Tonozzi Dodges Storms to Win Dodge City

By Julie Mankin

This season is shaping up to look remarkably like 2023, when Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi won her third WPRA gold buckle on two geldings she hadn't ridden long.

That summer, she won Dodge City, Kan., on Busby's Jet's Top Gun ("Benny"), and won Castle Rock, Colo., on 70 Ranch sire SR Industry Titan. In 2025, she's zoomed up the standings aboard Tamara Walker & Molly Harper's 11-year-old Cashin In The Fame ("Bobby") and Pete Carr & Morgan Bagnell's 7-year-old Sir Epic – on whom she almost won both rodeos again over the weekend, pulling in $14,985.

Having held down second in the WPRA world standings since banking almost $30,000 at Houston this winter, Pozzi Tonozzi didn't even enter Reno or go to California – but Dodge is less than a six-hour drive from her summer home in Monument, Colo. There at the Dodge City Roundup Rodeo, she and Sir clocked a 17.22 to place third in the first round. In the second round, Pozzi Tonozzi perfected the money barrel to clock a 16.94 for second behind Emily Beisel's smoking 16.89. She was supposed to be high callback of 12 girls in the short round on Aug. 3.

But as Pozzi Tonozzi was driving back to Dodge that day, planning to arrive about the time the performance started, her phone began blowing up with videos and texts.

"It was craziness," recalled Pozzi Tonozzi, who had pulled over about 30 minutes from town. "I went ahead and drove to the fairgrounds to triple-check they were not going to have the short round, then turned around and headed home."

Torrential downpours and high winds had delayed the start twice and finally prompted the committee to cancel the finals altogether. Last year's Dodge City short round was worth $1,782 to win. Instead, the PRCA reconfigured and paid the aggregate to the leaders on two. That meant Pozzi Tonozzi won the title by more than two-tenths for $7,920 total.

One night earlier, she and "Sir" were over at the Douglas County Fair in Castle Rock – her summer hometown rodeo. The rich one-header is so tough that multiple runs of 17.2 on the standard pattern didn't even place in the top 10.

"I only live 20 minutes away, and it was dry at my house," she said. "But I got there and it had rained so much I wasn't even sure I'd have a chance. There was water standing everywhere. Luckily, that arena can hold a lot of water. I thought, 'Well, at least I didn't have to drive far from the house.' I knew it would take a heck of a run on the wet arena to even get a check. Sir exceeded my expectations."

The young gelding clocked a cool 17.03 to go to the lead, ending up second for $7,065 when it dried a bit on Sunday. His two-day haul came just two weeks after he clocked a 16-second run to win the NFR Open in Colorado Springs. Sir had been relatively green at outdoor rodeos while Bobby got the call for most of July.

The race-bred Dash Ta Fame grandson was trained by Australian barrel racer Montana O'Donoghue-Kent, then imported and sold last summer to Tamara Walker for her daughter, Molly Harper, who ran him at the 2024 IFYR.

"Bobby went home after the short round at Cheyenne and is now on the college-rodeo trail with Molly," said Pozzi Tonozzi. "Sir is my No. 1 now. I figured he'd do well at Dodge, since the first barrel is kind of on the fence. He's stepping up and making a rodeo horse and I'm super proud of him."

Tonozzi has had Sir in the trailer for a year now, to season for Carr's stepdaughter. Just last month, she'd earned $26,600 on him at the Colorado Classic Derby on the Western slope, but it's his recent feats at outdoor rodeos that have her pleased.

Sir was trained by Kassie Mowry and is by the $2.6 million producer JL Sirocco – a Dash Ta Fame stud out of a Band Of Azure/First Down Dash mare – and out of the Epic Leader/Streakin Six mare So Very Epic.

"He's one of the strongest horses I've ever ridden," said Pozzi Tonozzi of the way Sir almost gains speed into a barrel. "It's a little hard to be trusting, because he will go by a barrel if you give him the opportunity, but if he's in the right position and I have him set up correctly, he just smokes the barrel even though it feels like pulling on a fence post."

Their success with eight weeks remaining begs questions about another gold buckle or even a quest to near her own WPR regular-season earnings record of $258,313. Pozzi Tonozzi still trails Mowry – the World No. 1 – by about $10,000 but closed the gap considerably over the weekend, as did some NFR bubble gals.

Leslie Smalygo, previously 16th, banked $3,974 for splitting fourth at Castle Rock while 17th-ranked Paige Jones placed there, too, and at three other rodeos over the weekend to earn $3,934. Meanwhile, 15th-place Tayla Moeykens won Heber City to earn $7,511. But Chloe Gray landed right behind her for $6,008 to claw a few spots up from 19th.

As for Pozzi Tonozzi, she didn't enter Caldwell and said that if she didn't have to go to Puyallup in order to run at Sioux Falls, she'd go home after this week's Royal Crown Futurity. But, as competitive as she is, she'll make the trip count.

"There's definitely a lot more late-season money out there than there has been in the past, so it's worthwhile to go to the Northwest," she said. "Except for Pendleton. That place scares me! The competition side of me would probably come through, at some point, but my goodness, it's scary!"

When it cools off in Texas, she'll return with her husband and daughter to Lampasas, where they own and operate Conquer Equine Rehab and Fitness, specializing in surgery rehab, wound care, and conditioning, plus selling a CBD supplement to help horses with stress, inflammation, digestion, allergies and focus.

Miller Dominates Castle Rock on Divide The Seis

By Julie Mankin

Jodee Miller of Santo, Texas, along with fellow trainers Abby Fields and Lacey Donegan, are headed to Rock Springs, Wyoming, for the Royal Crown Futurity. It seemed like a good idea to hit a few of Colorado's little fair rodeos on the way, so they ran at Yuma and Sterling, but missed entries at Castle Rock.

The Douglas County Fair and Rodeo, Aug. 1-3 is one of the country's richest one-headers. Miller walked up and couldn't get a turnout spot Saturday, but walked up again Sunday and got in. She hadn't gotten any money out of Yuma or Sterling, but used those runs to work on her timing aboard 9-year-old Divide The Seis ("Leroy"), the bay horse she bought last year to back up her roan powerhouse "M R Im On Fire Guys" ("Fuego").

"The third time's the charm, I guess," cracked Miller. "I'm not really rodeoing, just dabbling."

Running on Sunday worked out better, anyway, when the sandy soil absorbed the previous day's rain and most of the checks were won. Miller and Leroy didn't just win one of the toughest outdoor rodeos in the country, they actually whooped the field by more than two-tenths of a second, clocking a blistering 16.82 to earn $8,831. The committee isn't sure, but assumes it's a new arena record.

"I've ran him more inside than outside," said Miller. "He's not really that rodeo-seasoned and I'm not sure how much he's been run outside, period."

Miller's friend Sarah Roberts asked Miller to take Leroy last year and get him working and get him sold. He sports J.O. Duke's brand and is by Divide The Cash (Chicks Beduino/Hempfen/Jet Deck/Dash For Cash) out of a Tres Seis daughter that was out of a Runaway Winner daughter.

"I really liked him," said Miller, who owns the gelding with her fiancé, Lee Pedone. "I saw some things he needed and gave him an opportunity to be good, because he wants to be. I just really got along with him and needed a backup horse for Fuego. It took me a while to get him winning."

Finally last summer, Leroy ran a tenth off Jordon Briggs' Rollo, and has since clocked a 13.3 at Northside and won a big race in Glen Rose. She ran Leroy at Castle Rock last year, too, and clocked a mid-17-second run, but he was thereafter laid off with bruised hocks for six months. She started riding him again this spring.

Miller generally raises and trains her own horses by $4.8 Million Sire French Streaktovegas, the standout futurity stallion for Hallie Hanssen that Miller purchased with her sister Jayme Robison (they own M R Performance horses out of Bellville, Texas). The stud by A Streak Of Fling out of the full sister to Frenchmans Guy & three-quarter sister to Hall-of-Famer Bozo has produced Latricia Duke's DM High Roller ($659,731) and Anita Ellis' Two Dash Ta Vegas ($376,947), in addition to Miller's 8-year-old Fuego – on whom she's earned $254,199 and shattered the arena record at El-lensburg last year with a 16.5.

"I fell in love with training when I was about 20," said Miller, who swept the futurity and derby at Fort Smith one year on home-raised colts. "I had started riding some with Jordon Briggs and that helped open some doors to that world and I fell in love with it and never looked back. It was coincidence that Fuego was running so good; I still treat rodeoing more as a hobby than a lifestyle. Last year, I gave it a go and did a lot of learning. I'm not opposed to doing it again, but it would have to fall together perfectly."

An MRI revealed Fuego had bruised feet this spring, just as Leroy came off six months on the sidelines with bruised hocks.

"Since Fuego got hurt, I've been more to futurities, and mentally it's a little different," Miller said. "The atmosphere's different. If you have really nice young horses, it's hard to want to go rodeoing – it's usually just one horse and it's so hard to make money rodeoing. If you have a couple of good futurity horses, it's more likely to be financially beneficial."

She's campaigning a derby horse and two futurity horses this summer, all by French Streaktovegas. And when she gets home, she said she'll start legging Fuego up, with plans to run him at some rodeos this fall.

"I'm not in a hurry," she said. "He doesn't owe me anything. I'll start the 2026 season on him; maybe enter some qualifiers for some winter rodeos."

Taylor Cherry is Breeders Elite Incentive's High Money Rider Winning $57,592

Hope Raley

Taylor Cherry is a force to be reckoned with on one horse, but when she is riding more than one, she is almost virtually unstoppable, and that was the case this past weekend at the Co Operators Agrim Centre in Rimbey, Alberta at the 2025 Breeder's Elite Incentive. The 2025 edition of the Breeders Elite paid out $446,336. Cherry piloted two horses to a large payday of $57,592, Blazin Sugar Daddy- who has been on her trailer for the past few years- and Frenchmans Extra- who she just picked up from owner Chyann Corr a little over two weeks ago.

"This weekend my runs felt really special," explained Cherry. "Each horse gave me everything they had. Frenchmans Extra, who I have only had for two weeks, went in and clocked like a seasoned winner. She felt so gritty and honest. And Blazin Sugar Daddy was sharp, powerful and really showed his consistency!"

Cherry and the incredibly talented Blazin Sugar Daddy, who is a 6-year-old stallion by Blazin Jetolena and out of Ls Shamless in Paris by Frenchmans Falcon, have been dancer partners since the stallion started his barrel racing career as a 3-year-old. Owned by Klassen Quarter Horses, the beautiful palomino has earned just under $300,000 in his short career so far. "He is gritty, athletic, and thrives in a competitive environment. Despite being a stud, he is very manageable and has a ton of personality. Blazin Sugar Daddy and Cherry were the 2nd fastest run in the Showdown with a 14.568 and won the Derby Sweepstakes, while Frenchmans Extra and Cherry were 3rd in the Futurity Showdown Sweepstakes with a 14.895.

Cherry rides daily with a purpose and big expectations. "I think because I do put some pressure on them even at home, my horses can go to an event and not feel like it is a big deal. Blazin Sugar Daddy has the perfect combination of mind and athleticism-he is fast, fluid, and naturally wants to turn a barrel, but his brain is what sets him apart. He can handle pressure, crowds, and different setups without losing focus." Although Frenchmans Edge and Cherry were fairly new to one another, it didn't take them long to work out some kinks and get in the winner's circle. "I had been working with her for about 10 days straight prior to the Breeder's Elite, and when I first got her, we had some things to work through and it was tough at times, but she is very smart and was quick to figure out what I was asking of her pretty quickly which led to our success at the Breeder's Elite!"

Cherry has always enjoyed the Breeder's Elite Incentive and getting a piece of it is just icing on the cake. "It's a top notch event," said Cherry. "The ground was consistent, the staff was professional, and the atmosphere was electric. It is an event where everything runs smoothly, making it enjoyable for horses, competitors and spectators!"

Winning close to $60,000 this past weekend, Cherry also went home with beautiful buckles and awards.

The rest of her 2025 season Cherry hopes to continue her winning streak and focusing on the rodeos and finishing out the futurity and derby season in Canada and possibly some in the U.S. as well. "My goal is to qualify for the Canadian Finals Rodeo and hopefully set me up for some of the big winter rodeos down south."

Sr Whoa Call Me and Kerstin MacGregor Bank $37,248 at Breeders Elite Canada

By Hope Raley

Sr Whoa Call Me and Kerstin MacGregor ran an explosive 14.824 in the Co Operators Agrim Center in Rimbey, Alberta to secure the Futurity Showcase Sweepstakes during the Breeders Elite Incentive August 2-3. Sr Whoa Call Me is a 5-year-old mare by Famous Last Call and out of Whoa Question Me by Dual Banditos Gold. She was bred by Doug and Carol Schaffer at Sandy Ridge Stallion Station and now owned and ridden by Kerstin MacGregor. After winning $20,000 at The Runaway last year, she bought the mare sight unseen. MacGregor was quick to say, "Isn't that what you are supposed to do when you win that much money?" she laughed.

"She is a really neat cross of run and cow, and such a natural athlete," MacGregor explained. Though they are having fun now, MacGregor says that "Secret" can be very spicy and hasn't always been the easiest. "She has the talent and the moves, but she is also a winner because of a lot of hard work that her and I have put in over the past year." MacGregor goes on to say that "Secret" has taken a lot of dedication and says that she is not for the faint of heart. "I ride her every day and it takes a lot to keep her feeling good. I can't express how important it is to have a good working relationship with a vet, an osteopath, and other talented riders that you can go to for advice!"

MacGregor herself has had to seek out medical help over the past few years after she sustained a severe ankle injury. "I feel like I could write a book on the highs and lows of barrel racing" she laughed. "I have had a lot of struggles with my physical health as well as my horses. I had a serious injury, a baby, and then underwent ankle surgery this past winter. I wasn't able to ride the way that I used to, and that was very hard." MacGregor explains that this whole new normal for her made her be cognizant of her body and she continues to put in the work to try and be the best rider that she can. She also explains the struggle of maintaining horses to be able to compete at their peak performance. "I have another mare who was a standout her futurity year and continued to prove herself at the rodeos, but after doing everything I could to get her feeling 100%, this season comfort comes first for her. So, that has left me with Secret to rodeo on."

Admitting that it has taken a lot of mental strength and trust in her program, MacGregor has been running Secret at some of the biggest rodeos in Canada this year. "It's not how I imagined this year going, but it has taught me a lot about patience, adaptability, and keeping faith in the process. My saying is 'try harder, be better' and that is what I will continue to do!"

MacGregor's goals for the rest of the season is to just keep putting in the work and enter a few larger jackpots and futurities. "I would also like to enter some fall rodeos, if she feels up for it. I will let her decide." Eventually MacGregor would like to make the Pro Tour Finals and ultimately the Canadian Finals Rodeo.

As far as the Breeders Elite Incentive goes, MacGregor is grateful

WCRA Hands The Reins To Next Generation Of Rodeo Leaders

--WCRA infused over $21 million into the rodeo athlete ecosystem, delivered the sport to national television, and pioneered new standards in competition and production --

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) announced today that it will complete its organizational mission and transition operations to new leadership effective August 1, 2025. While WCRA as an organization sunsets, its core initiatives will continue under new leadership to ensure continued opportunity in youth, women's, and open rodeo competition.

This transition will solely impact WCRA's open rodeo competition and will not affect women's or youth rodeo initiatives. Moving forward, the Professional Bull Riders (PBR) will oversee and continue all operations related to the Women's Rodeo Championships (WRC), more details to follow. Additionally, the World Championship Junior Rodeo (WCJR) will continue to be produced by the Lazy E Arena, with the competition format being released shortly.

"Our mission from the very beginning was simple: to make rodeo better," said WCRA President Bobby Mote. "There was no blueprint when we started—just a shared belief that the sport and its athletes deserved more. We set out to do something bold, something that hadn't been done before. Today, open rodeo athletes have more opportunities and pathways than ever before. In our eyes, that's mission accomplished. We're incredibly proud of the impact we've made and deeply grateful to everyone who believed in the vision along the way."

Nominations for both the Women's Rodeo World Championship (W26) and the 2026 World Championship Junior Rodeo (DY26) are now open through the Virtual Rodeo Qualifier.

Since 2018, WCRA has infused more than $21 million into the rodeo athlete ecosystem, brought rodeo to national television audiences, and pioneered a number of competition and production innovations. These include the implementation of instant replay for every ride and run, hand-raking and halfway drags in barrel racing, point deduction markouts in roughstock events, and rules like mishandling and the three-second tie—many of which are now widely adopted across the sport.

The organization was instrumental in elevating the profile of breakaway roping and was the first to offer a truly equal platform for women in rodeo. WCRA played a key role in expanding the sport's reach, including the historic 2021 Women's Rodeo World Championship broadcast on CBS, which became the highest-rated rodeo program in history with 2.4 million viewers.

All inquiries related to the transition can be directed to info@wcrarodeo.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

When we are in a challenging time, it's very important that we stay cool, calm and steady. And it's even more important that we do NOT let our enemy talk us out of winning.

In the movies, it's Darth Vader VS Luke Skywalker and it's nip and tuck. NO! The devil is defeated already! Jesus led the devil in a triumph. Col. 2:15. And if that's not enough, and it is, we have Hebrews 4:12 telling us that the Word of God is sharper than any two edged sword.

At Bible study the other night, Mike was talking about some of this and he said, "Just take that sword and El Cabong the devil with it!" Now, if you are older, you will recognize that saying from a cartoon! The visual of it made me laugh!

The Word of God is our powerful weapon and we use it when we get attacked. Actually, we use it all the time. But El Cabonging the devil is a great word picture during our battles! He is defeated. We win.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
