DM High Roller & Latricia Mundorf Hit Jackpot at Salina Ruby Buckle

By Tanya Randall

Late Monday afternoon a week ago, Latricia Mundorf of Three Rivers, Texas, had a mini pity-party and threw her proverbial sucker in the dirt. Her burgeoning superstar DM High Roller had made his first big mistake, on national TV no less, in a performance at the Cheyenne Frontier Days, the summer's richest pro rodeo.

The 4-year-old stallion lost sight of the second barrel in the milling crowd on the bucking chutes and went on the wrong side. Less than 48 hours later, he was redeeming himself at the Ruby Buckle in Salina, Utah, where he laid claim to $46,795 for winning the Futurity and second in the Open.

"He's a 4-year-old that's taken everything I've ever thrown at him," said Mundorf, "and he made one mistake. 'I knew I needed to school him but I wasn't mad.'"

Immediately following her run in Cheyenne, Mundorf drove to Rock Springs where she laid over for the night and was able to lope through a couple sets of barrels.

"I just made sure he was finishing his first barrel and moving over," she explained. "I went to Ruby Buckle, exhibited him one time, and ran him."

Even though the Cheyenne incident was still in the back of her mind, the young stallion known around the barn as Vanilla Wafer clocked a 15.330 good enough for second in the first round of the Futurity.

Mundorf said she tried really hard to not listen to what was going on before her second run so she could focus on having a nice, smooth run.

"If I ask him to go fast, he can go way fast," she said. "He can go way faster than he needs to go. I don't know if I'll ever need him to go as fast as he can go."

The only difference between their first run and second run was the insurance she took out at the third barrel. After turning a good first and second, she uncharacteristically picked up the outside rein to make sure she had plenty of room at the third.

"I probably shouldn't have," she laughed. "He's really soft and supple, so he stood up and ran a circle around it. He'll just do whatever I tell him. I told him don't get too close and he didn't. That cost me some time."

She was just a hair slower with a 15.369, which also placed second in the round but gave them the championship.

"I was tickled with both runs," she said. "They weren't scorching fast runs, but they were solid. Whatever they ended up in the average I was fine with."

Both runs placed in each of the Open rounds as well. When the race concluded on Saturday afternoon they'd finished second in that aggregate as well. Overall, Vanilla Wafer won $34,000 in the Futurity and $12,785 in the Open.

Mundorf and Vanilla Wafer were long gone by the Open's conclusion, however. They placed at the pro rodeo in Gordon, Nebraska, that night.

Vanilla Wafer is by the late leading barrel horse sire French Streaktovegas.

"Jaime Robison told me if I ever wanted to breed to French Streaktovegas that she'd make it happen," Mundorf said. "I've

Vanilla Wafer is out of Mundorf's first homebred superstar Happy To Run Em ("Kiley"), by leading barrel horse sire Firewaterontherocks out of blue hen producer Lady Rompin, by Tiny Tornado Too. An AQHA World Champion, futurity winner and pro rodeo money earner, Kiley ran out more than $100,000 before her career was cut short due to injury suffered in a fall at the American Semifinals Rodeo.

"His mom was a barrel horse. His dad was a barrel horse. His granddad was a barrel horse. He just runs barrels. It sounds dumb, but he does, he just runs barrels," said Mundorf.

Her husband Dillon, who bred three-time WPRA World Champion and recent Cheyenne Frontier Days winner DM Sissy Hayday, started Vanilla Wafer and used him for ranch work.

"I didn't even start riding him until he was 3," said Mundorf. "He was so light, feely and athletic. I would take him around the barrels every now and then. I was just easy for him, really easy. By the fifth day, you were like, 'Hmm, now what?' I'd love to say that I trained him, but I didn't. He just ran barrels. You just showed him what you wanted and he's like 'Oh, OK.'"

Vanilla Wafer started his barrel racing career placing in the BFA Super Stakes. He's also been a finalist at other large events like the Ruby Buckle Guthrie Futurity and Old Fort Days Futurity. Since Mundorf's husband provides the roping calves at many pro rodeos, Vanilla Wafer got an early start at that level too. He placed at Mercedes, Bandera and Weatherford, Texas, and made it past the progressive round at San Angelo.

"When I got out here (for the summer rodeos), he struggled with the ground," Mundorf said. "It has more hardpan, and he'd never been in anything with a hardpan."

At Casper, Wyoming, Vanilla Wafer was back on familiar footing and almost won first there.

"Casper was sand," she said. "I drug the first barrel to win the first round at Casper. It was a big relief for me, 'OK, my horse is still here.' I've just got to get him in situations he can handle. He was comfortable in that ground at Casper."

Vanilla Wafer also handled the first round at Cheyenne well making into the top 72 advancing to the performances out of 209 runners.

"I thought he handled the mud in the first round at Cheyenne really well," she said. It started raining at draw 160 and she was 199. "I wasn't fast, but I was in the Top 50. I really didn't see the second round coming. I didn't feel like I would make it through because there are so many amazing rodeo horses out here.

"He loves the perfs. I still think it was all the people at the bucking chutes. The crowd doesn't bother him, but he's never run into people moving around and they were right there in his face. It's not that far from the barrel to the fence."

Now, Mundorf is focusing on the bigger futurities coming up this fall, including the Royal Crown, Fizz Bomb, Ardmore and Breeders Challenge. After his final futurity run at the OKC Futurity, Vanilla Wafer will go to Zerlotti Genetics.

"Zerlotti's already has a stall ready for him," she said. "He's going to stand there. That wasn't where I thought his life was going to go, but it's taken on a life of its own. I'm still going to run him though. There will be some places there that people will have to use frozen semen because he's still going to run barrels."

Mundorf said she honestly never dreamed of standing a stud for the public.

"He's the most athletic, talented horse that I've ever ran barrels on," she said. "Once he was 2 and we were riding him, we were like can we reproduce this? Can he sire the same feel because I've never felt anything like it. Dillon's goal has always been to raise horses that he wanted to ride, and he's something he wants to ride more of. He's just always done everything we've asked."

RUBY BUCKLE THE RUBY BUCKLE FUTURITY & OPEN WINNERS

JULY 27-31, BLACKHAWK ARENA, SALINA, UT
$730,000+ TOTAL PAYOUT

Ruby Buckle Regional Race #2 took place in Salina, UT July 27 - 31st at the Blackhawk Arena. The $730,000+ Guaranteed Payout Barrel Race hosted 419 Open Barrel Racers, 124 Barrel Futurity competitors and 46 Youth racers. All of our champions are based on a 2 go average.

The Ruby Buckle Barrel Race is open to anyone riding a horse sired by one of the 150 Ruby Buckle stallions. The stallion owners are the heart of the program and the best way to showcase the world-class equine genetics that they have to offer is to give competitors of all skill levels races with huge payouts and a fun and relaxed atmosphere. Our events are tailored so that contestants have the opportunity to network with stallion owners.

Our races pay each 'D' equally! At each regional race, each

'D' has $115,000 guaranteed payouts and pays down 15 places. We publish all of our guaranteed payouts at the beginning of the year.

This stallion-based incentive is unique to the barrel racing industry because it relies on a nomination system to guarantee yearly race payouts. $2.3 Million dollars will be paid out at 3 regional Ruby Buckle Barrel Races in 2021! Each year our payouts grow because of the nomination system.

All horses need to be nominated (paid in) annually to remain eligible to compete in future years, starting from the year of birth. Nominations are due Aug 1 for $200 OR Dec 1 for $300.

Race earnings totals include Owner, Stallion Owner and Breeder money paid.

Chani Graves & Im Little Bit Famous Nab Ruby Buckle Salina Open Championship

By Tanya Randall

2005 WPRA Rookie of the Year Chani (Payne) Graves capped off her nearly three week summer fun run to Utah with a $14,760 Ruby Buckle Salina Open 1D Championship aboard Im Little Bit Famous. The duo also won $1,737 for Little Bit's sire Born Ta Be Famous and $869 for her breeder Victory Farms.

"I'm still processing it," laughed Graves from her home in Sulphur Springs, Texas. She and Little Bit, a 10-year-old mare, placed seventh in the first go with a 15.406 and 6th in the second with a 15.258.

"She's gotten to where she gets really short running to her first barrel in indoor pens," Graves explained. "She got a little ratey on our first run.

"The second day we had to wait until the end of the day because we were No. 6 and it was reverse order. I was already ready to go home because I'm a homebody and I'd already been out there more than two weeks to rodeos and stuff. Finally, it was my turn and all I could think about was just 'get her to your first barrel! Whatever else you do, just get her to her first barrel!'"

"I didn't even know that I had a shot (to win the average). I heard the announcer talking me up and saying that I had a shot to win the average, but I didn't even know what I needed to run! I just went in there with a goal of making a smooth, awesome run."

Little Bit is out of Graves' great rodeo mare Little Bit Princess, a daughter of Super Sence Amillion out of Little Bit Ahead, by Gone To The Man, that she bought off the track in December of her third year.

"I started training her as a 4-year-old and tried to futurity her as a 5-year-old. We did well at some of the fall futurities, but she really started to shine as a derby horse her 6-year-old year. We got second at the Silver Cup Derby and third in the Gold Cup Derby."

After dominating at the local amateur rodeos, Graves bought her permit when she turned 18 and promptly filled it with a few runs at Mesquite, Texas.

"In 2005, I won Rookie of the Year," she said. "We finished 16th that year and I honestly didn't have a clue what I was doing part of the time! Molly Powell was 15th and she borrowed her to go to the NFR. She ran her four rounds and placed in three out of the four.

"In 2006, we started off at the winter rodeos and we were doing great. I was sitting sixth in the world when she fell at the Winter Tour Finale and tore her deep flexor tendon. That pretty much ended her career."

With Princess's competitive career over, Graves made a foal sharing deal with Danny Ray of Victory Farms in Ada, Oklahoma.

"I was young and couldn't afford to breed her like I wanted to and get her babies out there, so Danny and I made a deal where he would take her and get babies out of there," she explained. Unfortunately, they only got one foal the first year, VF A Little Bit Red, by Designer Red. Graves sold her half interest in that mare to Ray and now the mare resides in Ryann Pedone's broodmare band.

The first one that Graves got was Little Bit, who was born on her place via a recipient mare.

"I've had Little Bit her whole life," she said. "I like to make a running joke that I've been fighting to get her into this world and keep her here for 13 years! She's kind of a walking accident." Little bit has battled sarcoids under her eyelids, cuts on every leg but one—and that leg has bone spurs, and battled nerve paralysis on both sides of her face—once from ticks and another from injury. "I laugh about all this now, but she was a walking accident for years, that's the reason she didn't get started until she was 6!" said Graves. "It's truly only because of her heart that she wants to do this because of everything she's gone through she shouldn't do what she does."

Graves also has a 5-year-old Eddie Stinson, VF Lil Bit Stinson that placed in the first round of the futurity and open at Ruby Buckle Salina as well as a 5-year-old full sibling to Little Bit and a 2-year-old by Guys Canyon Moon. All are out of Princess.

"I got her back in 2017," said Graves. "She's 24 and I told her after the 2-year-old that she didn't have to do that anymore. She didn't owe me anything. She's just living out her days in the pasture." Princess is actually babysitting her granddaughter, Little Bit's 4-month-old filly by Epic Leader.

Graves said she's hoping she has her Princess babies doing well enough to accomplish what their mother almost did.

I'm trying to plan for the 2022 rodeo season, to see if I can get a good start at the Texas rodeos this fall. I'm more focused on getting my futurity colt going a little bit further. She's doing great. Her running style reminds me more of her mother than Little Bit. Little Bit's overall attitude reminds me of her mother, but Xena, to me, runs a lot like her momma. She's fun."

Graves wanted to thank her husband Rich for all his support.

"If you've ever watched any of my videos, he's my biggest cheerleader," said Graves. The couple have a 9-year-old, soccer-playing son Case. "I've often joked that no one watches my videos to see my run, they watch to hear his commentary. It's quite comical. He's just the biggest support that anyone could have.

"He didn't have anything to do with horses when we got together, and I kept trying to warn him how crazy it really was. He didn't listen. He's jumped in with both feet and is as addicted as we are! It's a team effort at this point!"

“SUCCEED is the ingredient for success.”

Kassidy McKee

“Health starts from within. A strong performance starts from within as well. SUCCEED has improved the gut health of my horses and helped them keep a healthy appetite while on the road. This allows them to be their very best every time I send them down the alley.”

Cooked to Perfection.

The way horse feed should be.

For over 35 years, HYGAIN® feeds have been perfected with painstaking attention to every detail. Our feed range includes a not-so-secret ingredient: the Australian Sweet Lupin, a soluble super fiber that is low in starch and sugar with high energy sources for optimal conditioning with more control.

Made in an equine-only manufacturing facility for product purity with no cross-contamination, each of our feeds is formulated to deliver optimal health, enhance nutritional value, improve palatability and increase feed efficiency.

Hailey Kinsel & DM Sissy Hayday Win First Cheyenne Frontier Days Championship

By Tanya Randall

With the first round of the Cheyenne Frontier Days coming on the heels of the Calgary Stampede in years past, DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") hasn't got to play in the wide open expanse of Frontier Park since her sophomore year as a barrel horse. Three-time WPRA World Champion Hailey Kinsel has always opted to save her prized mount from the all-night drive and tight turnaround.

This year was different.

With the WPRA opting out of sanctioning the Calgary Stampede and Kinsel remaining stateside, she went with her the big gun for the Daddy Of 'Em All.

Sis didn't disappoint. The fleet-footed Palomino mare turned in the two fastest times of the entire rodeo including in the all important Final Round on Sunday to claim championship honors at the 125th Annual Rodeo and vault Kinsel to the unofficial No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings (she should vault to #1 after the Cheyenne earnings are added into the World Standings, as of this writing Cheyenne earnings weren't added in).

The $67,000-added rodeo started with a qualifying round on Wednesday. It drew 300 entries but saw 209 make their first run after turnouts and releases. Per Cheyenne's ground rules, the draw would be manipulated to remove all turnouts and releases so each drag had a full 12 contestants in the qualifying rounds.

That was good news for Kinsel and Sis.

"My initial draw wasn't great, but I got moved up to a great spot," said the Cotulla, Texas, barrel racer. "On the initial draw I was 12th, but then they moved everyone up after taking out the notified turnouts and releases, so I got moved to second!

"It's one of those rodeos where if you don't have a good draw for the first round, you just have to make a solid run to try to get back to the perfs," she explained. "Being progressive now instead of an average, you can still do well if you're not so fast in the first round. It's still nice to set yourself up for good runs coming later and try to win money in the first round."

Kinsel and Sis were draw number 134 and posted a 17.56 on their first effort in Cheyenne in four long years. The last time she ran Sis at Cheyenne was in the second round in 2017.

"She was 6," recalled Kinsel. "She made a great first and second and I made the mistake of kicking her all the way to the third barrel. We never saw the third barrel! I learned my lesson. Say whoa at the third barrel at Cheyenne!"

Now a tournament-style, made-for-TV rodeo, the top 72 times from the first/qualifying round advanced to the performances. Kinsel was able to make two other rodeos before returning to Cheyenne for her second quarterfinal run in Tuesday's performance. She had intentions of running Sis at Spanish Fork, Utah, but a much welcomed "monsoon" to the drought stricken region put the kibosh on that plan. To save herself a turnout fine and the loss of 50 Pro Rodeo Tour points for the Finale in Salina, Utah, in September, Kinsel got to trot through the pattern on a young horse. Sis did get her chance to run though, winning Ogden, Utah, before returning to Cheyenne to rest.

Running third out in their performance, they posted the fastest time of the rodeo, a 17.22. The top four from each performance advanced to one of two semifinals. Their second run would be on Friday.

Unfortunately, that was the first performance of the rodeo where men's slack wasn't held that morning. The absence of ground prep beyond added water made the ground less than desirable. Running ninth on the ground, Kinsel and Sis made the Finals by the skin of their teeth with a 17.71.

Thankfully, the rodeo committee agreed to drag halfway through the Finals. By luck of the draw, Kinsel was last before the drag.

"I had watched the semifinal on Saturday after they had fixed the ground," Kinsel explained. "I just noticed how deep it was. They had already decided that they were going to drag on six. My game plan was to stay inside the ruts and at least start and finish the turn, knowing that my pivot spot might be a little past each barrel just because with the electricity of the crowd she tends to run really hard. If you start the turn tight and finish it tight you don't get caught when they're trying to leave it. That's what it felt like to me in my semifinals run. She was trying to leave and couldn't. We were just swimming. It feels like ocean waves carrying you out to sea when you get in those ruts."

Kinsel also took the time to prepare Sis for the modified turn she had in mind.

"She's super, super manual," she said. "I can get on her and work her as to how I want her to perform. I got on her that morning and set up one barrel and just went around it, worked her pretty tight at a walk and slow trot just to give her a heads up, "Hey, I need you to stay right here. Stay honest but be as close as you can as possible." She was very responsive to that."

Kinsel also knew she had to be gutsy for the clean-slate Finals. "It was a little bit of an edgy type of run," she said. "Of course, it being the fastest time wins, that's the time to make that type of run. I'd rather hit a barrel trying to fast than make a mediocre run trying to be clean"

Kinsel and Sis clocked a 17.30 to win the rodeo. Afterwards she was grateful for the drag, even though she was the bottom of it.

"It was a huge deal," Kinsel said of the drag. "It was a big joint effort. The WPRA Board was very involved. I had talked to the committee and several others had as well. Our circuit director had too. The media room was buzzing about and they were part of the reason it changed. I hope it sets precedence for Cheyenne moving forward. They had a good experience with the drag with it not being too long and being an even, fair barrel race all the way through with Shali winning second from the 11th hole. Hopefully that continues."

FUN FACTS

– Six degrees, or more, of Cheyenne

Hailey Kinsel's DM Sissy Hayday ("Sis") was bred by Dillon Mundorf, who provided the roping calves for the Cheyenne Frontier Days. Sis is out of the Royal Shake Em mare, Royal Sissy Irish, and by PC Frenchmans Hayday. Lovingly known as "Dinero," PC Frenchmans Hayday is a full brother to Cheyenne Frontier Days Arena Record Holder French Flash Hawk. Better known as "Bozo," French Flash Hawk carried Kristie Peterson to four WPRA World and Cheyenne championships.

Peterson's daughter Jordan Briggs also competed at this years Cheyenne Frontier Days. She was riding Famous Lil Jet, a Dash Ta Fame gelding raised by Busby Quarter Horses. The Busbys had a second Dash Ta Fame they raised in the Finals, Famous Ladies Man, ridden by Kassie Mowry.

Along with her own mount, the gifted Mowry had five horses she trained make the top 72 performance cut at Cheyenne: Shelly Mull's Hallelujah Epic, Sidney Forrest's So Epic, Lois Ferguson's Epic Two Ks, Ilyssa Riley's Misty Moon Blurr.

Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® Start Time Moves

The ProRodeo Cowboys Association® and Las Vegas Events announced today that the 2021 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo® will start at 5:45 p.m. PST/8:45 p.m. EST.

The Wrangler NFR, which returns to the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas Dec. 2-11, will feature the top 120 contestants in the world for a 10-day competition to determine the winners of the coveted PRCA Gold Buckle and a share of the $10.257 million purse. In its previous 35 years in Las Vegas, total attendance has reached nearly six million fans.

"To accommodate the greatest number of fans interested in watching the NFR, the PRCA and The Cowboy Channel requested an earlier start time which we felt was reasonable," said LVE President Pat Christenson.

In 2019, the event had a total attendance of 168,289 over the 10 days of competition at the Thomas & Mack Center and has sold out more than 330 consecutive performances in Las Vegas.

The Cowboy Channel is the official network partner of PRORODEO® and the exclusive broadcast and streaming partner of the Wrangler NFR. Live coverage of the Wrangler NFR can be found on The Cowboy Channel and RFD-TV through its cable and satellite partners and online at cowboychannelplus.com.

Daysheets, stock draws available on ProRodeo.com

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association® is proud to announce daysheets and stock draws from most PRCA rodeos are now available on ProRodeo.com.

This newly added feature provides fans and members the opportunity to see when and where contestants are competing, along with the stock they've drawn.

"We've been working toward this goal for several years. Our fans, members and media all benefit from having this information on their phones whether they are attending the rodeo or following along on our Cowboy Channel broadcasts," said Amy Fast, PRCA digital assets manager.

Daysheets are listed in two areas. For upcoming rodeos, they are listed in the rodeo schedule. For rodeos in progress or completed, they are listed in rodeo results.

Enhanced features in the rodeo profile also include links to the rodeo's website, tour status and the date the rodeo joined the PRCA.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We must constantly be on the watch for unbelief and/or fear creeping into our lives! We all have daily pressures. Some are elephant weight, some we can smack with a flyswatter! But we have the same powerful, wonderful God and He is not intimidated by any size problem. His instruction to us is simple.

Matthew 17:20, "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you." Mountains = problems.

We speak to them with God's Word. I don't know about you, but sometimes when a big problem comes up in my life, I can make the mistake of putting man's limitations on God. I can look at the problem and say, "I can't see how this is going to work out." And because I can't figure it out, I think God won't be able to either. . . . BIG MISTAKE!

He is smarter than I am. He is smarter than you. So this week, let's not limit God. He's got this!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
