Michelle Darling & Morning Traffic Take Second Dodge City Roundup Title

By Tanya Randall

National Finals Rodeo hopeful Michelle Darling and her great mare Morning Traffic ("Martini") jumped back within the WPRA's Top 15 with nearly $12,000 weekend that included her second championship at the $20,000-added Dodge City Roundup, held August 3-7 in Kansas.

"This is the busiest run!" said Darling, who currently sits No. 12 in the World Standing with $67,331. "I made six runs this week! She placed on every run she made! I'm so happy with her consistency. I couldn't ask her to be any better than that!"

After the WCRA's Days of '47 in Salt Lake City, Darling headed home to give Martini a small break before the lucrative rodeos in her home circuit.

They got started off at the Lea County Fair & Rodeo in Lovington, New Mexico, where they finished 15th for $222. She and her husband Cody made the all-night drive to Dodge City for Thursday morning slack.

"I was originally up in the Friday night perf and I traded," she explained. "It was a one-header to get back (to the 12-spot short round). The more I thought about it, I wanted slack. Martini's first run in slack is usually pretty fast. I traded Korrina Hughes for second out in slack on Thursday morning and I'm glad I did. It darn sure paid off. She held on to second through the whole rodeo."

Thursday night, Darling and Martini ran at the Wild Bill Hickok Rodeo in Abilene, Kansas, where they finished third for $1,363. Friday night was Iowa's Championship Rodeo in Sidney, where they earned $1,354 for fifth. On Saturday, they earned a ninth-place check, worth $617, at Kansas Biggest Rodeo in Phillipsburg.

They wrapped up their weekend with the Dodge City short round on Sunday, where they were second to Stevi Hillman and Cuatro Fame ("Truck").

"The ground was really challenging this year at Dodge," Darling noted. "No one knows why, but it just wasn't the best. Martini capitalized on it. She tried her best and held her ground."

With Hillman as well as defending World Champions Jordon Briggs and Famous Lil Jet left to run, Darling took Martini back to the trailer expecting an average check.

"I honestly went back to the trailer and waited for Stevi's and

Her second Dodge City title—she won in 2019 as well—was worth $8,076. Her grand total for the weekend was $11,632.

Darling said she plans on resting her 11-year-old Frenchmans Guy, Evening Traffic mare before heading to the Northwest to finish out the 2022 season.

"After the good week she gave me, I feel like she deserves seven days off," she said. "We'll probably get covered up again. It's a knife fight out there right now. There's a lot of money out there still to be won. We'll head back out and be fresh for Caldwell and try to get caught back up again."

Darling does have options. She entered Hermiston, Oregon, and Jerome, Idaho, but will turn out of those two. Closer to her Medford, Oklahoma, home, she entered Sikeston, Missouri, and Coffeyville, Kansas, but she's unsure if she'll run at those or not.

She said it's hard to step off Martini when the mare is running well, but she believes that it's in the best interest for the mare's longevity.

"The more runs you make on that mare the harder she fires," she said, noting that her lowest finish was Lovington, her first run back after her mini-vacation. "The thing is it's hard to step off of her. Honestly, I know if I went to Hermiston, she would do amazing, but I want a horse when I'm done. That's a mare that will keep winning no matter what.

"I do rest her, but it takes her a run or two to come back. I feel like you have to come home and rest them. I hear people say, 'When your horse is hot, you have to stay out,' and I'm just like, 'I can't!' It's just me and I'm tired so I can only imagine what she feels like."

Sweet Victory for Savannah Todd Woodfin & Dashin Red Warriorlt at Lovington, New Mexico

By Tanya Randall

Savannah Todd Woodfin and Dashin Red Warriorlt wrapped up a weeklong rodeo run with a $4,442 victory at the $13,501-added Lea County Fair & Rodeo in Lovington, New Mexico.

The win was a crest on the emotional roller coaster she's been on since trying to partner with Red, who carried her mom Lori Todd to the 2020 Turquoise Circuit Finals Championship before her untimely passing a few weeks later.

"He was Mom's and they were the dream team," said Woodfin, who until this spring hadn't run the gelding much. "I'd probably made four runs on him his entire life and that was spread out. The last time was when Mom asked me if I could free him up a little and the time before that was when he was just started."

Woodfin's sister-in-law Carly Todd and niece Madilyn got first crack at Red while she awaited the birth of her second child with husband Will. Then, in October 2021, Red had surgery for a stifle injury at Copper Ridge Equine with Dr. Justin McCormick. This spring Woodfin asked her dad Larrie if she could take Red and complete his rehabilitation at her new home in Stephenville, Texas.

"I wasn't 100 percent sure what the plans were with Red," she explained. "We happened to come back home for the Mike Cervi (Memorial Team Roping) and Justin had said to bring him back slow, but he was very confident with the surgery. I asked my dad if he thought it would be okay if I took him. I felt I was in the perfect situation to bring him back slow. It was hard obviously because it meant Red leaving the ranch."

The Todds had raised Red, a 13-year-old gelding by Dashair, out of a Driftwood, Hancock-bred mare that had been a family rodeo mount.

"When he started feeling really good, I knew I didn't want to waste him, so I thought, 'I'll just buy my card and go to some rodeos here and there and hopefully click with him,'" explained Woodfin.

She had filled her permit in 2014 but never purchased her card until this spring.

"I never felt I had the horse to necessarily go on," Woodfin said. "Plus, I always had it in my mind that I had to have two good horses. My husband was rodeoing at the time and I just figured that it was his time and that I would just tag along and video him. Now, I'm a rookie at 30!"

In Red, she definitely had the right caliber of horse. "I've had some nice horses but never the caliber of him," said Woodfin, who started running Red in May. "Here lately it seemed like I've ridden a bunch of young horses and I'd get on him and try to help him but just get in his way. It was just a wreck. I was calling my dad, 'What do I do!'"

Not only was Woodfin battling to fit with a new horse, there was an unexpected pressure she had underestimated—the fact that Red was her mother's horse.

"It was really hard riding him because I hadn't anticipated it being so emotional," she said. "It's definitely been an emotional roller coaster."

Woodfin had made the Kansas run through Phillipsburg, Abilene and Dodge City, but by Lovington, she was ready to call it quits.

"After Dodge, I literally texted my brother (NFR team roper sister-in-law had made that said, "God is greater than the highs and the lows." I thought, 'I need to wear this!'"

Woodfin went into the rodeo thinking, "This is a good horse. I can ride him. Let's make this run actually count."

Nicole Driggers and her Blazin Jetolena gelding Blazen High Octane had led the rodeo with a 17.42 from the very first performance, until Woodfin and Red's 17.39.

"I could hear the announcer and I was like 'Okay! I'll take it!'" she said. "I was just excited that it felt good. I knew when I turned the third I knew we were going to be in it. He was firing and turning. I didn't think I was going to win it. I know I thought, 'Well, maybe the ground is just really fast tonight!'"

After her run an official had told her to stick around for the interview, something she wasn't looking forward to.

"My biggest fear is having to do an interview," she laughed. "I was gracefully going to slink off to my trailer. They told me I had to stay. I said, 'But it's not over yet!' My husband met me around back and he asked what was wrong. I said, 'They want me to stay and do an interview.' He just laughed and thought it was funny!"

With several former NFR qualifiers left to run, Woodfin said she felt silly waiting.

"I knew I was in the lead, but there were a lot of really good girls running tonight," she explained. "Before the last girl ran they were motioning me up there. I was like, No! Tarryn (Lee) was the last girl and she could very well beat me. I was rooting for her too!"

Lee, who is currently fighting for a spot in the WPRA Top 15, had hauled with Woodfin's mom. The scarf tied to her saddle belonged to Lori Todd.

"It's been a journey," said Woodfin. "I've been trying to take notes and write stuff down because I know one day I'll look back and it will be fun to see my emotional roller coaster on paper!"

Woodfin wanted to thank her dad—"He's been a great coach through all of this," her husband—"He's been super supportive," her brother Colter's wife Carly—"She's had to deal with a lot of calls to help me deal with the emotional roller coaster," and God—"This wouldn't have happened without Him. I'm grateful He gave me this passion and that I get to do it."

AIRWAY EQ

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It's county fair time and I went to watch Miss Emma show her pig. We had pigs when I was growing up, four a year. We fed them and butchered them each fall. I didn't establish a relationship with them. I saved that for horses and dogs.

I know nothing about showing pigs, steers, chickens or sheep. I don't know the rules of showmanship. Some of those pigs were well behaved. Some came squealing into the show ring as fast as a pig can go, their owner trying to get them under control. Pigs are funny when they run!

I asked a lot of questions of the poor people sitting next to me who actually DID have a clue. I was a bother. "Why aren't they running to catch their pig?" "Why are they wiping the poop off their butt?" "Why are there adults in the pen with those boards?" On and on. But honestly, how am I going to learn if I don't ask questions? The dumb thing would be if I asked those questions of someone who was as ignorant as I am. Right?

It's true of the word of God as well. You probably aren't going to get great info about God from your buddies at the bar. Nor good marriage advice from someone who's been divorced 9 times. You want to know God? How He loves you and how and why He sent Jesus? Come to church. Read your Bible. You won't be ignorant very long! You'll be BLESSED!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
