Stevi Hillman - Caldwell Night Rodeo Barrel Racing Champion

Article by: Amy Wilson

It's no secret that the ProRodeo road has highs and lows, and every year brings challenges no matter who you are or what you've accomplished in the past. After a not-so-great winter, two-time NFR qualifier, Stevi Hillman knew she had to have a great summer to get back to the big show in Vegas. When it was time to leave for the summer run, Cuatro Fame "Truck" wasn't ready. "It was quite a struggle leaving. He had a minor issue with his foot and only time was going to fix it, so we just had to wait," Hillman explained. She had to turn out of North Platte and Reno – two rodeos she had previously won on the 11 year old bay gelding. "I was really heart-broken," she said as she also admitted questioning being able to make the NFR again. "I didn't have Sharpie. I didn't have a back up horse, just a couple young horses in the trailer that weren't seasoned. There was a lot of doubt trying to fill my mind about if I could make it happen. I just reminded myself that no, I can't, but God can." Hillman had some other various set backs at home, but she and her husband Ty kept the faith. "We have a whole new perspective with our faith and trusting God this year," Hillman added.

When they got to leave for Ponoka, Alberta, they stopped to run in Pleasant Grove, Utah since Truck hadn't been ran in two weeks. He placed there even being out of breath. Most importantly, he was sound again. And, in Ponoka, he showed off! "It was such a touching win for me after the struggle and battle we had the month before that," Hillman said gratefully. It was also the start of a summer that has since been "flat out amazing"!

Her goal has been to keep it simple and keep Truck fresh and healthy. To ensure that, she only ran at Caldwell and Gooding, Idaho, and turned out of Canby, Oregon and Moses Lake, Washington. "It paid off. He had a run, had a day off, had a run, had a day off, and then had the finals. I feel like he was well rested," Hillman said. Truck felt so good that he warmed up kind of ornery before the final round in Caldwell. "I told Ty, 'He is a handful today'. He was full of fire Saturday so I guess that fed into our run," Hillman said laughing. They stopped the clock with the fastest run of the rodeo, an impressive 16.85 seconds to win the finals and the average. "He couldn't have had a better run. He fired hard. He loves the loud crowd so that helped with Caldwell being such a loud, crazy crowd," Hillman said. What's even more impressive is that this is a back-to-back win for Hillman, but on a different horse. Last year she rode MCM Imasharguy "Sharpie" to the win and arena record with their run of 16.68 seconds.

In addition to her winning record at Caldwell, some of her best friends live there. "We stay with them and have nice pens and we get to have hang out time – that's another reason we like coming here," Hillman said. She also appreciates that the Caldwell Night Rodeo committee asks contestants how they can make it better. "The committee is wonderful and so good to us," Hillman said. She recognized that some of the barrel racers didn't like the ground, "The ground for some girls wasn't very good, but this committee tries really hard to make things better and listen to us. For the finals, they tried to pack it underneath because it was heavy and deep and it had that hard pan. The ground did feel pretty darn good on Saturday."

After placing second in both rounds and winning the finals and average, Hillman earned $7,628 in Caldwell which now gives her a total of $108,351 to rank fourth in the WPRO World Standings.

“Truck has just gotten better and better and truly has amazed me,” Hillman said about her “main man”. She has had him about four years, and it all started when a mutual friend, Heather, introduced her to Truck’s owners, Jason and Melissa Mouton. “It was just a God deal,” Hillman remembers. “I can’t imagine my life without Truck. He’s my best friend and my buddy, and I know God brought him into my life. He’s kind of a different horse – he’s challenging. I could see him being a mess in the wrong hands, so I know the door opened up for a reason.” Hillman also knows it has blessed Jason and Melissa since they wanted Truck to find the right fit. “They have been the most wonderful people, and now they’re really good friends of ours.”

The former x-ray technician has been fortunate to have great horse owners and great horses during her ProRodeo career, including Morning Traffic “Martini” and Sharpie. “A lot of people get that one hit wonder, that ‘it’ horse. I’ve been so incredibly blessed to have a handful of ‘it’ horses in my life in just the last few years.” It all started off with Hammer in 2012, a horse she trained off the track. Since then, Hillman has competed on horses she doesn’t own and admits that it’s hard to have to say good bye because she can’t separate her emotions. She gets a bond with them and treats them like her own – she gets attached. “I cried like crazy when Martini went back home,” Hillman said as she also pointed out how happy she is to see her owner, Michelle Darling winning on her now. As for the pretty gray gelding we all fell in love with, Hillman said, “Hopefully Sharpie will be coming back next year – that’s the plan.” For now, Hillman is doing everything she can to keep Truck feeling good as they finish the season strong. “I feel like the little things make a big difference. Something as simple as running cold water on his legs after I run. I make sure I find a water hydrant and hose so I can keep the inflammation out of his body as much as possible.

THE RUNDOWN w/ Stevi Hillman

Cuatro Fame “Truck” 16 hands, “A lot! 1,100 lbs. probably”
BIT: Exercised in the Cody Cearley bit and ran in a two piece twisted Kathy James
SADDLE: Shiloh
SADDLE PAD: 5 Star
LEG GEAR: 5 Star Boots
FEED: Nutrena
HAY: Hay-Rite cubes and grass hay
SUPPLEMENTS: MVP products (Gastroplex, Exceed 6-Way), Race Today, and he runs on Equipulmin
SHOES: Concave
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: PHT sheet, Flexineb
CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: “On the road he gets on most days off, but he gets light exercise if he has a couple days off. At home he gets long-trotted 3-4 days a week
SPONSORS: Nutrena, 5 Star Pads, Hay-Rite Alfalfa Cubes, MVP, GastroPlex, Exceed 6-Way, Shiloh Saddlery, Team PHT, Panhandle, Rock And Roll Cowgirl, Flair Strips, Equipulmin, FlexiNeb, Outlaw Equine, Prepare To Win TV, Mouton Sand And Gravel, Cowtown USA Inc, Cody Cearley Bits And Spurs

We had so many overnight drives this summer, and I can’t even tell you how many miles we’ve gone – it’s crazy. Being in the trailer that long, and the wear and tear on them is already hard out here, so I feel like the most important thing is keeping them sound – rubbing liniment on their legs, cold water, and lots of massages! And he gets rest when he can. I try to make him a pen in the grass or somewhere he can lay down and rest.” Hillman is keeping the faith and staying focused on her plan, and it’s resulting in big wins like Caldwell!

RR Mistakelly & Brandon Cullins Capture Cornhusker Open & Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

Brandon Cullins and the fabulous brown stallion RR Mistakelly (“Mister”) are back in the winner’s circle. The duo made the long trip west from Clements, Maryland, to Broken Bow, Nebraska, for the Marlene McGaughey’s Cornhusker Futurity.

Cullins and Mister topped both the $12,000-added Breeders’ Futurity and $4,000-added Open Futurity for total earnings of $10,991.

“He did really well,” said Cullins, a first-time attendee to Cornhusker. He was making the trek West for the Glen Wood Memorial Futurity in Salina, Utah, this coming weekend. “It was a great start to the trip. That was a really great futurity. As long as I have a Breeders’ horse, I’ll come back.”

Cullins said the 4-year-old son of Darkelly out of the blue-hen mare Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, has just been “hanging out” since the Old Fort Days Futurity in Fort Smith mid-May. The Robin Weaver-owned and -bred stallion has only been to a couple of jackpots since Fort Smith.

“After Fort Smith, I gave him a month off,” he said. “At Fort Smith, he was starting to get aggressive and full of himself. I took him to a jackpot a couple of weeks ago and would have won it the first day by a couple of tenths, but I drug a barrel. Then next day he ended up winning it by a couple of tenths.”

Cullins said the Custer County Fairgrounds ended up being a smaller pen than he expected.

“It’s a little tight in there,” he chuckled. “At Fort Smith and stuff, he’s been running so hard and so aggressive that I haven’t really been gassing him when I run him. But, he’s gotten so much like an open horse now, that I need to do that. He’s got so laid back and calm it’s almost like I have to wake him up a bit before I send him.”

In the first round, they turned in a 15.335 to win the Breeders’ and finish second to BW Sunshine N Whisky (Fire Water Flit x BA Famous Zena x Dash Ta Fame), ridden by Rachel Dahl for Bogie Webb.

“The first run, his first barrel was good, and his second barrel was fast, but on the third barrel, he pegged really hard on me,” Cullins explained. “He was out in a good spot, but it was like he locked his knees and hit really hard in one spot. He hit hard again and turned, and I almost came off! There’s some pretty good pictures from the video. There’s one where it looks like I’m standing straight up but I’m not touching anything. There’s a good foot between me and saddle! It was a pretty close call, but he’s so big and strong it really didn’t affect him any.”

Cullins knew he was going to have to hustle in the second round to keep the barrels up after that hard scotch in the first.

“Going to (the first), I felt like I needed to kick him up to it and I’m a little scared to do that on a colt,” he said. “I went ahead and kicked him up there and then I chickened out and asked him to slow down and look for it. He started to roll it over, but I reached down and stood it up. I kind of stood him up too and stalled him out because I had to turn him with my outside rein, so I was worried about him being too slow. I really hustled to the second and third and he smoked those.”

Cullins said that he thinks that Mister’s stellar third barrel made up for the bobble at the first.

“To the left, he’s always been a little bit funny,” he said. “If you didn’t watch it, he’d get a little bit stiff leaving it. His second has been really good, but his third, he’d still get to a point and fall back to it. Yesterday, he ran up into his spot and just snaked around it, smooth and easy. I think that’s where he really made up some time.” Cullins and Mister ended up winning the round again in the Breeders’ but finished second in the Open to Sheez Strait Stinson (Eddie Stinson x Sheeza Hanky Baby x Letta Hank Do It), owned and ridden by Kayla Jones.

With this dual futurity championship, Mister’s futurity earnings are now more than $225,000.

“He’s really getting to be like an open horse now,” Cullins said.

Gorham Goes for the Gold at Summer Shootout

By Hope Raley

London Gorham and Fortunes Flame were crowned the 20th annual Summer Shootout Champions after they smoked two solid 15.2-second runs in the iconic Jim Norick Arena in Oklahoma City, OK. It was their second major championship in the historic arena, after the pair won the BBR World Finals just a few months ago in April.

Fortune Flames "Wanda" is the 7-year-old chestnut daughter of Tres Fortunes and out of Ahsome Blossom Flame by Flaming Jet son Mr HG Flame. "Wanda" was trained by Mitzi Mayes Duke.

"Wanda is a little grouchy but very gritty," explained Gorham. "Every time you walk by her stall she runs at you and tries to bite you. You can't pet her without her pinning her ears back. We call her Wicked Wanda!"

When asked what Gorham thinks makes "Wanda" a winner, she is quick to attribute the mares winning ability to her big heart! "She has a huge heart! We are surprised that it fits in her chest!" In the first round of the Summer Shootout, Gorham and "Wanda" got by the first barrel but the talented mare never stopped moving and they clocked a blistering fast time of 15.247-seconds which won the round.

"We got by the first barrel pretty bad and grazed the third, but thankfully we did not knock it down," Gorham said. "We talked before I ran that I made the top 15 I would turn out on Saturday so she (Wanda) could rest for the short-go. Our time of 15.247 held and we won the round."

Per her word, Gorham gave "Wanda" Saturday off. She wanted her feeling her absolute best for the short-go on Sunday. Come Sunday, Gorham was 25th out, 5th out on the ground. Just hoping for another smooth, clean run Gorham and "Wanda" gave it their all.

"James (Barnes) told me to run her to the first barrel and check her. I started running from the back of the alley and I had to hold my breath when she turned the first because it was so close. We pulled off the second barrel some which saved us from getting in a hole which would've slowed us down more. Our third was good and I hustled her home as fast as I could!"

Hoping to hear a faster time than what was leading the short-go at the time she ran, Gorham crossed the eye and heard them announce "new leader with a 15.285!"

"I couldn't hardly believe it and I was so excited! Wanda tried her heart out for me. When we unloaded Wanda on Thursday, she had the attitude that she knew where she was and that this was HER arena. I guess she proved us right," concluded Gorham.

2018 Fulton Family Performance Horse Sale

The 2018 Fulton Family Performance Horse and Production Sale was held August 17, 2018 with a large crowd of eager buyers, as well as numerous absentee buyers from across the country. The overall sale average for all lots was $14,868 for another outstanding set of prospects at the Fulton Sale.

Fulton's standout sire, A Streak of Fling, has surpassed $3.5 million in progeny earnings this year and interest is strong in his bloodlines with two-year old offspring fetching an average of $24,333. CS Flashlight has again proven himself as a sire, especially crossed on A Streak of Fling daughters, with some of the flashiest, rodeo built progeny to date selling for an average of $12,600 in the two-year olds. Junior sire, A Dash Ta Streak, wowed the crowd as he was visiting from his home at Highpoint Performance Horses, and had a two-year old son sell for $9,500.

The high seller of the day was lot 3, Streakin Silkpants, a two-year old bay roan sired by A Streak of Fling and out of Famous Silk Panties by Dash Ta Fame. Her proven pedigree from top to bottom features the outstanding dam, Famous Silk Panties, who has over $235,000 lifetime barrel racing earnings. This silky-moving filly, consigned by Fulton's, brought $62,000 and sold to Rafael Celeste, OK.

Second high seller was lot 2, Fling A Penny, sired by A Streak of Fling and out of the dam, Short Penny by Dash Ta Fame. This two-year old sorrel mare was not only pretty as a penny but is a full sister to the stand out performer, Fame Fling N Bling (LTE $765,000), and the last of this bloodline to sell at the Fulton auction. She was consigned by Fulton's and brought $43,000 - she will 'shine' with her new owner, the talented photographer, Bee Silva, TX.

A Streakin Traffic, a shapely buckskin weanling stallion, sired by A Streak of Fling and consigned by Fulton's, was lot 23, and sold for $28,000 to Sally Widdows, WA. This beautiful buckskin's dam is Morning Traffic by Frenchmans Guy. She is still running in barrel racing competition and and boasts lifetime earnings of $120,000!

Lot 1, Streakin Kingfatima, a two-year old bay roan stallion and lot 5, Tiny Gay Fling, a two-year red roan filly, both sired by A Streak of Fling, brought $26,000 each and sold to Howard Curtis, CO and Mike Larson, NE, respectively. Lot 10, Streakinfrench Flash, the high selling two-year old sired by CS Flashlight, brought $15,000 and is heading home to Chris and Kim Abbott, NE.

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I took my granddaughters to a barrel race with me a few weeks ago. It was their second time and they were so excited! When we got there it was HOT, probably a 100 degrees, humid and the wind was blowing. Like being in an oven. After about 30 minutes the youngest one had had enough and she started whining! "Gram, can't we go somewhere where it's freezing?" "Gram, it's too hot!" And the whining continued on and on. Finally I had had enough and I asked her if she wanted to be a barrel racer? She said yes.

So I said, "Sometimes when you go to the barrel race it's hot, sometimes it's cold, sometimes you get rained on, and sometimes the wind tries to blow you away! So put your big girl panties on and deal with it!"

She looked at me and in her normal, sassy voice said, "Well! You have your granny panties on!" It was really funny...sort of!

In this life, we can get to whining about everything and totally forget that Jesus died so we could have everything good! 3 Jn. 2 says, "Beloved I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers."

John 10:10 tells us Jesus came to give us life and that abundantly. I Jn. 5:4 tells us that when we are born of God, we overcome the world. So, so, so many scriptures in the Bible that tell us we are supposed to live life in victory over every bad thing.

We need to dig in to the New Testament and find those promises! And practice them and enjoy what Jesus died to give us!! No more whining!
