Carman Pozzobon & Ripn Lady Set Pace at Strathmore Stampede

By Tanya Randall

Defending Canadian Champion Barrel Racer Carman Pozzobon of Savona, British Columbia, added to her current standings lead with a $6,510 victory at the Strathmore Stampede, held August 3-6, in Alberta.

"I've never had luck there before," said Pozzobon, who was the first runner out in the last performance of the $20,000-added rodeo. "I finally broke into the good luck. I never expected to win it. Tay (Manning) had a really good run there too."

After running at Grimshaw, Alberta, on Saturday, Pozzobon felt that her gritty mare Ripn Lady ("Ripp") wasn't 100 percent so she went home to have her team work on the mare.

"She got better for Strathmore," she said. "She did really well, worked good and ran hard."

Bred by Keri Schweer, Ripp is by the Frenchmans Guy-Dash Ta Fame stallion French Hula Guy and out of Bijou Betali, by Eli Betastreak. After a successful aged event career, the now 8-year-old mare carried Pozzobon to the Canadian title last year.

She's got a good lead in the Canadian standings and is also 10th in the WPRA World Standings with $77,553 from 35 rodeos prior to the conclusion of Strathmore. Once included, her total jumps to $84,063.

"I try not to get excited until it's over," she said of her chances of making the National Finals Rodeo. "I've never really paid attention to see what it takes (to make the NFR). I'm not really sure what all counts toward qualification so I'm just going to wait until the end to look. I'm just going to keep trying to maintain it. We're all so tight right now."

She said great paying rodeos like Strathmore have made it possible to

"I'm grateful to have opportunities like that here in Canada," she said. "Most of my money has been won up here. Other than the winter rodeos, we haven't been back down south yet."

At the time of this interview, Ripp was resting at Coulee Equine while Pozzobon headed out for two Canadian rodeos. At Le Crete, Alberta, she plans on running her 5-year-old futurity horse TammysLittleParadise ("Lulu"), by French Hula Guy out of Tammy Paradise by Docs Paradise. She's missed out on most of the futurities because of her successful rodeo runs, so Pozzobon said she was getting Lulu ready for the lucrative Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Super Stakes by seasoning her at rodeos.

From Le Crete, she'll head to Dawson Creek, British Columbia, where she'll run another one of her former futurity horses Rimes Girl, who belongs to Kyla Simmons. Like Ripp and Lulu, the 7-year-old mare is by French Hula Guy, but out of Maggie Majorette, by Major Rime.

Next Tuesday, she'll pick up Ripp and head stateside for a run of six rodeos: Lynden, Moses Lake, Kennewick, Ellensburg and Bremerton, Washington and Canby, Oregon.

2018 Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale

The 2018 Copper Spring Ranch Performance Horse Sale will be held August 11, 2018 at the ranch near Bozeman, MT. The activities will kick off with a free barbecue the night before the sale, Friday, August 10, at 6:30 pm MDT. Performance Preview 12:30 pm sale day. The Stallion Parade will start at 4:45 pm MDT with the sale to follow at 5:00 pm MDT on Saturday, August 11, 2018. There will be a live webcast sale day by 321 Action Video, which will be streamed on 321 Action Video's and Copper Spring Ranch's facebook pages, www.BarrelHorseNews.com, www.BarrelHorseWorld.com and www.321actionvideo.com.

The sale will highlight 61 horses offered by Copper Spring Ranch and guest consignors. The sale will feature a number of top offspring by Copper Spring Ranch sires Prime Talent, Furyofthewind, and Firewater Canyon; as well as colts by some of the top sires in the barrel industry such as Dash Ta Fame, Frenchmans Guy, A Streak Of Fling, Shawne Bug Leo, The Goodbye Lane, Woodbridge, Darkelly, Frenchmans Fabulous, Pc Frenchmans Hayday, Fire Water Flit, Judge Cash and many more. There will be over 50 head of riding 2 yr olds along with a handful of 3 & 4 yr riding horses and a few select yearlings.

"We are very thankful to the consignors and the horses they represent. The ranch is excited and honored to offer these outstanding barrel prospects for sale." said Brian & Lisa Anderson, managers of Copper Spring Ranch.

Some of the sale features include the first public offering of a colt out of NFR Average winner, Tr Dashing Badger, better known as Dolly (a 2 yr old filly by Judge Cash); an own son of Fire Water Flit out of futurity winner Daisy Duke Dash, a Blazin Jetolena out of blue hen mare SX Frenchmans Peach; a 2 yr old Dash Ta Fame out of Ft Smith Champion Moon Light Martha; a 2 yr old Furyofthewind out of a full sister to Woodbridge and world record setter Kendall Jackson; 2 yr old stud by Frenchmans Guy out of Moonlight In Paris ($100k at rodeo & futurities). This is just select few of the exceptional colts being offered for sale.

ProRodeo Hall of Fame enshrines 2018 class

The rodeo world recognized its royalty Saturday, as the ProRodeo Hall of Fame opened its doors to the 10-member 2018 induction class. Headlining the class were team roping stars Speed Williams and Rich Skelton, who won eight consecutive PRCA world championships together from 1997-2004.

Williams and Skelton were joined by gold buckle-winner Deb Greenough (bareback riding, 1993), contract personnel recipient Leon Coffee, stock contractor Billy Minick, rodeo notable Walt Garrison and the committee for the Black Hills Roundup in Belle Fourche, S.D., as the PRCA inductees.

For the second time in the history of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame - 2017 being the first -barrel racers from the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) were among the class of inductees. The class included Kristie Peterson, Billie McBride and a WPRA equine inductee French Flash Hawk (Bozo).

In addition to the 10 inductees, former PRCA Chief Operating Officer Kay Bleakly received the Ken Stemler Pioneer Award, which honors individuals in recognition of their groundbreaking, innovative ideas and forward thinking.

Peterson, a four-time world champion, and her great horse French Flash Hawk, better known as Bozo, fittingly went into the Hall together. Following on the heels of Charmayne James and her great horse, Scamper, it was Peterson and Bozo that ended James' streak of 10 straight world titles, capturing their first of four world titles in 1994.

Although Peterson and Bozo were not successful in defending their title in 1995, the duo would return to the top of the sport in 1996, and then win three straight gold buckles.

"Bozo was an amazing animal, but it took Kristie's ability to respect Bozo's personality that made Bozo the champion he was," Elisabeth Hollmann said. "The fact they are being inducted at the same time is perfect because without the other one, neither of them would have had that career."

Peterson purchased Bozo for $400 in 1989.

"It's a tremendous legacy to my parents, James and Frances Loiseau, they started with one mare and from there they built a dynasty of performance horses," Hollmann said. "Kristie and Bozo brought national attention to that, and we are forever grateful to Kristie and Bozo."

"I am proud to leave a legacy, especially since I have eight grand-kids and seven of them are girls," Peterson said. "I'm glad I rodeoed at the time I did, it was when team ropers and barrel racers were granted equal pay and that's an important milestone in rodeo.

"My parents took my brother and me to rodeos in the summer, and without their sacrifice I couldn't have done what I did," Peterson said.

McBride accompanies Peterson and Bozo in the Hall as another four-time WPRA champion. She will be inducted posthumously, having passed away at the age of 90 on May 10, 2017.

McBride first saw barrel racing at an open rodeo event in 1937 and decided at 10 years old that it was the path she wanted to travel. McBride was a charter member of the Girls Rodeo Association (GRA), formed in her hometown of San Angelo, Texas, just over a decade later.

"What a wonderful day the Lord has made on behalf of my mother, and I want to sincerely thank everyone in the selection process for including her in this great group," said Alva Jean Meek, McBride's daughter. "Mother would be beyond thrilled, and she was excited to hear when the PRCA began inducting WPRA members last year.

"Thank you again, WPRA, the Hall of Fame and PRCA for helping preserve her memory. I guarantee she's on Cloud 9 today."

Solid Performances for Shali Lord and Freckles Ta Fame at Dodge City Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Shali Lord and Freckles Ta Fame ("Can Man") never relinquished their lead at the Dodge City Roundup, held August 1-5 in Kansas. The duo from Lamar, Colorado, led the two-run average after the first day and won the short go to take home $7,994.

At the $20,000-added rodeo, all contestants had their first run in a slack each morning with the top 10 moving on to a second run that night during a performance. The top 12 on two runs advanced to a short round on Sunday.

Lord and Can Man were out in the very first set on Wednesday.

"The barrels were first in slack," said Lord, who was fourth out on the ground for her first run. "The ground was fabulous. It was wet and worked and really good. Sarah Rose (McDonald) was a .1 and I was a .1. Can Man ran in there and worked awesome. He was on target."

McDonald and Lord ended up going one, two in the first round with their runs of 17.15 and 17.16, respectively. For their second run in the performance that night, Lord and Can Man turned in a 17.32.

"He still worked awesome, but we were 10th out on the ground," she said. "You could tell it was a little bit trickier, but he still ran a .3 and placed in the second round."

Michelle Darling took top honors in the second round with a 17.05, the fastest run of the rodeo on Morning Traffic. Lord and Can Man finished seventh.

Luckily, they drew well in the short round.

"For the Finals, I was second out and he worked amazing. He did so good and tried so hard. But, that's just his way. He always does his job. He's so consistent and tries hard. He just does everything correct," said Lord, who gave credit to his trainer Ashley Schafer for making him so nice.

Lord also wanted to thank Can Man's owners Joe and Carla Spitz for allowing her to run the talented Dash Ta Fame stallion that they raised out of the Frenchmans Guy mare Frenchmans Freckles.

"They've got a great program," she said. "They are so good to work with and they trust me. They're awesome."

Lord also wanted to thank her parents for going with her and her two children to the rodeos this summer as well as her husband and in-laws for making it possible for her to go.

"My mom and dad have been going with me all summer helping me with the kids so that's awesome," said Lord. She added her 7-year-old son has had a lot of fun with the mutton busting at the rodeos this summer. "My husband, he's been to some of the short rounds, but obviously he's busy at home and can't go to all of them. His parents help out a lot at home, too."

Lord, who currently sits No. 30 in the WPRA World Standings with $37,338 won at just 22 rodeos, hopes to finish the season high enough to qualify for the lucrative limited entry rodeos next winter. Thankfully, she hasn't had to haul too far with a lot of great paying rodeos in her home Mountain States circuit.

"I've been to the circuit rodeos and Dodge (City)," she said. "We have such a great circuit for the summer anyway. We don't even have to go outside the circuit for some of the bigger ones."

Lord has Loveland and Lamar, Colorado this week, followed by Rapid City, South Dakota; Albuquerque, New Mexico; and Amarillo and Abilene, Texas.

"I'll go to the ones down here and go to the southern rodeos and probably not go to the Northwest," she explained. "It's kind of hard to tell what numbers they're going to get in the Northwest and what they're going to pay. A lot of people enter and turnout, so that makes it hard to judge."

Lord also has the Spitz's talented mare Lady La French (Frenchmans Guy x Lady Ta Fame x Dash Ta Fame) to help Can Man with the runs.

"She's been out for a little bit," she said. "That's another reason that I haven't been able to just enter up. With just one horse, it's a little hard. When she's back, we can enter more too."

NFR Qualifier, Barrel Racing Icon June Holeman Passes at 75

One of the most beloved and inspirational barrel racers, June Holeman of Arcadia, Nebraska, passed away on August 3, 2018.

The weekend prior to her passing, Holeman was doing what she loved—barrel racing. Throughout her life, Holeman was a force to be reckoned with in the arena. She was largely self-taught from a lifetime spent on horseback.

From the 1960s to the present, Holeman won numerous titles in the NCRA, NSRA and M-SRA—the open, amateur rodeo associations near her home state. With rules from the Girl's Rodeo Association (now WPRA) preventing card-carrying professionals from competing at local non-sanctioned events, Holeman was in her 50s before purchasing her WPRA card in 1994.

When most rodeo athletes were in the twilight of their career, Holeman was first taking the national stage. Holeman was the WPRA's Prairie Circuit Champion in 2003 and 2004, thanks largely due to the efforts of her beloved gelding Sparky Impression.

Holeman and Sparky nearly made the NFR in both 2003 and 2004. Her tenaciousness was endless as she and Sparky both overcame setback after setback.

In 2004 at San Angelo, Texas, she was kicked by horse and fractured her leg just below the knee. Hobbling around on crutches, Holeman kept competing until Rodeo Houston when she was finally urged to seek medical attention. She had developed an infection in that leg and doctors said if she had waited a day or two longer, they would have had to amputate. Not surprisingly, Holeman was back running barrels by April.

With the hiccup early on, Holeman allowed Molly Powell to take Sparky to the 2004 NFR.

"It was a hard decision for her to make," said Powell. "We didn't know for a long time if she was going to let us take him. She said we could meet her at Ardmore. She was running at Jud Little's barrel race and she said I could run him one day. I think I was in the top 5 when I ran him and all I did was warm him up and go. Even then she would still say, 'Oh, I don't know if he'll be competitive."

Holeman eventually capitulated and headed to Las Vegas with Sparky in her bumper pull trailer behind her famous ambulance turned camper. She hit a bad snowstorm on their way out and Powell was unsure if she'd even make it. Thankfully, she did.

"She didn't want to keep him on the grounds," recalled Powell. "So, I went to meet her and drove into the Thomas & Mack that first night in June's ambulance. It was a surreal experience driving up in that ambulance."

Powell said what she and probably a lot of people took for granted was how physically strong Holeman was.

"Sparky was a lot of horse," she said. "She ran him with a little, ol' nothing bit. You had to be strong to run him. When I got to take him to the NFR again a few years later, I put a different bit on him, so I'd feel more comfortable. She was a lot stronger than you would think she was."

Sparky and Holeman had a bond though. She took a chance on the calf horse turned barrel horse because he had similar breeding to one of her earlier stars—Bucks St Pat. Both traced to Mr Bar None.

In 2005, Holeman and Sparky made their NFR debut together. The 62-year-old grandmother and her ageless equine wonder were fan favorites.

Although she had hoped for "another little Sparky horse" after his retirement, Holeman ended up with a monster—Hopes Money Boy, who was by her late brother's On The Money Red stallion and out of a mare that she'd won pro rodeo money on as well.

An upside-down bucket in the alleyway of the stall barn or in the parking lot next to her trailer meant Holeman was mounted on "Tall Boy."

In 2013 at age 70, Holeman and Tall Boy qualified for the inaugural running of RFD-Tv's The American in Arlington, Texas. She once again had the national spotlight and inspired many as you are never to old to give up on your dreams.

"She was an amazing woman and cowgirl," said two-time WPRA World Champion Kelly Kaminski. "She loved her horses. I remember the two of us crying together at a rodeo when she told me she thought Sparky's time to compete was done. Her love of the sport was one thing, but she loved him. She also inspired so many older women to keep going. Her grit and determination were second to none. She'll be missed."

Headin' For Home

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

If you've ever wondered what your gift is, you can read Romans 12:4-8 and one of those gifts will resonate with your heart. You will 'see' yourself in there, maybe even two or three places. And then Romans 11:29 says, "For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable". God won't take the gift/s He gave you, away from you. For you, your gift will be as easy as breathing. It will almost be 'natural' to you. For example.....I am very organized. I was at the paint store the other day, standing at the counter waiting for them to shake my paint, when I caught myself tidying up their counter... .I made myself stop.

Other gifts? Not so much for me. I am not mechanical. I hate to put things together or read directions. I'm twitching just writing that!! But, being organized, I can't stand to put off until tomorrow what I can get done today. So. We removed a window in our laundry room. My friend came over, took it out, framed it up, sheetrocked and taped. Mudding was left to me. NO PROBLEM! I got online and watched a 4 minute video of how to do it. That 4 minutes was an eternity but I gutted it out, learned all I could, which proved to be nothing, and gave it a whirl. It was a disaster. Two minutes into the job, standing there with mud on the BACK of the trowel, I was batting my eyes like a blonde, feeling totally overwhelmed.

My point? Oh how we need one another in this life! Whenever we get the idea that we can do everything on our own, we are set up to fail. If someone needs taught, call a teacher. If someone needs encouraged, call an encourager. Be a useful part of the body of Christ, whatever your gift! We need YOU! We need ME! Together we will get the job done...on time...and right!!

ike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
