Safe Bet On Vegas -- Cassidy Kruse and JKR Assured Win In Puyallup

By Tanya Randall

Cassidy Kruse and JKR Assured Win ("JJ") practically punched their ticket to the first National Finals Rodeo qualification with a commanding performance at the Justin Boots Playoff Rodeo in Puyallup, Wash.

The duo from Gillette, Wyo., swept the first round and finals to win the average and pocket $8,358. A 14th-place tied at Lewiston, Idaho, paid for total weekend earnings of $8,626. They currently sit 9th in the WPRA World Standings with $72,647 with just 12 days left in the 2015 season.

JJ, a 14-year-old gelding, by Dashes Emblem out of Miss Assured Best, by Princely Best, was coming off a three week break and Kruse couldn't have been more pleased with his first runs back.

"When I went in there for my first run and he turned a good first barrel, I just knew he was going to make a good run," said Kruse, who could barely speak through a bad case of laryngitis. "When they announced my time, it was really exciting. I couldn't believe we'd take the lead by that much. It was really exciting. I knew he was going to do his job."

Rodeos left on the books for 19-year-old Kruse including Pendleton—which she may turn out of—Albuquerque, N.M., Amarillo, Texas, Omaha, Neb., and Kansas City, Mo.

Battle For the Bubble

Barrel racing slack for the $30,000-added Pendleton Roundup in Oregon concluded Monday with three more performances of barrel racers to go. Last year at Pendleton, it took a low 29 second run to make the Final. If that holds true in 2015, odds are Pendleton is over for NFR contenders Shelby Herrmann, Jackie Ganter, Megan Johnson, Carmel Wright, Jana Bean, Vickie Carter, Deb Guelly, Megan Swint, Katelyn McLeod and Layna Kight, who were either long, hit barrels, fell or turnout.

Kimmie Wall was leading after slack with a 28.59 and will likely make the short go there. With last year paying $11,600 to sweep, a duplicate feat could push Wall closer to the Top 15.

Fellow NFR dark horses Christine Laughlin and Paige Willis, both had low 29 second runs and will sweat the remaining performances.

Most of the bubble chasers will head south with $11,000 added in Albuquerque, $5,000 added in Abilene and $3,000 added in Texarkana, Ark. The Pasadena, Texas, $10,000-added rodeo also fin-

ERA Athletes Make Announcement

Today, the largest collection of Rodeo World Champions and the sport's most elite athletes announce their decision to make the Elite Rodeo Athletes (ERA) their primary focus in 2016 and beyond. With a collection of over 70 top professional rodeo athletes and over 133 World Championships between them, this group not only includes current World Champions, an impressive roster of past World Champions, but also includes the best rodeo professionals in the sport today.

As a group, these athletes have decided to limit their professional rodeo schedules to compete in the ERA Tour that begins in March of 2016 and concludes with the ERA World Championships in Dallas, Texas, November 9-13, 2016. Although they will still compete in professional rodeos across the country, the ERA Tour will become their main focus and define their schedules.

"As professional rodeo athletes, every year we have to decide what rodeo events we will compete at and what is best for our careers and families. This group of athletes have decided to concentrate on the ERA in 2016 and we feel the future of professional rodeo, at its highest level, is the ERA Tour," said Kaycee Feild, four-time World Champion Bareback Rider and ERA Athlete.

Traditional rodeo events will still be part of their rodeo schedules, however this group has decided to not participate in other tour formatted events. "The only tour formatted events that our group will compete in is the ERA Tour," said Bobby Mote, four-time World Champion Bareback Rider and ERA Athlete.

The contestants believe that the ERA will bring professional rodeo in line with other professional sports. Lisa Lockhart, ERA Barrel Racer, said, "We want rodeo fans to experience what other professional sports fans enjoy, which is being able to watch the best competitors compete against one another through a regular-season format until a world champion is crowned. With the ERA, fans will be able to follow each event on FOX Sports and watch professional rodeo at its highest level. We believe this format will help the sport of rodeo overall."

The ERA is unique in that, for the first time, rodeo will operate as a modern-day professional sports property where only the best will compete during each performance. The contestants will have to earn their way on tour through a qualifying system, which will ensure that the best current rodeo athletes in the world are competing at each ERA event.

Information about the 2016 tour including the announcement of the tour roster, event dates and details on the qualification system will be coming soon and will be released through ERArodeo.com and ERA's Facebook and Twitter feeds (@ERArodeo).

Pro Rodeos Continued From Page 1 ishes up mid-week, but it's just a "slight" southern detour from the Albuquerque to Texarkana route and it's traditionally troubled ground has caused entries to fall off in recent years.

The last weekend includes the Justin Boots Championship in Omaha. The top 24 in the WPRA World Standings as of August 24 are eligible to compete in the $20,500 added rodeo (See list). Also that weekend is the Omaha Champions Challenge, worth $16,000, Stephenville, Texas, with $6,500 added, Kansas City with $5,000 added, and a few other $1,000 to $1,500 added rodeos that can possibly be worked in.

Less a factor in recent years is the West Coast run of Poway ($3,500 added) and San Bernardino, Calif. ($5,000 added), and $1,500-added Kingman, Ariz.

Jill Welsh, who currently sits in 14th position is entered, but has been home with her horse French First Watch ("Custer") since a nearly catastrophic fall on notorious footing at Pueblo, Colo. The good news is that Custer will be okay; it's only a matter of when. Welsh said, "My plans are kind of up in the air as my horse needs some rest after (the) fall we took in Pueblo, so just taking it day-by-day."

Former NFR qualifier Layna Kight currently holds on to 15th spot thanks to the efforts of her talented young Dash Ta Fame gelding Eyesa So Famous ("Cooper"). After starting the season with a 6-year-old gelding that had hardly been to a jackpot, much less a rodeo, Kight said she's made peace with her position and what may come in the next two weekends.

"All-in-all it's been a very good year," she said. "I'd love to keep going and get to the Finals, and I expect that to happen, but I've chosen to be happy no matter what. I've had an opportunity that a lot of people would love to have. Every now and then you get a little frustrated and you have to put everything back into perspective."

If seasoning a young horse on the road and surviving bad ground conditions in the process wasn't enough, Kight's been battling drawing problems.

"It's so hard to do all this," Kight explained. "You don't know about short rounds and all this stuff," said Kight, giving a rare glimpse into the crazy side of rodeo—entering, drawing and traveling. "I was supposed to be up in Pasadena tonight, but there was no way to get there. I didn't want to just fly in and ride somebody's horse because my rodeo count is so high (contestants are only allowed to count 100 rodeos toward NFR qualification). I'd rather go to places that I know that I'm on my own horse."

Kight will run at Albuquerque, but won't run at Abilene because she drew slack which is at the same time as Albuquerque's. She's going to go home to Point, Texas, and pick up the rodeo in Tyler, Texas, because it's co-sanctioned with the Southeastern Circuit—her designation—and the ground was good last year.

"The next thing is Kansas City slack, but I'm also up in the slack at Stephenville," she sighed. "That would mean going all the way to Kansas City and then all the way back to Stephenville and then to Omaha. I'm going to wait until I get my call backs to Apache (Ok) today. If I get up right at Apache, I'll probably turn out of Stephenville. If not, I'm going to try to get a trade at Stephenville and do the last perf. So it would be Kansas City, Omaha and finish it up in Stephenville. I could get Beggs (OK) in there too and it's co-sanctioned with my circuit too."

Overall, Kight's been pleased with how Cooper has taken to rodeo life.

"He's just been spectacular," she said. "I'm just going to try to do my very best to put him on the better ground."

Semas and Smooth N Famous Steal Show in Bozeman

By Hope Sickler

Tami Semas has made 2015 her year. The newly relocated Texas barrel racer has been riding high, picking up checks and wins pretty much everywhere she shows up and this past weekend at the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity in Bozeman, Montana was no exception! Semas and her standout gelding Smooth N Famous affectionately known as "Perkins" around the barn, conquered the tough field of futurity horses and jockeys at the $10,000 added event.

Smooth N Famous "Perkins" is a 5-year-old buckskin gelding by A Smooth Guy and out of FC Peachfuzz Ta Fame by Dash Ta Fame. Semas trained the superstar gelding and has had continued success on him throughout his futurity year.

"This was the first year that I have been to the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity and I am very glad that I made the decision to go. They did an outstanding job putting the event on and had a super crew that was very organized and prompt. I will certainly be going back again next year," explained Semas.

Semas and "Perkins" wasted no time and won the first round of the futurity with a time of 17.092 on a standard set.

"I didn't ask for much in the first round since we just came from the 5 States Breeders Futurity where he clocked a 16.8 on a standard along with a 17.4 and a 17.0. He slipped a bit in the first round but never quit trying. I was super pleased when I heard my time. He just keeps amazing me. He is an incredible horse and athlete."

Semas stole the show again in the second round posting a sub 17-second time of 16.920, winning the round again but this time by 2-tenths of a second!

"I was extremely happy with our second go round run. He just continues to blow my mind and I could not be more proud of him," Semas exclaimed.

With a 17.092 in the first round and a 16.920 in the second round, her total time of 34.012 made her the 2015 Copper Spring Ranch Futurity Champion. Winning just under $5,000 along with a buckle, coat and other cool prizes, Semas was humbled by such an exciting win.

"I am so blessed to live the life that I love and ride the horses that I do, like Perkins. He is such a fun dude and truly loves his job. I have never met a horse that loves to run barrels as much as he does. He is always ready to go and dragging me to the alleyway when they are calling our name."

In addition to her futurity success that she has been having, Semas has also been having quite a bit of success and a lot of fun with her derby horse Ninnekahs Guy. She won second in the derby average at the Copper Spring Ranch Futurity and Derby aboard the 6-year-old Frenchmans Guy gelding.

Grimes and KG Blazin Nine Oh On Fire at Fizz Bomb

By Hope Sickler

When it comes to training barrel horses, Medicine Lake, Washington veteran barrel horse trainer and veterinarian, Kathy Grimes, knows how to train for success and she capitalized on that this past weekend at the Fizz Bomb Classic Futurity held in Gillette, Wyoming.

Grimes and her homegrown and home raised 5-year-old mare KG Blazin Nine Oh "Ruby" stole the show in Gillette winning both the first and second round in the futurity and winning the average. KG Blazin Nine Oh "Ruby" is by Blazin Jetolena and out of one of Grime's great mares, Do It For Beau, that make up part of her phenomenal breeding program, Nine Oh Barrel Horses.

Just the week before the Fizz Bomb Futurity, Grimes and "Ruby" showed that not only can they win at the futurities but also at the pro rodeo level, placing at the prestigious Ellensburg Rodeo.

"I was so proud of her at Ellensburg and it certainly gave us some confidence going into the Fizz Bomb. With Gillette's pen being smaller than what we ran in at Ellensburg, I had a feeling that she would fire pretty hard," explained Grimes.

When the clock shut off, Grimes time of 16.068 took the win in the first round.

"Our run felt great. It felt super smooth and she fired hard." In the second round, Grimes came back with the same game plan of making another smooth and clean run and it worked in her favor.

"I was a little nervous for the second round but I knew that we needed to be smooth and clean and the rest would take care of itself," Grimes said.

Clocking another blistering fast time of a 16.198, Grimes won the second round and was sitting on top of the average going into the short round on Sunday.

"I was definitely a little nervous going into the short round but again, I knew that all that I needed to do was let her do her job and whatever happened, would happen. We had a great first barrel but then she got a hair short on the second barrel. That caused us to pop off of the second barrel and so in return we were running a little wild to the third barrel. But we were clean and we still ended up second in the short round behind Jessie Tefford and her great horse Famous Cool Whip."

Grimes time of 16.255 in the short round gave her a total time on three of 48.521 and the futurity championship at this year's Fizz

"I am so proud of Ruby. She is such a fun mare and if she could, she would come in and sit down on the couch and watch TV with you. She is very personable and truly loves her job! I would like to thank the producers for putting on a great event. The ground was safe and consistent and the whole event was a success," noted Grimes.

Rip N Lady & Pozzobon Back in the Winners Circle

By Hope Sickler

Kamloops, British Columbia barrel racer Carman Pozzobon is a name that most relate gritty and successful barrel horses with. She has been dominating the Canadian futurity turf this year aboard her 5-year-old buckskin mare Ripn Lady and took home another sweet victory this past weekend winning the 2015 Canadian Barrel Racing Stallion Directory Futurity held in Stavely, Alberta.

Ripn Lady is by Frenchs Hula Guy and out of Bijou Betali by Eli Betastreak. Pozzobon bought the stocky buckskin only loping circles. She quickly took her to the Kamloops Stockyards where she takes all of her colts to put a solid riding foundation on them and get them quiet and used to pressure situations.

"I think the stockyards have been a great place to get my young horses used to high pressure situations and loud noises. It gets them where I want them when I go to start them on the pattern. When I start my colts, I try and always conform to their style. I want to see what their style is like and then go from there. Every horse has their own strengths and weaknesses and you have to find out where those are on the pattern and build off of that."

Pozzobon's credits "Ripps" gritty personality and try to the success that she has had on the young mare.

"She is a great mare with a lot of heart and try. She doesn't slow down around her turns and keeps running all the way around a turn. She made three great runs this past weekend in Stavely, two runs in the futurity and a run in the slot race. I wanted to be clean and smooth and knew the rest would take care of itself," explained Pozzobon.

Running a 16.618 in the first round, put Pozzobon second in the round behind Rene Leclercq and her mare DT Cash N Diamonds. Sticking to her game plan of staying clean and smooth, Pozzobon kept the same mind frame for the second round and made yet another beautiful run of 16.8, again placing second in the round. Pozzobon's total time on two of 33.418 claimed her the championship and a couple hefty checks to take back to British Columbia. In addition to the futurity, Pozzobon also ran "Ripp" in the slot race and took home 3rd place honors with a time of 16.658, good enough for another nice check.

This futurity championship is just another addition to the impressive long list of wins that Pozzobon and her little buckskin mare have achieved in under a year.

"It has been a great year with "Ripp" and her half-sister Eyes Hula Girl. We have had a very successful year and it is hard to believe that I only started "Ripp" on the barrels last November. She just took straight to them and she absolutely loves running barrels." Pozzobon hopes to finish the year off strong, which we think she will have no problem doing so, and see what lies ahead for her and her horses.

"Ripp has already gone and placed at pro rodeos, so I am anxious to start doing more of those with her. She really seems to like the rodeo atmosphere."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I know that in the past I've written about how it's the person that is the most prepared that wins. The other day I read a one line statement that just brought it home for me...THE MONOTONOUS CAN BRING THE MIRACULOUS.

No matter what we do in life, it's those things that we stick with and practice that will see us through or trip us up. You know, you can practice bad habits or good ones. If we choose to get on Facebook and criticize others instead of minding our own business, we are really giving a place to the spiritual law of sowing and reaping. Is that what you want people to do to you?

If we decide to lay in the hammock and eat donuts instead of going for a walk, we give place to fat...that's not a pretty picture!

When we sit and watch tv instead of riding our horse, we aren't choosing to be prepared for that barrel race...so we complain "They win because they get everything handed to them."

If we prepare a horse with good basics, good nutrition and good conditioning, we are way ahead of the game. But it takes time and effort every day. And it's the same spiritually. Spend time in the Word every day. Pray. Walk in love. Then when the ground gets a little shifty, we will have the tools or training to get around that barrel or get around that problem in our lives. All that time and effort in the little, monotonous day to day things will bring miracles. Miracles of good health, good relationships, prosperity and peace.....what more can we ask for?

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
