Mega Bucks for Holland & Routines Easy Money in Jackson

By Tanya Randall

Throughout his barrel racing career, Heath Holland has been a 1D contender. Yet the one thing he was lacking was that big title, that big win, we all dream about. Holland finally got his big win, aboard his childhood partner Routines Easy Money ("Rose"), with an $8,000 victory at The Mega, held Aug. 22-24 in Jackson, Miss.

"It hasn't really sunk in yet that I won The Mega," said Holland, a 21-year-old junior business major at the University of North Georgia. "I'm so happy, thrilled and blessed. It's been a long time dream of mine to win a big one like that. It feels really good that it was Rose that did for me. She's getting some age on her, but she's always been a good horse for me.

Rose, a 17-year-old sorrel daughter of Easy Routine out of the On The Money Red mare More Red Roses, has been in the Holland family's barn since she was a 2-year-old. With Holland's dad Keith in the saddle, the mare "won quite a bit" as a futurity horse before becoming a top youth—and open—mount.

"She's just been a hard-knocking horse for us," said Holland, who calls Lavonia, Ga., home. "She's not like that freak horse that goes in there and shames everybody. She's just always been right there for us. She has a lot of heart."

Holland joked that Rose ended up being a family horse because no one would buy her because of disposition.

"We never could sell her to anybody because she was so mean," he laughed. "Everybody that knows her is like, 'Oh Rose, better step back.' She's definitely got a personality about her. She's ALL mare." In 2009, Rose and Holland won a round in the teen division at the NBHA Youth World in Jackson, but prior to this year's trip to Mississippi, the mare was supposed to be retired. But late this spring, she was brought back as a last minute replacement for a jackpot. She let them know what she thought of retirement.

"We lounged her and I rode her like once that week and she went down to the barrel race and won it," said Holland, who is sponsored by Impact Gel. "I guess she doesn't want to have babies. She'll tell us when she's ready to retire."

He took her to The Mega, thinking she'd be a solid bet for the 2D. And for the most part, she was, qualifying for the finals in the first round with a 2D run of 14.634. Her second run was even slower, a 14.708.

"The first and second go, she worked fair," he explained. "She qualified back in the 2D, but she didn't have great runs. I thought if I just left them up in the finals I might have a chance for a 2D check. Then my first run, the horse I thought I had a shot on, he just didn't fire. I think he ran a .4 and I knew I wasn't going to get anything with it."

When it came time for Rose's run, the mare was just different. Just as it had when he won the go at the NBHA Youth World, a storm blew through and Rose changed.

"She was really mellow loping circles and then the thunder and lightning and the rain came pouring down, and she perked her ears up and changed," said Holland, having trouble explaining the change in Rose. "She started trying to run over me and my dad. I don't know it was just different. She usually gets a little antsy at the gate, but she FLAT-FOOTED walked in the gate. I was like, 'Oh, she's going to high lope' and then she took off!"

"It was just a different feel. Her first and second barrel were probably the best I've ever had on her. She was running so hard. Going to the third barrel, I was just thinking to myself, 'Please don't mess up. Please don't mess up.' Then she slipped behind it. When she slipped, she stayed on the move and I never brought back to the middle of the alley.

Run, Baby, Run, BLS Sale Report

Rodeo ready, jackpot winners, and plenty of prospects, the barrel horses and speed bred kind shined at Billings Livestock's "August Special Catalog Sale" August 24-25.

The big summer weekend welcomed 701 head of horses and kicked off Friday afternoon with a UBRC "Pistols and Crystals" tour stop barrel race while Sunday's annual "Montana Miniature and Pony" sale wrapped up the two-day event.

She left no doubt about her talent in the preview, and Hip 165 "Lucky Lenas Charge" a 1999 AQHA Gray Mare x Jet N Go x Easy Jet could flat out "get it" around the barrels and was the weekend's top selling horse. The one-owner mare came consigned by Allan and Shannon Olson, White River, SD, and had cashed paychecks at Pro rodeos, open rodeos, won saddles in the 1-D division at jackpots, and was ready-to-rodeo. Bonny Holt, Hemet, CA purchased the quality mare for $10,000.

A quality driven market saw the top five average $7,050; top ten at $6,110; top 20 brought $5,407; top 50 average $4,176; and the top 100 horses brought $3,072.

Loose horses remained steady with a push on the prospects where the top three selling loose horses brought $1,700; $1,550; and $1,450.

Billings Livestock's annual "Cow Country Classic" catalog sale is next on the BLS Sale agenda September 28-29. See it all at www.billingslivestock.com or contact Bill and Jann Parker, BLS Horse Sale Managers at 406-245-4151.

AQHA Cloning Lawsuit Update

Judge Mary Lou Robinson has issued a final judgment in the cloning lawsuit in which she awarded close to $900,000 in attorney fees to the plaintiffs in addition to entering an injunction requiring AQHA to immediately begin registering clones and their offspring.

AQHA will file a motion to stay the enforcement of the judgment pending the outcome of the appellate process. In the interim, AQHA has started the process of incorporating the court's rules to accept the registration of horses produced by cloning as set forth in the final judgment.

On the subject of actual damages, while the jury found that AQHA violated anti-trust laws, they awarded no damages to the plaintiffs despite the plaintiffs' demand for $5.7 million in damages.

"Although the jury's verdict found that our Association's decision to refuse to register clones and their offspring was in violation of antitrust laws, we strongly believe in the right of our members and our directors to make such registration decisions on their own. We also believe in this case that there has been no violation of antitrust law" said AQHA Executive Vice President Don Treadway. "Therefore, AQHA will continue to take any and all necessary legal steps in seeking to have the final judgment entered by the court in favor of the plaintiffs reversed."

In addition to filing a motion to stay the enforcement of the judgment pending AQHA's appeal, AQHA will also file a motion for judgment as a matter of law in which AQHA will request the court enter a take nothing judgment in favor of AQHA based upon the fact that the jury's verdict was not supported by the evidence entered at trial.

Should the court deny AQHA's motion for judgment as a matter of law, then AQHA will proceed with the appeal of this ruling by filing a notice of appeal. This will begin the appellate process as the case heads to the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, Louisiana.

"It is clear from the phone calls, e-mails and posts by our members that they are very disappointed in the verdict" said AQHA President John Dobbs. "They continue to be against registering clones and their offspring for a number of reasons, and they object to this verdict as it represents a complete shift away from the sire-dam paradigm upon which all of our rules and processes are based, and which have governed our association for nearly 75 years. We appreciate our membership's support, and want them to know that we will continue to fight for their right to determine the rules that govern their association"

"We have received many questions regarding insurance coverage in this case," said Don Treadway. "Like many responsible corporations, AQHA proactively carries insurance and has a policy in the present case. We will keep the membership updated regarding developments in this case." --Courtesy of www.AQHA.com

I just let her stay on the move and she fired out really hard. When I saw the time I was shocked.”

They'd cut the clock off in 14.145.

“The Mega is the toughest open race in the country and with 350 horses back, there's a least one 1D horse per drag; It's stacked,” he said. “I didn't think it was actually going to hold. I'm just so blessed and happy that it did.

“I would never dream that if I'd won the Mega it would be on her, but I really glad it was her. You don't have horses forever and she's always been really special to me.”

Holland wanted to thank his parent, Keith and Jeanie for all their help and support, Double J Arena for allowing him to escape the wet weather to leg his horse up and all the friends and supporters.

“I'd like to thank everyone that congratulated me and was cheering for me,” he said. “It really means a lot.”

2013 Fulton Performance Horse and Production Sale Results

2013 Fulton Performance Horse and Production Sale Results August 24, 2013, Valentine, NE

The 2013 Fulton Performance Horse & Production Sale was held August 23, 2013 with a large, energetic crowd in attendance at the Cherry Country Fairgrounds in Valentine, NE. People showed up looking for good prospects to head to the roping boxes and barrel pens across the country. After Fulton Ranch's, A Streak Of Fling, was named the #5 Barrel Sire For All Ages, All Divisions for 2012 according to Equistat, interest in his foals was peaked at the annual sale. His riding 2 year olds averaged a nice $15,708 while his weanlings averaged $12,000 as well.

Topping the sale was Lot 10, Streakin French TJ, sired by A Streak Of Fling out of the good Frenchmans Guy mare, French TJ Grey. The cross of two leading performance sires, A Streak Of Fling with Frenchmans Guy, the $6 million dollar sire, stirred a lot of interes. This sharp, well muscled mare showed the maturity and class to head to the winners circle in the barrel futurity world. Consigned by Fulton Performance, this nice mare sold for $27,500 to Monica McClung of Oklahoma.

The offspring of Junior sire, CS Flashlight, were also well received with his riding 2 year olds averaging $10,856 and his weanlings averaging $6,000. In fact, he was the sire of 2nd high seller, BHR Light My Fire. BHR Light My Fire by CS Flashlight and out of the Shake It Special mare, Bhr Missy Special si 93. This quiet, calm, stakes winning 2 year old stud, right off the racetrack, had already earned a 90 speed index and $10,755 on the track and traces back to the foundation female line of the highly respected Broken Heart Ranch breeding program. Chad and Lisa Pederson of the Broken Heart Ranch offered this flashy 2 year old stallion and he sold for $26,000 to Debbie and Mike Hertz of Canada.

The 3rd high seller of the day was an A Streak Of Fling 2 year old gelding named Justa Touch Of Fame, out of the Dash Ta Fame mare, Lil Touchafame. This product of the popular cross of A Streak Of Fling on a mare out of the All Time Leading Barrel Horse Sire, Dash Ta Fame, garnered a lot of interes. Fulton Performance horses ended up selling this shapey roan gelding built for speed for $23,000 to Barbara Johnson of Arizona.

The sale goers were also introduced to new Fulton Ranch sire, A Dash Ta Streak. A flashy bay roan, just like his sire A Streak Of Fling, A Dash Ta Streak is out of the great Dash Ta Fame mare, Silver Creek Dash. Silver Creek Dash represents one of the best daughters of Dash Ta Fame and has been a top cross for A Streak Of Fling. Look for A Dash Ta Streak in the performance arena in

Making 'em Famous in McCook

By Julie Mankin

A Cinderella story came full circle on Aug. 23-25 at Lynn Kohr's 6th Annual Roper Barrel Futurity in McCook, Neb.

Eighteen months ago, Danny Ray of Victory Farms picked out a relatively obscure trainer from southeast Colorado and handed her one of the very first babies by his 7-year-old stud, hoping for magic. Last weekend, the part-time school nurse and colt by Born Ta Be Famous hit their first home run.

Years ago, Lori [Diodosio] brought a gray gelding to the Speed-horse down here and kicked all of our butts, and I'd never heard of her," said Ray. "Then in my opinion, she disappeared and I never really saw her again."

But then he bumped into her in Lincoln, Neb., at the 2011 WPRA World Finals.

"I approached her and said, 'You have way too much talent and you're wasting it. How about riding for me?'" recounted Ray. "She just didn't have the horsepower a lot of people have. I told her I would give it to her if she's ride for me."

Diodosio agreed to the partnership, and VF Call Me Famous soon arrived at her door. While Diodosio hadn't actually "disappeared," Ray had been right about her horsepower.

"I had horses, they just weren't the highest quality," said Diodosio, who has been married to team roper and Fowler, Colo., church pastor Mike Diodosio for almost 21 years. Their daughter, Dolly, is 13 and also a barrel racer who has been running Ivy Conrado's Little Fancy Granny ("Racey") – the dam of Kelly Conrado's blazing fast filly CFour Tibbie Stinson.

At McCook, Diodosio and VF Call Me Famous won the two-run average by three-tenths of a second to earn $4,097.

The two had been knocking at the door all season. For instance, they hit a barrel to make it back at the Diamonds and Dirt Futurity and were just out of making the finals at Fort Smith (before clocking the third-fastest time of the consolation round). The duo also would have placed at the recent Cornhusker Futurity if not for a penalty.

"We had the barrel blues a little bit, plus he was pretty hot at the earlier futurities," said Diodosio. "He hadn't figured out how to handle all the speed. We always rope on our 3-year-olds, and he was even hot doing that. He just wants to do everything and get it done fast."

As pleased as Ray is with his decision to snap up this trainer out of the rural countryside, he's just as pleased with Born Ta Be Famous. After all, the palomino son of Dash Ta Fame and SX Frenchman's Vanila literally was born to be famous. When Lori won the second round at McCook, second place went to Sam Flannery on UX Sweet Vanilla Fame, who runs and turns almost identical to her half-brother by Born Ta Be Famous.

"This is his very first crop to barrel race," said Ray. "We're excited. Also, the top selling horse this year at the Lance Graves Pro Classic Sale was a 3-year-old by him that brought $80,000. Born Ta Be Famous is really starting to make a splash."

As for Famous, his dam is a Sticks An Stones daughter out of a thoroughbred granddaughter of Raise A Native. Ray also owned the late Sticks An Stones – an own son of Easy Jet out of a Tiny Charger daughter – for the last decade of his life.

"I love that stud's daughters in my broodmare herd," said Ray, who notes that he also raised [recent Josey Junior World Champion and Cornhusker Derby Champion] VF Rock Grinder by Sticks An Stones. "I have a 7/8 brother to Famous out of the same dam and we also have a top prospect for next year out of a different Sticks An Stones daughter. I love Sticks An Stones babies. They have a lot of grit; toughness. They're not easy, but once you get them there, they'll take you to the pay window and not ever short-change or quit you. They have a tremendous amount of heart."

Ray has stacked his stud deck with Born Ta Be Famous along with Famous Gold Coin and Eddie Stinson, hoping one of them would become the new replacement for Dash Ta Fame. He's on the right track, as progeny of all three are becoming "famous." As for Diodosio, she got to go to Ardmore last fall and pick out her own futurity colt for 2014 and 2015.

"Danny had this long shed row and there had to be about 50 horses," she marveled. "He said, 'Go pick one out.' How do you do that? I did, but then I was second-guessing myself and thinking I should have picked a different one! I called and told him, 'I don't think you can do that to me again!' With 2-year-olds, you just have no idea."

Luckily, she says all is going great so far, however, with the 3-year-old by the now-deceased VF Famous Freddie (Dash Ta Fame/Raise Your Glass/Johnny Dial) and the 2-year-old by Dean Miracle (Streakin Six/Tiny Watch).

Myers Performance Horse Prospect Sale

August 24, 2013, Spearfish, South Dakota

2013 Myers Performance Horse Prospect Sale

The Myers Training Stables, home of $6 million dollar sire Frenchmans Guy, hosted their 2013 Myers Performance Horse Prospect Sale at Seven Down Arenas in Spearfish, SD on Saturday, August 24, 2013. The enthusiastic crowd came to see some of the top bred prospects in the country hit the sale ring. From the beginning until the end of the sale the bidders were after the best of the best.

Guys Best Bet (Lot 2), by Frenchmans Guy and out of Addicted To Cash, the full sister to leading barrel sire Dash For Perks, stole the show in the preview and the excitement carried right over into the sales ring. After a spirited bout of bidding the final hammer dropped at $56,000 to make this classy filly the sale topper. Bill & Deb Myers consigned this confident, big time 2 year old sorrel filly with Harry LaToush of Kansas taking her home.

All you had to do was look over to the opposite page of the catalog to see the second high seller, Guys Sangria (Lot 3). The sharp profiling 2 year old sorrel mare by Frenchmans Guy and out of a top producing Hot Colours mare, Hot Brandi N Wine, a full sister to Futurity Champion, arena record setter and ProRodeo money earner, Guys Champagne Girl. With a family full of winners and looks to match the bidding went up to $35,000. Consigned by Bill & Deb Myers, the mare is headed to Montana and moving into the Copper Spring Ranch breeding and training program.

Guys Girls Have Fun, Lot 5, grabbed attention at the preview her fluid movement and good looks. This 2 year old filly is by $6 million dollar sire, Frenchmans Guy and out of the great Bully Bullion mare, Aint It Fun, who ran out $177,802 on the track and has produced another $242,450 in offspring earnings. With Bully Bullion also being a leading barrel sire, she was a can't miss barrel horse. Again consigned by Bill & Deb Myers, this fine filly was grabbed up by Monica McClung for $33,000 and is headed to Oklahoma.

As always the 2 year old riding offspring of Frenchmans Guy were the sale highlight with his 2 year olds selling for an average of $25,133 per head. For the second sale in a row, the buyers were excited about Myers Training Stables up and coming stallion, A Smooth Guy. His offspring averaged $21,000 as his first full crop of colts heads to the futurities in 2014.

Buyers came from 19 states and Canada to snap up these leading prospects. For more information about the sale or to view the full results go to www.FrenchmansGuy.com.

RFD-TV's introduces The American— The World's Richest $2 Million, One-Day Open Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

A week ago, RFD-TV announced the creation of The American, the World's Richest One-Day Rodeo with a payout of $2 million. The American will be held March 2, 2014 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. This one-of-a-kind rodeo will feature the Top 10 WPRA professionals at the conclusion of the 2013 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo as well as amateurs, who have earned the right to compete through qualifying events.

The American will award $100,000 to first and $25,000 to second in each event (two for team roping) for a total purse of $1 million. However, qualifiers who earn the right to compete at the event outside of professional rodeo will be eligible for a $1 million bonus to be split among victorious qualifiers. If only one qualifier wins his or her individual event, he or she will take home the entire million in addition to the $100,000 first-place check. If two qualifiers win their individual events, then they split the million.

Better Barrel Races (BBR) was invited to host the qualification process.

"The BBR is really excited to participate," said Robin Hofmann, Co-founder and CEO of the BBR. "This is about allowing the everyday people to compete in the same arena in the same NFR-like atmosphere with the best of the best."

In holding with their membership, men and children will have equal opportunity to compete for a spot in The American.

"If BBR is going to be a part of it, all BBR members have to be able to participate," said BBR Co-Founder and CEO Robin Hofmann. "We have men, women and children that are members."

Qualification for The American starts at Qualifier Sidepots held within open races at five BBR-sanctioned events across the country.

The first is September 28 in Loveland, Colo. Additional events are on October 12 in Lincoln, Neb., November 9 in Alvarado, Texas, November 23 in Jackson, Miss., and January 18 in Buckeye, Ariz.

"I think the qualifier in Arizona in going to be huge with so many people going to Arizona for the winter and the three futurities pulling trainers from all over," she says. "Plus, if you didn't get qualified at the previous ones, it's your last chance to qualify."

The top 10 from each Qualifier Sidepot move on to a Semi-Finals Rodeo in Mesquite, Texas, on Feb. 21-23.

Of the $500 entry fee for the Qualifier Sidepot, 100 percent will be paid back with 25 percent going to the initial qualification sidepot and 25 percent going to the semi-finals. The remaining 50 percent will be paid back at The American.

"If we have 1,000 entries over the five qualifiers, the semi-finals could potentially pay $25,000 to win it," notes Hofmann.

Contestants may enter the Qualifier Sidepots twice.

"You can enter two horses in the qualifications and you can move on to the semi-finals with two spots, but you can only move into The American with one," adds Hofmann. "That gives people multiple opportunities to get qualified if they're really interested in running at The American."

At the Mesquite Pro Rodeo, the Top 10 from each Qualifier Sidepot (50 runners total) will make one run in slack with the Top 20 making their runs in separate rodeo performances. The top 10 will advance to The American.

In addition to the 50 Qualifier contestants, the BBR World Champion will have the option to compete and earn a berth into The American, and The American Committee can also select two exceptions to join the field. In the case that two exemptions are selected, a match will be held at the semi-finals to determine who advances to The American.

Ultimately, the field for The American will consist of the Top 10 from the WRA World Standings post WNFR, the Top 10 qualifiers from the Semi-Finals, plus the option of a committee picked exemption for 21 total contestants.

The response to the event has been overwhelming.

"We've had a tremendous response. I can't remember the last time I've seen this much excitement in the industry. I'm even getting phone calls from calf ropers, team ropers and steer wrestlers," laughed Hofmann.

Since qualifiers have to be BBR members to compete, Hofmann said they've added some membership bonuses that go beyond being simply eligible to qualify for The American.

"We're trying to make it to where you get more bang for your buck with your membership," she said. "We are going to do Wildcards to the $50,000-added BBR Finals for all of the 11th-place qualifiers as a consolation type deal. That's a $225 value. We're going to do a slot race for the Top 50 American qualifiers at the BBR Finals. We'll do a free upgrade to gold card status to the Top 5 going to the semi-finals. That gives them entry into the gold card race with saddles to champions, VIP cantina passes and fast-lane check-in at the Finals so they don't have to get there a day early."

Early ticket sales for The American to BBR members and a drawing for two tickets to the BBR Suite are in the works as well.

"My hope is that an underdog wins it," said Hofmann, who acknowledged the BBR's relationship with Classic Equine as playing a large role in opening the door for their involvement in The American. "That would fire up so many people. Most of us just lack the confidence to try to do it. We have these women on a pedestal—that they deserve to be on—but at the end of the day, it's just three barrels, your horse and an arena. When you can block out all that other stuff, it's just three barrels."

First BBI of 2013 kicked off at the Barrel of Gold

--Horse Palace, Billings, Montana. This year is our biggest field of stallions, making it possible to add $2000 to three events. Thanks to Ross and Casey Wagner, Barrel of Gold organizers, for an exciting and well-run event. And many thanks to Bobby Miller who groomed the arena, providing excellent ground for all the barrel racing contestants. And thanks to Theresa Miller for providing the concessions, her taco-in-bag was excellent!

Now in its 15th year the Barrel Breeders Incentive was formed to promote our stallions as well as the sport of barrel racing. As stallion owners we want to give customers and barrel racing enthusiasts an added incentive to breeder to our stallions and purchase horses from us. Hope to see everyone at our next two events, Copper Spring Ranch Futurity & Derby, Bozeman, Montana, September 7-8 and JJK Series Finals Open 4D, Great Falls, Montana, September 14-15.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

A few weeks ago, I was impressed upon by God to share at The Barn something that happened in my family when I was 15. The bottom line was to encourage people that have "scars", to use their experience to help other people, whether it is physical, emotional, financial or relational.

Since that night, the Lord has had me mulling over just "how to" go about doing that in light of the Word and how we imitate Jesus. Well, first of all, since Jesus is our example in all things, I thought about when He was nailed to the cross. And later when He appeared to people, He evidently had big ole holes in His hands and that scar on His side. He would never be the same. He was HEALED..... but never the SAME. He died so we wouldn't have to....so could WE use what has happened to us so someone else won't have to go through what we did?

I'm not saying that we need to go back in our childhood (or yesterday) and dig all that old stuff up and relive it and agonize over it. However, if someone were to come into your life and had a problem (just like the healed scar you have), your experience could help them. Personally I don't want to have to learn everything in life the hard way! It hurts and it's not fun!

We are usually quick to offer our advice on things that are not personal. "Well, I tell you what! If I was president, I would or wouldn't do such and so". That's a no brainer since you and I are probably not going to be president....I think. And it's easy to tell someone, "No, seriously, Harry, keep your thumb up when dallying and don't get that rope under the horses ttttaaiiiiiiiii!"

If we loved others like Jesus loves us, we would not be afraid to lend a hand, encourage one another, or, as the Bible says, bear one another's burdens. You are valuable. You are unique. You can be a friend and a blessing to those around you. Give it a try! Reach out to someone! You'll be glad you did!
