Destri Devenport & SR Industry Titan Soar At Horse Heaven Kennewick Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Destri Devenport and SR Industry Titan, owned by Tom & Nick Wylie, have been on a hot streak in the Northwest.

Together they've won three rodeos in the past two weeks, their biggest victory coming last week with a $8,965 victory at the $20,000-added Horse Heaven Kennewick Roundup in Washington. They also split second at the $10,000-added Kitsap Stampede in Bremerton, Washington, for total weekend earnings of $11,634.

"I think he's been run more in the last couple months than he has in his whole life, but he's gotten stronger and stronger," said Devenport. The Escondido, California, barrel racer started running the 8-year-old stallion after the Fourth of July run.

Their first run together was at Nephi, Utah, where the fresh from the breeding farm stallion playfully hopped his way through the pattern.

"That was funny," laughed Devenport, who had been in contact with Titan's main trainer and jockey, Troy Crumrine, since his futurity career. "I hadn't run him anywhere before that. I had literally trotted the pattern one time. He's just came from the breeding farm. He's pretty chill and laid back. Nothing gets him riled up. So, I ran him and he bucked. I sent Troy the video with the comment, 'What the heck?' He says, 'Oh, I forgot to tell you, he'll do that sometimes when he's feeling good and hasn't made a run in a while.' So, he was feeling good and he'd never been run outdoors, so that was new."

Devenport and Titan won their first pro rodeo check together at their second rodeo together in Laramie, Wyoming. Since then, they've placed at nearly all of the rodeos they've contested including Helena, Montana, Idaho Falls, Missoula and Cascade, Montana, and Gooding, Idaho. The week prior to Kennewick and Bremerton, they won the pro rodeos in Kalispell, Montana, and Canby, Oregon.

The varying setups haven't bothered Titan at all—a trait that Crumrine was always quick to point out even with his aged event wins.

"He hasn't seemed to care at all," noted Devenport. "I ran him at Nampa (Idaho, a building rodeo) and caught a barrel. He was really close there on their times. Kennewick, I didn't even get to ride him in the arena there and it's a different set up. I had never even ran a horse there to the right, I had only ran Buddy (a lefty) there. He's so black and white, he's just going to go do his job. He doesn't care about any of the setups."

Devenport has noticed that Titan is pretty smart about conditions too. Like at Kennewick in the short go, he adjusted to the deeper footing on his own.

"It's like he knew and just figured it out," she said.

The biggest challenge for Titan was adjusting to the routine of rodeo life.

"Right now, he's so confident," she said. "He feels good and is running strong. A few of my runs before, he felt a little bit like, 'What are we doing?' We drive and get out and run. We drive and then we get out and run. He wasn't quite sure what his job was. He just knew he was supposed to run barrels."

Devenport said there's not a lot to riding Titan.

"He'll fade at the first a little bit if you don't find your angle and ride pretty aggressive straight up the pen to your point. Other than that, you've just got to make sure you clear them on the backside. He's going to come back no matter what. It took me a little to figure that out—that even if you're lifting your leg, you've still got to make sure you've got enough forward momentum."

Other than that, Devenport said it was just getting enough runs together to have confidence in each other.

"I think that's really what has taken us a minute, just building that confidence and him knowing that I was pretty much going to stay out of his way."

Titan is out of NFR qualifier and all-time leading producer Mulberry Canyon Moon, dam of NFR qualifier MCM Imasharpguy. Titan himself made his pro rodeo debut at the 2020 NFR with Wenda Johnson, placing in the round.

The stallion was originally purchased as an embryo by Schiller Ranch from Matt and Bendi Dunn, who are listed as Titan's breeders. Schiller Ranch later sold Titan back to the Dunns as a yearling via the 2014 Texas Best Sale.

Titan started his training with Jolene Montgomery before being sold as a 3-year-old through the 2016 LG Pro Classic Sale to the Wylies, who placed him with Crumrine. Together, Titan and Crumrine won numerous futurity and derby championships including the 2019 BFA Derby and qualified multiple times to The American Semifinals Rodeo.

During Titan's aged event career, Devenport had asked Crumrine about the stallion's future plans. They remained in touch and she was eventually introduced to the Wylies, who after researching her, offered the stallion.

"Nick called and asked if I would be interested in riding him," she explained. "Troy told him that he thought I would ride him well and take care of him, so he called and asked if I wanted him. They just wanted to make sure before they sent him out to the rodeos that we had a good game plan, that he would be taken care of and not just be run and thrown on the trailer."

This past week, Devenport turned out of two rodeos—Tremonton, Utah, which had a bunch of rain, and Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, which would have put a trailer ride and run on the stallion before the short round in Kennewick.

Devenport also has 11-year-old gelding Buddy Rose in the trailer. The gelding has also been a strong performer in the past in the Northwest, having won the last Ellensburg Roundup held in 2019, but he got a wire cut at Cheyenne, Wyoming. Although he's ready to run now, Devenport hasn't wanted or needed to get off of Titan.

"Buddy's doing well and ready to run whenever Titan tells me he needs a break," she said. "I haven't got back on him because I just got my groove and timing with Titan, and he hasn't given me any signs of needing a break yet."

Devenport wanted to thank the Wylies for the opportunity to run Titan and Crumrine for all of his help. She also wanted to thank the committees who provided safe, fair footing at Bremerton and Kennewick.

"Thank you to the committees at both rodeos for dragging and taking care of us," she said. "It gives us all a chance to win and we don't have to feel bad about running our horses. It's highly appreciated."

Devenport, who currently sits 33rd in the WPRA World Standings with $30,240, said she plans on taking things one run at a time for this last month of the 2021 rodeo season.

"A month ago, I was 78th in the World so my goal was just to get into the Top 40 so I could get into the buildings next year," she said. "We're just going to take it one run at a time and see how high we can climb."

AIRWAY EQ™

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Sharin Hall & Hello Stella Win Second Straight Futurity With Glen Wood Championship

By Tanya Randall

Newly minted million dollar rider Sharin Hall and Hello Stella have won three of the four recent futurities held in the Blackhawk Arena in Salina, Utah. Hall and Stella followed up their Southwest Desert Classic Futurity Championship with a $13,561 weekend at the Glen Wood Memorial.

"Stella, it's just like she gets better and better," said Hall of her homebred daughter of The Goodbye Lane out of her former Dash Ta Fame futurity standout Go Go Fame. "She amazes me every run. Every run I come out shaking my head—she did it again. She's just a phenomenal athlete. I feel me breeding her, the whole history behind her and her mother and everything that I went through, it's just like the most satisfying thing. I'm just enjoying every minute of her. I thank God every day."

The Long Road

Hall grew up in Ohio, running barrels at the Quarter horse shows alongside her father, Jackson.

"I was the Congress baby," said Hall, referring to the largest Quarter horse show in the country, The All-American Quarter Horse Congress. "I grew up running there all the time. I set the arena record there with a 14.6 in 1985."

She set the record on T'Heck, a veritable outlaw that her father trained.

"I swear that horse T'Heck taught me how to just sit in the middle and just ride," Hall said. "I remember going to the calcuttas and he'd always be the high seller."

The first horse that Hall trained herself was an off-the-track gelding named Classy Nobleman. She qualified the 4-year-old gelding to the 1990 AQHA World Show in junior barrel racing. With her mother unable to haul her due to work, Hall was sent to Oklahoma City with Kelly Bowser.

"I won 4th and got $1,200, and you would have thought I hit the jackpot!" chuckled Hall. "I knew that I wanted to train young horses. I've been fortunate. I've had a lot of experience, learning what to do and what not to do."

In 1999, Hall relocated to Oklahoma. She had a futurity horse named Four Fifty Five Rocket at the time. That's when Ken Pruitt took notice and became her client for 12 years.

"That man taught me a lot," she said. "I had to change a little bit of my style of training. I was just a little too tight around the barrels. He taught me how to give those horses a little bit more room so they could run around the barrel."

Hall's first big check as a futurity trainer came at the 2002 Old Fort Days Futurity with the Jud Little-bred Mr Moonie Man, owned by Pruitt.

"I got third and won $18,000," she recalled. "That was the biggest check I'd won at the time."

The Dash Ta Fame gelding Dash Ta Da Moon followed in 2003.

"I bought Dash Ta Da Moon in November of his 3-year-old year and he made the finals of the Speedhorse Futurity in March," Hall remembered. "After his futurity year, I wanted to fill my (WPRA) permit. I go with Kelly Bruner to Odessa (Texas). I'm entered as a permit holder and I end up winning second. It pays $2500 and I fill my permit. I was like 'Wow! This rodeo thing is fun! I got second on him at the big slack at San Angelo. I later won the pro rodeo in Stephenville, Texas."

Dash Ta Da Moon later sold to actress and barrel racer Darcy LaPier

"He was the first high-dollar horse I ever sold," Hall said. "He sold for ridiculous money."

Other talented horses followed like Bahama Bully, the WPRA Derby Year-End Champion and All-American Quarter Horse Congress Sweepstakes Winner; Pac West Futurity Champion and RFD-TV's The American Top 4 Finalist Streaking Ta Fame; and leading futurity horse Bulleva, winner of the Diamonds & Dirt Slot Race.

Before Stella, the horse dearest to Hall's heart was Dreaming of Foose ("Callie").

"When I won the highest paying slot race, the $110,000 at Diamonds & Dirt in 2015, I took $5,000 of my winnings—because I was partnered on that horse—I was like 'I've got to find a 2-year-old, and I want to find a racehorse.' That's all I wanted—a runner, but it has to look like a barrel horse. I start looking at Barrel Horse World. I found this little bay. They had a good picture and she looked like the right conformation. They wanted $10,000 and I called and asked if they would take $5,000—I'd vet her and send them a wire. They did. I bought her sight unseen from California. "I won seven titles on that mare and had won right at $100,000 when she died at the AQHA World Show. She never won a dime at the slot races. She did it the hard way. That was a special mare."

Coming Around

Callie was also supposed to be the start of Hall's transition away from training for the public. The years in the saddle had taken its toll on her body, namely her shoulder.

"My body told me that I needed to figure something else out," she said. "In 2018, I was still at the ranch in Harrah, Oklahoma. I was in so much pain. You know when you're in so much pain that you just have to go to the doctor? When you have to figure out what this is because Advil and Aleve don't work no more? The doctor was like you can't keep doing what you're doing."

Although steroid injections only gave her six weeks of relief, stem cell and PRP injections have sustained her for the past couple of years.

"It's three years later and it's starting to hurt a little again," she said. "I feel like the stem cell did me a lot of good the last two years. I try not to saddle. I don't have 12-15 horses anymore and I pay somebody to do stalls and all that physical stuff."

In the meantime, she added a real estate license to her resume, so she could transition away from fulltime training.

"For the last five years I've been trying to do that, but it's been hard to transition," she said. "I got my real estate license in 2019. I wanted to transition from training income to having real estate supplementing my income to where I could ride my own. It's taken me two years (to transition) even with my real estate license. Earlier this year I campaigned Hot Rod Ta Fame through Fort Smith so now I really just have my own."

Having only to answer to herself has made her more relaxed and focused.

"I feel like I can give back more and do more for other people instead of being so busy, tired and worn out," she said. "I'm happy. I only have me to deal with at the end of the day. I've got a sup-

TRY.

You will be amazed at what you can accomplish if you just TRY.

Accomplishing anything, overcoming any challenge, requires a start, and starting something requires a willingness to TRY — a decision followed by effort to do something.

Breeders Challenge Championship Coming September 13-19!

The exciting 1st year of the Breeders Challenge will culminate with a $1,000,000 Championship Race at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Ft Worth, TX on September 13-19, 2021.

The Breeders Challenge is open to the offspring of the 100 participating stallions in the program. The foals of these stallions can participate in the program once they are enrolled. Offspring enter the qualifiers and run for payouts at each race, as well as securing their spot as a qualifier for the finale in multiple divisions.

The Breeders Challenge was founded by Rick Ford, Jade Ford, Ray Whitmire, & Lainie Whitmire to expand the sport of barrel racing and increase payouts for those involved in the industry. "We want to give all those involved in the program an opportunity to be successful at whatever level they are invested and able. Care and longevity of the equine athletes is extremely important to us, as well as recognizing the breeders, owners, trainers, and stallion owners," said co-owner Jade Ford.

Throughout 2021, the Breeders Challenge held 4 qualifiers in conjunction with other major barrel races throughout the country at The Elite Extravaganza, VGBRA Barrel Daze, Lucky Dog Productions, and Colorado Classic. The divisions included an Open Futurity, Open Derby, Amateur Futurity, and Open 4D. From those 4 Qualifiers, 365 of the best barrel horses from the US and Canada qualified to the Championship Race. The Qualifiers paid out a hefty $650,000 together.

The $1,000,000 Finale will include a $400k Futurity, $200k Derby, $120k Amateur Futurity and a $80k Open 4D. As an example of what that means to those entered, the futurity winner will earn a whopping $140,568.75; with $84,341 to the Owner, $42,170 to the Stallion and $14,056 to the Nominator. The Derby winner will net $70,284, $42,170 to Owner, $21,085 to Stallion, and $7,028 to the Nominator. Qualifying is crucial to huge payouts! The Amateur Futurity guarantees a payout to all of the qualifiers. The Open Futurity & Open Derby guarantee payouts to the 30 Finalists, and the Open 4D pays 40 holes; 10 per D.

Breeder Challenge Championship Schedule:

Sept 15 - Invitational Jackpot, Open 4D Finals

Sept 16 - Invitational Jackpot

Sept 17 - Open Futurity & Derby Semi Finals

Sept 18 - Open Futurity, Open Derby, & Amateur Futurity Finals

In addition to the finale, they will host 2-$75,000 Invitational Jackpots on September 15th and 16th, approved by WCRA, WPRA, & BBR with a Select Stallion Stakes Bonus for the race on the 16th. Both of these races will be open to the public during the week. Breeders Challenge invites all spectators to come and enjoy a great week celebrating some of the fastest horses in the industry. Horses do not have to be enrolled in the program in order to enter either of these, and they will be capped at 500 entries each day with the purses guaranteed to pay 80% of entries.

Along with the amazing payouts, the Finale will also bring the fun for the contestants. There will be a Welcome Party for all qualifiers & A Draw Party featuring Howl2Go Dualing Pianos for the Finalists. They will also have stallion booths offering breeders a chance to meet and greet with facilities, stallion owners, and teams that can help prepare for the upcoming breeding season.

All foals sired by the participating stallions pay a one time enrollment fee of $250 by December 1, 2021 to be eligible to run in the future Breeders Challenge events. After that date, the enrollment fee is specific to the age of the horse. When a new stallion moves into the program, all of his offspring will have a year to grandfather in for $250. The list of Stallions in the program and all other information can be found at www.BreedersChallenge.com

Looking forward to 2022, Breeders Challenge will host 5 qualifiers across the United States beginning with Qualifier 1 in November at The Fiddlers Turkey Run. They will also transition the Amateur Futurity to an Amateur Derby for 5-8 year olds, along with continuation of the Open Futurity for 4 or 5 year olds, Open Derby for 5-8 year olds, and 2 4D Races per qualifier.

The founders of the program encourage everyone to participate with eligible offspring to take advantage of the huge payouts the program returns to the Owner, Nominator, and Stallion Owner over the course of the equine athletes career.

Operation Unicorn will auction off embryo by Epic Leader & dam of Sister Operation Unicorn has announced that a 2022 embryo by Epic Leader (sire of earners of $1.4 million) and out of Royal Sissy Irish (dam of DM Sissy Hayday "Sister" earnings of $2.3 million) will be auctioned off at the Pink Buckle Barrel Horse Sale Oct 8, 2021 at the Lazy E Arena with all proceeds going to benefit the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Operation Unicorn was recently established by John & Becky Maubach, owners of Equistat #1 All-time leading barrel racing dam, Royal Sissy Irish. Each year they hope to collaborate with entities to offer the most elite equine genetics and donate the proceeds to the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

"I spent over 25 years as a helicopter pilot in the Air Force, over 22 of that flying Special Operations helicopters and CV-22s. Much of that time was deployed supporting operations around the world and unfortunately, during these operations, many great Americans lost their lives. I wanted to do something to help the families of these great heroes, and the Special Operations Warrior foundation (SOWF) is an awesome organization and a wonderful way to support those families that have lost loved ones. After I retired from the Air Force, Becky and I went to the Myers Horse Sale on a whim because we thought it would be nice to visit the Black Hills. We were looking for young horses that were already started, but "accidentally" bought a 5-month-old colt when the bidding stalled and I raised my hand to do my part to help the bidding process on a horse that was being auctioned off as a fundraiser for a nephew of the Myers that had been injured in a rodeo accident. Suddenly, we were the proud owners of a stud colt by Frenchmans Guy! As that colt grew, so did our interest in the barrel racing world. We invested in some mares, one of them being Royal Sissy Irish. Unbeknownst to us at the time, that purchase would lead us to the place we are now! Becky and I laugh about how all of this has happened and what got us to this point. We feel that for some reason God has led us here and it is our responsibility to take what God has given us and share it with those in need. This is a great opportunity to take what we have been given and use it to help the Special Operations Warrior Foundation to meet their goal in ensuring every child of a special operator or medal of honor recipient gets an education at no expense to the family." John Maubach Special Operations Warrior Foundation Mission Special Operations Warrior Foundation ensures the surviving children of fallen Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps special operations personnel receive a college education. Should their parent make the ultimate sacrifice, Special Operations Warrior Foundation (SOWF) will be by their side. As of November 2020, we have expanded program eligibility to include children of ALL Medal of Honor recipients as well. Our commitment to academic success is much more than a tuition check. SOWF provides students with tools for educational success, including preschool funding, academic counseling, private tutoring, college planning, coaching and mentoring, and college-to-career transition.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's fair time almost everywhere. Funny things happen at the fair. But until a few weeks ago, I'd never heard this! Our Associate Pastors' son, who is 6, came to church and told me that he'd been at the fair and "A steer attacked" a woman and she had to go in the ambulance!"

I've been around a lot of animals in my life, but I don't remember a show steer attacking anyone. So, I teasingly asked Thad if the steer bit her? "No, he STRUCK her!" (I haven't seen that either! LOL!) In his young mind this was a most grievous assault and he was upset!!

I thought his description of events very funny and I kept trying to picture in MY mind, with my life experience, what HIS life experience was telling HIM!

In the same manner, we are God's little children. He has all the wisdom and experience and we have a very limited view of things. I'm sure when we are flipping out about world events, or money, or a health issue, from HIS point of view it looks so simple. It comes down to trust.

If we've asked Jesus to be our Lord, we have entrusted Him with our eternal LIFE. Surely, if He can handle that, He can handle what's going on in our world. He asked us to pray. We can do that. We can, and most definitely should, stand up and speak up. Then we roll our cares over on Him and rest in His peace! I Peter
