Bring It On Guys, Sabra O'Quinn Sweeps 5-States Breeders Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Bring It On Guys. Someone forgot to tell her that her pedigree said rope horse, not barrel futurity champion. The 4-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of Full A Irish Whiskey, a Paddys Irish Whiskey-Doc O Dynamite mare, swept the 5-States Breeders Futurity under the saddle of Sabra O'Quinn of Ocala, Fla.

"She belongs to Tom Clark, who bought her as a 2-year-old from Bill and Debbie Myers," O'Quinn explained. "Tom bought her to be a rope horse plain and simple. Tom was heeling on her and she was getting to the point where she just needed something else to do, so I started tinkering around with her on the barrels and she just kept getting better and better. One day, I had him out and I cruised her through and he said, 'Looks like I lost my heel horse.'"

The victory in the $20,000-added event, held Sept. 5-8 in Rapid City, S.D., netted $8,141 for winning both rounds, the short and average.

"I just love her," she said of "Nosey," who placed third at the prestigious Old Fort Days Futurity in May. "She's cool. It's really hard to fault her anywhere in the pattern. She's just super sensitive and smart. She's got all the good qualities."

O'Quinn and stout, 14.3 hand mare didn't get started out exactly as planned in the first go when the mare caught her shoe at the first barrel.

"When she did that she kind of stumbled," O'Quinn recalled. "I lost my stirrup at the first barrel when she did that, so I didn't really get to drive her across the pen, and the second barrel was so stinking tight that I had to pick up my leg almost the whole way around it. She just wrapped it. Her third barrel was perfect. I had thought she just slipped on the ground but when we came out I found out that she had sprung her front shoe."

Their second run was their fastest.

"My second run was quite a bit smoother," she said. "Her first barrel was great. She cut me off a little on the second just because of the issue the day before. But other than that she had a really good second run, and she was running really hard."

In the short go, O'Quinn and Nosey ran last as the fastest on two runs.

"She's ran an arena record back home in a really, big outdoor pen," said O'Quinn, talking about her mental plan for her final run. "I just kept running that through my mind—just let her go do her job, run her to the hole. She was just picture perfect smooth. She ran in there, got to the hole and turned. She did really good."

O'Quinn wanted to thank her sponsors Triple Crown Feed, her good friend and partner Paul Stanley, her veterinarians Scott Fleming and Eric Adams as well as Clark "for giving me the opportunity to ride Nosey and letting me borrow her for a year." She noted that he'll get his "little heeling machine" back after December.

This was O'Quinn's second victory at the 5-States Breeders Futurity on a Frenchmans Guy. She won in 2006 on Wonders Guy and was also reserve champion that year on Fleeting French Girl, the dam of her two-time reserve futurity champion A Fleeting Vision, by Visionarian.

For the past several years, she's made her annual pilgrimage from Florida's humidity to the drier climates off the Northern Plains states with their plethora of late summer futurities. She came out this year in early August for the Dash N Dance Futurity, where she took reserve honors with A Fleeting Vision, who also was reserve at the Barrel Of Gold.

"Once you get out here, you can move around easy," she said, giving thanks to the Lantis family of Seven Down Arena for allowing her to camp with her seven head of horses. "You can rodeo, 4D and futurity. I just love coming out here for these futurities. This is just God's Country out here in the summer."

O'Quinn wanted to thank Lana and her family for their hard work and dedication on behalf of the stallion owners and contestants.

"It's a good deal with the breeder's program," she said. "It's a good deal for this part of the country and it pays darn good."

With four nice futurity colts in her trailer, O'Quinn has rotated

Every Dynasty Begins With An Epic Leader

Schiller Ranch acquires 2012's Leading Futurity Stallion Epic Leader

Barrel racing industry visionary Kristi Schiller is furthering her vision for the barrel racing industry by expanding the horizons of her powerful program at Schiller Ranch with the landmark acquisition of leading performer and promising young sire Epic Leader.

"I have watched on the sidelines since I got into this industry in 2011," says Schiller, the founder of one of the barrel racing industry's premier events—the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic, "and consistently Epic Leader has left an indelible impression on me. Epic is truly preeminent poetic justice. His athletic ability, judgment, talent, demeanor, intellect, personality and symmetry are the epitome of an Epic Leader. I'm an eighth generation Texan, so I have proudly had instilled in me a deep appreciation for ancestry and heritage. I realized immediately that Epic Leader deserved catapulting to spotlight to ensure he is the leader of a progressive barrel racing dynasty."

Destined for greatness from its conception, Epic Leader, a 2007 gray stallion, is the result of the pairing of Confederate Leader and Fire Water Flit—leading trainer Kassie Mowry's favorite bloodlines. Mowry and her longtime client Karma Loflin partnered on an embryo by Confederate Leader, a BFA Derby Champion and leading sire, and out of the great Firewater Fiesta, a WPRA Reserve World Champion and multiple aged event champion by the legendary Fire Water Flit.

"He's lived up to every expectation and exceed," says Mowry proudly. "From the time that we broke him as a 2-year-old, throughout his training and until now, he's never had a bad day. He's done everything we've asked of him and more. He just got bigger than us. We never even advertised him. He just sold himself on his breeding, record and conformation. I'm honored that he will get the special attention he deserves at Schiller Ranch. With them, he'll have every opportunity to be one of the greatest sires in barrel racing history."

Under Mowry's guidance, Epic Leader earned $168,808 in fully documented Equi-Stat earnings. He was the Better Barrel Races Finals Slot Futurity & Open Futurity Champion, the Ecurie 5-55 Futurity Champion and BFA World Futurity Reserve Champion, where he ran an event record 15.034 to win the second round. Epic Leader was ranked by Barrel Horse News and Equi-Stat as the second-richest futurity horse in 2012, behind Schiller Ranch's own Insane For Fame.

"The much anticipated arrival of the first foal by Epic Leader out of Insane For Fame due in the spring is starting to rival in size and scope of this year's Royal baby," says Schiller.

The acquisition of a 2-year-old filly from Epic Leader's first crop further fast-tracked Schiller's desire to invest in Epic Leader. Schiller Ranch trainer Latricia Duke, one of the industry's leading trainer and riders, already faced down the stallion's greatness in competition and she was equally impressed with his offspring.

"No matter how fast of a run someone makes, the barrel race is never over until Epic Leader comes down the alleyway," says Duke. "He is honest, consistent and extremely talented. Our 2-year-old Epic Leader filly has shown so much natural athletic ability and a deep appetite to absorb everything I show her immediately. She is sweet, quick and physically, she can stop traffic with her looks. It seems like "Kassie" was only a natural fit for her barn name."

Schiller Ranch Breeding Manager Donna Hanover is excited about the pairing of Epic Leader with the ranch's fine broodmare band.

"He is the complete package," explains Hanover. "He has conformation, temperament and athletic ability, and that's what barrel racing is all about. He appeals to the owners of quality mares."

Schiller is thrilled by the opportunity to won such an important part of barrel racing history. "Epic Leader is a regal commander-in-chief," says Schiller. "There's no doubt that Epic is a legend in his own time and a forefather of great things to come for the equine industry. This is an illustrious opportunity, and we are thrilled that Kassie Mowry and Karma Loflin entrusted us with this distinguished stallion. We are honored to be a part of Epic's life and legacy."

through them instead of exhausting herself by trying to run them all at once. Unfortunately, her second Frenchmans Guy mare didn't get to run at the 5-States due to an abscess. Her Famous Bugs and Visionarian futurity colts were ineligible due to the breeder's restrictions.

Next up is the Fizz Bomb this weekend in Gillette, Wyo. Afterwards, O'Quinn will take about a two week break before Jud Little's Bar Nothin Barrel Bash at the end of September and then head home to Florida to prepare for the NBHA World Show, in which Nosey is entered, and her own Fiddler's Turkey Run. Nosey is also entered in the BFA World Futurity and is Fortunes Round horse with the opportunity to win a $25,000 first-place check from Future Fortunes.

Sage Kohr & Nother Time To Cash dominate Maturity

The pint-size power duo of Sage Kohr and Nother Time To Cash ("Sunshine") claimed another Maturity title with a clean sweep of the $5,000-added 5-States Breeders Maturity. The duo collected $2,502 and turned in the fastest time of the event, a 17.100.

"She is absolutely incredible to ride," said the 13-year-old eighth grader. "She is super light and soft. Where you ask her to put her feet, she can do it instantly. She can go from 0 to 60 mph immediately. She does everything with lots of confidence, and she is super kind, thoughtful and is smart about it."

Sunshine, a 10-year-old daughter of the late—"and terribly missed" notes Sage's mom Lynn Kohr—Dashing With Cash out of Good Times N Cash, by Dox Bueno Dinero. Fred and Clara raised the maternal line for generations, and Sage's mom asked them to pick her out a horse.

"The Wilsons have raised amazing horses since I first met them way back when I was in college," said Lynn Kohr. "I have always loved their horses, ones we can do and all events on plus raise my kids on. We love the combination of their great foundation mares

Lynn started Sunshine and guided by 10-year-old Sage, the mare won "loads" her futurity year.

"Sunshine has paid for Sage's college," said Kohr. They make a marvelous team. They ride bareback and just play together."

Sage just simply enjoys Sunshine.

"She thinks she's the best," said Sage, who is very active in school sports, playing basketball and running track. "She doesn't know she's small (at 14 hands, maybe 900 pounds), and she loves to sleep.

She won't go out in the rain and loves to roll after she gets a bath. She is really confident and super smart. She rarely ever gets into tricky situations."

Sage also placed sixth in the Maturity on Wake Up Cashy ("Sunflower"), an 11-year-old full sister to the dam of Sunshine.

"She will do anything you ask her to do," said Sage, who ran a 19.52 in poles on Sunshine earlier this summer. "You can gather cattle on a loose rein. She runs poles, barrels, breakaways and heels. She's super smart. She loves doing her job whatever it is."

Sunflower, who won the Cornhusker Breeder's Derby this year, has been a true blessing to the Kohr family...and to their friends.

"She was our PeeWee horse," said Lynn. "All of the kids could always jump on and run her, and she will only go as fast as they can. She has also blessed several of our friends. Lana (Ireland) Dacar filled her permit on her. Kelly Caldwell ran her first 17-second run on her, and Shami Webb of Australia won ninth in the average at the 2011 NHSFR in the poles on her."

When asked the loaded question, Sage said both Sunshine and Sunflower are her favorites.

"I love them both very, very, very much," she said. "They've both taught me so much about how to be a better rider and a better competitor. They both have their pros and cons, but that's what makes up their personalities, and that's why I love them. It's also what teaches me to be a better rider. I could never pick which one is my favorite because they're both such a positive part of my life. I love them both equally."

Quam Tops 6th Annual CSR Blazin Pistols Futurity

The 6th Annual It's All About "U" Barrel Racing Championships Finale, 1st Annual $6,000 added 2D Blazin Pistols Futurity and $1,500 added Smokin Barrel Derby were presented by Copper Spring Ranch, September 6-8 in Bozeman, Montana.

Over $30,000 in added cash and $15,000 in prizes were awarded to the barrel racers, who hailed from Canada, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota and Wyoming. The total cash payout was $50,000. Twenty-five percent of the racers entered posted 17-second runs on the standard pattern inside the new Copper Spring Ranch Performance Arena.

The fastest run of the weekend and setting a new arena record was by Kelly Conrado, of Hudson, Colorado. He ran a 17.05 on his homegrown futurity standout Cfour Tibbie Stinson, a 2009 sorrel mare by Eddie Stinson out of Little Fancy Granny. The futurity average champion was Kats Stoli Bar, a 2008 sorrel mare by Stoli out of Bobbys Kit Kat. This mare is owned by Monty & Dawn Gertner, Stettler, Alberta, and was ridden by Rusty Rae Quam of Wainwright, Alberta. Kats Stoli Bar held the arena record (17.116) for 9 runs until Conrado set a new one.

The futurity amateur champion was Julie Brown, Helena, Montana, riding her 4-year-old mare Peppys Magic Mocha, by Wranglers War Leo out of Peppys Sweet Magic.

The derby average champion was Shakenandbaken, a 2007 bay mare by Will Rogers Follies out of Legal Jargon. This mare is owned and was raised by Mike & Darcy Anderson, Townsend, Montana. Darcy was the jockey.

ESMS Montana Division Veterinary Clinic hosted a social and supper Saturday evening at the clinic. Trey Johnson of Boyd, Texas, hosted the Sunday morning Cowboy Church service at the arena.

Shelby Janssen & Hot Playboy Chick win big in Fort Madison, IA

By Tanya Randall

Shelby Janssen of Austin, Minn., and her talented 12-year-old mare Hot Playboy Chick ("Bunny") put more than 2/10ths on the field to take the victory at the $10,200-added Tri-State Rodeo, held Sept. 4-7 in Fort Madison, Iowa. Their time of 16.98 was worth $3,631.

Former National Finals Rodeo qualifier Annesa Self and Tall Glass Of Fame were second with a 17.23. Self, Sanger, Texas, picked up $2,905 to move her within $5,000 of another NFR berth. She currently sits 18th in the WPRA World Standings with $55,227.

Janssen said conditions were perfect and her mare was feeling good for their smoking run.

"She warmed up really good," said the 22-year-old senior general studies major at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. "She was kind of on the muscle. When she's on the muscle like that I know she's feeling really, really good. When I was going up the alley she just took off. It was probably one of the best runs I've ever made on her. It felt really good. She just loves her job."

Although she grew up with horses, Janssens' parents, Steve and Lori, preferred Western pleasure, so she grew up showing.

"When I got older some friends asked me to run a pony of theirs in the barrels," said Janssen, who will be a radiologist after graduation. "Once I did that I never could go back to going slow. Running barrels is an adrenalin rush."

Janssen, 22, purchased Bunny, a daughter of Hot Dasher out of Bingo Express Miss, by Kidnap Bingo, from Shawn and Bryel Mulligan and Matt and ReAnn Zancanella, when she was junior in high school. The finished mare was 8.

"I bought her to college rodeo," said Janssen, who competed her first two collegiate years for Vernon College in Texas. "When I wanted to do more, she was the perfect fit."

Janssen got her WPRA card when she turned 18. She qualified for her first Great Lakes Circuit Finals last year and won two of the three rounds. She prefers to rodeo in her home circuit because it allows her to escape the Texas heat. Janssen is currently sitting third in the Great Lakes standings.

She plans to continue to try to pro and college rodeo.

"I'm entered up at Abilene this weekend and Stephenville. Then I'll just do the college rodeos. I'll have the circuit finals in November (in Louisville, Ky.). When the new year starts, I'll try go a little harder than I did this year."

Barrel Breeders Incentive - CSR 2D Blazin Pistols Futurity

Barrel Breeders Incentive Sidepot at the CSR 2D Blazin Pistols Futurity and Smokin Barrel Derby
September 6-7, Bozeman, MT

(PC Mr Sun Peppy) and Dave & Donna Johnson (Raren To Dash)

The second BBI of 2013 was at the new Copper Spring Ranch Performance Arena, September 6-7, in Bozeman, Montana. This year is our biggest field of stallions, making it possible to add $2000 to three events. Thanks to Kline and Karen Gilhousen, Aspen & Robert Cok, Brian & Lisa Anderson and the entire CSR Crew, plus Ross and Casey Wagner of the UBRC for an exciting and well-run event.

Now in its 15th year the Barrel Breeders Incentive was formed to promote our stallions as well as the sport of barrel racing. As stallion owners we want to give customers and barrel racing enthusiasts an added incentive to breeder to our stallions and purchase horses from us. Hope to see everyone at our last event, JJK Series Finals Open 4D, Great Falls, Montana, September 14-15 (Saturday and Sunday).

It started off a little iffy on Friday, determining if the NBHA Labor Day race was going to be a go or not. Payson had a lot of rain on Friday and the main arena had absorbed most of the rain and was not looking too bad because they had not received any rain for almost 2 weeks. Riders that came early on Friday used the main arena to ride and it was looking feeling good. But Friday night was a another story yes more "rain." That was the last straw for the main arena even with the draining system that main arena has installed. The decision was made to get the 2nd arena ready on the north side, so it was started by LeRoy our tractor driver. Well with great amazement the arena was turned and it started to dry. The footing is granite based and is similar to Queen Creek and P&M arena. The wetter the ground the better the ground holds and it did that all weekend. The pattern was set almost like a Vegas pattern and the times were fast! Saturday evening was a cool night with most wearing jacket to ward of the chill; the horses were feeling really good with some showing a buck or two because of the cool temps. Saturday evening our first race of the Labor Day Weekend Saturday started off with 115 riders competing fast time was a 15.905 by Belle Lockhart on Doc N Dusty's Dancer earning $269. Belle was 62 out but the 2nd place rider Madison Hunt on Secretly Smokn Smart turned 16.177 and she was 5th out that evening. So the ground stayed consistent. Again a little rain on Saturday evening after all barrel racing was completed.

Now come Sunday, even better, woke up to a blue sky and no clouds and sunshine! That was how the whole day was, perfect! The barrel race started at 10am and 138 riders thought the same. The fast time of the Sunday was 15.972 by Belle Lockhart on Doc N Dusty's Dancer for $240. Paying 5 places in each division. Second day in row, go Belle!

Barrel Racing was not the end of the day, we continued with Poles with 24 pole benders and fast time for poles Lisa Johnson with 22.324. But this also was not the end of the day, barrels finished at 3pm and next event was the Annual NBHA Labor Day Pot Luck Dinner at 6pm. Well there was over 300 people attending and filling on all that great foods that was brought to the potluck. NBHA had the meats under control, we had the chickens smoking all day if those wonder what was cookin. A big Thank you to Mr. Moss for smoking up a large tray of BBQ Pork, Crystal Poteet (our announcer) for another pork dish and April Jensen for the special Jensen sauce for another pork dish. And to all those that brought the potluck dishes thank you! There was plenty of food.

During dinner there were raffle items that were donated by Paula Smith & Shop and we thank you for supporting NBHA. Well we are not done yet

Everyone gathered in the arena for the special event of the evening. It was started with 7 lucky men cowboy barrel racers with all there make up from long blonde wigs to shorts and boots. Fast time was 19.855 by Jeff Gravely and 2nd to "Blondie" Pete Hunt with 19.893. Other events were $1 Bare Back Barrels, Water Balloon Race (2 riders), Doggie Races, Small, Medium & Large, ATV/Motor Cycle 5D Barrels, & the Foot Race Barrel Race which had 41 Footers from age 3 to all ages! And the winner of the foot race was Logen Ruhlen with a 15.167 go Logen!! He was as fast as the horses! This was the end of Sunday evening, it was a long but a fun day and we all enjoyed it also. The final day Monday "Labor Day" The race again started at 10am and the temps in the high 80's but again the ground was great! Total riders for the day was 130, and the fast time of the day was 16.052 by Laura Lee Leynwood on Tahoe Connection with $224 awarded, and 2nd to Lila Pierce with 16.085. Congratulation to all the winners this wonderful weekend!

This weekend was special in that this show was co-sanctioned by other NBHA district in Arizona. A big thanks to AZ01, AZ04, AZ05, AZ07 & American West AW4D for the support. Total dollars paid out for the weekend was $12, 211, lots of great money!!! The end of the Race everyone was competing for the Target Buckles and the NBHA Captain Chairs.

Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Time spent with your horse is never wasted. You form a bond that makes future training easier and exciting as your partnership grows. You learn many things about your horse's disposition and his ability.

Likewise, your horse will grow in confidence and trust the more time he spends with you. It's that way, too, in our relationship with God. The more time we spend with Him, the more our faith, trust and confidence grows until we can be totally yielded to His Will and live our lives free of worry, fear, lack and insecurity.

It tells us in 1 Corinthians 15:58 that our labor is not in vain in the Lord. You don't have to go charging off around the world accomplishing great feats to serve the Lord. You can serve God greatly right in your community. He has instructed us in His Holy Word to love our neighbors as ourselves. Be the kind of person that your neighbors, relatives and friends can count on for help. Be there with an encouraging word, a cup of coffee or a ride to church or to shop. Give them a willing hand when they're moving, when they need someone to watch their kids and elderly parents or just to fix them a meal when they're "laid up."

God will repay you for what you give up or give away. Galatians 6:9-10 tells us not to become weary in doing good for in due time we will reap a harvest if we don't give up. And, Hebrews 6:10 says God is not unjust to overlook the work we do for the glory of His name and the good of His saints.

So spend time in prayer and talking to God. Read the Bible and Christian material from reputable sources. Find a Bible church and spend time with like minded Christians. Send for our free teaching CDs which come through the mail and log on to our website www.m.m.org to learn more.

Remember we're only in God's waiting room before we enter eternity!
