Crumrine & Smashin Ta Fame Sweep Cornhusker Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Troy Crumrine made a very profitable trip from Waynesfield, Ohio, to Broken Bow, Neb., for the Cornhusker Open and Breeders futurities, held Aug. 17-19 at the Custer County Fairgrounds.

"It's a nice futurity," said Crumrine. "I've been going out there three or four years and I've won it twice now. Marlene (McGaughey) does a good job running it and it's always a lot fun."

All four horses in his trailer picked up checks for a grand total of $13,183.27.

His standout was James O'Conner's Smashin Ta Fame, a 4-year-old by Dash Ta Fame out of Haley Smash It, a granddaughter of Easily Smash that Crumrine rode as a futurity horse. "Smash" won the $4,000-added Open and $10,000-added Breeders' futurities for total earnings of $9,299.68. The Open victory was worth $4,066.40, while the Breeders' portion was $5,233.28.

"I've had her about a year," said Crumrine, the industry's all-time leading futurity rider. "She really came on about April and placed seventh at (the Old Fort Days Futurity in) Fort Smith. Took her to Canada (for the Ecurie 5-55), she run second in a round and sixth in the average there. She's just got better and better."

Smash was very consistent, running a first-round winning 15.314 and a second-place finishing 15.377 in the second go.

"She run pretty consistent both days," said Crumrine. "I was tickled with her. The second round I wanted to makes sure I got around them so I was a little more cautious. The first round, she kind of slipped a little bit on the first barrel, but she still clocked really good."

Crumrine also placed fourth in the open futurity with Mike and Janet Dahlen's Mr Bob U. The 5-year-old gelding by Special Legend out of Bubbas Original, by Ima Dashing, earned $1,306.40 plus a small open 2D check. (Incidentally, Crumrine won the 2010 Cornhusker Breeders' Futurity with the Dahlen's DTF Close Up.)

Matt and Bendi Dunn's 4-year-old IBRA Futurity Champion Costly Crystal wrapped up Crumrine's futurity money winners. The Dash Ta Fame mare out of JM Crystal, by Chicks Beduino, placed in the first rounds of both futurities for total earnings $1,436.16.

Rounding out Crumrine's quartet was Packin Ta Fame. Also owned by Jan and Mike Dahlen, Packin Ta Fame placed second in the first round of both the Open and Breeders' Maturity for $960.48. Like Smash, Packin Ta Fame is out of one of Crumrine's former stand-out futurity horses. The 5-year-old mare is by Dash Ta Fame out of Packin Sassy, one of Crumrine's all-time leading money earning futurity horses by Packin Sixes.

"Both horses have a lot of the same action as their mommas' did," said Crumrine. "Their footwork is a lot the same."

Crumrine said with more and more embryos available, we will be seeing a lot more foals out of the great performing mare in the arena.

SX Frenchmans Vanila, 1997-2001

The futurity superstar SX Frenchmans Vanila passed away recently in Brazil.

"Nila" and Carisa Shearer set a high standard when they were the only duo to win the Triple Crown of Barrel Racing. They won the Speedhorse Silver Cup, Speedhorse Gold Cup and the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith, AR in 2001.

SX Frenchmans Vanila was a 5-Time Futurity Champion and a 2-Time Derby Champion and earned over $230,000 in her lifetime.

"Carisa and Nila was one of the best (teams) to watch." said Lainee Sampson, Shearer's sister and owner of a full sister to SX Frenchmans Vanila, French Fancy Face.

SX Frenchmans Vanila was bred by Andrea Peterson and Lori Shearer and is by the great sire Frenchmans Guy and out of Willys Rockin by Jet N Rocket. Her current owner, as listed with the AQHA, was Rodrigo Gontijo of Brazil.

SX Frenchmans Vanila was only 15 but due to 6 years in the embryo transfer program, she is the dam to 10 registered foals at this time.

She is the dam to Alan Woodbury's mare Dash Ta Vanila, ridden by Nikki Steffes who is currently sitting #7 in the WPRA World Standings with $68,886. She is also the dam of Born Ta Be Famous, a 2006 palomino stallion owned by Black Star Ranch and Danny Ray.

Our condolences go out to the Peterson and Shearer families and the Gontijo family and connections.

Correction: Last week in the rodeo results, we erroneously reported that Brenda Mays was riding Judge Buy Cash at the Missoula, MT Pro Rodeo, she was actually riding her 2003 sorrel mare Judge My Fame (Dash Ta Fame-Flashy Cashy Cat, Judge Cash) there, she did however ride Judge Buy Cash to her other placings.

BBR Regional Challenge Tour Finals

The organization of the Regional Challenge Tour program allows for the Regional Challenge Sponsor banners to be hung this fall at the BBR Regional Challenge Finals events (Western Region Loveland CO), Eastern Region (Brandon, MS), Northern Region (Lincoln, NE) and OK-TX Region (Alvarado, TX). There will be 2 BBR Regional Challenge Sponsor banners in each finals competition arena.

"There are eight major companies who have been instrumental in helping us make this happen," stated BBR Co-Founder & CEO Robin Hofmann, "Classic Equine, Formula 707, Cowgirl Tuff, United Vet Equine-MVP, Centramatic and Merial who have been with us for several years, and two new sponsors in 2012, Bluebonnet Feeds and SmartPak Equine. I guess you could say it's our way of saying Thanks. Thanks to our members by putting a $5000 bonus in each region specifically for them. Thanks to our producing partners by putting $5000 more in their event purse for BBR members to run for which we hope will encourage higher participation at their events. And Thanks to our sponsors."

Hofmann went on to say, "We are particularly excited about these events as this is the first season we have promoted this program and we have been very lucky to be linked with some outstanding independent producers and associations. The Northern Region Finals is being hosted by the WPRA with the WPRA World Finals, the Western Region Finals held by Mile Hi Barrel Horse with their Mile Hi Finals, and the Eastern Finals with the RAM Challenge. The OK-TX Finals will include the 1st ever Extreme Mustang Makeover Slot Barrel Race."

All four events are rich in added money on their own and with the addition of a $5000 BBR Regional Challenge Tour Finals purse at each venue, the overall added comes to $147,500 which insures impressive numbers of participating contestants. In addition to the rich added money purses, BBR sweetens the deal for members by making each event worth double points which count toward the associations 2012 season Regional Point Standings and double qualification to its 10-Year Anniversary World Finals with $60,000 Added.

Nominate AQHA Horse of the Year

The PRCA and AQHA are looking for the outstanding registered American Quarter Horse in each of the PRCA's timed-event categories. The owner of the AQHA/PRCA/WPRA "Horses of the Year" in each category will be awarded $5,000 and an AQHA bronze trophy. Second place, $3,000, and third place, $2,000. To nominate an AHQA horse that you feel has excelled in the ProRodeo arena during 2012 go to www.wpra.com

All nominations must be postmarked by Sept. 5, 2012. The final vote begins Monday, Sept. 24 and closes Tuesday, Oct. 3.

Briggs and A Special Colour Dominate Cornhusker Maturities

By Tanya Randall

An open horse does a trainer good. A Special Colour may only be a 5-year-old but his confidence and athleticism has Jordon Briggs, Lott, Texas, back on her A-game.

"It's nice to be able to jump on one and go full speed and trust them," said the former Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier. "He's helped me with my futurity horses this year because I get that feeling of how fast and hard a horse can turn."

Briggs and "Patron" swept the Open and Breeders Maturity at the Cornhusker Futurity. Between their maturity wins – the Open paid $1,612.40 and the Breeders' $2,256.20 – and $1,104.86 picked up for winning Friday night's open and placing second in Sunday's, the duo collected $4,973.46.

"He made solid run after run," said Briggs. "He worked so good. I was really proud of him."

After a successful futurity year, Briggs turned Patron, a Myers bred gelding by Hot Colours out of the Frenchmans Guy mare French Wild Heart, out for two-and-a-half months. When she brought him back up, she spent the spring winning at the bigger barrel races in Texas and introducing him to amateur rodeos this summer.

"He went to a few amateur rodeos—maybe 10," said Briggs. "He did really well and placed at five or six of them. I just wanted to get him used to a perf, the crowd and crappy ground. He handled it awesome."

The rodeo experience also gave the gelding a lot of confidence for the late summer derbies.

"The rodeos really helped me," said Briggs, who also rode Patron to the derby win at the Dash & Dance the weekend prior to the Cornhusker. "In the big outdoor pens, he learned how to run. At the rodeos, it kicked my butt a little with the first barrel out in the middle of the arena. Now going back inside for the derbies, he's firing."

After posting the fastest time of the event on Saturday, a 15.108 to win the opening go, Briggs thought she could safety-up, but Patron had other ideas.

"I thought I would safety-up some and really try to keep him round," said Briggs with a laugh. "He never hits one going in, but he will hit one leaving it. He rocked one the day before so I was going to keep him really round, but he didn't give me a chance. He turns so quick I couldn't think that fast. He runs like a rodeo horse, not a futurity horse. With the colts, you can kind of think your way through. He's just so strong now."

Briggs, who is sponsored by Classic Equine, Shiloh Saddlery, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals and RodeoRigs.com, is contemplating buying her WPRA card again to go to the winter rodeos with Patron.

"He's really got me pumped," said Briggs, who wanted to thank Bill and Deb Myers for breeding such a great horse and giving her the opportunity to buy and ride him.

Three In A Row for Hunter and Fuzz

THE RUNDOWN: NANCY HUNTER

HORSE: Flit N Fizz "Fuzz"

Sorrel Gelding, 12 Years Old, 15.1 hands, 1150 lbs.

HISTORY: As a 4 year old, his owners, Harry & Vivian Blackwell sent him to Fred (Nancy's husband) to train because they didn't think he was going to make the futurities. He just wasn't mature enough. Fred had ridden several Dr Nick Bars and they had all really wanted to find a barrel and Fuzz was the same way. I called lots of girls to try to get them to come try him and no one wanted to try him. So I called Harry and had him price him to me. We ended up buying him when he was around 6 years old. This year marks our sixth Wilderness Circuit Finals in a row on him, we have been Wilderness Circuit Champion 3 times and twice Reserve there and this year we are leading the circuit by about $13k. He has also won the Denver (CO) Stockshow, Albuquerque, Nm, Prescott, AZ, Oakley, Utah (twice), Nampa, ID (holds arena record), and now has won Caldwell three times in row. His lifetime earnings are somewhere around $250k.

BIT: Fuzz bit from the Josey-Hunter Line

HEADGEAR: Leather Tiedown

SADDLE: Old original Neil Merrill barrel saddle

PAD: CSI Saddle Pad

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps, vet wrap on front instead of bell boots

GRAIN: Little bit of Crimped Oats

SUPPLEMENTS: Omeprazole for ulcers

HAY: Utah Alfalfa (first crop)

ADDITIONAL CARE & SHOEING: Fred shoes him with a 0 degree aluminum wedge shoe on front, steel rims on the back. We also use

TELL US ABOUT YOUR RUNS.

HUNTER: Caldwell is a tough pen because the gate in is actually on the right side of the 1st barrel; for those of us who go to the right barrel first. Most people have to walk across the pen to head to the first barrel. My first time there, I tried to walk over to get in the correct position and Fuzz reared, acted up and didn't want to run and it didn't go well. For the next run Fred told me to run from the gate.

We got in the arena early and worked on it and I wound up second in the next round there. I think it did give me ulcers though! I didn't enter the next year. The year after that it was a circuit rodeo so we got it figured out and entered.

This year we put a 5 nail that only goes in the shoe and is cut off and it works like a little cleat in the shoe. We did that on just the front. I think that helped me in the slack because they had run so many girls on the ground and I think it helped him. My first two runs in slack were daylight runs which I think helped.

The first two runs were smooth but the 3rd run he brushed the first barrel coming in, and rocked it but it stayed up. I think I had an angel sitting on that barrel. The other two barrels were just a smooth and then I used the over and under to get him across the scoreline and run hard with the closed gate. I was proud of myself, I used the over and under without whipping my back! I think in the short go, the ground was the best ground they have ever had at Caldwell. The committee deserves a lot of credit for the way they took care of the ground there. It was fair throughout the Finals.

WHY DOES FUZZ LOVE ABOUT CALDWELL?

HUNTER: It's not so much that he loves it but I think it is the straight run we take to the first that makes him clock so well. The speed and momentum he gains coming from the gate really helps him. Most of the people that come into the arena and walk over to start can't get their speed up before they cross the timeline so they don't clock as well. Plus running back to a closed gate keeps some of the horses from running as hard as they usually do. Fred always says barrel races are won and lost in the alley way and approach so we try to use that to our advantage since we have really broke horses.

YOU'VE BEEN SELLING YOUR JOSEY-HUNTER BIT LINE, WHAT IS THE BIGGEST MISCONCEPTION MOST PEOPLE HAVE WHEN IT COMES TO BITS?

HUNTER: I think one thing I have seen is bits don't replace good training. The bits help your training program but they aren't the cure-all. It really comes back to training and having the right equipment.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR THE FALL AND THE FUTURE?

HUNTER: I am going to Albuquerque and there is still a couple rodeos in our circuit. For the fall I plan on just staying closer to home. We are getting our horses out there and the going to the NFR would be good for us and our business, but we have to do it our way. Next year we have it in the back of our minds' to make the NFR but we will see how it goes. I feel like Fuzz is a 25 rodeo horse. With 25 rodeos he stays fresh and strong. He does better when he is fresh. Fuzz has the talent to be an NFR horse but doesn't really like being hauled that hard. Next year, we have Wee Boss Man and Smart AJ that can both go to some of the rodeos and we can let Fuzz run at just the rodeos he likes. Wee Boss Man is only 5 and is already clocking but we will wait until next year when he is more mature to haul him harder. Smart AJ is a former weekend cutter that earned $62k cutting and is now making a great barrel horse.

Schroedter and He Loves Cash Earn Pockets Full at Summer Shootout

By Tanya Randall

Tara Schroedter and He Loves Cash were the top guns in the Schiller Ranch 1D Shootout at the 14th Annual Summer Shootout, held Aug. 16-19 on the newly improved ground in the State Fair Park Coliseum in Oklahoma City. The $10,000-added Shootout and its $5,000-added K9s4Cops Futurity incentive drew 798 entries and 474 incentive entries for a total payout of $105,802.

Schroedter and "Sam" collected $3,455.66 for winning the 1D Shootout and placing third in the second qualifying round. The junior nursing major at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas, also placed sixth in the 1D Shootout and second in the first qualifying round aboard SS Sabranox ("Cracker") for $2,061.27. Her weekend total was $5,516.93.

"My horses ran really nice this weekend," said Schroedter, who wanted to thank her parents Bobby and Linda, Charlotte Cunningham, Terri Ford, Gena Franklin, Lee Ann Rust and Gary Rust for their support. "I was really happy with them."

Schroedter purchased Sam, a 6-year-old gelding by Call Me Together out of She Loves Cash, by Send Cash, nearly three years ago from Charlotte Cunningham, who won the second round with the fastest time of the event aboard Bad N Fast. Cunningham had bought the gelding from Terri Ford, who had started him on barrels.

"I bought him at the end of his 3-year-old year," Schroedter explained. "I hauled him a little bit and finished him out. I started taking him to college rodeos because I didn't have anything else. He won third at his first college rodeo when he was just a 4-year-old. "He's the most awesome horse inside and outside the arena. I knew if I could get passed the barrels, he'd be up there."

In the first round, Schroedter ended up catching barrels on Sam after posting a great run on Cracker, an 8-year-old full sister to Lee Ann Rust's great horse SS Streakers R Us ("Harley")—by Scenics Symbol out of The Sixth Sense, a three-quarter sister to Brittany Pozzi's World Champion Sixth Vision by Streakin Six. Like Harley, Cracker was trained by Gena Franklin.

"I was really excited about my mare," she explains. "It was late and I was tired, and I didn't ride him like I should. He's a push style and you have to ride."

Schroedter and Sam were fifth out in the Shootout, which left her with a long time to wait for the results.

"Oh my gosh, I was so nervous," she said. "I knew my mare could out run him and I still had her to run. I was back there wondering what could happen. When there were just a few left, I was like, "Wow, we could actually win this!"

With the fall semester right around the corner, Schroedter doesn't have any plans to travel too far, not that she has to residing in barrel racer friendly Stephenville, outside of her scheduled college rodeos. Her goal is to make the College National Finals Rodeo next year and then test the pro rodeo waters some the following fall.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you need a miracle to fix some issue in your life? Well, be of good cheer! Jesus is still alive and miracles can and do still happen today though you might not recognize some of them.

If you've made Jesus your Lord and Savior, then you're a child of God and as a member of His family you have a right to expect our miracle-working God to come to your rescue. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever (see Hebrews 13:8). If you've made Jesus your Lord and Savior, then He lives in your heart and is ready to guide you, protect you and bless you.

Of course, it goes without saying that you can't expect Him to give you what you ask for if it's immoral or not good for you. Sometimes, you might feel sad because you didn't get what you prayed for and then, later, you thank God that you didn't get it! Remember God sees the end from the beginning and He only wants good things for you. He will make all things work for our good if we just continue to trust and obey Him. (Romans 8:28)

Trust God, surrender your life to Him and expect Him to lead you in the way you should go (Proverbs 3:5). Cast out fear and worry. Our God is big enough to handle anything that comes along. Ask forgiveness for any resentment, offense or grudges you might be hanging onto. (Mark 11:25-26).

Read your Bible, pray and expect the power of God in your life!
