Jolene Montgomery smashes records at Roper Apparel & Footwear Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Leading futurity trainer and rider Jolene Montgomery had an exceptional weekend at the Roper Apparel & Footwear Futurity in McCook, Neb.

The multiple aged event champion from Purdon, Texas, topped the $7,500-added Futurity aboard the Dash Ta Fame stallion KN Famous Czar, owned by Stephen and Kimi Nichols, Brownwood, Texas, and finished third on Streakin Easily, owned by Dale Rankin, Tuscola, Texas. She set arena records with both horses in the go-rounds.

Czar, 4, set the arena record at 15.073 in the first round of the futurity and followed it up with a fourth-place run of 15.307 in the second.

"We went to Broken Bow first (for the Cornhusker Futurity), and I couldn't get him to run," Montgomery explained. "He was loping. It was a little, bitty pen. I got him around them, but it was like he was stopping at the second barrel. When we got to McCook, I breezed him and did some other stuff to free him up.

"Our first run was picture perfect. It was the best run he's ever made. He kept his head down the whole time. It was super, super smooth. I was very pleased."

"Our next run, it was pretty smooth too. I didn't send him quite as hard, probably taking out a little insurance. I may have kept him a little too quiet. He had a really nice first, but he was one step away from finishing it really straight so he bowed out a little bit. He had a really nice second and really drug his rear at the third. He was getting after it and slipped, which may have cost him a tenth, but it was still really nice."

Streakin Easily broke Czar's arena record in the second round with a 14.958.

"She ran slow the first round too," laughed Montgomery. "I thought to heck with this and got her freed up too. I sent her... hard."

Montgomery also picked up a check on Dashin Czar, owned by Matt and Bendi Dunn. The Dunns also owned the futurity reserve champion LC Packin Heat, ridden by Troy Crumrine. It was a very tight futurity with just .011 seconds difference between the champion and reserve.

"That was the first time that I've been to either futurity," said Montgomery of the Roper Apparel & Futurity and Cornhusker Futurity. "They're really great futurities. I'd like to thank Lynn Kohr and Marlene McGaughey for putting them on.

"I'd also like to thank my sponsors Classic Equine, Horse Hair Analysis, Razor Horseshoes and Preifert, and all my owners. I have to give a huge thank you to Kimi for sticking with me. There were some times when we didn't think he was going to make it, but she stuck with me."

Nichols was proud of both her horse and rider. "I'm so pleased with both of them," Nichols said. "It's hard with a stud. She had some issues in the beginning, but she was very diligent and worked through them. There were days when she wanted to quit him, but she didn't. Her hard work has really paid off."

Nichols had purchased Czar's dam, Kczartessa, by Streakin Dash out of a What Luck mare that goes back to Gays Delight, the dam of Tinys Gay, in foal to Dash Ta Fame at the Heritage Place Sale. She had tried to sell the colt as a 2-year-old at the BFA Sale, but ended up bringing him home. He's been with Montgomery since the spring of his third year.

"In typical stallion style, it was a little rough in the beginning," said Montgomery. "Anytime someone wants to send a stallion, I remind them that they are not going to run barrels until they decide to no matter how talented they are."

Czar placed in the first round of the Juvenile Futurity at the BFA World Championships, but went home to Nichols after Montgomery broke her ankle at a futurity in Arizona. She got him back right before the LG Pro Classic—"we were rusty and didn't get anything done," noted Montgomery.

They placed at the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity before heading to the Northwest Futurities in April. Although the stallion didn't draw any checks while in Washington State, Montgomery said she could feel him starting to turn the page.

Czar's breakthrough came in the qualifying round of the Old Fort Days Futurity where he set the pace before finishing eighth in the Finals. Prior to Montgomery's Nebraska run, Czar got a two month barrel racing hiatus as he went to the breeding farm to learn how to jump the phantom and bred a few mares.

"I just bred a few of my own mares this year," said Nichols, who enjoys raising and starting colts. "I've had some people express some interest in breeding to him. I'm going to collect semen on him after (the BFA World Championships in) Oklahoma City. I'm just going to stand him here, but if we get a lot of interest I'll move him to a breeding farm."

2014 Fulton Performance Horse and Production Sale Averages Soar

The 2014 Fulton Performance Horse and Production sale was held August 22, 2014 with a large, energetic crowd in attendance, ready to bid on some of the country's top bloodlines at the Cherry County Fairgrounds in Valentine, NE. The 2014 sale produced the highest sale average so far for the offspring of the two Fulton Ranch sires, A Streak Of Fling and CS Flashlight.

With A Streak Of Fling closing in on $1 million in offspring earnings and being named the #7 Barrel Sire For All Ages, All Divisions for 2013 according to Equistat, the interest in his colts from top trainers and riders throughout the country remained strong. The A Streak Of Fling 2 Year Olds were in high demand, fetching an average of $18,350. CS Flashlight has already sired multiple stakes winners on the racetrack and winners in the arena, so his 2 Year Olds proved to be valuable commodities as well, bringing in an average of $12,714. The first crop of 2 year olds by CS Flashlight crossed on the daughters of A Streak Of Fling were especially well received, averaging $14,000 each.

Topping the sale was the sharp looking red roan 2 year old daughter of A Streak O Fling, Lenas Last Streaker, who caught the eye of everyone in attendance with her striking looks and top-shelf breeding. Her dam Easy April Lena, is not only by the great performance sire Doc O Dynamite, but is a full sister to Rachael Myllymaki's multi NFR qualifier horse, Easy Does It Doc. In today's age of embryo transfer, those high quality mares are worth a mint and Lenas Last Streaker proved that, going for $26,500. She was consigned by Fulton Ranch and purchased by Deloris Adamson of Nebraska.

The second high seller, Blue Streakin Chick, was a riding son of a gun, ready to sell. The 2 year old daughter of A Streak Of Fling son, Streakin Pac Bar, rode soft and light and was ready to go any direction. Out of the Love Chick Blues mare, Hickory Chick Blues, the bay roan mare garnered a top bid of $24,500. Blue Streakin Chick was consigned by guest consignor, Jennilee Thompson, and sold to Katie Holt from Texas.

The third high seller, was another well bred 2 year old daughter of A Streak Of Fling out of the great Fulton Ranch mare, CCC Sissy Chex, who is by Bueno Chex Imp. The red dun filly showed the class everyone wants in a performance horse or broodmare and had the build to go do it. Consigned by the Fulton Ranch this good filly went to Paul Anderson from Illinois.

In yet another sign of the strength of the performance horse market, the weanlings of A Streak Of Fling averaged a whopping $10,571 and the CS Flashlight weanlings averaged a brisk $8,125. The top selling weanling of the sale was Fling Ta Famous, who Gary Langford from Florida went to $13,000 to buy this stud prospect from Lisa Fulton & Kelly Gorrell. This full brother to superstar mare, Fame Fling N Bling, who has won over $200,000, should be a great performer and sire down there road.

The Overall average of the 54 head sold was $12,117. The A Streak Of Fling yearlings averaged $11,750 and the CS Flashlight yearlings averaged $8,367. For more information and results, go to www.fultonranch.com.

Magdeburg & CP Konea Find Their Stride at Mega Race

By Tanya Randall

Lauren Magdeburg and her recently acquired superstar CP Konea ("CoCo") turned in a blistering 13.870, the fastest time of the event, to claim the $8,000 first-place prize at the Mega Race, held in Jackson, Miss., Aug. 21-23.

"I have to thank Ralph Feathers and the staff at the Mega for putting on a nice show and doing such a good job on the ground," she said. "It stayed consistent all the way through.

"Most importantly, I need to thank God for a safe and successful trip."

Ironically, Magdeburg packed up her toys and departed immediately for her Fort Smith, Ark., home following her Finals run.

"No one can believe we left," she laughed. The effects of the extreme heat on her horses and the well-being of her 17-month-old daughter, Finley, were the deciding factors. Plus, she didn't want to miss her brother's birthday cookout on Sunday afternoon. "I always try to do what's best for my horses and I felt they were hot and ready to go, and now that I have Finley—she sleeps better in her own bed. We were almost to Little Rock when Ryann Pedone called to tell me I had won it. I really would have loved to be there and savor the moment, but it was more important to me to get home for my daughter and my horses, and be there for my brother's birthday."

Her attempts at keeping her horses and child happy almost backfired on her first run at the Mega. She wanted her daughter to have an extra night in her own bed, so they didn't leave for the race until early Thursday morning. As a late entry, she figured she would have plenty of time to make the 415 mile trip.

"I was 385 and I thought I'd get there one hour before I run," she explained. "Then there was a huge wreck on the interstate. We were dead stopped for 45 minutes. CoCo and my other horses were dripping wet with sweat. I was giving them buckets of water and rinsing them off, trying to keep them comfortable."

She arrived 20 horses before her run, and to add further stress, CoCo sprung a shoe stepping off the trailer. After saddling the mare and sprinting to the warmup pen, she was able to locate a farrier to tack the shoe back on with minutes to spare.

"I barely get her warmed up and she goes in there and runs a 14.2!" she said. "Luckily, she's all business when you run down the alleyway it really doesn't matter what else happens outside the gate."

Things went much smoother on her next run. "I just tried to stay calm and ride her really quiet," she said. "It's a really short score there in Jackson and I saw a lot of people running by. So, I tried to stay really quiet and just cruise her in there and nail my first barrel because I knew I could go on from there. The rest of it is so easy. She ran a 14.0 and I was so excited."

Magdeburg added $1,530 for second place in the second round to her $956.25 fourth-place check from the first round.

"In the short go I just tried to stick to my plan," she added. "Stay quiet and talk to her, just ride her as quiet as I can. She's so fast, she does better the quieter you sit. She just did so good. I'm just so proud of her."

Bred by Cody and Paige Hyde of Blackfoot, Idaho, CoCo, a 5-year-old mare, is by all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of proven barrel horse producer Crystal Cashanova, by Sir Cashanova. She was purchased by Sheila Hill as a yearling and put into training with Vauna Walker, who trained the mare's full sister CP Private Dancer, a futurity standout that is now Hill's rodeo mount.

CoCo was one of the nation's top futurity horses in 2013 and is on her way to being one of the top derby horses of 2014. It was her solid performances last year that caught Magdeburg's eye.

"Last winter and spring, I was pregnant and couldn't do anything, so I was watching all the futurities on the webcasts on my computer," she explained. "Every time I would see CoCo, I would say 'Oh, I love that horse. I would love to own her one day.' I kept watching her all year, always thinking how wonderful she was. She's so versatile. She'd win in a little pen and a big pen."

After Finley was born, Magdeburg went back to working with her own horses. She had several barrel prospects of her own and was raising babies by her stallion Falcon Fame, a son of Dash Ta Fame out of a daughter of Sixarun. It wasn't until her husband J.R. made a comment after watching CoCo run that she even considered buying the mare.

"One of the times I was watching CoCo on the webcast, I told my husband that I would love to own that mare one day," she explained. "He said you could have a horse like that one day if you sold some of your colts, some of your mares and some of your babies. For some reason, until he said that to me, that thought had never crossed my mind—that I had so much money and time tied up in all my mares and colts and things like that.

"I just gave it a lot of thought. Having a new baby and all, I can't haul my colts to all these weekly jackpots and get them seasoned like I need to, and I thought if I had a horse like CoCo, it would take so much less time on my part. I could just go and enjoy her. So I made the decision that I was going to make my colts as good as I could, and I sold several. I sold a couple of mares. When I was ready to really to start looking for something that horse was on the top of my list."

After visiting with Walker, who discussed things with Hill, Magdeburg booked a flight to Utah. In the meantime, Walker and CoCo went on a winning spree in the Northwest, winning the Sand Cup Maturity on a standard pattern and then turning in 13-second runs to win the VGBRA Maturity.

"I knew she was just as good as she was a year ago when I really watched her and first got interested in her," said Magdeburg. "We were really excited about flying out there to try her. When I got there I loved everything about her. Vauna is such a cool lady and she has such a neat way with all her horses. She just said, 'I don't really like to give a lot of instruction when people come try my horses. I just prefer you get on her and cruise her through. If it fits, it fits.' My first time on her I think I was 5th or 6th on her out of 300 horses there at Heber City.

"My husband and I talked about it and decided that she was the total package. She's got a huge win record. She's bred really well. She doesn't have any quirks about her. She doesn't have any bad habits.

She's sound. She's just everything that I've ever wanted. Vauna just did an amazing job training her and hauling her and making her the solid horse that she is."

CoCo's first run in Magdeburg's possession was the Old Fort Days Derby at the end of May, where they just missed making the finals.

"I've only got to run her about 10 times," she said. "With each run I'm getting more and more timing with her. I don't want to run her too much. I want to take good care of her and save her for the good stuff."

For now, Magdeburg has the Hutt Six Memorial Derby in Shawnee, Okla., and The American qualifier in Loveland, Colo. She also plans on running at the WRPA Finals in Waco and BFA World Championships in Oklahoma City.

"I've never had anything like her," she said. "She has it all. She's so gritty. She tries so hard every single time. She's just determined to win and do good. She's a happy horse. She's friendly. She's a great horse to have on the road; she's got a great appetite. She drinks good. The heat doesn't bother her. She's really got it all going on."

Magdeburg wanted to thank Vauna and her husband Randy for all their help.

"She and her husband Randy were just so helpful," she said. "Vauna's so nice and so friendly. I just love her. I talk to her all the time. I send her pictures of CoCo all the time. I had always respected her for a long time. I really appreciate all her help. CoCo is such a solid, confident horse you can tell she's been in good hands her whole life. I want to thank her for doing such a great job of training CoCo and being such a great friend."

She also wanted to thank her family for all their help and support, noting that she literally couldn't do this without them.

"I need to thank my family so much," she said. "For me to go anywhere, it's a huge family event—getting everything packed and having someone to watch the baby. My husband's helping me, my parents are helping me, and my brothers are helping me. I'm finally adjusting to getting my stuff packed, the baby's stuff packed, the horses' stuff packed, my dog's stuff packed...I just thank my family for all their help in every way."

THE RUNDOWN with Kelsey Lutjen

KN Fabs Gift Of Fame

2009 Paloino Mare, 15.1 hands

LTE: $85,000+

DESCRIBE YOUR RUNS: She was very solid over the weekend, she ran inside all winter and spring and then went outside to the rodeos, excluding Nampa, Idaho (that was inside) where she won 4th. Now we have come back inside and she's adjusted really well. She ran two 14.9's to win both rounds and the average. She's very consistent! She enjoys her job!

HOW DO YOU KEEP SO CONSISTENT? Everything stays the same and she loves her job. All my horses have to go on and be rodeo horses after their futurity year so I really focus on keeping things consistent, staying clam, walking in the arena, etc. She has a really good mind so she has come pretty natural. I believe in a horse being very broke before they ever see a barrel. I want a strong foundation before any pressure or speed is asked for. I don't believe in performance enhancing drugs given to my horses to run them on. I focus on just making 1 smooth run at a time. She gets to see cattle and do other stuff besides just running barrels FUTURE PLANS: I will finish out the futurities this year and take her to the derby at the BFA. I plan to rodeo on her next year and make the circuit finals. We will see where it gets us!

BIT: Neil Merrill short shakn with twisted dog bone mouth-piece

HEAD GEAR: None

SADDLE: Larry Coats

SADDLE PAD: Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: RES sport boots on front & RES polo wraps on back

FEED: Purina Strategy Healthy Edge grain

HAY: Good alfalfa/grass mix

ADDITIONAL CARE & SHOEING: My boyfriend, Rob Webb, shoes her. He keeps her very well balanced. She also wears a Flair strip every run. She does not bleed but they are a great preventative for that!

SPONSORS: RES Boots, Flair Nasal Strips, Rock N Roll Cowgirl, Formula 1, and Silver Lining Herbs

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A friend passed this along to me and it's worth repeating. It's the Top Ten Predictions for the year.

1. The Bible will still have all the answers.
2. Prayer will still be the most powerful thing on earth.
3. The Holy Spirit will still move.
4. God will still honor the praises of His people.
5. There will still be God-anointing preaching.
6. There will still be singing of praise to God.
7. God will still put out blessings upon His people.
8. There will still be room at the Cross.
9. Jesus will still love you.
10. Jesus will still save the lost when they come to Him.

With all the problems in the world today, it's good to remember who is really in control. Remember, too, that the Word of the Lord endures forever. (1 Peter 1:25)

If you've made Jesus your Lord and Savior, you have nothing to fear in this world. Second Timothy 1:7 says God hasn't given us a spirit of fear but rather he has given us power, love and a sound mind.

Corrie Ten Boom's advice is still true today when she said, "Never be afraid to trust an unknown future to a know God." Hallelujah!

Mike Morrison and his wife Sherry are ordained ministers in their own nondenominational church in Gillette, WY. They also travel widely as circuit riders ministering over a large area of the western states.
