Consistency Pays For Sidney Forrest & So Epic at Dodge City Roundup

By Tanya Randall

Sidney Forrest and her monster, gray gelding So Epic ("Sterling") made three consistent runs to win the historic Dodge City Roundup in Kansas for a $6,491 payday. It was the first rodeo championship for the Lipan, Texas, barrel racer and the 6-year-old Epic Leader, Streakin Six gelding.

"It was a pretty cool win," she said. "Sterling has won me the most money that I've ever made pro rodeoing so far, but I haven't won a rodeo on him."

Forrest and Sterling collected $9,019 on the weekend, having won third at Iowa's Championship Rodeo in Sidney and fourth at the Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo in Abilene, Kansas. They only rodeo where they failed to draw a check was at Kansas' Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg.

"We went to Sidney, Iowa, first and then Abilene and Phillipsburg," she said. "I left Sidney winning it and I left Abilene winning second. I didn't do any good at Phillipsburg. I was disappointed because I kept making a mistake on my third barrel and it was costing me some money. It cost me to make the short round at Cheyenne."

Sterling tends to step off of his third barrel and Forrest had got in the habit of not riding the gelding to his spot because she was trying to prevent the bow off the backside.

"She said, 'I'm not wanting to get into your business, but you're not riding that horse up into the hole,'" Forrest explained. "Even though he's stepping off, you need to ride him up in the hole. At Dodge City in the first round, I tried it and it worked pretty good. I had to go over there and thank her."

Forrest and Sterling placed seventh in the first two rounds at Dodge City. They made their first run on Friday morning. As one of the fastest 10 from that slack, they advanced to their second run during a performance, while the remaining contestants had to take the second run immediately following their first.

"It's a hard deal," she said. "It's a big run. A Standard Pattern twice in one day is a lot."

Their first run was a 17.45, despite squeaking around the first barrel. Their second was a 17.46.

"My first run, I barely snuck by my first barrel," she recalled. "I even rocked it a little. It was really, really tight. I actually leaned way

Veteran Producers Launch 2018 Kinder Cup

Veteran barrel show producers Ryan and Andre' Marie Dohrn, launch a brand new event called The Kinder Cup, February 1-4, 2018 at the Grand Coshatta Casino in Kinder, Louisiana.

Ryan Dohrn said, "For nearly two decades we have been producing barrel races. We are so excited for this new event! Our goal is simple, to put on a great event that is drama free with great ground, tons of fun, national TV coverage and bigger payouts. We will be paying back more money than ever before! We thank all of those involved in our past events and we look forward to the future."

The Kinder Cup will feature one of the highest paying slot races in the industry to date. The slot race will pay on a long and short go. With 50 entries, $100,000 will be paid to first place. In 2018, the slot race will be paying back 85% of all slot entry fees for slots 1-50. For every slot sold over 50, the event will pay back 100% of those slot entry fees! The Dohrn's estimate this will be the highest payback of any slot race ever.

The 2018 event will be held at the Coshatta Casino and resort in Kinder, LA. Andre' Marie Dohrn said, "We love this venue. But, warm southern weather in February is what we love most. Last year we wore t-shirts to the barn. We are also so excited to announce that the Coshatta Tribe has committed to this new event by building a 300x200 covered warm up arena behind the main arena as well."

The Going Big Time Sale Company will be hosting a barrel horse sale that will be held on Friday night. Ryan Dohrn said, "I have personally worked with Danny Ray for almost 20 years. When we first launched BarrelHorses.com his ranch was one of our first web sites. He is an industry icon and we could not be more pleased with our partnership on this sale."

The 2018 Kinder Cup will feature $10,000 in Future Fortune and $10,000 in Triple Crown Incentive money. The BFA Futurity will have $20,000 added. There will be $7,500 added open races featuring a $5000 added NBHA side-pot, a $2500 Derby side-pot and other incentives like WBRL, WPRA, BBR, PBRIP and the AQHA. (Some affiliations and side-pots are pending.)

Ryan Dohrn said, "This is an event for barrel racers put on by barrel racers. Our goal is to pay back more money and offer a drama free race where every barrel racer and idea is welcome."

ProRodeo Hall of Fame inducts 2017 class Courtesy of the PRCA

Stars converged at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame Saturday as a new class was enshrined into the prestigious Hall.

Randy Corley, along with gold buckle winners including the late Buck Rutherford (all-around, 1954), Enoch Walker (saddle bronc riding, 1960), Tommy Puryear (steer wrestling, 1974), Mike Beers (team roping, 1984) and Cody Custer (bull riding, 1992), were enshrined with rodeo notable Bob Ragsdale, a 22-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier in three events.

Also inducted into the Hall were four-time bareback horse of the year, Christensen Bros.' Smith & Velvet, and the committee for the Ogden (Utah) Pioneer Days.

For the first time in the history of the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, barrel racers from the Women's Professional Rodeo Association (WPRA) were amongst the class of inductees. Their inaugural class was comprised of Wanda Harper Bush, Charmayne James and a joint PRCA/WPRA equine inductee - Star Plaudit "Red."

Bush was multi-talented, becoming the most decorated cowgirl in the history of the WPRA (formerly the Girls Rodeo Association). When the GRA first formed in 1948, Bush was one of the first to sign-up. All totaled, she won 32 world titles - nine all-around (1952, 1957-58, 1962-65, 1968-69), two barrel racing (1952-53), two cutting (1966, 1969), one flag race (1969), 11 calf roping (1951-56, 1960, 1962, 1964, 1966-67) and seven ribbon roping titles (1951, 1953-54, 1956-59).

While Bush's barrel racing world titles came before the NFR began, she qualified seven times (1959-60, 1962-65, and 1974) for the NFR during her career.

"I'm honored to accept this honor for my mom, a famous legend, an icon, and my very best friend," said Shanna Bush, Wanda's daughter, who qualified for the NFR in 1984. "For my dear uncle, A.C. Harper, who said my mom was a world champion sister. How deserving to be the first woman inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame. History is made today, and she did it by being just Wanda."

Bush was inducted posthumously, having passed away Dec. 29, 2015.

James may have had to wait 22 years to join her legendary horse, Scamper, in the ProRodeo Hall of Fame, but was ecstatic to be a part of this historic class.

"I finally get to join him (Scamper), and that's emotional," said James, who now makes her home in Boerne, Texas. "Today is really a big deal, not only for me, my family, but I think for all the barrel racers of the WPRA. I couldn't be more proud and humbled to be one of the first inductees as one of the barrel racers."

James, who grew up in Clayton, N.M., the home of the very first barrel racing National Finals Rodeo in 1959, won the first of 10 consecutive world titles at the youthful age of 14 in 1984.

James was the first WPRA member to wear the coveted No. 1 back number in 1987, and became the first barrel racer to cross the $1 million mark in career earnings. In addition to the 10 consecutive world titles (1984-1993), James and Scamper won the NFR average title six times (1984, 1986-87, 1989-90 and 1993). In 1996, Scamper became the first and only barrel horse (until 2017) to be inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame.

James would add a cherry on top of her illustrious career, returning to the top of the sport aboard Cruiser (Cruisin on Six) in 2002, winning her 11th world title and seventh NFR average title.

"My mom traveled a million miles with me and my whole family sacrificed, so this induction is not just about me, but also your family and friends," James said. "The horses along the way, I couldn't have been here without the great horses. Obviously, Scamper was a godsend. This is just like icing on the cake getting up here today and accepting this honor."

With the 2017 class, the ProRodeo Hall of Fame now has enshrined 259 people, 33 animals and 28 rodeo committees.

far forward to get by it. I came back that night and made a pretty good run.”

Rather than trying to make another rodeo on Saturday, Forrest chose to stay in Dodge City and rest Sterling.

“I’ve actually turned out of a bunch of rodeos this year because he is my only horse,” she noted. “He’s really good on the road, traveling and hauling, but I try not to take advantage of him and run him too much.”

Sterling also missed a few rodeos during the latter part of July. After placing seventh in the first round at the Cheyenne Frontier Days, Forrest headed to Nampa, Idaho, for the Snake River Stampede where Forrest believes the gelding picked up a bug. After running at the Qualifier for the Days Of ’47 in Salt Lake City, Sterling had a very high fever.

“He wouldn’t eat and wouldn’t drink, so I called a local vet,” she explained. “They took his temperature and were wanting to quarantine him. So, I called my vet, Dr. Marty Tanner. They gave him an Excede® shot and decided to give it until morning. By morning his fever had broke and he was 100 percent better. I turned out of rodeos and gave him a week off. My next run was Spanish Fork—he placed there—and we went on to Deadwood and Cheyenne. It was pretty scary though. I didn’t know what was about to happen.”

For the Dodge City short round, Forrest was first out and turned in a 17.41, which won the round.

“I got to the holding pen a little early and I had to wait to go in,” she recalled. “I was saying my prayers and something just came over me that said, ‘You’re going to win it.’ I had to wait for everyone to run and there were so many tough horses. My mom usually comes down right away after my run, but I was back there just waiting, feeding Sterling cookies and listening to the times. I was thanking God for a safe fast run. I don’t pray to win. I pray to have a nice run and for Sterling to be safe and sound when I come out. It was crazy because something came over me, saying, ‘You’re going to be okay;

You’re going to win it.’”

The victory also served as an early birthday present and marked the first anniversary of Sterling’s ownership. He was her 22nd birthday present.

“It was kind of unexpected,” Forrest said. “I never even rode him; I just bought him straight from Kassie.”

The aged event standout took to rodeo quickly. Shortly after the purchase, Forrest and Sterling placed at three rodeos and qualified for the Semifinals Rodeo of RFD-TV’s The American.

“Kassie had run him at three rodeos, but he had never been run in any big performances. Denver [the National Western in January 2017] was the first performance I took him to and he did really well up there,” Forrest said.

Sterling has carried Forrest to $47,061 on year. They currently sit 21st in the WPRA World Standings. Forrest and Sterling will run at Lawton, Okla., on Thursday and Lovington, N.M., on Friday before returning to the Northwest.

“I’m pretty excited to head back up there,” she said. “It’s my favorite time of the year. It’s cooler weather and the rodeo commitments are just awesome.”

Tiany Schuster Continues Assault on WPRA Record Books

By Tanya Randall

WPRA World Standings leader Tiany Schuster and her great horse Show Mance continued their winning ways, taking two victories over the weekend and adding $9,598 to her already record-breaking season earnings.

Schuster started off her rather light weekend at the Big Sky Pro-Rodeo Roundup in Great Falls, Mont., where she ended up ninth, earning $668.

"I had a pretty great run, but I just got outrun," she said. "It got faster and faster as the rodeo went."

From Great Falls, Schuster headed to the Strathmore Stampede in Alberta, Canada. She won the $20,000-added rodeo for a $6,279 payday. Back stateside, Schuster and Show Mance won the Mountain Valley Stampede in Heber City, Utah, for an additional $2,671.

"I don't know if that was my fastest run I ever made on him at Heber City, but it that was probably the best run I've ever made on him, as far as text book, the way it should be," said Schuster. "Everything was in its proper place. When I came out of the arena, Edwin (Cameron, Schuster's significant other) said, 'That's the best run I've ever seen you make on him.' It was just a good run."

Although Show Mance, a 7-year-old by First Smart Money out of Blue Baby Cash, by Hold On To The Cash, is slowly regaining his show-horse worthy appearance since his little antibiotic-induced gastric incident during the Reno Rodeo in June, Schuster said he's getting stronger and stronger even though he's recovering his physique while on the road. One of the clues that the plucky gelding is feeling well is his over-exuberance before his runs.

He was full of himself before running at the Calgary Stampede, which championship helped Schuster shatter the WPRA Regular Season Earnings Record, and he was overly energetic again before Strathmore and Heber City, Schuster noted.

"When he's feeling good, he gets a little goofy," laughed Schuster. "He's always moving. It's like he's on a mission to go somewhere, anywhere!"

Schuster is already transitioning for her fall run and preparations for the National Finals Rodeo. While she was hauling and caring for an exhausting six horses for much of the summer, she lightened her rig by two. She sent Hoosier Fame, Born Ta Fame and Dash Ta Jones back to Krum, Texas, but Version Six, Firen For Jack and Show Mance were joined by JSYK Im Famous, who won $65,000 for Schuster this past winter before being sidelined with an injury.

"JSYK has been off since San Antonio," Schuster explained. "He had a minor procedure to stabilize an old, hairline fracture in his hock. There wasn't any arthritis or anything, it just wasn't bridging [trying to close]."

This weekend Schuster has rodeos in Oregon, Idaho and Montana. She currently has $240,257 in earnings, more than $84,000 ahead of #2 Stevi Hillman.

Locked & Loaded – Lisa Lockhart Wins Three Rodeos, Pockets $12,427 On Weekend

By Tanya Randall

Fan favorite Lisa Lockhart won three out of four rodeos, taking second at the only one she didn't win, to pocket $12,427 and solidify her bid for her 11th-straight National Finals Rodeo appearance. The Oelrichs, S.D., barrel racer sits eighth in the WPROA World Standings with $80,324.

"It was a very good weekend," she said. "Last week was a huge stepping stone. We definitely had our work cut out for us. There is so much money to be won and there is no give-up in anybody, so we have to keep going. It's a quest that we're all after. An NFR qualification drives us all to be very competitive and not give up easily."

Lockhart split four runs between her two buckskins—the immortal An Oakie With Cash ("Louie") and Alan Woodbury's creation, Rosas Cantina CC.

She won the Richland County Fair & Rodeo in Sidney, Mont., for $2,023 and the Northeast Montana Fair & Rodeo in Glasgow for $2,040 on Rosa before climbing aboard Louie for her two richest runs. She and Louie topped the Big Sky ProRodeo Roundup in Great Falls, Mont., for $3,341 and placed second to Tiany Schuster and Show Mance at the Strathmore Stampede in Alberta, Canada, for $5,023.

With two buckskins winning, fans occasionally get the two steeds mixed up, but it is rather easy to tell them apart. Louie runs the right and Rosa runs to the left.

"Even the announcers do...I'm running to the left and half way through the run, I want to pull up and tell the announcer, 'Wait a minute! this is not Louie!'" she laughed. "My niece said I should just change her name to Louise, but she needs her own identity."

Lockhart said Rosa, a 7-year-old daughter of leading racehorse sire Corona Cartel out of National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dash Ta Vanila, by Dash Ta Fame, has been "a rock star."

"I have to commend her for stepping up," she said. "It comes together better all the time. She's been super consistent and placed me almost everywhere I've ran her."

Louie, a 14-year-old gelding by Biebers Oakie out of Lady Kaweah Cash, by Judge Cash, is enjoying the help, having only had to run at 13 rodeos, including Loveland, Colo., Tuesday night.

"He loves the help!" said Lockhart. "Louie is actually going to go home for little bit and I'm going to bring Chism out. I'm going to go to some circuit stuff this week and try to give these other two a bit of a break.”

Lockhart noted that two weeks ago when entries were open for these upcoming rodeos, she had a different mindset as she was still trying to play catch up for the NFR.

“I was entering everything,” she said. “I will fulfill my obligations to getting to what I’m entered in. The way I look at it now is maybe I can change my plans for September and stay a little closer to home now. It’s not over yet, we still have some work to do, no doubt about it.”

While the big weekend helped relieve some of the NFR qualification stress, Lockhart said the best part of victories was winning amongst family and friends.

“I got to take a day off and spend it with my brothers and sisters in my hometown,” said the Circle, Mont., native. “It was so nice being in familiar places and close to family. I got to see so many relatives while in Montana. I guess that makes it a little more special. It’s not that you don’t enjoy going to far-away places, but it’s just added incentive to be around family and friends.”

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

This week I'd like to encourage us to go higher with God. You know, if today is great for us, it can be better. If we are struggling in any area, it can be better. How? By really, truly putting God first in our lives. I personally do not know one single barrel racer that isn't looking for that extra edge that will help them, or their horses, succeed.

Millions of dollars are spent on farriers, vets, chiropractors, blankets, boots, tack, trucks, trailers, and feed. For what? So we can get on a gorgeous, fast horse and go run around three barrels in a dirty arena and go 1/1000th faster than another person. Is that wrong? No. But I do know that our priorities can get totally whacked out. And you know it, too.

Please read Matthew 6:31-34. It talks about worrying. Bet none of us have ever done that.....and right there in verse 33, it gives us the ANSWER! I WANT THE ANSWER!!!! It says, "but seek FIRST the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and ALL these things shall be added to you." ALL these things. Do you know anyone or anything or any material possession that can promise you ALL things? JESUS can!!! Sore horse? Jesus knows. Money problems? Jesus knows. Kids a mess? Jesus knows. Marriage on the rocks? Jesus knows.

If you haven't been to church for a while, it would be good if you did. This is not a condemning letter. Jesus NEVER condemns us. Romans 8:1 says He doesn't. But we need to keep Him first place, so we can get to first place in ALL the areas of life. If you don't have a church, you can listen to our free Bible study CD's and get His Word in your heart. That's where wisdom and peace come from!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY. 82717, 307/685-2272.
