Mega Riches For Kilgore & Sophie Goldseeker

By Tanya Randall

Hailey Kilgore, a physical therapist assistant from Jasper, Alabama, left The Mega $8,000 richer after posting the winning run on Sophie Goldseeker ("Roany").

"It's like a dream that I haven't really woken up from and I don't really want to wake up from it," said Kilgore. "It really just hasn't hit reality yet."

A lifelong barrel racer, Kilgore started riding Roany, who belongs to her father-in-law Eddie Kilgore and her sister-in-law Abbey Jo Kimbrell, in March.

"My sister-in-law found out earlier in the year that she was expecting, so she called and asked if I would mind taking her to ride while she finishes out her pregnancy."

Kilgore said it took a little while to "click" with the mare.

"It was nothing bad," she said. "It was just hard for me to keep the barrels up on her because of her style. You just have to ride her every inch. That was really hard for me. She had a tendency to hit barrels on the back side and I had a hard time getting her to that point and getting around it. Once I found her niche, I got in sync with her. We've actually had pretty good luck lately."

At The Mega, Kilgore and Roany qualified for the Finals of the $50,000-added race, held August 16-20 in Jackson, Mississippi, by finishing 24th in the 2D in the second round.

"In the go-rounds, I had a little trouble with her on the first barrel," she admitted. "She was just really strong and running. I wasn't expecting that; it was kind of out of character for her."

On Sunday morning before the Finals, Kilgore decided to make a slight change to Roany's head gear. Initially when she struggled with hit barrels, she switched the curb chain on Roany's combination bit to a piece of parachute cord. For the Finals at The Mega, she decided to go back to the curb chain.

"I just need a little something more to help me out (on the first barrel)," she said.

Kilgore said she wasn't nervous throughout the day, but "just had a really good feeling" about the Finals.

"I just felt really good all day long, but I didn't expect that, for sure!" she laughed.

"I was just praying for a smooth, clean run. She just exceeded all expectations."

Kilgore was last on the ground at draw No. 290 and managed to knock Blaise Bercegeay and Holy Flitin Fireman out of the top spot by an insane margin of .006, 14.013 to 14.019.

Both Kilgore and her husband Jacob were in complete shock and still were a day later.

"I came out and I was in complete shock," Kilgore said. "I look over at my husband and he's not even smiling. I jumped off and asked him, 'What's wrong?' He said, 'I'm in shock. I don't even know what to think!' I remember last night on our drive home—I'm a big talker—and I didn't say anything. He kept asking me, 'Are you OK? What's wrong with you?' I'm just in shock and don't really know what to say!"

The Mega was the biggest win of her barrel racing career. Roany, however, carried Kimbrell to her first International Finals Rodeo, this past January. They also won the barrel racing championship at the Professional Cowboys Association—one of the larger amateur rodeo associations in the Southeast—last year. Roany was also named horse of the year by the association's barrel racers. Bred by Bobby Joe and Renee Jane Cudd of Woodward, Oklahoma, “She’s in no incentives,” noted Kilgore. “Her heart, her ability and amount of try is what makes her so unique and special.”

Kilgore said she’s trying to cherish every moment, every run she has with Roany.

“I’m just trying to enjoy the time I have with her and trying not to take a moment for granted. My sister-in-law is due in September, so she’ll probably be going home soon. I’m just enjoying this moment and I’m going to enjoy it as long as it lasts!”

Ashley Castleberry & Skyy Blue Soar in the Northwest, Win $13,979 — Make Biggest Move in the Standings!

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Castleberry of Montgomery, Texas, jumped from No. 24 in the WPRA World Standings to No. 19 after a $13,979 week in the Northwest.

Castleberry, who now has $66,276 won on the season, did the majority of her winning on her 10-year-old gray gelding Skyy Blue, who had a little help from her longtime mount Calfee Stormy Dash. “Both of them love the big wide open runs,” said Castleberry. “Sky has just gotten stronger every single run. I ran him at Reno and when he placed third in the round, it showed me that he could run with anyone out here if I just gave him the opportunity.”

Castleberry started her week at the Caldwell Night Rodeo, where she made her first two runs in slack on Tuesday. She ran Stormy in the first round and Sky in the second. She ran Sky again at the Gooding Pro Rodeo in Idaho and Canby Rodeo in Oregon before jumping back on Stormy for Moses Lake, Washington. Sky got the call again for the Caldwell short go.

She finished fourth in the average at Caldwell for $4,942 and second at Gooding paid $4,156. The victory at Canby paid $3,865 and an eighth-place finish at Moses Lake was worth $1,016.

Castleberry praised the ground at Canby and Gooding.

“At Canby, I was very bottom of the ground with no drag,” she recalled. “He still won the perf and rodeo that day, so that says a lot about the ground in Canby. At Gooding, with that many sub 17s on a standard, that says a lot about how Danny Thomason does the ground over there.”

It was nearly a year ago that Castleberry’s entire rodeo future was in jeopardy. She had a horrific accident Labor Day Weekend while traveling between Walla Walla and Ellensburg, Washington, that took the life of her backup horse and severely injured her main horse Stormy.

She bought her 2023 WPRA card without a single sound rodeo horse to ride.

Through her friend Craig MacDonald, Castleberry learned that Debbie Davis had a horse for sale named Skyy Blue. The race winning Stoli gelding, out of My Dreams, by Runaway Rebel, was bred by Alan and Sharon Colley and trained by Davis for barrels.

“We won our first jackpot by over half a second,” Castleberry recalled. “We fit really well from the beginning.” Castleberry hadn’t been running Sky long when he started ducking the second barrel.

“His neck and belly were bothering him,” said Castleberry, who credits her veterinarian Cody Johnson and Elgin Veterinary Hospital for helping turn the gelding around. “I gave him two months and got his neck and belly feeling great. When I brought him back, I switched him to the left. He took to it naturally. I just long trotted him through the pattern for several days. I think maybe a week and a half, two weeks later I took him to a race, and he did awesome.”

This switch made all the difference in the world.

“Ever since then, he’s been a totally different horse,” she said. “He’s been solid and consistent. He’s just been awesome.”

Initially, Castleberry thought that Sky would be Stormy’s backup, but he quickly proved to be her No. 1.

“Sky has been my No. 1 this year and I never saw that coming,” she said, noting that this is the gelding’s first year to rodeo. “I never expected it of him. I never planned to put this much pressure on him. I planned on having him as a backup. Surprisingly, he turned into my main mount.”

She was also grateful to have Stormy back running again after nearly nine months of recovery.

“I had no plans of ever running Stormy again, but he came back so fast,” she said. “When he came back, I had no expectations of him either.”

Now having two horses capable of winning has made a huge dif-

“Most of these girls have two horses and some have three or four they can get on,” she said. “You know if you’ve got two good ones, you can win a check at any rodeo you enter. That’s so critical this time of year because everyone is trying to get every dime that they can.”

Castleberry has another busy week ahead. She ran at Tremonton, Utah, on Monday, and has Kennewick, Washington, tonight and hopefully will get a second run on Saturday there in the short go. On Friday, she runs at Bremerton, Washington. She’ll be in Cour d’Alene, Idaho, on Sunday.

TONOZZI ON A TEAR

— An Epic 2023 Summer!

Another week... another big win for Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi! Tonozzi has been on an epic run over the summer! Here are just a few tidbits about her amazing 2023 summer run!

— At the end of May, Tonozzi sat at #5 in the World with $44,825 in earnings; now as of 8/22 she sits #1 in the World with $208,868 earned at 60 rodeos.

That's a $164,043 summer worth of earnings in just a little over 2 1/2 months!

— With the $208,868 in earnings she leads the World by $67,514 over #2 in the World Jordon Briggs

— Tonozzi has won 12 rodeos over the summer:

- Cortez, CO on Jets Top Gun
- Reno, NV on Jets Top Gun
- Sante Fe, NM on Babe On The Chase
- Vernal, UT on Jets Top Gun
- Calgary, AB on Jets Top Gun
- Salt Lake City, UT on Jets Top Gun
- Preston, ID on Jets Top Gun
- Burlington, CO on SR Industry Titan
- Dodge City, KS on Jets Top Gun
- Castle Rock, CO on SR Industry Titan
- Logan, UT on SR Industry Titan
- Caldwell, ID on Jets Top Gun

she was also Reserve Champion at several rodeos as well*

— Another interesting fact; Tonozzi's main mount for this summer run Jets Top Gun is bred and raised by the same breeder as #2 Briggs main mount, Famous Lil Jet; Busby Quarter Horses. Both sorrel geldings have Lady Perks as their 2nd dam with the Sire and Dam Sire switched. Jets Top Gun is by Blazin Jetolena out of GL Famous First Lady by Dash Ta Fame and Famous Lil Jet is by Dash Ta Fame out of Blazin Black Beauty by Blazin Jetolena. This would make them nearly full brothers in blood just a different mix in each.

— On top of the rodeo earnings, Tonozzi won over $190k at last week's Royal Crown Barrel Race!

— Per the WPRA, Tonozzi's $208,868 in earnings moved her past Hailey Kinsel's 2018 mark of $192,834 into the 2nd Most Money earned during the regular season. She still has just under $42k to go to reach the awesome 2017 of Tiany Schuster's where she earned $250,378 during the regular season.

— A 2 Time World Champion Barrel Racer (2007, 2009); Tonozzi is now over $4 Million in Career Earnings ($4,079, 919 as of 8/22 according to Equistat)

With the huge payout towards the end of the season at the Cinch NFR Playoff Series The Governor's Cup it is very possible Tonozzi could push that mark.

According to www.CinchPlayoffs.com each of the 2 Rounds pays $12,099 to win and the Final Four Round pays $16,355. So if someone won all 3 rounds they would take home $40,553. Tonozzi currently leads the points for that Playoff Series as well!

The Magic Dragon Returns—Maggie Poloncic and Aint Seen Her Yet Dominate Southwest Desert Classic

By Tanya Randall

Maggie Poloncic and her incredible mare Aint Seen Me Yet (“Puff”) dominated the Southwest Desert Classic, held August 18-20 in Salina, Utah.

“It was the first time we went,” said Poloncic. “The prizes were awesome, and the payout was great! I thought it was a fantastic event. I’ll definitely go back!”

Poloncic and Puff won both days of the $20,000-added Breeders Incentive and both rounds of the $10,500 added Open. They took first and second in the Run For The Money sidepot and won The American Contender qualifier.

All totaled, they collected $11,907. It was their richest weekend of barrel racing since Puff’s return from a near-career ending injury last year.

“She feels so good,” said Poloncic, a dance instructor from Gillette, Wyoming. “I haven’t made a whole bunch of runs on her yet, but it feels so good to have her back on the trailer. No matter how we do, I’m just happy to have her back.”

Bred by Chad and Shannon Wade, Puff is by $2.7 million dollar sire Aint Seen Nothin Yet out of Jumping Sugar, by RR Milk Bone Shorts. Poloncic purchased the mare off of Facebook when she was just a weanling.

The dynamic duo started to make waves during Puff’s derby years in 2018 and 2019. In 2020, Puff was the leading 1D horse in the nation, per EquiStat. In 2021, they won the WCRA in Corpus Christi, Texas, and qualified for the Montana Pro Rodeo Circuit Finals.

According to EquiStat, Puff had earnings of $377,562 before she was injured in early 2022. She spent nearly all of 2023 recovering from a spiral fracture of her right hind.

“We believe it started in December (2021) around the All-In,” Poloncic explained. “When we brought her home, she just wasn’t herself.”

Neither radiographs nor ultrasound showed any cause for concern. Puff continued to run and win until the Royal Crown in Buckeye, Arizona, in February.

“She’d been running great,” said Poloncic. “The day before she came up three-legged lame, she ran a 16.8 on a standard pattern down in Buckeye. The next day, she still ran a 17.2 and came out of the arena three-legged lame.”

Radiographs immediately following the incident were negative, and the injury wasn’t evident until a month later, which isn’t uncommon with certain types of fractures.

“I was holding my breath for an entire month when we finally got the diagnosis,” recalled Poloncic. “Luckily, she didn’t have to have surgery. She was on stall rest for 42 weeks. It was excruciating. She was a good girl, but for me it was the longest 42 weeks of my life. But she’s strong and she’s back and we’re just happy to have her back.”

Poloncic started legging up Puff in mid-February. She had two runs on her in Moses Lake, Washington, in early April, before she and Aint Seen Her Yet (“JJ”) went to Outback Equine to have embryos flushed.

She’s looking forward to the arrival of Puff’s foal—her very first—by Dollys Streaknbadger next spring as well as a Famous Sierra out of JJ.

“I’m very excited about those two babies,” she said.

While at Outback, Puff stayed fit in the Eurociser. When Poloncic got her back, she was back winning until they struck out at the Royal Crown, which ironically led her to attending the Southwest Desert Classic.

“I had a terrible Royal Crown,” said Poloncic, who once held the arena record in Rock Springs, Wyoming, on Puff. “I was really defeated, so I was looking around for barrel races to go to that had a

BIT: Dave Elliott long shank Myllymaki with a copper roller mouthpiece

SADDLE: Master Lightweight

SADDLE PAD: 3/4" 5 Star Equine

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Flexions or Legacy 2 on front with No-Turn bell boots, polo wraps on rear

SHOEING: Barefoot. “We just pulled her shoes. She won almost $300,000 barefoot. Then I wanted to rodeo more, so I thought she needed that support, which she did. I’m not going to rodeo on her this year and she’s going to be on really good ground. Her feet have changed a lot and we were able to get her angles more correct naturally, so we thought we’d go back barefoot, and it worked out for us this past weekend. I think we’ll keep going that direction.”

FEED: Alfalfa pellets and soaked beet pulp shreds

HAY: Free choice grass with alfalfa morning and night

SUPPLEMENTS: Pure Equine Herbs, Pro Aminos, Gastro-Plex by MVP; Pre-run: Finish Line Air Power

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Body work from Jenn Evans, microcurrent therapy, PEMF therapy, Back On Track products when cool and XLR8

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: “She doesn’t get tuned on anymore, a lot of it is conditioning. We do a combination of incline and declines, trotting and loping. We do one sprint workout a week. I do a lot of ground poles with her know, longeing.”

Do not be overcome
by evil, but overcome evil with good.

— Romans 12:21 NIV

You say I started out with practically nothing, but that isn't correct. We all start with all there is, it's how we use it that makes things possible.

— Henry Ford

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I had written down a thought that I wanted to pursue in writing one of these articles in my church service notebook. So, this morning I grabbed it and started backing up from yesterday looking for that note. I'd circled it and put stars around it with the scripture reference. You would have been blessed if I had found it! LOL!

Well, I went back a whole month. No circles. No stars. Hmmmm. BUT. I believe the Lord grabbed my attention and had me skim the notes I HAD written... from the last month... only to notice that I had jotted down in almost every service... DON'T WORRY... WHAT THE? I know that Mike DID NOT preach on not worrying for the last 8-10 services! A light bulb went on.

Sherry needs to stop worrying! And God was trying to tell me that. So that's what I was getting out of all the messages. Everybody else was probably getting what the sermon actually was.

God loves us so much. If you were writing down what YOU were hearing, would it be healing? Reconciliation? Prosperity? Check it out this week. I'll be in Phil. 4:6-8. Because that's MY answer! What's yours?
