Hildreth & Shake Ems Hayday at Fizz Bomb Classic Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Shake Ems Hayday ("Fiona") picked up her second futurity championship for rider, trainer Taylor (Mini) Hildreth and co-owner, breeder Caitlyn Dees with a Fizz Bomb Classic Futurity Championship. The 5-year-old buckskin mare, who previously swept the Southwest Desert Classic Open & Breeders futurities, picked up $6,849 for the victory at the Gillette, Wyo., event.

"It was awesome!" said Hildreth, who was grateful for the support of her husband and Fiona's farrier, Coy, whom she married on July 30th. "He normally doesn't get to come because he's so busy. He's just super supportive and is always so positive."

After a shaky start with 13th-place finish in the first round, Fiona and Hildreth never dropped another round, winning the second and short rounds to win the average.

"The first run, she was at the bottom of the ground and she struggled quite a bit," she said. "She made a nice run, but it wasn't smoking. The second run we came back on top of the ground and she was awesome! She made a really nice run. She just runs so hard between the barrels; I think that's where she makes up a lot of time."

A daughter of WPRA World Champion Sire PC Frenchmans Hayday, Fiona gets a healthy dose of aggressive speed through her maternal line. She is out of Shake Em Baby, a daughter of Royal Shake Em who carries the Thoroughbred blood of Azure Te and Pass Em Up in her maternal line.

Since winning the Southwest Desert Classic, Fiona has finished third at both the Red Desert Classic and Dash N Dance futurities and fourth at the Glacier Chaser Classic. After struggling at the RFD-TV's The American Qualifier in Salina, Utah, and the Triangle Cross Futurity in McCook, Neb., Hildreth went looking for answers.

"She was kind of off for those last two," said Hildreth. "We reevaluated and changed some stuff and obviously between the Triangle Cross and Fizz Bomb, we got it all figured out. She came back feeling as good as she ever has, so that was really awesome!"

Hildreth credits Terri Kissak and Darren Barton for helping her figure out what was bothering Fiona and getting her straight for the Fizz Bomb.

Hildreth also placed 10th in the Fizz Bomb Classic with her owner mount, Sadies Sassafras ("Carolina"). The 5-year-old daughter of Sadies Frosty Drift, out of the Pie Island mare Ms Pass The Pie, added $1,663 to her coffers.

"The first round she didn't fire at all," she said of the red dun mare. "The second round, she came back and placed 13th, and she ended up placing second in the short round."

Hildreth had purchased Carolina from her breeders Jeff and

"She got a late start (to her futurity year) because she had to have a chip taken out of her knee in December," she explained. "I really didn't start running her until May. She's just always been one of those easy-type horses that always makes nice runs, but it wasn't until the 5-States Futurity that she decided she really wanted to run. At 5-States and Fizz Bomb, she worked really good, so I'm really excited for these next couple futurities."

Both mares have come on strong after having modified training schedules during their 4th years due to Hildreth's pregnancy with her now year-old son, Jett.

"I rode up until 7 months," she said. "They both got some time off. They were both a little behind come December 1 because they really didn't get to go anywhere all summer to get seasoned and exhibited. Fiona was pretty well where I wanted her to be and my friend Kayla Jones took Carolina for one month because she hadn't been hauled at all. They may have been a little behind in December, but they're all caught up now!"

Hildreth has the Parker Wood Memorial Futurity this weekend, followed by the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity. She'll give the mares a short break before heading to the WPRA World Finals Futurity.

Conrado Crowned Champion at Puyallup

by Hope Sickler

21-year-old, Colorado native Ivy Conrado and her great mare CFour Tibbie Stinson have cashed a big check once again, and this time they are claiming stake in the western hemisphere of the United States. Conrado spun the top off the barrels at the Washington State Fair Pro Rodeo held in Puyallup, Washington and took home top honors with a total aggregate time of 44.34-seconds on three.

"My first run in Puyallup was a little wild. She ("Tibbie") smoked the first barrel but then got an odd angle going to the second barrel; It didn't slow her down however. Earlier that morning when I worked her, she kept spooking at the third barrel so I knew she was going to be a little tight. She dash-boarded me pretty good but we got around it and ended up running the fastest time of the entire rodeo," Conrado said.

Posting a time of 14.70-seconds in their first run and winning the first round, Conrado wanted to stay clean and be smooth in the second round to have a chance at the finals.

"Our second run and our run in the finals were almost identical. "Tibbie" had a little ground trouble at the first barrel but tried super hard around the other two barrels. We ran the exact same time in the second round and in the finals. She loves that pen and so do I!"

Conrado swept the talented field once again in the second round with a 14.82 and finished second in the finals behind Amber Moore who ran a 14.80.

"I loved Puyallup and I thought it was really cool how the contestants had to ride through the fair to get to the arena. No other rodeo is like that. I also love the arena set-up. It is one of favorite rodeos," commented Conrado.

When traveling from one edge of the country to the next, it is important to have a horse that is tough and gritty because a lot of miles are packed on throughout the season, and "gritty" is the word that Conrado uses to describe "Tibbie".

"She has more grit than I have ever seen in another horse. When she slips or falls, she tries harder. At the same time she is crazy fast and wants to turn. Her heart is huge and she takes great care of herself when running. She stays sound and that is a big deal for rodeo horses."

With the rodeos in the northwest wrapping up, Conrado will head

"The northwest has been great and has treated us well. The atmosphere up here is incredible and we have a great place to stay at the Frazier's by Walla Walla. I think it is good to make yourself comfortable up here in case you ever do get on the bubble, you are not blindsided by anything."

As far as preparation for the NFR in December, Conrado is still letting it sink in that she has punched her first ticket to the city of lights.

"I am still trying to process that we even made it! I knew we could but it is such a dream come true and it still doesn't feel real. I will give "Tibbie" and myself a break and then start preparing for Vegas."

Conrado is sitting 4th in the WPRC World Standings with $105,448 in earnings for 2016.

Moore Cash for Moore and CP Dark Moon

By Hope Sickler

As of September 12th, Amber Leigh Moore is sitting just outside of the top 15 with $69,374 won. She is just a mere $3,064 from the bubble with only two weeks left in the 2016 season. However if she has two more weeks like her last week, she will easily find herself within the top 15.

Last week, Moore and her sidekick CP Dark Moon "Paige" started Tuesday in Lewiston and finished the week at the short round in Puyallup. She made good run after good run and watched as her 2016 season earnings steadily increased.

"We ran in slack at Lewiston on Tuesday and we ran a 17.36, which ended up 2nd when it was all said and done. After Lewiston, I was up in Puyallup Friday both runs. We ran a 14.87 in the first round and ran a 14.90 in the second round at Puyallup," said Moore.

Sitting good on two, Moore knew she was likely going back to Puyallup after she made the trek to Spokane.

"I was up in Spokane Saturday night and we ran a 17.17 which was good enough for third when the weekend was over. After our run in Spokane, we made the voyage back to Puyallup for the finals on Sunday. We were good on the ground and ran the fastest time of our three runs there, a 14.80. We won the short go and ended up second in the average."

When the season first begun almost a year ago, Moore's goal was to make it into the top 40 in the world and to try and win the Columbia River Circuit and be able to make it to the Dodge Circuit Finals in Florida.

"This year has been very surreal and an absolute dream come true and an experience that I never thought I would get to experience. All it takes is that one special horse and I am so fortunate that "Paige" is my special horse to make all of my dreams come true," Moore explained.

While some girls have several other horses in the trailer to take the pressure off of their main mount, Moore only has "Paige". "Paige absolutely loves her job and I could not think of running anything else. She is my better-half, my partner in crime. She loves the rodeo road in every aspect and I could not imagine life out on the road without her. She is tough and takes great care of herself which is why I am able to keep her running her."

As far as the remaining two weeks left in the season, Moore will head south to Albuquerque and then finish off the season on the Texas run and hopes to end her season at the world famous Thomas & Mack.

Blue Hen Broodmare Willys Rockin Laid to Rest at 30

Willys Rockin, one of the greatest producers in the barrel racing industry, was laid to rest on September 12 at the grand old age of 30. She was buried at the Jud Little Ranch in Springer, Okla.

"She was a great mare and wonderful producer," Little said of Willys Rockin.

Bred by William G. Walker of Rapid City, S.D., Willys Rockin was foaled on April Fool's Day in 1986. She was by Jet N Rocket, a grandson of Jet Deck and the Thoroughbred Father John, and out of the Laughing Boy mare Willys Lass. She was purchased as a yearling by Andrea Peterson, also of Rapid City, and stayed within the Peterson-Shearer family until she was sold in 2006 to Jud Little.

Sent to the track to start her competitive career, the sorrel mare had two wins, four seconds and two thirds in 10 starts with earnings of $3,913. In 1989, Willys Rockin set a new track record of 13.360 at 250 yards at Evanston Downs in Wyoming. As a 5-year-old, Willys Rockin was a barrel futurity money earner with Lori Shearer.

As a broodmare, Willys Rockin started a maternal dynasty of barrel horses. She produced 19 foals with six barrel racing money earners of more than $220,000 in earnings recorded by Equi-Stat, which included no rodeo earnings, and was the granddam to eight barrel racing earners of more than $380,000.

Willys Rockin's most dynamic performer—and later producer—was SX Frenchmans Vanilla, one of the all-time leading futurity horses. With more than $164,000 in Equi-Stat earnings, SX Frenchmans Vanilla, by Frenchmans Guy, was the 2001 Equi-Stat Leading Futurity Horse, having won the Pain X 2000, Silver Cup, Lazy E, Gold Cup and Old Fort Days futurities. She was also named the Speedhorse Triple Crown Champion. SX Frenchmans Vanilla would help Amanda (Blackwell) Clayman qualify for the National Finals Rodeo and later become the cornerstone of the Blackwell family's breeding program.

Willys Rockin also produced multiple futurity finalist Willys Famous Rocket, a Dash Ta Fame mare bred by Little, that earned $24,350 for Stephanie Duke. The Anderson, Shearer family bred and campaigned Kohr Quarter Horses Futurity and Red Desert Classic Futurity Reserve Champion French Fancy Face, a Frenchmans Guy daughter, that earned $16,082 and Bold Heart Breeders & Open Futurity Champion Rock On Rita, another Frenchmans Guy daughter, that has run out $13,127 as of mid-August and Frenchmans Lana, a futurity finalist and current youth mount by Frenchmans Guy, that currently resides at the Jud Little Ranch and was the producer of his 2015 production sale high-seller JL Jamaican Me Rich.

Her grandget includes National Finals Rodeo qualifier Dash Ta Vanilla, 2015 top futurity mount Vanilas Sudden Fame, WPRA Permit Holders Champion No Pressure On Me, 2016 Diamonds & Dirt Futurity Champion JL Jamaican Me Rich and multiple futurity finalist Sheza Gota Poker Face.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Fall is here in Wyoming. So I wasn't the least bit surprised when I went to Wal Mart and saw them putting out Christmas decorations!!! Does that bother anyone else or is it just me? But really that has little to do with what God put on my heart for you. I heard this statement. "Don't let the devil make your thoughts a haunted house of past failures." Haunted house..... fall.....get it? LOL!

Okay then. Have you ever caught yourself dwelling on a past mistake or mistakes and just feeling really lousy about it? I have. But my encouragement to you is.....that's NOT God that's bringing that stuff up. It's our enemy, the devil. Since the Bible tells us in John 10:10 that the thief comes to kill, steal and destroy and Jesus came to give us life and life abundantly, we should be able to run that barking dog right out of our mind! But our thoughts are real and we can find ourselves just really down on ourselves. Thoughts of 'why did you say that? You are so stupid!' Or 'you hurt that persons feelings'. Or, "Remember back in 1971, you did such and so." (I know some of you weren't even born then!) The Bible calls the devil, the accuser of the brethren. Revelation 12:10. And he's good at it. But he's not as good as God is. And God knew the devil would try to steal our peace, so He gave us His promise in Romans 8:1. "There is therefore NO CONDEMNATION to those who are in Christ Jesus....".

If you mess up, fess up! Ask God to forgive you and move on in peace! You have His word on it!
