Let 'Er Run – Wall & TWK Bullysfamous Fox Dominate Pendleton Round-Up

By Tanya Randall

For most barrel racers, the thought of running on the famed “Green Mile” at Pendleton is enough to turn even the most hardened competitor into a nervous wreck. Running a nearly 30-second pattern stretch across a football field with the barrels placed on a dirt track encircling the grass is not for the faint of heart. It’s a bucket list run for many.

Yet, for Kimmie Wall. The Pendleton Round-Up has been a life-line. She and her homebred mare TWK Bullysfamous Fox (“Foxy”) have made four trips to Pendleton and made the finals every time. This year, they dominated, sweeping the rodeo for their second title in three years—they were reserve last year.

“It’s one of my most favorite rodeos,” she said. “It’s just so different. I love watching it. I enjoy watching the guys’ slack; I love watching them on the grass. The entire thing is just so unique and fun. It’s such an experience.

“I’m so grateful to the Pendleton Rodeo and their committee for making it so special. We walk away with so many prizes. My trailer was packed full of goodies. To win it once was a blessing. To win it twice...I’m just overwhelmed!”

Most important, their $11,753 pushed them back into the WPRO Top 15 for the moment. They’re currently 15th with $73,283.

Knowing how precarious her position was and how much was riding on Pendleton, Wall released out of a week’s worth of rodeos—including the Justin Boots Playoffs in Puyallup, Wash., and went home to rest her mare.

“I missed some big rodeos because Foxy need a break; I needed a break,” Wall said. “I knew if I had her healthy and sound for Pendleton that was my shot to play catch up.”

Wall and Foxy have had a challenging season. During the height of the summer run, Foxy was battling a liver infection, but now with treatment and a little rest, the mare was back to her winning form.

“It was a tough decision to come home for a little bit,” Wall said. “For a minute, I wasn’t even sure I would go back out, but she did so well once we got home that I knew she’d be fine to go back out.”

With so much riding on one rodeo, Wall was really nervous before her first run, much like she was the very first time she ran there when Foxy was a rodeo green 6-year-old.

“Once I got her into the stadium on the grass, she was so comfortable and relaxed, it just put me at ease,” she said. “It just took all the nerves away.”

Open Box Rafter Production Sale

The 24th Annual Open Box Rafter Ranch Production Sale was held on September 9, 2017 at the Central States Fairgrounds in Rapid City, SD. There was a lively crowd on hand, as well as bidders on the phone and internet; 97 head sold for a total of $408,500 to 17 states and one Canadian province: AR, AZ, CO, NE, IA, IN, KS, MN, ND, NY, OK, OR, PA, SD, TX, WI, WY, and Alberta.

High selling gelding and horse: Lot 49, Paddys Firewater, 2015 buckskin gelding by Firewater Frenchman out of Star of the Sixes by Paddys Irish Whiskey, sold for $23,000 to Julie Johnson, IA. He was signed by Frenchmans Quarter Horses and sired by Western Quarter Horses' fine stallion.

High selling stallion: Lot 43, Frenchmans Stoli, 2015 palomino stallion by Stoli out of Special Frenchgirl by Special Effort, sold for $21,000 to Corbiell, Rawkstar Perf. Horses & Diamond N Ranch of Alberta, Canada.

High selling weanling: Lot 52 Frenchmans Razzy, 2017 bay filly by Royal Shake Em out of Frenchmans Izzy by Massasuta, selling for $9,000 to Wayne & Shelly Havemeier of MN.

Second high selling weanling, Lot 22 French Lady Luck, 2017 sorrel filly sired by the Open Box Rafter Ranch senior stallion French Flit, out of Laughing Flit by Dr Nick Bar, sold for $7,000 also to the Havemeiers of MN, repeat buyers with a first-rate breeding program.

High selling stud colts: Lot 14 Tis French Wonder, 2017 brown stallion (by Flit Wonder out of Frenchmans Jamie by Frenchmans Guy) for $6,000 to Babbitt Ranches of AZ; and Lot 54 Fiery French Whiskey, 2017 buckskin stallion (by Firewater Frenchman out of Oats and Whiskey by Paddys Irish Whiskey) for $6000 to Dan Whetham of SD. Babbitt Ranches also selected Lot 53 Stolin Firewater, 2017 palomino stallion (by Firewater Frenchman out of Cynthias Stoli by Stoli) for $5,100; and Lot 31 Cisco Otoe, 2017 buckskin dun stallion (PC Cisco Frost x Miss Sak Em Otoe by Big As I Am) for $5,000.

High selling performance mare: Lot 46 Frenchmans Francine, 2015 gray mare by Royal Shake Em out of Frenchmans Francesca by Paddys Irish Whiskey, sold for $17,500 to repeat buyer Terry Moore of AR.

High selling broodmare: Lot 91 Guys Burning Amber, 2008 palomino mare by Frenchmans Guy out of Peppy Amber Star by Sak Em San, in foal to AQHA Champion Flit Wonder, sold for $11,250 to repeat buyers Duncanson Farms of MN.

Open Box Rafter Ranch and Frenchmans Quarter Horses are very thankful for all the buyers and bidders, friends and family that attended and helped make another successful sale.

A Smooth Guy to Stand at Royal Vista Ranches for 2018

A Smooth Guy, the up and coming Myers Ranch sire, will stand the 2018 breeding season at Royal Vista Ranches in Wayne, Oklahoma. After standing his first several successful seasons at stud at the Myers Ranch in St. Onge, South Dakota, it was decided to move him to a larger breeding facility to better handle the number of mares he was receiving. Bill & Deb Myers of Myers Ranch said, "We are excited about the move and are confident that they will be better able to handle the volume of mares that Smoothie has been receiving the last several years."

Sired by $11 million dollar sire, Frenchmans Guy, and out of the producing Dry Doc/Jet Smooth mare, Docs Movida, A Smooth Guy has already made his mark in the barrel racing industry from his first couple crops of colts; siring top quality barrel horses such as Futurity Champion, Derby Champion and rodeo horse, Smooth N Famous (LTE $170k+) and barrel futurity money earners Colour Me Smooth, UX Smooth Talkin Doc, and A Smooth Bunny to name a few.

A Smooth Guy will stand the 2018 season at $3,500. For breeding contracts and more information contact Laura at Royal Vista Ranches, LLC at 405.449.7575, royalvistaranches@valornet.com, or www.RoyalVistaRanches.com and they also have a Facebook page at "Royal Vista Ranches LLC".

WNFR implements clear bag policy

In order to enhance public safety and make venue access more efficient at the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, Las Vegas Events recently announced it will implement a new security policy regulating the size and type of bag that may be carried into the Thomas & Mack Center.

The clear bag policy will begin Dec. 7 and continue for the duration of the event, which culminates Dec. 16.

"Following the NFL's lead, along with other professional and collegiate programs, we believe it is prudent to implement the clear bag policy," said LVE President Pat Christenson. "Fan safety, security and enjoyment is a top priority for us. We believe this policy is an important enhancement to the security measures already put in place at the Thomas & Mack Center."

Fans are encouraged not to bring any types of bags inside the Thomas & Mack Center.

However, the following outlines bags that are permitted:

- * Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12" x 6" x 12";
 - * One-gallon clear plastic freezer bags (Ziploc bag or similar); and
 - * Small clutch bags, with or without a handle or strap, that do not exceed 4.5" x 6.5" (approximately the size of a hand).
-  An exception will be made for diaper bags and medically necessary items after proper inspection at a gate designated for this purpose.

Prohibited bags include, but are not limited to: purses larger than a clutch bag; briefcases; backpacks, cinch bags, and fanny packs that are not clear and/or exceed the size restriction; luggage of any kind; computer bags/cases; camera bags/cases; binocular bags/cases or any bag larger than the permissible size.

Fans will continue to be able to carry items allowed into the arena in a permissible clear bag, such as binoculars and small hand-held cameras. --Courtesy of www.prorodeo.com

They blasted through the mega-course in 28.58 to lead the first round from early in slack throughout three subsequent performances.

"That was the smoothest run she's ever had there. I've always struggled with second barrel there. People don't understand how hard it is to see that second barrel. It's hard for me to see, so I imagine it's hard for them to see. We nailed it that first run," said Wall, who explained that the distance between the first and second combined with the fact a multicolored barrel is against multicolored bucking chutes makes picking it out extremely difficult. "Every year I think I'm going to find it, and I struggle with it every run! Foxy, I think, finds it before I do!"

While many of her fellow competitors were racking up the miles traveling between Texarkana, Ark., and Albuquerque, N.M., and places in between, Wall and Foxy spent a restful week in Pendleton, waiting for the short round on Saturday.

Wall said Foxy's killer first barrel helped sealed the win.

"Especially my second run... she can run so hard and make that first barrel," she said. "It seems like wherever I'm at, the harder I can run her to the first barrel, the harder she turns it. I think that's what won it for us there this year."

Wall is currently resting up at her Roosevelt, Utah, home for a few days before heading out on Wednesday for the Southern California run.

"I decided not to go to Texas for Stephenville and all of those rodeos," Wall explained. "I've done well in the past there, but I just decided to try something different this year. I'm going to San Bernardino, Poway, Industry and Kingman (Ariz.). I've never been to those rodeos. That's kind of a gamble, but California has always been good to me. I just thought it would be a little bit better for me. I only have one horse and I have to go where it's best for her."

Wall will wrap up the 2017 season with slack at Kansas City, before heading to the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale in Sioux Falls, S.D.

"Even if the chips don't fall where we want them to, we're still going to chalk it up as a good year," she added. "There's lot of girls winning and lots of rodeos left, all we can do is what we're doing and hope for the best."

The Chase Continues

Just two weeks are left for the road-weary barrel racers in the hunt for the final spots in the WPRA's Top 15.

Kellie Collier continues to maintain a cushion between herself and the last two qualifiers. She placed third at Oldstoberfest in Olds, Alberta., for $1,142 and 12th at the West Texas Fair in Abilene for $123. Her $1,265 kept her at No. 13 with $80,052.

Ivy Conrado, too, spent time on the road and in the air, as she picked up $1,857 during the week to stay at 14th with earnings of $74,720. She placed sixth at Coarsegold, Calif., for $398, third at Othello, Wash., for $638 and sixth at the Four States Rodeo in Texarkana, Ark., for $821.

Emily Miller placed ninth at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque to earn $794. Although she dropped out of the Top 15 with Wall's victory at Pendleton, she still less than $1,680 from recouping an National Finals Rodeo berth.

Sherry Cervi was the biggest mover without a Pendleton check. She placed third at Albuquerque for $2,581 and second at Texarkana for $1,993 to gain $4,574 on the weekend. She's still in 17th with $70,296, just barely $3,000 back of 15th.

Jackie Ganter made a bold move at Pendleton, winning $7,261 to move within almost $4,500 of 15th. Now that her earnings from Armstrong, B.C., have been added to her total, Ganter is now in 18th with $68,759.

Jana Bean remained at $67,543 but slid from 16th to 19th; she is just $5,739 out of the 15th spot.

Ari-Anna Flynn wraps up the Top 20 with $61,370. She picked up

$577 after placing in the first round at Pendleton.

The biggest paying rodeos are in Stephenville and Amarillo, Texas, but there are more opportunities for checks during the four-rodeo run out West that Wall is taking. There will be a few barrel racers that try to do some of both runs if the entry fairies are working in their favor and they have the horsepower to split.

Now, the final weekend, Collier, Miller, Bean, Cervi and Flynn will continue to rely on the various rodeos across the country, while Conrado, Ganter and Wall have automatic berths into the Wrangler Champions Challenge Finale given their position in last year's standings at the start of the 2017 season.

Pete Oen & Guys Dashing Jet Claim Parker-Wood Memorial Slot Race, Reserve Futurity Title

By Tanya Randall

Pete Oen and Guys Dashing Jet ("Stella") have had an incredible two weeks. Oen and the 5-year-old mare, owned and bred by Cathy Geary of Wadsworth, Ohio, followed their Fizz Bomb Classic Championship with a Parker-Wood Memorial Slot Race Championship and a reserve championship in the futurity.

"She's been there at every futurity," said the Ardmore, Okla., based trainer. "She's been to eight futurities, been champion at two, reserve at three and has won four go-rounds, and she's won the Junior Barrels at the Fort Worth Stock Show. Her very first competitive run in her life was the first run of the BFA Futurity, against horses that had run all year, and she was fifth. She's been a dream come true."

Oen and Stella were second in the first go with a 16.294 and third in the second go with a 16.488. The Slot Race Championship was determined by the best of the two go-round runs amongst the entered contestants. It was their first run that clenched the $12,600 victory. Their futurity reserve championship was worth $11,523.

"Honestly, on my first run, she missed the first barrel by a full jump," Oen admitted. "I thought, 'Oh man! You're dead in the water!' She ran across the pen and spun the other two; it was unreal."

Oen noted after looking at timing breakdown, Stella made up for her error by out running the first and third place horses by 3/10th between the first and second barrels. Plus, she out turned both on the third barrel.

"I missed the first," he said again. "They didn't get me by much around the first, but when she jumped up and left it, she was flying. She just leaves straight, down, hard and flat. She never elevates and loses time leaving the turn with her head in the air."

All totaled, Oen and Stella left Heber City, Utah, with $24,123, plus numerous prizes and a breeding to red-hot sire First Moonflash.

"I set a goal for $100,000 in earnings," said Oen, who noted on Facebook that Stella is his richest futurity horse to date. "I need to set a knew goal. She won more than $36,385 in two weeks in just cash."

By Frenchmans Guy, Stella is out of the Dash For Perks mare Perks Dashing Jet, a futurity money earner herself. According to Oen, Geary has no plans to sell her dream horse.

Janna Beam-Brown & God Given Fame Top Parker-Wood Memorial Futurity

By Tanya Randall

A little over a year ago, God Given Fame ("Gigi") was just learning the barrel pattern as she got a delayed start as Janna Beam Brown recovered from a broken leg. Yet, barely 13-months later, the pair topped the Parker-Wood Memorial Futurity, held in Heber City, Utah, for $10,869.

"She's done amazing!" said Brown of Mount Pleasant, Texas. "When I got her (last) August, I thought there was no way! I like to have at least have a year with them because I don't like to rush them."

Brown and Gigi were sixth in the first go with a 16.543 and then posted the fastest time of the futurity, a 16.178, to win the second go and average. With their stallion incentive earnings of $2,535 and open carryover earnings of $1,221, Gigi earned $10,869 plus a breeding to PYC Paint Your Wagon.

"My runs felt great," said Brown. Having come from a more closed setup at the Fizz Bomb in Gillette, Wyo., Brown was little unsure as to how to handle the more open pen at Heber City. "I just wasn't sure what to do the first round because the first barrel was so far down there. She always turns, but I didn't get to rolling in there so hard that she couldn't."

"The first run, I let her go and kicked her, and I thought, 'You'd better sit down or something!' I did and I felt her starting to gather up to turn, so I kicked her another step because I was going to hit it, not because she was cheating, just because she had started her turn. She got a little short going across the pen to the second because it was so far across there. I don't think I've ever run her anywhere that it's that far; it was like she was waiting on it. Once I got her across she was good and the third barrel was good."

By the second run, Gigi and Brown, too, felt more at home in the setup.

"The second run she was a lot more free—not too free, but a good free," she said. "She wasn't anticipating a barrel. She was way more comfortable and a lot faster."

By Dash Ta Fame out of DeAnna Stout's Bully Bullion mare Wilda, 4-year-old Gigi is owned by Gail West and her daughter Michelle West Lance. Since Beam-Brown broke her leg in February, Gigi didn't actually begin her barrel training until mid-August 2016.

"She was broke, but had never seen a barrel," Brown said. "She was easy though. She wanted to turn the barrels from the very beginning."

"I was worried that she wouldn't be ready (for her 4-year-old campaign), so we didn't take her to the (BFA) Juvenile. The plan from the very beginning was to start with her at Kinder (for the LG Pro Classic)."

There were many times that Beam-Brown almost changed her plans—not because the mare wasn't progressing, but because she was coming on so quickly.

"I had taken her to Marshall (Texas) to exhibition her and she was doing really well," recalled Brown. "I remember thinking, 'Am I stupid for not taking her to the Juvenile?' My husband reminded me that I made a plan and to stick to it."

She questioned herself again after the mare won a jackpot before the Texas Extreme and Texas Ultimate futurities at the first of the year.

"I thought, 'Do we enter late?' We almost did it, but I talked myself out of it. We stuck to our plan and went with Kinder. She placed there and done really well since then. She's pretty much won money every time she's ran."

While she was a natural on the pattern, Gigi was also the stereotypical mare everywhere else.

"She has an attitude," Beam-Brown said. "She's very strong-willed, true-blue mare. She's never been hard as far as the barrels go; it's in the barn and in the trailer where she's work."

Brown wanted to give special thanks to Dr. Nelson Lewis of Red River Equine, Dr. Don Lee of Double X Equine, Lindz Sears Saddles and Formula 707-HorseLogic Professionals.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Do you have days/weeks/months when you feel as though the weight of the world is right smack dab on your shoulders? I'm sure we all do. And we all need words of encouragement to help us through it. So I'm going to pass along something that was said at church the other night. The gentleman said, "We have "daily skirmishes". A light bulb went off in my Spirit. I can WIN a skirmish! We all can...if we immediately declare our rights as children of God and get the promise on the problem right away! We shouldn't ever wait until whatever it is becomes all out war. War is costly, exhausting and there are casualties. I read somewhere that in Vietnam, the military had a saying. "Spray and pray." But in recent years, the saying is "ONE SHOT". Gave me goose bumps! As Christians, it only takes ONE SHOT of the Word to totally defeat the devil.

My friends, we are winners. Winners over every stinking thing the enemy brings to steal, kill and destroy us. Jesus came so we could have life and life abundantly! John 10:10. Praise God! So this week, don't let those molehills become mountains! Speak the Word immediately and get your victory in 'one shot'!
