Mega Payout for Nicole Love & JL Josie Bar in Jackson

By Tanya Randall

Nicole Love and her talented 5-year-old mare JL Josie Bar pocketed an impressive $10,405 at the Mega, held in Jackson, Miss. She also picked up $2,456 after finishing ninth in the 1D aboard Fifth Of Jack for total weekend earnings of $12,861.

Love and Josie posted identical runs of 13.814 to win both the second round and Finals. Their first go, on the other hand, didn't go so great. She was in the late draw and didn't run until 1 and 3 o'clock in the morning.

"I hit the third barrel on both my horses with times that would have made it back (to the Finals)," said Love, who is currently residing in Summit, Miss. "I think I was a little tired. My eyelids got a little heavy and my driving kind of failed going to the third barrel." Love said she made a mistake by taking a short nap that left her groggy for her late-night runs. She didn't make that mistake for the second round. Instead, she did what she could to stay awake for her runs later that morning.

Although her times were identical, Love said she thought her second-round winning run was the better of the two 13.814s. "It was very smooth, very flawless, very effortless," she said. "It felt like she just floated in there. It's hard to explain, but it felt like it was nothing to her to make that run. I was wanting to make it back and hoping to do good, but I was hoping that wasn't the run I needed for the Finals."

Luckily, Josie had another great run in her.

"In the Finals, it felt like she was a little tighter in her turns," she said. "She stepped off the first barrel a little bit. In the video, you can tell she made a little move not to hit it leaving. The second barrel took my breath away. We were really close. It was probably the funnest [sic], fastest second barrel I've ever had. She feels like she runs on a cloud."

Love purchased Josie for $13,000 as a 2-year-old from her breeder Jud Little of Ardmore, Okla., at his annual production sale. The brown daughter of JL Dash Ta Heaven is out of Bucks Josie Bar, by Mr Docs Dakota. Bucks Josie Bar is also the dam of aged event standout Thisaintmyfirstrodeo.

Josie was sent to Nicole Monroe for training, but initially neither horsewoman was sure that the mare would make.

"We were a little bit worried, because she was a bit squirrely," Love said. "At first, I was thinking 'Oh Lord, what did I buy?' I'm pretty sure Nicole was thinking the same thing! The first three or four months we were worried."

Love told Monroe not to worry about keeping the mare on track for the futurities, instead to just focus on making her a barrel horse. Surprisingly, Josie did make it to the BFA Juvenile Futurity, where she placed 26th in the average—one hole out of the money.

Monroe ran Josie for the first part of her futurity year, and the first time Love actually made a run on the mare—in practice or competition—was in the Consolation at the Old Fort Days Futurity last May.

"I didn't know how fast she was and she left me at the alleyway," she laughed. "She's very quick footed. I'm pretty up to speed with her now. It took me quite a few runs to learn how to stay up with her. When she takes off in the alleyway, she always pops me up. Now, I grab the horn, let her take off and then I put two hands on the reins!"

Love said Josie has made a "pretty solid horse" and has come "a long way" from a horse that she didn't think would make.

"She was just slow to come around," she said. "She was always very willing. She didn't have any quit to her and she'd always move her feet 100 miles per hour. Getting her started, she just wanted to go fast. Nicole (Monroe) did well with her."

Love started introducing Josie to rodeos this past spring and summer. She said the mare did well in the bigger outdoor pens, but was a little bothered by the noise in the smaller indoors.

"She really took to them," she said. "She tends to try too hard."

Mega Continued From Page 1

Sometimes, I only need half of her try. I think she just has this thought process of, 'How fast can I get there and how hard and how fast can I turn it!' I'm like, 'Not necessarily that fast, especially on rodeo ground!'"

Love said she'll probably back off of the rodeos coming into the fall and will focus instead on the bigger barrel races and derbies. She's planning on returning to Oklahoma for the Ardmore Futurity, plus she has the All-American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes and BFA World Championship Derby on her schedule.

"I'd like to finish her out at the derbies," she said, "before she gets to doing too much rodeo stuff."

Two Frenchmans Guy Get Top Myers - Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale

The 2017 Myers Ranch/Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale sent another outstanding set of horses through the sale ring Saturday, August 26th at the picturesque Copper Spring Ranch near Bozeman, MT. A pair of colts by the leading living barrel horse sire, Frenchmans Guy, topped the sale at $62,000 each.

Lot #15 Visions Of Guyz caught the eye of the crowd in the preview and sale ring with her eye-catching buckskin color, pretty movement, and sweet personality. One of the coveted last daughters of Frenchmans Guy, the 2 year old filly out of Moon Visions, a Visionarian/Martha Six Moons mare, was purchased by Plendl of Iowa for $62,000.

The co-high selling horse was Lot #47, Take The Fame Guyz, a striking 2 year old grey gelding full brother to slot race winner and $110,000 earner, Guys Famous Girl. By Frenchmans Guy and out of the blue hen Dash Ta Fame mare, Disarray, the gelding glided when he moved and showed the explosiveness and breeding to be a top prospect. The Myers Ranch gelding went to Shields from Canada for $62,000.

Another Myers Ranch consignment, Lot #11 Shez Royally Smooth, by A Smooth Guy and out of the Royal Shake Em/Hempen mare, Dear Shakey, sold to Gray of Canada for $55,000. The beautiful big, stout 2 year old filly with flowing mane and tail, slipped easily across the ground and had the reach to go fast.

Another top selling gelding, Hez Serious Guys, sold to Howes of Canada for $44k. He is a 2 year old full brother to the 2009 BFA Futurity Champion, Guys Cash Perks. The striking sorrel showed all the talent and brains of his full brother. By Frenchmans Guy, he is out of Myers great broodmare, Serious Spender (by Bills Ryon). His granddam is Cash Perks, the full sister to deceased former leading barrel horse sire, Dash For Perks.

From the Copper Spring Ranch consignment, Dash To The Lane, the bright golden 2 year old filly sold for $39,000 to Wills from Canada. The breathtaking palomino filly glided across the ground and carried the magical Dash Ta Fame/Lanes Leinster cross, being an own daughter of Dash Ta Fame out of the Lanes Leinster mare, Lanes Liberty Belle.

Also selling for $39,000, the Myers Ranch horse Guyz Girlz Got Cash sold to Gray from Canada. The strong, good moving, quiet, palomino 2 year old daughter of Frenchmans Guy was out of the Special Leader/Shawne Bug mare, Bugs Special Cash. This filly is a full sister to successful 2017 futurity horse Guys Drama Queen and proven barrel horse This Guyz A Leader. Full Averages and Sales Results Below:

Blanchard Continues Climb; Possible Big Moves For Bubble Chasers Over Labor Day Weekend

By Tanya Randall

Sydni Blanchard of Albuquerque, N.M., had another big weekend, earning $10,061 to jump to 12th in the WPRA World Standings with $78,029.

Blanchard split her horses, daylighting the field at the Oregon Trail Rodeo in Hastings, Neb., on Mr Famous Jess (Jess Louisiana Blue x Fames Rockette x Dash Ta Fame) for $1,449. Aboard Famous Heartbreaker ("Heart"), Blanchard topped first go and average at the Horse Heaven Round-Up in Kennewick, Wash., for $7,316. Heart (Dash Ta Fame x Lady Oh Raylene x Shawne Bug) also scored a third-place finish at the Gem State Rodeo in Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, for $1,296.

As it stands, it will take more than $17,430 to move Blanchard from the WPRA's Top 15. She's hoping to pad to those earnings, starting with the Colorado State Fair Rodeo in Pueblo.

Although it started last week, the rodeo concludes tonight and will be included in next week's WPRA World Standings. On Monday, night several of bubble chasers were out in last night's performance—Kellie Collier, Emily Miller, Ivy Conrado, Ari-Anna Flynn, Sherry Cervi and Jana Bean. Jackie Ganter didn't enter and Blanchard is out in the final performance Tuesday night. Going into that last performance, Conrado, Bean and Cervi were placing.

Collier and Miller each dropped a spot with Blanchard's jump. Meanwhile, Conrado continues her strangle-hold on the coveted 15th-spot in the World Standings.

Conrado earned $1,808 over the weekend. She placed second at the Kitsap County Stampede in Bremerton, Wash., on KN Fabs Gift Of Fame (Frenchmans Fabulous x Mistys Dash Of Fame x Dash Ta Fame) and earned a 10th-place check at Coeur D'Alene. She's currently $2,474 ahead of Jackie Ganter in 16th.

Ganter gained valuable ground over the weekend, earning $4,366. She and Blazin Baby J (Dash Ta Fame x Medley A Blazin x Chicks A Blazin) parleyed a win in the short go to a second-place finish at Kennewick.

As the 2017 season heads into its last month, big moves are possible in the Northwest with a slew of upcoming rodeos, starting with the lucrative Labor Day Weekend rodeos.

All eyes will be on the weekend's richest rodeo in Ellensburg, Wash. The $23,000-added rodeo features two rounds plus a short go. Everyone gets their first run on Thursday, August 21 in slack.

Less than three hours away is the Walla Walla Frontier Days with $10,000 added. North of the border, the IPE & Stampede in Armstrong, B.C., has $13,000 added.

Other factors to consider is the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale in Sioux Falls, S.D., and the overall rodeo count. For the Champions Challenge, Barrel Racing Report is trying to confirm

Crowther Accepts Challenge at No Bull

By Hope Raley

Florida barrel racer Margo Crowther can pilot just about any horse she swings a leg over, and can win on a new mount like she's been riding it for years. Such was the case this weekend at the No Bull in Augusta, Georgia. Crowther piloted Famous Perfektion to the tune of over $9,000, and it is hard to believe that she hasn't even had the talented gelding in her string of phenomenal horses a month!

Famous Perfektion is a 4-year-old gelding by Famous Bugs and out of Miss Sugar Perks by Dash For Perks. "Sanford" as he is known around the barn, was trained by superstar futurity trainer Craig Brooks. Crowther acquired the big brown gelding just a month ago and he has already stolen her heart.

"He is a clown," commented Crowther. "I thought that I had a goof-ball in my mare Shes Packin Fame, but he definitely owns that title now."

Prior to owning "Sanford" Crowther admits that she was never a huge fan of the Dash For Perks lineage.

"I had never been a huge fan of the Dash For Perks line until now. Most of the ones that I have rode, have been a little on the lazy side, but not Sanford. You can leave him out in the pasture all day, tack him up and ride him for hours. You cannot ride him down, he never tires."

In the first round of the No Bull Crowther and "Sanford" clocked a 14.5, which fell right in the cracks of the 1D.

"We had a good run but I thought I handled him a little too much going into his barrels, so I think that cost us some time," Crowther said.

When the second round came around, Crowther had her timing on point and won the round with a blistering fast time of 14.117, the fastest time of the event thus far.

After their first run, Crowther knew she needed to let "Sanford" shine.

"I knew I needed to just let him run hard to his spot and trust that he was going to stick his foot in the ground and come back around, and that is exactly what he did."

With an American Qualifier the night after the second round, Crowther wasn't sure her time would hold through the wolf-pack of riders and horses. However her smokin' fast time was not to be touched.

"Everyone was telling me I should've entered the qualifier on him, and I probably should have, but I hadn't been as consistent as I would have liked with him yet prior to the No Bull, so when it came time to enter I decided to wait and just focus on running one of my other horses."

Coming back to the finals, Crowther's game plan consisted of two major factors: smooth and clean.

"I just wanted to make a smooth and clean run in the finals," said Crowther. "I didn't want to override him, so I tried my best to stay out of his way. I ended up sending him in there way faster than I had planned but as my husband would say, Go for broke!"

With yet another insanely fast run, Crowther topped the leaderboard with a 14.180 winning the Finals, and with their total time of 28.297 on two runs won the Open Average with her new mount.

"He worked awesome all weekend. He stayed honest and I was shocked that we clocked another 14.1 in the finals. I am tickled pink with his performance and I am excited for our future."

While she is still getting to know "Sanford", Crowther says her favorite quality of his thus far is his insanely fast speed, along with his foundation both on the pattern and off.

"I think a lot of what makes him a winner is that he broke and that Craig Brooks has done a phenomenal job training him and getting his barrel racing career started out right."

Crowther, who is a mother of two young children, says that without the support of her husband and kids, she wouldn't be able to savor these sweet victories.

"I couldn't do it without my family. My husband and kids watch me on the webcast which makes it a lot of fun, and my husband critiques my runs. By the time I get back to my stall, I have a complete breakdown from him of what I did right and what I did wrong via text message. He is a blessing in so many ways and I am very thankful for his and my families support!"

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever wondered what people see in us as Christians? When they look at you and me, how can they tell that Jesus is our Lord? Good question! I'll bet it's our t-shirt. Might be the cross concho's on our saddle. Could be the fish symbol on our license plate. Nah. I've seen lots of those. I have cross concho's on my saddle. Doesn't make me a Christian.

And, have you ever been accused of being a hypocrite? I have. BY MY OWN FAMILY!! That was painful.

So, how can you tell? Well, think of it like this. How can people tell you are happily married? For one thing, you aren't out running around with other people (or other god's). You have an intimate relationship with your spouse and no one else. You spend time with your spouse. You fellowship. You aren't trolling for a better deal somewhere. You are committed. You are faithful. You really KNOW your spouse and no one and no thing will ever talk you out of that. You are in it forever. In good times and hard times, you stick with it. You don't doubt your spouses love for you. Your word to your spouse can always be counted on.

Are Christians perfect? Nope. However, next year at this time, you should be able to see a LOT more of God in me and a LOT less of that person I was before I met Him. Let's work on it!!
