TC Phelan Famous & Jolene Montgomery Bank at Breeders Challenge Finale

By Tanya Randall

Perennial leading futurity trainer Jolene Montgomery guided TC Phelan Famous (“Hootie”) to a $72,644 Futurity Championship at the Breeders Challenge Finale, held September 8-14 in the John Justin Arena in Fort Worth, Texas.

“She’s won quite a bit this year,” said Montgomery, who trains in Purdon, Texas. “We’ve just had some bad luck with downed barrels and an off run here and there. She’s had a lot of seconds and thirds, but this is the first time we’ve pulled it all together for the win.”

Of their winner’s share, Hootie’s breeder and owner Tiffany (Cooper) Mottesheard claimed $50,850 ($7,264 as breeder and $43,586 as owner), while Jeff Switzer and Bo Hill collected $21,793 on behalf of the 4-year-old mare’s sire, Famous Bugs.

The Breeders Challenge Finale, which was open to horses that qualified for the event through sidepots at races throughout the year, changed their format for the futurity and derby in 2025. This year they offered two qualifying rounds with the top 15 times from each advancing to the Finals.

Montgomery and Hootie made four runs at the event, having qualified for the Open 4D as well. Their first run was less than desired.

“It was terrible,” Montgomery admitted. “I had been running her in a D-ring the last two or three months, and she’s been doing well in it. We made two runs the weekend before in Stephenville on (a WPR Standard Pattern), and she was just getting a little low, strung out and flat.”

Montgomery switched to a J&C Jr Cowhorse for the qualifying rounds of the futurity. They barely clipped the second barrel on the first one but placed fourth in the second round of qualifying to make the finals with a 15.681.

“On the third run, which qualified her to the finals, I gave her a little bit more freedom and she ran a .6,” Montgomery said. She opted to switch to Classic Equine’s Jr Cowhorse for the Finals because it was a little bit less than the J&C version.

“That J&C Jr Cowhorse has just a little bit more shank and purchase than the Classic Equine one, and it weighs a little bit more,” she explained. “So I switched again for the Finals to the little Classic Equine Jr Cowhorse, and it was perfect.”

Their 14.478 edged Steely Steiner and Get Tha Goody’s lead by .013 for the championship title.

“I’ve run that mare in six different bridles,” Montgomery continued. “She’s not that picky. She’s going to go run barrels. She has the best face. She is so soft, so you can switch bridles on her to adjust things a little bit to pretty much anything you want.”

Hootie, along with Montgomery’s other trainees, has a series of training progression videos on www.betweenthereins.us, the training platform operated by Montgomery, Joy Wargo and Ashley Schafer. The mare was started under saddle by her husband Kerby, and it wasn’t long afterward that she was starting her barrel training. While Montgomery is well-known for getting along with hotter horses, Hootie was just different.

“She would get upset and frazzled really easily,” she explained. “You could only do so much training on her. She’d get to a point where she was like, ‘No. We’re not doing that. You’re done for the day. Get off.’ She’s pretty much over all of that now. She’s grown up

She and her sister-in-law Molli Montgomery actually swapped horses for six weeks before the BFA Juvenile in November 2024.

“I was getting Hootie in a big jam behind the first barrel,” she said, “and I could not get her over it. We switched horses for six weeks. I basically jump rode her at the Juvenile and she got third. Then Molli rode her for me again until Oklahoma City, and then

I've ridden her since. She's got on her a few times for me here and there, but she helped me get her through that rough spot.

"The first three or four futurities she was still a little funny. She refused the gate a couple of times, just really nervous. Now, she's almost completely over it and confident. She's just gotten better and better. We made four runs at the Breeders Challenge, and she got better every run."

Hootie now has lifetime earnings in excess of $165,600. She was the reserve champion of the Gold Standard Futurity the weekend prior to Breeders Challenge. The mare also has third place finishes at the BFA Juvenile and Elite Futurity. She was fifth at the Select Stallion Stakes Barrel Bash Futurity and Texarkana Showdown in January.

Their next futurity will be the BFA World Championship in November.

A Good Phelan

Breeders Challenge Finale Futurity Champion TC Phelan Famous is a second-generation homebred for Tiffany (Cooper) Mottesheard of Elkland, Missouri.

The 4-year-old mare, by Famous Bugs, is out of her homebred mare TC Shes All Perks ("Spanks"), by Choctaw Bingo. Spanks was out of her former barrel horse Lynxs Little Whipit.

"She was a true 1D, 2D horse," said Mottesheard. "We had bought her as an aged horse. They had run her and turned her out to be a broodmare. I bought her when they brought her back up. I probably bought her when she was 9 or 10."

Lynx Little Whipit was by a local cutting bred stallion out of barrel racing mare.

"It was just local breeding before we got out of our circle with AI and those sorts of things," noted Mottesheard.

When the mare's competitive career was over, Mottesheard bred her to Choctaw Bingo, a son of Royal Quick Dash out of a Barrymore mare.

"I thought he was something that would cross well on a cow, old-school run-bred mare," she said. "I actually rode Choctaw Bingo and started him on the barrels. The guys that owned him roped on him. He was kind of an all-around horse. He had some horses do well around here. I was just lucky enough to spin it off and make it into something bigger."

Spanx never got to compete due to non-performance related injuries.

"I know pedigrees are important and you've got to have proof in the pudding, but I always joke that I broke all the rules," she laughed. "We pasture bred the Whipit mare. Then Spanx didn't get a job. She started out nice and was working nice when she got hurt, so I thought she'd make a good broodmare."

After getting married and quitting her job of 20 years, she decided it was time to make a business of her passion by raising horses and playing the aged event game.

"I've always raised horses, but it was always one every three or four years, nothing like a business," she said. "I have people ask me, 'How do you do this?' and I get that because I wanted to do it too for so long. You've just got to be brave and stick with it and don't give up."

Mottesheard said the key to making her program work has been getting her horses in Jolene Montgomery's hands.

"I have some daughters of the most famous horses going right now," she said. "We can breed them all day long and to the best names, but if we don't get them in the right hands they don't ever get a chance to prove what the bloodlines could do even more."

Mottesheard, who funds her horse endeavors through various hustles, took the chance and messaged Montgomery about riding her horses.

"How does someone like me get in with someone like you," she asked. "She said, 'Well, explain to me what you're doing.' I told what I had going on and what my goals were. She said it sounded like something that she could work with."

She and Montgomery have had success with TC Smooth Edition (A Smooth Guy x Brays Plane Jane x Marthas Six Moons)—Mottesheard's personal barrel horse now, and TC Ima French Zela (MCM Imahoss x Fast French Flirt x Frenchmans Guy) and then Hootie.

"She's been a true blessing," Mottesheard said. "She's awesome!"

Mowry and Jarvis Win Breeders Challenge Championship Finale Derby for $47K

By Julie Mankin

Defending WPRA World Champion Kassie Mowry made just two runs on her gold-buckle gelding Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") to win the Breeder's Challenge Derby Championship Finale in Fort Worth on Sept. 8-14 and bank $46,762.

This year, organizers added a second qualification round and optional additional added money. The top 15 fastest times from each of two rounds advanced to the Finale. Jarvis won the second qualifying round with a 15.478 for $2,762, then won the Finale with a 15.353 to earn $44,000.

His Finale time was the third-fastest recorded of the entire week. Grade-schooler Dusky Lynn Hall had clocked a 15.1 in the first round of the Derby to outrun Brittany Pozzi Tonzzi on Sir Epic by more than three-tenths, and DaCota Monk had clocked a 15.348 in the Futurity aboard Seis Martinis.

"Jarvis just got a month off," said Mowry, who has led the '25 WPRA world standings on Jarvis ever since they won RodeoHouston in March, including more than $200,000 earned at 27 rodeos (the others in the top 10 have been to an average of 63 rodeos

THE RUNDOWN w/Kassie Mowry

Force The Goodbye ("Jarvis") 15.3 h, 1,250-1,300 lbs

BIT: really old Myler with Merrill shanks and Billy Allen-type mouthpiece

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine ESP wool-top felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Classic Fits on all four

SHOEING: He stays sounder and stays on his feet better with traction, so Sidewinders on front and rims on hind

FEED: Triple Crown Ration Balancer with a little Renew Gold

HAY: timothy alfalfa cubes

SUPPLEMENTS: Assure Guard Gold Digestive Aid

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Acuscope only at the NFR and TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: He's a big, heavy horse so I try to keep him moving his feet and keep him as supple and responsive as possible. I never work him on the pattern faster than a trot, always looking to maintain softness. Everything I do is very slow.

THANKS: To Breeder's Challenge, for the opportunity. It's a great program and really nice to get to be part of it.

SPONSORS: Martin Saddlery, Classic Equine, Western Hauler, Signature Equine

each). "I always just rodeed for about six weeks each summer, along with the winter rodeos. It's been the same for the past 10 years or so. I enter what I can get to and still keep my program going." Jarvis, still just 7 years old, is by The Goodbye Lane out of a mare that was by a First Down Dash/Beduino stallion and out of an Easy Jet granddaughter. In Fort Worth, Mowry also qualified her 5-year-old mare, Goodbye Sophie (also by The Goodbye Lane), earning $3,381. Mowry couldn't run her in the Finale because of an injury in her first run.

In the Futurity, Mowry placed Rachel Primm's 5-year-old Blazin Jetolena daughter, RP Poetry In Motion, in the top 25 for $6,666. Three months earlier, she'd won the 5-Year-Old futurity trials at Fort Smith on the blaze-faced mare. So, Mowry left the John Justin Arena with $56,809.

"Jarvis had that month off and if he has one weakness, it's that he doesn't always fire super hard coming off a break," Mowry said. "He's really laid back and kind of needs a few runs, so the Breeders Challenge was a place to start out and get him back in the groove."

She didn't enter the Mandan, N.D. pro rodeo because it would require a week away from home. And she didn't enter Sioux Falls either.

"Jarvis' health and well-being are of utmost importance to me," she said. "Keeping his longevity in mind, I stay closer to home and run him at the big races, like the Pink Buckle coming up. It's not easy not running him everywhere, believe me, because I want to!" Mowry points out she could have driven over to Albuquerque or Abilene last week.

"But why?" she asks. "When he won forty grand an hour from my house? I have to make this make sense."

Between the Breeder's Challenge and Pink Buckle, Mowry was home in Dublin getting her 2- and 3-year-olds back on track, she said.

"I feel like people are a little let down that I came home three weeks ago," Mowry said. "I just went to the same rodeos I go to every year, and that's what I do and it is how it is. I didn't change anything because of where he got me ranked in the standings. I've got a lot going on at home."

Mowry doesn't need to be leading the standings as long as her horse is happy, she said, and she makes the Finals.

"Just for me, that's a big opportunity," she added. "I just want to be in the top 15 so I have a chance to go and run for that kind of money and stay in one place that long. My family loves to come spend time out there and have fun. Those are the reasons I rodeo." Jarvis' runs at last year's NFR won Mowry the Ram Top Gun award as the high-money NFR contestant – he made almost $300,000 in ten days. So where, in the pattern, does she think he shuts off the clock the most?

"I don't think he's the fastest horse I've ever ridden," she said. "He's very honest and means well and goes to the right spots. I do think he can really leave a barrel hard, and he normally leaves really straight. He rarely makes mistakes, is the thing about him. He might get a little tight or catch a barrel, but he never really outright does anything wrong."

SIDENOTE: This win puts Force The Goodbye over $1.9 Million in Lifetime Earnings! That puts him as the #2 All Time Leading Barrel Horse on the QStallions.com Leaderboard!

EQUIBRAND

Tayla Moeykens & JM PocketsDoubleDash Conquer Pendleton's Green Mile

By Tanya Randall

Most the horses running at the Pendleton Roundup, held September 10-13 in Oregon, can handle the grass rodeo field because they're conditioned in the pasture, but newly crowned champions Tayla Moeykens and JM PocketsDoubleDash ("Lizard") probably have more experience performing on grass than any other team.

For three years at Montana State University in Bozeman, Moeykens and Lizard were part of the rodeo team who carried the flags across the field for the football team's pre-game runout, a celebration of Bobcat pride and Montana's cowboy roots that was even featured on ESPN's College GameDay.

"My sophomore year before the (season opening) Gold Rush Game, they had the women's (rodeo) team run out (the letter flags spelling) CATS as an honor to our winning the National Championship at the College Finals," said the Three Forks, Montana, native. "That was the first time he got to do that."

Moeykens and Lizard had three football seasons under their belt before they ever tackled the Green Mile at Pendleton.

"He was probably waiting for the football team to come running out or the band members," chuckled Moeykens, who collected $16,373 on the Pendleton win.

They've made three appearances at Pendleton now, just missing the Finals in their first attempt and finishing third last year.

"This year, it was like he knew exactly what was going on," she said. "He was like, 'Yep. This one's mine.' He kind of told me in a way just to hold on because he was going to do it. That's kind of how the runs were too. It was almost like he didn't need me!"

Moeykens also prepared Lizard too by setting a pattern in the field for a little practice.

"I just do a little to help him get into position going into second because it's so far over there it's easy to get out of position without knowing it," she said. "The barrel blends in with the bucking chutes and then in a perf, it's in the shadows. That second barrel can be hard to find. Then for the third, you're running uphill because it banked. There's also a little drop off at the third between the grass and the dirt.

"For the most part though, he just does it on his own. I think for Pendleton, having a horse that's confident on their feet is a must. That's exactly how he is. He doesn't panic. He does his job. He just goes with the flow, and nothing really bothers him too much."

Even though Lizard was bred by Jerry and Melinda Voorhies and out of their Dash For Perks mare Katy Perks, the 12-year-old gelding is a family horse. Moeykens' parents Rick and Deena raised

The Moeykens purchased Lizard as a yearling and did all his training with mom running him as a young horse before handing him over to her daughter for college.

$789 at the Othello Pro Rodeo in Washington over the weekend, Moeykens has a team that has stamped pending on her first National Finals Rodeo qualification. She's currently 10th in the WPRA World Standing with $134,845 with just two weeks left in the season.

Moeykens also managed to qualify for the Montana Circuit Finals, thanks in large part to Dash Of Blue Sky, her College National Champion.

"I honestly think she would still be on the road with us because she is so point and shoot, but she doesn't haul well. I won't take her very far from the house. It stresses her out and she doesn't deserve that. There's a lot of arenas within three or four hours of here that she absolutely loves, so I was like, 'I'll just run you there and you'll be happy.'"

Moeykens had to make the tough decision to skip the Ellensburg

Rodeo—a Playoff Tour Rodeo—over Labor Day Weekend to make her circuit finals.

"It's a great rodeo but we didn't have a whole lot of luck there last year, so I decided that I was going to stick with my circuit rodeos," she explained. "Lizard loves Plains and White Sulphur and Yeti loves Dillon. Last year, Yeti placed in Filer, so I decided that I was going to stick with those. The other thing was if I were to progress at Ellensburg it would leave me one rodeo short for the circuit finals."

The North Dakota Roughrider Cup in Mandan is her only rodeo this weekend. She's also hopeful she'll get into the Governor's Cup in Sioux Falls. The Pendleton victory, worth 150 Playoff Tour points, gave her a bump in the standings, but nothing will be certain until after Mandan—the last Playoff Tour Rodeo, where she runs Friday night.

Taylor Cherry clocks 16.5 on a Standard! Wins $88K at Royal Crown Ponoka

By Julie Mankin

Taylor Cherry of Quesnel, British Columbia, continued her dominance of Royal Crown Canada over the weekend. It took an old-school adding machine to tally her (count 'em) 26 paychecks on three horses that came to $88,634 (including Sire, Breeder & Owner earnings)!

The 26-year-old trainer won the Ponoka, Alberta, Royal Crown Canada Futurity aboard 5-year-old Lynn's Honor ("Lenny"), the young mare she purchased after they also dominated the Claresholm Royal Crown Canada Futurity in May.

The mare's two runs netted her $26,024 for winning the Royal Crown and Open futurities plus an additional $7,813 in Open money – but it wasn't the dollar signs that made Cherry shed tears. It was the smoking 16.595 her mare put up on a standard pattern after battling injuries, to win the first round of literally everything. The ran shattered the arena record at Ponoka's Calnash Ag Event Centre and put them over a half second ahead of 38 of the other 39 Royal Crown Futurity horses. The run also registers as one of the fastest ever run in Canada on a Standard Pattern.

"She hasn't made a single run since that futurity in May," said Cherry. "She was laid off two months for surgery on her hock, and also came back from bursitis and a torn tendon in her foot. I've only been riding her a few weeks! I wanted to just let her work and stay out of her way."

The gritty mare by Guy's Casanova Cowboy (Frenchman's Guy/Holland Ease/Takin On The Cash) has a dam that was double-bred Blue Valentine on top and double-bred Jet Deck on the bottom. "Honestly, I've never cried after a run before," said Cherry, who had previously clocked 16.9s quite some time ago as her personal best. "I knew the run would be fast and didn't hear the announcer say the time. When I looked at the scoreboard, I was like, Oh My Gosh. Especially up in Canada, you just don't see a 16.5 very often."

Cherry said she trains her horses to keep running around the turn, and Lenny's key is that she just moves forward so well; she stays upright and never loses momentum. The mare was making a similar run in the second round until she slipped and almost went down at the third barrel, giving her a 17.242. But it was enough to

BIT: J.D. Morrow one-to-one, three-piece twisted-wire with locked shank

HEADGEAR: tie-down and cavesson

SADDLE: custom Usher

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Zone

LEG GEAR: J9 Equine Sports Boots

SHOEING: aluminum on front, steel rims on hind

FEED: Hoffman's Pro Fat and Manna Pro Max-E Glo

HAY: straight alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Redmond Equine's Daily Gold, 4CYTE, lysine, electrolytes and Hoffman's Horse Mineral

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track hock boots pre-race and a liniment brace or poultice post-race

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: I don't just trot and lope but ride aggressively and am adamant about how they use their bodies – they roll back, stop, do it all. And I rarely work the pattern but set up one barrel for Lenny. She gets really locked on, so I work her pretty big at the entrances and make her come around a little quicker.

THANKS: Riley Wilson for doing a good job shoeing, Usher Brands for custom fitting her wide back, and my vets – Stanton Equine, Cor Veterinary Services and Billy Hodge at Meadow Lane.

SPONSORS: J9 Equine, Usher Brand Silver & Saddlery, Tim Cooper Custom Hats at Cowboys Choice, Janik Services LTD, Stanton Equine Veterinary Services, Cor Veterinary Services, Threads By Grace, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health of 17.3 and 17.1 on Chyann Corr's 5-year-old mare Frenchman's Extra ("Poppy"), which came into her program just a month earlier. She's by the Frenchman's Guy son French's Hula Guy (out of a Dash Ta Fame/Proudest Effort/Easy Jet mare) and out of Raisin Extra by Raisin The Moon (Martha's Six Moons/Raise Your Glass/Truckle Feature).

"The two mares are so different," said Cherry, who ran Poppy to $16,313 for third in the Royal Crown Futurity plus Open futurity and Open divisional money. "I kind of get forward and leave Poppy alone in the run, while Lenny wants me to set back and take a hold of her in the turn. Poppy is really coming along. I've taken her to some rodeos too, and she's backed up Preacher."

Preacher is the barn name of Ashley Klassen's 6-year-old palomino stallion Blazin Sugar Daddy, the horse that Cherry turned heads on at this year's Calgary Stampede and the reason she made her first CFR this fall. He's by the late Blazin Jetolena out of a granddaughter of Frenchman's Guy. Cherry's had him since he was 3, and said she will bring Lenny along to back him up at the CFR in Edmonton.

At Ponoka, she and Preacher were the reserve Derby champs, running a 17.0 and a 17.2 to add five figures to his mounting lifetime earnings. The solid, consistent stud has Cherry ranked fourth in the WPRAs Resistol Rookie of the Year standings after just 27 rodeos, whereas the top six contenders have each entered more than 60. After Royal Crown Canada Ponoka his lifetime earnings will cross $310k!

"I don't love rodeoing, I'll tell you that much," said Cherry, who winters in Surprise, Arizona. "But while I have a good group of horses, maybe I should make a run at the NFR. I'll just have to see where I end up and what rodeos I can get into down south."

Saddle bronc rider Isaac Diaz to be inducted into Broward County Sports Hall of Fame

By Julianna Morgan

On Oct. 16, saddle bronc rider Isaac Diaz will be inducted into the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Diaz, a seven-time National Finals Rodeo qualifier who now resides in Texas, said he was honored and flattered by his induction.

He will join a Hall of Fame filled with legendary South Florida athletes, including Pro Football Hall of Famers Dan Marino and Jason Taylor, Olympic Swimmer Dara Torres, tennis legend Chris Evert, and MLB player Cliff Floyd.

Rodeo wasn't always Diaz's goal. It wasn't until his family settled in Davie, Fla., that he began riding saddle bronc horses. He was invited to Wednesday night jackpots at the Davie arena by Troy Lee Weekley and Steven Ledbetter. They gave Diaz money to compete and were always available to help him learn more about the sport.

Diaz said these two men and others in the area were "instrumental to my rodeo development."

Durango® Boots - $30K Scholarship

Durango® Boots proudly opens its third annual National Day of the Cowgirl $30,000 Scholarship in celebration of their National Day of the Cowgirl holiday celebrated annually on Sept. 15.

The scholarship will be awarded to a young woman pursuing a degree in the Western industry. In partnership with the Dude Ranch Foundation, this scholarship celebrates passion, grit, and the next generation of trailblazers.

DETAILS: Applications open Sept. 15 – Dec. 31, 2025

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

I will freely admit that I am NOT a grass/flower person. At my house, it can be hit or miss. Well, this year, I was absolutely thrilled when I thought a sunflower had volunteered itself into one of my tank planters! Rather than pull it up because it was so big, I decided to keep it and enjoy it this fall. I watered it. I fertilized it. I watered it. I fertilized it.

It's September. The thing is about 4 1/2 feet high. Oh joy! Well. It's a weed... I had Mike pull it up. Sigh. When he was vigorously jerking on it to get it and its' root system out, I got a word from the Lord. Yep. He told me, "That's how some people treat offense and unforgiveness. They feed it, they talk about it, they talk about what someone did or didn't do to them. They won't dig it up and get rid of it. They hang on, hoping that something will happen to the OTHER person.

When, if they will just get rid of the unforgiveness or offense, THEY will grow and prosper and be free!" Proverbs 14:30 and Matthew 6:15.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
