Amber Moore & CP Dark Moon Close Out Regular Season With Justin Boots Playoff Win

By Tanya Randall

Amber Moore and her great mare CP Dark Moon ("Paige") closed out their 2017 regular season with a $4,284 Justin Boots Playoffs Championship at the Washington State Fair in Puyallup. "I'm done for the year! I'm happy!" said an exuberant Moore. Moore made her first and second runs back-to-back on Saturday. She was seventh out for her first run.

"The ground had dried out, so it was a little loose," she recalled. "She put a good run together, but she had to fight to get through it. If you weren't in the top four or five on the ground, you were starting to have to traipse through the holes. Saturday afternoon it rained which put more moisture back in the ground and it held together. I was fifth out that night and it was good from start to finish. Every run was good. Every run was fast because it held."

For the Finals, Moore was first on the ground.

"It made a huge difference," she said. "She got to go play on fresh ground."

Unlike last year, when Moore was fighting for the 15th position to qualify for her first National Finals Rodeo, she and Paige have been near the top of the WPRA World Standings all season. Every dime of her $120,852 was won by the 8-year-old daughter of Darkelly out of the On A High mare SRQH New Highs.

"For three years straight, it's all been Paige, from my rookie year, last year, and this year," she said.

Extremely mindful of Paige's well-being, Moore described her summer as "challenging."

"That's my new go-to word—challenging," she laughed. "It's been challenging with the fires and the weather. It's made for an interesting summer. It was a good summer, but a challenging summer."

Moore couldn't fit Spokane Valley, Wash., a Columbia River Circuit Rodeo into her schedule over the weekend and turned out of Lewiston, Idaho, due to the smoke from the wildfires ravaging the West.

"Lewiston was so smoked in I didn't want to take the risk to go over there. It's a good thing I didn't because if I had, I wouldn't have gotten home because the fire that happened in the Gorge," she said, referring to the Eagle Creek Fire, raging through the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area along Interstate 84. "I would have gotten over there and had to find a different way home. 84 is still closed down a week later."

Lewiston wasn't the only rodeo she turned out of this summer due to the smoke.

"I was turning out quite a bit the last few weeks," Moore ex-

2017 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale Approaching

The 2017 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale will kick off at 2:30 pm CST, Saturday, September 30th, 2017 following the Ardmore Barrel Futurity produced by Steve & Ross Wright. The sale will include 40 of the best bred horses in the business. The offering will include everything from yearlings to 5 year olds & bred broodmares.

The futurity prospects are sired by Jud Little Ranch sires, leading barrel sire & NFR Qualifier, JL Dash Ta Heaven, fellow NFR qualifier, Chicados Cash, Bugemforcash, Bestcreditmesunfrost, and Bug In My Frosty along with leading race horse sires Valiant Hero & FDD Dynasty. The broodmares include own daughters of Dash For Perks, A Streak Of Fling and Packin Sixes in foal to JL Dash Ta Heaven or One Frosty Corona.

As always the Jud Little Ranch prospects come from the best dams in the business. This year's offering include prospects out of NFR Qualifier Flitin Firin Cash; NFR Qualifier FCS Bugsoutof-sight; NFR Qualifier & $150k earner Sign Of Passion; and Frosty Feelins, NFR Qualifier & NFR Round Winner & earner of over $134K. That's just a few of the many distinguished dams represented in the 2017 edition of the JLR Production Sale.

The sale will take place at the ranch near Springer, OK. Online viewing and bidding for the sale will be available on www.SuperiorLivestock.com.

This year's sale will take place along with the Ardmore Barrel Futurity & 5D Barrel Race which runs from Wednesday, September 27 through Sunday, October 1, 2017 in Ardmore, OK at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum. The barrel race includes a $20,000 added Futurity & $5,000 added Derby along with a total of $17,500 added Open Races. The Open Races feature AQHA classes and are WPRA & BBR approved. The race will also feature a Qualifier to RFDTV's The American at 7pm on Saturday Night. For more information on the barrel race & schedule, go to www.ArdmoreBarrelFuturity.com

For more information about the 2017 Jud Little Ranch Production Sale, go to www.JudLittleRanch.com and click on the Horses tab in the center of the page and hover over on 2017 Horse Sale to look at individual lots. The information on individual sale lots can be found there.

Make sure to make online bidding arrangements through Superior Livestock at www.SuperiorLivestock.com prior to the sale!

LG International Championship Barrel Race now at Lazy E

Lance Graves International Championship Barrel race scheduled for February 12-18, 2018 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Oklahoma, is announcing big upgrades! "In 2018, in an effort to be inclusive to ALL of the barrel racing community, we will be offering FOUR SEPARATE FUTURITY RACES!!!!"

1.) International Futurity Slot Race. 4 year olds. $30,000 added. The

ONLY ADDED MONEY Open futurity Slot race!

2.) "The Famous Bugs BFA Futurity" for 4 year olds with $20,000 added.

3.) "The LGI Fives futurity" for 5 year olds with $10,000 added. We have $10,000 Future Fortunes Bonus money, $10,000 Triple Crown Bonus money, and $2,500 PBRIP Bonus money for our futurity competitors as well!!!

We are also announcing the newly remodeled "Lazy E/LGI Closed sale futurity!! This futurity is NOW FOR FIVE AND UNDER horses that previously walked thru an LG sale that are in their first competition year and will have $10,000 added!!!

We feel like this change not only helps encourage our northern and west coast competitors to participate in our sale, but also gives our racing community the opportunity to continue a fall campaign at the racetrack for their three year olds while still having access to a strong barrel futurity market for their second career runners the following February.

So we invite all prospects born in 2014 and later to participate in our Feb 17, 2018 sale held onsite under the management of the Lazy E! Sale nomination forms can be downloaded at www.lazye.com

All Futurity entry forms will be available to download at www.lancegraves.com tomorrow or you can contact secretary Terry Leach at 405-570-1212 or Lance Graves at lgbarrelhorses@gmail.com plained. "I've got one horse that I'm running, and I've got one horse at home that hasn't even been running get sick from the smoke. I know what it's like and it isn't pretty. I wasn't going to put Paige in harm's way."

The impact of the fires on her rodeo schedule got too real when she was staying at Missoula, Mont. She woke up in the morning to discover her layover spot had become a staging area for the firefighters and it was raining ash.

"Luckily, it was an indoor facility and the horses weren't out in it," she said. "I'm not even sure that place is still there because I know the fire came down the hill."

While Paige will get the rest of the month off, Moore has just one other trip to make—a flight to the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale in Sioux Falls, S.D.

She'll borrow a "couch" and a horse from Angela and Jackie Ganter.

"I didn't want to go and was going to turn out," the Salem, Ore., resident said. "It's a 3-and-half day drive for me. I don't need to do that to me or Paige. So, they volunteered a couch and a horse."

Paige will start going to some jackpots in October to get ready for the Columbia River Circuit Finals in Yakima, Wash., in November. Moore's main focus will be on having her sharp for the short course at the NFR, which she dominated on last year.

NFR Watch

With three weeks left in the regular season, the magic number of the moment is $70,809—15th-ranked Emily Miller's earnings thus far. The dental hygienist from Weatherford, Okla., has been clawing and scratching to maintain her position as she's been battling sick and injured horses since the first of August.

Although the WPRA World Standings are "unofficial and subject to audit"—several contestants have voiced their concerns over discrepancies on social media as the race for the NFR has tightened—here's how the race shaped up over the weekend.

Ivy Conrado of Hudson, Colo., had another strong weekend to move past Miller into the 14th-position. Her two horses—KN Fabs Gift Of Fame and Fames To Blame—have been rolling. She picked up about $4,500 after placing seventh at Puyallup, Wash., fifth at Fort Madison, Iowa, and taking third and her biggest check—$2,092—at Lewiston, Idaho. On Monday, Conrado was out in slack at Pendleton but tipped barrels, so she'll head south to try to continue to better her position.

Veteran bubble chaser Jana Beam of Fort Hancock, Texas, continues to shine under pressure. She won almost $5,000 on the weekend to get within $3,300 of 15th. She picked up $2,988 for placing fifth at Puyallup, $1,085 for sixth at Fort Madison and $684 for eighth at Lewiston. She's currently sitting 11th in the first go at Pendleton with three performances left to go. With only the top 12 coming back for the short go on Saturday, Beam's fortunes will likely lie back closer to home.

World Champion Sherry Cervi of Marana, Ariz., has steadily chipped away at her earnings deficit. She picked up about $3,700 after placing at Spokane Valley, Wash., Lewiston and Puyallup. She just over $5,000 back of 15th. After a disappointing run at Pendleton on Monday afternoon, Cervi's destiny will depend on her success down south.

Kimmie Wall of Roosevelt, Utah, was counting on Pendleton to be her savior and so far, so good. The former Let 'Er Buck Champion and last year's reserve champion is currently winning the first go at The Green Mile. If she is able to duplicate last year's performance and earnings ($9,476), she'll move into the Top 15.

Ari-Anna Flynn of Charleston, Ark., is also about $10,000 back. She's currently sitting seventh at Pendleton with a chance to make the Top 12. She's got her two main horses Tobys Poco Misterio and Sunny Two Socks with her in the Northwest and will run a young horse at Abilene, Texas. She'll have her entire rig back south the following week.

Jackie Ganter of Abilene, Texas, is just over $10,000 back, by current posted figures, but she made a big effort Monday when she and Cartels Fame made a nice run at The Green Mile. They currently sit third and will likely make up much needed ground on the grass.

Pendleton is likely to shake the World Standings hard as will the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale in Sioux Falls, S.D., at month's end. By next week, the entry list for the Challenge should be set.

A SMOOTH GOLDDIGGER
14 buck. m. A Smooth Guy x MF Two Ton Flicka, Two Ton Digger
An outstanding mare by A Smooth Guy with outstanding looks. Soft and supple. She moves off your legs and breaks at the poll. She lopes very nice circles and stays underneath herself. Started on the barrels and is really working nice. Quick footed, has been ridden outside, moved cows and she has also roped the smarty & the lead steer. Has spent the last 90 days with a cutting horse trainer. <https://youtu.be/NpNIAfxbQ4Q> - FMI (406) 925-1926.

Selling 2 Dash Ta Fames!

PERKS PRIZE FAME 16 s. s. Dash Ta Fame x Perks N Roses, Dash For Perks
A colt with a big future. Any way you want to go - barrels, track or stallion!

GUNS N ROSES 16 gr. s. Dash Ta Fame x Perks N Roses, Dash For Perks
Fancy colt by Dash Ta Fame. Halter broke and gentle. Straight and correct. Dam was on the racetrack and was originally purchased from Stanley's in Oklahoma. FMI 701-421-1399

Finished 1D Son of Darkelly!

FLYING T BLUE CHIP - 03 APhC g. g. Darkelly x Mama T, Convoy Scout
A Finished barrel horse that's been hauled to jackpots & rodeos and won at both. Consistently in the 1D, no tune ups needed, turn him out and leg him up and run him. A big horse with a big stride, easy to run, no tricks - just saddle him up and lope him around and have fun. No maintenance of any kind needed. Blind in his left eye but doesn't affect him at all. New World Record on Standard Pattern In Brazil

By Shannon Kerr

This article was written by Shannon Kerr, who was on site in the warm up pen at the barrel race and witnessed the run and the measurement of the pattern afterwards. This article first appeared in the Semanal Tres Tambores in Brazil and she was kind enough to share with us. It should be noted if you are not familiar with Brazilian barrel racing that most all barrel races are run on a standard pattern there.

This week during the WV Cup and Futurity there were 2,413 overall entries, but only one of those stood apart from the rest, Rollin In The Fame and her rider, Evelino Rocha, dominated the event. The duo won the Thursday Open with a 16.763, and then during the Friday Open 4D they flew in the arena and ran a 16.399 on a standard pattern. ABQM judge, Eugenio Scatena, stopped the show and with the entire crowd watching, he measured the pattern, when it was over the crowd erupted in joy as Rollin In The Fame had just ran the fastest time ever recorded on a standard pattern, barely edging out her sister Kiss Kiss Bang Bang and the great Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi (16.479). Over the weekend they earned an arena & a world record* and R$10,000 (about $3200 US) and once again our title as Horse Of The Week!

Almost everyone knows about Dash Ta Fame, the father of Rollin In The Fame. He will go down in history as the best every barrel racing stallion. So let us look at the mother of Rollin In The Fame, as she herself is proving to be one of the best producers in the world.

Rods Last Ladybug may not have the pedigree that the world is looking for, but this phenomenal mare was not only a champion herself, but is producing champion after champion. She herself was the 2004 Open Junior AQHA World Champion and came back in 2005 and was the Reserve World Champion in the Open Senior. Rods Last Ladybug also holds several arena records and interestingly, this great mare won with several different riders. As far as a producer, she has produced an AQHA World Champion with Rockette Ta Fame, who also barely missed qualifying for the NFR in 2011. Rods Last Ladybug is also the mother of Br Don't Bug That Guy by Frenchmans Guy, Confederates Last Lady by Confederate Leader, and Boom Goes The Fame by Dash Ta Fame.

Rods Last Ladybug is sired by A Sharp Rodney who back in the 80's and 90's was a prominent sire for barrel racing horses including Charmayne James' Boomer, who helped take her to her 11th World Championship. He is also the sire of the 2012 IPRA World Champion and AQHA Congress Champion FQH Rods Fast Deal ridden by Janet Kerr.

Rollin In The Fame has SGP earnings of R$40,109 and 102.5 ABQM points. She has an amazing pedigree, a talented trainer and a dedicated owner. Mix all that together and this young mare has a very big future and it is certain we will see her breaking more records.

Interview from Evelino Rocha, the trainer and rider of Rollin In The Fame

Semanal Tres Tambores (STT): What type of bit and saddle do you use?

Rocha: For training, I use either a gag bit or short shank lifter bit. For running I use an O-ring. I use the leather saddle from Protec at home and at the shows I use the neoprene saddle from Protec.

STT: What is her feeding program?

Rocha: She gets almost 9 lbs of feed per day divided among three feedings. She also gets good quality hay and alfalfa.

STT: What did you think of your run that broke the record?

Rocha: I thought it was really good, I am really without words. She was spectacular!

STT: What is your weekly training routine with her?

Rocha: I usually just work on keeping her flexed and supple and I train her on the barrels very little at home.

STT: How do you warm her up before a run?

Rocha: I trot a lot more than I lope, then I check all my equi-ment and let her relax before it's her turn.

STT: What goes through your head before your run?

Rocha: I try to stay focused and concentrate on what I have to do as a rider.

STT: What is your future plan for Rollin?

Rocha: We will try to keep her in the best shape we can and do what we have done from the start with her, save her for the important races and run her as little as we can.

STT: Was there anyone you would like to thank?

Rocha: Yes, first I want to thank God and Jesus, they have blessed me so much. I also would like to thank my wife, Diogo Zopone and all of the our team here at Haras Zopone.

Lighting The Fuse -- Pete Oen & Guys Dashing Jet Win Fizz Bomb Classic

By Tanya Randall

Pete Oen guided Cathy Geary's homebred Guys Dashing Jet ("Stella") to her second futurity championship this year with an impressive win at the Fizz Bomb Classic in Gillette, Wyo.

The victory was worth $5,852, but by the time stallion incentive money from the Cowboy State Sire Incentive and Future Fortunes was added in, that number grew to more than $9,000, not including prizes.

After winning the Diamonds & Dirt Barrel Horse Classic Futurity in March and taking reserve at the Better Barrels Races World Finals Futurity in April, Stella went to Royal Vista Equine for reproductive work. Two months and a Dash Ta Fame embryo later, Stella returned to competition.

Stella got a few runs at the Barrel Bash at the Lazy E at the end of July to prep for the Cornhusker Futurity in August. Stella won the second go at the Cornhusker after rolling down a barrel in the first round. At Doga, the very next weekend, Geary opted to not have Oen run the mare in the slot race to save a run on her. In the regular futurity, Oen hit the second barrel when the mare looked off in the wide-open outdoor pen at Doga, but came back to win the second round.

At Fizz Bomb, Oen noted the mare exhibited well and he made sure to give her a peek at the first barrel before he let her start her run.

"It took me a while to figure it out," admitted Oen. "Sometimes, I'd miss the first barrel on her and other times, she'd spin it. I figured out if she can actually see it before she takes off running, she's better. Now, I kind of creep up on the alley before I take off running."

For the first round of the Fizz Bomb, Oen put Stella in the same position that had worked so well for them before, but the mare surprised him by taking off to the right barrel in the left lead.

"With time and experience, I think a lot of things can go through your head in a really short amount of time," laughed Oen. "She's running up the middle of the pen and I'm thinking she doesn't even see the first barrel and I've just screwed this thing up the very first run out of the gate!"

Yet when he bumped her, she switched leads, melted into the ground and got her first barrel. They stopped the clock in a 15.167.

"That mare normally gives her all," he said. "That's what I really like about her. She's honestly pretty darn fast. If you watch her leaving her turns, she never elevates; she never leaves out sideways. She leaves down, hard and flat. She'll leave a corner in a hurry and I think that's what makes that mare so fast."

Being practically last for their second run—they were draw No. 2—Oen knew he needed a smooth, clean run.

"There were a lot of hit barrels the first day, and as I was up there listening, I noticed other horses that did well in the first round were hitting," he said. "I was doing quick math in my head, thinking I needed to run a .6 or better, but then I thought, 'Heck with that, just don't knock barrel over!'"

On a run that looked like a float through at the house, Stella clocked a 15.476, good enough for eighth in the round and the average win.

"I run her out more around the first and second barrel more than

The 5-year-old daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of the Dash For Perks mare Perks Dashing Jet now has career earnings of more than $86,000.

"My goal is that she hit the $100,000-mark before the year is over," Oen said. "She's not a futurity horse at the BFA and will have to run in the Derby. All that she has left is the Parker Wood Memorial, the Ardmore Futurity and then Waco (for the JB Quarter Horses Futurity), and that's all for her besides going to the AQHA World Show."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

With tears streaming down her face, my youngest granddaughter said to me, "You don't like anything about me!" I was shocked!! I love her unconditionally. I would do anything for her that would benefit her. Without reservation. Without thinking about it. Any time. Any place.

So what brought this on? She didn't understand. She thought the flavor of her sparkling water was who she was. Isn't that silly? She and Darcy had bought their favorite kinds. Cylee orange. Darcy cherry. I sipped them both and liked the cherry better. Thus the drama. I took her into my arms and told her that I loved EVERYTHING about her. And then I pointed to the sparkling water bottle and said, "Cylee, that water is not YOU. It's something YOU like, but it's not YOU."

If we don't understand how much God loves us, we'll act the same way. We'll get into performance mode and we'll feel bad cuz surely God loves so and so more than me because they are preaching, or singing, or whatever. I mean, after all, I'm just a barrel racer. Sheesh.

HE SENT HIS ONLY SON (John 3:16) TO DIE FOR YOU AND ME BECAUSE HE LOVES US UNCONDITIONALLY, NO STRINGS ATTACHED. NO COLOR ATTACHED. NO GENDER ATTACHED. NO AGE ATTACHED. NO PERFORMANCE REQUIRED.

Remember that this week. When the devil lies to you and tells you that somehow you just don't measure up in some area, you remind him of your great value. It was a great price paid by Jesus. He sure thought you were worth dying for.
