Mega Bucks for Brian Wheeler and SX Dr Peacharita

By Tanya Randall

It's a tough pill to swallow any time you hit a barrel to win a barrel race. It will darn right choke you, if you hit a barrel to win a race like the Mega. Twice teenage barrel racing sensation Brian Wheeler had suffered that fate, but 2011 was a new year, a new race and a new chance at redemption.

When Wheeler and his great mare SX Dr Peacharita crossed the timer in 14.107 on their final run, the duo could add a Mega 1D Championship to their growing list of victories which includes a BFA World Derby Championship and NBHA Youth World 1D Championship. The victory was worth $8,000.

With a fifth-place finish in the first round and a 13.949 to win the second round, Wheeler and Peach took home $10,274 from the $40,000-added Mega 5D, held August 18-20 in Jackson, Miss.

"Those were the best runs I've had in a long time," said Wheeler, who hails from Hattiesburg, Miss. "She made two perfect runs that weekend. On my first run, we got by the first, but it was my fault. Her next two runs were the best runs since (the WBRC in) Perry. She felt good and tried really hard all weekend."

The 15-year-old son of Brent and Stephanie Wheeler has been running the hard-turning 7-year-old Palomino daughter of WPRA World Champion Sire Dr Nick Bar out of the Frenchmans Guy mare SX Frenchmans Peach for three years.

The Wheeler's own half-interest in SX Frenchmans Peach, a multiple aged event winner, with the mare's breeders, the Shearer family of Wall, S.D. Peach is one of two Dr Nick Bar embryos out of the mare.

Initially, Peach was sold to Tommy Self, who started the mare. Trainers Talmadge Green and Jimmy Cagle as well as National Finals Rodeo qualifier Jennifer Wilson also rode the mare before she found her way back into the Wheeler's barn.

"She doesn't run anything like she used to," said Wheeler, who wanted to thank his parents, older sister Ashley Backstrom, horse-shoer Sonny Broadus and Ashley Crider of Lubrysin for their support. He noted that his mom did most of the style changing on the mare, "She's the trainer; I'm just the jockey."

To keep Peach honest between runs, Wheeler works her in a Loomis bit with split reins and a tie down.

"I work to keep her really bent," said the future barrel horse trainer. "She rarely hits because she just curls around the barrels. I have her where the outside rein against her neck means come around and she'll move away if the inside rein is against her neck. I can move her off the barrel at any time with my inside rein so I can just watch the rim all the way around."

Wheeler and Peach have a full schedule until the end of year with events like the Bar Nothin Barrel Bash, NBHA World, AQHA World Show and BFA World on tap.

One Hot Jose - 1999-2011

AQHA Performance Champion and 2004 AQHA All-Around High-Point

Junior Horse One Hot Jose died on August 11 from complications following colic surgery at the veterinary hospital at Central University De Rio Preto in Sao Paulo, Brazil. The 1999 dun stallion, owned by Joe and Dee Lynn Braman of JB Quarter Horses in Refugio, Texas, had been standing at the LeLu Ranch in Novo Horizonte, Sao Paulo, Brazil, since July 2010.

Bred by leading AQHA exhibitor Bobby Lewis of Overbrook, Okla., One Hot Jose was by Hollywood Heat out of Uno Holly, by Jose Uno. Under Lewis's guidance, the stallion was extremely successful in the show pen, being one of the only stallions to reach 1,000 performance points in less than three years of showing. At the pro rodeos, One Hot Jose was ridden by multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Tyler Magnus and was seen often on Magnus's RFD-TV program, The Roping Show.

Some of One Hot Jose's show accomplishments include a 2003 Reserve World Championship in Junior Heading; yearend high-point titles in Open Tie Down, Senior Tie Down, Junior Tie Down and Junior Heading; world show qualifications in heading, heeling, tie down, working cow horse as well as aged halter stallions; and AQHA World Show and Incentive Fund earnings of $35,017.

As a sire, One Hot Jose was just coming into his own. With only 23 foals, performance age (at least 4 years of age), One Hot Jose had three AQHA open performance register of merit earners from four to show including Joses Jazzy Cat, a superior heeling horse with $5,308 in AQHA World Show and Incentive Fund earnings. In the barrel racing arena, his two futurity horses earned $13,901—BFA World Futurity finalist and open 1D money earner Mr JB High On Jose ($11,009) and Miss JB 0614 ($2,892).

Ochoa Tops All American Qualifiers

Ochoa, with a time of :21.074 seconds, topped 245 two-year-olds in the August 18 trials for the 440-yard All American Futurity, to be held on Labor Day, September 5, at Ruidoso Downs.

Ten horses with the 10-fastest times from 26 trials will compete for a record $2.4 million All American Futurity purse, including a $1.2 million payout to the winner.

"They probably had me beat about one-half length, but I didn't have to ask him – he did it easy," said AQHA Hall of Fame rider Jacky Martin, who holds the record with seven All American Futurity wins, dating back to 1978 with Moon Lark.

Martin, 56, won seven of the 26 All American Futurity trials and in addition to Ochoa qualified three other finalists – Tee Cos, trained by Paul Jones; Denver Pass, trained by Blane Wood; and Mr Ease 123, trained by Dwayne "Sleepy" Gilbreath, who also trains Ochoa for co-owners Jones (Johnny T.L.), Cluck, and Benson.

Ochoa, a $25,000 Ruidoso Select Yearling Sale graduate and third-place finisher in the $500,000 Ruidoso Futurity on June 12, made his third career start in the All American trials with an impressive late run, following a bumpy start, to win by one-half of a length.

"He's a very fast horse and I expected him to run a good time," said Gilbreath, who recently won his seventh Rainbow Derby with Cold Cash 123, who was also the fastest qualifier (:20.833 seconds) for the $1.3 million All American Derby, to be run on September 4 at Ruidoso Downs.

Gilbreath has won the All American Futurity twice – in 1983 with On A High and in 1990 with Refrigerator.

THE RUNDOWN: RYANN PEDONE

HORSE: Kiss This Guy "Tyson"

Chestnut Gelding, 4 Years Old, 15.1 hand, 1050 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I raised him. When I was 15 or 16 my Dad bought the mare for me from Kappy and Jody Nelson. She was a great barrel mare but her knees had gotten to the point where we had to retire her. She's now a really nice kind broodmare. I bred her to Crystal's stud and he came out really pretty but he was a stud colt and was pretty rank. That is how he got his name, Tyson. The January of his yearling year he pawed me and bruised me up. Pretty soon after that we cut him and he calmed right down and has been real sweet. Tyson actually looks a lot like his dam. Anybody could ride him, he is just very easy and I really like him. If I get in a bad position I can just move him, he is real honest and not hard to keep together. Tyson has had a pretty good year so far, he made the short go at Ft Smith. In the short go he ran a beautiful first barrel and overreached at the second and hung a shoe, was 3 legged when I got off of him in the alley which kept him from placing. Recently, we won the Buzz Post-Win More 10th Anniversary Barrel Celebration. Earlier in the year he placed at the Greg Olson, won the second go of the Beth Cooper, won the Future Fortunes at Kinder and placed in the second go. He also made the finals at the BBR Futurity and won Triple Crown money there and won a bunch of Triple Crown money in Perry. He has approximately 30-35k won on the year so far.

BIT: Carol Goostree Delight

SADDLE: Martin Crown C Barrel Saddle

PAD: Classic Equine 1/2" felt pad or Darla Schneider Performance Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy on the front and polo wraps on the back

GRAIN: 1/4 scoop of grain mixed with the Platinum

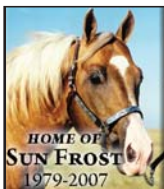

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance & Platinum Antioxidant, and he also gets Ichon (like Adequan)

HAY: Full feed alfalfa

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Just a really good farrier and vet. Sid Meyers, does a really good job keeping my horses' feet in good shape. My vet, Josh Harvey keeps the horses feeling so good and if there is a problem he gets it fixed.

#1 TRAINING OR RIDING TRIP: I ride them consistently, but I just try to adjust to whatever the horse's style is and not to pick on them too much. A lot of people could have been aggravated with Tyson because he is so lazy, but I just tried to not let it aggravate me and allow him to come into it on his own time. Just like school I have an outline I do for all the colts but I adjust some to each colt and let them do their own style. Adjust yourself to the horses instead of making the horse adjust to you!

SPONSORS: Outlaw Equine. I would also like to thank Kathy Mitchell, my driver and Jim Calvert who helps take care of my horses. They keep me in check. I am really unorganized and I would probably lose my head if it wasn't for all the people that help me!

Hunter Right at Home in Caldwell, ID

For the second year in a row to win the team of Nancy Hunter and her mount Flit N Fizz (Fuzz) won the Caldwell Night Rodeo. If the name Hunter rings a bell it may be because you have heard of the hot new bit line Hunter and husband Fred Hunter have created with the Joseys. They are called the Josey-Hunter line of bits. Fred and Nancy Hunter not only sell the bits but integrate them into every part of their training and competing. We caught up with Nancy for a little information about her runs at Caldwell and how she uses different bit and tack in her warmup and runs.

BRR: Tell us a little about your runs at Caldwell.

Hunter: At Caldwell, the gate is on the wrong side of the first barrel. I was one of the only ones to run from the gate, so I used the special bit Fred made for Fuzz (not yet available) to keep his shoulders up. He didn't run home the first run so was a little slow. The second run I wore spurs he ran a 17.41 and placed. In the Finals I ran 9th out I got a good start, but slipped on the backside of both the first and second. I actually used my over and under on the way home and he picked up about four gears because he has never had an over and under used on him but I managed to get him stopped for the gates. I don't usually use it because I usually just end up hitting myself but I decided in the finals I needed it and it paid off.

BRR: What is your warmup routine?

Hunter: I get on Fuzz early usually, for instance at Caldwell we ran at 9:30 so I stepped on him at 8:30. I like to get on that early so that if he is fresh it gives me more time to warm him up. If he is pretty calm I will just jog him and I will use the School To Win bit. I just make sure he is moving him off my foot moving forward both directions, and getting his butt under him when I stop him and go through the same things we would work at home. If he feels good I won't even lope him. If he is feeling good my whole warmup routine will only take 5 minutes and if he is fresh I will probably work him an extra 5 minutes to lope him and make sure he is getting out of the bridle. I don't ever warm him up in the bit I will run in. If we are running on a big pattern I may even warm him up in a Sure Stop (Quick Stop) to make sure he is stopping correctly and getting his butt under him. With the Sure Stop you have to be real light handed. If I don't feel him really putting his hocks in the ground I will use that. When I go to run I always run in a tiedown. I use a leather most of the time, but I will put a rope one on once in a while too if we are going to a big outdoor pen from the indoor pens. The bit I actually ran Fuzz in at Caldwell, Fred actually designed it specifically for that rodeo setup. Most of the time I run him in our Show To Win.

BRR: What are your plans for the fall and into next year?

Hunter: I will probably run at Tremonton, UT, Salt Lake City, UT, and Albuquerque, NM since Fuzz seems to like it so well there and that will be it until the Circuit Finals. I will keep going to the circuit rodeos trying to win the circuit. Right now I am just $11 behind Sammi Bessert in our circuit (Wilderness). Over the next year I will be using Dinamo Merada (Cash Register) and Bet Her Magic (Sonita) to display more horses from our training program and semi-retiring Fuzz and just taking him to the rodeos he really likes.

THE RUNDOWN: NANCY HUNTER

HORSE: Flit N Fizz "Fuzz"

Sorrel Gelding, 11 Years Old, 15.1 hand, 1150 lbs.

BIT: Fuzz uses a custom bit designed by my husband and trainer, Fred Hunter. It has a 3 piece tapered snaffle with a rectangular center piece to keep the bit from rotating too much and the bit also has about a 2 1/2" gag. It also has two different curb straps for getting ahold of your horse in different areas.

HEADGEAR: Leather Tiedown

SADDLE: Old Original Neil Merrill barrel saddle

PAD: Felt with Neoprene in between

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps, vet wrap on front instead of bell boots

GRAIN: Nutrena SafeChoice, a handful in the morning to give Omeprazole with.

SUPPLEMENTS: Omeprazole with SafeChoice 30-45 minutes before feeding hay, Calming Cookies from Total Health Enhancement before runs.

HAY: Alfalfa (first crop)

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: My husband, Fred, shoes Fuzz with 2 degree wedge shoe on front, rims on backs. One ear plug in, one out and Calming Cookies to run him at rodeos. I use Soft Ride boots the horses are on gravel or pavement and also lots of sawdust in the trailer to keep my horses comfortable. I like to keep up with rhino shots every 2 months to avoid Fuzz getting sick on the road. Inject hocks as necessary and I have started using Adequan shots as necessary.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I was at a barrel futurity this past weekend. It's usually a wonderful time for me. Not only do I get to go fast on my horses (some weekends are faster than others (-:)) but I get to see lots of friends! But when I got there, all three of my horses acted like idiots! The GENTLE one kicked straight up and then reared! The other futurity colt whirled and toof off from the paint job on the second barrel (oddly all three barrels had the SAME paint job). I guess when I'm at home they never see the second barrel.....My older horse jumped up and down when I was trying to saddle her and I wondered if she was on drugs!!!! You know, just another day being a horse owner.....

Well, I got to grumbling and murmuring (the Bible tells us NOT to do that). And God in His goodness gently reminded me of some things. My sister-in-law is fighting cancer in her body and the doctors have given her a very short time to be here with us unless she receives a miracle. I was reminded of how many people would love to be at a barrel race or anywhere else for that matter and not be in pain or in bed or just able to be mobile. Why is it so easy to be ungrateful or unthankful for all the good things we do have? I'm healthy, I'm deeply in love with my husband, I have a wonderful son and daughter-in-law who have given me THREE PERFECT GRANDCHILDREN and I work for God, the best employer EVER. That's just a SMALL part of all God has done for me and I want to cultivate a thankful heart, don't you?

When He reminded me of how selfish I was, I repented. And I thank Him for correcting me and changing my focus. So from now on, should you witness one of my horses rearing up, don't be surprised if you hear me yell "HI OH SILVER..AWAY!!!"
