Ivy Saebens & KN Fabs Gift Of Fame Dominate in the Northwest, Win Caldwell & Gooding

By Tanya Randall

"I love the Northwest!"

Four-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier and NFR champion Ivy Saebens summed up rodeo experience for the third week of August. Saebens and her great mare KN Fabs Gift Of Fame ("J Lo"), owned by Kenny Nichols and Dale Barron, collected $15,618 and moved to No. 9 in the ever-changing WPRA World Standings.

After missing the later portion of the 2020 season due to a veterinary procedure gone horribly wrong, J Lo came back strong, tying for the win at the Heart O' Texas Fair & Rodeo in Waco and later winning the Sandhill Stock Show & Rodeo in Odessa, Texas.

"I had a really good winter," said Saebens. "I decided after Lufkin (in late April) to give J Lo a month off. She's never had a month off that time of year without being flushed (for embryos). I talked Kenny and Dale into not flushing her this year."

When Saebens and J Lo were ready to get rolling again, they were plagued with disadvantageous draws and poor ground conditions. "I just couldn't draw anywhere," Saebens said. "I don't want to waste runs on her, so I didn't run her anywhere. Leading up to the Fourth, I made some really good runs, but over the Fourth, I just drew absolutely terrible everywhere. She slipped badly at Greeley and then was hesitant for her next runs. It rained at Casper. I was last out on my drag in Sheridan so I wasn't going to run her there. It rained at Spanish Fork. I just had bad luck."

By the Cheyenne Frontier Days in late July, Saebens told her husband Billy Jack that she was going home to regroup if her luck didn't change.

"I told him, I'm sick of drawing bad. I'm sick of bad ground. I'm so done. Of course, I make the short round at Cheyenne and

"I've got to stay hooked," she quipped.

Although Cheyenne went well, her luck didn't improve. After flat out missing her run at Dodge City, she had ground trouble elsewhere. A fall at Sikeston, Missouri, was the last straw. She took J Lo home to Nowata, Oklahoma, and told her husband she wasn't going to get her up until it was time to leave for Caldwell, Idaho.

Turning out of rodeos when you're on the wrong side of the WPRA Top 15 might seem counterintuitive, but for Saebens she knew not to panic with the Northwest rodeos ahead.

"I think I panic more in July," laughed Saebens. "Those rodeos just aren't our set up and everyone is entered up. It's just crazy. I get her in the Northwest and I'm straight up in my comfort zone!"

Saebens and J Lo made their first run at the $22,000-added Caldwell Night Rodeo in Tuesday slack, where they placed fifth with a 17.45 running eighth on the ground.

"I trade to that spot for the second (round) draw, so Billy Jack and I could be up on the same night because we only brought one rig up here," she explained. "My original draw was worse. When you're at the bottom, you know you've got to pay attention. If you get bogged down, you're going to get in a bind. She was really good the whole run. She felt the best she had all summer in that run."

In the performance Wednesday night, Saebens was originally fourth in the draw but got bumped to third due to a turn out. The better position allowed them to take third in the second round with a 17.17 and go into the Saturday night short go second behind Jordan Briggs and Famous Lil Jet.

Saebens said that J Lo felt even better on her second run than she did the first. Their next run was Thursday night at the $10,000-added Gooding Pro Rodeo in Idaho.

"She feels better than she did the two runs before and the whole entire summer. She set an arena record and was just amazing," she said of J Lo's victorious 16.89 on a WPRA Standard Pattern. The win was worth $4,316.

Saebens had a pair of rodeos on Friday with the $10,500-added Moses Lake Round-Up in Washington that morning and the $10,000-added Canby, Oregon, Rodeo that night.

"The only reason I had entered like that is I had planned on having two horses out here," she explained. "I was going to run something else at Canby because it was limited to 50 (contestants), but it didn't work out. I needed to get my (Pro Rodeo) Tour count to go to Salinas, and J Lo was on a roll. She does good running two times in one day. We had a lot of time in between too so it was all good."

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

HYGAIN. The Highest Standard in Horse Nutrition.

Hello Money - Sharin Hall and Hello Stella dominate Southwest Desert Classic Futurity

By Julie Mankin

With just one run – the only sub-15-second run of the weekend – Sharin Hall of Pilot Point, Texas, won not only the first round of the Southwest Desert Classic Barrel Futurity in Salina, Utah, on August 16-22, but also the Open, Run For The Money sidepot, and the Breeder's Futurity 1st Go.

Hello Stella, the 4-year-old bay mare that Hall bred, raised, and trained, smoked a 14.9 in the first round of the futurity. So that one run with all the sidepots netted her $6,960. Hall and “Stella” only made one more run and it was in the American Qualifier, which producer Vickie Somonsen allowed to be rolled over into the second round of the futurity.

“I have hit a lot of barrels this year,” said Hall. “I hit a barrel to win the Royal Crown. This time, I just kind of stayed safe in the second round.”

Her 15.5, though, nailed the sixth-place hole in the American

Hello Stella, “Stella” 15.2

BIT: I use the SH02 lifter gag at home and compete in the medium-shanked SH03

SADDLE: I run in the SH Pro Series Lite (wide). I designed this line of saddles off an old Buster Welch tree I loved that fit everything. The bars are flared to not pinch in the withers or loins and it comes in standard or wide (7-inch) gullet widths.

SADDLE PAD: SH Pro Series Orthopedic. I followed the research of English equestrians and used canvas for the top layer and fleece for the base. So it's breathable and lightweight, with spine relief and a wither contour, plus a memory foam insert under the tree.

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice Ventech Elite

SHOEING: Aluminum Kerckhaerts on front and St. Croix light plates on hind

FEED: Renew Gold Senior feed

HAY: Free choice Bermuda grass with twice-a-day alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: She's on a Horse Hair Analysis detox supplement after they found heavy metals. From Med Vet Pharmaceuticals (MVP), she got Gastro-Plex pellets daily starting at 2, then In-Sync 4 pellets last year and this year Exceed 6-Way pellets.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: I'm a rep for Complete PEMF so she gets that before runs and I'm a rep for Theraplate so she gets that daily at home. I'm also big on PHT and Back On Track blankets. I rub her legs down after every run with Thermaflex Liniment. I haul her in Easyboot Clouds and a Hidez Compression Suit.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: Now that she's competing, I try to just keep her comfortable and sound and happy and fresh without overdrilling. I do the same thing every time I ride her, which is bring her face around both ways, do suppling circles, long-trot and lope straight lines and circles. Every exercise I do uses the same muscles I'm going to use in a run. This week I'll just trot her through the pattern; I rarely lope her unless she's been off for weeks.

qualifier and placed her 10th in the second round of the futurity, just out of the money. But together with that blistering first run, she still won the average of the futurity by more than two-tenths of a second. That brought her Salina total over two days to a cool $9,390.

“Everyone seems to be figuring their horse's earnings to date, so I figured it up, and she's won $160,000,” said Hall.

Stella has been easy from Day One, Hall said, and is a natural.

“She's not a diva, at all, but she's confident,” said Hall. “She has an air about her and a presence. I have to be confident on her because when I'm not, we catch barrels. The mare wants to do it all on her own, so I have to ride a little further up in the hole. What I realized is that I need to focus on what I'm doing and not worry about her. She's fast but also smooth, and doesn't look like she's trying very hard.”

Hall trained and eventually purchased Stella's dam, Go Go Fame, a mare now 11 years old that earned roughly $40,000 at futurities and was retired early due to chips in a knee.

“I was actually out here at the Glen Wood [Futurity] five years ago, picking Bob Burt's brain asking to what he was breeding all his Dash Ta Fame mares,” she said. “He told me it was a Lanes Leinster stud.”

So Hall bred her mare to The Goodbye Lane. And here we are. Nobody is more excited than Hall about Stella's two full siblings scheduled to hit the ground in 2022.

“Weekly, I get calls and messages about buying Stella,” she said. But Hall plans to finish out the season, then obtain some embryos and hopefully run Stella in AT&T Stadium (The American) in March. In fact, part of the reason Hall went to the Southwest Desert Classic was because of the American qualifier for futurity horses. Back in 2015 on the stallion Streaking Ta Fame, Hall made the top-four round at AT&T Stadium. She's unsure how her big mare will perform in tiny Cowtown Coliseum, but she did well in the larger Arizona arenas.

This weekend, Hall will try to win Solmonsens's Glen Wood Memorial Futurity, also in Salina. Her husband, Mark Kline, is flying out to join her this week and will watch and then help her drive home. Stella is Hall's only entry, although she's hauling a couple of 3-year-olds, as well. She's looking forward to resting Stella once they get home while she attends a niece's wedding in her native state. Like other standout trainers Troy Crumrine, Cody Bauserman and Jolene Montgomery, Hall grew up in Ohio.

She's training fewer horses than in the old days and hopes to replace that income by selling real estate, which she's been doing the past couple of years.

"I feel like I'm at a point where I can rest and enjoy my horses," said Hall, who also designed and sells a full line of bits, saddles and pads via her SH Pro Series (SharinHall.com/tack-shop). "I've worked my tail off all my life, so now I'm finally trying to enjoy the ride."

Scorching Runs For Dustin Angelle & VF Born Famous At The Mega

By Tanya Randall

Champion futurity horse trainer Dustin Angelle and his lone open horse VF Born Famous ("Ted") topped the 945-entry, $50,000-added Mega Race, held August 18-21 in Jackson, Mississippi. Angelle and the 8-year-old Palomino gelding collected $9,761 after winning Saturday's Finals and the second round.

"I haven't missed a show in 15 years and it seems to grow every year!" said Angelle, who trains out of Roberts, Louisiana. "Their ground is always good and the race is run in a timely manner. They do a really great job, especially with the number of entries they have."

Angelle took seven head of horses to The Mega and qualified three back to the Finals—Ted, Pyromaniak and KN Czar Episode.

His initial goal was to just get Ted back to the Finals, but his better half Clay Espey, DVM, who co-owns the horse, wanted him to win the round.

"Clay's the competitor and he's like, 'Well, go win the round!'" said Angelle. "I'm not worried about go-rounds; I'm worried about making the Finals where it actually counts."

In the first round, running on the bottom of the drag, Angelle and Ted caught the first barrel leaving it to win the round in 13.915.

"He had a really, really nice run. I couldn't fault him on any of it. I sat up on him when he turned the second barrel and cruised him out of the pen and he still would have won the round."

"That put a little pressure on me because I've never run him three days in a row. I just chose not to. I feel like I'm taking advantage of him because he's always giving me his all."

Before the second round, Angelle talked things over with Espey. "I knew the second go would be my only chance to make the Finals," he said. "I talked with Clay that morning. We could do one of two things. I could sit on him and be clean. Even if I just sit on him and he's clean, I think he'll be fast enough to make it back in the 1D. Clay says, 'Well, you could do that, but why don't you go make a run and try to win it? It's not like he can't win more than one time. Go try to win something and don't worry about getting back to the Finals. If it's meant to be, it will happen.'"

Angelle followed Espey's advice and let Ted make a run, a 13.809, the fastest of the race, to win the second round. "Ted made a really good run and won the second go-round by 2/10ths," he said. "When he left the first, he grabbed a shoe and ripped half his foot off. In the video, you can see him bobble a little behind the first, but you really couldn't tell. I was super excited about winning the round."

As Ted's farrier, Angelle worked to put the shoe back on Ted. Luckily, Ted had a good foot and with the help of a little epoxy, Angelle was able to have him ready to go for the Finals on Saturday.

For the Finals, Angelle decided to let Ted make another run. This one was a 13.834 worth $8,000.

"He worked really good in the Finals," he said. "He didn't have his best run of the weekend. It was still fast enough. He got a little past the first barrel, which isn't like him. I feel it had something to do with him pulling a shoe there. He was just a little unconfident about it and didn't turn it as tight. I was a little nervous. I thought maybe it had just cost us the Finals. As soon as I got around it, I reknow when something like that happens they've got to make up for it."

Victory Farms bred Ted is by Born Ta Be Famous out of Sleek Glass, by Image Of Greatness, making him a half-brother to WPRA World Champion Rare Fred, ridden by Mary Burger. Angelle and Espey purchased the gelding as a 3-year-old at the 2016 Old Fort Days Futurity Sale.

"I took a gamble on him because his brother was always one of my favorite horses. I loved him forever," Angelle said of Rare Fred.

Initially it looked like Angelle had made a mistake.

"He had two weeks of roundpen riding when we bought him," he explained. "He was a little cold-back and cinchy. We sent him off to the colt starter and he got kicked out of school. He lasted three weeks. When I went to pick him up, I decided that I wasn't going to put any more money into him and I was going to get him started myself. If it doesn't work out, I'd just have to sell him for what I had him in. I started working him myself and before we knew it he decided he wanted to be a horse. Since then, no one else has been able to ride him. I've been the only one since he was a 3-year-old."

Ted, a four-time American Semifinals Qualifier for Angelle, is the lone open horse that he and Espey have kept.

"We don't plan on selling him," Angelle said. "With all the money in the Pink and Ruby Buckle and those incentives, it really makes it worth keeping him. Every year you have a chance to go win good money at those things."

Ted doesn't run often, maybe once a month, if that. Since futurity horses are Angelle's business, but Ted helps him with the mental struggles of training barrel horses.

"There are days when none of the colts are riding good," he said. "Then I generally know the problem is me. Clay will tell me to go get on Ted. He kind of shows me what I'm doing wrong. I'll go back to riding colts and they'll be doing better. He seems to help teach me as much as I've taught him."

Training Time: The Small 4 Barrel Drill

courtesy of www.betweenthereins.us

The small 4 barrel drill is one of our favorites! We use it to help quicken our horses feet and to put pressure on the rider.

This is a drill that we work a turn at speed and with momentum but there is no room for running fast. Therefore we can quicken feet and recreate the pressure of going fast because things happen really quickly. It doesn't frazzle a horse because we go all one direction so we remove the difficulty of changing leads and the pressure of the barrel pattern.

The drill is set up in a square with 4 barrels that are roughly 1 stride length (or about 8-10 feet) between barrels. That is correct it is supposed to be tiny.

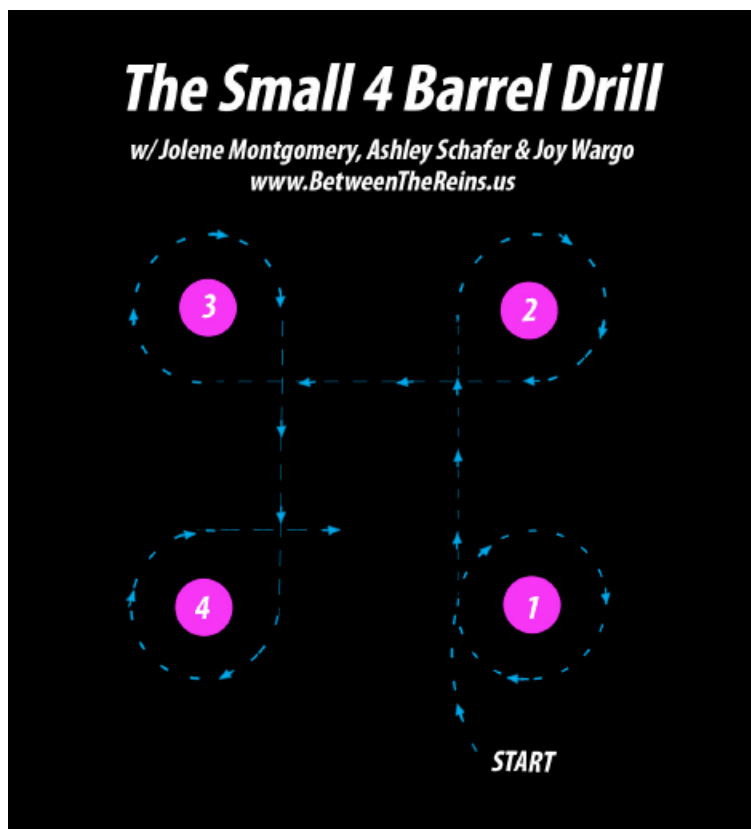

Start by loping to the barrels and going around each barrel one time and then to the next barrel staying to the inside of the square. We go thru 1-3 times then reverse direction.

Ideally the turns will be uniform in size and shape, forward moving and very fluid. The quieter you are with your hands and the more you use your body the easier this drill will be. We basically sit as we approach our turn then commit to the turn by looking over our shoulder to the next barrel, our body follows our head. Then we square back up and repeat the process.

Things will happen very quickly. If you find that things feel out of control then it is likely that you are using more hands than body. Quiet and steady your hands and this will help smooth things out.

Hope you enjoy this drill as much as we do!

Millard Runs Fastest Time at Big Bang

Big Bang Barrel Race // Aug. 12-15, 2021, Sundre, AB

Courtesy of A.J. Neish

Tana Millard had the fastest time of the weekend with a 17.281, Tana was also the winner of the 2020 platinum Horse trailer sponsored by Iron horse truck and trailer & Winfield Ag Society.

How was the winner determined?

We had Each D (1-4) winner from the open each day for a total of 8 girls line up at the trailer.

We had 8 platinum trailer keys in a hat, each with a different number on it. Only one fit this trailer door. Each girl picked a key and wasn't allowed to look at it.

We announced the number on the winning key and on the count of 3 everyone looked at their key at the same time to see who won. It was very exciting!

There was just shy of 2000 runs over the weekend from thursday to Sunday. The weekend also included Xtreme Indian Relay races thursday night and Friday Night Lights Breakaway roping hosted by Moore Ranch. We had 16 Vendors and 4 Food trucks as well as a beer gardens hosted by Kootney Bayou Hot Sauce and 2 official photographers to make the experience even better for the contestants.

We paid out over $143,302 at the big bang and additional $48,000 US & CAN in stallion incentives. (Tomorrows Legends, Ruby Buckle, Royal Crown and CBHI)

Taylor Manning won the Futurity Average with a 17.436 & 17.444 winning a saddle and over $5000 Janet Moen won the Derby Average with 17.527 & 17.395 winning a saddle and around $3000

The Youth had $4000 added and Paid out $10,584.00 in a 3D with the winners of each D taking home over $900.

Lipstick and Cowboy boots did live interviews during big rakes of current leaders as the days went on, that were aired on our livefeed hosted by Sam Winslow (the barrel racing line) Play back can be watched on a link posted to Supernova Productions & the Big Bang Facebook page.

When you focus on the past that's your ego...
 When I focus on the future it's my pride...
 I try to focus in the present, that's humility.

Award-winning secretary/timer Brenda Crowder passes away

Brenda Crowder, the 2019 PRCA Secretary of the Year and 2020 Timer of the Year, passed away Aug. 21 in Stephenville, Texas. She was 69.

Crowder, who was a timer at the National Finals Rodeo in 2001, had been involved as a PRCA secretary and timer since 1974. She was the secretary at the 2020 National Finals Steer Roping in Mulvane, Kan.

"She grew up in Dallas, and then after that we moved all over," said Shawna Ray, Brenda's daughter, 2019 PRCA Timer of the Year. "Her dad, Bill (Crowder), was a roper, and her mom, Pat, was a rodeo secretary. That's how she got involved with rodeo. What she loved most about the rodeo business was all the guys. She loved every one of them. She loved helping the guys with anything they needed. She loved all the committees and contractors she worked for."

Judy Crowder Jackson, Brenda's sister, is also a rodeo timer.

"We get to travel all over the country working rodeos together," Brenda said before working the Jr. NFR in June. "This is the best life that I can imagine living. We have so much fun together, and I wouldn't trade my life for anything."

Brenda worked the RAM Texas Circuit Finals Rodeo for years and was most recently working as a secretary and timer for Stace Smith Pro Rodeos.

PRCA announcer Mike Mathis, a friend of Brenda's for more than 30 years, praised what she did in the rodeo business.

"I know of no one who loved rodeo more than Brenda," Mathis said. "It was her life. She was not only an amazing secretary and timer, but she loved every aspect of rodeo, the people and was fiercely loyal to cowboys and cowgirls. She did so many things for me from fixing programs to finding information for me. She was an amazing friend. She was so dedicated to this sport and the PRCA."

Mathis remembered some of their times together.

"Back in the day, we used to do a lot of Bad Company rodeos," Mathis said. "They were noted for having huge numbers of contestants. Sometimes in slack alone, we might have had 300 to 400 runs. It used to tire out everybody, except Brenda. When Brenda mashed the watch the last time, she would say, 'Is that all? Do we have some more?' She loved it."

"She worked at her job. She not only loved it and cared about it, but it also mattered to her that her timing job was something she understood that she had somebody's future, career, paycheck in her hand. She was adamant that she was exactly right. Secretary-wise, she just didn't make a mistake. I'm going to miss her personally and professionally; I'm going to miss her every way there is to miss someone."

Brenda is survived by her sister, Judy; brother, Dale; daughter, Shawna Ray; and son, Billy Jack Ray.

There will be a visitation from 6 to 8 p.m. (CDT), Aug. 25 and a service at 2 p.m., Aug. 26. Both will be at the Cowboy Church of Erath County in Stephenville.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever said, "THEY said"? THEY said we need to do this or that. THEY said we shouldn't have church, go to school, go outside. Well, who are THEY?

Sunday morning God moved on my heart that WE, are THEY'S!!!! And then He took me to Mark 8:29. Jesus is walking and talking with His disciples and He asked them in verse 27, "Who do men that I am?" They had three answers. Then He asked them in verse 29, "But who do YOU say that I am?"

Friends, who do WE say that Jesus is?

I say, Jesus is Lord over my life and Lord over the USA!

I say, whom the Son sets free is free indeed!

I say, greater is He in me than he that is in the world!

I say, no weapon formed against me will prosper!

I say everything listed in Psalm 91!

I propose in my heart from this day forward, to "have a say"! I am a "they" and I can "say"! Let's open our mouth and speak truth! Let's not be moved by the media, but let's be led by the Word of God!

Then, and only then, will we see change. Mark 9:23 tells us, "all things are possible to he that believes God." I say, I believe God...
