Kelsey Treharne & VF Cream Rises to the Top at Old Fort Days Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Brazilian-owned VF Cream Rises (“Puff”) and Kelsey Treharne were 3/10ths the best of the Old Fort Days Futurity field to win $39,178.

“I knew she could do it, but for her to step out there and outrun them by 3/10ths...I was pretty tickled,” said Treharne, who rode for Ademir Jose Rorato. “Everything had to fall into place and it just did.”

The 43rd annual event, held at Kay Rogers Park in Fort Smith, Arkansas, was rescheduled from mid-May to July 27-August 1 due to COVID 19. The events postponement to the middle of summer left many taking the refund option due to the fear of extremely hot and humid weather.

“It was hot, but it was so nice,” said Treharne, an Arizona-native now based in Collinsville, Texas. “It was like the best weather I’ve ever experienced at Fort Smith. It was so nice. It did rain, but it brought the cool weather. It was just beautiful.”

In the Time Trials, Treharne was focused on making a smooth run to make it back to the clean-slate Final.

“That mare is pretty free-wheeling,” she explained. “I was trying to save my fast run for the Finals. She usually gets freer the more that you run her. I definitely went into the Time Trials trying not to set the world on fire, just get her back to the Finals.”

They turned in the ninth fastest qualifying run with a 16.833.

“She had a pretty smooth run,” Treharne said. “She kind of slipped a little on the third. I don’t know if she double-grabbed or what. The ground was fantastic.”

Knowing the mare was likely to get stronger and faster on her second run, Treharne warmed the mare up accordingly.

“I had actually put her in draw reins to warm her up just to get her backed off,” she explained. “When I asked her to do something, she suppled up and didn’t pull on me. That’s what she does sometimes...get a little bully-ish. So, I really focused on getting her off my hands when I warmed her up because I knew I had to send her.”

With a drag every three runners, Treharne and Puff got top of the ground. They made the most of it with a 16.534 to take the lead from Brain Wheeler and his family-owned, bred and trained Blazin Jetolena, SX Frenchmans Peach gelding SBW Copy Cat’s 16.842.

“She felt great!” said Treharne. “She ran to her spots. She stayed square. She was just perfect!”

Bred by Danny Ray’s Victory Farms, Puff is the second Old Fort Days Futurity Champion for her sire Eddie Stinson. The 4-year-old mare is out of Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck, making her a half-sister to Mary Walker’s million-dollar barrel horse and 2012 WPRA World Champion Perculatin (“Latte”).

Puff was started under saddle by Riley South and, along with her stablemate VF Eddies Alive (“Alvin”), made her way to Treharne’s barn in early 2019. She says being consistent with mare’s training was the key to her finding success.

“She’s a very intense so she’s not the kind that you can get after all the time,” she explained. “She’s not going to take it. You’re better off slowing things down and repetition. She had always been doing good as a 3-year-old and I really liked her, but you could just feel a really cool move in her, but she just hadn’t found it yet.”

The mare’s willingness to use her speed caused her to have trouble with the turns, but thankfully, right before the start of her futurity year, “the light bulb came on” for Puff.

“It was like she knew she had to win something because she really stepped it up,” Treharne said. “The end of November, first of December, she really started to zero in to where I could start stepping on the gas pedal a little more. It was really funny how she came on at just the right time.”

In her debut event, Puff placed in the slot race and was second in the Rookie at the OKC Futurity. Ray sold the mare to Rorato at the end of January and put decorated Brazilian jockey Sidnei Pereira Jr on the mare for the Kinder Cup, where they finished second to Treharne and Alvin in the Futurity.

When Pereira Jr went back to Brazil, Treharne climbed back aboard.

“She’s pretty much placed everywhere she’s gone,” said Treharne. “I don’t know where I’ve gone that she hasn’t drawn a check. I’ve been keeping track and I have that she’s won $89,583 so far.”

Treharne, who placed 19th in the Futurity Finals on Alvin to earn $3,624, also qualified Puff’s 5-year-old full sister, VF Im That Kinda Gal (“Helga”) to the Derby Finals, after placing fourth in the Consolation. They ultimately ended up 24th for total earnings of $1,724.

She says the two sisters are quite different.

“The derby mare is huge and pretty stout,” she explained. “Puff is pretty lean and racy-looking. Puff is very free and Helga is pretty dang, turny. You’ve got to ride her for all that she’s worth. They’re polar opposites in my opinion. But, they’re both super honest. If they make a mistake it’s an honest one.”

MARE POWER...

While much is often made of the sires with multiple qualifiers to the Finals of the Old Fort Days Futurity & Super Derby, several broodmares are showing their prowess as producers as well.

The third-generation barrel horse Curiosity Corners, by Silver Lucky Buck, had three offspring competing in the finals, although one was a clone of an existing offspring. When bred to Eddie Stinson, Curiosity Corners produced the 2020 Old Fort Days Futurity Champion VF Cream Rises and Super Derby Finalist VF Im That Kinda Gal. When bred to Dash For Perks, she produced 2012 WPRA World Champion Perculatin, and his 4-year-old clone “Ditto” also made the Futurity Finals. All totaled the descendants of Curiosity Corners earned $43,029.

One of the all-time leading barrel horse producers, Mistys Dash Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame, also had two qualifiers to the Old Fort Days Futurity Finals. Mistys Money Blurr, by The Money Depot, and Chasin Misty, by Chasin Firewater, finished sixth and seventh, respectively, and earned $10,382. Mistys Dash Of Fame is also the producer of 2012 Old Fort Days Super Derby Champion KN Fabs Mist Of Fame.

The 2005 Old Fort Days Futurity Champion Moon Light Martha, by Marthas Six Moons, produced two qualifiers to the Futurity Finals as well. Her 4-year-old colt, DTF Texas Moon, who set the record price for a 2-year-old barrel prospect sold at public auction, was the third fastest qualified and finished 43rd in the Finals. Her 4-year-old mare, PLS Dash Ta Glamour finished 23rd. Both were by all-time leading sire Dash Ta Fame. They earned $4,388.

Nancy Adkins' Slick Lane Ta Fame & Will Lear Claim Old Fort Days Super Derby Title

By Tanya Randall

Slick Lane Ta Fame, owned by Nancy Adkins of Marengo, Ohio, and ridden by Will Lear of Waynesfield, Ohio, turned in the fastest time of the 43rd Annual Old Fort Days Super Derby to take home the $20,681 championship.

The 5-year-old mare's 16.437 in the Derby Finals was the fastest run of the entire event, held July 27 to August 1 at Kay Rogers Park in Fort Smith, Arkansas.

"I was pretty surprised when I come out!" said Lear. "I knew she was running pretty good, but I didn't think she was running a .4! She's been a good one for sure!"

In the Derby Time Trials, Lear and the mare affectionately known as Beyoncé, turned in the third fastest qualifying time, a 16.675, but Lear knew he added a few tenths in making sure the run was clean.

"She got a little too tight at the second barrel," he recalled. "I had paint on my leg. So, I thought I'd better take out a little insurance down (at the third barrel). I made sure I wasn't going to get too close."

With a drag every three runs in the 25-head Derby Finals, Lear and Beyoncé were second out on the ground. Even so, the mare slipped just a little at the first and third barrels.

"That first one scared me a little!" said Lear. "Luckily, she's athletic enough to keep her feet under her and keep going. She's pretty gritty and never quit trying."

Before the event, Lear and Adkins both lamented how they'd never had much luck at Fort Smith until Beyoncé.

"She changed it for us," said 37-year-old Lear, who first competed at the Old Fort Days as a teenager in the late 1990s. "There's been a lot of cool horses through there and win. It's pretty cool to win...to have your name down in the record books winning Fort Smith."

Bred Mike and Jill Petty, Beyoncé is by leading sire and 2013 Old Fort Days Derby Champion Slick By Design, who also sired Reserve Derby Champion Slicks Lil Amigo, ridden by Sabra O'Quinn for Deanna Mixon Pietsch. Adkins purchased the mare, out of the Dash Ta Fame, Lanes Leinster mare Short Lane Ta Fame, from Sharin Hall in 2018.

Beyoncé placed in the BFA Super Stakes with Hall in her futurity debut. Later that spring, Adkins sent her to Lear just two days prior to the Diamonds & Dirt Futurity.

"I could tell she was really turny and really setty when I first got her," said Lear. "The main thing was getting her to run on her own, really. She wanted to get a little setty. We just kept piddling until I figured out what made her click. It wasn't anything special. I changed a little head gear and she just really started running harder and running up in the hole. It was just freeing her up."

Lear says the 2019 Pink Buckle Futurity Champion just keeps getting better.

"She's just getting more solid," he said. "Most people don't realize that she's not that big, but she's quick on her feet and very athletic. This year, she's really coming into her own. I think she's caught another gear since last year. She just seems to get better every time she cracks the gate. She's a very special horse for sure."

Lear wanted to thank Adkins for being a great owner to ride for

as well as his wife and three boys for their support. "They got to go with me this time," said Lear. "It's the first time they've got to go in a while and I actually won something! They were excited and I was excited for them to be there."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Skinning Smoke Wagons -- BryAnna Haluptzok & Perks Pazazz Outlast Dodge City Gunfight

By Tanya Randall

More than a century ago, Dodge City drew legendary gunfighters from throughout the country. Skinning smoke wagons—drawing pistols was daily occurrence and brought to life some of the legendary gunfights and lawmen of the Wild West.

In a bizarre world brought by COVID 19, the Dodge City Roundup produced its own brand of shootout in the WPRA barrel racing. With cancellations and postponements concentrating the equine firepower, Dodge City saw its arena record on a WPRA Standard Pattern fall and nine total runs under the long-held benchmark of 17 seconds.

BryAnna Haluptzok, a second-year member for Tenstrike, Minnesota, and her 10-year-old mare Perks Pazazz (“Betty”) posted two of their personal best times on WPRA Standard to claim a $12,915 victory at the $20,000-added rodeo, held July 29 through August 2.

“She’s pretty phenomenal,” Haluptzok said of Betty. “I’ve had her about two years. I didn’t run her a bunch last year because we had a couple of embryos flushed out of her and when I went to run her, she gashed her back leg open. This year is the first year I’ve really started running her hard and it’s been going great.”

She and Betty started out their week by making a run of 16.89 in Wednesday night slack at the Kansas’ Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg for a $3,535 second-place check. She had watched eventual rodeo winner Shelley Morgan and her 6-year-old mare HR Fameskissandtell make a spectacular run of 16.68.

“That arena is really offset and kind of funky,” she said. “I was trying to decide if I should run in or go in and move over. After I watched Shelley, I decided to mimic her since she had such a good run. She ran in from the corner. I thought, ‘Ok, I’m going to run in from the corner,’ and it worked great! I was super excited and it held through the rest of the week!”

Haluptzok left for Dodge City immediately after her run and arrived at 3 o’clock in the morning. Slack started at 8 am.

“I was a little tired,” she chuckled. “I was a little nervous because it had rained so much, but the tractor driver had done a great job. The ground was great!”

At Dodge City, contestants make their first runs in slack and the 12 fastest advance to the performance that night.

“I knew I could send her in there and she would turn,” the

THE RUNDOWN w/BryAnna Haluptzok

Perks Pazazz “Betty” 15.3 hands, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: Shankd snaffle “It’s my brother’s old rope horse bit. I figured I might as well try it. When I couldn’t ride her, I was switching bits left and right on her. I was running her in a Sherry Cervi twist and dogbone for a while. It worked pretty well, but she was still plowing over barrels every once in a while. I started going through all my bits and didn’t really like any of them on her.”

SADDLE: G Bar G Saddle “It’s really well known up in Minnesota and made by Dennis George. It’s kind of mix between a Coats, Stoney and a Martin.”

SADDLE PAD: Impact Gel

LEG GEAR: Professional’s Choice on all four

SHOEING: Regular steel all the way around

FEED: Power Gold Elite, a Minnesota-milled 12% protein, 12% fat feed

HAY: 70/30 Grass, alfalfa mix

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed 6 Way and OE Ultimate Oil; MVP GastroPlex Paste pre run.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: BOT quick wraps unless its really hot; Osteopath work every three to four months

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: She gets a day off after a rodeo. She doesn’t get a lot of trotting. I probably lope her three miles a day. I try not to do a lot of circles because it’s hard on her joints, so I do a lot of straight lines and really big circles. I don’t usually work the barrel unless I have problem.

SPONSOR: Med Vet Pharmaceuticals.

20-year-old said of her first run. “She clocked my fastest time ever on a Standard pattern, a 16.94. In the performance that night it was really loud and she was super hyper. She runs great in performances; they are her favorite. She worked phenomenal again and broke my personal record on a Standard again with a 16.88. I was super, super excited.”

Haluptzok and Betty's times won the first round and placed third in the second to lead the field of 12 into Sunday's finals.

Hailey Kinsel and her two-time WPRa World Champion and Thomas & Mack Arena Record Holder added another accolade to their resume, running a 16.63 on the very bottom of the ground to win the second round. It's unofficially the fastest outdoor time on a WPRa Standard Pattern at a rodeo. The previous arena record in Dodge City was Benette Little's 16.68 aboard the legendary JL Dash Ta Heaven in 2011. The previous known unofficial rodeo record on a standard was Cfour Tibbie Stinson and Ivy Saebens (Conrado) with a 16.65 at the Spanish Fork, UT Champions Challenge in 2016.

With three incredible runs under her belt, Haluptzok decided to turn out of Carson, Iowa, thus eliminating a 14-hour roundtrip, to save Betty for the short round.

Running third out in the in finals, Haluptzok and Betty clocked a 17.07 to take second in the round and solidify their lead in the average.

"I was pretty nervous for the Finals," she said, "but she went out there and did her job and I did mine, and we came out good."

Jordon Briggs on her 6-year-old derby horse Famous Lil Jet also clocked up big from the bottom of the ground, running a 16.77, to take third in the average behind Haluptzok and Kinsel.

Unlike Kinsel and Briggs, Haluptzok didn't grow up in a rodeo family. She learned to ride on her parents trail riding horses and quickly picked up barrel racing when she started boarding horses with her cousins.

"We ended up boarding my horses at my cousins' Amy and Austyn Tobey's house," she explained. "They did WSCA (Western Saddle Club Association), 4-H and barrels. They got me into it and then they suggested I go down and get lessons from Jane Melby, who lived in Minnesota at the time."

Haluptzok was only six when she started riding with Melby and she continued to ride with her on occasion once Melby moved to Oklahoma. It was through the IPRA World Champion and multiple NFR qualifier that she got Betty almost two years ago.

Unfortunately, it wasn't an instant fit and she had to work to "click" with the daughter of Dash For Perks out of Randy McKee's On A High, What Luck (TB) mare Lucks Pazazz.

"When I started running her, she just didn't like me," Haluptzok admitted. "She would try to bite me and would pin her ears back at me when I would go in her stall. When I would run her, we'd blow past barrels outside and we'd knock barrels over inside. It was just didn't go very well."

She had started riding another horse when her dad told her if she didn't ride Betty, he was going to sell her. With renewed determination, the two finally started to find their groove together this year.

"I just really started working and concentrating on her," she said. "I had a great vet and great farrier who got her feet right. I had her seen by an osteopath and got her feeling better. About a year later, I finally got with her and we started clicking and winning."

All totaled, Haluptzok little Kansas trip grossed $16,460 on the weekend and jumped her to 23rd in the WPRa World Standings with $19,522. She's hoping continued success will put her in a position to pursue the NFR next year, which means postponing her equine science degree at North Dakota State.

"I'm doing so well now in the standings that hopefully I can go for the NFR next year," she said, "so I don't know if I'll be going back for Fall semester yet."

Haluptzok wanted to thank the Dodge City Rodeo Committee for their excellent work on the ground. She also wanted to thank her parents, Troy and Barb, for hauling her. Her list of thanks wouldn't be complete without acknowledging her veterinarian and farrier, Fonda and Ryan Melby of Milestone Veterinary Clinic as well as Jane Melby for all the years of lessons.

Epic Leader moves to Legendary Lazy E

Known best for its roster of top Quarter Horse racing stallions, the Lazy E Ranch will now be the home of barrel racing's hottest young leading sire Epic Leader.

Owned by Schiller Ranch LLC, Epic Leader ranked #1 by average earnings among all futurity sires in 2019 and is the sire of that year's #1 Leading Futurity horse Epic Guy.

Lazy E Ranch manager Floyd "Butch" Wise commented, "We are extremely delighted that Schiller Ranch decided to stand their phenomenal young stallion, Epic Leader at Lazy E Ranch beginning in 2021. Epic is a grand individual who passes his exceptional conformation and abilities to his offspring," Wise said. "He is certainly establishing himself as a sire with which to be reckoned across the Quarter Horse world. To date, his siring accomplishments are nothing short of astonishing. He's recently surpassed $1,000,000 in earnings and is the youngest barrel sire ever to do so." he continued.

From only 19 futurity horses and just 29 total performers in 2019, Epic Leader led all barrel futurity sires by average earnings. Epic Guy, his leading earner, was named

#1 Futurity Horse in 2019 and has accumulated over $350,000 in lifetime earnings. He was named 2019 BFA Futurity World Champion and BFA Year End Champion, and claimed championships at the OKC Futurity and Ardmore Futurity, among others.

Kristi Schiller, of Schiller Ranch said, "It is an honor to have Epic Leader standing at the Lazy E Ranch. Without question, Lazy E is considered one of the pillars of Quarter Horse breeding industry. Their state-of-the-art breeding operation involves a team of experts devoted to helping you create your very own Epic tale."

"Personally, it is a dream come true for me to see Epic Leader featured among the likes of All American Futurity winners, World Champion sires, and legends that truly need no introduction. My heart swelled with pride when Butch Wise told me that Epic would inherit the stall of one of the world's greatest leading sires, PYC Paint Your Wagon. That moment I knew that Epic was in his 'forever home'. Epic is one of the most personable horses and leaves a lasting impression on everyone he encounters. His God-given talent, demeanor, intellect, and athleticism are apparent in his offspring. Epic Leader is forging a legendary path not only in the US but also in Brazil, Australia, and Canada

"Lazy E Arena is the host to many of the largest premier timed events in America. It was natural to have Epic Leader standing here for everyone to appreciate. We look forward to watching him continue to set new siring standards," Wise continued.

Epic Leader isn't the first arena performer to stand at Lazy E Ranch. Legendary AQHA World Champion and AQHA Hall of Fame inductee Zan Parr Jack, sire of two-time World Champion Bar J Jackie and broodmare sire of AQHA Superhorses Popular Resort-figure stood his entire career at Lazy E Ranch. Epic Leader joins fellow leading barrel sire Tres Seis who has barrel progeny earnings of $1,600,000. The Lazy E stallion barn was also home to Corona Cartel, who, besides being AQHA's #2 all-time leading sire of money earners on the track, is becoming a powerful barrel sire as well. His daughter Rosas Cantina CC ($260,000) was the Calgary Stampede champion in 2019.

Bred by Kassie Mowry and Karma Loftin, Epic Leader's genetics combines two storied bloodlines and was destined for greatness. He is by BFA World Champion Confederate Leader out of the great Firewater Fiesta ($850K+ LTE), barrel futurity, sweepstakes, and NFR world champion daughter of the legendary Firewater Flit.

Under Mowry's guidance, Epic Leader won more than $170,000 during his illustrious career. He was the #1 Money Earning Futurity Stallion of 2012. His titles include WPRA World Finals Derby Champion, WPRA World Finals Second Round Derby Champion, Old PacWest Slot Race Champion, BBR Finals Slot Futurity Champion, Ecurie 5-55 Drummond Futurity Champion, LG Pro Classic Slot Race Reserve Champion and 2011 BFA World Championship Second Round Juvenile Champion.

With consideration for the current economic climate, Epic Leader's fee for 2021 will remain at $4500.

Lazy E Ranch offers breeders every option to ensure their mare's reproductive success. The Lazy E Ranch will begin issuing breeding contracts for the 2021 season this October. For more information about Epic Leader or any Lazy E Ranch stallion, or to request a breeding contract, call 405-282-3437 or go to www.lazyeranch.net.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Have you ever noticed how a person can be ignorant and not even know it? You may be convinced that what you are doing is correct and wonderful. Kids are like that. How many kids have picked a bouquet of dandelions to give to their mom, thinking they are "flowers"? Several years ago my niece, being so tenderhearted, took it upon herself to capture all the millers/moths in my house to release them back into the wild... so Aunt Sher wouldn't kill them.

Then last week, my granddaughter was helping me outside and I heard her talking to someone. I asked her who she was talking to. "Earl." Who is Earl??? "My pet grasshopper!" ...Did she not notice that I was marching around the yard with Seven, eliminating Earl and all his family?!?! Guess not! It looked right to her. She hadn't been taught what devastation they can bring.

This last week, God has been urging me to KNOW FOR MYSELF, WHY I BELIEVE WHAT I BELIEVE. And to encourage others to do the same. Why? Because the Blessing is attached to the Word of God and we cannot receive it if we don't know about it. And if we don't know about it, we will be like children, ignorant and in danger of doing things the wrong way (sin) because the devil has wrapped it up into pretty, cute packages...

Well, now we know. We are going to KNOW what God says and we are not going to be deceived one more day! Enjoy your week!
