Title Race Tightens As Sears Steals Puyallup

By Tanya Randall

The WPRA World Championship is setting up to be a horserace at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo. 2008 World Champion Lindsay Sears is steadily gaining ground on two-time World Champion Brittany Pozzi.

A $6,500 victory at the Justin Boots Playoffs at the Puyallup Pro Rodeo in Washington State, Sept. 9-11, boosted her earnings total past the $100,000 mark and moved her within $9,300 of Pozzi with the Justin Boots Championships in Omaha, Neb., an event Sears has won five times, left on the schedule.

"Martha worked great!" exclaimed Sears, who is sponsored by Morinda Care and Panhandle Slim. "The only difference between my runs was the draw on the ground."

Last year at Puyallup the ground was so treacherous that they stopped the barrel race. This year Sears said the ground was "acceptable."

"It sure wasn't dangerous," she added.

Sears said she didn't decide which of her stellar horses she would run until after the first set of qualifiers—those in positions 24-13 in the Wrangler Million Dollar Standings—made their first runs.

"I watched the first day and decided it wasn't bad, so I decided to run Martha," said Sears.

They say absence makes the heart grow fonder and that aptly describes how Sears feels about Martha, registered with the AQHA as Sugar Moon Express. She was off of her superstar for sixth months after an injury in the 9th round of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, so she definitely wasn't going to put her prized position in harm's way—if she didn't have to.

Luckily, for Sears, she has a capable backup in Ima Guy Of Honor ("Moe"), which kept her in the Top 15 for the first six months of the year. Although it was difficult at times, Sears said Martha's injury wasn't without its benefits.

"This was the first time I had to ride a different horse," she explained. "In the past, if I had to get off her it was for a month or so and I usually went home and rode my other horses at few rodeos. This was for six months! I guess it was a good thing in retrospect because now I have full confidence in both horses."

Sears describes the two as different as "night and day" with Martha being a free-running, long-strided mare that likes to stick her inside hind leg up underneath herself and bend around a barrel, and Moe being a ratey, shorter-strided horse that wants to drop on his front end and pull through the turns.

"Slower is faster with Martha and faster is faster with Moe," she laughed. "What helps me is that they're so broke. They both move off my inside leg and lift off my inside hand."

Sears is currently awaiting her run at Pendleton, where running Martha isn't an option—NO WAY, NO HOW.

"I'm entered in Pendleton, but I'm not sure that I'm running at Pendleton," quipped Sears. "I ran Moe there last year and it scared the crap out of me. I know it sounds funny, but Moe's a little more special now and I don't know if I want to torture him or not. It's fun when you're out there doing it, but I worry about my horses too much. Pendleton gives me an ulcer."

Sadies Frosty Drift was bred by Laren Feistner and ridden, shown and owned since his 2 year old year by Jeff & Kristie Thorstenson. He earned over $70k in barrel racing and team roping during his performance career. His offspring have now earned well over $100k in both barrel racing and team roping, as well as other events.

A few of his foals include Sadies Ta Fame, an earner of over $30k in heading and heeling, JKT Drifting Tu Love, an earner of over $15k barrel racing, JKT Sadies Wild Man, barrel racing earner of over $15k, Positively Sadies, earner of over $25k in heeling, and Sadies Uno Sunshine, earner of over $15k in barrel racing.

Sadies Frosty Drift was purchased on September 1 by a group of friends; Fernando Latufe, Marinho Ferreira, Saulo Sato, Marcelo Bertolli and Fabricio Carvalho. Sadies Frosty Drift will stand at Equus Equine Services owned by brothers Dr. Luiz Paulo Ramos and Dr. Beto Ramos.

"Our intention was to bring a different individual to Brazil, with a genetic breakthrough for our country and especially to serve our huge herd of racing broodmares. Sadies Frosty Drift will have an excellent reception here, because of his color, structure, and especially for being a great competitor and also being a fabulous producer. In Brazil he will be among our best barrel stallions!" said Fernando Latufe.

Sadies Frosty Drift is currently in the process of being shipped to Brazil for their upcoming breeding season.

Briggs Bringing It at 5-State Breeders

THE RUNDOWN: JORDON BRIGGS

HORSE: A Special Colour "Patron"

Brown Gelding, 4 Years Old, 15 hand, 1100 lbs.

HORSE HISTORY: I bought him at the 2009 Myers Sale. I came up there when he was a yearling and I really liked him. I love the Hot Colours/Special Effort cross on Frenchmans Guy. I didn't want mares and he was one of the only geldings. So he was my pick from the time he was a yearling until the sale. Their breeding program is so amazing and those 2 year old are so broke it lets you turn them out for the rest of the year and work with them a little as 3 year old and they are ready to go. When you buy one from them, you know they have had the perfect start for what you want them to do from the time they hit the ground until you buy them. I got him in August of the sale and turned him out because I was rodeoing. In 2010, my husband Justin roped on him and just got him more broke. The fall of that year I got him back on the barrels and things were just so easy for him. The Arizona futurities were his first futurities, he placed at 2 out of 3 of them in the average. He has been to 10 futurities and he has placed in the average at 8 of them. He won about $6400 over the weekend and has earnings of about $40k+ for his career so far. I will futurity him the rest of the year, Fizz Bomb, Jud Little, JBQH, and BFA. I have 3 horses to futurity next year so maybe I will get my card next year and go to some circuit rodeos stay close to home and go from there. He is really good minded and built to stay sound. Barrel racing is just a game to him, really easy for him so I think he will be a good rodeo horse someday.

BIT: I use the Dave Elliot bits, they are the best. I use the Spur Up 2 in little pens and the Spur Up 6 in big pens. I used the Spur Up 6 at the 5 States.

HAY: Alfalfa/grass hay

ADDITIONAL HORSE CARE: Front shoes, use magnet blankets, lots of exercise and pasture riding

WHAT US THE KEY TO MAKING CONSISTENT HORSES: I don't pick on my horses very much, I try to let them get away with the small stuff. If they do something serious, of course I will make sure they know they made a mistake. I think not picking on them just helps them build confidence. I have to give most of the credit to Hot Colours and Frenchmans Guy because the horses are so talented and good minded. Also whether we get them from Bill (Myers) or Justin (her husband) rides them we spend a lot of effort getting them really broke. Over the last year I have found that Justin roping really helps them get used to running and rating and getting pulled on at speed. It really teaches them to handle their speed away from the barrels.

One of my favorite sayings of mine and my Mom's (World Champion Kristie Peterson) is to "trust your training". If you don't do that you are just constantly training on them. For instance, if your horse wasn't rating at the first barrel and you spent a week stopping him at the barrel to teach him how to rate when you run him that weekend you need to trust him to rate and see if your training worked. I figure you can ride either offensively or defensively and I like to ride offensively so I can relax during my runs and have fun running barrels.

SOLID GELDING - RUNNING 1D/2D

FLICK N COYOTE - 2005 Black 15.2 hand Gelding

Dr Meter Reader si 90-Shaka Flick si 105, No Brakes Now si 104

WWiley is a solid barrel horse, he has run 1D behind Jordan Briggs & A Special Colour (Futurity Champion). He has a really smooth style and has been rode by a 13 year old and a 58 year old. He's very gentle and solid broke. Wiley's been hauled to futurities and 4D's. He was listed earlier this summer but he got ear ticks so we had to keep him until they were cleared up. He's all ready to go, just came back from a month break so he's legged up and ready for the fall run! We raised him and have more siblings to start. If left without a miracle collar he cribs but with the collar no problems. He's never had any health problems with the cribbing, teeth are good. $11,000

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Well now own, or have at one time owned, that 100% dependable horse. That particular horse was a real joy to use because it always was willing to do whatever was asked of it. It never was goofy, lazy, stubborn, or headstrong.

Can we say this about ourselves? Can God depend on us to do what He asks of us?

But, you say, "God never asks me to do anything." Oh, yes, He does! You just weren't listening. God doesn't send you a registered letter telling you what to do. But, He will speak to your inner spirit and give you a gentle nudge to do something or even to stop doing a thing. Have you made excuses or heard others make excuses which is just a way to get out of something without feeling guilty? How about: "I know I should do it, but..." , "I should make that phone call, but..." , and "I know I should have done it, but..."?

If you don't follow these leadings, you could feel uncomfortable and guilty for a long time. Pray! Pray about everything and every decision you make. When you get up in the morning, start the day with a visit with God. Ask Him to direct you in ALL your ways that day (Proverbs 3:5-6). God is good and faithful all the time. He will help you do the right thing if you ask Him.

It isn't always pleasant to do the right thing either. You might have to apologize for something that you don't feel (in the natural) that you should have to. You might have to put yourself out for someone who is unpleasant and treats you unfairly. But, your Heavenly Father sees. Remember Hebrews 6:10 which says, "God is not unjust; He will not forget your work and the love you have shown Him as you have helped His people and continue to help them. (NIV)"

So be as good as that good horse. Let's all strive to be a blessing every day and serve the Lord with gladness without murmuring or complaining. The rewards are joy and peace beyond description!
