Cassie Morton & SS I Am Misty Bank $63,682 at Ruby Buckle East, Win Futurity & Open

By Tanya Randall

SS I Am Misty, a family project for Josh and Cassie Morton, topped the $280,000 Futurity and $600,000 Open for an astounding $63,682 at the Ruby Buckle East, held August 19-23 in Perry, Georgia.

Morton, an employee of the state of Tennessee, is Misty's exercise rider and jockey, while her husband Josh, a civil engineer and company vice-president, is responsible for the 4-year-old daughter of $1.7 million sire RR Mistakelly, out of the Slick By Design, Mulberry Canyon Moon mare MCM Shes Slick, who was owned by Pamela Smith at the time of Misty's conception.

"It was a whirlwind weekend," said Morton. "It's the biggest win of my career."

Morton and Misty won the opening round of the Futurity with a 14.821.

"Her first barrel didn't feel bad, but it just felt like she kind of ran around it," Morton recalled. "She didn't sit down and turn it. I thought, 'That's not the greatest,' but she smoked the second barrel. I've never had to lift my leg on her before, but I do on her full brother, so it was a good thing I was in the habit of it because she wouldn't have gotten around that second barrel. It was just instinct. She turned a really good third barrel. When Alan (Moorhead, the announcer) said 14.8, I just started crying. I didn't even realize that I took the lead. I just knew a 14.8 had won the Derby, so I knew that was a good run. I was thrilled to death!"

While she was eager to hear her time on her first run, Moorhead's voice was one she didn't want to hear before her second run. She didn't want to know what time she needed to be to secure the win, especially after she said in an interview with Equine Network following the first round win that Misty had only tipped one barrel all year.

"I'm thinking, 'Don't let it be tomorrow that she hits one!' and I'm jinxing myself," Morton laughed. "I don't get nervous, but I was terrified!"

They were solid with a 14.913 for fourth in the second round to win the aggregate in 29.734.

"She turned the first barrel almost exactly the same way she did the first day but left it a whole lot harder the second day," Morton explained. "I knew we were okay because that's how she turned it yesterday and still clocked. The second barrel was pretty much copy and paste of the day before. Once we were around it, I thought just don't hit this third barrel!"

Their aggregate time also won the Open 1D title to add $23,400 to their $34,750 in Futurity earnings. Morton and Misty also won both rounds of the $35,000 Rookie Ruby for $2,452 and picked up $3,080 in the $100,000 Owner/Rider 5D.

The Mortons have Josh's late brother JT to thank for Misty. JT had purchased her full brother SS Rocky Canyon to train and campaign himself. When he passed, Josh and Cassie gave life to his dream for the horse. Then Smith offered them Misty.

"People will say, 'You guys know how to pick them,'" Morton mused. "I say, 'No. We really don't.' God picked these horses for us. He put them in our hands. We wouldn't have her if it had not been for JT buying Rocky."

Ironically, when Smith offered Misty, Morton was ready to jump but her husband was reluctant. That reluctance stayed throughout

THANKS: Husband Josh: "He does all the training. I tell him he does all the work, and I'm just the one who gets my name called. He deserves a lot of the credit." Dr. Josh Harvey, farrier Daniel Bishop, Equine Touch Balance Therapy-Carla Paratore, breeder Pam Smith and her husband Wayne:

"We're so thankful she gave us the opportunity to buy her. She normally keeps the mares. We were really shocked when she called and offered her to us," colt rider Jared Peterson.

the mare's training.

"He loves that mare now," Morton laughed. "After the first round, I got a text from him, 'I love that mare and I love her jockey.' I said, 'Wow! You love the mare first!' He says that mare is the only animal or person that lives here that comes when he calls her!

"Monday morning before I left, he went down to get her at 4:30. It was still pitch black. He called her name and she came running to the gate. He said, 'Nobody else comes up for me.' He and that mare have a bond. She gets away with murder I think here."

Misty definitely challenged her trainer, but by the Jimmy and Betty Leek Memorial Futurity in Memphis, Tennessee, in early January, she was showing signs of doing great things.

"She really stepped up and surprised us," Morton said. "It was a pretty tough futurity. I think she ended up third the average there, but the biggest thing to us was she was running right there with my open, derby horses. She was running faster than either of them was at this point in their futurity year, so that's when we thought she might be okay."

Misty just got better.

"She just stayed solid," Morton said. "She's only hit one barrel all year.

With Morton in the saddle, Misty went on to win five futurities: the Valentine's KISS, Buttercup, Panty Raid and the 4- and 5-year-old futurities at the Chalee Gilliland Memorial. She was second at the St. Patrick's Showdown Futurity, third at the Virginia Barrel Classic Futurity and won the Amateur Futurity at the Barrel Bash/Select Stallion Stakes Futurity.

Misty, whose lifetime earnings have now surpassed $140,000, is currently leading the Barrel Futurities of America's point standings, so Morton is headed to Ohio this weekend for the BFA-approved Denny Dawson Memorial Futurity.

Wheeler and Gimme All Da Money Roll at Ruby Buckle East Derby Winning $39K

By Julie Mankin

One year after finishing second at the Ruby Buckle Derby on The Goodbye Guy to Sydney Graham and her then-6-year-old sorrel stallion Dupont First (aka Trump), Blaise Wheeler came back to Perry, Ga., on Aug. 19-23 and won it outright on Leslie Willis' home-raised 5-year-old, Gimme All DaMoney ("Little T").

In just her sixth run on the horse, they dominated the first round with the only 14.8, worth $6,250.

"He had a little stumble around first, and we kind of looped around the third barrel because I safetied up and pulled an outside rein to get around it," Wheeler said. "But smooth is fast."

With a 14.9 that placed 11th in the second round, they won one of the tightest average races on record in 29.810 seconds. Wheeler's runs earned $15,300 in the Open, as well, giving the horse $39,395 total on the week.

"I did not expect that, the least little bit," said Wheeler of Summit, Miss. "I mean, a top five or top 10 finish would have been great. I've only been riding him a month, and I wouldn't call myself a jump rider. Sometimes it takes me a while to learn how to ride one."

Little T had been raised and trained by Willis, who was paralyzed in a horse accident last summer. Brett Monroe finished out his futurity season last year, after which Willis sent the horse to Blaise's husband, Brian Wheeler. But last month Brian was bucked off and broke his collarbone.

"It's almost a blessing the way this all worked out," Wheeler said. "At first, I was afraid to go fast, I thought he'd miss the turn. He likes a bigger pocket."

Willis showed Wheeler plenty of old runs made on the horse, and Brian gave her some tips, she said.

Little T, by Tres Seis and out of Damoney by Mr Eye Opener, is a full brother to Gimme DaMoney that Willis also raised and trained 11 years earlier. She and Jason had bought the dam, Damoney, and decided to make another "Trouble."

"Trouble was known for smoking his first barrel," said Wheeler, who had watched the older gelding run. "He was throwing you over his head almost, annihilating that first barrel."

He was tighter in style than Little T, whose body is more of a noodle, according to Wheeler.

"I just worked squares and stiffened him up a little so I didn't have to pull so much," said Wheeler. "He doesn't love you to just pull on him. So I would set and give it back to him."

Blaise admitted feeling some pressure, knowing the horse had success with both Willis and Monroe before her. Plus, there's always that added desire to win for Leslie.

"She had a little tear in her eye, and then I did, too," said Wheeler. "Out of all her horses that are winning so much, her favorite is Little T. He's just real personable and so good with her wheelchair, he walks right up and lets her love on him and all the things."

Andrea Busby & Jets Top Gun Conquer Caldwell Night Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

When Jets Top Gun ("Benny") loves a rodeo, he really, really LOVES it. The Caldwell Night Rodeo in Idaho is one of his favorites.

The Blazin Jetolena, GL Famous First Lady gelding nearly swept the rodeo in 2023 when it was an aggregate of three runs—two rounds and short go—with Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi, the year he won the lion's share of World Championship earnings. The following year, he carried his breeder Andrea Busby to a reserve championship.

After missing the rodeo in 2025 due to injury, Benny was back in 2026 to give Busby her first Caldwell Night Rodeo Championship. "Brittany and I were talking about it," said Busby, who gets her mail in Millsap, Texas. "The horse can win anywhere he goes and he's always been like that, but where he does like, he really likes and you better run him again. When he decides he likes an arena, he's going to be tough to beat there."

Busby and Benny were third in the first round at Caldwell with a 16.98 and split the win in the short go with Tricia Aldridge and Adios Pantalones with identical 16.76. They got the aggregate win and $11,906 by 5/100ths of a second over Aldridge and Adios.

"I got him a little high and a little by the first in the first round," Busby said. "The morning of the short round, I didn't work him very much, but I did stop him a couple of times. He smoked his first barrel in the short round. I got nervous running to the third barrel and touched his outside rein, and it made him take a step past it. I was like, 'Oh wait, Andrea! Have some faith!' But it all worked out."

With the win, Benny will officially cross the $1.1 million mark in career earnings to be one of the top 10 barrel horses of all time.

"I do think he's one of the best to ever do it. I don't know why we got blessed with him, but I thank my lucky stars every day. He's just a good boy, loves his job," said Busby, who rode the gelding to the 2024 National Finals Rodeo Championship.

Unfortunately, the effort in Las Vegas left him recovering for nearly a year from what could have been a career-ending injury to a sesamoid. Dr. Tommy Hayes at Elgin Veterinary Hospital operated on Benny's fetlock and Dr. Marty Tanner oversaw his recovery.

"Marty said we'll put the best things we can in the joint and give him as much time as he needs, but the rest is up to (Benny)," Busby explained. "I was extremely nervous to bring him back. I started back riding him in January and didn't run him until Woodward in June. We just took it really slow and he never said no."

Busby said worrying about Benny was almost her full-time job and getting her timing back with the powerful gelding was a challenge on limited runs.

"It's a little hard to step on a Ferrari and have your timing," said Busby, who admitted to feeling like a ragdoll when Benny powers through his turns. "The hard thing about bringing him back slowly was not having those back-to-back runs where you can really dial in your timing. That's a tall order to have my timing and his timing dialed in and not making many runs, but it was what was best for him. Some of it was just me trusting that he's okay and wants to do this."

Benny has won Busby a check at every rodeo but one for Busby, who is steadily climbing her way up the WPRA World Standings.

"I had a really bad winter," the two-time NFR qualifier admitted. "I had no expectations of anything this year. It wasn't because my horses weren't working. Pickles (RC Black In Famous) carried the load, but everything else was hurt. I think I had $10,000 won when I left for Reno."

THANKS: Her husband Jeff Busby: "I don't like being out here without him. He knows me; he knows my horses. He's very good at keeping me grounded," her Busby Quarter Horses team, fellow NFR qualifier Sue Smith: "She's the magic glue that keeps me together," and lastly, the late Blazin Jetolena: "I'll never take for granted how lucky I am to have had a horse like Blazin Jetolena that literally changed my life."

Busby has stair-step goals like she's had the past few years—make the Mountain States Circuit Finals, get into the Top 30 to be eligible for the winter rodeos, make the Playoff Tour Finales and then hopefully the NFR.

"That's always kind of been our goal when we leave home for Caldwell Night Rodeo Continued on Page 37 the summer,” she said. “I felt like we’ve got the circuit finals made, so check. Then after Caldwell, I think I’ve got the Top 30 made, check. I got into Puyallup (the first Playoff Tour Finale), check. Anything else that happens on top of that is icing on the cake.”

Busby, who picked up $2,537 aboard Born On Derby Day at Gooding, Idaho, and Moses Lake, Washington, is currently No. 20 in the WPRA World Standings with $79,095.

“Somebody asked me if this changes my plans,” Busby said. “I’m not going to ask anymore of (Benny) than what I have been. He’ll run where I think he likes it and where the ground is good, and we’ll see what happens.”

Busby has Derby and Blazing With My Dude (Tito) with her to fill in the gaps.

Kg Just Money & Kathy Grimes Blaze New Record time of 16.31

Just weeks after Dupont First & Sydney Graham set the new WPRA Rodeo Standard Pattern record in Heber City, UT running a 16.49 on Saturday, August 1; Kg Just Money & Kathy Grimes walked up at the Cassia County Fair & Rodeo in Burley, ID and set the New North American Record on a Standard Pattern with a blazing 16.31!

Burley, ID has become a hotspot for fast times with XV Mario & Makenna Shook running a 16.53 there in 2025 to set the WPRA Rodeo Standard Record at that time which she held until Graham broke it in Heber City.

The story of Grimes and her special gelding started way before they ran down the alley in Burley. Grimes ran the grandmother Do It For Beau and then qualified for the 2017 NFR on the dam Kg Justiceweexpected. Better known as Issy, Kg Justiceweexpected, caught everyone's attention with her signature black hair coat and fast times.

When paired with the perennial NFR Barrel Horse Sire, the $10 Million Sire Pc Frenchmans Hayday she produced the record setter Kg Just Money. Better known as Showie; the buckskin has caught everyone's attention from the time he hit the arena. In fact he earned a whopping $355k in 2025 during their futurity year and another $121k prior to this weekend in 2026 (per QStallions). He has been running fast times his whole life and now he has his place in the record books!

Showie & Grimes 16.31 is not only the fastest time on the WPRA Rodeo Record on a Standard Pattern but broke A Cornerstone & Brandon Cullins overall North American Record on a Standard of 16.457 they set at the 2018 LG International at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, OK.

THANKS: Big thanks to Matt Tegean- the tractor driver/ ground guy at burley & their committee for caring around the ground for the barrel racers & have spent a couple years to really get it good!

It is a fun time to be a barrel racing fan as arena records are being broken nearly every week. In fact this week, Blingolena & Carlee Otero quietly ran a 16.54 on a standard at Gooding, ID and at Gooding it took a 16 to be in the Top 12!

We caught up with Grimes to get more information about her amazing run and record!

BRR: To set this up, you were a walk up replacement right?

Grimes: Yep I was a walk up but they had 5 turnouts & I was the only walk up so I was 2nd out after the drag!

BRR: Walk us through that amazing run? Could you tell running home how fast it was or did it surprise you when the time was announced?

Grimes: It felt like a great run - turns were so smooth but it didn't feel as fast as I would've thought a 16.31 would feel! The fastest he has ran on a standard was a 16.73 at the Xtreme in Nampa last September.

Michelle Alley was right in front of me & when they said she was a 16.64 - I was like well alrighty Showie - let's try to do good & be 2nd (LOL) and he took off & our timing together was spot on & when I was running out the alleyway they have a big screen above it showing your time & I couldn't believe what I was seeing - pretty cool!

BRR: What does it mean to you to have another special horse from the family line you have raised? (His dam Kg Justiceweexpected carried Grimes to the 2017 NFR) At this point you have had a number of horses you have trained from the same female family; does that change your training process at all?

Grimes: It means everything to ride the horse family line I have been breeding since 1994. Maybe that gives me an advantage because I have trained/ridden so many of them & know what works & what doesn't! I'm so grateful for all of the horses that have come before him to help me improve my riding, training, competitive edge - they taught me a lot!

Playoff Picture

The Pro Rodeo Playoff Tour's impact on National Finals Rodeo qualifications is immense. Points are accumulated through 20th place at top rodeos designated as Playoff Rodeos throughout the year. The richer the overall purse of a rodeo from all its events, the more points there are to be won.

The Caldwell Night Rodeo, Gooding Pro Rodeo, Moses Lake Roundup and Canby Rodeo concluded the first segment of playoff qualifying. As Barrel Racing Report put the final touches on this issue, entries for the Cinch Playoffs Puyallup Rodeo, held September 10-13 in Washington State, were closing.

Only the Top 23 in the Playoff Standings are eligible to enter Puyallup. The 24th and final spot goes to the NFR Open Champion—Caitlyn White. Those eligible to enter must do so to be eligible to enter the Cinch Playoffs Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, the last weekend of the season.

The barrel racing purse at Puyallup is $77,000 with a possible $20,920 payoff for a sweep of the event. The 24 contestants are split into groups of 12 with each getting two back-to-back runs. The top four in the aggregate advance to a clean-slate semifinals that will determine the Top 4 contesting the clean-slate final.

As an additional bonus the final top four from Puyallup qualify for Sioux Falls, where only eight barrel racers will compete for a total purse of $166,667. A sweep of the event pays an astounding $59,067.

The top eight in the Playoff point standings, excluding any of those that automatically advanced via the top four in Puyallup, are eligible to enter. Those not making the cutoff for Puyallup will have to dominate at the last remaining Playoff Tour Rodeos to have a chance of making the Sioux Falls entry cut.

The rodeos remaining for points include Kennewick, Bremerton, Ellensburg and Walla Walla Washington; Tremonton, Utah; Lewiston, Idaho, and Pendleton, Oregon. Puyallup too counts for points.

For reference, last year it took 1,061 points to be eligible to enter Sioux Falls, which was 11th in the Playoff Tour Standings since four higher in the standings had qualified due to their Top 4 placing at Puyallup.

Joel Harris and Beau Peterson Named Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hands for 2026

A month ago Utah's Pioneer Week wrapped up with the conclusion of rodeos in Ogden, Salt Lake City and Spanish Fork. While the Fourth of July week in professional rodeo remains famous for its high-volume payouts, Utah's Pioneer Week in mid-July has grown into an equally lucrative week.

In 2023, the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo spearheaded Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hand initiative to feature the three rodeos that are within 150-mile radius of each other offering a two-million-dollar week for professional rodeo athletes. They then collaborated with the State of Utah to recognize Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hands by offering a $15,000 bonus for the top earning male and female athlete across these Utah rodeos.

The 2026 Utah Pioneer Week Top Hands are PRCA tie-down roper Joel Harris and WPRA breakaway roper Beau Peterson. Harris of San Angelo, Texas, made it to the pay window at all three Utah rodeos with his largest payout coming at the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo in Salt Lake City with $17,641 thanks to a silver medal performance. He added another $10,990 in Spanish Fork where he took home the tie-down roping title and wrapped up the week with a sixth-place finish, good for $8,977 in Ogden for a grand total of $37,608. He edged Utah's own Ryder Wright who finished with $28,871.

"Had the best week of my career winning just under $40,000," Harris wrote on his Facebook after landing on the medal stand in Salt Lake City. With just a little over a month left in the regular season, he is currently fourth in the world having locked up his third consecutive Wrangler NFR qualification.

The Utah rodeos have always been special and important to Harris since he hit the rodeo trail.

"I have always loved that week of rodeos," stated Harris. "I love the people in Utah and love the fans there. You get to go to some of the best rodeos during that week with limited travel."

On the ladies' side this marks the first year that a breakaway roper has been recognized with this award just showing how much the fastest event in professional rodeo has grown. Peterson of Council Grove, Kansas, stood atop the podium in Salt Lake capturing her first gold medal and checks totaling $20,697. She added another $1,176 for a sixth-place finish in the second round at Spanish Fork to push her to the top of the Pioneer Week earnings in the WPRA with $21,873. She edged barrel racing gold medalist KariAnn Cross with $21,147.

"I have never done any good at this rodeo," stated Peterson after winning gold in Salt Lake. "This is a really unique and special rodeo, so I am thankful to be up on the podium. I have not had any luck the last two months so this will hopefully get the ball rolling in the right direction."

Peterson also spoke highly about the Utah rodeos and bonus upon learning the news.

"That is awesome and huge to win another $15,000 on top of those rodeos," stated Peterson. "That is a week of rodeos you look forward to, and I am shocked to have won it (Pioneer Bonus). I love those rodeos and will be back."

Peterson is currently on the bubble to qualify for the Wrangler WPRA National Breakaway Finals in Fort Worth, Texas, with just over a month left in the regular season.

Harris and Peterson will be officially honored and presented with their bonus during the Governor State of Sport Banquet at the Delta Center in Salt Lake City in April of 2027. Since its inception, new top hands have emerged each year, highlighting Utah's growing influence on professional rodeo. Former winners include WPRA barrel racers Jordan Briggs (2023), Kassie Mowry (2024), and Carlee Otero (2025), along with PRCA

The State of Utah celebrates Pioneer Week the third week of July in coordination with July 24, marking the day when Brigham Young and a determined company of Mormon pioneers realized their dreams upon entering the Great Salt Valley. Rodeo has long played a part during this celebration with the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and the Ogden Pioneer Days all being contested during this time.

"Utah's pioneer heritage is at the heart of our Western Lifestyle," stated Tommy Joe Lucia, Executive Director of Utah Days of '47 Rodeo. "Together with our Pioneer Week partners, we ensure this legacy remains vibrant today. It is a true privilege to celebrate our rodeo athletes on the same grand stage in the State of Utah as Olympic and professional sports icons."

Created in 2012, the Governor's State of Sport Awards celebrates Utah's sports industry and honors excellence in high school, collegiate, adaptive, professional, Olympic and Paralympic sports. The Utah Sports Commission is the proud host of the Governor's State of Sport Awards which has honored Utah's finest athletes, teams, coaches, events, and numerous Utah sports icons.

Utah is known as the State of Sport — and for good reason! Through the years of appreciation for adventure, Utah has carved out a distinct reputation as the premier sport destination for Olympic, professional, amateur and action sporting events. By leveraging their world-class venues and awe-inspiring backdrops, Utah also has an established reputation as a top international sports destination. In July of 2024, they were officially awarded the 2034 Olympic Winter Games marking the second time Salt Lake City has been chosen to welcome the world for the Olympic Games.

People who avoid failure also avoid success.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Is trusting God difficult for you? Do you think that you can fix stuff? And when all else fails, you say, "Well, all we can do is pray. . ."

Friend, the first thing we should do is pray! I'm an action person. "Here, let me do it." "I can figure this out." "Let me help!" Honestly, sometimes my actions just get in the way of God getting something fixed. I repent.

We all have issues in our life. And we all have strengths. God given strengths. But when we think they are ours and we know what to do, we are taking on God's part and those talents can become a stumbling block for us.

Me helping for example. This is a foreign thought to me, but did you know that some people don't want help??? LOL! I'm very organized. Did you know that some people don't care if they are organized? What is wrong with them?? Nothing.

If we let God lead in everything, we will be a lot less frustrated with others, and with ourselves. We'll appreciate, and enjoy, the differences in each other. We will come to realize that God doesn't make mistakes and with Him first place, together we will get stuff fixed! And fixed right!

Love Him first, and then yourself, this week!
