Teenager Dusky Lynn Hall & 4-Year-Old Tornado Lane Pocket $105,395 at Royal Crown Rapid City

By Tanya Randall

Million dollar barrel racer Dusky Lynn Hall captured her first major futurity championship of her career with a $81,546 Royal Crown Futurity Championship aboard the 4-year-old gelding Tornado Lane at the event held July 28 through August 3 at Rapid City, South Dakota.

In addition to winning the $600,000-added, 163-entry Royal Crown Futurity, Hall and Lane also won the $10,000-added South Valley Equine Open Futurity for $8,365. They topped the high stakes sidepot for $6,395 with the fastest time of the event, a 14.692, and picked up carryover earnings of $6,312 in the Open races and $2,777 from the Youth. Their total event earnings were an astounding $105,395!

In the first round, Hall and Lane were out of the money with a 15.210 after a bad slip at the first barrel because she sent him in too fast.

"I pulled a little too hard," she said, "and I got him off balance, so he just slipped out from under me."

Before the second round, Hall was tuning Lane in the warmup pen, and when she bumped him hard with her outside foot to get him to snap around the first barrel, the gelding bucked.

"We had a little bronc session right before our run," Hall laughed. "But I knew he was going to go try to win the barrel race because he tried to buck me off!"

Hall and her little tornado turned in the fastest run of the entire event, a 14.692, to win the second round and take the championship that paid $64,125 directly to her and $12,195 to the Jarvis family who own Lane's sire The Goodbye Lane and $5,226 to Brandi Zimmer, who bred, raised and trained Lane.

Zimmer had run Lane's dam ROH Docslil Rosie, 1D money earning daughter of Frecklena Playboy, a grandson of Freckles Playboy, an all-time leading Western performance sire.

The Halls had typically purchased horses early in their derby careers but knew they needed to broaden their search to even younger horses. When Hall's mother Dusky noticed Lane's training progress on Zimmer's Facebook page, she thought he might fit her daughter.

The Halls purchased Lane in November 2025. "She's been amazing," Hall said of Zimmer. "She's helped me tremendously."

Zimmer jockeyed Lane for the Halls at the start of his futurity career. "She wanted to run him at the BFA, because she thought he could win it," said Hall. Zimmer and Lane were fourth in the BFA Super Stakes, earning $15,000, before the event was cancelled due to the equine herpes virus outbreak. "She ran him a couple more times after that and then his injury happened."

Lane injured his stifle after falling at the second barrel at a January futurity.

"We did the equiscope on him for a while, because that's what the vet wanted," Hall said. "Brandi was like, 'Just try it. If it works, it works. If it doesn't, I'll take him back. But it worked.'"

Hall's first futurity on Lane was the Ruby Buckle Central, where they took the reserve championship. They had the fastest qualifying time for the 4-Year-Old Futurity at Old Fort Days, and took second at the Cowtown Cup Slot Race, early this summer.

After the Royal Crown, Lane's career earnings are approximately $180,000.

Kassie Mowry & Force The Goodbye Win their Final Royal Crown Derby Championship

By Tanya Randall

Two-time and defending WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry claimed her sixth Royal Crown Derby Championship since the incentive's 2021 inaugural event.

Mowry won the first two Royal Crown Derbies in Rock Springs, Wyoming with Famous Ladies Man in 2021 and 2022. Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis"), who was Reserve Champion to the other Mowry trained and ridden KL Touch Of Heaven in the Royal Crown Futurity in Rocksprings in 2022, came back to win the derby in 2023.

In 2024 and 2025, Mowry and Jarvis won back-to-back derby titles at Royal Crown's event at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

At the inaugural running of Royal Crown's flagship event in Rapid City, South Dakota, Mowry and Jarvis, who was competing in his last Royal Crown Derby at age 8, clocked two speedy, consistent runs within .036 of each other to win the 146-entry, $100,000-added Derby as well as the South Valley Equine Open Derby for $45,668.

"Getting to go to the Royal Crown, watching the futurity and hanging out with the trainers really put the bug in you to go," said Mowry, who had sold all her futurity colts before the start of the 2025 season.

Ironically, Mowry had initially sold her entries to Royal Crown when Jarvis and Goodbye Sophie, who finished sixth in both the Royal Crown and South Valley Equine Derbies, earning $11424 including carryovers, got sick after the Calgary Stampede in early July. Once she got the all-clear from veterinarians, she late entered.

"I was really disappointed when (Jarvis) got sick because he loves those events, and it's his last one. I literally sold all my spots because I didn't think there was any way for them to be able to go, and then I got the all clear," she said.

Between the two horses, Mowry claimed $57,092.

"I couldn't be prouder of both of them for going in there and showing out," she said. "I was really happy with how they worked."

Jarvis, who is by The Goodbye Lane out of VF Forcit First, by Burrs First Down, has now crossed the $2.3 million mark in career earnings. He is the second all-time leading barrel horse according to QData.

After a stellar winter run of rodeos, Mowry hasn't had the best of luck during her summer run.

"Nothing has gone like I've wanted it to go," she said. "Everything has been touch and go. I didn't get to run Jarvis at any of the Utah rodeos. Now, Emmitt is sick. My generator is not working and I'm headed to Texas...My truck seat quit working. I can barely reach the pedals. I'm trying to figure that out; I know it's not a fuse. This last little bit has been rough!"

The WPRA World Standings have Mowry third with $164,990. She still needs about a handful of rodeos to make the official rodeo count to be eligible to enter the National Finals Rodeo.

Mowry, who placed on Jarvis at the pro rodeo in Castle Rock, Colorado, after winning the derby, said she doesn't have definitive plans for the rest of the season. She doesn't know if she'll have enough Playoff Tour points to enter Puyallup, Washington, to be eligible to enter the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls since she had to turn out of so many rodeos either to do conflicts or illness to her horses. Turning out means point deductions.

She's out at Lawton, Oklahoma, and Lovington, New Mexico, on the same day, so she'll run Jarvis at one and Sophie at the other.

Once back at her Dublin, Texas, home, she's got her futurity horses ready and waiting for her. Unlike year's past, she got Tanner Meigs tending her horses at home, putting them on the walker and keeping up with their farrier work.

"In the past when I've got home, it's two days of farrier work right off the bat, and they're so fat!" she lamented. "I feel like I'm going to be able to hit the ground running for once."

Mowry said she hasn't been on her 2-year-olds yet, but she's got five or six horses for next year to exhibition.

All the heck she's had this summer rodeoing versus her big derby wins her question at times adding rodeo to her lucrative aged event business.

"It just goes in waves," said Mowry, who acknowledged she won way more money at the Ruby Buckle and Royal Crown than she did at the rodeos this summer. "I've done this long enough to know. Vegas is such a great opportunity, but the rodeos it takes to get there... It really makes me question what I do. I'm really fortunate to have these three aged horses (Jarvis, Emmitt and CP He Will Be Epic) that are such a team that I've been able to get by doing this and get to do both. Without them I for sure could not!"

Sydney Graham & Dupont First Set New WPRA Standard Pattern Record at Heber City, Utah

By Tanya Randall

Abilene, Texas, barrel racer Sydney Graham and the 7-year-old stallion Dupont First set a new record with a 16.49 on a WPRA Standard Pattern to win the Mountain Valley Stampede in Heber City, Utah.

Overall, Graham and “Trump” took checks at all four of their rodeos this past week, earning $16,643 and moving up to No. 8 in the WPRA World Standings with $104,872.

Graham and Trump, whom she and Jimmy Parker purchased as a yearling at the COVID-relocated Ruidoso Select Sale, started their week at That Famous Preston Night Rodeo in Idaho, where they clocked a 16.94 on a WPRA Standard and finished .02 behind Michelle Alley and Lipstick N Stilletos for $3,519.

They had their lowest finish of the week, a tie for tenth that paid $588 at The War Bonnet Round Up in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

“I was sixth out and they [dragged] at 6,” she said. “It was safe, but it was deep. He struggled a little bit but still ran a 17.1 and grabbed a decent check.”

Their next run was the record-breaker in Heber City on Saturday night. Makenna Shook and XV Mario held the previous rodeo record on a WPRA Standard Pattern at 16.53 at Burley, Idaho, last year. Hailey Kinsel and DM Sissy Hayday set previous the Heber City record at 16.59 last year as well.

“He was being kind of wild in the warmup, which I know when he does that, he’s going to be fast,” said Graham. “I told myself, ‘Keep him under control in the alley. Don’t let him leave from the back. He’s going to work good.’ I swear we were flying to the first Dupont First (“Trump”) 2020 Sorrel Gelding, 15.1 h, 1,300 lbs.

BIT: L&W Short Shank Locked Lifter with a twisted wire mouth and loose curb chain

“My friends had all suggested that I probably put a little more in his mouth (than the L&W locked snaffle) when I went to Houston. He did really good there, so I decided I wasn’t going to change it.”

SADDLE: Jeff Smith C3

SADDLE PAD: The thinnest one made by 5 Star

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine fronts and polos on rear; rubber bell boots over Classic Equine bells

SHOEING: Plains on all four

FEED: A little Purina Senior morning and night

HAY: Free choice New Mexico Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP supplements, biotin, vitamin E and lysine.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: EquiScope, cold water spa, chiropractic adjustments

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: Rest between rodeos. “Anytime we have some downtime, we do not play with the barrels. We go somewhere else and do something fun. We’ve played with some roping steers. We’ve placed in the river. We’ve ridden the pasture. Sometimes when we have a day off, I just put down a lot of shavings and let him rest.”

SPONSORS: JP’s Bacacita Farms, Stidham Equine Sports Therapy, Olive Insurance Agency, Short Round Equine Performance & Therapy Center, Life To Live Therapy, MVP, InFoal, Inc., Rodeo Management, Inc., Cowgirl Suits and 5 Star Equine Products.

THANKS: “Everyone who helps me, but I think my mom (Sandi Graham) deserves an extra thank you. She has 100 percent taken care of my stuff at home. She’s come out and taken care of stuff out here. She’s a huge part of why I’ve been able to do this.”

barrel, and I was just praying that we turned.”

Graham was quick to give a shout out to the Heber City committee and crew.

“They are known for fast times out there,” she said. “They had three tractors. Kudos to the ground crew for having an actual horse race and having it safe for all of us.”

Graham and Trump finished up their week at the Strathmore Stampede in Alberta, Canada, where they picked up $4,796 for third.

"I've been telling people for a long time that I was going to get him to the NFR," she said. "Once I got my chance he was going to take me there. He's practically spoke all of that into existence and made it all work."

Trump's demand in the breeding shed is rising faster than he's climbing the world standings. The son of champion racehorse Duponte ($921,327 G1) out of graded stakes placed producer First Fervor, by First Down Dash, has a three-year waitlist for breeding contracts.

"We actually had to close the wait list and his books already," Graham said. "We're booked out for years at this point. We're super blessed and excited because he so deserves this attention. I'm glad he's finally getting it."

BRYEL MULLIGAN BENEFIT AUCTION

All proceeds will go to help Bryel Mulligan & family with treatment and expenses, as she battles metastatic breast cancer.

In May, life changed forever with what was initially believed to be a Stage II breast cancer diagnosis. As plans were being made for treatment, additional testing—including CT scans and a bone scan—revealed devastating news: the cancer had already spread to her bones. At just 48 years old, she was diagnosed with Stage IV metastatic breast cancer.

She has to continue this fight as hard as she can because she has a seven-year-old son, Mason, who needs his mom. More than anything, she wants to be here to watch him grow up, celebrate his milestones, and make as many memories with him as possible. While Stage IV metastatic breast cancer is treatable, it is not curable. She is now facing a lifelong battle that will require ongoing chemotherapy, immunotherapy, routine scans, blood work, specialist appointments, medications, and treatments to help manage the disease and strengthen her bones. She also hopes to pursue complementary therapies to support her health and improve her quality of life, many of which are not covered by insurance.

The emotional and financial impact of this diagnosis is overwhelming. The cost of continuous treatment, medications, travel to appointments, lost income, and everyday living expenses will continue to grow. This fundraiser has been created to help ease that burden so she can focus on what matters most—fighting this disease, making precious memories with Mason, and living each day to the fullest.

Every donation, no matter the amount, will go directly toward medical expenses and treatment-related costs. If you're unable to donate, sharing this fundraiser and keeping her in your thoughts and prayers would mean more than words can express.

Thank you for your kindness, generosity, and support during this difficult journey. Every act of compassion brings hope and reminds her that she is not fighting this battle alone.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

How much weight do you want to carry? As barrel racers, we know that we don't want to carry a whole lot of it. It sets us back. And I know those pesky little hundredths can add up!

So, I've adopted this unique technique of getting on the scales backward. Can't see the numbers. IGNORANCE IS BLISS. No, it's not!!!!

Emotional weight isn't good either. It keeps us from moving through life with ease. Our very good, loving God wants only the best for us. And He doesn't want us lugging around past hurts, disappointments, or problems. He says He'll carry them for us. He tells us to roll our cares over on to Him, for He cares for us. And, He can actually do something about the problem. 1 Pet.5:6.

The key here is, don't take them back! Leave them in His very capable hands. It is one of the hardest things I deal with as a Christian. I'm constantly trying to reach over and take them back from God. How silly is that?

I've been through all the files in my brain and didn't find the answer there in the first place, so why am I wanting to look again? Dumb, dumb, double dumb!

Problems? This week, let's hand them over to God and then put our hands behind our backs!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
