THE RUNDOWN: THERESA WALTER

HORSE: Fames Licorice Kiss "Licorice"

Black Mare, 9 years old, 15.2 hh, 1200 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I bought her as a 2 year old from Mountain Rose Ranch in Arizona. When I bought her, Dan Etbauer had started her and she probably had 15 rides. I flew down to Guymon tried her and bought her. I futurited her as a 5 year old and won $25,000 with limited hauling. Then at 6 I started rodeoing on her and we went to just 11 rodeos and made the circuit finals and won the average at the circuit finals and made it to Pocatello (DNCFR) and earned about $12,000 there and made the round of 4. As a 7 year old we won the circuit and average at the circuit finals and set an earnings record for the Montana Circuit. Her 8 year old year in February, I broke two fingers and I had trouble with her left hand and had an off year. I still ended up 2nd in the Montana Circuit for the year and made the DNCFR We made it there the last 3 years in a row. Her lifetime earnings are over $100,000.

BIT: David Elliot Draw Bit, square (middle) round (edges), snaffle mouthpiece

SADDLE: Stoney Saddlery Barrel Saddle

PAD: Wade

LEG GEAR: Trevor Brazile Relentles Pro Equine

GRAIN: Omolene 200

SUPPLEMENTS: Platinum Performance

HAY: Grass/Alfalfa mix

#1 TRAINING OR RIDING TRIP: From the time of training her she has been an extremely aggressive horse. She taught me a lot because I had never ridden something that aggressive. I had to do a lot of slow work. Everything I do with her is with the slow work, bringing her down again before we hit the road. I tried to put a really good foundation on her because she was so aggressive and I have always felt that putting a good foundation on a horse like that gives you something to go back to and fix them with.

Special Elan 1987-2011

The 1987 sorrel stallion Special Elan was humanely euthanized due to complications from old age on July 22, 2011. The 24 year old stakes winning stallion earned $100,831 and a 98 speed index during his race career and went on to become a millionaire sire of race horses and a top sire of barrel horses. Special Elan (Special Effort-Dash Again, Dash For Cash), bred by the Dr. Lindsey D Burbank Sr. Estate, was a full brother to All American Futurity winner and millionaire filly, Elans Special. Special Elan was the sire of race earners such as LIL BOY CRICKET SI 98 (10 wins, $163,037, Sam Hous ton Fut. [G1]), TRUCKIN SPECIAL SI 104 ($87,485, B.F. Phil lips Jr H. [R]), GOTTA SPECIAL POP SI 100 ($84,312 [RG2]) and DASH FOR BUGS SI 108 ($78,525). He was also the sire of many top barrel horses such as Dash To The Flame (earner of over $100k) and Mary Larson (earner of over $50k). Special Elan was laid to rest at current owners John and Debbie Sanders' Meadow Ridge Farms in Atlanta, MO.

Busy Week for PRCA

In sheer numbers, August 1-7 was the busiest week of the PRCA season thus far with 34 rodeos (and just under $1.5 million in total prize money). By way of comparison, Cowboy Christmas – the Fourth of July week – had 30 rodeos and more than $3 million. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

Double J Productions 2011 Payout Nears $40,000 After Two Events

Stanhope, IA (August 8, 2011) – Double J Productions has paid out nearly $40,000 in its first two Big J Barrel Blasts of 2011. Each event, held in Waterloo, Iowa, has drawn competitors from six states and included entries from as far away as Arizona.

Increasing prize money has undoubtedly played a role in the popularity of Big J Barrel Blasts. The total added money for the May event was $2,900. The added money in July nearly doubled to $5,250. In addition to Open, Youth and Senior payouts, the July event hosted a lucrative Futurity side pot and the first-ever Double J Derby side pot. But the first two Big J's have been leading up to the season's final event, held August 26-28th in Waterloo, Iowa. The event will boast $10,200 in added money, with a $3,000-added Futurity and $1,000-added Derby. The Open class will have $6,000 in added money up for grabs. Pre-entry deadline for the Open class is August 15th and entry forms can be found online at www.bigjbarrelblast.com.

Double J Productions would like to thank the contestants who have supported the Big J Barrel Blasts in 2011. Congratulations to these top finishers on pocketing big cash at the Big J's!

DISCOVERY Channel Crew To Visit Sheridan's Tom Balding

Sheridan, Wyo. - Tom Balding has always been fascinated with how things are made. Now, the custom bit and spur maker will be the subject of How It's Made, part of the lineup of shows on The Discovery Channel's Science Network.

A film crew will arrive on Sept. 19 and spend "three to four days" filming at Tom Balding Bits & Spurs, according to the show's producer Francois Senecal. Balding and his staff will demonstrate the process of hand-crafting a bit and a pair of spurs.

How It's Made is seen in more than 100 countries by more than 130 million viewers. It is produced in 22 languages, and has separate English language versions to account for different measuring systems in the U.S., Canada and the United Kingdom.

Since its first show in 2000, the program has covered more than 900 subjects. Past companies featured include Harley Davidson, Bell Helicopter, ASICS and New Balance shoes, Wilson footballs, and Rolls Royce automobiles. They have produced shows in 16 different countries.

"I'm a huge fan of the show," said Tom Balding, who has crafted his custom wares in Sheridan for 27 years. "And nearly everyone I know likes these types of shows. We have always offered tours to our customers, so it's really exciting to bring that experience to a world-wide audience."

Senecal saw a YouTube video on Balding's website (www.tom-balding.com) and was hooked.

"Cowboys are iconic throughout the world and a symbol of American culture and heritage," said the show's producer. "We're looking forward to showing how cowboy crafts are made."

An air date for the show has yet to be determined. By Gavin Ehringer

It was another big weekend for Carlee Pierce and her team of barrel horses, Rare Dillion and Blue Moon Fling. After this weekend Pierce has earned over $75k and is a lock to make her first NFR. It might be her first NFR but it isn't the first NFR for Rare Dillion. Dillon took his first trip to the NFR in 2008 with former owner/rider Annesa Self. He is believed to be the first horse to head to the NFR with two different owner/riders. Pierce has used a big summer push to catapult herself into the #5 position in the world with earning of $75,645. The Barrel Racing Report caught up with her to ask about her weekend and plans for the rest of the year.

BRR: Tell us about your weekend.

Pierce: At Dodge City I rode Rare Dillion in the 1st round, and Blue Moon Fling (BB) in both second round and finals and ended up winning the average. BMF won 3rd Phillipsburg. Before the short round at Dodge it rained right before it started and she just went in there and handled it like a pro. My shoer, Kyle Kukla, was in Kentucky and I wasn't going to have anyone but Kyle shoe Dillion so I decided to ride BB the rest of the weekend. BB went on and won 3rd at Phillipsburg as well so she worked great all weekend. I drove to Abilene, but it had rained hard and looked like a swimming pool so I went home. All the rodeos were close to home, it made it an easy weekend. I felt like I was back to being a weekend warrior.

BRR: You have now qualified to your first NFR, how do you feel about it?

Pierce: I am excited but it really hasn't set in yet. Maybe when I get there it will set in but right now it doesn't seem real. I have been dreaming about it for a long time. I just can't wait for it to get here.

BRR: What are your plans for the rest of the year?

Pierce: Now my plans are to make my circuit finals and make enough rodeos to make the circuit finals and now try to make the Dodge National Circuit Finals. It will work good with the kids going to school, I can stay close to home. I am going to run BB at Lawton and Lovington also if she is working good. It would be really nice to have her working good in case I need her at the NFR. She has always been a nice horse, but just now our timing is really getting right. With Dillion it usually only takes about 1 run to get our timing back but with BB only being 5 it takes a few more so I am going to try to use her more to keep our timing good. I am very lucky to have two really good horses.

I entered the Northwest rodeos but we decided to stick close to home instead and stay to where I only have to be gone a few days. I really want my horses feeling good for the NFR. I am now changing my focus to having my horses ready for the NFR so we will go to the vet and such and make sure we are all 3 100% and ready for the NFR. This has been a fun year and I am hoping to be able to continue to rodeo for a good, long while. I am really liking it and if I could pick up a couple sponsors to help with the costs of being out on the road that would really be great.

Pedone and Kiss This Guy Dominate Buzz Post-Win More Anniversary

By Tanya Randall

Ryann Pedone got the Buzz Post-Win More 10th Anniversary Barrel Celebration, held August 5-7 in the Somervell Expo Center in Glen Rose, Texas, started off with a bang when she guided her futurity colt Kiss This Guy through a “warm-up” run to an event winning 14.559. Only Trudy Holloway and Genuine Doc Barjet would come close, finishing nearly 13/100ths back with a 14.686. “I don’t know where that came from,” said an ecstatic Pedone. “I was just running him the night before the futurity to get him in the pen. Usually his first run isn’t his best.”

His first run was super smooth without any wasted motion. You can see the run at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ONqZ36RyTLk> (Note: The horse name is wrong in the video.)

“I knew he was a nice colt, but not THAT nice,” laughed the 27-year-old Florida transplant, who now resides in Decatur, Texas. “That’s probably the best run he’s ever made.”

The victory was worth $1,744. Pedone also placed third and 12th in the 1D on TCS Runaway Susie for an additional $1,308. Plus she picked up $548 in BBR Incentive money for total weekend earnings of $3,600.

TCS Runaway Susie, by Runaway Bud out of the Easily Smashed mare Smashed Susie, is the first horse that Pedone trained. The 11-year-old mare belongs to Lisa McCool, who owns Diamond W Arena. Pedone has been doing extremely well at the Texas Circuit rodeos with the mare.

“Right before I ran her, I hurt my bad knee,” said Pedone. “I slipped in the warm-up pen and my left foot went through the stirrup, and it was my right knee that’s hurt.”

“Susie” was putting together a faster run than Kiss This Guy (“Tyson”) before the pain got to Pedone.

“I wanted to vomit I was in so much pain,” she recalled. “If you look at the pictures, the clock in the background says 5.39 on Ty and it was 5.32 on Susie. I just kind of sat there on her and she wasn’t quite as snappy as he was. She’s been really consistent for me lately.”

Pedone grew up barrel racing in Florida, where she was mentored by barrel racers Kim Landry, Squeak Huber and Alan Staley. She also had to opportunity to ride with reiners Alan and Wendy Parker. She moved to Texas in 2006.

Along with Josh Harvey, DVM, of Outlaw Equine, the two own nine head of broodmares with a breeding program geared toward the barrel racing industry—though they do have one making its debut at the racetrack later this month.

One of the key broodmares is Kiss Kiss This, a daughter of Chain Of Events that Pedone bought from her dad before she moved to Texas. She is dam of both Tyson, a 4-year-old gelding by BHR Frenchie Socks, and Cause For A Kiss, a 5-year-old mare by Cause Its Money.

Pedone’s parents had bought the daughter of NBHA 1D Youth World Champion Chain Of Events from Kappie Nelson and her daughter Jody Dorman, when they still lived in Florida. Her dad had trained the mare for barrels and her stepmother competed on her. Pedone then bought her from her parents.

“She’s a pretty special mare,” Pedone said. “I’ve only ridden the two out of her, and they’re both really nice. They look very similar but they have different styles.”

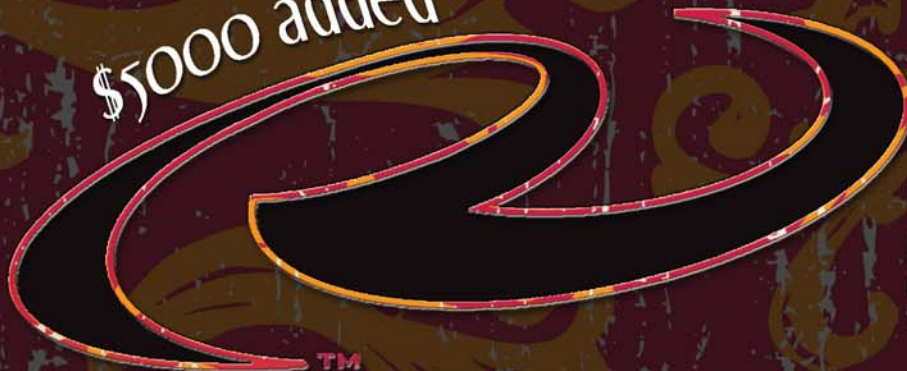

Pedone said her training style is a combination of methods she’s taken from the great trainers with whom she’s ridden.

“I just try to watch who is winning and take pieces from them and figure out my own style,” she said. “When I moved to Texas, I’d watch Kassie Mowry and Kenna Squires. I got to meet Dena Kirkpatrick and ride with her. In fact, I had spent the weekend before riding at her clinic (at McCool’s Diamond W). Bouncing ideas off these great trainers is a great way to learn. It’s really nice to be out here amongst them.”

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I will not offer to God that which cost me nothing! That's what King David told the owner of a threshing floor he wished to buy where he could build an altar to pray and make offerings to the Lord.

Read about it in 2 Samuel 21:21-24 and see how David insisted on buying the floor even when it was offered to him free. Not everyone is like that. Some people only give to God the "leftovers" or what they don't want. How are you in that area?

Oh, if you have a lot of money it's easy to write a check to take care of any obligation you feel toward the Lord and then go about your merry way. And, that's important, too, because it takes a lot of money to spread the Gospel, but how do you treat your fellowman who Jesus died for and who is also made in the image of God?

Some people are really struggling financially and don't have any extra money to give but there's plenty else they can do. How about giving someone a ride to church or grocery shopping? How about mowing an elderly person's lawn? What about a visit to a shut-in who gets lonely? How about helping a young mother with small children for an hour or two? Even a smile and a kind word can brighten someone's day. Even on a busy day if you take the time to give a depressed friend or neighbor a cup of coffee and a prayer, that sacrifice on your part will honor God.

Remember Jesus said in Matthew 25:40 that, "...inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to me." If Jesus came to our home, we'd all jump at the chance to do something for Him but it isn't always easy to see Jesus in the cranky, irritating person we're in contact with. But, if whatever we do, we do "for Jesus" then the sacrifice will be easy to make. I want to give back to God that which cost me something besides money--my time and effort.
