Climbing the Mountain -- Sydni Blanchard & Famous Heartbreaker Join WPRA Top 15 With $11,361 Week

By Tanya Randall

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Sydni Blanchard of Albuquerque, N.M., moved into contention with a $11,361 effort last week. She jumped from 16th in the WPRA World Standings to 14th with total earnings of $67,982, less than $2,000 back of 13th.

Blanchard's resurgence largely comes down to a change in her game plan that was ultimately tied to extending the career in development of her 7-year-old mare Famous Heartbreaker ("Heart").

"Heart has a little bad habit of getting stiff on me going to the first," Blanchard explained. "When she does that—that's when she'll slip or trip, or we'll tip, or we'll hit the second barrel because we're out of position from the first."

The immediate price she paid was losing some prestigious rodeos due to fallen barrels, but lurking underneath was a much higher price—Heart's soundness. The repeated bobbles, especially trips and slips that resulted in falls, were making the mare sore and further inconsistent.

After having her body-balancing guru C.L. "Butch" Mayhugh of Bulverde, Texas, come to the rescue, Blanchard knew ultimately that she was going to have to make some serious changes. The first was her overall game plan.

"I don't want to make the NFR if I don't have a consistent horse. I've got to back off and make this horse more consistent. Otherwise, there's no point," she said.

With a new goal in mind, Blanchard made a bit change that she had been delaying due to her quest for her third NFR appearance.

"Lauren Boutin sent me a short-shank No Hit Bit," Blanchard noted, "but I didn't have the guts to run in it and didn't have the time to take her to a jackpot or anything."

After tipping to win two rodeos and having to do everything she could to keep the mare off the first barrel, Blanchard had enough.

Blanchard decided to be brave and ran Heart in the No Hit Bit at Loveland, Colo., and won.

"That was pretty cool," she laughed. "I was still nervous to run in it outside, because there's nothing to it. What's cool about it is you can lift a horse, but they won't stop their feet. They don't shut down worse or scotch. So, my next run was at Douglas. It was a smaller rodeo, but it was outside. I decided to try it and she worked really good there."

Winning the Wyoming State Fair in Douglas, Wyo., for $1,200 kicked off her week. Although the rodeo officially started the week-end prior it wasn't over until Monday night, August 14, and wasn't included in last week's WPRA World Standings.

From Douglas, Blanchard and her boyfriend Cody Pratt took her gelding Famous Mr Jess to the Caldwell Night Rodeo in Idaho. Meanwhile, while Heart and Blanchard's friend Staci Trehern went to Montana. Blanchard flew from Salt Lake City, where she stopped by to watch her 2-year-old Slick By Design colt out of her NFR mare Pure Victory Dash, to Billings, Mont., where she met back up with Trehern and Heart.

Their first stop was the McCone County Fair PRCA Rodeo in Circle, Mont., a smaller rodeo by bubble-chaser standards, but Blanchard was still going with the mindset of building a consistent horse over an NFR berth when entries opened.

"I had a new goal," she said. "Get her consistent."

After making a check-drawing run at Circle, Blanchard headed to the Fallon County Fair & Rodeo in Baker, Mont., where she left winning after slack.

"I'm surprised that we did so well because my saddle was sliding the whole run," she said. "I was just trying to stay in the middle. That was a really cool win. Slack is way before the rodeo and last year I was placing third after slack and ended up 12th. The perfs

Triangle Sales Continues Record High Averages with Recent Summer Sale

After a two-year absence, the Triangle Summer Sale returned with great success Aug. 12, 2017, to the Heart of Oklahoma Expo Center in Shawnee, Okla. The star of the show was the impressive net average of $6,600, generated from an 86-percent sales completion on the 215 horses that were offered sale day.

Strong sales held deep into the catalogue to generate a top 50 average of $12,450 and continue a trend of historically high overall averages for the venue beginning with the Winter Sale in January.

"There wasn't one horse that made the sale successful; it was strong sales from start to finish," said Jim Ware, owner of Triangle Sales.

The Triangle "Top 10,000 Club" includes horses selling for more than $10,000, and has reached 150 head for 2017. This total stems from horses of various disciplines, consigned by breeders and owners across the country. Thirty-two horses sold for more than $10,000 during the Summer Sale alone.

"Certainly, we would like to have a $50,000-seller like we did at our Spring Sale, but to have those averages and have everything sell so well from top to bottom is remarkable and ultimately what we are trying to achieve with each sale."

"I think the strong sales are a sign of stability in the overall horse market, more than anything," Ware said. "The economy is improving—but also, more and more people are recognizing that involvement with horses is a wonderful pastime that can be enjoyed individually and with family."

The Summer Sale featured "The Reining Kind," a special session prompting expanded buying opportunities for horses in the reining discipline. It has been one of many special sessions and congruent events that continue to be a highlight of each sale, complimenting high quality horses in all disciplines.

Averages were strong in each discipline, led by the Select Cutting Horse Session, which averaged $13,700 on National Cutting Horse money earners, followed by cutting-bred broodmares with a $12,500 average. Yearlings and 2-and-3-year old prospects in this group averaged $7,650.

National Reining Horse Association money earners averaged $11,200 in the Select Reining Session, while broodmares averaged $9,250. Yearling and 2-and-3-year old reining prospects averaged $6,000.

In all, geldings under saddle averaged $8,000. Ranch and roping horses were among those featured in the Shawnee Session and included geldings and mares under saddle, averaging $6,050. Yearlings and prospects averaged $3,150, followed by mares at a $3,000 per head average.

Hip No. 120, Sarahs Boon Cat (Mr Boonsmal to You x Sarahs Super Cat by High Brow Cat) was top seller for the Summer Sale and highest selling cutting horse. John and Mary Dangelmayr of Muenster, Texas, consigned the 2012 red roan gelding, which brought $24,000.

Second-highest seller was Dont Look Now (Dual Rey x Dont Look Twice by High Brow Cat) at $21,000.

Coming in third for $20,300 was Hip No. 6, a 2011 palomino mare named A Fancy Freckle, (RC Fancy Step x Funny Face Colonel by Irish Colonel) which was also the high selling reining horse. The Triangle Fall Sale will be a multi-day event, Oct. 27-29, featuring a Select Cutting/Cow Horse session and the Triangle 2-and-3-Year-Old Exchange on the first day. Additionally, the Future Fortunes Select Barrel Horse sale will be held among other special and regular sessions.

generally get faster. It was a really cool win.”

Blanchard said she owes the win to Trehern, who like Blanchard has suffered from migraines.

“I had a terrible headache that day,” said Blanchard, who is dealing with untreatable migraines caused by the horse-related concussions she had in 2010 and 2013. “I don’t remember it, but she said she literally had to pick me up off the step of the trailer.

“I had called her after Nampa and said I can’t do this; I’m coming home. I’m having headaches every day and it’s just too dangerous for me to do this by myself. She told me no. She’s taking online classes and just decided she was going to come help me. She literally just wants to help get us to the Finals and achieve our goals. She’s just a Godsend.”

With Trehern taking charge of the rig, they left Baker for Billings, Mont. Unfortunately, ground conditions forced Blanchard her to turnout.

“It was a hard decision,” she said. “I’m running out of rodeos on my rodeo count. I’m on the bubble. We drove so far. It just wasn’t worth it.”

As part of her motivational strategy, Blanchard had find three things positive about every experience. Leaving Billings mean one less run on her horse, more rest for her and an earlier start to the next rodeo.

The positive attitude helped her place fifth at the Moses Lake Round-Up in Washington for $1,320. Blanchard and Heart won their next rodeo in Canby, Ore., for $2,444.

“God has put so many wonderful people in my life,” she said. “I don’t understand what I’ve done to be so deserving to have so many people to help me achieve a goal. It doesn’t make sense to me, but He does.

This week, Blanchard starts off with her first run at Kennewick, Wash., and then flies back to the Plains States for Hastings, Neb., Rapid City, S.D., and Pueblo, Colo., where she has Famous Mr Jess, whom she placed on at Pueblo and tipped to win Rapid City last year.

After Pueblo, she’s entered in Tremonton, Utah, but may turn out. She’s hopeful that her Saturday will be spent back in Kennewick for the short round. Coeur d’Alene, Idaho, wraps up her week. How she continues to go, depends largely on how Heart is developing.

“My main goal is to have a horse at the end of the year,” she laughed. “You want to have a horse FOR the finals. And to have a horse that’s really consistent. If I don’t make the Finals this year, that’s OK. I’m qualified for everything I need to be qualified for next year.”

horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of the Alexia (Mehrle) Willis' Shawne Bug mare Lady Oh Raylene, from Sissy Novak last year. The mare was trained by Rick Manucy.

Her career goal is to build her herd of really nice mares and be able to sell their offspring as yearlings.

"My goal is to really promote these mares," she said. "(Heart) needs to be able to perform at the NFR for my plan to manifest so she needs to sound and solid, so when we do get there, she can promote herself."

Bubble Battle Update

With Blanchard's spectacular week, she now has a $6,700 lead over Ivy Conrado, who holds solid in 15th.

Conrado won $2,982 over the weekend, by placing at two rodeos including a second-place finish at Gooding, Idaho. She surpassed Kimmie Wall and her lone mount TKW Bullysfamous Fox, who dropped to 16th after having a too quiet week.

Ari-Anna Flynn was relatively quiet too, but proved the value of win over multiple deep-placings, earning $2,640 as the Moses Lake Champion. Although her 17th position didn't change, she moved closer to $2,000 ahead of 18th-ranked Jackie Ganter.

Ganter stayed busy, placing deep at four rodeos and earning $1,986. However, the Sleeping Giant is right on her heels. Sherry Cervi had a great week, earning $6,312. Coupled with her earnings from Bozeman, Mont., the week before, which was left out of the WPRM World Standings, due to issues with the final performance of the rodeo, Cervi jumped to 19th from 22nd.

Jana Bean also had a solid week, earning $5,445 after winning Kalispell for $2,215 and placing well at Baker and Moses Lake. She's currently $6,251 behind 15th.

The newest wrinkle to watch in the upcoming week is the rodeo count. Contestants are only allowed to "officially count" 100 rodeos. Some will reach that total before the season ends. A fortunate

Bauserman Sweeps Cornhusker Open & Breeders Futurities

By Tanya Randall

For the past few years, barrel futurities have taken a backseat to Cody Bauserman's Thoroughbred racehorses, but the former leading futurity rider announced his return to fulltime aged event training with a win across the board at the Cornhuskers Futurity in Broken Bow, Neb., winning both the Open and Breeders Divisions.

He topped the Open Futurity with Time For An Otoole, owned by his new employers Bill and Cheryl Kennedy of Bennett, Colo. The victory was worth $3,492.

"I was just so happy to give Bill and Cheryl Kennedy their first futurity win," he said. "They have been at it awhile. They've treated everyone in the industry with kindness. They're just super good people and they deserve it."

Otoole, a homebred for the Kennedys, is by Time For A God, a gelded son of Chicks Beduino out of a First Down Dash, Timeto Thinkrich mare, and out of Martha O Toole, a Marthas Six Moons, Jody O Toole mare.

Bauserman first rode the gelding when he went out to meet with the Kennedys a few weeks ago.

"When I flew up, I was here for a couple, three days and I rode him a couple of times," he explained. "I messed with him a little bit. Bill had told me he had a bit of a first barrel issue and I worked on that. We went to a local 4D south of Denver and he ran second. He showed me that he could do pretty well. He responded to the stuff I was doing at the first barrel. We still haven't got it cured, but we got it cured for that first run in the first go."

Bauserman and the big-motored gelding blistered a set in the first round, winning it and the Open 4D on a carryover by more than 4/10ths.

"It was just one of those runs that you just make five or so in a lifetime," laughed Bauserman. "He was just on."

They didn't finish in the money in the second round, but Bauser-man knew he had a few tenths to play with to win the average.

"He got a little strong and got by his first a little bit," he said. "He just wasn't in form. His turns were just a little bit rougher, just not in the groove. He salvaged it with his speed and was able to get us an average win."

Bauserman wanted to thank Laura Alexander and everyone at Kennedy's Smoke Creek Quarter Horses for all of their help as well as those who rode Otoole before him.

“There’s a lot of other people involved that had a hand in it,” Bauserman said. “I just don’t know who all it was.”

The move to Colorado was an unexpected one. Bauserman had been focusing on his Thoroughbred, while his girlfriend Adrian Bolin handled most of the barrel horses. At the end of his most recent Thoroughbred meet in Tulsa, Okla., Bauserman flew up to Denver to visit with the Kennedys.

“I wasn’t really intending on doing anything beyond riding a few of his horses and maybe take a few back home with me,” he said. “I got up and one thing led to another. He wasn’t really interested in sending his horses off anymore, having done that before, and I understand that. We finally just decided on working full-time up here.”

Bauserman is looking forward to his new adventure. “It’s been good to us so far and the weather has been really nice, so we don’t have much to complain about,” he said. “We’re going to take it one day at a time and go from there. He’s got some unbelievable horses and that makes our job twice as easy.”

Bauserman also has an unbelievable horse of his own, Don’t Judge My Socks (“Wheezy”) that Bolin picked out on Facebook as a 2-year-old. With Bolin having won the Jackson Hall Memorial Futurity this spring on the 4-year-old gelding, Bauserman’s win in the Breeders Futurity gives Wheezy his second championship. The victory in the Breeders was worth $4,498, while a third-place finish in the Open grossed $1,772.

“He’s a super nice horse,” Bauserman said. “It’s pretty nice to have one take two different people to a win as a futurity colt. He’s going to make someone a nice solid horse. He’s always going to be there.”

Bred by Beverly Weekly, Wheezy is by BHR Frenchies Socks out of Judge Dixie, by Judge Cash. Bolin had picked the gelding out after seeing him offered on Facebook as a 2-year-old.

All throughout the gelding’s training and young career, Bolin and

Night Fling Tops Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale

By Tanya Randall

The royally-bred weanling colt, Night Fling, commanded a $30,000 bid to top the 2017 Annual Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale, held August 18 in Valentine, Neb in front of a full crowd.

Sired by the Fulton's champion $2.9 million producing sire A Streak Of Fling ("Streaker"), Night Fling is out of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier Morning Traffic, a daughter of Frenchmans Guy out the Dash Thru Traffic, Bunny Bid mare Evening Traffic. Consigned by her breeder Michelle Hoffmann Darling, the well-mannered and confident colt with the conformation to be a future sire was purchased by Kathleen Collier, mother of current NFR hopeful Kellie Collier.

NFR bloodlines also permeated the reserve high seller—Rockstar By Design. The brown, almost black, yearling stallion is by multiple NFR qualifier and highest money earning barrel racing stallion, Slick By Design, out of his pro rodeo winning backup Streakinfling-indisco, by A Streak Of Fling. Bred and consigned by Charlie Cole and Jason Martin of High Point Performance Horses, the stunning stud prospect was purchased by Robert Bashford of Arizona for $25,000.

Longtime Fulton Sale consignors, Chad and Faye Pelster, saw their young, pro-caliber calf horse Johni Chex bring $25,000. The 8-year-old snappy built, black gelding, by Chex Can Shur Doc out of I Emma Scotch, by Whisper In Scotch, was purchased by Bailey Young of Wyoming.

Streaker also sired the high-selling 2-year-old filly Astreakin Tj. The classic bay roan, out of the Frenchmans Guy mare French Tj Grey, was purchased by Jim Gilman of South Dakota from Fulton Family Performance Horses for $21,000. A pretty, athletic mover and she possessed the potent combination of 2 of the leading barrel sires, making her not only a great performance prospect but a future broodmare as well.

The high-selling broodmare was the Rider family consignment, Shes Really Quick, who sold to Robert Bashford for $19,000. The race-winning daughter of the late leading barrel horse sire Bully Bullion, out of Shes Really Royal, by Royal Quick Dash, is a producer on the track and in the arena. Her barrel horses have earned money in aged events and rodeos and have current Equi-Stat earnings of $24,090. Shes Really Quick sold in foal to A Streak Of Fling with an expected foaling date in late February.

Other notable high sellers include the two full siblings—Streakers Queen and Queen Flingtima—both by A Streak Of Fling out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Queen Fa Tima. Both were also full siblings to barrel racing earners Streakin Queenie and Streakin Ta Corona. Streakers Queen, a 2-year-old sorrel mare, sold to Fred Lenertz of Minnesota for $15,000, while Queen Flingtima, a weanling red roan filly, went to Canada for $18,500 with Corny and Maria Weibe, who also own Streakin Ta Corona.

The high-sellers by CS Flashlight both sold for $18,000. Streakin-flash Lady, a 2-year-old gray daughter out of Streakin French Grey, a full sister to the high-selling 2-year-old Astreakin Tj. The Fulton Family Performance Horses consignment sold to Joe and Michelle Stobbe of Nebraska. The Wade and Corina Berry consignment Easonon Tess, a 4-year-old daughter of El Paseos Tessa, by El Paseo Del Norte, sold to Shyann Lucas.

The high seller for Fulton Family Performance Horses' newest junior sire A Dash Ta Streak was the bay roan weanling filly ADTS Shawne Lace. A Dash Ta Streak is a son of Streaker out of the proven barrel racing mare Silver Creek Dash, by Dash Ta Fame. The Fulton Family Performance Horses consignment, ADTS Shawne Lace, is out of proven producer Wild Shawne Lace, by Shawne Bug, and sold for $11,500.

Overall, the sale averaged $11,475. Streaker's yearlings carried the highest average of $16,500, followed by his 2-year-olds, which averaged $11,895. Complete sales results and averages below:

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

There is no doubt about it. Sometimes I don't want to do what God tells me to. But I have found over the years, that if I will, things go well with me.

About 20 years ago, right in the middle of producing the Fizz Bomb Classic Barrel Futurity, God spoke to me regarding a contestant. Now, this woman had been coming to the futurity from day one. And she had done really, really well. However. She and I really didn't like each other. And every year it seemed, we had to have some kind of confrontation. It was really getting old. I'm sure she felt the same way. I was sorta new at this 'obeying God' thing and honestly I just wanted to push her down and pull her hair! But I started praying about it and He told me to compliment her. ...are...you...SERIOUS??

So, on Saturday that year during open arena time, wouldn't you know it, she and I were in the arena together. God kept nudging me to go say something nice. I COULDN'T THINK OF ONE NICE THING TO SAY! But I decided I'd just do what He said. I had about 30 seconds to think of something. As I got close to her and she saw me, I could see her tense up and frown. I rode up beside her and said (this came straight from God and it was the truth), "so and so" (can't tell you her name), I know that you and I have never seen eye to eye on anything, but I just want to tell you that I think you are one of the finest horsewomen I have ever seen."

I never had another confrontation with her for the last years I produced the Fizz Bomb.
