Cheyenne Wimberley Wins Kennewick and Bremerton, Jumps into Top 15

By Tanya Randall

Two-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier Cheyenne Wimberley jumped into the WPRA Top 15 after a stellar weekend. The Stephenville, Texas, barrel racer picked up $13,511 for nearly winning every rodeo she entered.

"It was just an amazing weekend," said Wimberley. "To be doing it as long as I've done it and seeing it unfold, I just can't believe it's coming together like this. Those horses were working amazing. They made two runs that this weekend were just amazing, like when you came out you were just 'Wow! That was a heck of a run!' It's amazing to see those horses trying as hard as they've been trying. You've got to give it to them. We've had some hard luck out here, so to see them come together has been good. It was a great weekend at a much needed time. It was crucial."

Wimberley started out the week, running Dash Ta Suz ("Smooch") in slack at the $20,000-added Horse Heaven Round Up in Kennewick, Washington, on Wednesday. Their 17.250 would win the first round at the conclusion of the performances and advance to the 12-head short go.

On Thursday, she headed to the $10,000-added Kitsap Stampede in Bremerton, Washington, where she chose KN Fabs Mist Of Fame ("Misty") over her stablemate VQ Sucker Punch ("Rocko"), who had won money for her the weekend prior at Canby, Oregon, and Caldwell, Idaho.

"I thought about running him at Bremerton," she said of Rocko, "but I decided to run Misty since she hadn't been run at Kennewick. It looked like a pen for Misty, so we tried Misty."

Misty ended up winning Bremerton for $3,301. The 11-year-old mare got the call again on Friday at the $5,000-added Gem State Stampede in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. She led the Stampede until the very last day to finish second, earning $1,906.

On Saturday it was back to Kennewick with Dash Ta Suz, who took second in the Short Go to Mary Walker and Perculatin, to win the aggregate and $8,803.

The $13,511 weekend moved her from 17th in the Standings to 12th with $78,290.

"We didn't know you could win that much (in a weekend)," she said. "That was a pretty good jump. I had been winning $5-, 6-, $7,000 every week, but everyone else was winning that too. It was crazy. You were winning it, but they were winning it too, and you weren't seeing any kind of gain. It's like 'Dang! You've just got to keep you head down and keep moving because your horses are working. You've got to grind it out.'"

The grind has actually worked in her favor since it allows her to take advantage of the horsepower on her trailer. Smooch, who belongs to Steve Hurlbert, has been in her barn for three years. Robin first sent her Misty last fall, and she sent Rocko later in the spring. Although she had Misty longer, she wasn't able to run her as much during the winter rodeos because of breeding season.

"I have three in the trailer and they've all started getting run every weekend," she said. "It was like they were starting to get their running game in also, getting used to the bigger patterns, getting more air in them. Everybody in the trailer was showing up and trying."

The hectic schedule has allowed her to run each horse more, which has made them more successful because they're staying sharper.

"Each horse hasn't had a whole lot of runs," she explained. "I had spread them out so much that I don't think any one of them could get their groove on. One would run one week and then they wouldn't get run again for two weeks."

The trio is also a little light on rodeo experience. Smooch, an 8-year-old bay mare by Dash Ta Fame out of Hurlbert's Marthas Six Moons mare Six Moon Suz, made her first rodeo run late last summer.

"I wanted to see what she'd do in some bigger pens so for two weeks we set out," she related. "We went to Cheyenne, Utah and Deadwood and then home. That was the first time she'd ever been run outdoors."

The Kenny Nichols-bred, Jolene Montgomery trained Misty, by Frenchmans Fabulous out of the all-time leading broodmare Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, had some rodeo experience with Weaver. However, this year's haul has been the first true rodeo run for the aged event superstar.

Brandon Cullen's trained Rocko, by Dash Ta Fame out of Randy Ray Hulsey's Mr Honor Bound mare Honor This Nonstop, went on the road as a backup with Kassie Mowry in 2017.

"It wasn't like they came out here being seasoned rodeo horses," she said. "I had to get them used to the different things. Out West the ground is nothing like we have back East or in Texas. It dang sure is not like futurity ground. It's taken everyone a little while to get used to the rodeo road."

Wimberley said even though she'd rodeoed in the Northwest when she made the NFR in 1997 and 1998, a lot has changed, so they've all had a little bit of a learning curve.

"They don't even have some of the same rodeos that I went to before," she laughed. "Some are different arenas. Some have been built on to, so they don't feel like the arena they were before, or they're at new facilities. A lot of things have changed, since I was out here 20 years ago. A lot of the rodeos add more money. There were rodeos that you used to drive by that now add $10,000."

That makes it challenging trying to figure out which horse to run.

"Even when you have experience, there's a learning curve," she said. "When you haven't gone to the rodeos for a long time, you have to figure out what pen suits which horse. If they like a pen, they're generally going to repeat that performance in a similar pen. When it's your first time back out here you don't know where they're going to run good and what's going to suit them."

When Wimberley gets to a rodeo, she'll go check out the pen and decide which horse she'll ride. Once that decision is made, she doesn't second guess herself.

"I don't do any quarterbacking," she chuckled. "You've got to have a plan and stick to it or you will just go crazy."

Wimberley has Walla Walla and Ellensburg, Washington, this weekend, and Lewiston, Idaho, and Puyallup, Washington, the following week. She'll make her first run at the Pendleton Roundup in slack on Monday morning, September 9th, before heading south.

"It will be my first time at Pendleton," she said. "They didn't have barrel racing at Pendleton when I was out here before. That will be different. Of course, I don't know what horse I'm going to ride."

Even though, she's cracked the Top 15, Wimberley doesn't plan to weaken until the cutoff on September 30.

"We're ready to turn around and head south," she said. "I don't know what the magic number is, but we're hoping to get that magic number."

Wimberley wanted to thank her sponsors—Equine Natural Care, Equinety, Cavallo—the makers of the Cavallo Horse Boots, CSI Pads, Albracht Insurance and her family's Cowboy Classic Saddlery, saying, "It doesn't just take a team; it takes a tribe." She also wanted

Jordon Briggs & Famous Lil Jet Rocket to the Top at Glen Wood Memorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet (“Rolo”) added a $13,205 Glen Wood Memorial Futurity Championship to their resume at the family-hosted event, held August 23-25 at the Blackhawk Arena in Salina, Utah.

“This weekend we got it all figured out and he did great,” said the Lott, Texas, based barrel horse trainer of her 5-year-old gelding. “He won the reserve championship at the first Edna (Texas) futurity. He won the 5-year-old Futurity at the Kinder Cup. This was his big futurity win. He’s been really solid. Before this weekend, he’d won like $40,000.”

For as solid as the gelding has been, he and Briggs had some miscommunication at the Southwest Desert Classic Futurity, held in Salina the weekend prior to the $40,000-added Glen Wood.

“The first week, we had heck,” admitted Briggs. “He’s really caught another gear the past couple of months. It’s a really long straight run to the first barrel and he was kind of running off with me in the alleyway.”

Briggs, who’s not one to normally use a tiedown, put one on the free-rolling gelding hoping to regulate his speed and square up the gelding’s very round turning style. She’d been using the tiedown about a month when Rolo said no thanks in the second round of the Southwest Desert Classic.

“In the first round of the Southwest Desert, he had an OK run,” she recalled. “I ran an .8 and was just out of placing. In the second round, he ran off with me in the alleyway and he sulled-up on me in the tiedown. I had put the tiedown on him to stiffen him up a little bit, hopefully. Well, he stiffened up and he hit that tiedown on the backside of the first barrel and just ran back out of the arena. I was like ‘What the heck! He’s never done anything bad!’”

Briggs spent the week between the two futurities schooling on Rolo and building back his confidence.

“We stayed there for 10 days, so I had all week to work him in that arena and just get him listening to me and soft,” she said. Her husband Justin was also able to find a team roping to go to in the area, so he could head steers on the gelding.

She also spent some time visiting with fellow trainer Kassie Mowry, who ended up taking home the Glen Wood Memorial Futurity Reserve Championship on Famous Ladies Man.

Both Rolo and Famous Ladies Man were bred by Busby Quarter Horses of Brock, Texas. Rolo is by Dash Ta Fame out of Blazin Black Beauty, a daughter of Blazin Jetolena out of Lady Perks. Famous Ladies Man is by Dash Ta Fame out of Lady Perks, by Dash For Perks.

Briggs’ fifth-place futurity finalist, One First Class Lady, is also a Busby bred. She is by Blazin Jetolena out of GL Famous First Lady, a full sister to Famous Ladies Man.

After discussing the similarities between the horses, Briggs made a bridle change.

“She said that hers was pretty strong too and kind of had floaty shoulders, so she put him in a ported chain bridle,” Briggs explained. “So, I switched to the Danyelle Campbell, Kerry Kelly Hemi ported chain.”

“He likes to run with his nose out and then be really round. It’s kind of hard to keep him square and snappy. Sometimes if I try to keep him too square or keep him from moving his shoulder too much, he’ll get mad at me.”

When she worked him during the week, Briggs’ focus was “just getting him soft and letting him stay round and hoping the bit would stiffen him up a little bit.”

“My plan was to just let him take off from further back in the alley way, so I could just let him go and get out of his mouth so when I went to touch him when I got to the barrel, he would be soft instead of fighting him the whole way there,” she added.

In the first round, Rolo was third, clocking a 15.565.

“My first thought was just try to be smooth on the first barrel and then we'll go faster from there," said Briggs. "He snapped around the first barrel, and I thought, "Ok, we've got our confidence back."

They got really rapid in the second round winning with a 15.159, which also won the Open 1D.

"He had one of those runs in the second round where I threw the bad run out of my head and trusted him," she said. "We had done our homework all week to get our confidence back. I just had to trust my training—what Justin and I had worked on all week—and just go for it."

She wanted to thank the Wood family for hosting a great event. "They're such nice, sweet people," she said. She also wanted to thank her sponsors Classic Equine, Shiloh Saddlery, Horse Hair

Analysis, Rodeo Rigs and Rock & Roll Cowgirl.

All totaled, Briggs collected $18,628 at the Glen Wood Memorial from the futurity, open and Pink Buckle Regional Race.

Marcie (Jarvis) Wilson and her homebred 6-year-old gelding Our First Goodbye (The Goodbye Lane x Jessie James Agent x Jessie James Jr) were the richest individual winners on the weekend, taking home $13,953 for winning the Glen Wood Futurity and the 1D Average of the $100,000 Pink Buckle Regional Race.

The Maturity championship was worth $4,125, plus an additional $1,073 from the Glen Wood Open. The Pink Buckle victory awarded her $8,755, while $1,030 and $515 went to her parents Mark and Linda Jarvis as the stallion owners and breeders, respectively.

Wilson and Our First Goodbye Bank Big Bucks at 1st Regional Pink Buckle Race

The Winner of the Pink Buckle Regional Race, Marcie Wilson, took some time to answer some questions about her big win over the weekend. Wilson and her family raised horse, Our First Goodbye banked over $8,700 for their efforts in Salina, UT.

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the Glen Wood/Pink Buckle Regional?

Wilson: My first run was a really nice smooth run. My second run wasn't as pretty, but she was running really hard so it worked out.

BRR: What makes Our First Goodbye so special and makes her clock such fast times?

Wilson: Our First Goodbye is the first colt my family raised that was by The Goodbye Lane after we bought him, so that makes her special! She has a big heart and tries hard every time. She is a really special mare to us!

BRR: Tell us about little about Our First Goodbye and what are some of her big wins in her lifetime so far?

Wilson: She went to about 10 futurities last year and won around $40,000. I had a baby in May so she got a big break. Since then I have just been going to a few rodeos on her. She has placed at a couple pro rodeos.

BRR: How do you typically prepare for your runs mentally and warm up wise?

Wilson: She is super laid back when I warm up, so I just give her a light warm up. I put her boots on, and try to go make a good run! I know if I do my job she will do hers!

Jesse Childs and Super De Shine Mega Champions

Jesse Childs' involvement in barrel racing started when he was a kid and his parents had quarter horse racehorses that they ran in Ohio. Eventually they started turning the racehorses into barrel horses. "They got to hauling us around to futurities and stuff like that, and the futurities became the direction we went with it," Childs recalls. He got out of it when he was a teenager and started riding bulls, but got back into barrel horses when he was 19 and went to work for Mike Green for a couple years. "He had a big influence on the barrel horse side of what I know. I was fortunate to work for a lot of big farms along the way," he said.

Childs got into racehorses for several years but always came back to barrel horses – the futurity horses more than the open horses. After working for other people in Florida, Childs has had his own operation for a few years. Of the horses he trains, about half are his and half are outside horses. "The futurity horses are what we do the most of," he explained. "I'm a trainer and it's kind of like being a mechanic – no one brings you their car when it's running right, so we end up with a lot of young horses and a lot of problem horses and stuff like that. A lot of times I don't get to run everybody's solid open horse – I get to tune them sometimes – but I don't get to run them."

But August 22 -24 at the Mega barrel race in Jackson, Mississippi, he got to run Super De Shine "Shiney", a 6 year old mare owned by Rylee Elliott. "We don't go to a bunch of big open races, but it's really nice when you get to take this kind of horse to that kind of barrel race and give them the opportunity to do what they're good at," Childs said. Although he has always wanted to go run at the Mega, it was his first time. And it was only his second time to run Shiney. "I ran her one time at a good barrel race at Ocala – 250 or 300 head, I don't really remember – and got 4th on her," he said. "Rylee did something really selfless earlier this year. She let my girlfriend's daughter, Rachel, run this mare at a couple youth deals, just out of the goodness of her heart. Then Rylee was having shoulder surgery and she's got this super special mare, and she asked me if I wanted to haul her for a couple months."

After running a 14.394 in round one and 14.347 in round two, they ran a 13.862 in the finals to win the Mega 1D and $8,000. "I knew she was a super talented mare and I have a lot of respect for her," Childs said pointing out that Shiney won the NBHA Open 1D World Championship as a 4-year-old with Rylee. "I had all kinds of confidence in the mare going out there even though I hadn't ran her much." He continued, "On that last run, I just trusted that mare a lot and let her do her job and be a superstar open horse. I joked with Rylee and told her that when I came in the arena, I didn't touch that mare until turning the second barrel. I didn't bump her or guide her or anything. Most of the time I have to do more work, but this mare is so talented that I really tried to just stay in the center of her and out of her way. She's a one in a million kind of mare. I just can't give her enough credit." Childs was extremely humble about the win, and the unique situation it was for him to run Rylee's open horse. "Most of the time when I win, it's on a horse I trained, so this is one time that I really feel like I'm taking credit for someone else's work. Rylee is an amazing young jockey and talent – I can't give her enough credit for training a superstar like this." Of course Rylee was excited to see her horse excel with Childs. "Rylee's been a great friend and a great person all the way around. I think she was over the moon excited about it. She knows what a nice mare she has," Childs said.

Shiney was an orphan foal that Rylee raised. "I really think that sometimes some of that stuff just works out. God has a plan and I think this mare is just special. She's got that 'it' factor. She's just all heart," Childs said while noting that some people doubted Shiney early on. "She's not the biggest mare, and she's kind of quirky. She's just very animated about everything that she does – she's kind of a diva. Normally, the horses I have I'm critical of the way they act – I want them to act right all the time. This mare is always showing off

Rider: Jesse Childs; Owner: Rylee Elliott; Breeder: Elliott Equine Services Inc.

THE RUNDOWN w/Jesse Childs

Super De Shine, 14.3 hands, 1,150 lbs.

BIT: Twisted wire ring bit with a copper roller in the middle.

SADDLE: Mike Green custom ride saddle, the jockey style

SADDLE PAD: Three Forks

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine on the fronts

FEED: McCauley's Equine Formula – HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equinety and Oxygen products

ALTERNATIVE CARE: "just old school wrapping their legs, mudding, and stuff like that."

CONDITIONING-TRAINING REGIMEN: I'll ride this mare about every other day. I do little to no barrel work.

SPONSORS: Jesse – Equinety and Riley – McCauley's and Oxygen

her personality. She's always hungry. She loves treats to the point that the second she comes out of the arena, she's all about getting a treat. I'm not used to that, but when you have so much respect for one like that, you just go with what they want," he said with a laugh. Shiney definitely earned those treats at the Mega. "I just thought it was a super salty barrel race," Childs said. "She ran the fastest time of like two thousand of some of the best runs you'll see." The money he won will go back into his operation "building more fence and going to the next one", and as Rylee continues to rehab her shoulder, Childs will be the "fill-in jockey" and plans to run Shiney at the Pink Buckle barrel race. "I really just want to thank God, this mare, and Rylee Elliott because that's who I feel is responsible for all this," Childs said.

He also came extremely close to winning the Mega 2D on Famous Senator – finishing second by one thousandth of a second. "My other horse didn't have his weekend, sometimes that's the way it goes," he said. "It was really, really close. A friend of mine actually won the 2D, Brittany Dallaire, so I had to give her a hard time about that."

As for his win on Shiney, Childs pointed out that she has gone from an orphan, to an NBHA World Champion and now a Mega Champion. "To have the opportunity to step on an already made horse and she goes out there and then she gives her heart to you and makes that kind of a run – I'm just really proud of her and thankful. I thank God for it and I give all the credit to Rylee and this mare."

Vanila Ice Tops 2nd Annual Breeders Dynasty Sale at $25,000

By Tanya Randall

Webb Ranch's Vanila Ice topped their 2nd Annual Breeders Dynasty Sale, held Friday, August 23 in Isabel, South Dakota. The 2-year-old palomino gelding sold to Kathy Van't Hal of Colorado for $25,000.

Vanila Ice is by up-and-coming sire Vanila Viper, a full brother to National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dash Ta Vanila and futurity stand-out Vanilas Sudden Fame. He is out of Racin Thru Fire, a stakes finalist on the track by World Champion Racing Sire Walk Thru Fire.

A pair of golden colored yearling colts out of full sisters consigned were the second choices at the sale, selling for $24,000 each. Wildfyre, a palomino son of the legendary Fire Water Flit out of the proven performing Dash Ta Fame daughter Famous Wildone, sold to Stephanie and Janice Langford of Oklahoma. French Empire, a buckskin son of all-time leading living barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy out of the multiple barrel futurity finalist Justalilwilder, by Dash Ta Fame, sold to Terry Moody of South Dakota. Both horses were consigned by Webb Ranch.

Rounding out the top five at the Breeders Dynasty Sale were a pair of $17,000 sellers. Flash N Fling, a yearling red roan filly by one of the all-time leading barrel horse sires, A Streak Of Fling is out of the Dash Ta Fame futurity standout Vanilas Sudden Fame, a full sister to NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, out of the great producer SX Frenchmans Vanila, one of the all-time leading futurity horses. She sold to Chad Beus of Utah.

Also selling for $17,000 was the Webb Ranch consignment Whiskeyontharocks. The 2-year-old sorrel gelding, sold to Barbara Johnson of Arizona. He is by million-dollar barrel horse sire and champion performer Firewaterontherocks out of the Dash Ta Fame mare The Chosenone, a full sister to Justalilwilder and Famous Wildone.

Overall, the sale cataloged 46 head with 45 walking through the ring. More than half of them sold for a net of $259,750. The average was $10,823. The median price was $8,000, which was nearly identical to the median at their debut sale in 2018 that featured record-high seller Jaguarr at $150,000.

The four by Vanila Viper, two yearlings and two 2-year-olds, sold for $50,750, an average of $12,688 and median price of $11,250. The three by Webb Ranch's proven performer Magnum (Frenchmans Guy x Tell Em Bell x Tres Seis) sold for $23,500. The two yearlings and one 2-year-old by Magnum averaged $7,833 and had a median price of $8,000.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We had a very remarkable storm last night! I hadn't seen the wind blow that hard in years. I was standing here in the house rebuking it, rebuking hail and praying protection over horses, buildings, and anything else I could think of.

A mile from here there were DRIFTS of hail! But not on my house, praise God! All over town there were trees snapped off and uprooted and it was flooding everywhere! But it did not affect me. Did we get wind? Oh boy. Did we get rain? Oh boy. But last night I saw God's protection over us.

We should all read Psl. 91. Every day wouldn't hurt. Verses 7-16 are of great value to us as believers. God promises us that when we call on Him, He hears us and answers us. He promises no evil will befall us. He promises us that though a thousand fall on one side and ten thousand on the other, it won't come near us. I saw that last night.

But I had a part to play. I had to speak the Word over the storm. Friends, let's don't be like Chicken Little. When trouble comes, we speak the Word. We do not agree that the sky is falling! Go out to battle this week and win over everything the devil is trying to bring against you!!
