Walker & Parker Dominate Barrel of Gold

By Hope Sickler

When Vauna Walker and Kali Jo Parker show up to an event, you can always bet you are going to have to make your best run to out-run them and their outstanding group of horses. This past weekend in Silesia, Montana at the Barrel of Gold Open and Futurity, Walker and Parker were firing on all cylinders; Walker taking home the futurity championship and Paker winning the Gunslinger race and finishing second in the futurity average.

Walker piloted Emas Famouslast Moon to the futurity championship with a total time on two of 30.455-seconds.

Emas Famouslast Moon is a 4-year-old daughter of the late great Dash Ta Fame and out of Nm A Sixty Martha by Marthas Six Moons that Sheila Hill purchased from Bill Kennedy at Smoke Creek Farms as a yearling.

"My husband Randy and I have had her since the spring of her 3-year-old year. She is friendly and always "in your pocket" so to speak. If she can reach grooming equipment, wraps or anything else while you are working with her it quickly becomes a chew toy or something just to hold in her mouth while she flips her nose," said Walker about the talented mare.

"She is very willing with a lot of run and we always felt that she was really talented. In a lot of her runs this spring she had little mistakes that kept her from running what we knew she could."

Walker won the Barrel Of Gold Futurity in 2010 aboard another phenomenal horse CP Private Dancer and also won the derby last year on Dan I Am Famous where they broke the arena record in the second go of the derby.

"I love this futurity for several reasons. It is always very organized and the people are very friendly and helpful. I can't thank the crew enough for their hospitality," said Walker.

Kali Jo Parker is a force to be reckoned with inside the arena and she proved that once again this weekend winning first and second in the Gunslinger Race and finishing 2nd overall in the futurity.

Parker jockeyed Royal Czech Mate to the win in the Gunslinger Race running a blistering fast time of 14.807, to edge out her other horse My Royal Lydia who posted a time of 14.844.

Royal Czech Mate is a 11-year-old gelding by Corona Czech and out of Royal Summer Ice. My Royal Lydia is a 5-year-old mare by Justaheartofawarrior and out of Shakem Up Trish by Royal Shake Em.

"My dad bought "Czech" off the track as a 3-year-old. He was supposed to be a bull dogging horse and they were jumping some off of him as a 4-year-old but then my brother decided to retire so he was just sitting around after that. I can't handle seeing a horse sitting at the place doing nothing so I started him on the barrels and even though he was a challenge, I knew he had a lot of ability," explained Parker.

Since then, Parker has won a lot on the gelding, qualifying to the Wilderness Circuit Finals on him.

"He is freaky fast with a 107 speed index but he can really sit and turn and bend in two. He is a very proud horse who is definitely an alpha-male and he loves his ladies in the trailer. He thinks he is cool being the only boy."

Don't let her barn name fool you; "Peanut" My Royal Lydia didn't let "Czech" take all the credit for the weekend however, placing 2nd in the Gunslinger Race and making two solid runs in the futurity.

"We bought her off the track as a 2-year-old. She is a big dog that loves to be loved on. She will come across the pen just to be loved on but once you are on her, she is all business and gets mad if you try and pet her between the ears. She is extremely gritty and never quits trying. I absolutely love her," Parker said.

"Peanut" was a trooper all weekend and got stronger every run. Posting a time of 15.4 in the first round to end up 3rd, Parker and "Peanut" came back stronger in the second round running a 15.125 to win the second round and finish 2nd in the average behind Walker.

"In the first go of the futurity she worked good and ended up 3rd but I felt like our timing was off. Might have been due to the lack of sleep on both of our parts. In the second round, she got a little pushy in the alley and actually went to the first barrel in the wrong lead but switched when she got there. I felt like it made her not as snappy on the backside of the first, but she never quit trying and had two really good barrels after that."

Pocketing close to $10,000 for the weekend, Parker also took home a trophy jacket, necklace, buckle, breastcollar and saddle blanket.

"Casey and Ross Wagner put on amazing events that run so smooth and professional. They have great payouts, awards and Ross is the best announcer!"

Parker made the overnight trek to Montana from Tremonton, Utah with the help of her mom.

"We got to Cottonwood at 7 and Vauna (Walker) was kind enough to sign me up for some timed runs so I could at least get "Peanut" in the arena. I knew it was going to be a tiring morning so I prepared myself for it and made sure to not let it affect me too badly. I know and trust my horses so I knew that they would try and do their jobs even if their bodies were a little road weary."

Parker would like to give thanks to Silver Lining Herbs, RES Boots and Stan Born at ShuFly Arena for their continued support.

Three Year Plan for The American

RFD-TV Founder and Owner Patrick Gottsch has announced a long-term three-year plan for THE AMERICAN rodeo event. The agreement with the PBR and the Dallas Cowboys at AT&T Stadium ensures the future of the world's richest one-day rodeo event. The announcement was made during a segment of MARKET DAY REPORT, where Gottsch also revealed THE AMERICAN will return to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas on February 19th at 1 p.m. CT.

THE AMERICAN features pro athletes competing alongside top amateur cowboys for a prize purse worth more than $2,000,000. Prior to the Finals, THE AMERICAN Semi-Finals, with a purse of $500,000 will be held on February 15 - February 17, 2017, at the Stockyards in Fort Worth, Texas.

"It started three years ago with the great idea to have the richest one-day rodeo ... with all the champions in one place. We had a great three-year run and we've always had a good relationship with the PBR, but they've really stepped it up now with Randy moving on with Garth Brooks. A three-year agreement with the PBR and The Dallas Cowboys for AT&T Stadium is a big deal for us," said RFD-TV Founder and Owner Patrick Gottsch. "I see this event evolving to make this event a destination place to enjoy western sports. This is our biggest day of the year and we want to expand and improve that. With PBR's involvement, I'm confident that we can do that."

Since its debut in 2014, THE AMERICAN has invited the top 10 rodeo athletes in the world in seven events to compete at the home of the Dallas Cowboys. With this unique "Open" format, anyone can qualify for this prestigious event through a series of qualifiers in partnership with five sanctioning organizations. The partner organizations include Professional Bull Riders (PBR), United States Team Roping Championships (USTRC), Ultimate Calf Roping (UCR), Better Barrel Racing, and World's Toughest Rodeo. Any contestant who advances to THE AMERICAN and out-rides or out-ropes the sport's elite stars is eligible for an additional $1 million bonus.

Official ticket sales begin on August 26th and start at $20. The PBR and The American are also offering a combo ticket for both events with a savings of up to $50 on the weekend event. All tickets can be found on Ticketmaster.com or by calling (800) 745-3000.

Flitt N Fizz

The Barrel Racing Report would like to extend our condolences to Fred & Nancy Hunter on the loss of their great NFR horse Flit N Fizz (Fuzz). They lost him to colic this morning (Aug 30). We will have a more in depth story in next week's issue. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Hunter family.

Kylie Conner & Famous Fancy Coin RFD-TV's The American Semifinals Bound

By Tanya Randall

Kylie Conner and Famous Fancy Coin set the pace at the RFD-TV's The American Qualifier, held at the No Bull Barrel Race Stop #12 in North Augusta, S.C. The homeschooled eighth grader from Welsh, La., will be joined in Fort Worth, Texas, by her 15-year-old sister Allie Conner, who qualified in 10th position aboard Racee Lacey.

"It was their first qualifier and both qualified," said the girl's mother Andre. "We were proud of both of them. They both work really hard."

Kylie, 13, pocketed $1,650 for winning the Qualifier and added another $1,456 for placing second in the Open with her carryover to Louis Fincher and Bully By Design, the recent $100,000 winner for Clint Sherlin.

Talmadge Green, who helped both girls find their qualifying horses, had suggested the family make the trip to North Augusta because he knew Kylie's horse Fancy had a successfully history in that pen.

"He's more powerful coming out of a turn than anything I've ridden," she said. "All my other horses have been easy and forgiving. He's a little bit harder."

Fancy, an 8-year-old Palomino gelding, is by Famous Gold Coin out of Shandys Fancy, by Implore. The gelding was bred by Ky Stierwalt of Leedey, Okla., and the Conner family purchased him for Kylie in February.

"He's more powerful coming out of a turn than anything I've ridden," she said. "All my other horses have been easy and forgiving. He's a little bit harder."

RIDER: KYLIE CONNER; BREEDER: KY STIERWALT

Kylie is a cradle cowgirl. With a former bull rider for a father and all-around hand for a mother, she started riding and running barrels when she was 3. Kylie is following in her mother's footsteps as an all-around hand. She competes in barrel racing, pole bending, goat tying and breakaway roping. She qualified for the Wrangler National Junior High Finals Rodeo the past two years. As a sixth grader, she qualified in barrel racing and pole bending, and as a seventh grader, she qualified in the barrel racing and breakaway roping.

She wanted to thank Team Talmadge and her family friends for all their help and support.

Her mother added, "We couldn't do it without Talmadge and his whole crew. They've helped us out a lot."

Talmadge had also helped the Conners find Racee Lacey for Allie, 15.

"He had just found that mare for her," noted Andre. That was just the second time for her to run that mare. We were extremely proud of her."

Both girls are anxiously awaiting the start of their respective rodeo seasons, but they could do with a little dry weather for a change.

"It's been raining here every day," said Andre, who blessedly lives on high enough ground to avoid the damaging floods. The family was able to help their neighbors by housing extra horses to escape the rising waters. "We left the three barrel horses at Talmadge's so he could work them for us because it's so wet here."

Streakin Wink Tops Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale at $78,000

By Tanya Randall

With a National Finals Rodeo track record on top and bottom, the keen, quick-footed 2-year-old stallion prospect, Streakin Wink, topped the 2016 Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale, held Friday, August 26, in Valentine, Neb. The son of multiple National Finals Rodeo sire and an Equi-Stat Leading Barrel Horse sire of $2.5 million, A Streak Of Fling, was purchased by Butch Webb of Isabel, S.D., for $78,000 from Fulton Ranch Performance Horses.

Sale topper, Streakin Wink, was backed by a solid NFR qualifying maternal line. His dam is California Circuit Champion Give Me A Wink, the daughter of Doc O' Dynamite that helped Rachael Myllymaki qualify for the 2002 NFR. His second dam is Ms Wayne Page, Myllymaki's first NFR mount.

Streakin Wink joins Webb's already impressive stallion battery at Vista Equine, which includes Magnum, a son of Frenchmans Guy out of NFR qualifier Tell Em Bell, and Vanila Viper, a full brother to NFR qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, by Dash Ta Fame out of SX Frenchmans Vanila, one of the all-time leading futurity horses.

Short Man Streakin, a full brother to NFR qualifier and RFD-TV's The American Champion, Fame Fling N Bling, was the second high-seller. The fancy bay roan weanling, by A Streak Of Fling out of the Equi-Stat Leading Broodmare Short Penny, by Dash Ta Fame, was purchased by Dwayne Collier of Texas for $39,000 from Fulton Family Performance Horses.

The classy, elegant weanling bay roan filly, Streakin Fa Tima, and the beautiful buckskin yearling stallion, A Frosty Fling, tied for the third high-seller. Both horses sold for $25,000. Streakin Fa Tima, a Fulton consignment, is by A Streak Of Fling out of the Dash Ta Fame daughter Queen Fa Tima, making her a full sister to barrel racing money earners Streakin Ta Corona and Streakin Queenie. The filly sold to Fred Lenertz of Minnesota. A Frosty Fling was the high-selling guest consignment. The Clay Boehs offering is by A Streak Of Fling out of a Sun Frost, Lone Drifter mare, PC Sun Lonita. A Frosty Fling sold to Cody Wolbeck of Canada.

Streakinmajorcommand, an impressive, good moving 2-year-old bay roan mare, wrapped up the Top 5 High-Sellers. The Fulton Family Performance Horses consignment brought a $24,000 bid from Bryan Lange of Nebraska. The filly is by A Streak Of Fling out of A Major Little Fritz, by Friendly Fritz.

With just 55 head offered, the sale netted $728,650 on the 47 horses that changed hands. Overall prices averaged $15,503 with the Fulton consignments averaging $20,041 and the guest consignments averaging $11,510.

The 23 offspring of A Streak Of Fling sold for $487,750, an average price of $21,207. His two-year-olds averaged $24,864, while the yearlings and weanlings averaged $13,000 and $21,800, respectively.

The full sale averages and results are below.

Lenas Famous Blondie Steals Spotlight in Big J Futurity

Lenas Famous Blondie and Kassie Green put on a sparkling performance to earn championship honors at the Big J Futurity Aug. 27-28 in Waterloo, Iowa.

Green, 29, of Shakopee, Minnesota, won the average by piloting the 5-year-old palomino (Born Ta Be Famous x Bambis Lena, by Mr Freckles Olena) winning run the first go and a fourth-place run in the final round.

They ran 15.160 in the first go and 15.253 in the second go for an average time of 30.413.

"She's really sweet, but she's a gritty little horse," Green said.

The event held at the National Cattle Congress grounds was the third futurity win this year for Green and Lenas Famous Blondie.

The duo also won the Minnesota Breeders Run Futurity and the Minnesota Futurity. This is Green's first year focusing on futurities.

"I never dreamed it would be this successful," she said.

Lenas Famous Blondie is a maternal half sister to Green's good rodeo horse, Lenas Little Redhead (Designer Red x Bambis Lena), who qualified to the Great Lakes Circuit Finals.

Lenas Famous Blondie earned a total of $1264.88.

The Big J Futurity Reserve Championship went to SR Moonlites on Fire and Nichole Ratkowski, who won the second go-round and had an average time of 30.452.

The 2011 gelding by Frenchmans Moonlite earned $904.50.

Total payout for the 2016 Big J Futurity was $7850

It is produced by Go For Broke Productions, of Stanhope, Iowa.

For more details on the Big J Futurity, visit www.goforbrokeproductions.com.

ShezaStreaknSunfrost wins Big J Futurity Big 8 Performance Fund Average

Gary and Debra Bartelt, of Waldorf, Minnesota, cashed in big when their homebred mare ShezaStreaknSunfrost (A Streak of Fling x AP Lucy, by Sun Frost) won the Big J Futurity Big 8 Performance Fund Average.

Horses by Big 8 Performance Fund-nominated stallions are eligible to win bonus money in the Big J Futurity and Big J Derby/Maturity.

The 31.158-second average ShezaStreaknSunfrost and rider Shawn Varpness ran in the Big J Futurity earned $420 in Big 8 bonus money for the Bartelts and $270 for Fulton Ranch, owner of Big 8 Performance Fund stallion and leading barrel sire A Streak of Fling.

Success earned by ShezaStreaknSunfrost, who placed second in the Big J Futurity's second go, is extra special to her owners because the filly was orphaned as a foal.

"About an hour and a half after she was born, her mother died," said Gary Bartelt. "We raised her from birth."

Nicks Special K, by Big 8 Performance Fund stallion Manors Nick Bar, and Donna Kalish were the Big J Futurity Big 8 Performance Fund Average Reserve Champions. Their 31.387 average time earned $315 for Kalish and $180 for Manors Nick Bar's owners, Manor Farms, of Maiden Rock, Wisconsin.

Visit www.goforbrokeproductions.com/big8performancefund.html for more on the Big 8 Performance Fund and a list of participating stallions. -- Courtesy of Lynde Johnson

Big Money for Molli Montgomery at Doxa

By Hope Sickler

Molli Montgomery has been having a stellar 2016 futurity season and she can add another win to her increasingly glowing resume. Montgomery jockeyed Mission Ranch's Feelinthefirewater to the futurity championship at the first annual Doxa Extreme Event held in Alex, Oklahoma.

Feelinthefirewater "Sis" is the 4-year-old daughter of the leading freshman sire & NFR Qualifier, JL Dash Ta Heaven, and out of the phenomenal Fire Water Fanny, who was a huge force to reckon with when she was competing.

"Doxa was a lot of fun and something different which was cool. I was a little nervous to run outside, but Pete Oen was in charge of the barrel racing part of the event and he is so meticulous I knew everything would be handled with huge effort and be very precise. He definitely didn't disappoint and the whole event was very well ran and a lot of fun," explained Montgomery.

Calling herself a "strictly futurity ground" kind of trainer, Montgomery credits all the rodeo girls on being able to run outside in rodeo ground and the elements.

"We don't get a ton of runs outside, and nonetheless hardly any futurities at all are ran outside, so going into the event I was little unsure of how it would go. I had just ran "Sis" (Feelinthefirewater) the weekend before in Mississippi and she did very well so during my exhibition at Doxa, I just worked her slow and didn't feel that she needed to be cruised through to ease my nerves. I knew that she would do her job and all I would have to do is do mine."

Doxa started off with the slot race where the competition was deep with several top futurity trainers and their best horses trying to compete for that top honor.

"I was pretty much just winging it in the slot race. I knew that she was going to give me her best and I had just hoped that I would be able to ride whatever she gave me. She is really aggressive and there is no picking your speed with her. It is either all out or nothing at all. When you drop your rein to let her go it is like you are in a drag car leaving the starting line," Montgomery said about the talented 4-year-old mare.

Posting a blistering fast time of 15.571-seconds in the slot race, Montgomery claimed top honors and a check for $10,000.

"She made a perfect run in the slot race and our other two runs were beautiful as well. I was very pleased with her. That was her first futurity win this year. She had already won close to $85,000 up to that point but hadn't won a futurity yet so I was tickled pick with her."

Winning the first round of the futurity with a 15.626 and placing 4th in the second round of the futurity, Montgomery was on a mission and also claimed the futurity championship in addition to the slot race win. She not only had a successful weekend on "Sis" but also on the other horses she had entered (A Dash Ta Glamour & Heavenly Firewater), winning over $18,500, a trailer, buckles and several other neat prizes.

"It is so rewarding to me and I couldn't do it without God, my amazing husband and my incredible family. Starting out in the futurity business is hard and a lot of work until it seems like it finally pay off but I never stopped trying and this year, with the horses that I have, I feel extremely blessed and feel like I have finally started to make a name for myself as a successful futurity horse trainer. Feelinthefirewater "Sis"

BIT: Loomis gag with chain mouthpiece, leather tie down
SADDLE: Shiloh Saddlery
SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Saddle Pads
LEG GEAR: RES Gladiator Boots
FEED: Pellet grain from my local mill
HAY: Alfalfa hay from Utah and local coastal hay
SUPPLEMENTS: OE Nutraceuticals
ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Standing wraps and then I started dosing just plain yellow mustard to "Sis" because she had such nasty blisters in her throat from allergies. It is an old racetrack remedy and it has helped her a ton.

Record-breaking Prices at Myers Ranch/ Copper Spring Ranch Performance Sale

By Tanya Randall

Eloquent and athletic, Guyz Suzy Q set a record price for the storied Myers Ranch sale program when she commanded a $110,000 bid at the 2nd Annual Myers Ranch / Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale, held Saturday, August 27 in Bozeman, Mont., at Copper Spring Ranch.

Frenchmans Guy 2-year-old fillies were the story of the event, averaging $57,143 & the overall average for Frenchmans Guy offspring was $54,556. The gorgeous 2-year-old buckskin filly, Guyz Suzy Q, set the tempo. The daughter of the all-time leading living barrel horse sire out of the Dash Ta Fame mare Daisy Duke Dash. A multiple futurity winner formerly for Sue Smith, Daisy Duke Dash is out of graded stakes and barrel futurity finalist Midnight Moon JC, by Floyd De Great. Midnight Moon JC is also a half-sister to Smith's multiple futurity finalist Bug Dasher JC. The $110,000 ticket was signed by Harry LaToush.

Frenchmans Firestar, a quick footed, classy palomino 2-year-old filly by Frenchmans Guy out of the Paddys Irish Whiskey granddaughter Rojo Irish Barbie, was the second high-seller. After grabbing everyone's eye with an impressive preview, the Myers Ranch consignment sold to the Platts family of Arizona for $101,000.

Bringing $70,000 from the Shields family of Canada was Raysen Ta The Bar. Copper Spring Ranch acted as agent for the big, strong, striking 2-year-old Palomino stallion, by the all-time leading barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of French Bar Belle, by Frenchmans Guy. Incidentally, the same day in South Carolina, Raysen Ta The Bar's half-sister Racee Lacey qualified for RFD-TV's The American Semifinals.

Sheza Lil Nauty Guyz, a cute, eye-catching 2-year-old gray filly by Frenchmans Guy out of Royal Shake Em mare Dear Shakey, was the fourth high seller. The filly is a three-quarter sister to futurity money-earner Itis What Itis Guys. The Myers Ranch consignment sold to Gray of Alberta, Canada, for $50,000.

Rounding out the Top 5 high sellers, was Myers consignment Sheza Lady Guyz, a stunning sorrel 2-year-old full sister to futurity and pro rodeo earners Sheza Frenchmans Guy and Whats A Guy To Do. The filly is by Frenchmans Guy out of Sheza Dr Kirk, by Dr Kirk. She sold to Gary Langford of Florida for $49,000.

With 49 of the 57 head changing hands, the sale netted $1,201,750 with an average of $24,526.

The sale averages and full results are below.

Leleux Cashin in At Triangle Cross Classic

By Hope Sickler

The Triangle Cross Classic held in McCook, Nebraska is a go-to for most futurity trainers and riders and this year the young up and coming futurity training standout Kyle Leleux took the futurity championship aboard Streakin Otoe Girl.

Streakin Otoe Girl "Piper" is a 5-year-old mare by A Streak Of Fling and out of Frenchmans Otoe Girl by the legendary Frenchmans Guy.

"I only hauled two horses to McCook, "Piper" and a 4-year-old mare Buckneighked. Both being futurity horses, I decided to only enter one in the futurity. I picked "Piper" knowing that she was my best shot in that arena setup," explained Leleux.

Leleux describes the exceptional mare as very quiet and super kind.

"There isn't much that stirs her up. Even though she gets a little excited before her run, that's just her letting me know that she is ready. Kim Couch from Rattan, Oklahoma owns her and bought her from Monica McClung as a 3-year-old. Monica purchased her from the Fulton sale as a 2-year-old."

Being his first time to McCook, Leleux was just hoping for some nice, smooth runs.

"This was my first year that I have entered this futurity and I was blown away by the hospitality and the facility. The facility was awesome and the ground was great and stayed consistent throughout the entire weekend. What I liked most about the event was that the producers were very accommodating and extremely nice making everything go smoothly," Leleux said.

In the first round of the futurity, Leleux and "Piper" finished third with a 15.457 while Robyn Herring won the round on Unconquered Fame and Wendy Platts was second aboard JW Frenchmanicure.

"The holding pens and the alleyway are a little different in that facility compared to what horses are used to. It is a really sharp corner entering the alley and you really have to try and hold one back and get set up before taking off. Well "Piper" did not get that memo the first go and hooked the corner at a dead run. It didn't seem to bother her competition much, she finished third. She is extremely easy and honest once she is on pattern leaving me very little to do."

In the second round, the dynamic duo posted a time of 15.323-seconds which earned them second in the round behind Michelle Alley riding Toye Bugs.

"Our second run wasn't quite as pretty as our first round run but she clocked a faster time, finishing second in the round," said Leleux.

With a total time on two of 30.780, Leleux clenched the win aboard Streakin French Otoe and over $5,000.

"I was also very fortunate and blessed to win the high money earner between both the Cornhusker and the Triangle Cross winning a beautiful Coats Saddle. The prizes were great and I won several trinkets including a trophy jacket and halter which I will certainly put to use."

When spending his time at the futurities, Leleux stays focused by not letting much get to him. If he feels that his horse needs to be schooled before his/her run, he will wake up early the next morning to ride, making sure that his horse is soft and ready to compete that day.

"It is all about balance and keeping their minds sharp and in the game. If my horse is on target and working good, I will let him/her rest for another day. Then after a long day at the futurity, a couple of friends and I usually go out for dinner and drinks to wind down before heading to bed."

Leleux commented that the number one way he keeps his horses relaxed during an event is to keep them happy.

"For example: some horses need to have their buddy, so I make sure that they can get to their buddy at all times. I will also hand graze them throughout the day, allowing them to move around instead of just standing around in a stall all day long. I really try to make the environment suitable for each individual horse. They are all different. When spending as much time as us trainers do with each horse we start to figure out what makes them happy and happiness is the key to a successful horse in my opinion."

Headin' For Home

Like videos and clinics, there has also been a huge rise in the instructional book department. Golfers, football players and barrel racers have been getting into the "getting your head on straight" craze. There are books on how to visualize your win, your swing, your whatever. And a lot of people have benefitted from them.

But....like everything else, there is nothing new under the sun. Why, even the Bible has instruction for thinking good thoughts. Phil. 4:8 tells us 'whatever things are true, noble, just, pure, lovely, of a good report, with any virtue or anything praiseworthy, THINK ON THESE THINGS!' And then there is Joshua 1:8 which instructs us to "keep the Word of God on our mouth (SPEAK IT!) and think on it day and night and then do what it says." This all is followed with the promise, "then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success."

Our heavenly Father has been around a long time. I guess you could say, He has been there and done that. He loves us and wants us to be successful and happy. He created us and He knows how we tick. I trust Him. I trust His Word. When I obey His Word, I benefit greatly in every area of my life. So if I watch the videos and read the self-motivation books and become a successful barrel racer, but my body is sick or my marriage is on the rocks, I haven't received all God has for me in this life. Read the best book ever, the Bible!
