Silver Lining For Makenzie Mayes & Chicado Moon at Horse Heaven Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

When Makenzie Mayes made the fastest run of the rodeo in the short round of the Horse Heaven Round-Up, August 19-23, in Kennewick, Washington, her greatest joy was knowing that her talented mare Chicado Moon (“Rousey”) was feeling well.

The rookie title contenders from Scroggins, Texas, had a miscue the day before when they ran into the gate at Bremerton, Washington.

“I guess she didn’t see it,” Mayes said. “I was like, ‘Turn left! Turn left! She just kept running straight. I was like, ‘Oh crap! Turn right! Then we ran out of room, and we just smacked it. It was terrible! My whole leg is black and blue!’”

Not surprisingly, both horse and rider were sore from the impact. Thanks to fellow competitor McKenna Coronado’s therapeutic shockwave, Rousey was feeling better in time for her second run at Kennewick.

“I’m very thankful for the friends that I’ve made out here who have been taking care of me,” she added.

The $25,000-added at Kennewick is a long round, short and aggregate. Mayes and Rousey had their first run in slack and made the top 12 cutoff for the short round. In the Finals (short round), only 11 contestants actually ran as there was a tie between Wenda Johnson and Halyn Lide for 12th-place. Rather than take 13, rules allow rodeos to drop to 11.

Mayes and Rousey won the rodeo by more than 2/10ths of a second with runs of 17.2 and 16.97.

She said the ground was the biggest difference between the two runs.

“The ground was much better for the short go,” she said. “(Rousey) just did really well there. She just liked it. She usually gets better her second run anyway. She just really fired her second good and feeling good.”

The 7-year-old mare, bred by Jolene Montgomery, is by rising sire Guys Canyon Moon out of Jud Little’s carefully cultivated maternal lineage. Rousey’s dam is the Chicado Cash daughter Chicados Bully, who is out of the winning Bully Bowlan Bug, Less Return mare Return Of The Bully.

“It was nice to know that my horse was not sore and feeling good after Bremerton,” Mayes noted. “I was a little worried about her.”

The Kennewick victory was worth $7,773.

“The wins definitely help you stay out here,” she said. “I’m very thankful for it.”

Mayes and Rousey also picked up $486 for placing 12th at the daughter of a two-time NFR qualifier in the calf roping and granddaughter of a barrel racing qualifier.

This week, Mayes has Ellensburg, Washington, Filer, Idaho, Walla Walla, Washington, and Lakeview, Oregon. If she does well at Ellensburg, she'll likely have to turn out of one of the other rodeos.

"We're going to try to send Rousey home to Texas after next week so I can run her at Abilene and Albuquerque," she said. "I'll run my other horse (Kita Rita, Rousey's paternal half-sister) at Pendleton. After that, I'll either head home or fly home. We're just trying to get into the last leg and make every one of our runs count."

Of her rookie year adventures in the Northwest, Mayes said she knew the pens would be big, but she didn't realize how many were set to WPROA Standard Patterns.

"The biggest surprise out here has been how well my horses have handled it," she said. "Both of them have only ran close to home and pretty much all in Texas, so them coming out here and running on Standards, and Rousey running multiple 16s on Standards has been pretty awesome."

The toughest part is all of the driving. Thankfully, the hauls weren't too bad last week with the exception of the new rim and tire she had to get on Monday before leaving Coeur d'Alene for Ellensburg.

"The traveling has been hard to adjust to, just being away from home," Mayes said. "Before this year, I'd never been away from home more than a week. Getting out here and having to stay out here has been pretty hard."

She's been alone for most of it.

"I've had a few people come out here, here and there, but other than that I've been by myself," she said. "Over the Fourth, my mom came out and during Cheyenne I had some friends come and watch."

It's been worth it for the rodeo experience.

"The crowds out here are great," she said. "I think the crowds out here are crazier than they are at home. They really get into the rodeos."

"I've enjoyed just getting to meet new people and make lifelong friends out here."

Wenda Johnson and Mo Earn $8,300 to Hold at Number 15 in the World Standings

By Julie Mankin

Highpoint Barrel Horses' bay NFR gelding Steal Money ("Mo") always turns heads, but the 9-year-old former racehorse made one of the best runs of his life at last weekend's Golden Spike Rodeo in Tremonton, Utah.

Wenda Johnson piloted Mo to a 16.94, which edged Lisa Lockhart's 16.97 by just three-hundredths and Carlee Otero's 16.98 by four-hundredths for that whopping $6,642 first-place paycheck.

"Mo is a special horse and a winner," said Johnson. "I'm grateful when it all comes together and it feels smooth, because smooth is fast. The best part is how proud he feels after his runs. It's amazing to witness."

Tremonton was so tough and so tight that a nice 17.2 by Calgary champ Anita Ellis didn't even break the top 10. The same weekend, Johnson hauled Mo up to Bremerton, Wash., where her 17.19 split sixth at the Kitsap Stampede for another $1,645.

Johnson said the tall pine trees in the forest around the Bremer-ton venue were fun for Mo to explore. This was only her second time entering the late-summer rodeos in the Northwest, where she's grateful to the committees that brought in professional crews to prepare the ground.

McKenna Coronado banked $7,563 over the weekend to leapfrog Tricia Aldridge into 13th unofficially, while Johnson's weekend haul of $8,287 pushed her past $100,000 on the season. Despite Leslie Smalygo's hefty Bremerton check, Johnson should retain her 15th-place ranking in her quest for a sixth straight NFR qualification.

"Ideally, I like to be secure enough in the standings to be home by this point," said Johnson, who should probably be called Dr. Johnson since she has a doctorate in nursing. Her husband Tyson is VP of Operations for a California-based ranching company that owns the 70,000-acre cattle ranch in Pawhuska, Oklahoma, where they live with their two daughters.

"My girls and husband were with me most of the summer," said Wenda, who while in Kennewick stayed with "amazing friends" that raised Dreams First Flash ("Flash") – the horse that started her down the path of professional rodeo. "It's memories we'll always cherish."

Being on the bubble is a challenge, mentally, and Johnson said her strategies are to use critical thinking skills, stay emotionally mature, and realize what's actually attainable. She takes each run as it comes.

"Whether things are going amazing or factors are out of our hands, it's important to realize there's a bigger plan that we may not see and we need to trust our heavenly Father," said Johnson. "Regardless of the outcome, it's a blessing to have these amazing horses in our life."

and out of a Streakin Six/Special Effort mare.

Highpoint bought Mo in 2022 from Tres Mesa Horses, who had claimed him on the racetrack when he was 3. Johnson was at the reins on him at rodeos when he was a 5-year-old.

“Being a part of Mo’s progression has been amazing,” she said. “He’s always been a firecracker and ready to go at a moment’s notice. He’s also smart, and has always wanted to show off – that confidence helped him adapt to rodeoing.”

Will Harrington & Zeros French Socks Clean House at 3rd Annual Bring The Heat

By Tanya Randall

Will Harrington celebrated his 17th birthday by making a clean sweep of the open and high stakes races at the 3rd Annual Bring The Heat Race, held August 21-23 at the FENCE Center in Tryon, North Carolina.

“It was a great birthday weekend,” said Harrington.

The Carrollton, Georgia, barrel racer collected $12,985 on the weekend with four horses. His superstar was Zeros French Socks (“Ruby”), owned by Kaitlin Gann.

The daughter of BHR Frenchies Socks, out of David Williamson’s Famous Jr mare HF Famous Zero, won $8,807. She won Friday’s $750-added Open and $750-added high stakes as well as the $3,000-added Open and $10,000-added Leslie Willis High Stakes on Saturday.

Harrington’s only been running Ruby since June. Bring The Heat was their fourth barrel race together. They won Friday’s race by 3/10ths and Saturdays by a little more than 2/10ths of a second. “They were definitely fast,” said Harrington. “I was not expecting that at all going into the weekend.”

Ruby lives with Gann and Harrington only climbs aboard at shows. They don’t even take exhibitions before their runs with Harrington riding her on feel alone.

“She’s really fast in her turns and sometimes she’ll throw you off balance,” he said of the mare he describes as having the perfect bal-

$371,000 Raised for Leslie Willis!

Barrel racers from across the country came together to support Leslie Willis at the 3rd Annual Bring The Heat Race, held August 21-23 in Tryon, North Carolina. Between the online and in-person silent auctions $371,000 was raised for Willis, an all-time leading futurity trainer who was seriously injured in late June.

“I hate the circumstances,” said Mikey Callahan of Aloha Acres, who produced the race. “but I’m so glad to see people in the industry willing to take up this fight with her and try to help the way they have.”

Callahan, along with his wife Leah, Dawn and Ricky Glass and countless others, put together the benefit in a matter of weeks. The online auction featured several industry leading stallions as well as training fees, private lessons and small group clinics with some of the all-time leading riders.

“Everyone was more than willing to help, and the generosity was overwhelming,” said Callahan. “I reached out to a lot of the stallion owners, and I don’t think I had a single one tell me ‘No.’ I’d say half of the ones that were on it reached out to me once they heard about it. A lot of it was people volunteering without being asked.”

Callahan said the Willises were overwhelmed by the generosity. Jason posted on Facebook: “We are truly overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and support we’ve received during this auction. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you to everyone who donated items, placed bids, shared posts and cheered us on.”

ance between rate and run.

Harrington won $2,106 on his own gelding Roc The Lane (“Roc”), a 6-year-old, by JL Sirocco out of the Stoli mare Stolis Girl, a half-sister to Sharin Hall’s late great producer Go Go Fame. Roc was second to Ruby in Friday’s races and the weekend’s open 1D average.

“We just got him,” said Harrington. “We’ve had him about four months. I’ve been having some bad luck with him lately, but I think I’ve got him figured out now. He had some great runs this weekend. We finally got it all put together.”

Harrington climbed back aboard Rebels Buggin Fame (“Turner”), whom he rode to the NBHA World Open 2D title, to pick up another $1,136 in Saturday’s High Stakes for third in the 3D. The 10-year-old Streaking Ta Fame gelding, out of the Rebel Dasher mare Shea Rebel Bug, belongs to Abigail Poe.

“She wanted me to ride him in the slot race this weekend because she had four horses in it," he said. "It was a last minute thing. We decided right before the run."

Rounding out Harrington's quartet of money-earners was Flat Get It Farm's Blazinredrhinestones ("Stella"), a 10-year-old daughter of Blazin Jetolena out of the Jet Of Honor mare Dyna Rae Honor. Stella placed fifth in the high stakes on Friday and won the Open 2D average for $936.

"I've been running her since May," said Harrington. "I've had some good luck with her."

Harrington, who is training to be a welder when not training horses, has been barrel racing seriously since 2019. His mom, Blair McClure, got him started on a pony when he was younger, and his stepdad Andy has been one of the driving forces in his barrel racing career.

HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PINK BUCKLE BARREL RACE AT THE LAZY E ARENA

Young Guns League Announces Special Enrollment – November 1 Deadline!

The Young Guns League is giving breeders & owners one more chance to get in on one of the most exciting opportunities in the barrel racing industry, with a special enrollment deadline of November 1. Created to encourage growth and genetic diversity in the sport, the Young Guns League showcases the progeny of up-and-coming stallions on a national platform. By limiting competition to foals from Young Guns League stallions, the playing field is leveled—allowing young sires to prove themselves while their progeny run for guaranteed payouts. The 2025 YGL Futurity and YGL Derby are held alongside the prestigious Pink Buckle each year, with:

$250,000 GUARANTEED payout Futurity | $250,000 GUARANTEED payout Derby

Only Young Guns League stallions and their progeny are eligible. Once a stallion's oldest foals reach 8 years of age, that stallion ages out of the program—but nominated foals remain eligible for life as long as annual nominations are maintained.

Special 2024-2025 Enrollment Offer: We know incentive rules can be overwhelming, and we don't want anyone to miss out just because they weren't enrolled in our inaugural year. For this year only, if you missed enrolling in 2024, you can catch up by paying: $325 for 2024 + $220 for 2025 = $545 total

This special enrollment offer is valid until NOVEMBER 1, 2025. Enrollments for all horses close December 1 ($350 for 2025 enrollment fee) and if you miss this date, your horse will be ineligible for the program going forward. CONTACT THE OFFICE TO ENROLL TODAY: OFFICE@PINKBUCKLE.COM

*Important: If you plan to run in the 2025 YGL Futurity or Derby, your horse must be nominated before the August 25, 2025 entry deadline.

Carlee Otero and Stetson Wright Named Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hands for 2025

A month ago Utah's Pioneer Week wrapped up with the conclusion of rodeos in Ogden, Salt Lake City and Spanish Fork. In 2023, the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo spearheaded this initiative to feature these three rodeos within 150-mile radius of each other offering a two-million-dollar week for professional rodeo athletes. They then collaborated with the State of Utah to recognize Utah's Pioneer Week Top Hands by offering a $15,000 bonus for the top earning male and female athlete across these Utah rodeos.

The 2025 Utah Pioneer Week Top Hands are Stetson Wright and Carlee Otero. Wright competing in saddle bronc riding and bull riding won the all-around title at both Ogden and Spanish Fork where the bulk of his $48,000 was won at these three rodeos. He cashed in every time he nodded his head at these three rodeos during Pioneer Week the third week of July.

It was a good week for the Otero family as well. WPRA barrel racer Carlee finished atop the medal stand in Salt Lake City to win over $19,450 and added over $9,000 in Ogden bringing her weekly total to just over $28,500. She led all WPRA members in money won at those three events. Her husband, Michael, also added nearly $15,000 to the family's bank account after a silver medal showing in tie-down roping in Salt Lake City.

Stetson Wright and Carlee Otero will be officially honored and presented with their bonus during the Governor State of Sport Banquet at the Delta Center in Salt Lake City in April of 2026.

The State of Utah celebrates Pioneer Week the third week of July with the culmination of the celebration being July 24, marking the day when Brigham Young and a determined company of Mormon pioneers realized their dreams upon entering the Great Salt Valley. Rodeo has long played a part during this celebration with the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo, the Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo and the Ogden Pioneer Days all being contested during this time.

"Utah has always supported the Western lifestyle that harkens back to the pioneer heritage and history," stated Tommy Joe Lucia, Executive Director of Utah Days of '47 Rodeo. "We are honored to continue to keep this front and center in today's society in collaboration with our fellow Pioneer Week rodeos. To be able to recognize these rodeo athletes alongside Olympic and professional athletes is a true honor."

Former winners include WPRA barrel racers Jordon Briggs (2023) and Kassie Mowry (2024) along with PRCA team ropers Tyler Wade and Wesley Thorp (2023) and tie-down roper Marty Yates (2024).

Created in 2012, the Governor's State of Sport Awards celebrates Utah's sports industry and honors excellence in high school, collegiate, adaptive, professional, Olympic and Paralympic sports. The Utah Sports Commission is the proud host of the Governor's State of Sport Awards which has honored Utah's finest athletes, teams, coaches, events, and numerous Utah sports icons.

Utah is known as the State of Sport — and for good reason! Through the years of appreciation for adventure, Utah has carved out a distinct reputation as the premier sport destination for Olympic, professional, amateur and action sporting events. By leveraging their world-class venues and awe-inspiring backdrops, Utah also has an established reputation as a top international sports destination. In July of 2024, they were officially awarded the 2034 Olympic Winter Games marking the second time Salt Lake City has been chosen to welcome the world for the Olympic Games.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm sure there are many of you that have attended your high school class reunions. Bet some of you had a great time and some hated it. I just attended another one last weekend. It was great! Many of us still have some of the same friends from high school. Some of us never look back.

On my way home from the last night of the reunion, I believe the Lord asked me, "What kind of a friend are you?" Well, of course I thought, "I'm a GREAT friend!" But it gave me something to think about.

As Christians, do you influence your friends, by your actions, to act right, live right, and speak right? OR. Do you do the right thing on Sundays and the rest of the week have one foot planted firmly in the Word and one foot planted firmly in the world? If you do, it's easier to shift your weight with whatever group you happen to be with.

That my friends, is not a good thing!

Matthew 5:14-16 tells us we are a light of the world, and we shouldn't hide it. If you catch yourself compromising the Word this week, stop, repent and let yourself shine!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
