Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's Hot Streak Continues

By Tanya Randall

Two-time world champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi continues to hold the No. 1 spot in the WPRA World Standings after an $18,634 weekend that included a $10,389 victory at the Dodge City Round-up in Kansas and a $5,073 win at the Douglas Co. Fair & Rodeo in Castle Rock, Colorado.

The 16-time NFR qualifier also placed third at Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg for $2,417. She even managed to pick up $755 aboard her 4-year-old futurity horse Chiti Chiti Bang Bang in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, where she had gone because her and husband Garrett's daughter Tinley wasn't going to miss out on running in the pee wee race during the performance.

"It's really important that we get to Steamboat every weekend for Tinley to get to run," laughed Tonozzi. "We did it as a family and it was fun."

While she bred and raised the futurity horse, a mare by Tres Seis out of KissKiss BangBang, by Dash Ta Fame, Tonozzi got her big wins on the two powerful sorrels—Jets Top Gun ("Bennie"), owned and bred by Busby Quarter Horses and SR Industry Titan, owned by Nick and Tom Wylie.

Bennie got the win at Dodge, while Titan won Castle Rock and placed at Phillipsburg. She said the two horses are complete opposites.

"Neither one is anything alike," said Tonozzi. "Their styles are completely different. I work them completely different, nothing the same, but they both are winners, and they try super hard."

Titan is not very big, about 15 hands, and Bennie is a monster and might be 16.2.

"Bennie is really smooth, and he makes your job really easy," she said. "Titan has been a little more difficult to ride because he will hit on his front end, and he will fade to the first barrel. That's been my biggest learning curve on him. I've learned that when he does hit on his front end if you just stay hooked and ride it out, you'll be fine. He did that at Castle Rock."

Titan can get short, but he can be super free at the same time. I've run him off at the third barrel a couple of times and then, I've hit the third barrel. He can be a little tricky right there, but that's just me figuring him out.

Where Bennie is super round and has this perfect body position around the barrel, Titan will stick a leg and come back so dang hard.

He's actually rocked my head back a couple of times."

She said that her great horse Sixth Vision ("Stitch") taught her how to ride a horse that bounced on their front end.

"Stitch taught me how to ride Titan better," she said. "Stitch would do that bounce and I would have to hang tight and let him come around. It's weird because Titan will do that on the first barrel." Pro Rodeos Continued on Page 3 rel, but on the other two, he's as smooth as can be."

Bennie has no comparison.

"I've never ridden a horse like Bennie before," she said. "I don't know if anybody has. He's a very special individual."

Ironically, Titan, a 10-year-old stallion by NFR sire Firewaterontherocks out of multiple NFR qualifier and producer Mulberry Canyon Moon, by Marthas Six Moons, is the more personable of the two. Bennie, an 8-year-old gelding, by NFR sire and qualifier Blazin Jetolena, out of GL Famous First Lady, a full sister to NFR qualifier Famous Ladies Man, takes a little warming up first.

"Tinley calls Bennie 'Mr Sassy Pants,'" Tonozzi laughed. "When you go up to him, he'll pin his ears and you're like 'Is he going to bite me?' Then you go rubbing on him and he's fine. He's just not a very personable horse. Titan loves to be petted on, loved on and rubbed on. He's so personable. It's so funny; they're best friends, and they love each other."

 With Tonozzi's win at Salt Lake 2 weeks ago, she became the 3rd woman to cross the $3 Million mark in WPRA Rodeo earnings. She joined Sherry Cervi and Lisa Lockhart (who crossed that mark last fall) in that elite group.

Stevi Hillman & Cuatro Fame Take Strathmore Stampede, Win $6,890

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo veteran Stevi Hillman and her 16-year-old war horse Cuatro Fame ("Truck") topped the $20,000-added one-run Strathmore Stampede in Alberta, Canada, by nearly 3/10ths of a second to win $6,890.

Hillman, from Granbury, Texas, currently sits No. 19 in the WPRA World Standings with $62,168—Strathmore, which ran from August 4-7, wasn't included in that total.

"To win Strathmore is pretty special," said Hillman, who won the Raymond, Alberta, rodeo with Truck earlier this summer. "He loves Canada and we do too. It was a complete God thing. I give all the Glory to God for that run. We hit a barrel at Idaho Falls, and walking back, on the grass, we saw a verse on a piece of paper. It was neat the next day to go win Strathmore. It was really cool God letting us know everything is OK."

Hillman said she put "all her eggs in one basket" choosing to go Strathmore over her traditional Kansas run that includes Dodge City and Phillipsburg.

"It wasn't quite last minute, but we decided we were going the north route this year," she said. "We know Truck likes Canada. We had Heber City and Great Falls and Idaho Falls along with that." Unfortunately, the first performance at Heber City, Utah, which Hillman was in, was canceled due to a severe downpour that left the arena flooded. Everyone in that performance was drawn out of the rodeo.

"I thought, there goes one of the big rodeos this week, and that was disappointing," she said. Knowing that Truck needed a warmup run for Strathmore she chose to run him at Idaho Falls.

"I knew the ground was a little deep for him and that wasn't the perfect setup," she said. "I caught the second barrel leaving it, but he needed the run to be on his game for Strathmore, so that worked out good for us."

Once she got to Strathmore, Hillman decided to take a different approach to her first barrel due to the setup.

"It's a different angle to that first barrel so I got a game plan on where to run him to nail it because a couple of girls ran by on good horses. I thought I better get a better angle, and I almost hit it, but we got it.

"He let me lift him at the first barrel because I put him in too tight. I know him well enough to know when I lift and squeeze forward, he's going to go with me and keep curling around my leg. We're definitely a team like that.

"He was just firing and working really good. It felt like a fast Truck run. It was fun."

Truck, out of Princess Streaks, by Streak Laico Bird, is the second richest barrel horse by Dash Ta Fame with nearly $750,000 in earnings. He's helped her qualify for seven straight NFRs.

"He's solid and makes consistent runs," she said of the gelding that fits her "like a glove." "The only thing that gets him sometimes is if the ground is too deep and it holds him a little too much and if the barrels are on the walls, he'll set a little soon, which slows him down too much to be hanging with those quick horses. He makes his same run every time and I'm thankful for that."

Truck's helpers this year are RV Brigett, a Blazin Jetolena daughter out of DTF Mellowdoc, by Dash Ta Fame, that Hillman co-owns with Sawmill Ranch, and 70 Ranch Performance Horses' Sand In My Socks ("Sandi"), by BHR Frenchies Socks out of JC Pick Six, by Tres Seis.

"Brigett has been stepping up and doing great," said Hillman. "She was second at Great Falls this week and really fired. She's just getting into the rodeo scene too. She's learning to handle the ground and the setups. We're really excited to have her on the team.

"We have Sandi with us too. I really like Sandi inside. I didn't really plan on running her a lot out here, but I feel like everywhere I have run her, we've placed, so she's great to have on the team. I might run her a little this week but we're kind of waiting for those to start up again."

This week, Hillman has Jerome, Idaho, on Wednesday, Logan, Utah on Thursday, Homedale, Idaho, on Friday, and the biggest one, Hermiston, Oregon, on Saturday.

As for which horse is getting the call? "That's a good question," laughed Hillman.

"I really don't know yet," she admitted. "I'll probably run one of the mares. I'm assuming I'll run Brigett tomorrow, maybe Sandi. I'll probably save Truck for Logan and Hermiston. I run one of the mares at Homedale. It gives Truck a day in between and we want to keep him feeling good. He could probably run again tomorrow night, but I don't think I will."

While July gets all the attention as the rich month of the summer, there's still a lot of money to be won with all the weekday fair rodeos throughout the Northwest. It's the time of year where competitors can almost hit a pro rodeo every single day of the week, great paying ones at that.

Although she's trying to give him more rest between runs, Truck has always excelled in the Northwest.

"He likes the Northwest," she said. "The ground is typically drier and shifty out here, especially in Oregon. He typically likes that. He

Dawn Vandersteen & Little Miss Chrissy Collect $26,176 at The Breeders Elite Incentive

By Tanya Randall

Austin, Manitoba's Dawn Vandersteen and her 5-year-old mare Little Miss Chrissy ("Gigi") topped the Futurity Sweepstakes at The Breeders Elite Incentive, held August 4-6 in Rimbey, Alberta, for an impressive $26,176 payday.

The mare's breeder Jacqueline Rookes, who nominated her farm to Breeders Elite, collected $11,044 for the winning run. All totaled, Gigi is credited with $37,220.

"The money is wonderful," said Vandersteen. "I didn't even realize it was that high! The fact that the breeders get so much money must be wonderful for them. They put out so much money for these programs. It's nice to have that money coming back."

Gigi is by Rookes' late stallion Mr Red Rock Leo Bar, a son of the double bred Leo Bar stallion Flit O Flit. Leo Bar was by Three Bars (TB) and out of Flit, making him a three-quarter brother to Flit Bar, who was by Sugar Bars. Her dam is the Judge Cash mare Kokanee Way.

When Rookes had purchased the Judge Cash mare and Vandersteen told her that if she bred that mare to Red and got a colt, it was "guaranteed sold to her."

"A little filly comes out and I'm like, 'Nope. Nope. Can't do it.' I don't ride mares. I'm not going to buy her," she chuckled. Vandersteen preferred geldings, especially those on the larger size. The petite filly didn't fit her expectations, but she knew better than to say "never" to riding a mare, this one in particular.

"It's funny how these horses come back to me anyway," she laughed. "A friend of mine bought her as a 2-year-old and sent her to a really good trainer. She had a good start on her. This friend asked if I would do the barrel training on her, and I said sure because I always wanted to ride a Judge Cash."

Once she started riding her, Vandersteen knew that she wanted Gigi. She was able to get her bought a month ago.

"It just came so easy for her," she said. "When horses are bred to do something, it's in their blood, it's in their bones. She'd do it in spite of me. I just knew it from the start."

Gigi, who sticks around 15.1-15.2 hands, has steadily been coming on since spring.

"She just wants to go. She's very confident and wants to go. I'm fine with letting them go if I know they're going to come back to me at the barrel, but she wasn't quite there yet. We were still getting things sorted out there," Vandersteen explained.

Throughout the summer, Gigi started getting her wins at larger jackpots and finished third in the Big Bang Futurity average a few weeks ago.

After tipping a barrel on Saturday at The Breeders Elite, Vandersteen and Gigi came back with the winning run in the $116,312 Futurity Sweepstakes.

"When I sent her in, she ran her heart out," she said. "It was great. She's really efficient in her turns and flattens out when she runs."

Vandersteen has been riding and training most of her life. About 10 years ago, she left her office management job to train full time—after having a serious horse accident!

"I got dragged," she recalled. For the record, a mare was responsible for the injury. "When I was lying in bed recuperating instead of thinking about quitting, I was thinking how life is too short and I should quit my office job. I started training full time. I used to take a lot of outside horses but now I mostly buy and train my own to sell.

"This mare was one of the few outside horses that I took, and I did it because I wanted to ride her bloodlines. I knew her sire. I'd ridden about 10 of them and had even ran him as a 5-year-old, and I always wanted to ride a Judge Cash."

Gigi also happens to be in all the Canadian barrel horse incentives, including the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive Super Stakes.

"I do plan on keeping her long term," said Vandersteen, 62. "I'm getting older too and am not going to be able to compete forever. I see keeping her and years down the road breeding her to something great and enjoying her that way."

Vandersteen wanted to thank Breeders Elite for the great event as well as her veterinarians, Dr. Bailee Stanton of Cochrane, Alberta, and Dr. Cyndi Kasper of Winnipeg, Manitoba, for their efforts to keep Gigi and all her other horses feeling their best, and Rookies for raising Gigi: "I just believe in her program. She's put a lot of great horses on the ground and I'm thankful for her breeding them."

WPRA World Champion and ProRodeo Hall of Famer Sherry Johnson Passes Away

By Ann Bleiker

With heavy hearts the WPRA announces the passing of Sherry (Combs) Johnson. Johnson of Addington, Oklahoma, passed away overnight (August 2, 2023) at the Duncan (OK) Regional Hospital after her battle with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD).

Johnson recently completed the family trifecta on July 15 when she joined the ProRodeo Hall of Fame alongside her world champion horse Star Plaudit "Red," who earned induction in 2017 and her sister Florence Youree, who was inducted as part of the Class of 2019 in the notable category for the WPRA.

During Johnson's WPRA career she qualified for 12 National Finals Rodeos, the first coming in 1959 at the first GRA (predecessor to the WPRA) Finals in Clayton, N.M. and the last in 1991 under the bright lights of Las Vegas, a span of four decades (1959-68, 1970, 1991).

She won her first WPRA world title in 1961 in the all-around category, but the highlight of her career would come in 1962 when she won the barrel racing world title aboard Star Plaudit "Red." Star Plaudit holds a very unique record in the world of professional rodeo, one that is not likely to ever be duplicated. The sorrel gelding won two World Championships in the sport in a single year and contributed to a third, at the age of 12. Red carried his owner Johnson to the GRA World title in the barrel racing and close family friend Tom Nesmith to the RCA world title in the steer wrestling and helped the Oklahoman also claim the RCA All Around championship, all in 1962.

While Red is considered Johnson's once-in-a-lifetime horse, she also trained six other horses that carried her to the NFR and an additional three that carried other competitors to the "super bowl" of rodeo.

Johnson gave back to the WPRA serving on the Board of Directors from 1963-1971, including a stint as the Vice President. She was named Coca-Cola Woman of the Year in 1997 and was inducted into the National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City in 2005.

Johnson would have turned 85 on August 16. Funeral arrangements are currently being planned and will be released as soon as that information is made available.

NFR Qualifier Macgyver Moonflash Passes

This past week the barrel racing world lost one of its bright stars, MacGyver Moonflash better known to most as Mac. Mac was a flashy 2013 bay gelding by racing World

ADDITIONAL

WESTERN SPORTS ROUNDUP
AUG. 7-AUG. 11, 6 P.M., RE-AIR AT 7 P.M.

Record Holder First Moonflash and out of a Black Moons Arising/Dash Ta Fame mare. He was bred to run down the track but he found his calling running around 3 barrels.

Mac was bred by Ivy Lane Racing and owned during the first part of his barrel racing career by Tres Mesa Horses and most recently by Highpoint Performance Horses. He carried his jockey Wenda Johnson to wins at futurities, derbies, opens, and rodeos.

Mac was an electric performer; when his name was called everyone ran to the fence to see him and Johnson scorch the pattern. Mac won at the highest level and helped qualify Johnson to the NFR in 2020, 2021, and 2022. His lifetime earnings sit at $504,436 (according to QData as of 8/8/23). His brilliance will be greatly missed by all barrel racing fans. Below is a post from the "Wenda Johnson Professional Barrel Racer" Facebook Page:

"MacGyver Moonflash (Mac) is a special, one in a million, kind-hearted soul! The bond we shared was remarkable, with trust freely given.

For anyone who spent time with him could see in his eye how extraordinary he truly was. There is no doubt he positively changed the lives of everyone he touched.

An infection in his leg severely affected his tendon, resulting in a loss of life. We are heartbroken...

In his life he was raced on the track until 3, then sold at the Heritage Place Sale for $6,000. Once he arrived at his new home in Fort Worth at Tres Mesa Horses, he was antisocial, unkept, with a lack of spirit.

Through time, love, and trust he blossomed into a confident, kind, competitive winner. He holds arena records with numerous rodeo wins. In August of 2021 he was purchased by Highpoint Performance Horses where he continued to thrive, change lives, and win. In May he captured the Clovis rodeo average and title by just under a half a second, pushing his LTE over the $500,000 mark.

Mac was truly remarkable and will be missed but never forgotten."

...Our thoughts and prayers are with all the connections to this special horse.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I'm loving the rain! I know some don't think we need this much, but I'm all in! Either way, Phil. 4:4 tells us, "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I say, rejoice." I will say that recently people have been rewriting this verse to say, "Grumble in the Lord always. Again, I say grumble." LOL.

I know, I know. It's hard not to complain when things are just not quite what we'd like. We all know there are times when it seems nothing is going right. But we need to guard our hearts against this type of thinking. There are a lot of things going right!

Our enemy, the devil, would have us focus on the negative. My body hurts. I didn't expect this bill. My in laws are wacky! You name it, the devil will point out every negative thing.

It's our job, and it pays very well, to focus on the half full side of the glass. When we take time to count our blessings, the negative seems to pale in comparison. When we look at the good, we will rise to the top and the top is where God wants us to be.

He promises us He'll never leave or forsake us. He meets our needs. He heals our bodies. The answer is always right there!
