caldwell was Shada Brazile, who had a great week when she really needed one. She followed up a solid 17.6 in slack with a smoking 17.3 in Caldwell that same night, then came back with a 17.2 in the tough short round to finish third for $3,975. More checks earned at Billings, Mont., Canby, Ore., and Moses Lake, Wash., gave her $6,268 on the week, which bumped her all the way from 21st in the standings to less than $1,000 out of the top 15 and a possible first NFR.

The other lady on the bubble with a great week was Brenda Mays. The defending NFR average champ earned $4,147 at Caldwell, Kalispell, Mont., and Canby to push up into 15th place. Kelli Tolbert didn't earn a dime and was bypassed by Mays and Sydni Blanchard, who also snuck off to Kalispell and grabbed a check at Moses Lake for $3,274. Added to Blanchard's $1,500 bonus for sixth in the Tour, she lands in 13th this week. Meanwhile, Natalie Foutch and Kim Schulze are hot on their heels.

In other news last week, Brittany Pozzi is having a great time on She's Free To Flame while Duke hangs out at home. The 5-year-old palomino mare hit a barrel in Caldwell's short round for big money, but won Gooding, Idaho to bring Pozzi $2,667 on the week.

And in Montana, Shelley Murphy is back on a tough horse that skims the paint like her old NFR gelding, Flick. Murphy won Fort Benton and split second at Billings to earn $3,458. She and her step-daughter, Kaela Murphy, will both make the Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Finally, Melissa Bachand of Belle Fourche, S.D., is running French Streaktovegas a 6-year-old roan A Streak Of Fling stallion owned by Darren and Kandy Barton. Bachand seems to be clicking with him. They won Billings for $2,958, and Baker, Mont., for another $1,255.

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Horses come in all shapes, sizes, colors and dispositions. Christians are like that, too. They come in all shapes, sizes, colors and personalities.

Some Christians are so trusting in God that nothing much moves them. They know God will protect them and bring good out of what the devil intends for evil. They pray and wait because they have totally surrendered their lives to Christ. Their lives are fruitful.

Others get all excited about walking with the Lord for a short time but then get careless and start trusting in themselves their money, their friends, the government or everything but God and then they blame God for their problems.

Then there are those who live so deep in the world and are so blinded by material things that they cannot and will not even try to understand the truth of God's Word. They lead empty, dissatisfied lives and fear death.

Read Matthew 13 and Mark 4 and see what Jesus says about those who hear the Word and accept it. He uses a parable of a sower out sowing seed and the different kinds of ground the seed falls on which is a comparison of how mankind receives His Word.

Don't let "the cares of this world, the deceitfulness of riches, and the desire for other things" enter in and choke out the Word of God in your life. Be the good ground where God's Word lands and flourishes and you will bear much good fruit: "some thirty fold, some sixty, and some a hundred!"

Yes Christians come in all kinds from lukewarm to on-fire for the Lord. Be the kind that is 100% sold out to the Lord with no compromise and let it show for all to see!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
