Jam Up Win for Michelle Darling & Morning Traffic at Dodge City Roundup

Michelle Darling of Medford, Oklahoma, and her super mare Morning Traffic ("Martini") have had quiet the summer, from winning the $50,000 World Champion Rodeo Alliance's Titletown Stampede to picking up a big circuit win at the $20,000-added Dodge City Roundup in Kansas.

"Isn't that crazy!" said Darling. "I added it up and it was almost $90,000. I told my husband last night, 'Man, Martini has just rocked it in a short two months! I'm so lucky to have her.

"We work our whole lives to find that one special horse and when we find that we do everything we can to take care of them. She gives me 110 percent every time."

This past weekend, Darling and Martini picked up $10,036 to help jump them from 63rd to 39th in the WPRA World Standings. The win at Dodge was worth $6,825, and she picked up an additional $3,211 for winning Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg.

They started off their week on Wednesday with their first two runs in Dodge City, held July 31 to August 4. Each day starts with slack with the top 10 from slack advancing to a second run during the rodeo's performance that night. The Top 12 on two runs advanced to Sunday's short round.

Rider/Owner: Michelle Darling; Breeder: Lance Robinson & Max Anderson

On their first run, Darling and her 8-year-old mare turned in a blistering 16.70 on the WPRA Standard Pattern, just 2/100ths off of Benette Little (Barrington) and JL Dash Ta Heaven's 16.68 arena record.

"The first three girls that ran in slack fell down, so they stopped slack and ran the calf roping and then picked back up with us," she explained. "I was in the third drag, but I was first out."

That night, they struggled a little leaving the third barrel to a clock a 17.29.

On Thursday, they made their winning run in Phillipsburg. "I had a really great run there," she said. "She did lay one down there and I was pretty excited about that." Their last run of the week was supposed to be at the Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo in Abilene, Kansas. Unfortunately, the rodeo got a lot of rain and Darling opted to lope her stallion Guys On A Mission through the pattern rather than putting Martini at risk.

2019 Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale in New Location in Rapid City, SD

The 2019 Fulton Family Performance Horse & Production Sale will be held Friday, August 9, 2019 at the Central States Fairgrounds in Rapid City, SD. The preview will be held at 2:00 pm MT with the sale to follow at 6:00 pm MT. Starting Wednesday, August 7th, all Fulton horses can be seen at the Central States Fairgrounds until sale day.

The sale will highlight 40 elite prospects and broodmares presented by the Fulton Family and special guest consignors, including offspring of the Fulton Family sires; $3.7 million dollar sire, A Streak Of Fling si 98, the proven rodeo and performance sire, CS Flashlight si 106, as well as up-and-coming son of A Streak of Fling, A Dash Ta Streak. The sale focuses on riding two-year old prospects, but there will also be weanlings, yearlings, older prospects and bred broodmares.

"This offering is a great representation of our program. Our best maternal bloodlines are at the forefront with full and maternal siblings selling and we are excited to showcase new mare lines offered from our consignors and the younger prospects. There is truly something for everyone in this sale," says Lisa Fulton.

The sale features some of the best bloodlines in the business; including; Giveawink-tostreaker (2 yr old bay mare by A Streak Of Fling out of the NFR Qualifying daughter of Doc O Dynamite, Give Me A Wink LTE $400k); Flingin Corona (2 yr old full brother to Streakin Queenie LTE $65k and Streakin Ta Corona LTE $40K); A Peacharita Fling (2 yr old palomino stud by A Streak Of Fling out of BFA Derby Champion, SX Dr Peacharita LTE $250k+); weanling A Streak Of Fling filly out of A Streak of Fling and the NFR Round Winner RC Back In Black; and more outstanding prospects by these performance horse stallions that come from Fulton foundation broodmare lines.

For more information on the sale, videos and catalog, visit www.FultonRanch. com or find Fulton Ranch or A Streak Of Fling on Facebook. Phone bidding is available by signing up on their website and submitting a letter of credit. Online bidding also available on www.TheLivestockLink.com, as well as a live broadcast there and on A Streak Of Fling's Facebook page. Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Comes to an End Diamonds and Dirt Barrel Horse Classic founder Kristi Schiller and Managing Director, Shanna Brown announced today that along with their family and the DDBHC™ team, has made the decision to retire the barrel futurity moving forward.

"It is with sadness that we have elected not to produce DDBHC™ going forward. Creating and building such a prestigious event has been an incredible experience from the beginning and for eight years, we've been privileged to host the best horses and competitors in the equine world," said Schiller.

"An event of the magnitude in size as DDBHC™ requires a tremendous investment, both financially and with time and sweat equity. Because of our commitment to making DDBHC™ a premier race, many other interests have been put on hold over the last nine years. But passions evolve and we're ready now to dedicate more time to other aspirations." Said Brown.

Schiller expressed heartfelt thanks to everyone involved with Diamonds and Dirt, from its inception.

"We feel blessed by the many relationships that have cemented since we started in 2011. It's been an incredible ride. The best competitors, horses, announcers and arena staff, along with the team from Schiller Ranch, have made Diamonds and Dirt the premier barrel futurity in the US. What a privilege it was to raise awareness for K9s4COPs.org in the process."

"In over 8 years, thousands of professionals, open, amateurs, youth riders and trainers from all over the world have competed for millions of dollars in purses. All of us here at Schiller Ranch care deeply for those in the equine industry. Schiller Ranch will continue to promote the Quarter Horse Industry through the success of Epic Leader and his babies" Schiller added.

2019 Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale this Week!

could actually hurt one, so Martini got Friday and Saturday off."

Back at Dodge City, she and Martini had ended up winning the first round by more than 2/10ths, and although they didn't place in the second round, they led the two-run average into the short go. Her strategy for the short go was to have a fast, clean run.

"I knew I needed to be fast," she said. "I knew I needed to be a 17.1 or a 17.0 to be safe. We had trouble on third barrel again. She kind of hung up on the backside, but she pulled out of it and we ended up clocking a 17.1. I was pretty sure we'd won it, but there were still a lot of tough horses to go."

Darling said the draw has a big impact on the outcome because Dodge City gets deep.

"You're definitely better if you're the top of the ground," she said. "I think I was sixth out that night. In the second, I was eighth out towards the bottom of the ground. It makes a difference, in slack, when I was first out she threw down a run."

Martini was Darling's pick out of the 2013 Myers Performance Horse Sale. The daughter of leading barrel horse sire Frenchmans Guy was bred by Lance Robinson and Max Anderson. She is out of the Dash Thru Traffic mare Evening Traffic.

"She was pretty ornery," Darling laughed. "She was just a different mare, kind of hot and hard to get along with. I was a little scared at first. I thought I had messed up. We really had to take our time with her. I sent her to Denise Colclasure for their guy to ride for 30 days. When we brought her home, I just messed with her a lot. It was just little pieces at a time. I finally got her to trust me and started her on the barrels. She did really good. I hauled her and got her clocking, then I got pregnant."

Darling sent Martini to Stevi Hillman for her futurity year. "When I first sent her to Stevi she called me and told me, 'She just bucked when I put the saddle on her!" she chuckled. "I told her just be patient with her. She'll be fine. It took her awhile to bond with her, but once she did, the rest is history. She did great on the mare. She even rodeoed on her as a 5-year-old."

Martini won several pro rodeos as a 5-year-old including the Pendleton Roundup and helped Hillman qualify for her first Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. She even got to make a trip down the alley at the Thomas & Mack for one round at the WNFR.

Afterward, Darling brought the mare home for an extended break.

"We pulled an embryo or two on her and just turned her out," she said. "We went to a few her 6-year-old year just to get her feet wet. I think she won Pretty Prairie and Woodward and made the short round at Cheyenne, that was the first time I had been there on her. I ended up making the circuit finals on her for the first time."

Last year, Darling broke into the Top 50 in the WPRA. Now, they've set their sights on the Top 30. Even though they got a late start, they're on track to hopefully make the cutoff for the lucrative winter rodeos.

"I try not to make a lot of runs on her," she said. "I just want to have a horse when I'm done. I don't want to wear her out in one year. I would love to make the NFR, but I want to do it the right way. I want to try to get into Houston and win money so I only have to go to 40 or 50 rodeos and not 100. We have a goal and we're trying to get it, but school starts, so I'm going to stay home and circuit rodeo now."

"I don't want to miss anything in their lives that's why I decided to only go in the summer," she said. "During the school year, I'm home except on the weekends I can go a little bit."

Her last two big rodeos of the summer are the $10,000-added Lawton (OK) Rangers Rodeo and the $12,500-added Sikeston (MO) Jaycee Bootheel Rodeo. She's out in Lawton on Friday and Sikeston on Saturday.

"I'd really like to go to the Northwest, but the kids start school," she said. Their first day is August 7. "My husband has a business and he stays busy, so we really can't make it work right now. Those are the last two big ones. The rest are just circuit rodeos close to home."

Boiling Point

With less than two months left to qualify for the 2019 NFR, it's pressure-cooker time for those on the bubble of the WPRA Top 15. After this past weekend, there was no change to the members of the Top 15, although a few spots were traded. Ericka Nelson of Century, Florida, cracked back into the Top 10 with a third placed finish at Dodge City ($7,039) and a victory at Sidney, Iowa ($1,947).

Dona Kay Rule and Leia Pluemer traded spots. Both ladies got vital wins to stay in the hunt for NFR qualifications. Rule, Minco, Oklahoma, and her horse High Valor won Preston, Idaho ($2,410), placed second at Glasgow, Montana ($1,772) and placed sixth at Heber City, Utah ($952). Pluemer of Los Lunas, New Mexico, and her mare Famous French Bug won Abilene, Kansas ($2,361).

The Canadian rodeos continue to have an impact on the World Standings. The $20,000-added Strathmore Stampede in Alberta greatly benefited bubble chasers Jessie Telford of Caldwell, Idaho, Jackie Ganter of Abilene, Texas, and Callahan Crossley of Hermiston, Oregon. Telford also picked up a check at the Pile O' Bones Rodeo in Regina, Saskatchewan, as did Brittney Barnett of Joliet, Montana.

It's important to note that Canadian rodeo earnings don't always show up in the WPRA Standings right away.

The WPRA Rookie Race has also tightened significantly. Carly Taylor of Andersonville, Tennessee, and Megan Champion of Ukiah, California, has been see-sawing back-and-forth for much of the year.

Champion had the upper hand following a great showing at the Cheyenne Frontier Days. This week the edge went to Taylor, who won Great Falls, Montana ($3,081), placed fourth at Preston ($1,446) and fifth at Idaho Falls, Idaho ($1,155). Champion was fifth at Preston ($1,205), placed ninth at Glasgow, Montana ($365), 11th at Heber City ($476) and 12th at Great Falls ($365).

McCumber and Aint Seen Famous Yet Win JJ Classic Futurity

We caught up with Amelia McCumber after a great weekend at the JJ Classic Futurity aboard Aint Seen Famous Yet. The duo has had a string of wins over the past few weeks.

BRR: You swept the 2 round of the futurity, can you walk us through your runs?

McCumber: Wally had 2 great runs in the futurity, he is very smooth and honest. He needs a little direction to hit our spot on the first barrel, and after that its usually smooth sailing. He is so much fun to ride, and really does make it easy. His hustle really amazes me, I try to sit quietly, put myself in the correct position and let him go to work.

BRR: What makes Aint Seen Famous Yet so special and makes him clock such fast times?

McCumber: I think what makes Wally so special, is that he doesn't waste any time. He hits his spots, and then really accelerates out of a turn. His head stays level and he has been so incredibly honest for me, that I don't have to get in his way trying to avoid hitting barrels.

BRR: Tell us about little about Aint Seen Famous Yet and what are some of his big wins in his lifetime so far?

McCumber: Wally's story is a special one to me. I have never had a horse that was more of a challenge. No one really enjoyed riding him his 2 and 3 year old year, and when I took over, I could tell why. He was a pain in the behind, would have maybe one good ride every 6 rides or so. I poured a lot of time and resources into him, trying to get him ready for this year, and I took him to his first event to enter in March, feeling cautiously excited. I was never so embarrassed in my entire life! It was such a disaster, but I packed him back up the next weekend and we won a 4D check, I was so excited... progress! Then slowly but surely I could feel his insecurities melting away, run after run. The SSS Futurity was the first time I didn't feel an ounce of hesitation from him, and he hasn't looked back since. The first time I realized he was "something special" was at the Bonus Race Finals. I almost drew him out because I felt like running in a race that large, without exhibitions wasn't very fair to a green 5 year old. But he showed me! He ran 2nd out of 1500+ horses and I just couldn't believe it. Since then, he was 3rd in the Average at the SSS Futurity, He won the first round of the 5-State and the short go, landing us nicely in the average there. He was 2nd in the average at the Dash N Dance and placed in both rounds. Then this weekend he was UBRA World Champion, Futurity Champion, Slot Race champion, and he has picked up a lot of FF and TC100 money the last 2 months as well.

BRR: How do you typically prepare for your runs mentally and warm up wise?

McCumber: I work hard to stay physically relaxed when on futurity horses, keep my pulse down, a clear mind, and focus on guiding him to the right pocket to make the turn easy for him. I don't warm up my horses a lot, a little long trotting, trot a couple circles and lope a couple circles each direction. Then just walk, making sure he is

THE RUNDOWN w/Ameila McCumber

Laughing Rose

Aint Seen Famous Yet, "Wally" 15.2 hands, 1,200 lbs.

Rider/Owner: Ameila McCumber; Breeder: Joshua & Kaylee Little

BIT: 3 piece smooth chainlink center, short shank (I prefer short shank bits with leather curbs)

SADDLE: Pozzi Pro, Double J Saddle

SADDLE PAD: 5 Star Pads

LEG GEAR: Professional's Choice or polo wraps

FEED: Bluebonnet Intensify

HAY: Full pasture all summer, fresh alfalfa daily (My Dad, Kirk Shane, Shane Farms, sponsors my alfalfa)

SUPPLEMENTS: Equipulmin or Oxypulmin prior to runs, Zesterra every time he gets on the trailer and before a run

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Wally does have allergies/asthma so we are very thankful to have a Flexineb to use. I try to have a friend come out and magna wave him once a week.

conditioning-training regimen: I always give my horses 2 days off after a weekend event, and then will usually ride 2 days that week, if I have another event the following weekend.

THANK YOUS & SPONSORS: I would like to thank my husband, parents, family and friends for being so supportive. I would like to thank Lisa Miladinovich for paying her stallion ASNY, into all of these futurity incentives this year, without FF, TC100, SSS and 5-State, Wally would have missed out on alot of opportunities!

soft in his face and rib cage, making sure he is paying attention and moving off my legs when asked.

Traci was diagnosed with Stage 3 IDC Breast Cancer in January 2019. She is currently undergoing 5 months of chemotherapy which will be followed up by 33 daily treatments of radiation. While Traci fights this battle with faith and grace, there are many challenges that come with such a diagnosis, along with surgeries and extended treatments plans. That is why we have decided to hold a benefit barrel race to assist the family. Traci is a wife of 11 years to Trey Pratt and the mom of two beautiful children, Byron and Megan. Amidst this fight she is also a 24 hour caregiver for her terminally ill son who is still fighting his battle as well. Nevertheless, she always has a smile on her face and is available to help anyone and everyone that reaches out to her when time allows. She has continuously been there for the youth of our community offering free lessons and mentorship. She is a light, Godly inspiration and positive role model for many of us. In short, we just want to give her a helping hand in her time of struggle.

Romans 8:28

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

am NOT a history person. Mike, on the other hand, loves history. Guess, as a Christian, we should all be history buffs just because of the legacy of "the life and times of Jesus". Everything He did and said we base our belief on.

But at church the other night, Mike used Custer in an example that has really made an impression on me, so I hope it will bless you as well.

Now, if you ARE a history fanatic, I pray you will grant me leniency here. Whenever Custer heard gunfire, he yelled, "WE RIDE TO THE SOUND OF GUNFIRE! CHARGE!!!!!" (Whether or not this is an accurate account is immaterial to this story. LOL!)

As the army of God, we need to hit the floor in the morning looking to have a battle with, and victory over, every single thing the devil brings to try to defeat us! Got a sniffle? CHARGE!!! The washer broke down? CHARGE!!!! Someone gossiped about you on Facebook? CHARGE!!!!!

Friends, we belong to God and He has equipped us to win every battle. 2 Cor. 10:4. We are NOT to be prisoners of sickness, lack, or any other demonic thing. His answers are yes and amen! 2 Cor. 1:20. Our weapons are the promises of God! Use them this week!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
