$100,000 for Clint Sherlin & Bully By Design at NBR Tour Finals

By Tanya Randall

The 2012 NBHA World Champion duo of Clint Sherlin and Bully By Design ("Red") put their names in the record books as the first $100,000 winners of the National Barrel Racing Tour, the creation of master producer Renea Bolling of Double B Production fame.

"I had good run and it worked out great," said Sherlin, a farrier and horse trainer who recently relocated to Decatur, Texas. "I had a little bit of a bigger run on Saturday than I did Sunday, but I got lucky and hung in there."

On Saturday, Sherlin and Red won the Combined Open between the NBR and Bonus Race Finals Regional Race with a spectacular 16.657 to win $1,776. Christina Dusendang, Sherlin's significant other and mother to his year-old son Cutler, also placed third in that race with her longtime equine partner Bug Ya For Moolah. With his carryover time from the NBR Finals, Sherlin also won the Sunday Open for an additional $1,466.

Sherlin, who was the first man to advance to the finals of RFD-TV's The American, qualified for the historic event, held in the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla., aboard another horse at the Jackson Hall Memorial in Ardmore, Okla. When that horse sold two weeks prior to the $100,000 race, Sherlin made a call to Chris Hayes in Philadelphia, Tenn., for his former equine partner.

"I called Chris and asked if he wanted to try and win some money, and he said 'Well, sure!'" laughed Sherlin. "He got him to my parents and they brought him out here for me."

Bred by K&K Farms of Nashville, Tenn., Red, an 11-year-old sorrel gelding is by Designer Red out of Ethel Bully, by Bully Bullion. Sherlin started running the gelding at the end of his futurity year. They were the reserve 1D champions at the 2011 NBHA World Show, finalist at the BFA Derby, BFA Open 1D Average Champions and winners at the Elite Barrel Racing Extravaganza, all before making the finals at the American. However, in recent years, Red has primarily been campaigned by Hayes' daughter Bayli.

Sherlin appreciated the opportunity to ride the gelding again for $100,000.

"After I split with it with Chris, I'm going to try to save it and maybe save for a down payment on a house," he said. "I don't know that I would ever had a chance to have enough money to do something like that if it hadn't been for winning something like this."

Tillar Murray & Royal Star Commander Rocket to Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship

By Tanya Randall

Elizabeth (Tillar) Murray of Fort Worth, Texas, got the biggest win of her young professional barrel racing career at the Daddy of 'Em All—the historic Cheyenne Frontier Days with the freakishly fast Royal Star Commander. The $16,417 victory has put her in late-season contention for her first National Finals Rodeo berth.

“My goal was to qualify for Houston and some of the limited entry rodeos, so I don’t really have a game plan right now,” said the sophomore at the University of Texas in Austin, where she is taking honors business and management classes as well as studying biology. “There are a lot of big rodeos coming up so we’ll just see how it goes with that. If I have a shot at the Top 15, then I’ll go harder and make it work with my school. I don’t want to haul Commander too hard. Last year, he was hauled really hard and I want him to stay where he’s comfortable and happy. I’ll do what’s best for him.”

Commander, now 9, qualified Deb Guelly for the 2015 National Finals Rodeo. The Murray family purchased the gelding from his breeders, Jim and the late Dr. Ruth Haislip, in January. Commander is by AR Star, the Shawne Bug-Go Man Go stallion that the Haislips used to own in partnership with NFR qualifier and clinician Marilyn Camarillo, and out of Ruth’s three-time NFR qualifier Go Royal Scarlett, by Royal Go Go out of Wild N Groovy, by Three Ohs Wild.

Murray first noticed Commander when Erin Ricotti ran him at RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Rodeo in Mesquite, Texas.

"I was sitting with a friend and I told her, 'Oh my God, I'd love to ride that horse. It would be a dream to ride that horse just one time.' I had text Erin to let me know if the horse ever came up for sale. It's so surreal for me to get to ride him. Like I said, ever since I saw him two years ago, I dreamed about getting to run him," she said.

Murray started out the year running Commander, Gracies Little Dude ("Tic Tac")—the horse she won Dodge City, Kansas, on last year, and Say Hello To Goodbye ("Big John"). Unfortunately, school, the passing of her mentor Ed Wright and problems with her horses caused her to regroup over the spring.

"After Ed passed away at the end of March, my horses weren't working that well. Just so much had happened, it was getting to the point that it wasn't very fun for me, more stressful with school and frustrating. I decided to take a little bit of break and regroup. June 1, I headed out with Tic Tac and Big John. I didn't even plan on having Commander out with me this summer. My dad brought him up the beginning of July. It's been amazing since then. It's been really fun."

With $50,000-added for unlimited number of WPRA-card member entries, Cheyenne has all competitors make their first run in Tuesday morning slack on July 19th with the fastest 96 coming back for a second run in a performance. Murray and Commander finished second in the first go with a 17.56.

"The first round I just went in there, trying to be smooth so we'd get a good run to come back to the second round," she said. "He did everything I asked. I tried to hold him (to get further in the pen to the first barrel) because I didn't want him to start running too early and waste that energy. Commander is just so fast; I just try to make a smooth run every time."

Before their second run in Cheyenne, Murray made a run to Ogden and Spanish Fork, Utah. She split fourth at Spanish Fork aboard Commander for $3895. They had their second run during the Thursday performance on July 28th. They stayed consistent with a 17.58 for seventh in the round.

"The second round I tried to do the same thing. I hadn't run him in a performance all summer. I really haven't run him in that many performances in general, so I really didn't know what to expect. I was thinking about getting him over for the second barrel. He worked really well, but I got a little by my first barrel."

They turned in another consistent time of 17.59 in the Final Round to win the average.

"On my third run, I was thinking about tightening up my barrels, and that really didn't happen," she laughed. "Thankfully, Commander is so incredibly fast he can make errors and still make up for it."

Murray's ace-in-the-hole with Commander has been the companionship of Erin Ricotti, who first took Commander out on the rodeo trail during his derby years.

"She knows him so well," said Murray, who couldn't thank her fellow horsewoman enough. "For me to have Erin out here has been a lifesaver. She's been able to tune him before every run and help me come up with a game plan – even though I fail to follow the game plan most of the time."

Commander, who has a reputation for being "slightly" quirky, has been pretty steady for Murray for much of the summer.

"I think Erin just knows him so well that he really hasn't been with me," said Murray. "He's just comfortable. Even though he'll sometimes have errors in his runs, he's such a freak of nature, he can just fly. He really wants to trust you. He isn't a horse that's going to go in there and do it on his own. He's going to trust you to tell him what to do. I personally like that. He has so much heart. He just tries so hard every run. I think because I have Erin with me and she rides him so well, we've been able to get him to a state where he's not scared like he has been before."

Murray also caters to Commander's "the world is my oyster" nature. She spent part of her Wyoming trip teaching the gelding to ride in an English saddle and jump.

"He loves to jump," she laughed. "Before the short go, he spent the day jumping over the rivers where we were staying."

Ever gracious for all the support she's received, Murray wanted to thank her parents Fulton and Trina Murray and family.

"They've tried so hard to make everything work for me and I'm so grateful for all they do," she said. "It takes a huge sacrifice for the family to rodeo at this level. I don't think a lot of people realize that."

She also wanted to thank Ed and Martha Wright, noting without them, 'she'd still be trotting around the barrels."

Lastly, she wanted to thank the Whitmire family "for going over and beyond with all their help this week. My parents have been out of the country for the last few weeks and Erin and Lainie Whitmire have been the best replacement moms."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you remember what you were like before God initially got a hold of you? I do. It wasn't pretty. I thought I was okay. Well, I knew I needed help, but like everyone else I didn't think I was THAT bad. And I was so excited when I learned that Jesus would trade all the bad things I had done for what He had done wrong, which was NOTHING. And then I would get all the good He did for what good I had done. WHAT A DEAL!!!

Romans 10: 9-10. And then as I grew closer to Him, He started peeling off all the bad stuff, a little at a time. If He would have pointed out all the bad at first I don't think I could have taken it!!! But like peeling an onion, layer by layer, He started revealing those things that were unlovely. I know He's not done with me yet. I know I'm not done with HIM yet. I'm even a little eager for the next step....

Then.....SHAZAM!! My husband gets ordained into the ministry and all of a sudden I find myself looking at OTHER PEOPLES

ISSUES!!!

AARRGGHH! I am a fixer. Have you ever tried to fix EVERYBODY you come into contact with??? It's awful! But thank God for friends. I was complaining to a close friend of mine, that's on the board of our ministry, about being so tired, and how do you help all these people, and what do you do..blah, blah, blah.

His wisdom.....Sher, you can't do everything for everybody. When you get the opportunity, just throw a little water (of the Word) on them and pull a weed or two. Well....that's just what Jesus did for me. I can do that...
