A Happy Holiday at NBHA Youth World

By Tanya Randall

Abbi Holiday nearly took home two trophy trailers from the NBHA Youth World, held July 24-30 in Jacksonville, Miss. The home-state cowgirl from Poplarville captured the Youth 1D World Championship aboard Cimarron Lite, and almost took home a second trailer after nearly winning the 2D. Ultimately, she ended up 16/100ths back in third aboard "Cadillac." Her total take home pay on the weekend was $3,911.

"I'm so shocked," said the 13-year-old, home-schooled eighth grader. "My mare's never consistent like that. Last year at our state finals, she won both rounds in the open, but fell apart in the finals." This year's Mississippi State NBHA Finals experience put even more doubt in young Abbi's mind.

"She bucked me off in the first go," she said. "She had a bone spur in her knee, and we got that taken care of, but I was really nervous before my first run."

Her fear was unsubstantiated when she and "CL" turned in a 14.853 to win the round.

"I came out of the arena, fist pumping and screaming and hollering, but I went in terrified!" she laughed.

Abbi opted out of the second round to rest her 8-year-old mare by Old Heart Throb out of Miss Cinnamon Lite, by Go Neon Lite. In the Youth Finals, Abbi ran CL at draw 132, after Jaci Montgomery, who finished right behind her in the first round.

"People were running to the fences to watch," she recalled. "People were hollering. I was running short handed to the third and people were hollering two hands, because she'll cheat you if you try to hold her out with just one, and I went to two hands right before the barrel. She about turned out from underneath me, she came back so quick. I almost fell off! I didn't whip at all coming home because I was coming off!"

Winning a 1D youth title in such tough company is quite an accomplishment for someone who has only been riding horses for three years.

"My older brother had started team roping four years ago," Abbi explained. "I started team roping with him, but all the girls were running barrels, so I decided to try barrel racing."

Abbi's parents, Scott and Rochelle, don't ride, but all three of their children do. It was Abbi's grandfather who bought her first horse.

"He actually won my first horse on a raffle ticket," she laughed. "He wasn't broke so he gave it to my brother and bought me a broke one."

Abbi trained that horse herself and raced on her before running Cadillac, the horse she placed in the 2D. Cadillac belongs to her trainer Katie Pinnix's mother. Abbi's parents bought her CL last year in March.

"We were worried about getting her because she's a mare and we have all geldings," she said. "But, she hasn't been a problem."

The Holiday's may have been worried about how CL would act around their other horses, but her owner and trainer Melanie Merritt of Thaxton, Miss., was worried about letting her go. Melanie bought the mare as a 4-year-old from her brother, who had picked up the mare in a horse sale in Tulsa, Okla.

"I had a good nice horse that got hurt and I had to retire," Melanie explained. "I wanted a mare because I could always breed her if something happened to her. My brother was at a sale in Tulsa and called and told me he saw a mare that he thought I would like. He said he would try to get her bought for me because he didn't know how high she would go."

Luckily, her brother got CL bought and Melanie was able to purchase her from him. It wasn't long afterwards that she was regretting her decision.

"When I got, I thought I had bit off more than I could chew," she laughed. "She would paw at me when I would try to saddle her." Melanie ran CL for three years before she reluctantly decided selling her.

"Every little girl's dream is to make it the NFR," said Melanie, who operates 5M Rodeo Company with her husband Buddy.

"When my good horse was going, people were telling me to get my (pro) card. Then he got hurt and I had to put him down. I thought it was over for me. Then I got CL. I just kept plugging

Spiller & Triple Vodka Put Futurity On Ice

Winning for the third time in as many starts, fastest qualifier and even-money favorite Triple Vodka scored a three-quarter length win in Saturday's $400,000 TQHA Sale Futurity (RG2) at Retama Park.

The Texas-bred colt by Tres Seis stopped the timer at :17.765 to earn a 101 speed index at 350 yards with J.R. Ramirez in the saddle for trainer Angel Sanchez. That time was nearly identical to the :17.776 clocking he posted in the trials. In his only other start, Triple Vodka broke his maiden in a 330-yard race at Sam Houston Race Park. This latest victory was worth $178,000 and improved his bankroll to $183,310 for owner Renee Spiller of Three Rivers, Texas. Spiller is also a barrel racer and the producer of the WRAPN3 Barrel Races.

Bred by K.A. Norris and Peters Racing, Triple Vodka is the 32nd stakes winner for champion Tres Seis, who is closing in on $10 million in progeny earnings. Triple Vodka, who sold for $4,600 at last year's TQHA Yearling Sale, is the first foal out of the Stoli mare Newport Lily.

T.C. Flack's Hicclass Heat, a gelded son of Hicclass La Jolla, finished a clear second, one length in front of Acorn In The Grove, an Oak Tree Special filly running for breeder James Cordell. --Courtesy of www.AQHA.com

Whitfield Becomes Third Man to Surpass $3 Million

While Fred Whitfield's birthday is still four days away, he gave himself a reason to celebrate early on July 29 when the eight-time world champion became just the third cowboy in PRCA history to cross the $3 million mark in career earnings. Only Trevor Brazile and Billy Etbauer had previously achieved this milestone.

"I had no clue I had done that," said Whitfield when reached by phone the following morning. "I knew at the beginning of the year I was about $18,000 away. But, to be honest, that was the last time I even thought about it. I don't focus on those type numbers. I never dreamed this would happen to me, but it is a good deal."

Whitfield, of Hockley, Texas, surpassed the mark after finishing second in the first round at the 115th edition of the Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days Rodeo with a time of 11.2 seconds and collecting $6,088. Prior to this weekend's rodeos the ProRodeo Hall of Fame cowboy was $3,825 short of the $3 million. In addition to his first-round check in Cheyenne, he also earned $3,701 for finishing second at the Deadwood (S.D.) Days of '76 Rodeo, $1,095 for winning at Burlington, Colo., and $1,220 for a second-place tie in Rock Springs, Wyo.

It all added up to $12,104 for the weekend and a jump from outside the top 50 in the world standings to 34th. He is looking for his 20th trip to the National Finals Rodeo.

"I didn't have a very good winter and then was home working on some other projects until just before the Fourth," said Whitfield of his 2011 campaign. "These last few weeks, things have really been clicking for me, and I am entered in nine to 10 rodeos in the next couple of weeks, so we will just see how it goes. I am not giving up just yet on another trip to Las Vegas in December.

"I don't know where all the years have gone, but it has gone way too fast," said Whitfield about his approaching 44th birthday. "Luckily, I don't look my age and I feel good. I love what I do and I am not quite ready to give it up."

"I am happy with where I am in my career and I still enjoy the competition aspect," said Whitfield, who joined the PRCA in 1990. "Rodeo has been a good way for me to make a living, and I am thankful for that."

Seven-time World Champion Team Roping Header Jakes Barnes had a huge weekend in making it to his own milestone. Paired with two-time World Champion Heeler Walt Woodard, Barnes earned checks totaling $19,754 to become the 17th man in ProRodeo history to surpass $2 million in career earnings.

"As a little kid growing up and having a dream of even making the (Wrangler) National Finals (Rodeo), to make a career of it and hit that milestone is amazing to me," Barnes said. "To be in that club is just a thrill. To have made $2 million roping – wow! It just goes to show you that when you have a passion for something and put your mind to something, anything's possible. I feel like the luckiest guy in the world. To be my own boss, travel around the United States and get to meet the people I have is like a fairytale."

Barnes and Woodard won the three-head average at Cheyenne Frontier Days ($15,095) and also the title in Rock Springs, Wyo. ($1,274) while tying for second place in Deadwood ($3,385). Barnes entered the week needing just $4,007 to reach the $2 million mark and managed more than enough in Deadwood and Rock Springs alone.

Cheyenne was just the icing on the cake, the gravy on the biscuit. The earnings there allowed Barnes and Woodard – both 17th in the world standings a week ago – to climb all the way to eighth place. Barnes has earnings of $54,373 and Woodard $52,831.

Barnes is fifth among contestants who have spent their career almost exclusively as team ropers, trailing Rich Skelton, Allen Bach, Clay O'Brien Cooper and Speed Williams – a bit more than $8,000 behind eight-time World Champion Header Williams in 16th place on the career list. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Johnson Rig Happy Campers

It would be hard to tell which spouse was the happier in the Johnson rig that rolled through Colorado over the weekend. Sure, wife Sherrylynn Johnson won the barrel racing titles at the Eagle County Fair & Rodeo in Eagle and the San Luis Valley Ski-Hi Stampede in Monte Vista. That was a good thing. But husband Mike Johnson, a 23-time Wrangler NFR qualifier, won his first check since coming back from what was supposed to be season-ending surgery on both knees at Eagle, and then won the tie-down roping at Steamboat Springs. He was timed in 10.9 seconds both places.

along with her. She kept me going.”

Melanie almost decided not to sell CL even though her program is training and selling.

“When she started doing really well, I didn’t know if I wanted to sell her,” she said. “I like to get them started and then sell them, and it’s expensive to go down the road. I guess what happened with my old horse made me change the way I look at things. I prayed and prayed about it. She ended up going to a great home, and Abbi’s a great little rider.”

Cervi Cool in Strathmore - Schulze Heats Up Cheyenne

Sherry Cervi is just one of the many US barrel racers sneaking across the Canadian border to cash in on the lucrative rodeos. This weekend she won Strathmore, Alberta and placed at Medicine Hat to bring her north border crossing total haul to around $7500. Recently Sydni Blanchard crossed the border to win over $120k at Calgary. With the heat hitting all time highs in the south a quick trip to the cool breezes of Canada to cash a few extra checks seems like a pretty good idea. We caught up with Cervi to talk about the challenges of going back and forth and her run at Strathmore.

BRR: What is the average border crossing like and what does it involve?

Cervi: I have been very fortunate, most of the time I have crossed it has only taken a few minutes. One stop took around a half an hour while the border person looked over the rig and opened doors and such to check everything out. We were in a hurry to get to a rodeo but there is nothing you can do, you just have to wait for them to check it out. For the most part if you have your paperwork in order with the right date and stamp it is pretty easy to get across the border and we get through fairly quickly. You just have to follow their rules.

BRR: What paperwork do you need to have?

Cervi: The paperwork they require involves a current coggins (within the last 6 months), health papers and International health papers that are stamped by the state vet and no older than 30 days. For instance, I got a set right before Reno to go to the Canadian rodeos over the Fourth and then another set right before Strathmore.

BRR: What are some of the other challenges of hitting the Canadian rodeos?

Cervi: Nothing different than US rodeos really. It is a long ways up there but they are really good rodeos and they are really nice people. For instance, most of the time they hand rake or tractor rake after every 6 barrel racers. They try to make the ground good for the chuckwagon people and the rodeo both, which is a challenge, but they work at it really hard. Of course, this time of the year it is cooler weather too so that's a nice bonus.

BRR: What can you tell us about your run at Strathmore?

Cervi: Stingray worked really good, she likes the ground when it is a little firmer and it was hard fast ground. It was a quick trip up there, Medicine Hat one night, then Strathmore slack the next morning and then back to the US.

THE RUNDOWN WITH CHEYENNE CHAMPION KIM SCHULZE

HORSE: Vegaspeed "Speedy"

Sorrel Gelding, 9 years old, 14.2 hh, 1050 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: Chuck and Kristie Peterson gave him to me as a 2 year old, all I had to do was to geld him. He was a gift and a big gift at that! They always wanted me to have a Frenchmans Guy horse so they got me one. I sent him to Kelly Conrado to break to ride for a couple months, then sent him to Sue & Mead Miller and they got him going better. After that Kristie went and got him and started him on the barrels and then she sent him home to me and said he is all yours! She puts such a neat start on them and I wanted him done right from the start so it meant a lot to me to have her start him. I futuritized him as a 5 year old at the Fizz Bomb and at OKC BFA Derby. I won the Amateur champion and was the runnerup in the average at the Fizz Bomb Futurity and placed in a couple rounds. I also made it back to the short round in the BFA Derby. After that I started taking him to jackpots and then the last three years I have been taking him to rodeos. Last year I went to a few more rodeos, about 30 or so and this year we are hitting the road a little harder and trying to make the NFR if it all works out. His approximate lifetime earnings are probably close to $100,000

BIT: Junior Cowhorse

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Cactus Charmayne James Barrel Saddle

PAD: Cactus Wool Pad

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine

GRAIN: Omolene 500

SUPPLEMENTS: Formula 707 Joint Essentials Supplement, 522 Health Strength, Aloe Vera Juice (60 ccs/day)

HAY: Alfalfa Hay with a little grass

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: I had been running him barefoot until this year, we couldn't quite get his angles right so I finally had to put light rim shoes on the front, barefoot on the back.

#1 TRAINING OR RIDING TRIP: I am not really a trainer but I know what works on our horses. Speedy has taught me so much about how a good barrel horse should feel. So now I get the horses I ride and try to make them feel like Speedy does. I want them to have 4 wheel drive with forward motion just like Speedy does. It is hard to explain and put into words but I know what I like and what I don't like. Horses like Speedy can teach you so much, they are amazing.

WHAT WAS IT LIKE TO WIN THE "DADDY OF EM ALL": I can't even put it into words, I'm still in shock! I am still overwhelmed with the way I was treated at the rodeo by whole committee there. They make you feel like a king or queen. As soon as I won they had someone with me to walk me through the interviews and take care of me. Plus they treated my husband and son the same way. I really felt honored. It was a very professional, very classy rodeo production and I appreciated all they did for me and my family.

When I got back to my trailer I had 36 text messages and 17-18 missed phone calls. My family and friends who had supported me over the years were sending their well wishes and that was very special to me. It was an honor to run against those girls and then to come out on top, I am in disbelief. I went in there pretty intimidated but I truly believe in my horse, I knew he had the heart and capability to do it and we came through and won it. I guess it goes to show do your very best and don't worry about it.

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“Come and eat breakfast.” That’s what Jesus called to Peter and some of His disciples as He stood on the shore beside a campfire cooking fish and bread. The fishermen had had a long, unproductive night until Jesus called for them to cast their net again on the right side of their boat and then they filled it overflowing.

See the compassion and kindness of our Lord. Not only did He make sure that their nights work paid off but He provided a hot meal for the hungry fisherman.

God is no different today. He is no respecter of persons. He cares for the smallest detail of our lives and wants us to have the blessings and abundance that Jesus gained for us by the shedding of His blood. God wants us to have lives filled with good days and every good thing. So instead of speaking words of fear and negativism, we need to say, “In the name of Jesus, I command blessings, favor, health, prosperity, protection, dominion and power to fill my life!”

Some people have the mistaken notion that God is out to get them but that’s far from the truth. God is a good God and all good things come from Him. Acts 19:26 shows where Jesus Himself said, “With God all things are possible.” Romans 8:32 shows us that God is willing to act on our behalf and bless us. Remember what you say is what you get so watch the words coming out of your mouth!

God might not show up to cook breakfast for you but you can bet He’s there to look after all his family members. If God is for you, who can be against you!
