Montgomery and Success Break Through At the Mega

By Tanya Randall

"It seems so crazy," said Mega 1D Champion Jaci Montgomery. "I've come so close so many times."

In the 346-head finals, Montgomery and Success You Bet clocked a 14.088, the fastest time of the $40,000-added Mega, held Aug. 23-35 in Jackson, Miss., to win the 1D. Their victory was worth $8,000 of the $135,760 total purse.

"It was just wild," said Montgomery, a 14-year-old high school freshman from Brookhaven, Miss. "I didn't let her go really hard to the first. She tipped it with her nose but it stayed up, and I thought I'd better go on with it. After the first barrel, you have to send her to her second and third. She's going to turn them. You just have to push her past them."

Montgomery described their first round run as "not too pretty."

"She creamed the second barrel," she said. "I had her out in the practice area tuning on her. She was trying to dive at the second and third barrel pretty hard."

A 14.629 in the second round put them in the finals where they made an "unbelievable" run.

"When I came out my whole family was almost crying," she said. "When I heard '0', I thought 15.0? No, it was way better than that. Then I heard all the people cheering."

Montgomery ran at draw 118 and had many more runs to sit through to see if her time would hold.

"I had a few that I was definitely worried about," she admitted.

The win with "Success" was somewhat of a surprise. This time last year, the Montgomery family was considering selling the 13-year-old daughter of Streakin Success out of RSR Flashy Flit, by Fire Water Flit. They had bought the mare as a project and she wasn't working out.

"We actually decided to sell her last fall, because I couldn't get along with her," Montgomery said. "She's so strong. Katie Pinnix took her and was hauling her and trying to help us sell her."

After deciding to give it another shot, Montgomery got the mare back in April. By May, they were winning the 1D locally.

"I guess it kind of clicked," she said. "She has some tricks to her. She's not a very trusting mare."

Montgomery qualified two additional horses back in the finals—Speed N Spots and Fire Up The Rose. All totaled, she won $9,372 on the weekend.

"It's kind of funny," she said, "I was braiding manes for the finals, and I said, 'Y'all ready to win this barrel race.' The other two ignored me and she kind of nodded her head at me."

Montgomery started walk-trot barrels with her parents when she was just 3.

"My parents and grandparents started me on a pony and kept

2012 Jud Little Bar Nothin Barrel Bash & Ranch Production Sale

The 2012 edition of the Jud Little Bar Nothin Barrel Bash & Ranch Production Sale is just around the corner, coming up September 26 through September 30, 2012.

The 10th Annual Bar Nothin Barrel Bash at Hardy Murphy Coliseum, in Ardmore, OK will have $60,000 in total added money to run at. There will be a total of $30,000 added money in the Open 4D's featuring the $10,000 added Open 4D on Sunday, September 30 that also has $10,000 of Future Fortunes money added. The Open 4D's are also AQHA approved.

This year's futurity has $25,000 added with an additional $5,000 added to the Amateur. Both 4 and 5 year olds are eligible to enter.

For entry forms and schedule just go to www.judlittleranch.com and look for the News & Events tab, call the executive office at 580.226.7600 ext. 203 or contact Pat Hutter at 479.756.3107.

The 2012 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale will be held at the Jud Little Ranch in Springer, OK on September 29, 2012. The sale preview will be at 3 pm CST and the sale will start at 6 pm CST. The sale will also feature online bidding and viewing on www.horseauctions.com.

The 2012 sale will feature 52 head of 2 & 3 year old started horses from some of the best bloodlines in the country. A few of the sale highlights include: Scamper To Dat Cash, a 2 year old sorrel gelding that is one of the first public offerings of Clayton's (the clone of Gills Bay Boy (Scamper)) offspring and out of a Juno Dat Cash barrel racing mare, Desierita Juno. Another highlight is Firin for Corona, a 3 year old bay gelding by No Mas Corona and out of the good Cash Not Credit mare Shebe Firin For Cash. Shebe Firin For Cash was a barrel racing earner of $49,458 and was the 2005 AQHA Jr. Barrel Racing Reserve World Champion. Firin For Corona is started on the barrels by Lyndee Stairs. Another 2 year old, Perkin For A Corona is a bay gelding by No Mas Corona and out of the great Dash For Perks mare, Lady Perks. Lady Perks was a winner of nearly $250k in earnings at the futurities, derbies, and rodeos. Yet another highlight, Ittys Valiant Eagle is a 3 year old sorrel gelding by leading race sire, Valiant Hero, and out of the great mare Ittys Sis who is by Eagles Reason. Ittys Sis was the 1998 AQHA Reserve World Champion in Senior Barrel Racing with Kristin Weaver-Brown and a multiple rodeo winner.

For more information on the sale and the horses go to www.judlittleranch.com and look under the News & Events tab for the Horse Sale link. The 2012 catalog will be available online soon and catalogs will be sent out by the end of August. If you want to receive a catalog; send a note with your address to the new Animal Records & Office Manager Jessica Kutch at office@judlittleranch.com or call the ranch at 580.653.2384.

Ellensburg Rodeo to Go on as Scheduled

With the terrible destruction that was caused by the Taylor Bridge Fire between Cle Elum and Ellensburg there is widespread concern, mixed with some misinformation, that the Ellensburg Rodeo and Kittitas County Fair might be cancelled or that Ellensburg won't be able to accommodate the large number of people that attend the Rodeo every year. The organizing committee wants to assure the public that the Ellensburg Rodeo and Kittitas County Fair will take place over the Labor Day Weekend as planned. The fire is contained and all state highways and interstates to Ellensburg are open and no delays will be experienced due to the Taylor Bridge Fire.

Puyallup Pro Rodeo Plays Important Role

At the end of September, rodeo contestants are scrambling for a spot in the top 15 in the world standings.

At the beginning of September, a spot in the top 24 is far more important. Contestants have been competing since last October at rodeos sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association hoping to finish their year among the top 15 who qualify for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR) in December. For some that bid will be solidified at the Puyallup Pro Rodeo home of the Justin Boots Playoffs Sept. 7-9.

With nearly half-a-million dollars in prize money up for grabs and a tournament style rodeo, contestants will be going for broke with every nod of their heads. At last year's rodeo, steer wrestler Jason Miller from Lance Creek won $21,526 over the weekend moving from 16th place to 8th in the world standings. That secured the 2007 world champion's fourth qualification to the NFR where he finished the year in third place.

"Puyallup made all the difference in the world for me last year," Miller said. "There are a handful of rodeos out there where a guy can earn enough money to jump up in the standings. Puyallup is definitely one of those and it's darn sure a rodeo you don't want to miss if you're trying to make the finals (NFR)."

Miller is one of several contestants that is assured a spot in this year's rodeo. But once again, he is on the bubble for an NFR qualification. He is currently 17th in the world standings.

"I hope it doesn't come down to Puyallup this year, but my situation is very similar to last year's," Miller said. "It's amazing how one run at one rodeo can make such a difference in your season. I'll be there and I'll be doing my job. We'll just see how it all works out."

There are two performances on Friday, Sept. 7, two on Saturday, Sept. 8 with a championship round on Sunday, Sept. 9. The 24 contestants will be divided into two groups and each group will compete twice. All of the contestants will be working towards a chance to compete in Sunday's championship where the lion's share of the prize money will be paid.

Briggs Shakes It Up At Roper Apparel & Footwear Futurity

THE RUNDOWN: JORDON BRIGGS

HORSE: Shake It Frenchie "Roxie"
Sorrel Mare, 5 Years Old.

HISTORY: Shake it Frenchie was on BHW (BarrelHorseWorld.com) and when I saw her on there, I had to have her! I love the Easy Jet cross on FG (Frenchmans Guy) and I always loved her mom and her full siblings but could never afford one. Luckily for me, she was on there for a good price and I flew out there as soon as I could. She is my most favorite futurity horse I have ever had. She is so solid and tries so hard every time. Her LTE are about 50k so far this year and she has been to 8 futurities. I decided to run her as a 5 yr old because when I got her I thought she still needed a little more work and I didn't want to rush her. She is so sweet and lazy! I think that's why other people didn't like her. But when you point her at the barrels she loves her job and wakes up! She also won the poles this last weekend too!

BIT: I use a short shank Mullen. She tends to be a little to bendy and the mullen straightens her up a bit.

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Shiloh Contender saddle

PAD: 1/2 inch felt Classic Equine pad

LEG GEAR: Classic equine bell boots and polo wraps.

GRAIN: Moore Feed 14% protein/6% fat pellet.

SUPPLEMENTS: Exceed 6-Way supplement by MVP

HAY: Grass/ alfalfa mix and as much pasture time as possible

ADDITIONAL CARE & SHOEING: She is barefoot, I use magnets, lots of hydro (water) after runs and rolling in the dirt. Lots of treats too!!

SPONSORS: Shiloh Saddlery, Panhandle Slim, Classic Equine, Rodeorigs.com, and MVP. Huge thanks to Myers Training Stables and Frenchmans Guy for breeding horses that make my job so fun and easy! They make me look better then I really am!

BRR: Tell us a little about your runs on your futurity colts.

BRIGGS: My first round run on Roxy was very nice and smooth. In the second round we had a little stumble coming out of second but she never quit. She has a long stride and is quick. Some of my faster runs were not perfect but she just clocks good even when you think she won't.

BRR: How do you get your futurity colts to be so consistent?

BRIGGS: I'm not sure how I keep my horses so consistent. I just try to make them like their job and not pick to much and give them as much confident as possible.

When I'm training, I only work the barrels about 3 days a week. I ride in the pasture a lot, rope cattle or the Hot Heels, do poles; just keep them busy, thinking and not bored. At this point, where my horses are now (running at futurities), I only work the barrels once during the week if they are doing good, a couple times if they need some work. I will exhibition 1-3 times at the futurity and do my tuning there so I get my point across in that arena, right then, instead of picking all week and making them mad and not like their job.

BRR: You have been able to win at all different levels and kinds of competition; if you could give people one tip when it comes to mental preparation and winning what would it be?

BRIGGS: My tip for mental preparation is, have positive thoughts and stay confident. Even if your confidence is down, find it somewhere or fake it till you make it! Being mad and determined helps too!

Hyde and Kellies Chick Discover the Barrel of Gold

The Barrel of Gold is celebrating its 19th year in 2012. The word itself "Futurity" means future of or the young horse's future as a winner. With that as an inspiration, good ground and quality productions have led the way for future winners through this futurity, establishing itself as a leading event in barrel racing in the state of Montana.

Finishing with a time of 15.698 and 15.525, Kellies Chick Owned By Kelly & Ivy Conrado and Ridden by Cody Hyde, won the First and Second Go Round as well as the average of the 19th Annual Barrel of Gold Futurity Presented By Jill Lane Quarter Horses. Kellies Chick is a 2008 AQHA brown mare by Darkelly and out of The Skye Chick by Fiesta In The Sky.

With a total of 450 Runs, good ground and exceptional weather and accommodations made for a great event held at Millers Horse Palace in Billings, Montana. The Barrel of Gold is produced by Top Gun Productions, Ross & Casey Wagner.

The 19th Annual Barrel of Gold, Gold Rush Open 4D presented by Pelican Truck Plaza was a tight race. On Saturday, August 25th, Jamie Riley and Jrs Dunmare Miss took top honors in the 1D with a 15.622 and on Sunday August 26th Cody Hyde and Kellies Chick posted the fastest time of the weekend with a 15.525.

The Barrel of Gold also hosted a silent auction in support of Tannis Kobold, Montana WPRO Director who recently suffered from a burn accident. Barrel racers, competitors, fans and friends of Tannis, raised over $23,000 to date.

Smooth Sailing for Capper & Sheza Smooth Flight

With only 15 spots for the NFR, the heat is on this last month of the rodeo season. Over the weekend, Pamela Capper and her Dinner Flight mare, Sheza Smooth Flight, of Cheney, WA used homefield advantage to win both Kennewick, WA and Bremerton, WA and then snuck over to Coeur D'Alene, ID and won it too! All told she raked in $6,450. Before this weekend, she was #37 in the World with $25,664, after the weekend she moved all the way up to #25 with earnings of $32,113.87 and is only $14k out of the 15th spot. With the big Northwest rodeos continuing over the next couple weeks, she may be another one making a late season push towards the NFR.

Last year was the first year Capper had hauled Jesse (Sheza Smooth Flight) to the pro rodeos and she ended the year sitting 59th in the World Standings with $19,105 and won the Columbia River Circuit. Apparently, the pro rodeos were to Jesse's liking. This year Capper and Jesse went to the winter rodeos in the south but by March, Capper started to sense things weren't quite right and Capper could tell Jesse just wasn't trying as hard. However, it took until right before the Moses Lake, WA (where she tied for the win) rodeo to get to the bottom of it. After a talk with NFR barrel racer Sue Smith, Jesse was off to the vet to get checked out and a slight change of shoeing was in order.

"Sue pointed out a few things that could be going wrong with Jesse. I was very appreciative for the knowledge she gave me."

After a massage, a trip to the vet, and a slight change in shoeing Jesse came back strong and was ready to make a late season push.

When asked about her weekend sweep, Capper comments "It finally just smoothed out. We are just back in good timing it feels like. She (Jesse) is just back to trying really hard again."

Even though Jesse hadn't been 100% for the whole year, Capper and Jesse won the prestigious 2012 Harley Tucker Rodeo Award given to the high money earning cowboy or cowgirl in any event from the St Paul, OR, Elgin, OR, Union, OR and Joseph, OR pro-rodeos. Former winners of the award include rodeo greats Butch Knowles, Rocky Steagall, and Brad Goodrich.

With the technology of today many of the barrel racers are taking advantage of embryo transfers. With a great mare like Sheza Smooth Flight, whom Capper had bred, raised and trained herself, it would only make sense for Capper to get her next generation of barrel horses going. The breeding to Frenchmans Easy Doc she received as part of her prize package at last year's Columbia River Circuit Finals was the perfect incentive to go ahead with the process.

"The timing just worked out perfect. I got home from the winter rodeos at the end of April, took her to the vet and the timing with her and the recipient mares was just right" said Capper.

By spring she should be able to see how the next generation of her herd will look!

Although, Jesse and Capper are on a roll, as of now Capper plans to stay close to home at the circuit rodeos and aim for the Columbia River Circuit Finals (she leads the Columbian River Circuit right now with $19,421, almost $5500 ahead of Brenda Mays sitting second). Capper balances rodeoing and driving bus so she is going back to work for the fall. But with rodeos like Ellensburg, WA, Walla Walla, WA and Pendleton, OR coming up who knows where she might end up. Next year she plans to get to the winter rodeos as her schedule allows, keep her horse fresh during the year, and keep on rodeoing and see where it leads.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I have joked (?) in the past about my personal hesitation to change anything. I naturally struggle to try something new.... to do something new.....to make a new friend.....to go to a new place. Mike on the other hand is always looking for that new thing and he embraces them and sees them as exciting. What is up with that????!! As you can imagine, this can cause somewhat of an upheaval in a marriage. Me, Miss Conservative...him, hair on fire!

I surround myself with funny sayings about change. Like... "Change is good..as long as I don't have to do anything different." Or... "I hate change...I didn't used to....but I've changed."

There's a Garfield cartoon where Jon is talking to Garfield and he says... "Let's do something!" "Like what?" (Garfield). Jon.. "Something fun!" Garfield... "No way, you know how I hate trying new things!"

It gives me comfort to know that my way can be laughed at and is often shared by others. But I asked myself what God would say about my way of NOT doing something.

Well, fortunately I know that He created me with the gifts I have and personality traits that are unique to me. And He made Mike with his personality and gifts. God likes a variety of things. There is no need for us to be the same...one of us would be useless.

So if I am to be more like Jesus, obviously I am going to have to change. I need to get those rough edges buffed up, my love walk needs to improve, my patience perfected and an assortment of other things refined.

But, on the other hand, GOD CHANGES NOT, and if I am made in His image, I would "change not," too. So, if we would listen to the Holy Spirit, He would lovingly direct us on what needs to be changed and then we would stand no matter what. Our loving Heavenly Father knows us all inside and out. We are all different, valuable and essential. Let's just listen to Him to know when to change and when to stand and it will be perfect!!
