Cheyenne Allan & RS Mollys Honor Tame The Green Mile at Pendleton Roundup

By Tanya Randall

"It's a shocker to us. We're still in a daze!" said 2018 Pendleton Roundup Barrel Racing Champion Cheyenne Allan of Mabton, Washington. "It was an experience like no other. The harder you work for something and then succeed—the payoff is just more. Pendleton is pretty amazing. It's unique. The obstacles are different than a normal rodeo, and I think that's what makes Pendleton. It's the history, the grass, the dirt, the people; it's everything. Allan and her homebred mare RS Mollys Honor took home $10,888 from the $37,500-added historic rodeo in Oregon.

"I've been working at it so very hard for so many years," she said. "I thought 'Oh well. Let's go at it another year!'"

Allan originally thought she would run Streaking Honor Kid ("Good One"), who carried Teri Bangart to nearly $30,000 at the past three Pendleton Roundups. But, with Bangart so close to making her first National Finals Rodeo, Allan agreed to let her run the gelding again, opting instead for his full sister RS Mollys Honor.

Both horses were bred by Allan and her husband Randy under their Diamond Slash Ranch banner. They are by In Honor Of Leo, a son of the all-time great barrel horse sire Jet Of Honor, out of Molly Biankus, a daughter of noted Canadian barrel horse sire Kid-din N Streakin out of a Biankus daughter.

"I did some trading with a guy from Alberta," said Randy Allan, who started raising horses 40 years ago. Today, he and Cheyenne, still have 100 head horses with 50 broodmares that are heavily influenced by the Jet Of Honor line. "I traded some geldings and I got this filly (Molly Biankus). She was maybe 2 or 3 when I got her."

While Randy won't price any of Molly Biankus' babies anymore, he did say that Good One is the only one for sale.

"Good One is a year older than Molly," noted Cheyenne Allan. "Both have a lot of get-up-and-go and a lot of heart and try."

With Bangart trying to make the NFR, Allan set to get the horses ready for the big run on what the barrel racers have dubbed "The Green Mile."

"I took both Good One and Molly and started doing my Pendleton routine, which is a 10-mile hike, or trot up five miles to an artesian spring. The last 500 yards or so are straight up, and I lope that. I'll make the trip up to the spring about four times before Pendleton," she explained.

Allan spent the rest of the week doing 30 minutes of long-trotting on the flat and a little arena work.

The hard work paid off handsomely with two extremely fit horses. Allan and Molly finished second in the first round with a 28.76 and turned in another second-place finish in the short go in spite of a loose saddle.

"You would think when you get as old as me, you would have things like that covered," she chuckled. "The irony is when I stepped off Molly to tighten her up, Teri said, 'Oh would you check Good One too. 'I tightened him up another two notches and said, 'It's better to be safe than sorry!' I thought we're set and ready to go. When I went around that first barrel I thought, 'Holy Toledo! We're not tight enough!'"

All the way across the grass, Allan was twisting in the saddle trying to bring it back to the center of her horse.

"We got around the second barrel and thought, 'Okay, we're back in the center of the horse, so we're good to go,'" she said. "On the way home, I feel the saddle wanting to move and I thought just stay in the center! What A Ride!"

Allan credits the dropped rigging on her custom Blake West Saddle for keeping her in the middle in spite of loose cinch.

Blue Collar Breeders Incentive

The Blue Collar Breeders Incentive is a newly started non-profit breeders incentive focused on 100% payback to owners and breeders in a transparent manner. The incentive will feature 40 sires, with each sire putting up $5,000 per year that is put directly towards the event payout.

There will be no foal nomination fees to enroll your foal. Instead the eligible 4 & 5 year old futurity horses will simply pay an entry fee the year they decide to run the participating foal. If paid by Jan 1st of the year of the foals competition year the fees will be $500. Jan 2nd through May 1st the fee is $750 ($500 fee + $250 late fee) and from May 2nd through August 1st the fee is $1,000 ($500 fee + $500 late fee). No entry fees will be accepted after August 1st. All fees and late fees will be applied to the go rounds payouts.

Foals that are conceived in the same year that the stallion is paid in and in good standing with the Blue Collar Breeders Inc. will be eligible to compete for the prize money. All 4 & 5 yr olds who are futurity horses of 2019 and by one of the 40 studs paid into the incentive are eligible to run at the 2019 incentive payout if they pay their entry fee. Foals by eligible sires will be grandfathered in to the incentive and eligible to participate as long as the sire remains in good standing.

The incentive will be held in conjunction with a 2 go round futurity event; paying in each of the 2 go rounds and also paying an aggregate. The owners of participating foals and breeders will both receive checks.

The 40 sire slots are full for 2019 and a waiting list has been started. $50,000 from sire nominations will be set aside at the beginning of the year for administration fees such as website building and advertising, then at the end of the year the unused portion of those funds will be put back into the payout. The rest of the money will be put directly into the payout.

A list of the 40 participating sires will be posted on the Blue Collar Breeders Inc Facebook page over the next week. For more information or questions, check out Blue Collar Breeders Inc on Facebook or call Jeff Switzer at 620.408.5427.

WCRA Semi-Finals Tickets Now on Sale

The World Champions Rodeo Alliance (WCRA) announced tickets for the WCRA $500,000 Semi-Finals Rodeo starting November 14 at the Lazy E Arena in Guthrie, Okla. are now on sale. Fans can purchase tickets as low as $10 online by visiting Ticketmaster.

The five-day event will be the host to over 1000 rodeo athletes from across the country competing for $500,000 and their chance to compete in the first WCRA $1 Million Major Rodeo in January of 2019.

The competition will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 14 with a barrel race jackpot followed by two days of timed event jackpots and preliminary rounds starting at 8 a.m. daily.

The two-day, three performance main events will begin on Saturday, Nov. 17 with two progressive rounds followed by the final round on Sunday, Nov. 18. The final contestants will compete for their share of the $500,000 purse or more than $55,000 per discipline.

Eight athletes in each discipline with the highest scores or fastest times will advance to WCRA $1 Million Major Rodeo in January.

In early May, WCRA announced the $6 million major events, an innovative virtual qualification app and world ranking system for athletes to qualify for high-payout rodeos, and other growth initiatives for the industry.

"If not for the dropped rigging that Blake put on these saddles, we would have rolled off, no doubt," she added. "That's one of the nice things about dropped riggings is you don't have to cinch them in two to keep the saddle on."

Randy joked that he was going to have to stand by her to help her get ready instead of staying in the stands to video. It was nerve-wracking for him to watch.

"On the first run, Molly went a stride by the first barrel, but she kept them up and still clocked," said Randy, a former pickup man and chute boss for the Roundup. "On the second run, she shortened up things and rocked that first barrel and my heart stopped! I couldn't even tell what was happening. I thought the reins had gone on one side of that mare's neck because Cheyenne kept rocking over in the saddle. I hadn't thought about the saddle being loose!"

With Bangart finishing fourth in the average, picking up $4,531, it was a great day for the Diamond Slash Ranch horses.

"This is best we've ever done," said Allan, who is currently leading the Columbia River Circuit ahead of Bangart, who did most of her winning on another Diamond Slash Ranch product RCA Three Bugs Honor ("Peak") (In Honor Of Leo x Moon Lady Bug x Ninnekah Bug). "Teri has done outstanding."

Allan said that Bangart plans on dragging her south for the winter since she's sitting 38th in the WPRA World Standings with $36,330 and has a chance to make the cutoff for some of the limited entry rodeos.

"Teri, bless her heart, she's a wonderful woman," said Allan. "She's been an inspiration for me. She says, 'Yes Cheyenne, we are

Bubble Watch

The WPRA Top 15 World Standings made another subtle shift at the bottom over the weekend.

Carman Pozzobon and Kelly Bruner maintained their 11th and 12th positions, respectively. Bruner added $795 from a ninth-place finish at Albuquerque and a sixth-place tied at Carlsbad, New Mexico. Amber Moore made the strongest move. She and CP Dark Moon ("Paige") picked up $3,893, placing third at Albuquerque and fourth in Abilene, Texas. The two checks bumped her off 15th and into 13th with $85,977.

Tracy Nowlin and DJG Madison ("Dolly Jo") were the only ones placing out of early Sunday morning slack at Albuquerque. Although Dolly Jo wasn't impressed with the early morning wake-up call, the $569 place check for 11th put them in 14th in standings with $85,494.

Carley Richardson took over the bubble position in 15th with $83,011, and Jessie Telford is right on her heels, just $151 behind in 16th.

Telford rode her homebred Dash Ta Fame gelding Famous Cool Whip to a seventh-place finish at Pendleton for $3,815. That bumped her total to $82,011.

Kellie Collier picked up $996 after placing at Abilene and twice at Carlsbad, which was three one-header rodeos. She stayed at 17th with $77,494.

Teri Bangart had another great weekend, picking up $6,451 and moving past Jessi Fish for 18th with $75,461. She placed fourth at Pendleton with Streaking Honor Kid, won Othello, Washington, and placed sixth at Albuquerque with RCA Three Bugs Honor.

That puts her $7,550 back of 15th going into the weekend. On tap this week, is Amarillo, Texas, with $5,000 added; it paid $2,463 to win last year. Texarkana, Arkansas, also has $5,000 added and paid $2,344 in 2017. Springhill, Louisiana, with $2,500 added is also on the southern loop, but it paid less than $600 last year. Brooks, Alberta, with $3,000 added is the only rodeo out of the main loop.

Big Paycheck for Montgomery and Makin Ya Famous at RBR

By Amy Wilson

Futurity trainer, Mollie Montgomery compares the power of the 5-year-old stallion, Makin Ya Famous “Reno” to a sports car. He even jerked the reins out of her hand leaving the third barrel. “I felt like I looked like a rag doll out there,” she said about their 1D winning run of 14.832 seconds at the Revolution Barrel Racing 4D qualifier in Glen Rose, Texas. “He’s really a lot of fun for me to ride – he’s not easy to ride, mainly because he’s so quick. When I ask him to do something, he can do it. Most other horses are delayed on their reaction. He is so fast and so athletic. He really is a super impressive horse,” she said after they bested 278 entries to win $3350. They also won the 5D open race on Saturday and the adult incentives to bring their total earnings to over $4200.

“The thing I like so much about him is he’s really powerful and fast. He has a lot of power when he runs and in his turns. The dirt never ever really bothers him, he can power through about anything,” Montgomery said as she also told about another run where he had dirt up to his chest. Reno has placed fourth at two other Revolution races and while she’s happy if she can get her horses in the top 10, she was glad to get this win since so much emphasis is placed on winning first for stallions. “He is a solid, consistent 1D horse, and here in the last 6 months it seems like he’s really matured,” she said while also pointing out that he’s “been good from the start”.

In Glen Rose, he showcased his maturity, and his quick and powerful style. “He can get in there and get around that first barrel before you even have a chance to pick your leg up or anything. He had a really great second barrel, and then his third barrel was all him – it was fast,” Montgomery said. She likes to look at the time on the clock in background of photos. “Most of time super good horses are on about 5.6 seconds, the time for Reno on the photo Image Hounds took was 5.3. It’s always neat to know where you gain or lose time.”

Reno, who is by Dash Ta Fame, is out of Moon Hankin Mama which was a great 1D mare. “She was a rockstar. Kappy Allen professionally rodeoed on her. Jackie and Angela Ganter actually own her now,” Montgomery said about the 18 yr old dam of the dark brown stallion. “Reno gets his power from his mama’s side – that sheer power in a turn.” She broke him herself and has one of his babies. “We actually have four coming-two-year olds – three geldings and one filly. The owners gave Jo [Jolene Montgomery] one, me one, and my cousin Kay one. They’re all really cute!”

“He’s real pretty – I mean like real pretty. When you see him in person, everyone loves him. I like him too because he's not real big, about 15.1 hands, so he's well-balanced" Montgomery commented.

Montgomery, who used to be the ITS coordinator for Texas Department of Transportation, now rides 17-18 horses a day on the 90 acre place near Dawson, Texas. "Jo and I both do. We're on a horse constantly," Montgomery said referring to her sister-in-law, Jolene Montgomery, who is also a successful barrel horse trainer. "I feel very blessed to be able to have Jo here because whenever you live with your competition – we live within a half a mile of each other – it drives you to get out there every day. And it helps too because you have someone to bounce ideas off of. I think it's amazing having her here because we get along super great, and we do everything as a family. It's nice and makes us more powerful as barrel horse trainers. Then I've got my husband, Jimmy, and my step-daughter, Brynn who is 13 and falling right into our footsteps, so she rides with us every day. I have an intern, Tristan Mounts, so she lives here too. We have Billy Robinson. He works for Jo. And my dad lives here too. It's nice to have that many people here so we can all help and support one another." As busy as that sounds, they often invite others to come over too. "I think people like coming over and love the atmosphere – we're professionals and serious about what we do, but we have fun and laugh." They typically ride barrel horses all day and then rope at night. "Jo and I don't rope, we just push the cows," Montgomery clarified with a laugh. "Jimmy has wanted me to start roping, but I don't want to go through that learning curve and I kind of like my fingers."

She also like the opportunities that Revolution Barrel Racing provides, including the big payout. "We like the concept of the Revolution races because we do this for a job. We like to go exhibition our horses, run, and come home. The qualifier race spread over two days with the higher entry fee makes it really nice to be able to go win that kind of money," Montgomery said. The Revolution Barrel Race 4D qualifier has multiple sections to allow contestants to choose which day they prefer to run. Entry fees are $150, with 70% payback of fees and 100% payback of added money, minimum of $5000 added, half second splits, and no late fees. "I'm a futurity trainer so we're used to paying a higher entry fee, so $150 entry fee is cheap to us. Maybe it'll take a year or two for it to build up steam, but my thought process is that we spend a lot of money on these horses with their initial cost, your rig, feed and hay, fencing, barns, vet – all of that – so I want to try to recoup as much of that money for myself and my owners as I can. I want to go to shows that pay more." Montgomery has been to every one of the eight Revolution Barrel Races. There is one last chance to get qualified for the Revolution Barrel Racing Finale at the qualifier October 27-28 in Conroe, Texas. The Finale will have a minimum of $40,000 added cash and prizes and will be held November 15-18 at the Somervell County Expo Center in Glen Rose, Texas. With the projected payout of $110,000 at the finale, Montgomery says, "There's no way we wouldn't go after something like that." She added, "For the people who say if they had a 1D horse, they'd go, you don't have to have a 1D horse. The first one Jo went to, she didn't even place in the 1D and she won over 3 thousand dollars."

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

At The Barn, we have been encouraged to “go to the next level”. And it’s interesting to me, that after 60 days of this challenge, when asked at a service, only 5 PEOPLE RAISED THEIR HAND, THAT, INDEED, THEY WERE GOING TO THE NEXT LEVEL! Sheesh! 5 people out of 200 or so...

That means that there are 195 people who are either too shy to lift their hand or they have just decided they’re too busy to work on it. So the Lord had me to use these examples. If our praise and worship leader had decided to quit piano after she learned ‘chopsticks’, we wouldn’t have great music. If you had quit at trotting the barrels, you’d still be dead last at a barrel race. If a doctor quit his/her studies at stitches, we’d be in trouble if we needed surgery.

If Michelangelo had limited himself to stick people, we’d sure be missing out on his art. Are you seeing this? Why don’t we want to go to the next level? Fear. Laziness. Just plain thinking that we can’t do/learn any more. Friends, yes we can go to the next level, in EV-ERY area of our lives! Why? Because our God resides on the inside of us and HE KNOWS EVERYTHING!

John 14:26 says, “But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things...”. Read John 14, 15 and 16. A broader definition of “Helper” is: Counselor, advocate, comforter, intercessor, strengthener and standby. You and I CAN go to the next level. We have help. And lots of it!
