THE RUNDOWN: CARISA SHEARER

HORSE: Rock On Rita "Rita"

Palomino Mare, 4 Years Old, 14.2 hands, 1000 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: Of course she is a full sister to Vanilla.

Because of that, everyone expects so much out of her. Rita is more of a late bloomer than Vanilla. She really worked good and just missed making the short go at Ft Smith. She takes a lot of riding, but she is very athletic and everything is extremely easy for her. Rita, Vanilla and their siblings are very naturally athletic and they bend at the rib cage well and they can turn at the same speed they can run. I try to keep away from comparing them so I don't expect too much out of Vanilla's siblings. Vanilla was a once in a lifetime type of horse, so the chances are they won't be quite like her. I don't expect anything more or less out of Rita than if she was any other colt I ride. Rita has that same ability as Vanilla but it might be her derby years and the rodeos before she starts to really show it.

BIT: O-ring Snaffle

HEADGEAR: German Martingale

SADDLE: Larry Coats Barrel Saddle

PAD: 5 Star Wool Pad

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice

GRAIN: Omolene 400 most of the time, Summer Heat when I am in SD

SUPPLEMENTS: None

HAY: Gray Hay

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Rims on the front, plates on the back, just normal shoeing.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR TRAINING & RIDING STYLE: Each horse is different but I start them all the same. I like a lot of bend in the ribcage and I like them to drive off their hindend. Eventually in their training, I will let each horse have their own style.

RITA'S WARM UP: At the futurities, I get up in the morning ride her some and if they have exhibitions I will take her through and just work her slowly. Then I will tie her back up in the stall. I will usually end up riding her for 30 minutes and then do exhibitions then warmup her up for another 30 minutes before I run. So I ride her for about an hour total before I run. When I warm her up I lope circles, do reverse arcs, make sure she breaks at the poll, moves off of my feet and stays out of the bit.

Barrel Blast At Diamond W Arena

Texas Quarter Horse Association will hold Barrel Blast 2011, a double-judged AQHA Barrel Racing and Pole Bending special event, in conjunction with two, 4-D open barrel races. The event takes place October 8-9 at the Diamond W Arena in Alvarado, TX.

Each of the 4-D barrel races feature $1,000 in added money, with 75 percent of the entry fees returned to the pot.

Times from the AQHA portion of the event may be carried over to the 4-D and must be declared at time of entry.

Exhibitions will be held on Friday, October 7 from 6 to 10 p.m. and again on Sunday, October 9 from 8:30 to 11 a.m. Exhibitions are $5 per run or three for $12.

Prime sponsors for the event are Granada Farms, home of up and coming sires Dashin Bye and Hiclass La Jolla and Hraco, an oil and gas artificial lift service company. Pre-entry deadline for mail in entries is September 20. Contestants may enter online at www.ebarrelracing.com through October 1, 2011 with no late fees. Entries taken on race day must pay a $10 late fee. For more information, visit www.tqha.com.

Walker Making Recovery

Barrel Racer Mary Walker, the wife of 1991 World Champion Steer Wrestler Byron Walker, is making steady progress from the broken hip she suffered when her horse fell and landed on her while competing in barrel racing at the Crosby (Texas) Fair & Rodeo in June. Mary underwent 10 hours of surgery and is still facing a lengthy period of rehabilitation, but has recently gotten back on horseback. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

AQHA Youth Prospect Project

Check out this ground-breaking opportunity for youth to acquire a free ranch-bred American Quarter Horse and hone their skills in horse training, showing and sales.

Members of the Ranching Heritage Breeders program have the distinct goal to mentor the young horsemen who purchase their foals.

Imagine this: You are given the chance to receive one of six free foals donated by esteemed American Quarter Horse breeders Open Box Rafter Ranch. These foals descend from grandsires Sun Frost, Shugar Cat, Sonny Pep San and Frenchmans Guy.

Of the American Quarter Horse Youth Association members selected to participate in the project, six will be chosen to receive a free weanling donated by Jim and Joni Hunt, owners of Open Box Rafter Ranch in Faith, South Dakota.

The remaining AQHYA members accepted to participate will have the opportunity to visit ranches that are members of the AQHA Ranching Heritage program where they will look over the ranches' weanling stock and each purchase one colt for $700.

All AQHYA members accepted into the project will have the opportunity to earn back the money that they invest in their project just by presenting their colts at AQHA Ranching Heritage shows.

Additionally, the youth will have the opportunity to earn scholarships and prizes while competing with their project colt.

Project colts will be presented at AQHA Ranching Heritage shows during their yearling and 2-year-old years.

For more information visit www.aqha.com/showing and click on "Prospect Project." Application deadline is September 2.

Cowtown Rodeo Escapes Irene

For the first time in its 57-year history, the Cowtown Rodeo in Woodstown Pilesgrove, N.J., had to cancel a performance Aug. 27, due to the approach of Hurricane Irene. And owner Grant Harris can live with that.

Apart from five fences on his property "that are going to need some attention" after nine inches of rain on Aug. 27, there was no damage to the Cowtown facility. All 500 animals came away without injury and there was no loss of electricity.

"We really lucked out," Harris said in the evening of Aug. 28. "Considering how close we were to the storm and that communities north and south of us got hit very hard, we just plain got lucky.

Lucky? South of the Harris property, the Salem River overflowed its banks, washing out bridges and causeways. A woman driving a quarter-of-a-mile from the Cowtown Arena had her car swept away by flood waters and was drowned – the only death in New Jersey reported to be the result of Hurricane Irene.

Cowtown Rodeo, the sport's oldest weekly rodeo series, will be back in action on Sept. 3. Harris has not decided whether to extend the season a week to account for the loss of this date and finish the season Oct. 1. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

THE RUNDOWN: PAMELA CAPPER

HORSE: Sheza Smooth Flight "Jesse"

Brown Mare, 9 Years Old, 15 hands, 1000 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I owned the mare and I had another horse (Casey's Ruby) that was very successful, so I just bred the mare while I ran Casey's Ruby. I was breeding the mare with different horses I thought would compliment her and were proven barrel sires. Jesse was born on my place and I raised her, broke her and trained her and made her into a barrel horse. I am not really a futurity goer so she didn't get started on the barrels until later in life. In 2009, she won the Novice in the Washington Barrel Racing Association (WBRA) and last year was her first year as an Open horse. Last year, she was the Reserve Champion in the Open WBRA and Reserve in ProWest Rodeo Association. This year, I have just been trying to keep it simple and she just keeps gaining confidence and increasing speed. This is only her third year of running barrels. I wasn't sure if she would be able to compete against the big girls but she is holding her own. It has taken her the summer to get her confidence running at top speeds. She has won about 30k this year between pros, amateurs, and barrel races and probably about 8-10k in each of the two previous years.

BIT: Charmayne James Barrel Bit

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Stoney Barrel Saddle

PAD: Classic Equine Neoprene Pad

LEG GEAR: Professionals Choice

GRAIN: Purina Ultium and Omolene 200

SUPPLEMENTS: Millenium Gold Multivitamin and Cosequin

HAY: Alfalfa and is on pasture quite a bit

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Magnetic Hock boots, normal shoeing

TELL US ABOUT YOUR TRAINING & RIDING STYLE: I start all my horses with snaffles and german martingales, I like the way that makes them feel. I don't do a ton of arena work, just a lot of foundation work. I start working on all the mechanics they need to do barrels right away without putting them on the barrels. Once I put them on the barrels, they already have the tools to do them, all I basically have to do is show them the clover-leaf pattern. I strongly believe in a solid foundation. Jesse keeps it simple and just goes around three barrels, so I don't have to drill her a lot on the barrels. I try to make my horses enjoy their job, and to I don't believe they stay happy if I am drilling them all the time.

THE RUNDOWN: DESIRAE WHEELER

HORSE: SD Royals Lane "Ebby"
Sorrel Mare, 4 Years Old, 15 hands, 1200 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: My uncle, Robert Morgan, owned the stud (The Goodbye Lane), and I owned the mare. The dam was supposed to be my futurity colt that year but she got kicked. About the time I switched from flat track racing (I used to be a jockey) to barrel racing. Sue Smith got me started barrel racing and once I did it some I was hooked. I raised Sd Royals Lane, I was pregnant when she was two so my husband, Scott, rode her for about 2 months for me then I took over the rest of the way through her training. I am guessing she has won about $11k so far this year. I have a full brother to her I plan on running next year in the futurities. Morgan Knudson bought her after the Barrel Of Gold and will be taking her to proroedeos, they are just a perfect match. She also purchased TM Slick Willie.

BIT: 3 piece snaffle bit

HEADGEAR: None

SADDLE: Cecil Phillips Barrel Saddle

PAD: Neoprene Felt Pad

LEG GEAR: Polo wraps on front, nothing on back, bell boots on front

GRAIN: Gallon of Oats every night

SUPPLEMENTS: None

HAY: 40% alfalfa/60% grass

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: I shoe her myself, she just has normal Queens Plates (plain racing plates). She gets reshod about every 6 weeks.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR TRAINING & RIDING STYLE: I've learned a lot from Dena Kirkpatrick, I like the way she uses straight lines into the barrels and I love the perfect circle around the barrels. My biggest thing is to have a complete circle around the barrel the same distance from the barrel. She has taught me a lot. I also have to thank Sue Smith, she has taught me almost everything about barrel racing!

SPONSORS: My parents, Morgan Ranch!

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Isn't it helpful when you call and your horses come? It's nice when they hear you banging around in the barn and they show up. When they come that shows you have a good partnership with your horses and they trust and like you.

Did you ever stop and think it should be that way between us and God? It tells us in Psalm 91:15 that when we call upon Him, He will answer. We need to have a close personal relationship with our Savior Jesus Christ where we seek His guidance and trust Him completely in everything.

It doesn't matter how things look in the natural. God is our source for everything and if we trust and believe and stand firm on His Word, things will work out for us. One well known evangelist used to say that we should stand on God's Word and if we are willing to stand forever, we won't have to stand very long.

Talk to God. Read the Bible and find Scriptures that apply to your situations and study them. Claim those Scriptures for yourself and hold God to His Word. He is not a man that He can lie! Hebrews 6:18 says it is impossible for God to lie so we should find great comfort in His promises.

Sometimes things go wrong and we pray about them but see little results. Have patience! God might not answer in the way we want but that is because He has a better plan for us. After all, God can see the whole picture and knows what the end will be. Carry no grudges around with you and repent of any resentment and offense as soon as they try to come on you. They'll block your prayers and blessings. Read Mark 11:23-25 and see what Jesus said about getting the things we desire.

Psalms 34:4 says, "I sought the Lord, and He heard me, and delivered me from all my fears." So call on the Lord, turn your life over to Him and rest in His mercy and love!
